2. Analogy is a truism, and Analogy in matters of Shariah is given credence in Islam. This is because Allah Almighty has explained His servants by means of an analogy that Oh you present day hypocrites and infidels because your evil beliefs and absurdities are like that of your predecessors in infidelity your end too will be like theirs - i.e. destruction. This is analogy indeed, that is to give a common order for a common cause. Say Allah Almighty: "Therefore, take heed. O you with your eyes". S59:V2 .

191. Good deeds benefit a person in this world, save him from calamities, increases his wealth and provides him with every honour. Says Allah Almighty: "And he who fears Allah, Allah will make a way for his deliverance. And will provide for him whence he expects no". (S65:V2-3) . In the Hereafter too they will be his saviour through which he will receive the bounties of Allah Almighty. Good will neither benefit the infidel in this world or in the Hereafter. From this we learn that prayers, incantations, talismans, etc of the infidels are not beneficial but rather wasteful.

brought to them bright evidence. We did not wrong them [195], but they were themselves unjust to their souls[196].

192. From this we learn to study authentic history for the purpose of getting lessons from it is an excellent form of worship. The Holy QUR'AAN provides authentic events of pious people and infidels for this very reason. This was the very purpose for enacting Urs of the pious saints and Meelad Shareef so that Muslims become aware of the blessed life of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and learn authentic details about these pious saints, which would enable them to rectify their beliefs.

193. By this is meant Namrood and his followers who despite their super strength were destroyed with just one stone. The power of Allah Almighty is such that he can destroy elephants through tiny swallow type birds.

194. By this is meant five colonies of the people of Hazrat Lut (on him be peace) Sadoom and the villages near it were turned upside down in such a way that the upper region came down and the lower region went up. Says Allah Almighty: "We turned the town upside down". (S11:V82) These colonies of the people of Aad, Thamrood and Lut were found by the Arabs enroute their journeys. The remains of their ruins were still there for the travellers to see and ponder but they seemed to be oblivious to their surrounds. So they had been ordered to ponder over what they were seeing and take a lesson from it.

195. By 'not befitting to Allah' means to punish them without any crime and send upon them punishment in excess to their own sins. It should be remembered that by injustice means to put to use some one elses thing without his permission. This definition does not fit Allah Almighty because everything in this world belongs to Him. Thus as this is the definition of the word injustice pertaining to Allah Almighty, He is without doubt, free and pure from it.

71. And the Muslim men and women are friends [197]. to one another. They encourage good and forbid evil, and establish prayer and pay the poor-due and obey Allah and His Messenger. These are they on whom Allah will have mercy [198], soon. Undoubtedly, Allah is Dominant, the Wise [199].

196. Every infidel is unjust because he is unlawfully using possessions of Allah Almighty without reallising that they themselves as well as their children and wealth all belong to Allah Almighty.

197. From this we learn that Muslims are friends and protectors of one another and what is said in: "Then no one will be your protector from Allah and no helper". S2:V120 means in opposition to Allah Almighty you do not have a friend or a helper. Thus Friend other then Allah Almighty is different from friend of Allah Almighty. Further, it should be remembered that this friendship between the believers is not cut after their death but continues. It is for this reason the living believers pray and convey reward of their good deeds to the souls of their deceased brothers. Says Allah Almighty: "And those who came after them". (S59:V10) Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) would always offer Qurbani sacrifice an animal on behalf of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Anyone who stops you from this is not acting according to his faith.

198. Allah Almighty has mercy upon the believers by saving them in the world from the guiles of the devil, safeguards their faith at the time of death, pours light in their graves and eases the answering of the question, on the Day of Judgement will place their book of deeds in their right hand the Scale which will make their good deeds heavier than the sinful deeds, and will make the reckoning of Qiyamah easier for them. These five bounties are due to the Five Daily Prayers as has been reported in traditions. (Roohul Bayaan)

199. To whom the Almighty gives no one can seize, and to whom He does not give no one else can give. The Prophets and Saints pray to Allah Almighty so that He may give to their devotees. No one can do anything through opposing Him.

72. Allah has promised Muslim men and women Gardens [200], under which rivers flow, wherein they shall reside forever, and clean houses [201], in the inhabitable gardens. And the pleasure of Allah is the greatest [202]. This is the achievement of the greater goal [203].

وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَ الْمُؤْمِنٰتِ
جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِىْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ
خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا وَ مَسٰكِنَ طَيِّبَةً فِىْ جَنّٰتِ

ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ ﴿٧٢﴾

200. Here believers refer to those believers whose end would be on faith. From this verse we learn that Faith is the only source of obtaining Paradise, even if the believer does not have good deeds. Good deeds are the first means of obtaining Paradise and high status in it. Sinful believer will eventually go to Paradise. Eternal stay in Hell is specifically for the infidels. The minor children of the believers are subordinates of their parents.

201. Those pearls which would be of red ruby, topaz, etc their excellence is beyond our imagination.

202. By this is meant the greatest bounty in Paradise would be Allah Almighty's total satisfaction with its inmates. He will never be angry with them. The pleasure of the beloved is a great bounty for the lover. It should be remembered that the pleasure of Allah Almighty and His blessed Vision would not be a reward of one's good deeds. This would be a special bounty bestowed by Allah Almighty. The sign of Allah Almighty's satisfaction in the world is that Allah's pious servants would be pleased with him and that he would be granted guidance to do good deeds. Whenever Allah Almighty is pleased with anyone He declares to the angels that He is pleased with this person and they too should be pleased with him. Thereafter his love is instilled in the hearts of all the inmates of the earth. Inclination of one's heart towards the pious servants of Allah Almighty is the sign of them becoming the beloveds of Allah Almighty.

203. By this is meant gaining a little pleasure of Allah Almighty is achievement of great success. May Allah Almighty bless us with this through His infinite bounty.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ جَاهِدِ الْكُفَّارَ وَالْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ وَاغْلُظْ عَلَيْهِمْ ؕ وَ مَاْوٰىهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ؕ وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿۷۳﴾

73. O Prophet, the Communicator[204]. of hidden news! Fight against the infidels and the hypocrites and be strict [205] with them. Their destination is Hell, what an evil place to return [206] to.

204. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should not be called by his name but through beautiful titles. If Allah Almighty does not call him by his name, then in what category are we to do so. Says Allah Almighty: "Make not the summoning of the Messenger among yourselves, like one calls the other among you". (S24:V63)

205. Here by infidels is meant combatant infidels. The war with the infidels is with the sword but with the hypocrites is harsh words and strong proofs. The sign of the believer is that he is soft with the believers but harsh with the infidels. May Allah Almighty grant us this. From this blessed verse all verses of showing kindness to them are abrogated. (Roohul Bayaan).

206. From this we learn that open and known infidels and hypocrites are equal in being inmates of Hell, although laws regarding them are different in their worldly lives.

74. They swear by Allah that they[207], said it not, but certainly they uttered the words of infidelity [208]. and became disbelievers after accepting Islam. And they had desired that which they could not get [209], and what they felt bad, that Allah and His Messenger had enriched [210] them with bounties. If they repent, it is good for them, and if they turn away their faces, then Allah will punish them with a severe punishment in the world and in the Hereafter. And on the earth they shall have neither any supporter nor any helper [211].

207. Reason for its revelation:
On the occasion of Battle of Tabuk when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم began to discuss about the ugly end that would come to the hypocrites, then one person named Jallaas said that if the Holy Porphet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is true then we are worse than donkeys. Hazrat Amir ibn Qays informed the Holy Prophet about this. When Jallaas was asked he swore an oath that he never said this: Hazrat Amir is falsely accusing me of this. At this Hazrat Amir took an oath that he was talking the truth, and solemnly prayed to Allah Almighty to verify the one who is talking the truth. In response to it this verse was revealed. It is reported that Jallaas later repented and became a sincere believer. KHAZAINUL IRFAAN

208. They utter words of infidelity by doubting the information given by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and described it with ifs and buts.

209. By this is meant after becoming Muslims outwardly they become outward infidels as well, because hypocrites were in truth infidels from before. Jallaas tried to kill Amir but did not succeed.

210. It is apparent that the pronominal suffix His in 'His grace' is connected with the word Messenger because Messenger is nearer to it. From it several issues emerge:

1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is so enriched that he can enrich others. Those who refer to him as poor is totally rude and wretched. If he says this with the inteniton of insult, he is an infidel. Says Allah Almighty: "And when He found you needy He enriched you". (S93:V8) Allah Almighty has already enriched him.

2. No one has any right over Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Whatever they have bestowed upon anyone it is out of their grace. The entire creation of Allah Almighty is totally dependent and needy of them;

3. It is perfectly correct to say Allah Almighty and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم bestow bounties and favour's.

4. The disobedient and faithless people become headstrong and rebellious after receiving the bounties of Allah Almighty and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

211. From this we learn that to be without friends and helpers is the lot of the infidels and hypocrites. Allah Almighty has appointed many helpers for the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is your friend and His Messenger and the believers". S5:V65

75. And of them there are some who had promised with Allah that if He will give us out of His Bounty, then We shall surely give in charity and we shall surely become good people.

وَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ عٰهَدَ اللّٰهَ لَئِنْ اٰتٰنَا مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ لَنَصَّدَّقَنَّ وَ لَنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾

76. Then , when Allah gave them out of His Bounty, they became misers and turned away, turning their faces [212].

فَلَمَّاۤ اٰتٰىهُمْ مِّنْ فَضْلِهٖ بَخِلُوْا بِهٖ وَ تَوَلَّوْا وَّهُمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿٧٦﴾

212. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding Thaalbah ibn Hatib who was first a poor man. He requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray that he becomes wealthy. In reply the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم told him that poverty was good for him. He took an oath that if he becomes wealthy he will express gratitude to Allah Almighty in abundance. So the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prayed for him. In response to this dua Allah Almighty granted so much blessing and abundance in his sheep that all of them could not be kept in Madina. Thaalbah then took them to the jungle which deprived him of congregational Salaah. He then denied the institution of Zakaat, and when Zakaat collector was sent to him by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to collect his Zakaat he told them that Zakaat is a severe tax. He will think about it then pay. This complaint of his was conveyed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thereafter he came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with his Zakaat but the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم refused to accept it. His Zakaat was subsequently rejected in the Caliphate of

77. Therefore after it, Allah put hypocrisy in their hearts, until the Day that they meet Him [213], that they had failed in what [214], they had promised to Allah, and that they were telling lies.

213. By this is meant until death, because after death no infidel nor any hypocrite would remain in the Barzakh world of graves all will accept faith but their faith would not be accepted. From this we learnt that the death of Thaalbah on hypocrisy and apostasy is certain and categorical. His going with Zakaat again and again too was hypocritical and not based on sincerety. It is for this reason the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the two Caliphs refused to accept that wealth. Had he presented it with sincere repentance it would certainly have been accepted because repentance from infidelity too is accepted.

ually died an apostate in the Caliphate of Hazrat Uthman May Allah be pleased with him .

214. This tells us at times some sins cause defeat in faith. We further learn to remember Allah Almighty in your poverty, to forget Him in your affluence, or fail to fulfil your promise and offering are all signs of hypocrisy. In addition the greatest punishment of Allah Almighty is to be deprived from piety and faith. Worldly tribulations are sometimes a blessing from Allah Almighty. We further learn that a promise to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a promise to Allah Almighty because Thaalbah had made a promise to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

78. Are they not aware that Allah knows the secret of their hearts and their whispers? And Allah knows of all hidden things [215].

اَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ سِرَّهُمْ
وَنَجْوٰىهُمْ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوْبِ ﴿۷۸﴾

215. This tells us that the one rejected by the Holy Prophet will never find peace and security anywhere.

79. Those who find fault with believers who give [216], charity willingly and those who get not [217], but with their hard labour, so they [218]. laugh at them. Allah will punish them for laughing and for them there is painful torment [219].

216.Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was impressing upon his noble Companions the importance of giving charity. On hearing this those Companions who brought great deal of wealth were called by the hypocrites as pretenders, while those who brought less wealth regarding them they said Allah Almighty is not in need of this wealth. This verse was revealed regarding them.

Marfat.com

217. From this verse present day Rafzis should take a lesson who attribute every worship of the noble Companions to hypocrisy and show. To blame and taunt the Companions is indeed work of the hypocrites.
218. Thus Hazrat Abu Aqeel Ansari on this occasion could only bring one SA'A approximately 4kg in weight of dates and said that through the entire night's effort he could manage to obtain two SA'AS of dates from which one SA'A be left at home and one SA'A he has brought before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم happily accepted it. This tells us that in the sight of Allah Almighty quantity of wealth does not count. By Him sincerety of the heart counts.
219. This tells us that to taunt and mock at the pious servants, to accuse them, etc is equal to opposing Allah Almighty, and without doubt Allah Almighty takes retribution on behalf of His pious servants.

80. Whether you ask [220]. for forgiveness for them or not it is the same . If you ask for forgiveness for them seventy times, Allah will never [221]. forgive them. This is because they have rejected [222]. Allah and His Messenger. And Allah guides not the disobedient people [223].

220. Until that time it was not prohibited to pray for forgiveness for the hypocrites. Thereafter prohibition came for this in the following: "And pray you never over their dead". (S9 : V84) Here the number is not restricted to seventy but much more is intended.
221. The reason for this non-forgiveness is being discussed in front, that they are the ones who deny Allah Almighty and His Beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and those who reject them Allah Almighty will not forgive them even when the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم out of his infinite universal mercy prays for them because Allah Almighty does not wish that the enemies of His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should enter paradise. In this act of non-forgiveness there is a tremendous expression of the lofty status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The love of the Beloved is spontaneous, but the demand of love of the friend is that the enemies of His Beloved should not be forgiven. Hence there is a big difference between offering a dua and taking a dua.

222. From this emerges two issues:
1. An infidel will not benefit from any persons prayer of forgiveness because his forgiveness is not possible.
2. To mock at the Noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and to reject any one of them is equal to rejecting the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and rejecting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is equal to rejecting Allah Almighty. Because these hypocrites had mocked at the Noble Companions, Allah Almighty had declared this as "They have rejected Allah and His Messenger".
223. Thereafter the hypocrites apologised to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for their forgiveness. At that point in time this entire verse was revealed. The Ulema (learned scholars) of Islam state that the repentance of that person who insults the dignity and honour of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not accepted in the court of law. (DURRE MUKHTAAR) It is possible that this verse could hint as a proof for this issue.

فَرِحَ الْمُخَلَّفُوْنَ بِمَقْعَدِهِمْ خِلٰفَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ وَكَرِهُوْٓا اَنْ يُّجَاهِدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَ اَنْفُسِهِمْ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ قَالُوْا لَا تَنْفِرُوْا فِي الْحَرِّ ؕ قُلْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ اَشَدُّ حَرًّا ؕ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿٨١﴾

81. Those who were left behind delighted at this, that they remained sitting behind [224], the Messenger and they did not like [225], that they may fight in the Way of Allah with their wealth and lives and said: "Come not[226] out in this heat". Please declare: "The fire of Hell is the hottest[227]!" In any manner they would have understood.

224. These hypocrites made some excuses and gleefully stayed away from the Battle of Tabuk. From this we learn that to express joy with pride at a sinful act is infideltiy, and to remain aloof from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his time of comfort and difficulty is beyond the dignity of the believer. Expressing joy at the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم happiness is part of Faith. "Therefore let them rejoice". (S10:V58)

225. From this we learn that the grace of Faith instills in one boldness to do good deeds, while infidelity and hypocrisy causes cowardice in a person. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that Esha and Fajr Prayers are extremely cumbersome upon the hypocrites. Says Allah Almighty: "We shall soon provide him hardship". (S92:V10) Anyone who feels good deeds to be cumbersome and evil deeds to be easy is a hypocrite. May Allah Almighty protect us from this. Amin....

226. On the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk the weather was very hot as well as the place of the battle. These words were uttered by the hypocrites at a time when the heat of time and place became intense.

227. Nothing will be able to extinguish the fire of Hell except two things: the tears of a believer which are shed in the fear of Allah Almighty and on the love of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or the dust from the body of a believer which accumulates on the body while being in the path of Allah Almighty eg. undertaking journey for Holy War, acquisition of knowledge, Hajj, etc. The author of Roohul Bayaan states that on the occasion of this Battle of Tabuk when Abu Khasheema returned from a journey in the afternoon he found cold water, hot bread and beautiful wives in his garden. Seeing this he began to say it is against the grain of justice that the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should be enduring the pain in the burning desert sand while I should be enjoying the comforts of the cold water and hot bread. Saying this he immediately departed in the very same conditon with a sword and presented himself at the blessed feet of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. These noble Companions are those people through whose sake millions of sinners like us would be granted forgiveness by Allah Almighty.

82. Let them laugh a little and weep [228] much, due to the retribution of what they earned.

228. Both these commands are of informational nature eg. the hypocrites will laugh a little in this world but cry a great deal in the Hereafter because laughing at the hardship of the believers is a severe sin for which how can there be a command. The inmates of Hell for thousands of years would cry first by shedding tears, then shedding blood until their eyes will become totally dry.

فَإِنْ رَّجَعَكَ اللّٰهُ إِلٰى طَآئِفَةٍ مِّنْهُمْ فَاسْتَاْذَنُوْكَ لِلْخُرُوْجِ فَقُلْ لَّنْ تَخْرُجُوْا مَعِيَ اَبَدًا وَّلَنْ تُقَاتِلُوْا مَعِيَ عَدُوًّا ؕ اِنَّكُمْ رَضِيْتُمْ بِالْقُعُوْدِ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ فَاقْعُدُوْا مَعَ الْخٰلِفِيْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾

83. Then if O Beloved Prophet Allah returns you to a party of them, and they ask you [229], leave to go forth to fight, then please declare: "Never will you go forth with me, nor ever fight [230], with any enemy of mine. You chose to sit at home the first time, then remain sitting with those who remained behind [231]".

229. By this is meant now when you return to Madina Munawwarah from the Battle of Tabuk these hypocrites would deceitfully be saying Oh Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم grant us permission to participate in future battles with you. In this there is a prophesy that they will be saying this, but expressed in ifs and buts.

230. This information is used to express refusal, meaning in future you will not be granted permission to participate in Holy War. From this emerges a few issues:

1. One should remain aloof from faithless people even though they may try to call themselves Muslims. Remember, every one who recites the Kalima is not necessary a believer. The hypocrites were reciters of the Kalima but they were refused permission to participate in The Holy War.
2. Muslims can stop the faithless people from praying in their mosques just as the hypocrites were stopped from participating in the Holy War, although Holy War, like Salaah is an act of worship.
3. Sometimes laws pertaining to apparent infidels are enforced upon the hypocrites. Not stopping these hypocrites from the mosques during the period of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the law of Islam in its outward form, while stopping them from Holy War is the law pertaining to their hidden infidelity.

231. By this is meant since you had preferred to stay away from the Battle of Tabuk you will now stay away from all future holy wars as you shall not be given permission to participate in them. From this we learn that wretched people will not be able to benefit from the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed company. A bat will never obtain light of the sun. However, those who are eager to receive blessings would continue to do so according to their capacity. Although power of electricity is same but its light is reflected according to watts of the globes. The blessed company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was same for all, but the capacity to receive blessings of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique, Hazrat Umar Farouk, etc was different.

وَلَا تُصَلِّ عَلٰٓى اَحَدٍ مِّنْهُمْ مَّاتَ اَبَدًا وَّلَا تَقُمْ عَلٰى قَبْرِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ وَمَاتُوْا وَهُمْ فٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

84. And you should not pray [232], nor should you stand over their graves. No doubt they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger and died while they were disobedient [233].

232. This verse serves as a proof for Salatul Janazah because performance of Salatul Janazah of infidels is being prohibited. This tells that Salatul Janazah of a believer is performed. Also, visiting the graves of infidels is prohibited but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was given permission to visit the grave of his mother Hazrat Bibi Amina which makes her a believer, though permission was not granted for offering prayer of forgiveness for her because she is sinless. We further learn that Salatul Janazah should not be offered of every one who professes to recite the Kalima.

233. Reason for its revelation:

When the notorious hypocrite, Abdullah bin Ubay died his son Abdullah requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to perform his Salatul Janazah and give his blessed shirt for him because this is what he had stipulated in his will. Also until that time there was no prohibition of performing Salatul Janazah of hypocrites. Also the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had prior knowledge that one thousand infidels would accept Islam due this benevolent act of his. Although Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) tried to dissuade the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from this, the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gave his blessed shirt and performed ibn Ubay's Janazah Salaah. This verse was revealed on that occasion. On seeing that even a wretch like ibn Ubay too desires blessings from the clothes of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم a thousand infidels accepted Islam. From this a number of issues emerge:

1. All blessed relics of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like his shirt, his blessed saliva, etc benefit the believers in the grave.
2. No holy relics will benefit the infidels and hypocrites in the Hereafter.
3. To place holy relics in the graves of believers with the view of obtaining relief from the punishment of the grave is not only permissible but is in accordance with the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم
4. Do not refrain form keeping holy relics with the deceased in the fear that they will beome stained with impurities of the corpse. We drink the holy water of Zam Zam knowing that after it reaches the stomach it changes to urine. Yet no one stops drinking it due to this fear. Thus from this verse and Hadith it is proven to shroud the corpse in Kafan and to bury him in the Ghilaaf covering of the Ka'bah.

وَلَا تُعْجِبْكَ اَمْوَالُهُمْ وَاَوْلَادُهُمْ ؕ اِنَّمَا يُرِيْدُ اللّٰهُ اَنْ يُّعَذِّبَهُمْ بِهَا فِي الدُّنْيَا وَ تَزْهَقَ اَنْفُسُهُمْ وَهُمْ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿٨٥﴾

85. Be not astonished over their wealth and children. Allah only intends to punish [234], them therewith in this world, and that they part with their souls while they are infidels [235].

234. That they should get engrossed in these matters in such a way that they would be unable to remember Allah Almighty. This tells any wealth or children which becomes an obstacle in the remembrance of Allah Almighty is unsound and bad.

235. By this is meant until death their total love for these things will not give them an opportunity to turn their attention to Allah Almighty. May Allah Almighty protect us from this evil

وَ اِذَآ اُنْزِلَتْ سُوْرَةٌ اَنْ اٰمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَجَاهِدُوْا مَعَ رَسُوْلِهِ اسْتَاْذَنَكَ اُولُوا الطَّوْلِ مِنْهُمْ وَقَالُوْا ذَرْنَا نَكُنْ مَّعَ الْقٰعِدِيْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾

86. And when any Surah is revealed commanding: "Believe in Allah and fight [236], in the company of His Messenger"; then those having the capability among them [237], ask leave of you and say: "Leave us to remain with those who sit behind [238]".

Marfat.com

236. On the basis of this verse some Ulema have stated that the status of holy war comes after faith, and that holy war is a worship of great excellence because Allah Almighty has mentioned it after Faith. But truth of the matter is that Salaah is the highest act of worship as holy war is made permissible for its establishment. This verse is for that special time when there was a great need for holy war.
237. This tells us that it is not prohibited for helpless people to abstain from holy war.
238. By this is meant give us permission to remain with those children, women, the sick and helpless people who were unable to participate in Jihad (holy war).

87. They like that they should remain with women left behind, and their hearts are sealed [239]. so that they understand nothing.

رَضُوْا بِاَنْ يَّكُوْنُوْا مَعَ الْخَوَالِفِ وَطُبِعَ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

239. By this is meant that even in future they would not accept Islam and this seal was placed on them due to their infidelity and hypocrisy.

88. But the Messenger and whoso believed [240], with him, fought with their wealth and lives. And it is them for whom there is good [241], and it is they who reach their goal.

لٰكِنِ الرَّسُوْلُ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مَعَهٗ جٰهَدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَاَنْفُسِهِمْ ۚ وَاُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمُ الْخَيْرٰتُ ۫ وَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

240. By this association of time and condition because the faith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is prior to the faith of creation and is greater in excellence to the faith of everyone else. Thus only conformity of faith is intended here, i.e they believed with such zeal and sincerety like our Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had believed. Bilqees had said: "And I had believed with Hazrat Sulaiman". This tells that our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the true test of faith. Anyone whose faith is in conformity with his would be regarded as correct, if it is contrary too his, it would be regarded as false and incorrect.
241. Virtues and benefit of this world, the grave, the Hereafter, are all included in it. From this we learn that there is excellence in the wealth and deeds of the Muslim soldier, and he is protected from the accountability and punishment of the grave the fears and pangs of death, and he shall gain high status in the Hereafter. There was so much blessings in the wealth of Hazrat Zubair ibn Awaam (May Allah be pleased with him) that after his martyrdom his will was settled from just one third of his entire wealth, then one eight of the estate was distributed amongst his four wives from which each received two hundred thousand coins.

89. Allah has prepared for them gardens under which rivers flow. They shall abide therein forever. This is the attainment of the supreme object [242].

اَعَدَّ اللّٰهُ لَهُمْ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا ۭ ذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ ﴿٨٩﴾ ع

242. From this emerges a few issues:
1. All the bounties of paradise are already created.
2. They have already been allocated to these who would be entitled to them. Thus on the Night of Ascension the Holy Prophet

Marfat.com

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had seen the gardens and palaces of his devotees in Paradise, after which he had informed some about it.

3. The inmates of Paradise will be given full ownership of their paradise. They will not be there like mere visitors or non-owners. Sure, they will be entertained like visitors.

SECTION 12

وَ جَآءَ الْمُعَذِّرُوْنَ مِنَ الْاَعْرَابِ لِيُؤْذَنَ لَهُمْ وَ قَعَدَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَبُوا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ ؕ سَيُصِيْبُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ۝٩٠

90. And there came excuse [243], makers from the villagers in order that leave may be granted to them. And those [244] who lied to Allah and His Messenger sat behind. Soon a painful punishment shall befall the infidels [245] among them.

243. By this is meant Amir ibn Tufail and the people of his group who had come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk and said that if they accompany the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on this battle the people of tribe of Tai will loot their homes. To this the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied that Allah Almighty will make me free of your need. My Lord has already informed me of your true condition. These people had lied to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

244. From this we learn that to lie to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is like telling a lie to Allah Almighty because these wretches had lied to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم yet Allah Almighty says they had lied to Him.

245. By this it means those from these hypocrites who will become open infidels they would be punished in this world with death and destruction, or those from these hypocrites will remain infidels until death, will be given painful punishment in the Hereafter. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse, because every hypocrite was secrectly an infidel.

لَيْسَ عَلَى الضُّعَفَآءِ وَ لَا عَلَى الْمَرْضٰى وَلَا عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَجِدُوْنَ مَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ حَرَجٌ اِذَا نَصَحُوْا لِلّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ ؕ مَا عَلَى الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ مِنْ سَبِيْلٍ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٩١

91. There is no fault [246], on the weak and on the sick and nor on those who are not capable [247], to spend, when they are sincere [248]. to Allah and His Messenger. There is no accountability on the doers of good. And Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

246. After the false excuse seekers, mention is now being made about those who were genuinely disabled. They are of three types: the old, the sick and those who had no military equipment. This tells us that battle for which a journey has to be undertaken was not obligatory on none of these three.

247. Some helpless Companions had made a request to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for riding animals so that they could also participate in the Jihad. Because there were no extra animals available there request was turned down at which these Companions went back in tears. This verse was revealed concerning them.

From this emerges a few issues:

1. It is permissible to seek assistance to fulfil one religious needs. Hence a helpless student can ask that much which would fulfil his needs. Like Holy War, seeking religious education too is an act of worship.

2. One should give in charity wealth saved in excess of ones needs, because these Companions had riding animals only for themselves to go on this battle which they could not give to these needy.
3. Any Jihad which necissitates a journey will only become obligatory if you have the means of travelling just as Hajj is obligatory on every resident of Makkah but only on those non-residents who possess the means to undertake the journey, not on the poor.

248. This tells being sincere to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is being sincere to Allah Almighty. Also, if anyone is unable to perform a good deed but is wholeheartedly sincere to those who are pious, he would be included among the pious, if Allah Almighty wills. The object of the verse is that those helpless Muslims who were unable to participate in the battle should remain in Madina Munawwarah in the sevive of the children of the Muslim soldiers to show their sincerety to Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

92. Nor on those who came to you that you may provide [249], conveyance to carry them to the battlefield . You said to them: "I have nothing whereon to mount [250]. you". So they returned back and their eyes overflowing with tears because of this grief that they could not find the means to spend [251].

وَّلَا عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ اِذَا مَآ اَتَوْكَ لِتَحْمِلَهُمْ قُلْتَ لَآ اَجِدُ مَآ اَحْمِلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ ۖ تَوَلَّوْا وَّ اَعْيُنُهُمْ تَفِيْضُ مِنَ الدَّمْعِ حَزَنًا اَلَّا يَجِدُوْا مَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ ﴿٩٢﴾

249. From this emerges two issues:
1. To beg from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a real honour for the believer.
2. To express regret at not doing good deeds is an act of worship.
250. Reason for its revelation:
Some Companions came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the intention of participating in the war. They requested travelling animals for this purpose but were told that since he had nothing available he could not give them anything. Hearing this they returned full in tears. This verse was revealed concerning them in which they are being told that their non-participation in the battle will not be censured. Remember the use of "I have nothing" is for the purpose of excuse, and not for rejecting the seeker. The word 'no' is for the purpose of turning down any one's request was never on the blessed tongue of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Hadith . This too should be remembered that here the use of 'I have nothing' is according to outward or apparent reason, otherwise, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the master of all Divine treasures. Says Allah Almighty "That Allah and his Messenger would make them rich with their blessings". (S9:V73) In this plea for excuse we are taught the way of excusing the Ummah. Hence the Deobandis and Wahabis cannot use this proof to say that the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not made master over all Divine bounties.
251. From this we learn that to express sorrow, to shed tears, etc. for not doing good deeds too is an act of worship. Likewise, to regret and cry after sinning too is an act of worship.

93. The accountability is only for those who ask leave of you and they are rich [252]. They liked to sit behind with the women [253], and Allah has sealed their hearts, so they know nothing.

اِنَّمَا السَّبِيْلُ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ يَسْتَاْذِنُوْنَكَ وَهُمْ اَغْنِيَآءُ ۚ رَضُوْا بِاَنْ يَّكُوْنُوْا مَعَ

الْخَوَالِفِ ۙ وَطَبَعَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٩٣﴾

252. This means they have power to possess travelling animals and military equipment. Having this type of wealth is a condition for that type of battle which is fought away from one's place. However, if Jihad becomes necessary in our own place or country. then it becomes obligatory upon the poor and destitute as well, provided they are healthy and have military equipment, whether their own or given by others.

253. This tells that Jihad is not compulsory upon women, but if they are needed on the battlefront, then it becomes obligatory upon them as well.

94. They will make excuses [254], to you when you will return to them [255]. Please declare: "Make no excuses. We will never believe [256]. you. Allah has already given your news [257]. to us". And now Allah and His Messenger will see your deeds, then you will be returned [258]. to Him Who knows all the unseen and seen. He will tell you what you did [259].

يَعْتَذِرُوْنَ اِلَيْكُمْ اِذَا رَجَعْتُمْ اِلَيْهِمْ ؕ قُلْ لَّا تَعْتَذِرُوْا لَنْ نُّؤْمِنَ لَكُمْ قَدْ نَبَّاَنَا اللّٰهُ مِنْ اَخْبَارِكُمْ ؕ وَسَيَرَى اللّٰهُ عَمَلَكُمْ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗ ثُمَّ تُرَدُّوْنَ اِلٰى عٰلِمِ الْغَيْبِ وَ الشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٩٤﴾

254. This means Oh Muslims! by the time you reach Madina Munawwara from the Battle of Tabuk, the hypocrites who had remained behind will be making false excuses for not going in an effort to convince and please you. In this there is a prophesy which proved true to the letter. Those hypocrites who had remained behind were more than eighty in number. (Roohul Bayaan .)

255. Here it is not said after you have returned, because some hypocrites had come with their excuses to the Muslim before they had returned to Madina Munawwarah. (Roohul Bayaan).

256. From this we learn it is absolutely not necessary to express anything about oneself in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Here pride will not avail you. The Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware about the true nature of every one.

When in his blessed presence do not boast but seek forgiveness. Do not be stubborn but offer repentance. May Allah Almighty give guidance! We further learn that it is a good act to offer repentence at the hands of the pious servants of Allah Almighty. Here these hypocrites were not censured for offering repentance but their false excuses.

257. From this emerges four issues:

1. The repentance of a practical sin should be obtained through doing a good act - mere verbal repentance would not be sufficient. Thus "will see your work" is used here - i.e. whether you will be participating in future battle or not. The repentance for refraining holy war is the participation in future wars.

2. To do good deeds for Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to see will not be regarded as RIYA or showing off. Every desire of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the desire of Allah Almighty.

3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is looking at our outer and inner deeds, because no restriction is effected here in respect of deeds. what is said here is all your outer and concealed deeds are seen by the Holy Prophet SAW.

4. Remembrance of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with Allah Almighty is permissible. You can say If Allah Almighty and HIs Beloved Rasool so please it will be done. Allah Almighty and Rasool have صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed us with faith, bestowed wealth upon us, etc.
258. During Qiyamah, Thus do good deeds and have good intentions because Allah Almighty is fully aware of everything open and concealed.
259. After warning and admonishing He will punish you. He will reveal in the open the evil deeds of the infidels and good deeds of the believers as is mentioned in other verses.

95. Now they will swear by Allah before you, when you will return [260]. to them in order that you may not mind [261]. of them. Yes, then mind them not [262]. They are completely unclean [263], and their destination is Hell as retribution of what they used to earn [264].

سَيَحْلِفُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ لَكُمْ اِذَا انْقَلَبْتُمْ اِلَيْهِمْ لِتُعْرِضُوْا عَنْهُمْ ؕ فَاَعْرِضُوْا عَنْهُمْ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ رِجْسٌ ۙ وَّمَاْوٰىهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ۚ جَزَآءًۢ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿٩٥﴾

260. From this we learn that the hypocrites and the misguided swear excessively on Almighty Allah's name to prove that they are Muslims. With the Praises of Allah Almighty, a believer is not required to do this.
261. Do not bother about them through bad words, do not divulge their hypocrisy.
262. By this is meant out of all socialisation with the hypocrites like talking, greeting, meeting, eating and drinking, keeping contacts, etc with them. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم instructed the believers to cut off all types of contacts with the hypocrites because there was no hope now of their reformation.
(Khazainul Irfaan) . It should be remembered that this expression and statements are not out of the pleasure but of extreme displeasure and contempt (Roohul Bayaan) From this we learn that we should stay completely aloof from the apostates and misguided, faithless people.
263. That they cannot become purified now through any water who had not been purified by the blessed gaze of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Thus now their disease of hypocrisy cannot be remedied in any way. Temporary impurity can be cleansed, but how can the permanent, inherent impurity be ever purified.
264. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Jad bin Qais, Motib bin Qasheer and their associates whose boycott had been decreed. Or it could be regarding the notorious hypocrite Abdullah ibn Ubay who had swore an oath to participate in future battles.

96. They swear before you that you may be pleased [265]. with them. But if you are pleased with them, then no doubt, Allah will not be pleased with disobedient people [266].

265. From this we learn tht the hypocrite does good deeds merely to please people, while the purpose of the believer is to do everything for the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty. RIYA doing good for show - is the sign of hypocrisy of action.
266. Here Muslims in general are being addressed in your approval of them on the bases of their false oaths is not going to benefit them in any way. Otherwise those with whom the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is pleased, Allah Almighty would most certainly be pleased with them. Says Allah Almighty:

97. They, being dwellers of the desert, are more stubborn [267], in infidelity and hypocrisy and they are only worthy of this that they remain ignorant [268].

اَلْاَعْرَابُ اَشَدُّ كُفْرًا وَّنِفَاقًا وَّ اَجْدَرُ اَلَّا يَعْلَمُوْا حُدُوْدَ مَآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِهٖ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٩٧﴾

267. This tells us knowledge and wisdom is found more in the cities than in the villages, while ignorance and lack of action about religious laws abounds in the villages. An Arabian proverb says: Knowledge is in the cities and ignorance is in the villages, because there you will not be blessed with the company of the educated.

268. Because the light of knowledge does not easily reach the rural areas, nor do you find any good company. From this we learn it is not prudent to appoint a Bedouin to the post of leadership (Roohul Bayaan .)

98. And among the villagers [269], some are those who regard what they spend in the way of Allah as fine [270], and remain waiting on misfortunes [271], coming to you. On them is the evil turn. And Allah, Hears, Knows.

وَ مِنَ الْاَعْرَابِ مَنْ يَّتَّخِذُ مَا يُنْفِقُ مَغْرَمًا وَّ يَتَرَبَّصُ بِكُمُ الدَّوَآئِرَ ؕ عَلَيْهِمْ دَآئِرَةُ السَّوْءِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٩٨﴾

269. It should be remembered that the residents of Arabia are called Arabs, while those who are found on its outskirts and in rural areas are called Bedouins. Here the word A'raab denotes Bedouins or villages.

270. By this is meant though these villagers do give charity and spend on pilgrimage they do so out of great care like tax. This tells us that only that charity is worthy of Divine acceptance which is given out of happiness.

271. This means they are waiting for Muslim power to decrease so that they can overpower them: Reason for its revelation: This verse was revealed regarding the villagers from the tribes of Asad, Ghatfaan and Tameem. In it there is a prophesy that misfortune will befall them, not you Oh believers. If they who would remain in bondage at all times. From this we learn that those who regard the pious sages of Allah Almighty with contempt will always remain in disgrace and misery, as has been experienced time and time again.

99. And among the villagers [272], some are those who believe in Allah and the Last Day [273], and regard what they spend as an approach [274]. to Allah and means of taking blessings of the Messenger. Yes, that is the means of such nearness [275]. to them to enter into His Mercy. Undoubtedly, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

وَ مِنَ الْاَعْرَابِ مَنْ يُّؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ وَ يَتَّخِذُ مَا يُنْفِقُ قُرُبٰتٍ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ وَصَلَوٰتِ الرَّسُوْلِ ؕ اَلَآ اِنَّهَا قُرْبَةٌ لَّهُمْ ؕ سَيُدْخِلُهُمُ اللّٰهُ فِيْ رَحْمَتِهٖ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٩٩﴾ ع ١٢ ١٠ ١

"Then follow me; Allah will love you". (S3:V31) From this we learn if Muslims trust the infidels as result of being deceived they will not be sinners, because here Muslims are not being censured.

Marfat.com

272. In this verse either the people of Banu Muzaniah are intendeor those of the tribes of Aslam, Ghaffar abd Juhaidah. From this we learn that only if the blessing of Allah Almighty is included, then only will those away from the Messenger of Allah Almighty receive benefits, otherwise even those near to him are deprived of it. Abu Jahl remained an infidel even though he was in Makkah while these people became believers, God-fearing and pious even though they remained distant from him. Praise be to Allah! By Allah Almighty only spiritual nearness is acceptable.

273. From this emerge two issues:

1. The one who truly believes in Allah Almighty and the Day of Judgement is he who has believed in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because the other primitive villagers also had belief in Allah Almighty and the Day of Judgement, but they have been included among the rejectors.

2. Faith has precedence above every deed. Faith is the root, good deeds are its branches. It should be remembered that all aspects of belief is included in belief in Allah Almighty and the Day of Judgement. Thus Qiyamah, Paradise, Hell, resurrection, reckoning, etc. should all be included in the belief eg. when we say it is important to recite Surah Fateha in Salaah it is meant not just Al-Hamdo but the entire Surah has to be recited.

274. From this we learn that it is no polytheism when one intends pleasure of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the pleasure of Allah Almighty at the time of doing good deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "But the rights of Allah and His Messenger are greater to seek pleasure". (S9:V62) When giving charity the noble Companions whould make intention of pleasing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In this verse there is a proof concerning Iesaale Sawaab - conveying the rewards of good deeds to the departed souls - and holding Fateha i.e. requesting Allah Almighty to convey the rewards of the good deeds to the departed souls through the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This is what is done and said in respect of Fateha when conveying rewards or charity, etc. Today too the receiver of charity should pray for the giver of charity.

275. In this verse information is being given about the acceptance of their charities. This tells us that no Muslim can ever reach the lofty status and position of a Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Receipt of acceptance of their pious deeds has come form t he Divine Throne. We on the other hand do not know whether our good deeds are accepted by Allah Almighty.

SECTION 13

100. And the first and the foremost emigrants and helpers [276], and those who followed [277], them with good, Allah is pleased with them [278]. and they are pleased with Allah. And for them Allah has prepared Gardens under which rivers flow. This is the greatest success [279].

Among the men it was Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) , among the children it was Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) .

From this we learn that being amongst early Muslim is indeed a praiseworthy quality, and to rally behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his time of need is worthy of great excellence.

277. By this is meant all those Muslims until the Day of Judgement who would be following in the footsteps of the Muhajareen and Ansaars or the rest of the other Companions, Allah Almighty is pleased with all of them. However, the former i.e. the noble Companions, are leaders and guides, the latter i.e. the general Muslims, are the followers.

278. From this emerge three issues:

1. Only those Muslims until the Day of Judgement are on the path of Truth whose lives are designed on the footsteps of the steps of the Ansaar, the Muhajereen and the rest of the noble Companions. Thus the Rafzees and Khawarij are false.
2. One can say May Allah be pleased with him for every pious Sunni believer. These words are not restricted to the noble Companions only.
3. When Allah Almighty is pleased with the devotees of the Noble Companions, then imagine the extent of Almighty Allah's pleasure with the Noble Companions themsleves.

279. Through this certain issues come to light

1. Every noble Companion is upright and just, inmates of Paradise None of them was a sinner or transgressor.
2. No believer can ever reach the lofty status of a Companion because Allah Almighty has already declared them to be inmates of Paradise.
3. Any historical event or tradition which attempts to prove their transgression is bareles and contemptuous because it is in conflict of this verse. The Noble Companions number one hundred and twenty four thousand from whom special mention is made of the excellent qualities of some, though this verse serves to cover the excellence of all of them, as is the case with the Prophets of Allah Almighty.

101. And some villagers around you are hypocrites and some of the dwellers of Madina [280], too. Hypocrisy [281]. has become the habit. You know them not; We know them [282]. We will soon punish them twice [283]. Then they will be returned to a grievous torment.

وَمِمَّنْ حَوْلَكُمْ مِّنَ الْاَعْرَابِ مُنٰفِقُوْنَ ۛ وَ
مِنْ اَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ ۛ مَرَدُوْا عَلَى النِّفَاقِ ۫
لَا تَعْلَمُهُمْ ؕ نَحْنُ نَعْلَمُهُمْ ؕ سَنُعَذِّبُهُمْ
مَّرَّتَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُرَدُّوْنَ اِلٰى عَذَابٍ عَظِيْمٍ ۚ﴿۱۰۱﴾

ع ۱۵ وقف لازم

280. Although Madina refers to every city in Arabic but here it specifically refers to Madina Munawwarah. When this word is used it denotes people in the city. This blessed city has many names like Madina, Tayyiba, Tabah, Batha. It is prohibited to call this city Yathrab.

281. By this is meant many hypocrites were staying in nearby villages of Madina Munawwarah which included the tribes of Jahniyyah, Muazeena, Aslam, Ashja, Ghaffar, etc. (Roohul Bayaan) .

282. In this there is no negation of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم knowledge but it is an expression of wrath, like how a ruler would speak to his friend about a criminal that you don't know this evil and wicked person like I do. Or, this verse could have been revealed before knowledge about the hypocrites was made known to them. Hence this verse is not contradicted. "And you would recognize by their speech". (S47:V30) .

283. We will punish them in the world and in their grave, thereafter in the Hereafter. In comparison to the punishment of the Hereafter these two punishments are less severe. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse. On one Friday the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم expelled some hypocrites from the mosque by name. This embarrassment and disgrace too was a punishment for them.

وَ اٰخَرُوْنَ اعْتَرَفُوْا بِذُنُوْبِهِمْ خَلَطُوْا عَمَلًا صَالِحًا وَّ اٰخَرَ سَيِّئًا ؕ عَسَى اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّتُوْبَ عَلَيْهِمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

102. Are there some others who acknowledge their sins and mix up a good deed with another [284]. evil? It is near that Allah may accept their repentance [285]. No doubt, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful.

284. Here evil deeds denotes abstention from the Battle of Tabuk.

285. Reason for its revelation:
This blessed verse was revealed regarding those sincere believers who were unable to participate in the Battle of Tabuk for which they repented with great remorse, so much so that some of them had even tied themselves to pillars saying they would not have themselves freed until the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not untie them with his blessed hands. When the Messenger of Allah Almighty heard this he said "By Allah I will not untie them until Allah does not order their freedom". In response to it this verse was revealed and the Holy Propeht untied them. After being untied they said that Oh Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it is this wealth of ours which becomes the cause of our errors. We want you to accept it as charity and pray to purify us. As a result the following verse. "Oh beloved, realise the poor due Zakaat out of their wealth". (S9:V103) was revealed Khazainul Irfaan .

103. O Beloved Prophet! Realize [286], the poor-due out of their wealth, to purify [287] and clean them. And pray for them [288]. No doubt, your prayer is a solace [289] for their hearts. And Allah Hears, Knows.

286. And distribute it among the poor with your blessed hands so that through the touch of your bounteous hands their charity could be accepted with greater favour. It was the practise of the Noble Companions to have their charities distributed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Even today the practice of the Muslims is to first present the rewards of their good deeds as a gift to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and then it is conveyed to the souls of others which is proven from this verse. In Panjab some recite verses and address a certain saint saying the reward of this recitation is yours, but would it be possible to convey it to so and so. The permissibility of it too is proven from this verse. In short, every believer is totally dependent on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

287. From this it is understood that purity is obtained from the bounteous attention of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Acts of worship are a means of obtaining this favourable attention, because what is said here is purify them Oh my Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم through this charity of theirs. We further learn that Allah Almighty bestows bounties upon His servant through the prayer of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Therefore it was said: 'pray for them'.

288. Some commentators of the Holy QUR'AAN have deduced proof of Salatul Janazah form this verse. (Roohul Bayaan)

289. This tells us that the blessed personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم his bountiful prayers, are the peace of mind of a believer.

اَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهٖ وَ يَاْخُذُ الصَّدَقٰتِ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿۱۰۴﴾

104. Are they not aware that only Allah accepts the repentance of His devotees and takes the charities in His authoritative [290]. Hand Himself? And that is Allah Who is the Relenting, the Merciful [291].

290. Thus no one should despair from the mercy of Allah Almighty. It should be remembered the repentance of different sins takes different forms. The repentance from infidelity is to accept faith. If human rights have been infringed, its repentance is to fullfil the rights or seek forgiveness from the rightful person. If religious duties have been omitted, their repentance would be to perform these duties. If repentance is made by complying with its conditions then it would certainly be accepted. This is the promise of Allah Almighty. From this a few issues emerge:

1. Offering repentance by presenting oneself at the holy shrine of the Beloved Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the best form of its acceptability.

2. That charity which is distributed through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is most superior. The Noble Companions had made this their practice.

291. The jurists of Islam maintain that the repentance of the one who insults the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be accepted. What this means is the Islamic judges cannot forgive such wretches. Such a person according to the laws of Shariah would be punished by death. Therefore the juristic issue is not contradicting this blessed verse because in it mention is being made of acceptance of repentance by Allah Almighty, like acceptance of repentance of the one who repeatedly becomes an apostate.

105. And please declare: "Work on, Allah will behold your work and so does His Messenger and the Muslims [292]. And you will soon be returned to Him Who Knows all unseen and visible. Then He will inform you what you used to do.

292. The pious saints state anyone practices incantations in a closed room Allah Almighty makes it known to others (Roohul Bayaan) . It is for this reason that good deeds and practices of the saints to this day are well known and people are singing their praises, even though they have departed from this mundane world centuries ago. Thereafter follows discussion of the evil doers.

106. And the actions of some others have been deferred [293], to Allah's commandment, whether He may punish [294]. them or may accept their repentance. And Allah is All Knowing, All Wise.

293. These are some of the people who had absented from the Battle of Tabuk. It should be remembered that three groups of people had absented themselves from the Battle of Tabuk:

Marfat.com

1 - Hypocrites putting up lame excuses; 2 - those sincere believers who immediately sought repentance; 3 - those who repented afterwards. In this verse reference is made to the third group.
294. By not accepting their repentance i.e. not giving them guidance to offer sincere repentance. From this we learn that like dua, repentance too sometimes takes time to be accepted, for which there are several reasons based on Divine wisdom. The repentance of Hazrat Ka'b bin Malik, etc was accepted after much delay.

107. And those who have built a mosque in order to commit mischief and spread infidelity [295], and to cause dissension [296], among Muslims, and as an ambush for him who is already against Allah [297]. and His Messenger from before. And they will surely swear that we desired only good. And Allah bears witness that they are certainly liars [298].

295. Some hypocrites of Madina Munawwarah built a mosque near Masjide Quba with the intention of decreasing the congregation at this blessed mosque. Also, their evil intention was that whenever the sinful priest Abu Amir came secretly to Madina Munawwarah he should inwardly plot against the Muslims, but outwardly tell the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that we have built this mosque for the convenience of the old and the sick. He even requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to perform one Salaah in it to bless the mosque. Allah Almighty stopped His beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم form doing this. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then gave order to demolish this mosque.According to this it was demolished and burned. From this we learn that one should not perform Salaah in unlawful mosques.

296. So that those who came to Masjide Quba to perform their Salaah should become disunited, so that some Muslims should go to their mosque thereby decreasing the congregation in Masjide Quba.
297. By this is meant they should gather in this mosque of theirs to plot against Islam - so to say - it was to be a mosque during the day, and committee house at night.
298. From it this issue can also be deduced that without any valid religious reason one should not build another mosque in close proximity of an existing mosque as this can cause the first mosque to be deserted. We further learn that mosques should not be built for the purpose of conspiring against one another as such a mosque too would be considered under the law of Masjid e Diraar.

108. You never enter [299]. that mosque. No doubt, the mosque whose foundation has been laid on righteousness [300], from the very first day, is worthy that you may stand therein. There are such people who desire to be well purified [301]. and Allah loves the pure [302].

لَا تَقُمْ فِيْهِ اَبَدًا ؕ لَمَسْجِدٌ اُسِّسَ عَلَى التَّقْوٰى مِنْ اَوَّلِ يَوْمٍ اَحَقُّ اَنْ تَقُوْمَ فِيْهِ ؕ فِيْهِ رِجَالٌ يُّحِبُّوْنَ اَنْ يَّتَطَهَّرُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُطَّهِّرِيْنَ ۝١٠٨

299. From this we learn that we should not perform Salaah in the mosques of infidels, hypocrites, apostates, etc which are endowed properly as they are not Islamic mosques, nor is their endowment religiously correct. These would not be given the respect of mosques. If any infidel grants a large sum of money to a believer who then builds a mosque out of that money it would be permissible to do that because that believer is now the owner of that money, and change of ownership brings about a change in the law. It is stated in Tafseer Madaarik if any mosque is built for the sake of pride, showing off, etc and not for gain ing the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty, or built with unlawful money, it would also be regarded like Masjide Diraar. As far as possible mosques should be built in a spirit of sincerety and out of lawfully earned money.

300. By this is meant Masjide Quba which is situated in the old section of Madina, about three miles out of the modern city. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself laid the foundation of this mosque and until the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم stayed there, he continued to perform his Salaah in it Then after moving to the new Madina he would go to Masjide Quba every Saturday. In. Hadith Shareef it is stated that performing Salaah in Masjide Quba is equal to one Umrah. Some scholars say that this order is for Masjide Nabawi. However, the first saying holds greater strength.

301. From this we have gleaned that the mosque of the pious has greater excellence than other mosques because regarding the greatness of Masjide Quba it is said that it is inhabited by pure people.

302. Reason for its revelation:

This blessed verse was revealed in honour of the people of Masjide Quba. On its revelation the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم questioned the people therein about their state of purity because Allah Almighty has praised the state of Taharah. They replied that they first made Istinja to clean oneself after relieving oneself in the toilet with clay then with water. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم approved their method. The author of Khazainul Irfaan states that to make Istinja with clay is the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet which he never discarded. If impurity spreads more in size then a dracham coin it will become obligatory to wash it with water, if less it is Mustahab to wash.

109. Then is he better who laid the foundation upon the fear of Allah and His Pleasure [303], or he who laid his foundation on the brink of a falling pit [304], and then fell with [305], in the fire of Hell? And Allah does not give way to unjust [306]. people.

أَفَمَنْ أَسَّسَ بُنْيَانَهُ عَلٰى تَقْوٰى مِنَ اللّٰهِ وَ رِضْوَانٍ خَيْرٌ أَمْ مَّنْ أَسَّسَ بُنْيَانَهُ عَلٰى شَفَا جُرُفٍ هَارٍ فَانْهَارَ بِهٖ فِيْ نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿١٠٩﴾

303. Foundation of one's faith, one's deeds or of this mosque. This refers to the Ansars of Masjide Quba. From this we learn that their piety and God-fearing has been testified by the Holy QUR'AAN, and that these people built this mosque in a spirit of sincerety which was accepted by Allah Almighty. Now if anyone doubts their faith and piety is rejecting this verse.

304. Admission of their faith, or of their outward Salaah and fasting or that of Masjide Diraar. This refers to those hypocrites who had been responsible for the building of Masjide Diraar.

305. Allah Almighty be praised! What a beautiful companion! The purpose of it is to show that all the deeds of the hypocrites are like the hollow structure of Masjide Diraar which is constructed on ground cut from beneath the sea. Such a ground with its structure are bound to cave into the sea. The mosque of the hypocrites and the hypocrites themselves are like those which would cave into the fire of Hell. Hazrat Jabr (May Allah be pleased with him) says when this mosque was being demolished at the instruction of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . I saw smoke of Hell emanating from it. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) .

306. From this we learn one should not accept a person's piety merely from his sweet talk and outward piety. All that glitters is not gold.

لَا يَزَالُ بُنْيَانُهُمُ الَّذِیْ بَنَوْا رِیْبَةً فِیْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ تَقَطَّعَ قُلُوْبُهُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِیْمٌ حَكِیْمٌ ﴿۱۱۰﴾

110. The building, which they have built, will continue to waver [307], in their hearts until their hearts may be cut [308]. into pieces. And Allah is All Knowing, Wise.

307. By this is meant the hypocrites will feel the sorrow of demolition of this mosque until death, whether they die a natural death or whether they get killed.

308. This really means that these hypocrites will feel the pain of demolition of this mosque until their hearts are not crushed from the embarassment of their hypocrisy and they do not become sincere believers. This tells that faith and sincerety are the cure for infidelity and hypocrisy. We further learn that inherent wretchedness is not removed, even from the company of a Prophet. If this cannot remove it then what else can. Furthermore, one has to remove the real cause of mischief, even if it presents itelf in a beautiful image: This building of the hypocrites though was in a form of a mosque, was the root cause of mischief hence it had to be demolished. However if mischief takes root in a good place then remove the cause, but not the good place.

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ اشْتَرٰی مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِیْنَ اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَ اَمْوَالَهُمْ بِاَنَّ لَهُمُ الْجَنَّةَ ؕ یُقَاتِلُوْنَ فِیْ سَبِیْلِ اللّٰهِ فَیَقْتُلُوْنَ وَ یُقْتَلُوْنَ ۫ وَعْدًا عَلَیْهِ حَقًّا فِی التَّوْرٰىةِ وَ الْاِنْجِیْلِ وَ الْقُرْاٰنِ ؕ وَ مَنْ اَوْفٰی بِعَهْدِهٖ مِنَ اللّٰهِ فَاسْتَبْشِرُوْا بِبَیْعِكُمُ الَّذِیْ بَایَعْتُمْ بِهٖ ؕ وَ ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِیْمُ ﴿۱۱۱﴾

111. Surely Allah has purchased [309], from the believers their lives and their properties for this in return, that for them is Paradise [310]. as they fight in the way of Allah. Then they kill and are killed. There is true promise as His generous responsibility in the Tauraat and the Injeel and the QUR'AAN [311]. And who is true to his word than Allah? Rejoice [312], then in your bargain, which you have done with Him. And it is this which is the greatest triumph [313].

309. From this we learn that between slave and master transaction is permissible, because Allah Almighty had made a deal with His servants. Reason for its revelation: At the time of taking an oath of Islam some Ansaars had said Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم you lay down any conditions concerning you and Allah Almighty, we will remain firm on them. In response the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said that the condition concerning Allah Almighty is that you should not worship anyone besides Him, while condition concerning myself is that whatever you do not like for yourself you should not like for me as well. They asked "What will we receive for carrying out these conditions"? The reply was "Paradise" To this they said that this was a very profitable bargain. This verse was revealed on the above occasion. (Roohul Bayaan) .

310. Hence every believer should be prepared and willing for taking part in Jihad so that he can be entitled for Paradise. From this we learn that a Muslim soldier today too is possessor of Paradise, on the Day of Judgement he will take ownership of it.

311. From this we learn that Jihad was commended in the religions of Hazrat Moosa and Hazrat Isa (on them be peace) and this promise was made to all the soldiers.

312. And if one gets the opportunity of participating in Holy War then go for it with such happiness like a groom goes to his bridal procession. Hazrat Daraar bin Azdar (May Allah be pleased with him) would joyously participate in Jihad without any armour in the hope of being martyred. Even today too some Muslim before going for Jihad take a Ghusal, wear their best clothes, apply perfume (Itr) to their body and joyously go like with the same happiness they express on the day of Eid. This is done in accordance with the above blessed verse.

313. What greater success can there be then when Allah Almighty Himself becomes our purchaser purchasing our life which is given to us by Him. He Himself gives and He Himself purchases it. This tell us that it is an excellent thing to express joy at the bounty of Allah Almighty.

112. They are those who repent [314], who worship, who praise, who observe fasting, who bow, who prostrate, who enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil and who keep the limits [315]. of Allah. And let this be a glad tiding for the believers.

اَلتَّآئِبُوْنَ الْعٰبِدُوْنَ الْحٰمِدُوْنَ السَّآئِحُوْنَ الرّٰكِعُوْنَ السّٰجِدُوْنَ الْاٰمِرُوْنَ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَ النَّاهُوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَ الْحٰفِظُوْنَ لِحُدُوْدِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَ بَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

314. By this is meant these people too are entitled for Paradise. If any believer does not get the opportunity to participate in Jihad he should engage himself in the worship of Allah Almighty (Roohul Bayaan). From this we learn that Repentance takes priority over every type of worship.

315. The above mentioned good deeds are signs of a sincere believer. It is not sufficient of a believer to be just pious himself, but it is important for him to try and make others pious as well. Also, the work of propagation is not only obligatory upon the Ulema Islamic scholar but upon every believer as understood from "Forbid". Furthermore, a believer should practice every good deed and abstain from all types of major and minor sins as understood from "watch". Sometimes just a drop of water can save a life and sometimes a tiny flame can burn the whole house. Do not omit any good deed thinking it to be minor and do not commit any sin thinking it to be trivial.

113. It is not worthy for the Prophet and the believers to beg forgiveness [316], for the polytheists even though they are relatives [317],

مَا كَانَ لِلنَّبِيِّ وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْۤا اَنْ يَّسْتَغْفِرُوْا لِلْمُشْرِكِيْنَ وَ لَوْ كَانُوْۤا اُولِيْ قُرْبٰى after it has been made clear to them that they are the inmates of Hell [318].

مِنۢ بَعۡدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمۡ اَنَّهُمۡ اَصۡحٰبُ الۡجَحِيۡمِ ﴿۱۱۳﴾

316. Reason for its revelation:
At the time of his death when Hazrat Abu Talib did not recite Kalimah Tayyibah the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم assured his uncle that he would continue to pray for his forgiveness until he is prohibited from doing this. At that time this verse was revealed. Hazrat Abu Talib died during the tenth year of Prophethood, viz. three years prior to Hijrah. some believers sought permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for the forgiveness of their non-believing predecessors, in response to which this verse was revealed. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sought permission from Allah almighty to visit the grave of his mother Bibi Amina it was granted, but he was prohibited from offering prayer of forgiveness when this verse was revealed. However this saying regarding his mother is incorrect because his mother was a believer. If she was an infidel permission to visit her grave would not have been given. Prohibition for prayer of forgiveness was made because she was totally sinless, while forgiveness is sought for the sinful people. It is for this reason dua of forgiveness is not made in the Janazah Salaah of a minor. Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) had offered a dua that Oh my Lord, from my progeny bring forth one Muslim group from which the Final Prophet should be born" Lord send a Messenger who may recite your wisdom". From this we learn that it is forbidden to say on whom be peace, 'one having divine mercy', etc for infidels and polytheists who are deceased.

317. By relatives is meant parents and family members.
318. They are men of hell because they have died as infidels.. It should be remembered that any polytheist at the time of his death was not a Muslim had died an infidel. Hence he is not bound by laws of Islam, though Allah Almighty alone is aware of his actual condition eg. anyone remaining a Muslim at the time of his death, is a sign of him dying a believer, though we are not aware of his eventual end. This is what the verse is expounding.

114. And Ebrahim asking for forgiveness for his father was not but an account of a promise [319], he had made to him [320]. But when it was made clear to him that he is an enemy [321], of Allah, he disassociates [322]. himself from him. No doubt, Ebrahim was most tenderhearted, clement [323].

وَ مَا كَانَ اسۡتِغۡفَارُ اِبۡرٰهِيۡمَ لِاَبِيۡهِ اِلَّا عَنۡ مَّوۡعِدَةٍ وَّعَدَهَاۤ اِيَّاهُ ۚ فَلَمَّا تَبَيَّنَ لَهٗۤ اَنَّهٗ عَدُوٌّ لِّلّٰهِ تَبَرَّاَ مِنۡهُ ؕ اِنَّ اِبۡرٰهِيۡمَ لَاَوَّاهٌ حَلِيۡمٌ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

319. Reason for its revelation:
On one occasion when Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) saw a person offering dua of forgiveness for his polytheist father he stopped him. On hearing this the person that replied Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) had also prayed for the forgiveness of his polytheist uncle: "May my Lord forgive you". Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) related this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and in response this blessed verse was revealed. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan .)
320. By this is meant that Hazrat Ebrahim on whom be peace had promised his father to pray for his forgiveness which was made prior to its prohibition. Later offering prayer of forgiveness for the polytheists was prohibited. Or, it could mean his uncle promised to accept faith at which he promised to pray for his forgiveness. Though his uncle did not fulfill his promise, but Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) did.

321. Or it could be that Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) received revelation that Azar would die an infidel, or that he had died an infidel, after which the great Prophet discontinued to pray for his forgiveness.

322. By this is meant Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) discontinued praying for his forgiveness and became sincerely repugnant. This tells us that we must dislike the infidels, even though they may be our close relatives.

323. This tell us that Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) is a paragon of beauty and goodness, that he was not severe even on his enemy. Hazrat Nooh and Hazrat Moosa (on them be peace) are paragon of awe inspiring qualities.

وَ مَا كَانَ اللّٰهُ لِيُضِلَّ قَوْمًا بَعْدَ اِذْ هَدٰىهُمْ حَتّٰى يُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ مَّا يَتَّقُوْنَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِكُلِّ شَیْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

115. And it is not the attribute of Allah that he should lead astray [324], any people after He has guided them, until He makes clear to them as to what to guard [325]. against. Surely, Allah Knows everything [326].

324. By this is meant punish them by including them amongst those who are gone astray. From this we learn that for those who had departed before the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the belief in the unity of Allah Almighty was sufficient, eg the parents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

325. From this we learn that the demented and minor children are not bound by religous laws. An adult too is not bound by these laws to whom the message of Islam is not conveyed. Normal people who commmit any wrong deeds besides polytheism will not be called misguided, nor should they be held responsible these wicked deeds (Roohul Bayaan) . Anything which not made unlawful by Religion is lawful, and its doers will not be punished for these actions. (Khazainul Irfaan .)

326. Reason for its revelation:
When Muslims were prohibited from praying for the forgiveness of the polytheists they became alarmed that their previous prayers prior to this prohibition may become a source of punishment for them. To their fears this verse was revealed.

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ يُحْيٖ وَيُمِيْتُ ؕ وَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ وَّلِيٍّ وَّ لَا نَصِيْرٍ ﴿۱۱۶﴾

116. Assuredly, it is Allah for Whom is the Kingdom of the heavens and earth. He gives life and causes death. And you have no protector, nor helper besides Allah [327].

327. This address is based on truth i.e. besides Allah Almighty no one is the actual master of the heavens and the earth, nor is any true help besides Him. Figuratively speaking, some persons do become owners, and through the bounty Allah Almighty become helpless as well. Thus, this verse does not contradict the verse: "No one is your friend except Allah, as well as His Messenger". S5:V55 some of them were nearly to be swerved [329]. aside. Then He turned [330]. towards them with blessings. Undoubtedly, to them He is Most Kind, Merciful [331].

328. By difficult moment is meant the Battle of Tabuk which is also known as the battle of difficulty and hardship. At the time of this battle there was so much poverty that ten Companions were riding a single camel turn by turn, a person was helping himself on a single piece of date for the whole day. Despite these hardship all the soldiers remained steadfast with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for rain to which Allah Almighty responded by sending rain which provided plentiful water. (Khazainul Irfaan) This tells that all those who participated in the Battle of Tabuk are inmates of Paradise without any doubt. Anyone who doubts it is denying the truth of this verse.

329. And due to fear abandon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This fear was due to human instinct and not due to impatience.

330. Allah Almighty turned towards them by keeping them steadfast and protected their sincerety and loyalty.

331. This tells the intention of sin will not be regarded as sin until it is not firmly resolved.

وَّ عَلَى الثَّلٰثَةِ الَّذِيْنَ خُلِّفُوْا ؕ حَتّٰۤى اِذَا ضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْاَرْضُ بِمَا رَحُبَتْ وَ ضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ اَنْفُسُهُمْ وَظَنُّوْۤا اَنْ لَّا مَلْجَاَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ اِلَّاۤ اِلَيْهِ ؕ ثُمَّ تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَتُوْبُوْا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿۱۱۸﴾ ع

118. And to the three who were left behind [332], so much so that the earth, being so vast, became strait [333], to them and they became tired of their own lives [334], and they believed that there is no refuge from Allah, except Him. Then He turned to them to forgive, that they might remain repenting. Surely, it is Allah Who is Relenting, the Most Merciful.

332. These three persons Hazrat Ka'ab bin Malik, Hazrat Hilal bin Umayyah and Murarah bin Rabi May Allah be pleased with them were unable to participate in the Battle of Tabuk but like the polytheists, did not make excuses after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had returned, instead they admitted their fault. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gave order for their total boycott - i.e. no one was to keep any type of contact with them, not even reply their greetings, so much so that they could not even go near their wives. After this order it had seemed as if no one recognised them. They spent fifty nights in this condition after which their repentance was accepted. Mention is being made here of this incident.

333. And they did not find any spacious ground in Madina where they could have rested for a while.

334. Because, Oh my Beloved, they are saddened for displeasing you. To make matters worse there is no one to whom they could express their sad tale. From this three issues emerge:

1. Boycott is an excellent corrective measure for those who err. When Allah Almighty had cenuered Hazrat Adam On whom be peace He had cut off verbal contact with him. On one occasion our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too had cut off contact with his pious wives for a few days. We too are instructed: "Cut off contact with your wives for a few days as a corrective measure" (S4:V24)

2. Allah Almighty has granted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم complete mastery over religious matters, thus he could make anything lawful or unlawful as he pleased. To reply the greeting is obligatory, but during the days of boycott replying Hazrat Ka'ab's greeting had become forbidden. Although Hazrat Ka'ab's wife was legally in his marriage, she was unlawful for him during this period.

3. To stay in Madina is an act of worship as long as the Beloved of Madina صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is pleased with you. On the occasion of the Battle of Tabuk Muslims were forbidden to stay in Madina and were obligated to be at the battlefield of Tabuk. If Allah's Messenger so wills he will make our hearts Madina, and if he is angry with us then the ground of Madina will no longer remain for us. Oh Allah Almighty send choicest Darood and Salaams on our Beloved leader Hazrat Muhammad and his noble progeny and beloved Companions.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَ كُوْنُوْا مَعَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۹﴾

119. O believers! Fear Allah and be with the truthful [335].

335. This tells in which ever group Allah Almighty's friends are found, it is in the path of Truth as it is the group of the Truthful. Only that branch will be laden with fruit and of flowers which is connected with the root. This group is only the Ahle Sunnat Wal Jama'at.

Observe! thousands of saints of Allah Almighty were born among the Children of Israel, but when their religion became abrogated Sainthood was discontinued from them. Thus also be with the Truthful, and be with that group in which the Truthful are found.

مَا كَانَ لِاَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ وَ مَنْ حَوْلَهُمْ مِّنَ الْاَعْرَابِ اَنْ يَّتَخَلَّفُوْا عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا يَرْغَبُوْا بِاَنْفُسِهِمْ عَنْ نَّفْسِهٖ ؕ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ لَا يُصِيْبُهُمْ ظَمَاٌ وَّ لَا نَصَبٌ وَّ لَا مَخْمَصَةٌ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا يَطَـُٔوْنَ مَوْطِئًا يَّغِيْظُ الْكُفَّارَ وَ لَا يَنَالُوْنَ مِنْ عَدُوٍّ نَّيْلًا اِلَّا كُتِبَ لَهُمْ بِهٖ عَمَلٌ صَالِحٌ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُضِيْعُ اَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۰﴾ لا

120. It was not proper for the inhabitants of Madina [336], and those around them [337], to remain sitting behind [338], the Messenger of Allah, nor that they should consider their own lives more dearer [339]. than his life. This is so because whatever they face as thirst or distress or hunger [340], in the way of Allah or where they take a step on a place which enr ages [341], the infidels for all these things [342], a good deed is written [343]. for them. Surely, Allah wastes not the reward of the doers of good [344].

336. By people of Madina is meant those who reside therein, be they the Muhajereen (Emigrants) or Ansaar (The Helpers). From this emerge two issues:

Marfat.com

1. Allah Almighty is including those Muslims too as people of Madina Munawwarah who have emigrated to it and stay therein with sincerety and faith.
2. If a poor person performs his Hajj it will be regarded as fulfilled because a Muslims arriving in Makka becomes its resident, and wealth is not an obligatory condition for Hajj for a Makkan.
337. By this is meant during the Battle of Tabuk. It was obligatory upon every resident of Madina, whether Muhajir or Ansars, to under take the journey to Tabuk with the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
338. By this is meant without religious constraint or helplessness viz. old age, ill health or childhood or the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself to stay behind in Madina as his deputy. Examples of this is the absence of Hazrat Uthman e Ghani. (May Allah be pleased with him) From the Battle of Badr, and the absence of Hazrat Alli Murtaza May Allah be pleased with him from the Battle of Tabuk. This restriction is being related in the next half of this verse.
339. Infact it was compulsory upon them to sacrifice their lives for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم just as the moth dies for the light.

121. And whatever they spend, small or great [345], and the valley they cross [346], all is written for them, so that Allah may reward them for their best deed.

345. Small expenditure was that of Hazrat Alli Murtaza (May Allah be pleased with him) because he had donated a few dates in the Battle of Tabuk, while major expenditure was that of Hazrat Uthman e Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) because he had donated nine hundred camels for it.

122. And it is not possible for believers that all should come out [347]. Then why should not a party from each group [348], come out and some should remain behind that they may gain

340. Holy War, Fasting, Hajj, journey for acquisition of knowledge are all included as acts performed to gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty. However, here Holy War is intended as understood from its context.
341. By this is meant enter the territory of the infidels as conquerors so as to burn their hearts. From this we learn that just as pleasing the Friends of Allah almighty is an act of worship, displeasing and inflaming the hearts of His enemies too is an act of worship.
342. This includes of the infidels, wounding them, imprisoning them, seizing their spoils of war, etc. all of which are acts of worship.
343. This tells us that every act of a Muslim soldier is work of worship as is related in the Hadith, and it is hoped from the Mercy of Allah Almighty that He will grant this status to the journey of Hajj and journey for the acquisition of knowledge, as all these journeys are in the way of Allah Almighty.
344. From this we learn that Jihad or Holy War is an act of sublime worship and the one participating in it is a great benefactor. It should be remembered that Holy War is beneficial to the believer as well as to the non-believer.

وَ لَا يُنْفِقُوْنَ نَفَقَةً صَغِيْرَةً وَّلَا كَبِيْرَةً
وَّلَا يَقْطَعُوْنَ وَادِيًا اِلَّا كُتِبَ لَهُمْ
لِيَجْزِيَهُمُ اللّٰهُ اَحْسَنَ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿١٢١﴾

346. Whether crossing the valley in your own country or in that of your enemy. By this is meant the entire journey of the Islamic soldier is an act of worship, infact every movement for it is included in the worship of Allah Almighty.

وَ مَا كَانَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ لِيَنْفِرُوْا كَآفَّةً ؕ
فَلَوْ لَا نَفَرَ مِنْ كُلِّ فِرْقَةٍ مِّنْهُمْ طَآئِفَةٌ
لِّيَتَفَقَّهُوْا فِي الدِّيْنِ وَلِيُنْذِرُوْا قَوْمَهُمْ understanding [349], of religion and warn [350], their people after coming back to them, that they may be careful to guard themselves.

إِذَا رَجَعُوٓا إِلَيْهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَحْذَرُونَ ﴿١٢٢﴾ ع ١٥ ٤

347. This does not mean that every believer should abandon their city or country for the sake of Holy War or in search of knowledge. From this we learn participating in Holy War in general, and acquisition of complete knowledge of Religion is Fard e Kifaya or sufficiency obligation, viz. religious obligation of which the rest are all absolved if a sufficient number of people have participated in it.

348. One more group should stay at home. This tells that if just one person in the locality has acquired complete knowledge of Religion it will absolve the obligation from rest of the people.

349. From this we learn that Fiqh or Jurisprudence has the highest place in all the sciences of religion. However, nowadays people are negligent about this obligation and are merely running after unreliable and incorrect translations of the Holy QUR'AAN. Allah Almighty says that he for whom He has granted knowledge and wisdom he has been bestowed highest form of good. To study jurisprudence to suffice your basic religious needs is obligatory. Thus to study and acquire laws pertaining to Fasting, Salaah, cleanliness, impurities, is obligatory upon every Muslim male and female as all these acts of worship are obligatory. Same is the case with the merchants to acquire knowledge of mercantile laws, and for the employees to be aware fo the laws pertaining to employment. Hazrat Imaam Shafa'ee (May Allah be pleased with him) says the acquisition of religious knowledge is greater than voluntary Salaah. (Khazainul Irfaan) .

350. From this emerges three issues:

1. To acquire complete knowledge of religion is not an absolute obligation but it is Farde Kifaya.
2. A non-jurist of independent opinion MUJTAHID or a non-Aalim must follow the Mujtahid or an Aalim in matters of religion.
3. In matters of religion the information of one will hold credence, because the issues explained and expounded by one Islamic scholar become worthy of practice for the rest of the Muslims of that area or locality.

SECTION 16

123. O believers! Fight the infidels who are close [351] to you, and let them find in you harshness [352]. And know that Allah is with the pious [353].

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا۟ قَٰتِلُوا۟ ٱلَّذِينَ يَلُونَكُم مِّنَ ٱلْكُفَّارِ وَلْيَجِدُوا۟ فِيكُمْ غِلْظَةً ۚ وَٱعْلَمُوٓا۟ أَنَّ ٱللَّهَ مَعَ ٱلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾

351. The first war should be waged upon one's baser self NAFSUL AMMARAH because this is your most closest enemy misleading you from the Straight Path, then wage war against the infidels. The holy saints of Allah Almighty too regard these as your closest tyrants. According to the scholars of Islam holy war should be waged methodically as practised by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

352. From this ayet all verses of kindness and soft heartedness are abrogated. In it all types of firmness and severity are included. This means in times of difficulties keep your hearts firm and do not be overcome by fear. Keep with you necessities of war of the best quality according to your means. Speak to the infidels in a manner reflecting fearlessness and bravery. If and when an opportunity arises for revenge do so in such a manner that will not be easily forgotten by them. If you have to debate with them do so in an uncompromising way.

Merely having majority is not enough. When a person informed Alexandra the Great that Dara has an army of one million, he replied the butcher does not have much fear for the huge number of goats and sheep.

353. By this is meant inculcate in you piety during times of Jihad as this is the greatest weapon of the believer.

124. Whenever a Surah is revealed, then anyone of them begins to say: "Which of you has it increased [354]. in faith? Then as for those who believe, it has increased [355]. them in faith, and they are rejoicing [356].

وَاِذَا مَآ اُنْزِلَتْ سُوْرَةٌ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّقُوْلُ اَيُّكُمْ زَادَتْهُ هٰذِهٖٓ اِيْمَانًا ۚ فَاَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا فَزَادَتْهُمْ اِيْمَانًا وَّ هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُوْنَ ﴿١٢٤﴾

354. By this is meant some hypocrites ask this question from some of them as a form of jest. Their purpose is to make fun of this verse. "And when his revelations are recited to Them their fate progressers" (S 8 : V2)

355. By this increase is either meant increase of condition or increase in believers that on the revelation of verses and surahs these people increasingly believe in them. This difference is with regard to detailed belief, because synoptic or collective beliefs are all equal.

356. By this is meant they express joy at the revelation of QUR'AANIC verses, because therein they find prophecies, glad tidings, etc. When the child by us commences his QUR'AAN recitation with Surah Al-Alaq great joy is expressed and large donations are made. This too is one type of expression of joy at QUR'AANIC verses.

125. And as for those in whose hearts there is a disease [357], it has increased [358]. them in filth upon filthiness and they di[illegible] while they are infidels [359].

357. This tells us that any heart which is bereft of the love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith will only kindle infidelity in it. The Holy QUR'AAN is the water of energy. Water helps to give life to the seed in the earth but it can not change the seed itself. Furthermore, rain water causes the filth in the dirty gutters to increase.

358. Allah Almighty increased their filth in their hearts in that first they had rejected the verses that had been revealed up to that point in time, and when this verse was revealed they rejected it as well. The author of (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) has stated that the difference between RIJS dirty thing and NIJAS impure and defiled is that NAJAS is used to indicate natural impurity and RIJS is used to indicate mental impurity. Thus some of the things are NAJAS as well as RIJS while some are RIJS but not NAJAS and vice versa.

359. The Great Saints say in whichever heart there is enmity for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will get very little Divine guidance for repentance. Usually he dies an infidel. May Allah Almighty protect us from this.

126. Do they not observe that they are being tried [360], every year, once or twice? Even then they neither repent nor accept admonition.

اَوَ لَا يَرَوْنَ اَنَّهُمْ يُفْتَنُوْنَ فِيْ كُلِّ عَامٍ مَّرَّةً اَوْ مَرَّتَيْنِ ثُمَّ لَا يَتُوْبُوْنَ وَ لَا

هُمْ يَذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿١٢٦﴾

360. They are tested with diseases, famine, and calamities. From this we learn that a believer views every calamity as an admonition and warning and thinks it to be the result of his sins or a test for him. The sight of the infidel is only on the desolation of time and on wordly matters.

127. And whenever any Surah is revealed to them, they begin to look [361], at each other, Does anyone watch you? Then they turn away. Allah has left their hearts because they are a people who do not understand [362].

وَاِذَا مَآ اُنْزِلَتْ سُوْرَةٌ نَّظَرَ بَعْضُهُمْ اِلٰى بَعْضٍ ؕ هَلْ يَرٰىكُمْ مِّنْ اَحَدٍ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفُوْا ؕ صَرَفَ اللّٰهُ قُلُوْبَهُمْ بِاَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَّا يَفْقَهُوْنَ ﴿١٢٧﴾

361. By this is meant they ridicule and reject the Surah through their mocking glances at one another. Or they make signs wait for opportunities to run away from such august gathering. The second meaning has greater strength. From this we learn that to run away from Zikr gatherings and to despise such gatherings is the way of the hypocrites.

362. This tells that he who has been cut off from the blessed shrine and above of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he has been turned away from the doors of Allah Almighty. Conversely, he who becomes the devotee of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is accepted by Allah Almighty as His devotee.

128. Surely there has come to you a Messenger [363], from among yourselves. Heavy [364]. upon him is your suffering and he ardently desires [365]. your welfare. To the believers he is most kind and merciful.

لَقَدْ جَآءَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ عَزِيْزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ حَرِيْصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رَءُوْفٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿١٢٨﴾

363. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Some generous people call to give others come and give, like the well and the clouds. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the benefactor who comes and gives as understood from "has come".
2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is present in the heart of every believer as is understood from plural prefix "yourselves".
3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet unto entire mankind as applied by the word "Messenger".
4. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a resplendent Prophet as understood from the Tanween on the letter LAAM of Rasool.
5. The connection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with his followers is like that of the soul with the body which is fully aware of every hardship experienced by it as is understood from "yourselves". It is for this reason the next part of the verse states "heavy upon him"
6. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is qualified with the attributes of Allah Almighty and revealer of these phenomena, because Allah Almighty is Kind and Merciful and so is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم described here.
7. The mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is for the entire universe, but his compassion is only for the believers. It should be remembered that if one makes a stop at the AZIZ its meaning would be he is more beloved to the believers than their own lives. All your sins are entrusted to his kindness and benevolence. This is the interpretation of the author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan. In some forms of recitation the letter FA in the ANFOSIKUM takes a Zabar which would mean the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has been raised from the group of people who are pure and refined, as he is a Quraishi, Hashim, Mutalabbi Arab and his entire ancestors and forefathers are believers. In addition his followers Ummah are superior to all other people, his parents are superior to the parents of all the prophets, his sacred city of Madina Munawwarah is superior to the cities of all the Prophets. In short the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the per sonification of greatness and exquisiteness. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was born in Makkah, resided in Madina but his presence is in the hearts of every believer. Just as the sun is found int he fourth heaven but it brightens the entire universe its general benefit viz. its light is found everywhere, but its specific benefits are at specific places. Thus it is responsible for the growth of grain in the fields, blooms the flowers in the gardens, through it fruit grows in the orchards, when its rays falls on mountains it brings out high quality rubies and gems. In the same manner the Holy Prophet's general benefit, viz his preaching reached all but faith was received by the believers only. Divine knowledge is for all but Saints of Allah Almighty are bestowed with Qutubhood or highest spiritual position; the Ghous - upper category saint is bestowed with Divine Drink, Companionship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is bestowed upon the special group of people. Due to liberal demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم his nativity or becoming visible to all has ceased but his august presence has not ended. He has come for all times. Just as the visibility of the sun ceases but not its existence,so it is with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

364. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of the difficulties and sufferings of his followers because with this knowledge his blessed heart would not be heavy upon him. Just as the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is everlasting so is his awareness an eternal thing.

365. By this is meant other people are ardently desirous about the welfare of their children, but this merciful Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fervently desirous about the good and welfare of his followers.

129. Then if they turn their faces, please declare: "Allah is sufficient [366]. for me. None is to be worshipped except Him. I put my trust in Him, and He is the Lord of the Supreme Throne [367]".

فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ حَسْبِيَ اللّٰهُ ز لَآ إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ ط عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَ هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ ع ﴿١٢٩﴾

366. The most pure Prophet is the highest and most excellent manifestation of the independence of Allah Almighty.

367. In these blessed verses Allah Almighty is describing the Meelad of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , his blessed birth and his excellent attributes. This tells that reciting and holding the Meelad of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the way of Allah Almighty. The previous Prophets did likewise, which makes Meelad Sunnah of Prophets.

I begin in the Name of Allah, Who is Most Compassionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION 1

1.Alif- Lam- Ra. These are the verses of the Book of Wisdom [1].

الٓرٰ ۚ تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ الْحَكِيْمِ ۝١

1. By "Book of wisdom" is meant either the Holy QUR'AAN or the Divine Tablet i.e. those verses which are recited to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are neither magic, nor poetry, nor mere tales, but these are verses which are from the Divine Tablet. These are portions of the Holy QUR'AAN, every word of it reflects thousands of wisdoms. Not a single command of it's futile or without purpose.

2. Have the people wondered [2], that We revealed to a man among them to warn [3], the people, and give glad-tidings to the believers, that they have the position of truth [4]. with their Lord? The infidels said: "Surely, he is a manifest sorcerer [5]".

2. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم proclaimed prophethood with the permission of Allah Almighty, the polytheists responded by saying that how is it possible for one person to be given an important position or responsibility of prophethood. In reply this verse was revealed. (Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Bayaan) Those foolish people accepted idols of wood and stone as gods but would hesitate to accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as Prophet.

3. From this emerge two issues:

1. The warning of the Holy Prophet is for all the people, but his glad tidings are for the believers alone.

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet for before him and after him.

4. By foot is meant place and position.

Thus on the Day of Judgement though the believers and the infidels would be all standing in the presence of Allah Almighty but their positions would not be the same. The position of truth singifies the mercy of Allah Almighty or the intercesion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has expounded this to mean intercession. (Roohul Baya-an) In short the believers will receive both.

5. This reply of the infidels reflects the admission of their helplessness and the greatness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. They would see things from the Holy Prophet which was beyond their intelligence and imagination i.e. miracles, which they would call it as magic.

3. No doubt, your Lord is Allah Who made the heavens [6], and the earth in six days[7], then established Himself on the Throne [8], befitting to His Dignity. He plans [9]. the work. There is no intercessor, but after His leave [10]. This is Allah your Lord. Then worship Him. Do you then not ponder [11]?

اِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِىْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضَ فِىْ سِتَّةِ اَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوٰى

عَلَى الْعَرْشِ يُدَبِّرُ الْاَمْرَ ؕ مَا مِنْ شَفِيْعٍ اِلَّا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ اِذْنِهٖ ؕ ذٰلِكُمُ اللّٰهُ رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوْهُ ؕ اَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ۝٣

9. Here 'Plans' is a quality of Divine Command while at another place it is an utterance regarding angels "And complete their work" (S79:V4). But there is no contradiction the verses. Allah Almighty becomes' mentions the manner of creation i.e. Allah Almighty created it in six days yet command of 'Be'did not require the process of striking, moulding and pounding. issues the laws and the angels execute them. Thus the true planner is Allah Almighty, while the angels are given this quality by Him.

10. This verse negaties the intercession of idols, and declares the intercession of Prophets, Saints and the pious Ulema. Allah Almighty has granted the permission of intercession to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his worldly life already "And pray good for them. No doubt, your prayer is solace for their hearts". (S9:V103) The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم falling into Sajda - prostration on the Day of Judgement is for the purpose of seeking permission to speak, and not for obtaining permission to intercede.

11. Allah Almighty is that Glorious Being in whose Diviine presence Prophets and Saints are permitted to be intercessors. Try to understand the true Glory of Allah Almighty through the greatness of the intercessors.

6. By this is meant it is not surprising that you reject that a human being to be a prophet, yet you accept wood and stone to be gods, although Allah Almighty is that Being who should be the creator of everthing. He should be before everything, while the rest of the things are His creation within your control. By heavens and the earth is meant the physical world, His kingdom.

7. Here the word day signifies time as in "Every day He has work". (S55:V29) Day and Night, morning and evening are phenomena which are achieved through the movement of the sun, but the sun itself is not dependent on them. Although time is transitory but it precedes the sun. Allah Almighty created the heavens and the earth in six day to educate man that he should not hasten with his execution of duties and obligations. However haste is necessary in offering repentance, paying your debts, marriage of your daughter, burying your deceased. All other duties should be performed with ease and peace of mind. In addition, here time denotes beginning of creation while in 'it

8. By this is meant He issued laws of creation at the Divine Throne from whence they are brought on the world just as laws passed in the legislative capital are passed on to the rest of the country.

اِلَيْهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ جَمِيْعًا ؕ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقًّا ؕ اِنَّهٗ يَبْدَؤُا الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيْدُهٗ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ بِالْقِسْطِ ؕ وَالَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَهُمْ شَرَابٌ مِّنْ حَمِيْمٍ وَّعَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌۢ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْفُرُوْنَ ۝٤

4. To Him all of you have to return. The promise [12]. of Allah is true. Surely, He creates for the first time, then He shall reproduce it after destruction so that He may give the reward of justice to those who believe [13], and do good deeds [14]. And for the infidels is the boiling [15], drink and a painful punishment, the reward of their infidelity [16].

12. Because the actual purpose of Qiyamah is rewarding the doers of good deeds, it is explained as pay of Promise. To instil fear against a dangerous thing is called warning.
13. It should be remembered justice will be meted out to both the believers and the infidels, but in addition to justice the believers would be given bounty as well. Entering Paradise, enjoying its delicacies, etc. are due to justice, but being blessed with Divine Vision is out of His bounty. Thus even in the grave of the believers there is a bounty.
14. By this is meant the pious did justice in the world by being obedient to Allah Almighty for which they will be rewarded. Or it could mean Allah Almighty will reward them justly by not decreasing their rewards nor increasing their punishment. This type of justice is not against mercy, but against tyrany.
15.From this is understood that boiling water, mixture of blood and pus and painful punishment are reserved only for the infidels. Sinful Muslims would be protected from these.
16.In it there is a hint that the deceased minor children of the infidels would not be given punishment because they did not commit infidelity.

5. It is He Who has made the sun radiant and the moon glittering[17], and for it stages [18], so that you may know the computation [19], of years and calculation. Allah has not created that but in truth [20]. He explains fullythe signs for the people of knowledge [21].

هُوَ الَّذِیْ جَعَلَ الشَّمْسَ ضِیَآءً وَّ الْقَمَرَ
نُوْرًا وَّ قَدَّرَهٗ مَنَازِلَ لِتَعْلَمُوْا عَدَدَ
السِّنِیْنَ وَ الْحِسَابَ ؕ مَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ ذٰلِكَ اِلَّا
بِالْحَقِّ ۚ یُفَصِّلُ الْاٰیٰتِ لِقَوْمٍ یَّعْلَمُوْنَ ۝۵

17. Here the word "shining" denotes glorious bright light while "light" refers to light obtained from other. The moon takes light from the sun. May be "shining" could also mean that bright strong light which extinguishes every other light or lamp, while 'light' denotes mild pleasant light which cannot extinguish any lamp or light.
18. Twelve signs of zodiac or stages have been fixed for the sun, three for each season. For Spring Taurus, Gemini and Aries are fixed, for Summer, Cancer, Leo and Virgo are fixed for Autumn, Libra, Scorpio and Saggitarius are fixed while the zodiacal signs of Winter are Capricorn Aquarius and Pisces. The moon has twenty eight stages, each Zodical sign had two and a third stage. The sun completes the zodiacal journey of these twelve stages in twelve months, while the moon completes its journey of these twenty eight stages in twenty nine or thirty days.
19. Calculate seasons, growth of crops, times of Salaah from the sun, while times for Hajj, Fasting etc. calculate from lunar months.
20. From this we learn Lunar months are most beloved to Allah Almighty and are superior to solar months because almanac of these months is kept in heaven. It is for this reason that most Islamic tasks and duties are done in accordance with the lunar months. eg. Eid, Zakaat, Fasting, etc. Muslims should make use of the solar months to complete their general needs but calculate these in accordance with the lunar months.
21. From this we learn that Mathematics and Astronomy are beneficial sciences as they help to understand the cosmic powers of Allah Almighty, providing they are used to seek assistance for religious knowledge.

6. Surely, in the variation of night [22], and day and whatever

اِنَّ فِی اخْتِلَافِ الَّیْلِ وَ النَّهَارِ وَ مَا
خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ لَاٰیٰتٍ

لِّقَوْمٍ يَّتَّقُوْنَ ۝٦

Allah has created in the heavens and the earth, there are signs for those who fear [23] (Allah).

22. The difference in length of the night results in different conditions like hot, cold, long, short, etc. By mentioning the night first means night precedes the day. Also, that night is superior to day because during this time the true devotee of Allah Almighty obtains acceptance of their devotion, while day is a period of hard labour separation. In every night there is a special moment in which ones prayer is accepted, while this distinction in terms of days is given to Friday only, i.e. in an entire week only one day has the moment of acceptance.

23. These things are mentioned here because only those who truly fear Allah Almighty obtain Faith and lofty mystical experiences by pondering and deliberation. The infidels on witnessing these phenomena become more rebellious. Today scientific progress has reached such a stage that many scientists are rejecting the existence of Allah Almighty.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَرْجُوْنَ لِقَآءَنَا وَ رَضُوْا بِالْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ اطْمَاَنُّوْا بِهَا وَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ عَنْ اٰيٰتِنَا غٰفِلُوْنَ ۝٧ۙ

7. Without doubt, those who have no hope to meet Us and are well pleased [24], with this worldly life and are satisfied with it, and those who are neglectful of Our Signs [25].

24. Such people have made the world a permanent resting place, where it is a place of fleeing.

25. These verses refer to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم his blessed miracles, his excellent qualities and verses of the Holy QUR'AAN. by neglect is meant rejecting these which is infidelity. The punishment for it is described in the following verse.

اُولٰٓئِكَ مَاْوٰىهُمُ النَّارُ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ۝٨

8. Their abode [26], is Hell, as the return of what they earn.

26. Where they will be staying eternally. This tells that though the sinful believers would be sent into Hell for some reasons, yet Hell will not be their destination nor their home.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ يَهْدِيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ بِاِيْمَانِهِمْ ۚ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْاَنْهٰرُ فِيْ جَنّٰتِ النَّعِيْمِ ۝٩

9. No doubt, those who believe and do good deeds [27], their Lord will guide [28] them on account of their faith. Beneath them rivers [29] will be flowing in the gardens of delight.

27.By this is meant according to opportunity and power. Thus those infidels who die immediately after accepting Islam, as well as the minor children of the Believers are inmates of paradise they did not get any opportunity of practice. Hence there is no contradiction in the verse. Likewise, those Companions who had died before the religious laws had come into existence, or just a few had come into being, as in the case of Hazrat Khadija, Hazrat Waraqa bin Naufal, etc, (May Allah be pleased with them) are all inmates of paradise.

28. This tells that inmates of Paradise will recognize his abode by himself with the help of a guide. Furthermore, entry into Paradise will be due to one's faith but obtaining its bounties will be due to one's good deeds, or simply due to the mercy of Allah Almighty. However, the vision of Allah Almighty therein, the company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in it will be due to special blessing and bounty of Allah Almighty.

29. There will not be just rivers of milk, honey, pure drinks, and water flowing beneath the gardens of the inmates of Paradise but fast flowing canals will be running. The difference between canal and sea has been explained earlier.

دَعْوٰىهُمْ فِيْهَا سُبْحٰنَكَ اللّٰهُمَّ وَ
تَحِيَّتُهُمْ فِيْهَا سَلٰمٌ ۚ وَ اٰخِرُ دَعْوٰىهُمْ اَنِ
الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝١٠ ع ١٠ ٦

10. Their prayer [30], in it shall be: "Sanctity be to You O Allah!" And the opening word of the time of their greeting [31], is "Peace" and the end of their prayer is: "All praise be to Allah Who is the Lord of all the worlds [32]".

30. By this is meant before petitioning to Allah Almighty we would recite his praises as is the systems of the royal court. Today too the one offering Salaah first recites Thana, thereby becoming an inmate of Paradise while in Salaah.

31. And when they meet one another they will extend a greeting, or the angels would be greeting the inmates of Paradise. This tells to greet at the time of meeting, and reciting praises of Allah Almighty at the time of departure is the pastime or work of the people of Paradise. Or that greetings would be coming from Allah Almighty on the inmates of Paradise.

32. From this we learn that although all acts of worship would be terminated in Paradise, reciting the Praises of Allah Almighty would be continued there. Reciting Na'at Shareef of the Holy Prophet too is indirectly praising Allah Almighty.

وَ لَوْ يُعَجِّلُ اللّٰهُ لِلنَّاسِ الشَّرَّ
اسْتِعْجَالَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرِ لَقُضِيَ اِلَيْهِمْ
اَجَلُهُمْ ؕ فَنَذَرُ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَرْجُوْنَ
لِقَآءَنَا فِيْ طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ۝١١

11. And if Allah had hastened the punishment to the human beings as they demand in haste the good [33], then their promised form would have been completed [34]. So, We leave those who hope not to meet Us that they wander in their excess [35].

33. Sometimes the infidels desires evil with so much haste, like he desires good when he says Oh Allah destroy me today, descend upon us immediate punishment, etc. From this verse it is understood that it is a mercy of Allah Almighty that all our prayers are not accepted. Sometimes we tend to take bad to mean good as in the case of a foolish patient requesting sweet and pleasant medicine from the doctor which he turns down. From this we learn that we should not curse ourselves or our children on a fit of anger. At all times request good from Allah Almighty for one never knows which is the moment of acceptance of one's prayer.

34. Reason for its revelation:
Nazar bin Harith once said Oh Allah if Islam is a true Religion, and we do not accept it, let stones come down upon us. In response this verse was revealed in which it is said that sometimes a person in a fit of emotion curses himself or his family, but Allah Almighty out of His kindness rejects it.

35. This tells that long life from Allah Almighty for the rebellious and negligent people is a Divine punishment for them just as the long life for the pious is a Divine mercy for them. The infidels would commit more sins the longer they live while the believers would increase their pious deeds.

وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ الضُّرُّ دَعَانَا لِجَنْۢبِهٖٓ
أَوْ قَاعِدًا أَوْ قَآئِمًا ۚ فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُ
ضُرَّهٗ مَرَّ كَأَنْ لَّمْ يَدْعُنَآ إِلٰى ضُرٍّ مَّسَّهٗ ۭ
كَذٰلِكَ زُيِّنَ لِلْمُسْرِفِيْنَ مَا كَانُوْا
يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿١٢﴾

12.And when misfortune touches [36], man he calls Us, lying down, and sitting down and standing up. Then when We remove [37], his misfortune he passes on as if he never prayed [38]. to Us at the time of any trouble touching him. Thus, it has been made to appear fair to the extravagant in their deeds [39].

36. Here man refers to infidels, hence they have been described in the latter part of the verse as extravagants. This means during times of difficulties the infidels pray to Allah Almighty in sitting and standing positions, but in their time of ease they forget Him. But a believer remembers Allah Almighty under all circumstances; in ease he expresses gratitude, in difficulty he is patient, in joy he sings his praises, in sorrow he recites; from Allah we are and unto Him is our return. In short at all times he is engaged in the remembrance of Allah Almighty.

37. This is done either due to his supplication or due to Allah Almighty's bounty and kindness. From this we learn that some supplications of the infidels are accepted. However none of their prayers in the Hereafter will be accepted. Says Allah Almighty: "And the prayers of the disbelievers are nothing but utterance of ignorance". (S13:V14) Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

38. By this is meant when he is relieved of the difficulties he once again engages himself into infidelity, thereby forgetting his period of difficulties. The believer always remembers his difficulties and is always grateful to Allah Almighty.

39. This tells us that remembering Allah Almighty in one's difficulties only, and forgetting Him in your comfort is the way of the infidels. Patience during calamities, and gratitude during comfort are the qualities of a believer.

وَلَقَدْ أَهْلَكْنَا الْقُرُوْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ لَمَّا ظَلَمُوْا ۙ
وَجَآءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ وَمَا كَانُوْا
لِيُؤْمِنُوْا ۭ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْقَوْمَ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿١٣﴾

13. No doubt, We ruined generations before you, when they [40], crossed the limits. And their Messengers came to them with bright evidence [41] ands they were not such as to believe. Thus, We punish in retribution the guilty.

40.From this is hinted that no matter how sinful a believer is he commits these sins within limits, while no matter how minor a sin an infidel commits he does so by exceeding the limits. To accept Faith is being within the limit of obedience while by rejecting faith is exceeding the limit of obedience.

41. Bright evidence is meant the different miracles of the previous Prophets which were bestowed upon them in accordance with their times. During the period of Hazrat Iesa (Alaihis Salaam) medicine was in vogue, hence he was bestowed with miracles accordingly e.g. to raise the dead back to life, to cure the blind, the lepers, etc. During the time of Hazrat Moosa (Alaihis Salaam) the prevailing force was magic, hence his miracles were of this nature e.g. the stick turning into a snake, his blessed hand becoming bright like the sun.

14. Then We made you to succeed[42] after them that We might see how you act [43].

42. Here earth signifies earth in its Totaliy, and not just the earth of Arabia because no previous Prophet had come to Arabia due to whose rejection Divine punishment had descended there.

43. By this is meant you all are inhabiting in the land of the previous people, and similarly others would be inhabiting your land. Just as this land has reached you, so would it reach the others. Therefore do good deeds so that you can obtain rewards and be remembered well by your future generations.

15. And when Our Clear[44], Verses are recited unto them, then those who hope not to meet Us begin to say: "Bring a QUR'AAN [45], other than this, or change it". Please declare: "It is not for me to change it on my own [46]. accord. I only follow what is revealed [47]. to me. If I disobey my Lord, then I fear the punishment of the Great Day [48]".

44. Reason for its revelation:
A group of infidels had come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said if you want us to believe in you then bring another QUR'AAN wherein our idols would not be condemned and it would not contain any laws prohibiting their worship. If another QUR'AAN like this can not be revealed then let us alter the existing QUR'AAN accordingly to our wishes. In response this verse was revealed (Khazainul Irfaan). It should be remembered that this nonsensical talk of the infidels was either for mocking or as a test. In either case these evil intentions of the infidels were rendered totally useless.

45. This means bring to us a QUR'AAN in which our idols are not condemned, or extract from it, verses of this nature, or change these verses.

46. From this there is a hint that though I cannot change these verses but I can request Allah Almighty to change them, like how the changing of the Qibla, etc. were effected in accordance with the wishes of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In fact due to the grace of Hazrat Omar Farooq (May Allah be pleased with him) sexual relations with one's wife became permissible during the nights of Ramadaan. Therefore, the Wahabis cannot use this verse to prove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not granted authority over Divine matters. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم authority over these matters are bestowed to him by Allah Almighty.

47. From this we learn the passages of the QUR'AAN the vowels therein, its script are all from Allah Almighty. So are the styles of recitation. No change in any one of them is permissible.

48. In this verse impossible is kept pending upon an impossible. By this is meant if for argument sake, the Holy Prophet says, if I too disobey Allah Almighty, and distort and change the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN then I too would be in danger of Divine punishment. This is like this type of Divine saying that had Allah Almighty a son I would be the first to worship him. Both these are impossible things. Neither is there possibility of sin from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, nor the fear of the latter. It should be remembered that Prophets fear Allah Almighty a great deal, but they neither had nor will ever have fear of Divine punishment. They are in accordance with "no fear is upon them". Infact they experience Divine awe.

قُلْ لَّوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَا تَلَوْتُهٗ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ لَآ اَدْرٰىكُمْ بِهٖ ۖ فَقَدْ لَبِثْتُ فِيْكُمْ عُمُرًا مِّنْ قَبْلِهٖ ؕ اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿١٦﴾

16. Please declare: "If Allah had Willed, then I would not have recited to you, nor would He have made it known [49]. to you. I have already lived amongst you before it. Have you then no wisdom? [50]"

49. Because I neither learned or have been tutored by anyone. It is Allah Almighty who has taught me and commanded me to teach you. Hence my recitation of the QUR'AAN and expounding on its mysteries are all by His command. This tells us that every action of the Holy Propeht صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in accordance with Divine command.

50. From there is a hint that prior to assuming Prophetic duties the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was aware of Quranic laws. After taking up Prophetic duties he began propagation of Islam. Therefore the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم never committed a sin. He was the devotee and worshipper of Allah Almighty prior to this. Thus when the first Revelation came the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was engaged in I'tikaaf and other acts of worship. The real purpose of this verse is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is making us aware that had I been in the habit of telling lies and indulging in sinful activities I would already have fabricated words and attributed it to Allah Almighty.

فَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا اَوْ كَذَّبَ بِاٰيٰتِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْمُجْرِمُوْنَ ﴿١٧﴾

17. Then who is more unjust than me who forges [51], a lie against Allah or belies His signs? Undoubtedly, the guilty will have no good [52].

51. By this is meant recite to the people false verses and attribute them to Allah Almighty, or that worship those other than Allah Almighty. Infact all froms of infidelity is forging lies against Allah Almighty. Therefore fabricating false Ahadith is also forging a lie against Allah Almighty.

52. Therefore it is a proven fact that all the false claimants to prophethood have always experienced utter disgrace and died a horrible death, as was the case with Musalama the Liar, and the terrible end experienced by Mirza Goolam Ahmed Qadyani.

وَ يَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ وَ لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ شُفَعَآؤُنَا

18. And they worship besides Allah that which can neither harm them nor do any good [53]. And they say:

عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ ۚ قُلْ اَتُنَبِّئُوْنَ اللّٰهَ بِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ لَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ سُبْحٰنَهٗ وَ تَعٰلٰى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿۱۸﴾

"These are our helpers [54]. with Allah". Please declare: "Do you presume to tell Allah the thing which is not in His Knowledge, nor in heavens nor on earth [55]?" Holy is He and Exalted is He from what they associate (with Him) [56].

53. By this is meant neither will he benefit from their worship nor be at a loss for not worshipping. Infact case is opposite. Hence there can be no objection raised at this verse. These people were worshipping the stones. the moon, the sun. and from all of these great benefits are derived.

54. This means they claimed that Allah Almighty is conducting our worldly affairs through the mediation because these idol worshippers did not believe in Qiyamah, Paradise and Hell. In addition they were acknowledging the bluffed mediation regarding the idols because they believed in the idols as their divine intercessors. "When we equated you with the Lord of all the worlds". (S26:V98) Thus they were accepting non-intercessors as intercessors and were differing in many ways from Islamic concept of intercession. Hence they were polytheists.

55. By this is meant the intercession of these idols will neither be for this world nor for the Hereafter. If it was there it would have been in the knowledge of the Almighty. By negation through Divine knowledge is meant the actual negation.

56. It should be remembered that the worshipping of these idols by the polytheists as their intercessors was polytheism. or believing in their bluffed or equal intercession too was polytheism. Therefore the verb "their association" is used here. The intercession of the Prophets and saints is a certainty. Their intercession will be in accordance with Divine love permission and dignity. To regard that is polytheism is indeed foolishness. Hence this verse cannot serve as a proof for the Wahabies to negate the intercesision of the Prophet and Saints.

19. And mankind is but one [57], community, but they differ. And if a word from your Lord has not occurred [58], before, then their differences would have been divided between them.

57. During the period of Hazrat Adam (Alaihis Salaam) all people, until the murder of HABEEL, were believers or that after the Deluge of Nooh (Alaihis Salaam), only believers were found on the earth. Some have said from the period of Hazrat Ebrahim (Alaihis Salaam) all Arabs were believers until the introduction of idolatory by Umar bin Luhay. Under this circumstances people mean those specific Arabs. It could also mean that first everyone by nature was a believer, as every child is born on nature. Thereafter some in the world remain believers and others become infidels. (Khazainul Irfaan; Roohul Bayaan).

58. By this is meant this Divine decision that the punishment of the Hereafter would be after Qiyamah, or there is an appointed time for the destruction of every nation.

20. And they say: "And why [59]. has not a sign been sent down to them from their Lord?" Please declare: "The unseen belongs to Allah. Now wait. I am also waiting with you [60]".

59. That which we desire. i.e. making the hill of Safa into gold or to let a camel emerge from the rock like done by Hazrat Saleh Alaihis Salaam. Etc. as if to say these people had not given credence to the many miracles which our Holy Prophet ﷺ had shown to them.

60. It is stated in Asrarul-Ta'weelat interpretation that in this verse the word unseen refers to the angelic world which is concealed from us.

وَاِذَآ اَذَقْنَا النَّاسَ رَحْمَةً مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ ضَرَّآءَ مَسَّتْهُمْ اِذَا لَهُمْ مَّكْرٌ فِيْٓ اٰيَاتِنَا ۚ قُلِ اللّٰهُ اَسْرَعُ مَكْرًا ۚ اِنَّ رُسُلَنَا يَكْتُبُوْنَ مَا تَمْكُرُوْنَ ۝

21. And when We let the people taste mercy after any hardship touches [61]. them, forthwith they began to play [62]. tricks with Our Verses. Please declare: "Allah is swift with secret devices. No doubt, Our angels are writing your devices[63]".

61. From this we understand that the true meaning of showing respect to Allah Almighty is to connect all forms of mercy to Him and not calamities, because "taste" is used to denote mercy, meaning We make them taste, while "trouble had touched them" is used for trouble, but without connecting to Him. Hazrat Ebrahim (Alaihis Salaam) had said, "When I fall ill He cures me".

62. Seven years of severe famine had continued to plague the infidels of Makkah and they were on the verge of being destroyed. However, when they were blessed with rain they now showed no gratitude to Allah Almighty but instead tried to destroy His Religion. This is the condition of those who are negligent, they are never grateful.

63. From this we learn that the writer of deeds i.e. Kiraaman Kaatibeen - are appointed to write the deeds of the infidels as well who record their every word and deed. However, the angel responsible for recording their sins writes these while the angel for good deeds merely remains as a witness to these without recording them, simply because their good deeds are in vain. This is the same as when the writer of good deeds records the piety of the pious servants of Allah Almighty and the other angels become the witness. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

with a fair breeze and they rejoice 64. thereby. Then there comes upon them a violent wind and the waves from every side overtake them, and they think that they were encircled. Then at that time they call 65, Allah, being purely His bondsmen 66. Then if you save us from this, we shall surely be thankful.

64. This infroms us that to be proud and behave boastfully on receiving bounty of Allah Almighty is an evil act. However expressing joy of gratitude is a likeable act. Had you expressed this for showing gratitude to Allah Almighty you would have become His obedient servants

65. By this is meant the infidels forget Allah Almighty in their times of comfort, and forsake the idols in their difficulties. It should be remembered that calling the pious servants of Allah Almighty for assistance in your hour of difficulties is not an act of infidelity. In the difficull hour of Qiyamah everyone would be seeking an intercessor. For further details regarding this subject consult our Jaa-al-Haq and Ilmal QUR'AAN. This verse is regarding the idolators.

66. By this is meant they only call upon Allah Almighty and not the idols. From this emerge two issues:

1. To call upon Allah Almighty, to supplicate to Him, are all acts of worship, provided it is done with faith. Even these acts of the infidels would be included in infidelity.
2. Faith under compulsion is not reliable, but faith within one's choice would be given credence. The reason being the infidels would accept Islam under duress, but when this constraint was over, their faith too would be over. Thus the faith of an infidel at the time of death is not reliable, while the repentance of a sinful believer is acceptable. It is for this reason that Pharaoh's repentance at the time of his drowing was rejected.

فَلَمَّآ اَنْجٰىهُمْ اِذَا هُمْ يَبْغُوْنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ
بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ ؕ يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنَّمَا بَغْيُكُمْ عَلٰٓى

23. But when Allah saves them, they begin to commit excesses 67. in the land without any right. O people! Your rebellion is only against your own selves 68. Enjoy it while living in the world. Then you are to return 69. to Us. At that time We will inform you what your deeds were.

67. This means they did not regard themselves as wrong doers, because there is no mischief with regard to truth. Hence this restriction is not incidental but for abstension.

68. In it there is prophecy that your mischief will not suppress the spread of Islam, but instead it would cause nuisance for you. It happened as prophesised. By trying to blow at the sun will not extinguish it but merely make the foolish blower tired.

69. From this we learn after his death the infidel will not benefit from his material things. Where as a believer will not only benefit from his worldly possessions after his death but on the Day of Judgement as well. His Sadqatul Jariyya or the continous Charity, which he gives during his life time will not only benefit him but through it he benefits the creation of Allah Almighty eg. building a hospital,a mosque, etc. for which he would be entitled to tremendous rewards.

24. The example [70], of the life of the world is like that water which We have sent down from the sky on account of which the vegetation on earth comes out in abundance, of which men and cattle eat, till when the earth took on its ornaments [71], and was fully adorned, and its owners think that it (happens) under their authority. There came upon it Our Command by night [72]. or by day. Then We made it barren as if it had not existed [73]. yesterday. Thus, We explain fully Our Signs for a people who reflect[74].

70. It should be remembered the real life of an infidel is his material life while the life of the believer is religious life because the life of an infidel is for his own fancy an the life of a believer is for the pleasure of Allah Almighty: "My living and dying are all for Allah who is the Lord of all the worlds". (S6:V162). Therefore this is the comparison given about the life of an infidel. The believer's life will be beneficial for him in this world and the Hereafter. May Allah Almighty bless us with this type of life.

71. The worldly life is being compared to rain water for several reasons: Firstly water from the well and pond is within our control but rain water is not within our control. Similarly affairs of the world are beyond our control; secondly, rainfall at times is too much, or too little or at times not at all, the same is with the affairs of the world; thirdly one does not know the exact time of rain in the same way things in the world too sometimes occur unexpectedly; fourthly absence of rain causes difficulties, too much of it causes disaster (floods) similarly absence of material things will cause hardships and abundance of it will prove problematic.

72. The infidel too makes great effort to accumulate material possessions. After their accumulation he thinks it is his and he can spend them as he desires. Then while he is still on this false notion he either dies suddenly or he experiences such material losses that he can do nothing but wring his hands with regret. Remember that rain that falls in the garden grows the flowers, and which reaches the thistle grow thorns. The material world falls in the hands of the infidel it increases his infidelity and when it is in the hands of the believer it adds blessings to his fatih. Abu Jahl purchased Hell with his wealth while Hazrat Uthman-e-Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) used this wealth to purchase not only Paradise but Khauthar. This is a most appropriate and compound comparison.

73. In a like manner, the world too deceives you when you most need it, and when you have a strong inclination of gaining mastery over it. This is being witnessed daily. Thus never be arrogant about it.

74. This means the hollowness of this world and its sudden calamities are a lesson for the intelligent which helps to strengthen their faith. In fact the eyes of many callous people open after they suffer a loss of their material gains and turn once again to Allah Almighty.

25. And Allah calls [75]. towards the home of peace. And He guides Whom He wills to the Straight Path [76].

وَاللّٰهُ يَدْعُوْٓا اِلٰى دَارِ السَّلٰمِ ؕ وَ يَهْدِيْ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿٢٥﴾

75. By DARUS SALAAM is meant Paradise wherein its inmates will be protected from death and all types of diseases. Paradise is based on three degress, the beginning is bounty, the middle is pleasure and end , is eternity. Or DARUS SALAAM is the heart of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the pious sages which is SALAAM or abode of Allah Almighty which is pure from all types of sensual defects like jealousy, hatred, etc.

76. From this emerge three issues:

1. The calling of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed call of Allah Almighty because though they were being called by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty says it is the call by Him.

2. Paradise is an abode of peace and security. In it there is no death, calamities or hardhip.

3. Though Allah's invitation is general, His guidance is specific. Calling is being made to all but guidance is received by a few.

By Straight Path is meant Islam which is the direct path of getting to Paradise.

26. For those who do good [77], there is good and even more [78]. than that. And neither darkness nor insult [79]. will cover their faces. It is they who are the inhabitants of Paradise and they will abide therein forever [80].

77. By goodness and gratitude is meant faith and piety as faith is the goodness of the heart and piety is the goodness of the body. Also, by gratitude could mean sincerety in worship. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "True gratitude is that man should perfrom Salaah in such a way that he is holding Allah Almighty. If this is not possible then think that He is looking at you". Allah Almighty be praised!

78. By good is meant Paradise and more refers to Divine Vision, because this is not a reward for a good deed. Otherwise, good could mean reward of good deeds and more would mean increase thereof, like giving ten rewards for one good deed, or even more.

79. In fact if Allah Almighty wills, the faces of the believers would be shining, those of the saints of Allah Almightywould be glittering, while the faces of the Prophets and His special devotees would be radiant like the sun. Thus faces would become the means of recognition.

80. They will neither obtain through death or being alive. This tells that any person who enters Paradise for the sake of reward will not be taken out of it. The entrance of Hazrat Adam (Alaihis Salaam), and that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the night of Me'raj was not for the sake of reward. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verses. This verse is not contradictory to the Hadith of Me'raj.

27. And those who earn [81], evil, the retribution of evil is the like of it, and insult [82]. will cover them. There will be none to defend [83], them against Allah; as if their faces have been covered in patches [84]. of the dark night. It is they who are the inhabitants of Hell, to dwell therein forever [85].

81. Here evil signifies defects in beliefs and not in deeds being the punishment which is being outlined is for the infidels. A believer does not become an infidels due to evil deeds.

82. Because there the condition of the heart will be revealed by the face just as some sickness in the world become discernable from the face.

83. This tells that Allah Almighty will appoint saviours for the believers, because absence of saviours for the infidels is their punishment. Prophets, pious children, Saints of Allah Almighty, the Islamic savants would all assist the believers on the Day of Judgement.

84. From this we learn that on the Day of Judgement both the believers and the infidels would be distinguished from their faces. Says Allah Almighty: "The culprits shall be recognized by their faces". (S55:V41) Further Allah Almighty says: "When some faces will be bright and some will be dark". (S3:V106) Thus it is incorrect to say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would not be able to recognize the apostates. In fact even among the believers the pious and the sinners would become distinguished through their faces.

85. From this we learn that only the infidels, on the Day of Judgement, will have black faces who would be eternally in Hell. Sinners will have dust on their faces as well as other signs of blackness e.g. a begger by practise will have no meat on his face, those who showed no justice between wives will be without one side, on the shoulders of the misers their wealth will be mounted in the form of a black serpent, etc.

وَ يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيْعًا ثُمَّ نَقُوْلُ لِلَّذِيْنَ اَشْرَكُوْا مَكَانَكُمْ اَنْتُمْ وَ شُرَكَآؤُكُمْ ۚ فَزَيَّلْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ وَ قَالَ شُرَكَآؤُهُمْ مَّا كُنْتُمْ اِيَّانَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ ﴿٢٨﴾

28. And the Day when We shall raise[86], all of them together, then We will say to the polytheists: "Remain at your place, you and your idols [87]". Then We shall separate them from the believers, and their associates will say to them: "It was not us that you used to worship [88]".

86. From this one learns that on the Day of Judgement first all the infidels and believers will be brought together. Then believers, will be separated from the infidels. Allah Almighty will say: "And today, be separate, O you culprits!" (S36:V59) Believers should see to it that even in the world they should be different from the infidels in appearance and character.

87. This means the idols Laat, Manaat, Uzza, etc. This does not include those Prophets who were made object of worship by their followers, as is eroneously thought by some.

88. From this we learn that on the Day of Judgement Allah Almighty will grant those idols the power of speech with which they will oppose their worshippers. Also, the word associates does not refer to angels or Prophets, because since they were fully aware of the deeds of the polytheists, how can they deny.

29. Therefore Allah is sufficient as a witness between you and us (idols) that we were not aware of your worship of us [89].

89. Because we were lifeless, ignorant wood and stone or that we had died before you and were already apprehended by Divine punishment and thus could not keep watch over you. This statement could either be that of the

30. Here, every soul will be tested what it sent [90], before, and they shall be returned [91]. to Allah Who is their True Master. And all their fabrications shall be lost from them[92].

90. By this is meant going into Paradise or Hell everyone on the Day of Judgement will know the true situation of his deeds.

They will now say [97]: "It is Allah". Then, please declare: "Why do you not fear then? [98]"

94. He gives you sustenance through rain from the heavens and growth for plants from the earth. Hence this verse does not contradict the following verse. "And in the heavens is the

Also, this verse is revealed in Makkah in which the polytheists of Makkah are being addressed who did not believe in the Prophets.

being accountable on the Day of Judgement.

92. By this is meant these idols, etc will be of no benefit to them as those will be rendered false and meaningless. In actual fact they will not be lost but they will be with their worshippers in Hell to torment them, even the sun and the moon will be there as well.

قُلْ مَنْ يَّرْزُقُكُمْ مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ وَالْاَرْضِ اَمَّنْ يَّمْلِكُ السَّمْعَ وَالْاَبْصَارَ وَ مَنْ يُّخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَ يُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَ مَنْ يُّدَبِّرُ الْاَمْرَ ؕ فَسَيَقُوْلُوْنَ اللّٰهُ ۚ فَقُلْ اَفَلَا تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٣١﴾

95. In whose control is your eyes and ears and their powers! Who gives them to you when He so desires, and snatch them from you whenever He wishes. This tells us that only through our helplessness and dependence do we really come to understand the power and wealth of Allah Almighty. The great Sufis say that he who has understood himself has understood Allah Almighty.

96. He has created man from sperm and the sperm from man; a believer from a non-believer and non-believer from a believer; from an ignorant a learned, and from a learned an ignorant.

97. This means the infidels do accept Allah Almighty as Master, Creator and Planner of all affairs. Thereafter, they believe in their idols like Allah Almighty, believing that Allah Almighty is in need of them. Hence they are polytheists. Allah Almighty says that these infidels will tell these idols: "And when you equate them with the Lord of all the Worlds". (S26:V98) Some infidels regard their idols as total creator's and divinities. It could also be

32. This then is Allah, your True Lord. What remains then after the truth, is falsehood [99]. Then how can you turn away from Him?

99. This means worship of Allah Almighty is a truism while the worship of idols is misguidance. From this we learn that some

33. Thus the word of your Lord proved true against the transgressors[100], that they will not believe [101].

100. Here transgressors signify those infidels of sinful beliefs whose death upon infidelity has been decided, while word of your Lord means the following statement of Allah Almighty: "We will fill Hell with them".

34. Please declare: "Are there any of your associate gods who originate creation, then reproduce [102]. the same after destruction". Please said that since they believed in all these qualities of Allah Almighty but rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they remained polytheists. A true monotheist is he who believes in Allah Almighty through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم It should be remembered that the true Planner of all affairs is Allah Almighty, but on His authority some of His pious servants too perfrom this duty. Allah Almighty says regarding the angels: "Then they manage the affairs". (S79"V5) Likewise some Saints of Allah Almighty too are appointed to control and manage those affairs of the world which would be coming into existence. These saints are known as Ghaus, (one who comes to the rescue of others). Qutb, (highest position of spiritual service) etc.

98. This means why don't your fear Allah Almighty, or why don't you save yourselves from Hell by clinging firmly to Allah Almighty's protection because holding on to it is a means of being under peace and security in the world.

فَذٰلِكُمُ اللّٰهُ رَبُّكُمُ الْحَقُّ ۚ فَمَاذَا بَعْدَ الْحَقِّ اِلَّا الضَّلٰلُ ۚۖ فَاَنّٰى تُصْرَفُوْنَ ﴿٣٢﴾ acts can be termed as misguidance (as misguidance is a term of beliefs and the opposite of guidance).

declare: "Allah originates and then reproduces [103]. the same after destruction. Then where are you turning away blindly?"

الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيْدُهٗ فَاَنّٰى تُؤْفَكُوْنَ ﴿٣٤﴾

102. This means in reality, not their beliefs because the polytheists of Arabia had no belief in the Day of Judgement Surah Yunus was revealed in Makkah in which the polytheists of Makkah are being addressed.

103. By this is meant Allah Almighty will once again create a body on the original limbs of every one. Although at that time there may be a slight variation in one's appearance, but because the limbs would be original this recreation is called repetition. This is the same as when we say today about an old person that he is the same child that was born in such a house though his physique then was diffferent to what is now. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

35. Please declare: "Are there any of your associate gods who may guide [104]. you to the truth?" Please declare: "Only Allah guides [105] to the truth". Then should He Who guides to the truth be followed or he who himself finds no guidance [106] unless he is guided? Then what happened to you? How do you judge?"

قُلْ هَلْ مِنْ شُرَكَآئِكُمْ مَّنْ يَّهْدِيْٓ اِلَى الْحَقِّ ؕ قُلِ اللّٰهُ يَهْدِيْ لِلْحَقِّ ؕ اَفَمَنْ يَّهْدِيْٓ اِلَى الْحَقِّ اَحَقُّ اَنْ يُّتَّبَعَ اَمَّنْ لَّا يَهِدِّيْٓ اِلَّآ اَنْ يُّهْدٰى ۚ فَمَا لَكُمْ ۫ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُوْنَ ﴿٣٥﴾

104. By this is meant He sent Messengers in the world. He blessed them with miracles and revealed Books on them and established proofs of His powers before the people of the world.

105. He sent sensible and intelligent Messengers. He blessed them with revelation. All this is for your guidance for which you should be grateful.

106. By this is meant until you don't pick these idols up and place them in another place they cannot move from their place. This also tells that here associates refers to their lifeless idols and not the Prophet because these great personages have been sent to provide guidance. Says Allah Almighty: "And indeed, you are guiding towards the straight path". (S43:V52)

36. And most of them follow only conjecture [107]. Surely conjecture avails nothing against truth [108]. No doubt, Allah knows their work [109].

107. This means the polytheists have no proof to substantiate their idol worshipping. They are only engaged in it because their forefathers were engaged in this practice. This tells that an infidel is not certain of his religion. Here most is used in order to show that these were some polytheists who were fully certain that they were false and that Islam was a true Religion. They were merely afraid of declaring this because they wanted to continue obtaining revenue and honour. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

108. From this we learn that our personal conjecture in opposition to Prophetic command is a means of misguidance, while conjecture in accordance with Religious laws, is guidance. Says Allah Almighty: "Why it did not happen when you had heard it that the Muslim men and Muslim women would have thought good of their own people". (S24:V12).

109. Because they are merely complying with conjecture in matters of beliefs although issues regarding beliefs should be based on certainty whose deduction should be Divine Revelation and not with conjecture.

37. And this is not the attribute of this QUR'AAN that anyone might fabricate it without being sent down [110] by Allah. Yes, it is a confirmation [111] of the former Books. And it is the detailed explanation of what is written [112] in the details of the Book. There is no doubt [113] in it. It is from the Lord of the Worlds.

وَ مَا كَانَ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنُ اَنْ يُّفْتَرٰى مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَ لٰكِنْ تَصْدِيْقَ الَّذِىْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَ تَفْصِيْلَ الْكِتٰبِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيْهِ مِنْ رَّبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿٣٧﴾

110. The infidels were saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself invents Quranic verses then links them to Allah Almighty (May Allah forbid). In this verse there is an emphatic refutation of their belief that if your entire eloquent scholars could not produce one verse equal to it, then how would the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم produce the entire QUR'AAN. A thing on which man has no power is indeed Divine eg sun, moon, stars. Therefore you should have taken this example to accept the QUR'AAN as a Divine Book.

111 From this we learn that after the Holy QUR'AAN there would be no other Divine nor any other Prophet to come because the Holy QUR'AAN only verifies what has been revealed, it does not prophesise the coming of another prophet. Verification is made of the past and prophesy of the future.

112. This tells that the QUR'AAN has the complete detail of the Divine Tablet (LOH MAHFOOZ) while the Divine Tablet is the storehouse of every branch of knowledge and since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has full knowledge of the entire QUR'AAN Allah Almighty has blessed our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with every branch of knowledge.

113. However if anyone doubt's this verse of the QUR'AAN being storehouse of every branch of knowledge, he is denying this verse, and whosoever doubts that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not have the full knowledge of the QUR'AAN is denying this verse: "The Most Affectionate, Taught the QUR'AAN to His beloved". (S55:V1-2) the composition of the QUR'AAN, its order, its vowel system are all from Allah Almighty. Any one who denies its order is rejecting this verse.

38. Or, do they say: "Someone has fabricated [114])it". Please declare: "Then bring [115]. a Surah like it, and get help from all whom you can get [116], besides Allah, if you are truthful".

اَمْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ افْتَرٰىهُ ؕ قُلْ فَاْتُوْا بِسُوْرَةٍ مِّثْلِهٖ وَ ادْعُوْا مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٣٨﴾

114. The infidels of Makkah would sometimes say about the QUR'AAN that it is been produced by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and sometimes they would say that someone else was teaching him. Sometimes they would say it was magic. The refutation of their nonsensical claims has been made in various verses. Here the refutation is of their first accusation.

Marfat.com

115. Bring a small Surah equal to Surah Ikhlaas or Surah Kauthar, as is understood from the common noun of the Surah. Thus it is proven that the Holy QUR'AAN is incomparable. Likewise, the reveiver of the QUR'AAN the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is beyond comparison. In fact even his pure wives too are unique. Says Allah Almighty: "You are not like other women". (S33:V32) If the infidels had produced one verse equal to it, they would have published it

39. But they have belied that of which they have no knowledge, and they did not get control [117], and they have not yet seen its end [118]. In the same manner have those belied who were before them. Then see what became the end of the unjust [119].

بَلْ كَذَّبُوْا بِمَا لَمْ يُحِيْطُوْا بِعِلْمِهٖ وَ لَمَّا يَاْتِهِمْ تَاْوِيْلُهٗ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ كَذَّبَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۳۹﴾

117. Either this verse means the infidels had rejected the QUR'AAN without any thinking due to mere blind following, or it means they had rejected such a sublime Book which cannot be understood by human intelligence and wisdom.

118. This means that the QUR'AAN a miracle in eloquence and rhetoric as well as in giving prophetic information. If only these wretches had awaited the occurance of this prophetic information.

119.Their end would also be like this or should be like this. From this we learn. Conjecture is true eg to have a common law due to common cause. Any one who rejects the principle of analogy is rejecting these verses.

40. And among them is he who believes in it, and among them is he who does not believe [120], in it and your Lord knows well those who cause mischief [121].

120. In it there is a prophesy that neither will all those presently living in Makkah will accept faith nor will all be deprived of faith. Exactly the same took place. From this too we learn that not all people obtain benefit from the biggest beneficial thing. The but does not benefit from the sun nor does the saline soil from the rain.

121. By this is meant of the rejectors of the QUR'AAN some are under misunderstanding and some are caught in envy and hostility. The first group could receive guidance, but not the second, because they are mischief-mongers.

SECTION 5

41. And if they falsify you then please declare: "For me are my deeds [122], and for you are yours. You are not responsible for what I do, and I am not responsible for what you do [123]".

وَ اِنْ كَذَّبُوْكَ فَقُلْ لِّيْ عَمَلِيْ وَ لَكُمْ عَمَلُكُمْ ۚ اَنْتُمْ بَرِيْٓـُٔوْنَ مِمَّآ اَعْمَلُ وَ

اَنَا بَرِیۡٓءٌ مِّمَّا تَعۡمَلُوۡنَ ﴿۴۱﴾

122. From this we learn that the good deeds of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be able to save the sinful Muslim on the Day of Judgement but these good deeds will not rescue the infidels, because this topic has kept pending on falsificationn. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم offered sacrifice on behalf of his followers and he would intercede on our behalf.

123. This tells that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is responsible for not the bad but if Allah Almighty wills, getting their good deeds accepted and their sins forgiven. Says Allah Almighty: "Heavy upon him". (S9:V128) Your sins are under his responsibility. In Tafseer Roohul Bayaan this is one of the forms of recitation described for this verse and translated it in this manner. Consult Tafseer Roohul Bayaan under verse (S9:V128) Or its meaning is Oh you infidels neither will you benefit from my good deeds nor will your evil deeds harm me. However, believers would benefit from the good deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

42. And among them are some who listen [124] to you. Then will you make the deaf hear, even though they understand not [125]?

124. This means Oh my Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they listen to your words very attentively but not with the intention of accepting them but to find faults with them and make mockery of them. From this we learn attentive listening can only be beneficial if done with the intention of acceptance. Looking at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم makes a person a SAHABI - Companion - but not for every sight. This should be done with love and faith. To look at the face of your parents and Islamic Scholars is an act of worship, provided it is done with love.

125. From this last passage we learn that the deaf hear, and those who are deaf inwardly, i.e. the infidels because some times physically deaf people are quite intelligent.

43. And among them is one who looks[126], at you, but will you guide the blind, even though they do not see[127]?

وَ مِنۡهُمۡ مَّنۡ يَّنۡظُرُ اِلَيۡكَ ؕ اَفَاَنۡتَ تَهۡدِى الۡعُمۡىَ وَلَوۡ كَانُوۡا لَا يُبۡصِرُوۡنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

126. Bt this is meant only through the eye of intelligence and not just the eye of the heart that will make you into a SAHABI. Those who look at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as just Muhammad bin Abdullah he is eternally bereft of this status while those who look at him as Muhammad ur Rasoolullah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم shall be inmates of Paradise. Therefore Allah Almighty had left the observes blind i.e. inner blindness, who were cut off from all guidance.

127. This tells that the eye can see the true grandeur of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is different, of which those infidels were blind. This is the very gaze that blesses a person with Companionship. Otherwise Abu Jahl too had seen the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but not with the inner eye, hence he could not become a SAHABI. When we look at out mother, our sister, our wife we do so differently. Likewise look at the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم differently not like just an ordinary person.

44. Surely Allah is not at all unjust [128], to mankind, but men do injustice to themselves [129].

by committing infidelity. One who causes harm to himself is a greater tyrant than the one who causes harm to others. This is because our own soul and body has greater rights over us than the others.

وَ يَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ كَاَنْ لَّمْ يَلْبَثُوْٓا اِلَّا سَاعَةً مِّنَ النَّهَارِ يَتَعَارَفُوْنَ بَيْنَهُمْ ؕ قَدْ خَسِرَ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِلِقَآءِ اللّٰهِ وَ مَا كَانُوْا مُهْتَدِيْنَ ﴿٤٥﴾

45. And on the Day when He will raise them, as if they had not stayed in the world [130] but an hour [131] of that Day. They shall mutually recognize [132]. Those who had belied the meeting with Allah will remain in full loss and they were not rightly guided [133].

128. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty sent Prophets for providing guidance and blessed them with Revelation so that like your physical up-bringing they could nurture you spiritually as well.

129. They make themselves inmates of Hell

130. This translation of staying refers to staying in this world, not staying in the grave. Therefore the Mutazillah sect cannot use this as proof for the punishment of the grave. In comparison to the Hereafter, this world is but an hour of that Day.

131. This does not mean an hour of the night, because everyone feels the hours of the day but not the time of the night. From this we learn that the believers would be able to evaluate his worldly life accurately. The believer will be in his full senses, while the infidels would have lost all sensory control.

132. The conditions of Qiyamah will be completely different. At one time you would be able to recognise a person, the next moment there would be no recognition. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verses. The infidels at the time of their resurrection from the graves would be able to recognise one another, then due to the fears fo Qiyamah they would not be able to recognise them.

133. The infidel had been in a terrible loss in his business because he had sold his faith, the Hereafter and his infidelity to purchase the world.

وَ اِمَّا نُرِيَنَّكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِىْ نَعِدُهُمْ اَوْ نَتَوَفَّيَنَّكَ فَاِلَيْنَا مَرْجِعُهُمْ ثُمَّ اللّٰهُ شَهِيْدٌ عَلٰى مَا يَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿٤٦﴾

46. And if We show [134], you some of the things We are promising to them, or We call [135], you unto Us before, as they also have to return to Us [136]. Allah is Himself witness of what they did.

134. It should be remembered that here 'show you' means to show in this physical life. Otherwise, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم even after his worldly life is continuously seeing the entire world like the palm of one's hands, hears everyone's greetings and replies to them.

135. Here showing is not used opposite to not showing but instead demise from the world is being said so that no one should think that after his worldly life the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is unaware of the affairs of the world.

136. Under compulsion, after death. It should be remembered, that to turn willingly towards Allah Almighty is basis of obtaining rewards. Turning to Him under compulsion would be done by the infidels as well.

47. And for every nation there has been a Messenger [137]. When their Messenger had come to them it was judged [138]. between them justly and they would not have been wronged.

137. This refers to those followers and people upon whom punishment had been sent in the world, i.e. Allah Almighty had not destroyed any people without sending His Prophets to them. The commentary of this verse is the following verse: "And We are not to torment until We have sent a Messenger". (S17:V15) Hence, all those people to whom no Prophets were sent, like those who live by nature, had not been punished even in this world. Further, it should be remembered, Prophets were always from noble and sublime families (Bukhari Shareef), while common people had been their followers. Thus this verse in no way proves that every prophet that was sent had come only to his own people Allah forbid. Observe, though our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by birth was a Hashimite, yet he is sent as a Prophet to the entire creation.

138. This tells that the coming of the Prophets is a means of mercy to the fortunate people, but a punishment to the wretched, just like the rising of the sun causes hardship to the bat, and the rain causes some fruit and vegetation to be destroyed.

48. And they say: "When will this promise [139], come, if you are truthful[140]?"

139. Reason for its revelation:
When this verse "And if We show you" was revealed the infidel Arabs out of mercy said when will that punishment occur. In response this verse was revealed.

140. The word 'say' means Oh Prophet, and Oh Believers! because the infidels would put the same question to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as well as to the believers.

49. Please declare: "I have no personal power to do good or bad myself, but what pleases [141]. Allah. For every nation there is a fixed term[142]. When their term is complete, then neither can they stay behind for an hour, nor can they advance [143].

قُلْ لَّاۤ اَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِیْ ضَرًّا وَّ لَا نَفْعًا اِلَّا مَا شَآءَ اللّٰهُ ؕ لِكُلِّ اُمَّةٍ اَجَلٌ ؕ اِذَا جَآءَ اَجَلُهُمْ فَلَا یَسْتَاْخِرُوْنَ سَاعَةً وَّ لَا یَسْتَقْدِمُوْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

141. This means that without the bounty of Allah Almighty I personally cannot cause benefit and harm to myself. Indirectly, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is empowered by Allah Almighty with the profit and loss of the entire world. Says Allah Almighty: "That Allah and His Messenger has enriched them"...(S9:V74).

Marfat.com

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says "If I so desire mountains of gold would come with me". Hazrat Iesa Alaihis Salaam had said: "I can put life in the dead, and cure the blind and the lepers". Hazrat Yusuf Alaihis Salaam had said: "Take my shirt, it will restore the sight of my father".

142. By this is meant the time of destruction of every nation is recorded in the Divine Tablet. Those whose gaze is upon this Tablet is fully aware of it.

143. From this we learn that in the inevitable fate there can be no change, but in the pending fate changes continue to take place. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah wipes out what He pleases and establishes (what He pleases) and the real writing is with Him". (S13:V39) Through the supplication of Hazrat Adam (Alaihis Salaam) the age of Hazrat Dawood (Alaihis Salaam) was increased from sixty to hundred years. Wealth and age increases due to good deeds and charity. For this reason supplication is made permissible. It should be remembered that unalteration in the time of death is Divine law but alteration in its time is Divine Power. We are bound by law, not Allah Almighty. In this verse "they stay behind", and "they advance" have been brought together to show that man cannot alter the time of death according to his own wish. Putting life in the dead by Hazrat Iesa Alaihis Salaam, bringing the four slaughtered birds back to life by Hazrat Ebrahim Alaihis Salaam, coming back to life after a hundred years by Hazrat Uzair Alaihis Salaam, coming back to life of the seventy Israelites, was all by the command of Allah Almighty and manifestation of His power. All these incidents are clearly mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN. Thus this verse is not contradicting those verses.

50. Please declare: "Tell me, if His punishment comes upon you by night or day [144], then what is there for which the guilty are in a hurry[145]?"

قُلْ اَرَءَيْتُمْ اِنْ اَتٰىكُمْ عَذَابُهٗ بَيَاتًا اَوْ نَهَارًا مَّاذَا يَسْتَعْجِلُ مِنْهُ الْمُجْرِمُوْنَ ﴿٥٠﴾

144. By this is meant in your state of negligence because the infidels are so engrossed in sleep during the night and in their commerce during the day that they are totally unware of what else is taking place.

145.By this is meant the infidels are too busy mocking and staying in a state of negligence, while the believers are engrossed in making efforts to save themselves from the fears of punishment.

51. Will you then believe therein when it would occur actually? Do you now believe, whereas you were hastening for it before [146]?

146. By this is meant bringing faith after punishment becomes manifest is unacceptable. The people of Hazrat Yunus (Alaihis Salaam) brought faith prior to seeing the signs of punishment and not after seeing it. Therefore their repentance was accepted, while that of the Pharoah was rejected.

52. Then it will be said to the wrongdoers: "Taste [147], the punishment everlasting. You will get nothing more as retribution, but whatever you used to earn [148]".

ثُمَّ قِيْلَ لِلَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا ذُوْقُوْا عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ ۚ هَلْ تُجْزَوْنَ اِلَّا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿٥٢﴾

Marfat.com

147. This would be said to the infidels on the Day of Judgement and not in their graves; because the punishment of the grave is not eternal. For this reason the word 'then' has been used here. Thus to use this verse as a proof to substantiate that the punishment of the grave holds no importance is incorrect.

148. From this emerge two issues:

1. On the Day of Judgement the infidels would be punished for not doing good deeds as well as for committing sins as is being understood from "used to earn" because in terms of punishment they are accountable for their deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "They said, we used to offer prayer". (S74:V43)

2. The minor children of the infidels will not be subjected to punishment, because the word 'but' explains that punishment will be meted out due to evil deeds or infidelity.

53. And they ask you: "Is that true [149]?" Please declare: "Yes, by my Lord, surely that is true [150]. And you cannot escape [151]".

149. By this is meant punishment of the world or punishment of the Hereafter which You are promising for us. This question of theirs was for the sake of mocking.

150. From this verse a few issues emerge:

1. To question the pious in a mocking manner is the habit of the infidels, because the above question by the infidels was not for the sake of enquiry.

2. To answer such nonsensical and absurd questions too is Sunnah of the Prophet as this too is part of propagation.

3. Providing an answer is better than asking a question when this is beneficial.

151. This means of saving yourself from Divine punishment is obedience to Him. Here strength and wealth will not help, weeping in awe of Him will certainly prove beneficial .

وَ لَوْ اَنَّ لِكُلِّ نَفْسٍ ظَلَمَتْ مَا فِى الْاَرْضِ لَافْتَدَتْ بِهٖ ؕ وَ اَسَرُّوا النَّدَامَةَ لَمَّا رَاَوُا الْعَذَابَ ۚ وَقُضِىَ بَيْنَهُمْ بِالْقِسْطِ وَ هُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۵۴﴾

54. And if every unjust soul [152], had owned as that is in the earth, then it would certainly ransom for itself. And they were secretly ashamed [153]. in their hearts when they saw the punishment. And it was decided between them with equity [154]. and they shall not be wronged.

152. By tyrant is meant an infidel or a polytheist is clarified by the forth coming discussion.

153. This will happen once and at other times they would be secretly expressing shame in their hearts. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

154. It should be remembered that giving a decision in accordance with the law is justice. The eternal punishment for infidelity and polytheism order. Hence, it is objectionable to say regarding this verse that why is there eternal punishment for a few years of infidelity.

اَلَاۤ اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَا فِى السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ اَلَاۤ اِنَّ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقٌّ وَّ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۵۵﴾

55. Listen, no doubt, it is of Allah only whatever is in the heavens and the earth [155]. Listen, verily Allah's promise is true, but most of them know not [156].

155. Hence the infidels will not be given ownership of anything their ownership of things in the world too is merely an apparent one. Only the pious servants are owners of all things of Allah Almighty.

156. This tells that to believe in even the possibility of a lie in the promises of Allah Almighty is the work of ignorant people. Every promise of Allah Almighty is absolutely true and its contradiction is Divinely impossible.

56. He gives life and causes death, and to Him you shall return [157].

هُوَ يُحْيٖ وَ يُمِيْتُ وَ اِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿٥٦﴾

157. Oh infidels, after death you would be compulsively returning to Allah Almighty. The believer was inclined towards Allah Almighty even while in the world. Also, a believer does not return to Allah Almighty out of compulsion, he goes happily saying: "A friend returns happily to a Friend".

57. O people [158]! There has come an admonition to you from your Lord and healing for what is in your hearts [159], and guidance and a mercy for the believers [160].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَآءَتْكُمْ مَّوْعِظَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ وَ شِفَآءٌ لِّمَا فِي الصُّدُوْرِ ۙ وَ هُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٥٧﴾

158. Oh people of every period and every place! because the Holy QUR'AAN has come for all times and for everybody, just as the light of the sun is for every creation. The earlier books were light, but the Holy QUR'AAN is the sun.

159. From this we learn that the Holy QUR'AAN is the cure of all the ills of the heart. Says Allah Almighty: "It is a healing and mercy to the believer". (S17:V82) Hence using the Holy QUR'AAN for the purpose of blowing over a person, for incantation, for amulet (Ta'weez) etc is permissible. Just as the QUR'AAN is the cure for all our spiritual ills, it is a cure for all our physical ills as well. If you call a person stupid donkey he gets angry. Thus if names of animals can have that quality to bring about change, then surely the blessed name of Allah Almighty has greater power to provide cure.

160. Here four qualities of the Qu'raan are being mentioned. Only these are mentioned because only Muslim derive benefits from them, otherwise the QUR'AAN is a guidance and healing for the entire world.

58. Please declare: "Only Allah's Bounty and only His Mercy [161] on it. Therefore let them rejoice [162]. That is better than all their wealth [163].

قُلْ بِفَضْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ فَبِذٰلِكَ فَلْيَفْرَحُوْا ؕ هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْمَعُوْنَ ﴿٥٨﴾

161. Some Islamic scholars have said that the Holy Prophet is the greatest bounty of Allah Almighty, and the Holy QUR'AAN is the mercy of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And great is the grace of Allah upon you". (S4:V113) Some have said that the Holy QUR'AAN is the bounty of Allah Almighty, and the Holy Prophet is His mercy. Says Allah Almighty: "And We sent you not but a mercy for all the worlds". (S21:V107)

162. This tells us to express joy during the month of revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN i.e. in Ramadaan, and during the birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of worship because one should express joy on receiving the mercy from Allah Almighty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم without doubt is the greatest bounty and mercy of Allah Almighty. This joy is indeed expressing gratitude to Allah Almighty for His blessings and bounties.

163. Expression of this joy is better than all the bounties of the world, because it is an act of worship for which innumerable rewards would be given.

قُلْ اَرَءَيْتُمْ مَّآ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ مِّنْ رِّزْقٍ فَجَعَلْتُمْ مِّنْهُ حَرَامًا وَّ حَلٰلًا ؕ قُلْ آٰللّٰهُ اَذِنَ لَكُمْ اَمْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ تَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿٥٩﴾

59. Please declare: "Think what Allah has bestowed upon you of provisions. You have yourselves made some part of it lawful [164]. and another unlawful". Please declare: "Has Allah permitted it for you or you forge a lie against Allah [165]".

164. To regard Allah Almighty's lawful things as unlawful and unlawful things as lawful in indeed heresy. Thus to regard Meelad Shareef and Fateha of the pious saints as unlawful without any religious proof is without doubt a heretical act. Regarding such Allah Almighty says that they are forging a lie against Allah Almighty. The things that Allah Almighty has made unlawful who are we to make it lawful.

165. The infidels would regard animals like Baheera, Saaiba, Waseela which they would leave in the name of their idols as unlawful. To censure them for this practice of theirs, this verse was revealed. These animals are lawful and regarding them as unlawful is forging a lie against Allah Almighty. From this emerges a few issues: 1. An animal which is brought up and left in the name of those other than Allah Almighty is not unlawful. If this aimal is slaughtered in the name of Allah Almighty, and the slaughterer is a Muslim , it is lawful to eat.

2. The food cooked for Meelad Sharerf, Gyarwee Shareef, Iesaale Sawaab for conveying the rewards of it to the departed souls, is not unlawful. Those who call it unlawful are forging a lie against Allah Almighty. Through the blessing of Allah Almighty a lawful thing does not become unlawful.

3. it is totally forbidden to undertake hunger strikes because it amounts to making lawful provisions of Allah Almighty unlawful upon you.

وَ مَا ظَنُّ الَّذِيْنَ يَفْتَرُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ الْكَذِبَ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَذُوْ فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٦٠﴾ ع

60. And what do they fancy, who forge a lie against Allah, what will be their position on the Day of Resurrection [166]? No doubt, Allah is graceful [167], for people, but most of them are not thankful [168].

166. The present day Wahabis who do not express their disgust and disapproval at gambling, alcohol, cinema, etc should take a lesson from this. This disgust and disapproval they show is at Meelad gatherings and at Iesaale Sawaab.

167. Allah Almighty has bestowed His grace upon them by raising from them Prophets, Saints and true scholars who had taught them to distinguish between lawful and unlawful.

168. From this few things become known:

1. Allah Almighty has been more kind to human beings than His entire creation by blessing them with the faculty of thinking, and sent Prophets and Saints to them.

2. Man is more ungrateful to Allah Almighty than His entire creation because besides human beings no one else is an infidel in His entire creation. None in His creation is disobedient besides the Jinns.

3. At all times the ungrateful are more than those who are grateful.

work [169], or you recite any part of the QUR'AAN from Him, and you perfrom any act, We are witnesses over you when you commence it [170]. And there is nothing hidden from your Lord even to an atom's weight in the earth or in the heaven. And there is nothing smaller [171], than that or greater, but it is in the Luminous Book [172].

169. By you is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is at all times and under all circumstances the centre of attention of Allah Almighty, Says Allah Almighty: Indeed you are in our sight who see's you while you stand" (S 52 : V 48)

170. From this verse we learn that recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN is a blessed act because it has been mentioned with great deal of preference. Otherwise, every work is generally done is being witnessed by Allah Almighty. Further, we learn that if man becomes mindful that whatever he is doing he is being watched by Allah Almighty, he will never commit any sin.

171. Remember three signs:

1. Everybody small or big is in the Divine Tablet / Divine knowledge.
2. The complete details of The Divine knowledge is found in the QUR'AAN. Says Allah Almighty: "And is the detail explanation of what is written in the Tablet, there is no doubt in it". (S10:V37)
3. The entire QUR'AAN, and every branch of its knowledge is fully known to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty: "The Most Affectionate Taught the QUR'AAN to His Beloved". (S55:V1-2). Hence the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has obtained every type of knowledge.

172. The reason for recording of every branch of knowledge in the Divine Tablet is to ensure that all who have been blessed with seeing the Divine Tablet would be made aware of them. Otherwise there is no possibility of Allah Almighty forgetting them. It is for this reason that the Tablet is being declared as luminous, meaning it is made luminous on the pious servants of Allah Almighty, or through this it is able to reveal these unseen branches of knowledge to them.

اَلَاۤ اِنَّ اَوْلِيَآءَ اللّٰهِ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ

62. Listen carefully! No doubt, there is no fear nor any grief [173], upon the friends of Allah [174].

173. The pious servants of Allah Almighty are known as the Saints or Friends of Allah Almighty, while his cursed servants are friends of those other than Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Their supporters are the devils" (S 52 : V 257) Among these pious servants some are pious because of their piety and purity. This is known as acquired Sainthood, some are saints at birth which is bestowed sainthood. Observe, Bibi Mariam was a saint at birth, Hazrat Adam Alaihis Salaam at birth became object of prostration of the angels; others gain sainthood through the kind attention of the pious which is called inherent sainthood, like those magicians who became instant Companions and martyrs through the blessed gaze of Hazrat Moosa (Alaihis Salaam) or Hazrat Shuaib Najjaar who became an instant saint amongst the disciples of Hazrat Iesa (Alaihis Salaam). All three types of saints are included in this verse. In whichever verse a friend is being disgraced it is for those other than the true Friends of Allah Almighty.

174. There are two type of Saints, the TASHRI- and Takweeni.
The first type includes all those pious believers who have obtained the nearness of Allah Almighty; in the second type includes those saints who have been granted the power of effecting change. Of the first type there is one out of every forty pious believers, while the group of the second type is special and specific. This includes Ghaus, Qutub, Abdaal etc. They are relieved of all the fears and griefs of this world and Hereafter.

63.They are those who believe and keep up their duty [175].

175. As much opportunity they may find. It should be remembered some obtain sainthood after becoming pious, while others become saints then become pious. Here mention is being made of the former. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse, because Hazrat Mariam, at the age of four when she had been given in the care of Hazrat Zakariaya (Alaihis Salaam) had not yet obtained piety, yet she was a saint. Like that, Hazrat Adam (Alaihis Salaam) had not obtained piety at birth, yet he was at that point in timeVicegerant of Allah Almighty.

64. For them are glad tidings [176], in the life of this world and in the Hereafter [177]. The words of Allah are not changeable [178]. That indeed is the supreme triumph [179].

لَهُمُ الْبُشْرٰى فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ ؕ لَا تَبْدِيْلَ لِكَلِمٰتِ اللّٰهِ ؕ ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ ﴿۶۴﴾

176. By this is meant that it is spontaneously uttered by the creation that he is the Friend of Allah Almighty as in the case of Hazrat Ghaus Paak and Hazrat Khawaja Ajmeri (May Peace of Allah be upon them) This is a great sign of a Saint. Acceptance by the creation is sign of acceptance by Allah Almighty.

177. By this is meant that at their time of death and at their time of resurrection from the grave the angels would testify that they are Friends of Allah Almighty, and will give glad tidings about Paradise and Pleasure of Allah Almighty for their success.

178. Thus in terms of the status given to the saints, whatever promises that have been made for them are all true. It is the glory of Allah Almighty that He has given description about His Friends in the part of the QUR'AAN eleventh section of this Surah which indicates that Allah Almighty greatly loves Giyarwee Shareef.

179. From this emerge a few issues:
1. The true Religion is that in which the Friends of Allah Almighty are found.
2. The true definition and identification of a Saint is when the creation of Allah Almighty calls him a saint; Another interpretation "for them are glad tidings" is that people call him a Saint and an inmate of Paradise;
3. Although Prophethood has ended with our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but Sainthood would remain until the Day of Judgement. Saints would continue to appear because their coming is a living proof of the truth of Islam. Those branches which are laden with fruit and flowers are alive and become linked with the root.
4. The saints are not subjected to fear of creation in their execution of their religious duties.

65. And be not grieved [180]. by their words. Surely, all honour belongs to Allah. It is He Who Hears and Knows.

180. By you is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because just by calling the sun black will not make it black, instead one calling it black will become as such.

اَلَاۤ اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَ مَا يَتَّبِعُ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ شُرَكَآءَ ؕ اِنْ يَّتَّبِعُوْنَ اِلَّا الظَّنَّ وَ اِنْ هُمْ اِلَّا يَخْرُصُوْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾

66. Listen, verily whosoever is in the heavens and whosoever is in the earth [181] belongs to Allah. And what they are following those [182]. who call gods as associates besides Allah? They follow nothing but fancy [183]. And they do nothing but conjecture[184].

181. This tells the kingdom of Allah Almighty is unlimited and not restricted, therefore that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is unlimited. The premiership of the Prime Minister is applicable to all the boundaries of the kingdom. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the Kingdom of Allah Almighty, is like the Prime Minister. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty physically pure from appointing any one as minister. In a physical sense no one is Almighty Allah's minister they are ministers in the kingdom.

182. By this is meant do these polytheists have any proof to substaniate their polytheism? None at all! as is explained further.

183. Their priests merely follow the dictates of their conjecture, and similar is the case with those who follw them.

184. From this we learn that in matters of faith and beliefs mere conjecture and assumption are not enough, the Holy QUR'AAN and Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are necessary. Further, to make assumption in opposition to revelation is the way of the infidels. The devil was the person guilty of this type of assumption and analogy. He used assumption in opposition to Divine Command.

هُوَ الَّذِيْ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الَّيْلَ لِتَسْكُنُوْا فِيْهِ وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا ؕ اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَّسْمَعُوْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

67. It is He Who has made night[185], for you, that you may rest therein [186], and made the day full of light. No doubt therein are signs for those who listen [187].

185. From this we learn the creation of day and night is for the benefit of man, while the other creation is enjoying their benefit because of man. In fact the entire universe was created for man. Says Allah Almighty: "Created for you what is in the earth". (S2:V29) In the calculation of man our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is regarded as the true purpose for its creation. Further, night should be used for sleep and the day for work. To stay awake at night without any reason is not a good thing.

186. In this there is a hint that do not remain awake at night without any reason. Sleep in the first part of the night while to be awake for the purpose of perfroming Tahajjud in the latter part of the night is Sunnat. Physical comfort lies in sleep, while spiritual contentment is in Tahajjud. The words "that you may rest therein" is applicale to both.

Marfat.com

187. This tells only those ears are perfroming the function of performing which hear the verses of Allah Almighty. Those ears which do not pay heed to the Divine Commands but instead listen to other things are in reality deaf, as they fail to achieve their true objective.

68. They (Christians) say: "Allah has begotten a son [188]. Allah is Holy, the Self-sufficient [189]. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth [190]. You have no authority for the claim. Do you say against Allah that which you know not [191]?

قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللّٰهُ وَلَدًا سُبْحٰنَهٗ ؕ هُوَ الْغَنِیُّ ؕ لَهٗ مَا فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِی الْاَرْضِ ؕ اِنْ عِنْدَكُمْ مِّنْ سُلْطٰنٍ بِهٰذَا ؕ اَتَقُوْلُوْنَ عَلَی اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۶۸﴾

188. By this is meant like the polytheists who believe the angels as daughters of Allah Almighty, the Christians believe Iesa Alaihis Salaam as son of Allah Almighty and the jews who believe Uzayr Alaihis Salaam as son of Allah Almighty, while it is apparent the offspring is like the father. To accept anyone to be like Allah Almighty is polytheism. It should be remembered that Christians, Jews and polytheists, in matters of beliefs are virtually alike, but because the Christians, Jews, believe in a prophet, the laws regarding them are as a result of this belief, lighter than those of the polytheists, in that marriage with their women became permissible, and they became known as People of the Book.

189. He has no end nor has He any fear. Children are there either to perpetuate the off spring, or give strength to the fathers against the enemy.

190. In this verse the nonsensical prattle of the infidels is being refuted in three ways. The first is with "Holy is He" that He is pure from all imperfection. He is free having off-spring, because he is free and pure from mortality. Secondly, through "To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens" He is the Master of everything and father is not the master and owner of the offspring. Thirdly through "You have no authority" that you have no proof to substantiate this noncensical prattle

191. Believe in those attributes of Allah Almighty which you have come to know through the Prophets as there is no room here for human intellect.

69. Please declare: "Those who forge a lie against Allah, they will never prosper [192]".

قُلْ اِنَّ الَّذِیْنَ یَفْتَرُوْنَ عَلَی اللّٰهِ الْكَذِبَ لَا یُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۶۹﴾ ؕ

192. This tells a false prophet is never successful as can be seen what terrible end was met by Musailama the Liar, and Qadyani dajjals of those days. It should be remembered that firstly no supernatural happenings ever take place through them and even if it does it is contradictory to his claim which further elucidates his falsehood. This verse could also mean that you are liars and a liar is never successful, or it could mean if I was not a true Prophet I would not have been successful, and you are seeing my success and miracles day and night.

70. They have achieved little credit only in this world. They are to

193. In this verse there is a reply to their objection that many false people in the world are found to be well and comfortable. The reply is this comfort is of a temporary nature, does not have any credence and will end in disaster.

71. And recite [194], to them the story of Nuh [195], when he said to his people: "O my people! If my standing up and reminding you of the Signs [196], of Allah has offered you then I trust only in Allah [197]. You plan your actions united with your false associate gods so that nothing may be obscured [198]. to you in Your works. Then make any decision against me and allow me no respite [199]".

194. From this emerge two issues:
1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of the conditions of the previous Prophets prior to this. The Holy QUR'AAN is mentioning these incidents for the purpose of informing the people.
2. Reading and listening to authentic stories of the pious servants of Allah Almighty is an act of worship. The study of History is beneficial. Remember that Hazrat Nooh Alaihis Salaam is the fourth Prophet to come in this world. His name is YASHKAR and title is Nooh because he would be excessively engaged in weeping and lamentation due to the fear of Allah Almighty. He is also Adam II. During his prophethood marriage between brother and sister became unlawful.

195. People to who he was sent as Prophet. From this we learn that it is permissible to refer to the infidels as your people or nation. The purpose is to gain their attention towards you. It should be remembered the word people or nation, fellow workers, fellow countrymen, of the same language and of one's community, is used in all such instances.

196. When the people of Hazrat Nuh (Alaihis Salaam) had threatened to kill him, he replied in these words. If any of his people were always inflicting sever cruelty upon him.

197. Thus I will certainly not give up conveying and propagating the Message of Allah Almighty because of your cruelty This amply demonstarates that just one steadfast ness is superior to thousands of miracle's.

198. By this is meant try and conceive every type of plan to destroy me so that later you will have no regrets that we did not inflict this cruelty or we did not conceive this plan to kill.

199. This is the true meaning of "they experience no fear" i.e. they may be alone but they fear no one. If Ghulam Qadyani was a prophet or even a saint he would most certainly had gone to Afghanistan for the purpose of propagation, and had not given up Hajj due to fear of people. It should be remembered that there are two types of fear - one is out of hate the other is out of obedience. The first type is fear of creation eg fear of the snakes, fear of the king. The pious of Allah Almighty experience the first type of fear with the creation like Hazrat Moosa's Alaihis Salaam fear of the snakes, they do not experience fear of the second type.

72. "Then if you turn your face, then I ask not any wage [200], from you. My wage is only with Allah, and I have been ordered to be of the Muslims [201]".

فَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَمَا سَأَلْتُكُمْ مِّنْ أَجْرٍ ۖ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ ۙ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾

200. Whose death I should regret. This tells that delivering lecture without any selfish motives is excellent.

201. Here the word Muslim is used literally i.e. one subservient to Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And when they both submitted to My command and the father laid down his son his forehead". (S37:V103) while the conventional or technical meaning of one's word is one who is the follower of the prophet, especially the follower of our Holy Prophet . In terms of this meaning a prophet cannot be called a Muslim because they are not the followers on anyone. Likewise Allah Almighty is literally a believer, but tecnically it would be wrong to call him a believer.

73. But they disbelieved him. Then We delivered him and those [202], who were with him in the Ark and We made them successors [203], and We drowned those who belied Our Signs. Then see [204], what was the end of those who were warned.

فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَنَجَّيْنَاهُ وَمَنْ مَّعَهُ فِي الْفُلْكِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ خَلَٰٓئِفَ وَأَغْرَقْنَا الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا ۚ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾

202. From this there is a hint that these believers were not really saved by the ship but through the companionship with Hazrat Nooh (Alaihis Salaam). The ship was the container of this companionship. It should be remembered that in matters of beliefs and deeds acceptance of fellowship of the Prophet is absolutely essential.

203. By this is meant after the destruction of the infidels the people of the ship were granted ownership of the land and heirs of their wealth. Or that Hazrat Nooh (Alaihis Salaam) was made His vicegerent, and after him believers were made his vicegerents.

204. From its literal meaning one learns that all past and future things are within the sight of the Prophet of Allah. Although the punishment of the previous people had come to pass yet the 'observe' is being used. Elsewhere it is being said: "Have you not seen how your Lord dealth with the people of Aad". (S89:V7) This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had seen the punishment meted out to the Aad. Likewise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the night of Mer'aj saw the inmates of Paradise and Hell, yet they will only enter these places after the Day of Judgement. In short, the sight of the Prophet beholds everything past, future, hidden and invisible. Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم looked skywards and said it is that time when the knowledge of religion would be taken away from the world. Yet that particular time would only came very near to Day of Judgement, but he said this is the time. This tells us that at that point in time he is looking at this particular time.

ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ رُسُلًا اِلٰى قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَآءُوْهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ فَمَا كَانُوْا لِيُؤْمِنُوْا بِمَا كَذَّبُوْا بِهٖ مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ نَطْبَعُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِ الْمُعْتَدِيْنَ ﴿۷۴﴾

74. Then after him We sent other Messengers [205]. towards their people. They brought to them bright proofs, but they were not to believe what they had already belied before [206]. Thus, We seal the hearts of the transgressors [207].

205. During the time of Hazrat Nooh (on whom be peace) there were only believing children. All infidels had been destroyed. However, in the children of these remaining people infidelity and polytheism began to spread through the misguidance of the devil. Thus Hazrat Saleh, Hazrat Hud, Hazraat Ebrahim, etc (on them be peace) were sent at their times. It should be remembered that Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) is the seventh Prophet, calculating from Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) who was the first, followed by Hazrat Shaith, then Hazrat Idrees, then Hazraat Nooh, then Hazrat Saleh, then Hazrat Hud, followed by Hazrat Ebrahim (on them be peace). After him all Prophets are his progeny and are called Ebrahimi.

206. By this is meant religious laws and the sayings of the Prophets i.e. when they rejected one Prophet, then they continued rejecting the other Prophets, without believing in any one of them.

207. From this we learn if any heart is bereft of the love of a Prophet then no guidance will ever exercise effect therein. Such a heart is sealed.

ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ مُّوْسٰى وَهٰرُوْنَ اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ وَ مَلَا۟ئِهٖ بِاٰيٰتِنَا فَاسْتَكْبَرُوْا وَكَانُوْا قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾

75. Then after them We sent Musa and Harun to the Pharaoh and his courtiers with Our Signs [208]. But they turned out to be proud [209] and were guilty people.

208. From this we learn that Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) was a Prophet for all Egyptians, whether they were Israelites or Qibtis. Thus this verse does contradict that he was Prophet for the Israelites alone. the name of the Pharoah during the time of Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) was Musib bin Qaboos, bin Rayyaan. During that period every Egyptian king was called a Pharoah, likewise Egyptian kings during the time of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) were called Aziz, and in the ottoman Caliphate were called Khadiv. It should be remembered that Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) was the king and Hazrat Haroon (on whom be peace) was the Prime Minister.

209. This means he was small but became big. This is the meaning of "they waxed proud" From beforehand Pharoah and his followers were habitual offenders in matters of beliefs. Infidels were intensely cruel in deeds.

76. Then when the truth came to them from Us, they said: "This is surely a manifest magic [210]".

210.Because his miracle was very closely related magic of that time. Those magicians too would change bamboo sticks into snakes. In every period a prophet was blessed with miracles related to things that were prevalent at that time.

peace) told the magicians: "Cast down" To cast a spell of magic for the sake of opposing the Prophet is infidelity. This is forbidden in any case, especially when it is intended to cause harm to a person .

212. Worship of the pharoah and the idols made by him, as well as obedience and servitude to him.

213. From this emerge two issues:

1.Casting suspicion and distrust in a Prophet is infidelity. The followers of the Pharoah cast this suspicion that Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) had desired the kingship of Egypt and he was using prophethood as an excuse to seize this . Just like Mirza Qadyani had made his false prophethood a basis for his children's future times. First he was a destitute it there is no permissibility for practising magic, but a practical preaching against it. Thus there can be no objection concerning it on

81. Then when they had cast down, Musa said: "What you have brought is magic [216]. Now Allah will nullify [217]. it. Allah does not rectify the work of mischief-makers" [218].

216. From this we learn that magic and miracles cannot be doubtful on Prophets. They become aware that it is merely fraudulent without any truth in it. Further we learn that in opposition to prophetic miracles magic is rendered useless. However magic can leave its effect on the Prophet, like the effect of the poison or sword. Also, that Moosa (on whom be peace) was not frightened by this magic, but feared that it could cause doubt.

217. By means of miracles. This tells that Allah Almighty had blessed Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) with the knowledge of the unseen as he had given the infromation of the events to come beforehand, and which took place as was foretold.

218. From this emerge two issues:

1. To practice black magic is an act of mischief and rebellion and that magicians are mischief-mongers,
2. Mischief is not eternal.

It should be remembered that magic is not just deception and treachery, but it does have truth about it. This is the belief of the Ahle Sunnat.

82. "And Allah will show [219], the truth by His Words, however averse (to it) the culprits may be".

وَ يُحِقُّ اللّٰهُ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمٰتِهٖ وَ لَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُجْرِمُوْنَ ﴿۸۲﴾ ع ۱۲

219. This means it is based on the promise made to me. Or only by saying Be! Truth prevails and falsehood is conquered.

SECTION 9

83. But none believed Musa, but [220], a few from the offspring of his people, fearing Pharaoh and his courtiers, lest they may compel them [221]. to fall back (from Religion). And no doubt Pharaoh was a tyrant in the land [222]. Without doubt, he crossed the limit [223].

فَمَآ اٰمَنَ لِمُوْسٰٓى اِلَّا ذُرِّيَّةٌ مِّنْ قَوْمِهٖ عَلٰى خَوْفٍ مِّنْ فِرْعَوْنَ وَ مَلَا۟ئِهِمْ اَنْ يَّفْتِنَهُمْ ؕ وَ اِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ لَعَالٍ فِى الْاَرْضِ ۚ وَ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الْمُسْرِفِيْنَ ﴿۸۳﴾

220. By this is meant at first only a few Israelites accepted faith due to Pharoah's fear, but later thousands of magicians and Israelites became believers. Hence there is no inconsistency in this verse. It could also mean that a few from the people of Pharoah accepted faith, or those few boys of the Israelites which their mothers had given to the female supporters of the Pharoah had become believers, i.e. though they were Isrealites but were regarded as Qibtis (Khazainul Irfaan).

221. In that he would compel them to become apostates after having accepted Islam. From this we learn that reciting the Kalima is a condition for declaring faith. Mere inward belief without its verbal declarations is not sufficient for being a believer. Observe, those who could not declare their faith due to fear of the Pharoah have been declared by Allah Almighty that they did not accept faith.

222. From this we learn that to gain eminence for egotistic reasons is the way of the infidels, while making efforts to gain eminence for the sake of Religion is the way of the Prophets. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) said: "Set me over the treasures of earth". No doubt, I am watchful, knowing. (S12:V55) The former eminence is rebellious, the latter is promotion of Religion.

223. This means though he was just a servant of Allah Almighty, he was trying to go beyond the limits of servitude and began to claim divinity. This tells that to remain within the limits is a great bounty of Allah Almighty. When water goes beyond the limits becomes floods, when a man exceeds the limits he becomes a devil.

84. Musa said [224]: "O my people, if you believe in Allah, place your trust in Him alone, if you are a Muslim [225].

وَقَالَ مُوْسٰى يٰقَوْمِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ اٰمَنْتُمْ بِاللّٰهِ فَعَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلُوْٓا اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

224. These words of Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) are addressed to those people who had accepted faith. In it hardships that would be coming is hinted i.e. you would be experiencing hardships, so exercise patience when they take place.

225. From this emerge two issues:

1. Faith and Islam are one and the same thing.
2. The demand of the excellence of faith is that man should rely fully on Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that here to rely means one should not fear anyone besides Allah Almighty.

85. They said: "We place our trust [226] in Allah alone. Our Lord, make us not a test for the unjust [227]. people.

فَقَالُوْا عَلَى اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا ۚ رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِّلْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۙ﴿٨٥﴾

226. Now we will not retreat, and they did exactly what they had said. This tells that to declare your sincerety, especially in the presence of The Prophet is not an act of show, but a form of excellence.

227. This means do not grant them ascendency upon us which would make them think that they are on the path of truth and we are on falsehood, because due to this deception they may become more steadfast on falsehood.

86. And deliver [228]. us by Your Mercy from the infidels.

وَنَجِّنَا بِرَحْمَتِكَ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾

228. By 'deliver us' means save us from their cruelty and injustice, from their deception and from having to see them i.e. Oh Allah destroy them.

87. And we revealed to Musa and his brother, saying: "Build a house for your people in Egypt, and make your house the place [229]. of worship. And establish prayer [230]. and give glad-tidings to the Muslims [231]".

وَاَوْحَيْنَآ اِلٰى مُوْسٰى وَاَخِيْهِ اَنْ تَبَوَّاٰ لِقَوْمِكُمَا بِمِصْرَ بُيُوْتًا وَّاجْعَلُوْا بُيُوْتَكُمْ قِبْلَةً وَّاَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ ۭ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

Marfat.com

229. From this we learn that make provision for places of worship in your homes, which are called house mosques. It is a way of the Prophets of Allah to set aside a portion of the house clean and pure where Salaah can be perfromed, where in women can sit for I'tikaaf (seclusion for worshipping Allah Almighty) etc. Furthermore, some Salaahs should be performed at homes eg. the Fard Salaah should be performed at the mosque, the Sunnat and Nafl at home.

230. Under cover of the house, because at that point in time they did not have the power to perform their Salaah in the open. It should be remembered that the Qibla of Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) was the sacred Ka'bah. For full detail on the subject refer to our Tafseer Naeemi.

231. From this emerge two issues:

1. Constructing a house is a way of the Prophets and an act of worship, provided it is not done for the sake of pride, but to fulfil your need.
2. It is sunnat to set aside a place for worship in the house.
3. In times of fear it is permissible to perform your Salaah under cover of the house because during such times the Israelites would perform their Salaah as described. It should be remembered that Hazrat Moosa's (on whom be peace) Ka'bah too was Makkah Muazzamah. He was ordered to construct the house in that direction.
4. To give glad tidings in times of difficulty is a way of the prophets.
5. In the Religion of Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace). Salaah was obligatory, while Zakaat was not made obligatory at that time because the Israelites were poor and destitute. As soon as they became wealthy it became obligatory opon them to give a quarter of their wealth in Zakaat.

88. And Musa submitted: "O Lord! You have given Pharaoh and his chiefs splendour and wealth in the life of the world [232], O our Lord! That they may lead people astray [233]. from Your Path. O our Lord! Destroy their wealth and harden their hearts [234], so that they may not believe until they see the painful punishment [235].

وَ قَالَ مُوْسٰى رَبَّنَآ اِنَّكَ اٰتَيْتَ فِرْعَوْنَ
وَ مَلَاَهٗ زِيْنَةً وَّ اَمْوَالًا فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۙ
رَبَّنَا لِيُضِلُّوْا عَنْ سَبِيْلِكَ ۚ رَبَّنَا اطْمِسْ
عَلٰٓى اَمْوَالِهِمْ وَ اشْدُدْ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ فَلَا
يُؤْمِنُوْا حَتّٰى يَرَوُا الْعَذَابَ الْاَلِيْمَ ۝٨٨

232. From this we learn that for the negligent people wealth becomes a means of their negligence. It should be remembered that the letter LAAM here is used for indicating consequence. Otherwise Allah Almighty had not given them this wealth for mischief making but for them to become grateful. However it became a means of mischief for the wretched Pharoah as a result his end was bad.

233. By this is meant the end result of the wealthy of the followers of Pharoah is indeed misguidance and heresy. They were using this wealth to stop people from accepting faith. This tells us that no greed seeps in the hearts of the pious for anyone's weatlh.

234. By this is meant that their wealth should make their hearts so hard that they should not be inclined towards accepting faith. This is called being sealed. This tells that heavy heartedness is a terrible punishment. May Allah Almighty protect us from this. Its sign is shedding of tears from the heart, the heart will not be inclined towards doing good deeds.

235. Thus whatever Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) had said, came to pass. All the money, fruit and other edible things turned into stones, he and his followers were deprived of the opportunity of becoming believers, though they brought faith at their time of drowning but was rejected. This tells the tongue of the Prophet is a key to immediate result. Furthermore, to pray for the infidelity of an infidel is no infidelity.

89. He said: "The prayers of both of you have been accepted [236]. Then be steadfast [237]. and do not follow the path of the ignorant [238]".

236. Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) had offered this prayer and Hazrat Haroon (on whom be peace) had said Amien upon it. From this we learn that Amien is part of prayer and that it is better to offer supplication softly. Says Allah Almighty: "Supplicate to your Lord in absolute humility and silence". (S7:V55). For this reason Amien in Salaah should be said soflty. Forty years after this prayer Pharaoh and his wealth were destroyed.

237. By this is meant preach to the believers about rules and duties, while to Pharoah and his followers about faith and beliefs. From this we learn that propagate the message of Islam to even that infidel of whom there is no hope of acceptance of Islam.

238. Those who hasten for the acceptance of supplication and do not understand the wisdom behind the delay of its acceptance. Some delay in the acceptance of dua raises the status of the one offering dua.

90. And We led the children of Israel across the sea [239]. Then the Pharaoh and his armies followed [240], them with aggression and oppression until drowning [241]. overtook him. He said (at the time of drowning): "I believe that there is no god except Allah to be worshipped, Whom the children of Israel believe in [242]. Therefore, I am a Muslim [243]".

239. By sea is meant the Red Sea, and the wisdom getting them across was that punishment should not descend on Egypt as it was inhabited by a Prophet. From this we learn that the work of the pious servants of Allah Almighty is indeed work of Allah Almighty. Here Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) was taken by the Israelites, yet Allah Almighty says We took him. Thus objection against them is objection against Allah Almighty.

240. By followed is meant when the people of the Pharoah got up in the morning they found that no Israelite has come for work. Then when they saw Israelite quarters it was empty because these people had left Egypt under the cover of night. Seeing the people of Pharoah set out in pursuit of them on their swift horses following their tracks. Outwardly they were going to overpower the Israelite, but infact were going to be overpowered by Allah Almighty.

241. By this is meant water had come up to their faces and choked them like the reins. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

242. From this we learn follow that religion which is practised by the pious servants. Only that Tauheed unity of Allah is acceptable which is accepted and taught by the pious servants because they are the proof of Tauheed and recognition of the Path of Truth.

Marfat.com

243. The Pharoah declared his faith in three ways when he said:
1. I believe there is no true deity.
2. I believe in the God of Israelites.
3. I am a Muslim. but it was not accepted, because that faith is not acceptable which is declared at the time of seeing the punishment, or the angels of punishment

91. What now? And you had been disobedient from before and you had been a mischief monger [244].

آلْـٰٔنَ وَ قَدْ عَصَيْتَ قَبْلُ وَ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿٩١﴾

244. By this is meant neither he accepted faith nor allowed others to accept faith. In "you had been disobedient" mention is being made of his infidelity, while in "you had been a mischief monger" mentions his stopping others from accepting faith. It is mentioned in Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan that once Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) came to the Pharoah with a written question which stated what is your verdict regarding that servant who is brought up on the bounties of his Lord then rebels against him and declares that he is Lord? Pharoah replied that such a person should be drowned in the Red Sea. At the time of his drowning Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) appeared before him and said "do not scream because you yourself had suggested this punishment".

92. Today We shall cause your dead body to swim, so that you may be a sign [245]. to those after you. And no doubt, people are heedless of Our signs [246].

فَالْيَوْمَ نُنَجِّيْكَ بِبَدَنِكَ لِتَكُوْنَ لِمَنْ خَلْفَكَ اٰيَةً ؕ وَ اِنَّ كَثِيْرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ عَنْ اٰيٰتِنَا لَغٰفِلُوْنَ ﴿٩٢﴾ ع ۹ ۱۰ ۱۴

245. The writer of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan has said these words were said by Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) after the destruciton of the Pharoah. This tells that corpses can hear, and one can speak to them. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had spoken to Abu Jahl, Utbah, Shaibah, etc. after they were slain in the Battle of Badr. Hazrat Saleh and Hazrat Shuab (on them be peace) had spoken to the corpses of their people who had been destroyed by Divine punishment. For full details on this subject refer to our "ILMUL QUR'AAN". By "you might be a sign" is either meant those Israelites who had gone safely across, the future off-spring. Thus it is said that Pharoah's corpse is preserved in some Museum from which people to date take a lesson.

246. By 'heedless' means these people after listening to these incidents still fail to take a lesson from them. From this we learn that reading, hearing, talking and obtaining lessons from the incidents of past people who had been destroyed through Divine punishment are acts of worship.

SECTION 10

93.And no doubt, We gave [247], a place of honour to the children of Israel and provided them with pure things [248], so they did not differ until knowledge came [249]. to them. No doubt your Lord will decide between them on the Day of Resurrection in that with regard to which they differed [250].

يَقْضِىْ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فِيْمَا كَانُوْا فِيْهِ يَخْتَلِفُوْنَ ﴿٩٣﴾

247. By this is meant he made them master of Egypt and its wealth and made the lands Syria, Palestine and Jordan lush green for them.
248. He provided for them manna and quails at Teeha and tasty, lawful fruit at Syria. Despite this the Israelites could not be grateful to their Lord.
249. From this we learn that any knowledge which is bereft of Divine knowledge is a punishment from Allah Almighty and a curtain. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah led him astray despite his knowledge".

(S45:V23) while that knowledge which reflects knowledge of Allah Almighty is full of blessings. Says Allah Almighty: "And say Oh Allah increase me in my knowledge". (S20:V114)
250. Here decision refers to practical decision because verbal decision has been made in the Holy QUR'AAN and other revealed Books. There the decision would be the pious would be given Paradise and the evil doers would be sent into Jahannam

94. If you are in some doubt regarding what We have sent down [251], towards you then ask those who recite the Book before [252] you. Indeed, the truth has come to you from your Lord [253]. Therefore you will never be of those who doubt [254].

251. Due to the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The object of this verse is Oh those who hear! if you have any doubts these incidents then ask the Jewish scholars who would verify them. Thereafter, ascertain that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the true Prophet of Allah Almighty because he صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمis providing true infromation of the unseen without reading history. In these verses there is no address to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
252. By readers of the Book is meant Abdullah bin Salaam and Jewish scholars of his type who had brought faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Otherwise, Jewish scholars were never prepared to verify and affirm the truth about the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

253. By truth is either meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or the Holy QUR'AAN, or the religion of Islam.

95. And never be [255]. of those who falsify the signs of Allah. Otherwise, you shall be of the losers.

255. By this is neither by belief nor by group association i.e. neither falsify the verses of Allah Almighty nor assist those who practise

254. By this is meant let alone casting a doubt, do not even be from those who cast a doubt, i.e. do not emulate the infidels in personal appearance and mode of speech. From this we learn that a person should abhor the physical appearance of an infidel.

this, neither attend their gatherings nor listen to their lectures, nor take any interest in their books. In short do not in any way try to resemble them. If you do this you will become recipients of Divine punishment.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ حَقَّتْ عَلَيْهِمْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾

96. No doubt, those against whom the word of your lord has been proved correctly, will not believe [256].

256. Regarding whom it has been written in the Divine Tablet that they will die as infidels, or they will become believers at such a time when their faith will not benefit them in any way. This does not necessarily mean that they should become helplessly entangled in their infidelity.

وَلَوْ جَآءَتْهُمْ كُلُّ اٰيَةٍ حَتّٰى يَرَوُا الْعَذَابَ الْاَلِيْمَ ﴿٩٧﴾

97. Although all signs should come to them until they see the painful punishment [257].

257. By this is meant whether punishment at the time of death, punishment of the grave or punishment of the Day of Reckoning. At that point in time they declare faith but it will not be accepted, because that is after its required time.

فَلَوْ لَا كَانَتْ قَرْيَةٌ اٰمَنَتْ فَنَفَعَهَآ اِيْمَانُهَآ اِلَّا قَوْمَ يُوْنُسَ ؕ لَمَّآ اٰمَنُوْا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ عَذَابَ الْخِزْيِ فِى الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَتَّعْنٰهُمْ اِلٰى حِيْنٍ ﴿٩٨﴾

98. Then why has there not been a town [258], that believed and such belief did profit the residents, except the people of Yunus [259]. When they believed We removed [260], from them the punishment of disgrace in the life of the water and allowed them to pull on for a long time [261].

258. From those localities which had been destroyed.

259. He is Yunus bin Mutta. Mutta was the name of his mother . His people were settled at Nainowa, a place along River Dajlah near Mousal. He had preached to them for a long time but they did not accept faith after which he prayed for their destruction. Divine command came to tell those people that within three days divine punishment will descend upon them. After giving them this message he himself took refuge on the mountains. When black clouds appeared as sign of punishment people set out searching for him. On not finding him they began to plead to Allah Almighty. Men and women set out for the jungles, offered sincere repentance, and returned one another's wealth they had hidden. Their supplication was accepted and the punishment vanished. They were saved by the search for the Prophet.

260. The removal of punishment from the people of Hazrat Yunus (on whom be peace) is either from among their special virtues - explaining law is one thing but power is another thing altogether, or that these people accepted faith at seeing the sign of punishment, before the coming of the actual punishment.

261. By this is meant whatever age was granted to them they lived that long. From this incident we learn that ages can increase or decrease, and that fate can change. Observe, due to their disobedience Divine punishment to destroy them had appeared and they were near to destruction but by their sincere repentance this punishment was removed from them and these people lived for a much longer period.

99. And if your lord had willed, all those who are in the earth would have believed [262]. together. Will you then force people until they become Muslims [263]?

If there is no infideltity, Holy War, martydom, spoils of war, propagation, etc will all come to a halt.

263. This tells it is not permissible to force anyone to become a believer. Says Allah Almighty: "There is no compulsion in religion". (S2:V256) Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم split the moon in two, brought back the sun that had set, yet this could not pierce the heart of Abu Jahl and fill it with faith because involuntary and compulsive faith is not acceptable.

262. It is his desire that all should accept faith but this is against Divine wisdom. Infidels are the reflectors of Allah Almighty's quality of leading astray. It is necessary to fill Jahannam. It should be remembered that there is a big difference in Divine will i.e. between intention and love. Although Allah Almighty wants the infidelity of the infidels yet He does not like it. It is detestable to be pleased with the infidelity, but the intention of the infidel's infidelity is part of wisdom. Infidels and infidelity are means of many acts of worship.

102. Then for what are they waiting [266], except for the similar days of those who passed away [267]. before them? Please declare: "Then wait, I am waiting [268]. with you".

too like the previous nations are awaiting the

266. In a way it seems as if these people coming of Divine punishment. This expression serves as a way of example because neither did the infidels of Makkah regarded themselves entitled for punishment nor were they waiting for it. This type of expression was in vogue amongst the Arabs as well as amongst us.

267. By days is meant the period of punishment while those before denotes people of Nooh, of Lut, of Thamood etc. This lends proof for analogy i.e. because their mischief and immoralities are like these people they too are entitled for punishment that was meted out to those people.

268. Because when punishment comes on any people Prophets and their followers are taken out of these places as it took place with Hazrat Lut, Saleh, and Hud (on them be peace). Hazrat Nooh (on whom be peace) and his followers were safeguarded in the Ark. Allah Almighty will protect the believers from the evil of the infidel until the Day of Judgement either through victory or martyrdom. Death is a gift for a believer. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

103. Then We shall deliver Our Messengers and the believers. It is thus binding on Our Mercy to deliver the believers.

SECTION 11

104. Please declare: "O people! If you are in any doubt as to my religion, then I shall not worship those whom you worship, besides Allah [269]. Yes, I worship that Allah Who will cause you to die and I have been commanded to be of the believers [270]".

قُلْ یٰۤاَیُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِیْ شَكٍّ مِّنْ دِیْنِیْ فَلَاۤ اَعْبُدُ الَّذِیْنَ تَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَ لٰكِنْ اَعْبُدُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِیْ یَتَوَفّٰىكُمْ ۖۗ وَ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِیْنَ ﴿۱۰۴﴾ لا

269. From this we learn one should not conceal his religion because feigning piety is the way of the hypocrites. Iblees was the first to pretend being pious i.e. he came to Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) in a guise of a friend yet inwardly he was his enemy. Says Allah Almighty: "And he swore to them both that I am wellwisher of you both". (S7:V21) Allah Almighty ordered His Beloved and his followers that they should openly declare their beliefs. In fact a believer's dressing, his physical appearance, etc should reveal his faith. Assuming the physical appearance of infidels too is a type of practical hypocrisy. This takes from in three ways: concealing your faith, disclosure of infidelity, practising these for deceiving people. To speak a lie under extremely difficult situation is exactly like eating meat of the dead to save one's life

270. From this emerge two issues:

1. The works of the beloveds of Allah Almighty are indeed His works. Taking soul out of the body is the work of the Angel of Death but He says Allah gives death,
2. Every person should make sure that he keeps himself within the group of believers. In beliefs and deeds he should not oppose them in any way. A lone sheep is easily devoured by the wolf.

105.And you (Muhammad) keep your cause straight for the religion,

وَ اَنْ اَقِمْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّیْنِ حَنِیْفًا ۚ وَ لَا

تَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾ leaving all others, and never be among the polytheists [271].

271. From this emerge two issues:
1. It is essential for the believer to purify himself from all froms of defective evil beliefs.
2. Committing idolatory is far, one must not even make oneself from the polytheists. One should remain aloof from them in physical appearance deeds, dressing, etc.

وَ لَا تَدْعُ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُكَ وَ لَا يَضُرُّكَ ۚ فَاِنْ فَعَلْتَ فَاِنَّكَ اِذًا مِّنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۶﴾

106. And worship, [272], besides Allah that which can neither profit you, nor harm you. Then if you do so, then at that time you will be among the unjust [273].

272. In this verse there is a prohibition in worshipping and not for calling and seeking assistance because in the next verse there is an order regarding calling. Says Allah Almighty: "And call them after their father. (S33:V5) And Hazrat Iesa (on whom be peace) had asked "Who become my helpers towards Allah". Although sticks and stones can cause benefit and harm yet that benefit and harm which is dependent on Divinity is not found in any creation eg to solve problems personally, listen to the complaints, etc. The same is being discussed in the next verse.

273. Thus the going of the sick patients to the doctors, seeking justice from the courts by the oppressed, etc. is not done with the intention that they will remove the difficulties which are God-sent, but with the thought that through them Allah Almighty will grant you relief from these problems. Just as the thirsty go to the well for water and the poor go to the rich for assistance, the sinners seek the abode of the Prophets and Saints to seek forgiveness through their medium. This is neither polytheism nor infidelity.

وَ اِنْ يَّمْسَسْكَ اللّٰهُ بِضُرٍّ فَلَا كَاشِفَ لَهٗۤ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ وَ اِنْ يُّرِدْكَ بِخَيْرٍ فَلَا رَآدَّ لِفَضْلِهٖ ؕ يُصِيْبُ بِهٖ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ ؕ وَ هُوَ الْغَفُوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿۱۰۷﴾

107. And if Allah afflicts you with any harm, then there is none to remove it, save [274], Him, and if He desires good for you then there is none to repel His Grace [275]. He causes it to reach whomsoever of His devotees He wills. And He is the Most Forgiving, the Merciful.

274. From this we learn that no one has the power to change Allah Almighty's intention. However, due to good deeds and supplication of the pious Allah Almighty Himself changes His intention. For this reason His name is Most Relenting i.e. One who turns away intention of punishment from the seekers of repentance. Due to the prayer of Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace) the age of Hazrat Dawood (on whom be peace) was altered from sixty to hundred years.

275. By truth is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In another place the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is referred as BURHAAN - clear proof, in a third place he is called The shining Light. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is all these.Another interpr-ctaion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم being truth is not he sent by One who is Truth, or that all his sayings and actions are true. Just as a berry cannot grow from a mango tree, falsehood too cannot be committed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Yet another meaning of Truth is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Faith opposite of which is polytheism and infidelity because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is on the stage of one with Allah Almighty. Or, truth could also mean the Holy QUR'AAN because every word of it is true. It could also mean Islam because its beliefs and deeds are true.

108. Please declare: "O people! The truth has come from your Lord [276]. Then whoever came right, he came right for his own good [277], and whoever went astray, strayed [278] against himself. And I am not a guardian over you [279].

قُلْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَآءَكُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ۚ فَمَنِ اهْتَدٰى فَاِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِيْ لِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَ مَنْ ضَلَّ فَاِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا ۚ وَ مَآ اَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ بِوَكِيْلٍ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

Thus we are dependent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he is not dependent or in need of us. Thus this blessed verse is in praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because it mentions the total independence of the Prophet of Allah Almighty from the rest of creation.

276. He will certainly derive benefit from the guidance. Although parents receive benefits from their children's guidance, but they themselves are not deprived of it. Hence the verse is free of objection. It could also mean your exhortation of guidance will be beneficial or harmful to you.

277. Because the misguided and heretical person receives the punishment of his misguidance, although misguiding and negligent parents too become victims of this. Says Allah Almighty: "Save yourselves and your family from the Fire". (S66:V6)

278. From this were learn that the misguidance and heresy of the people is not the responsibilty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم nor will the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم be questioned about their heresy. Says Allah Almighty: "And you shall not question about the inmates of Hell". (S2:V119)

279. Be it absolute Revelation like the Holy QUR'AAN and the Hadith, or efficacious revelation pertaining to injunctions like the interpretations of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in matters of laws. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself acted upon interpretations and commanded the jurists to act upon it. For complete details on this subject refer to our book JAA-AL-HAQUE. Thus neither the non-confromist Wahabis nor the Chakraldwies can use this verse as a proof to substantiate their claims.

109. And follow that which is revealed [280]. to you and have patience until Allah decrees. And He is the Best of Judges.

وَ اتَّبِعْ مَا يُوْحٰٓى اِلَيْكَ وَ اصْبِرْ حَتّٰى يَحْكُمَ اللّٰهُ ۚ وَ هُوَ خَيْرُ الْحٰكِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۹﴾ ع ۱۱ ۱۶

280. To wage battle against the polytheists, and to collect JIZYAH - Poll tax - from the People of the Book. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan) It should be remembered that Jizyah or Pol tax is not permissible from the polytheists of Arabia according to any of the four Imaams. This tax would only be collected from the People of the book. However, there is no difference in opinion in this matter regarding the polytheists outside Arabia. According to Hazrat Imaam Abu Hanifa (on whom be peace) Poll tax can be collected from them, while Hazrat Imaam Shafa'ee (on whom be peace) is of the opinion that Poll tax cannot be collected from them. For them is either Islam or War.

SURAH HUD

(MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

10 Section 123 Verses 1600 Words , 9567 Letters

SECTION 1

In the name of Allah the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

الٓرٰ ۟ كِتٰبٌ اُحْكِمَتْ اٰيٰتُهٗ ثُمَّ فُصِّلَتْ مِنْ لَّدُنْ حَكِيْمٍ خَبِيْرٍ ۙ﴿۱﴾

1. Alif Lam Ra; This is a Book, Whose verses are full of wisdom [2]. then have been detailed [3]. from One wise. Aware [4].

1. Surah Hud is Makkan. Besides some portions e.g. verse twelve, part of verse seventeen (those who believe therein) and verse (one hundred and fourteen. It contains ten Rukus, one hundred and twenty three verses, (Khazainul Irfaan).

2. Allah be praised! What an exquisite translation! i.e. "are full of wisdom," is not derived from strenght but from wisdom because all the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN at that point in time were not firm and lasting, some were to be abrogated. Nevertheless all the verses were, full of wisdom. Those that were abrogated there was wisdom in their abrogation while those that remained there is wisdom in their eternal preservation

3. Here the word "Then" is used for the order of status and for order of time i.e. in the Quranic verses beliefs, deeds, stories, etc. are described in detail.

4. This means since the Revealer of the Holy QUR'AAN is all Knowing, all Wise and Omniscient, its verses too are full of knowledge, wisdom and providers of information about the unseen. The true condition of the speech is determined by the attributes of the speaker..

اَلَّا تَعْبُدُوْٓا اِلَّا اللّٰهَ ؕ اِنَّنِيْ لَكُمْ مِّنْهُ نَذِيْرٌ وَّبَشِيْرٌ ۙ﴿۲﴾

2. That worship not but Allah . No doubt. I am to you a warner from Him and a bearer of glad-tidings [5].

5. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم him is the giver of glad tidings about Paradise and not about coming of another prophet. For this reason he is described as bearer of glad tidings.

وَّ اَنِ اسْتَغْفِرُوْا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوْبُوْٓا اِلَيْهِ يُمَتِّعْكُمْ مَّتَاعًا حَسَنًا اِلٰٓى اَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى وَّ يُؤْتِ كُلَّ ذِيْ فَضْلٍ فَضْلَهٗ ؕ وَ اِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ كَبِيْرٍ ؕ﴿۳﴾

3. And that you ask forgiveness of your Lord then repent to Him. He will give you a good pulling until an appointed term. And will cause to reach His grace [7], to every man of grace, and if you turn your face. Then I fear for you the torment of a great Day.[8].

Marfat.com

6. Repentance means seeking forgiveness for the past sins and making a promise not to commit sins in the future. Sometimes both are included to mean one. From this verse we learn that worldly calamities are averted through recitation of Istighfaar and seeking repentance as well as contentment and ease are obtained through them. Says Allah Almighty: "And I said beg forgiveness of your Lord. He is Most forgiving". (S71:V10)

7. By this is meant believers would be granted status according to their deeds, or due to the blessing of their piety. May Allah Almighty grant us guidance to strive towards greater piety in the future.

8. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does not fear about the punishment for himself or his true devotees as their status has been disclosed to him already and shown to him on the night of Me'raj. However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has in him fear of Allah Almighty to a great extent. This fear is a pillar of faith.

4. Towards Allah is your return [9]. and he is potent over every thing [10].

إِلَى اللّٰهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ ۚ وَ هُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِیْرٌ ۝۴

9. Everyone has to return to Allah Almighty, but the difference is the believer returns joyously, the infidel out of compulsion. Here return by force is indicated. Therefore it is addressed to the infidels.

10. He has absolute power to provide sustenance, cause you to die and to resurrect you. This 'thing' refers to things possible and not obligatory and impossible.

5. Listen, they fold up their breasts that they may hide from Allah [11]. Listen, When they cover their whole body with their garments. Allah knows what they conceal and what they reveal.[12]. No doubt He is the Knower of all the thoughts within the breasts.

اَلَاۤ اِنَّهُمْ یَثْنُوْنَ صُدُوْرَهُمْ لِیَسْتَخْفُوْا مِنْهُ ؕ اَلَا حِیْنَ یَسْتَغْشُوْنَ ثِیَابَهُمْ ۙ یَعْلَمُ مَا یُسِرُّوْنَ وَمَا یُعْلِنُوْنَ ۚ اِنَّهٗ عَلِیْمٌۢ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُوْرِ ۝۵

11. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding those Muslims who would become shy to expose themselves at the time of cleansing themselves and during sexual intercourse. Or it was revealed regarding those hypocrites who would conceal their faces when in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so that they should not be seen. Since this verse is Makkan and there were no hypocrites there, the first interpretaion is more appropriate.

12. Therefore do not conceal your SATR (parts to be concealed) to hide from Allah Almighty but veil these parts as a matter of modesty and bashfulness. Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) says that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) were buried in my closet I would enter it without any veil because the one was my husband and the other was my father, but after Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) was buried in it, I never entered it without a veil. She did so on account of her shyness of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him). Thus to be shy is one thing, to wear a veil is another matter. From this hadith one learns that the buried persons see, recognize and know those who visit them and as such we have to maintain modesty and respect for them.

وَمَا مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ فِي الْاَرْضِ اِلَّا عَلَى اللّٰهِ رِزْقُهَا وَ يَعْلَمُ مُسْتَقَرَّهَا وَ مُسْتَوْدَعَهَا ؕ كُلٌّ فِيْ كِتٰبٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ۝٦

6. And there is none moving [13]. on this earth. The provision [14], of that is not upon the generous responsibility of Allah and He knows its place of stay [15]. and the place of return . All is recorded in a clear explanatory Book.[16].

13. Those moving on the earth are mentioned because they are visible to us. Otherwise Jinns, Angels, etc. all receive sustenance from Allah Almighty. His attribute of being Provident is not limited to animals only. In addition He provides sustenance to different beings according to their needs. The child in the mother's womb is provided different sustenance to that after his birth, and before the appearance of his teeth. His sustenance after he grows differs. Thus there is commonness in customs and control as well as in sustenance.

14. From this we learn that man is very foolish who, while in search of his sustenance, forgets the Hereafter, because Allah Almighty has given promise regarding sustenance but not regarding forgiveness. In fact Allah Almighty says: "He will forgive whom he pleases". Everyone should be concerned about his safety. May Allah Almighty bless us with this.

15. When alive and where will he be when buried after death, or how and until when will he be in whose father's loin and in whose mother's womb, or in which rank was he in the world of souls and in which rank will he be on the Day of Judgement.It should be remembered that on the Day of Covenant all the souls were in four ranks: in the first rank were the souls of the Prophets, in the second the friends of Allah Almighty, in the third were all the believers and in the fourth were all the infidels and hypocrites. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

16. It should be remembered that the writing of everything on the Divine Tablet is not because Allah Almighty had any fear of being forgetful but so that those of His beloved servants having the power to cast their gaze on it would become aware of what appears therein. From this we learn that those who gaze on the Divine Tablet too are fully aware of things which are there and which would be distributed to everyone. Everthing is inscribed on the Tablet and they have full knowledge of it. The Divine Tablet is called illuminating and clear because it reveals the knowledge of the unseen to the special servants of Allah Almighty.

7. And it is he who has creatd the heavens and earth in six days [17]. and His Throne was on the water. That He might try you, as to whose work [18]. of you is best. And if you say , undoubtedly you shall be raised after death then the infidels will surely say this is not but a magic manifest [19].

17. Both the heavens and the earth are seven, but their nature and conditions are different, some are of copper, some are of silver and some are of gold, while the nature of all the earths is dust. Also, there is a distance between each heaven, but between the different layers of the earth there is none. They are clung to each other in such a way like the folds and pearls of the onion. When you look at them they seem like one. For this reason the word heaven has a plural while earth is spoken in the singular. It should be remembered that heavens were created in two days, the earth in two days and all flora and fauna in two days. By day is meant its period of time because there was no actual day in existence at that time. Day occurs due to the sun and at that point in time there was no sun.

18. By this is meant "Oh man, all these creations are made for you so that you may derive benefit from them, and engage yourselves in good deeds". Allah Almighty has created everything for your sake, you too should do something for Him.

19. By this is meant just as no real truth is attached to magic yet it does have effect, similarly (Allah forbid) Your word too is false, yet captivating and charming and whoso is affected by it becomes Your devotee.

8. And if we defer from them the torment for a counted period, [20], then they would certainly say. What has detained ? Listen, "the day when it will come to them. It shall not be averted from them, and the same torment which they used to mock at shall encompass them.

وَ لَئِنْ اَخَّرْنَا عَنْهُمُ الْعَذَابَ اِلٰٓى اُمَّةٍ
مَّعْدُوْدَةٍ لَّيَقُوْلُنَّ مَا يَحْبِسُهٗ ؕ اَلَا
يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْهِمْ لَيْسَ مَصْرُوْفًا عَنْهُمْ وَ
حَاقَ بِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ۝٨ ع ١ ٨ ١

20. From this we learn that the punishment is never removed from an infidel, though sometimes it may be delayed. This delay deceives the infidel who, as a result of it increases his transgression. Thus their asking of this question from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was not on grounds of mockery but due to fear.

SECTION 2

9. And if we let man taste [21], Our any mercy, then take it away from him. Surely he is despairing, ungrateful.

وَ لَئِنْ اَذَقْنَا الْاِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً ثُمَّ
نَزَعْنٰهَا مِنْهُ ۚ اِنَّهٗ لَيَـُٔوْسٌ كَفُوْرٌ ۝٩

21. By man either means an infidel or a negligent person. From this we learn that to despair of the mercy of Allah Almighty is the work of the infidels. The coming of mercy and blessings is for the purpose of gratitude; their disappearance is for the purpose of patience. Thus, their coming and going are both a mercy from Allah Almighty.

10. And if We let him taste the favour after the hardship that has reached to him. Then he will surlely say [22], the evils have gone from me. No doubt. He is joyous, boastful.

وَ لَئِنْ اَذَقْنٰهُ نَعْمَآءَ بَعْدَ ضَرَّآءَ
مَسَّتْهُ لَيَقُوْلَنَّ ذَهَبَ السَّيِّاٰتُ عَنِّىْ ؕ
اِنَّهٗ لَفَرِحٌ فَخُوْرٌ ۝١٠ لا

22. By this is meant these evils would not come again as a result of which he sits back content. Instead of being grateful he begins to indulge in evil deeds. This is the state of affairs prevalent today amongst the weatlhy. Whenever they are cured of some disease they have gypsy dance, they exceed the limits in their marriage spending and customs.

23.This tells us that the expression of joy out of arrogance and bragging is prohibited, while joy to express gratitude is an act of worship. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you 'only Allah's grace and only His mercy, on it therefore let them rejoice". (S10:V58) In boasting one tends to look at oneself while in gratitude Allah Almighty is the focus of attention. Boasting instils negligence and gratitude inculcates a spirit of service. May Allah Almighty protect us from boasting and bless us with the joy of gratitude.

11. But those who remained patient [24], and did good deeds: for them is forgiveness and a great reward.

24. By controlling themselves from pride during comfort and from fear during hardship. Or those who remained patient and firm in the service and obedience of Allah Almighty. In short, one must exercise patience under all conditions.

فَلَعَلَّكَ تَارِكٌ بَعْضَ مَا يُوْحٰٓى اِلَيْكَ وَ ضَآئِقٌ بِهٖ صَدْرُكَ اَنْ يَّقُوْلُوْا لَوْ لَآ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ اَوْ جَآءَ مَعَهٗ مَلَكٌ ؕ اِنَّمَآ اَنْتَ نَذِيْرٌ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَّكِيْلٌ ﴿١٢﴾ ؕ

12. Then will you leave [25], some of what is being revealed to you and straighten your breast [26]. therewith. Because they say, why a treasure has not been sent down with him or any angel [27]. would have come with him? You are a warner [28]. And Allah is Guardian over every thing [29].

25. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم conveyed and propagated everything that was revealed unto him without concealing anything. Thus the paper and pen he had called for at the time of his demise with the intention of having something written was concerning some matters which had already been propagated. Anyone who says that the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not convey all the laws is rejecting this verse.

26. Reason for its revelation:
Abdullah bin Umayyah had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that if you are a true Prophet and your Allah has power over everything then why did He not reveal all the treasures to you, or why has He not appointed an angel to be with you who would bear witness to your Prophethood? In reply this verse was revealed.

27. By this is meant "which we could see". Otherwise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم possessed all the treasures, and angels too would come to him. He himself says: "I have been given the keys to the treasures of the earth". Because these were not visible to the infidels they had said it. It should be remembered that angels would come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and some Companions too had seen them. They had seen Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) on many occasions. They had seen angels coming down during the Battle of Badr.

28. By this is meant Oh My beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do not pay any heed to their mocking words as you would not be responsible for their guidance. You should convey the message whether they accept or reject it.

29. The greatest and shining proof of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم truth is that despite not having any material wealth, his religion and name spread to the four corners of the world.

اَمْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ افْتَرٰىهُ ؕ قُلْ فَاْتُوْا بِعَشْرِ سُوَرٍ مِّثْلِهٖ مُفْتَرَيٰتٍ وَّ ادْعُوْا مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿١٣﴾

13. Do they say this, He has fabricated [30]. it? Say you, Bring then ten verses [31], the like of it, and call all [32], those whom you can besides Allah, if you are truthful.

Marfat.com

30. This is a confessional question i.e. the infidels of Makkah say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself had fabricated the Holy QUR'AAN.

31. Because this is the recognition of worldly things that people of the world should produce the like of it, while the sign of Divine things are that their production would be beyond the power of man. Based on this principle we say that ants and glow-worms are creations of Allah Almighty, while railway, and gas are human inventions. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty first said to the infidels to bring a book like the QUR'AAN. Thereafter they were told to produce ten Surahs like it. Finally they were asked to produce just one Surah like it. In short there is no inconsistency in the verse.

32. Here "besides Allah" either means enemies, the idols or infidels and certainly not the Saints and Prophets. It does not mean Oh Christians bring Hazrat Isa, Hazrat Uzayr and Hazrat Moosa (On them be peace) in opposition to the QUR'AAN or take assistance from Abdullah bin Salaam and Ka'ab Ahbaar for this purpose. From this we learn that it is permissible to seek assistance from people.

14. Then O Muslim! If they [33], do not respond to you then know that it has been sent down with Allah's knowledge[34], and that there is no true deity save Allah, Will you then now submit?

فَاِلَّمْ يَسْتَجِيْبُوْا لَكُمْ فَاعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّمَآ اُنْزِلَ بِعِلْمِ اللّٰهِ وَ اَنْ لَّآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ فَهَلْ اَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

33. This suspicion and hesitation is in respect of the listeners, otherwise Allah Almighty is fully aware that if all of them put their intelligence together, they will not be able to produce anything like the QUR'AAN until the Day of Judgement.

34. By this is meant that Allah Almighty revealed the QUR'AAN with the full knowledge that it is worthy of His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, or that the Holy QUR'AAN is included in the knowledge of Allah Almighty. Thus Allah Almighty blessed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with His knowledge by giving him the QUR'AAN which contains knowledge of the Divine.

15. Whosoever desires the life of the world and its adornment, We will give their full fruit in [35] it and will not lessen anything therein.

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيْدُ الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا وَ زِيْنَتَهَا نُوَفِّ اِلَيْهِمْ اَعْمَالَهُمْ فِيْهَا وَ هُمْ فِيْهَا لَا يُبْخَسُوْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

35. By making the bounties of the world a reward for their deeds. It does not mean they will be granted whatever they ask, i.e. whatever sustenance and other benefits which they will receive in the world will become the rewards of their good deeds. No matter in what comfort a believer may be, his true reward will be given to him in the Hereafter.

16. These are they for whom there is nothing in the Hereafter but Fire[36]. And What ever they used to do there, is destroyed and all their works became void.[37].

اُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا النَّارُ ۖ وَ حَبِطَ مَا صَنَعُوْا فِيْهَا وَ بٰطِلٌ مَّا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۶﴾

36. In these verses either those polytheists are being denoted who give charity, promote peace, etc. for whom Allah Almighty rewards with abundance of wealth in this world, or reference is being made to those hypocrites who merely participate in holy war for the sole purpose of receiving spoils of war. Their reward is this wealth that they receive. (Khazainul Irfaan) From this we learn that the world is a non-entity or zero and the Hereafter is numeral. If zero is on its own it is worth nothing but when it is added to a number it increases its value by ten. The different worlds of Hazrat Uthman-e-Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) and Abu Jahl is a classical example of this.

37. From this we learn that no pious deed would be accepted by Allah Almighty without Faith. Just as Wudu is the condition for permissibility of Salaah, faith is the condition for the acceptability of good deeds.

17. Is he then (like him) who is upon a bright proof[38], from his Lord and there comes a witness[39], on him from Allah and before it was the Book of Musa, a guide and mercy? Those belive[40]. therein. And whosoever of all parties disbelievers in it, then Fire is his promised place. Then O listener! Be not you in any doubt about it. No doubt, that is the truth[41]. from your Lord. But most people believe not.

38. By this is meant the Jewish scholars who became Companions of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم after accepting faith, like Abdullah ibn Salaam and his associates. By "bright proof" is meant the intellectual and rational proofs about the truth of Islam, while "witness" refers to the Holy QUR'AAN. What this really means is can these People of the Book who have been blessed with all these bounties still remain aloof from Islam like those who are stubborn on the basis of their enmity towards Islam? Really speaking it should never be.

39. By this "witness" is meant Abdullah ibn Salaam and those Jewish scholars who brought faith on the truth of the Holy QUR`AAN.

40. This tells us that one should not only rely on one's faith but always be conscious about Allah Almighty by seeking forgiveness after committing a sin and having one's good deeds accepted through His bounteous blessings. Piety is a seed and Almighty Allah's mercy is the rain water just as seed is totally dependent on rain, our good deeds are dependent on His blessings.

41. This either means this Holy QUR'AAN is Truth or the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم enemies being inmates of Hell is true, or that his devotees being inmates of Paradise is a certainty because the Holy QUR'AAN cannot be false in what it contains. Thus an infidel will not be an inmate of Paradise, nor will the believer be sent to Hell eternally. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). From this verse hundreds of faith inspiring and juristic issues can be deduced. Hence, the Noble Companions being inmates of Paradise and Abu Jahl being an inmate of Hell is a certainty.

18. And who is more unjust than he who forges a lie[42] against Allah.

وَ مَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا ؕ

Marfat.com

They shall be presented before their Lord. And the witnesses will say[43], these are they who forged lie [44]. against their Lord. Behold; curse of Allah is upon the unjust.

أُولٰٓئِكَ يُعْرَضُوْنَ عَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ وَيَقُوْلُ الْاَشْهَادُ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَبُوْا عَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ ۚ اَلَا لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلَى الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۸﴾

42. To forge a lie by linking polytheism and children with Him, or by distorting His Book. From this we learn that forging a lie against Allah Almighty is a grave sin, and that forging a lie against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is forging a lie against Allah Almighty.

43. This tells us that acceptance of any evidence in a case by a judge is no proof of his ignorance of the fact. Even Allah Almighty on the Day of Judgement will pass judgement after listening to the evidence. Thus asking of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for witnesses and carrying out investigation at the time of Hazrat Ayesha's accusation was not on the basis of his being unaware of the facts but its real purpose was to teach his followers the procedure of arriving at a judgement in legal matters. In this verse 'witness' refers to Prophets and angels. This tells us that the Prophets and angels are aware of our deeds otherwise how would they be witness over our deeds.

44. From this we learn that infidels and hypocrites would be disgraced on the Day of Judgment and their evil doings and faithlessness would be openly described, in fact, their facial features would reveal their infidelity.

Religious Issue:

Allah Almighty will hide the shortcomings of a sinful believer publicising by his good deeds and concealing his evil deeds. Observe! the evil deeds of the previous people are described in the Holy QUR'AAN through which they were disgraced. Since there will not be another revealed book after the Holy QUR'AAN, we will not be put to shame. In the previous books the good deeds of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Ummah were described, but not their evil deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "This description of theirs is in the Taurah, and their description is in the Injeel".(S48:V29).

19. Those who hinder from the path of Allah. And desire[45]. crookedness in it: and they are the ones who deny the hereafter.

45. In this verse mention is made of even those infidels and polytheists who abandon the Straight Path and accept the crooked path of infidelity. It also includes those apostates who distort the meaning of the Holy QUR'AAN to open a way to oppose the illustrious Companions and general Muslims by totally misinterpreting the Holy QUR'AAN. Had they feared the consequences of the Hereafter, they would not have the courage to do this.

20. They are not causing fatigue in the earth. [46], no besides Allah[47], they have any helper[48]. They will face torment over torment [49] They could neither hear [50] nor see.

اُولٰٓئِكَ لَمْ يَكُوْنُوْا مُعْجِزِيْنَ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اَوْلِيَآءَ ۘ يُضٰعَفُ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ ۭ مَا كَانُوْا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ السَّمْعَ وَمَا كَانُوْا يُبْصِرُوْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

Marfat.com

46. By this is meant they are under Our control even in the world and We can punish them whenever We wish, as well as in the Hereafter.

47. The translation of the word DOONE as separate is most appropriate, because its meaning is QASR or separation (Mufridaat, Raaghib) The meaning of QASR as separation is indeed most appropriate. Says Allah Almighty: "There is no sin of you that you offer some prayers by shortening it" (S4:V101). Further Allah Almighty says: And make it short (hair). If a person is separated from Allah Almighty he would be useless. Only by connecting himself with Allah Almighty will he master every power eg an electric wire is useless if it is cut off from the power, but if joined it generates power. Allah Almighty be praised!

48. This tells us that Allah Almighty has appointed many helpers for the believers because absence of helpers is being described here in connection with the punishment of the infidels. Had there been no helpers for the believers they too would have been subjected to this punishment. The helpers of the believers are the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, the Saints of Allah Almighty, their good deeds, the Holy Ka'ba, etc. Says Allah Almighty: "Most certainly Allah is your friend and His Messenger and the believers" (S5:V55).

49. This tells us that the punishment of the one who misleads or misguides is worse than the one who is misguided because such a person is not only gone astray but is leading others astray as well.

50. By this is meant they had made themselves like them by not having the ability to listen and see the truth eg. a person who destroys his eyes to become blind and deaf. This does not mean that they were by nature bereft of these powers. Otherwise they would not have been offenders and trangressors

21. These are they who put their souls in loss. And the things which they used to fabricate have been lost from them.[51].

51. By this is meant the divinity of the idols and their intercession as they were believers of this. But they are not even this as will be found.

22. Willing or not willing, it is they who are the greatest losers in the Hereafter. [52]

لَا جَرَمَ اَنَّهُمْ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ هُمُ الْاَخْسَرُوْنَ ﴿٢٢﴾

52. By this is meant that the sinful Muslims too would be in a loss on the day of Judgement, but the loss of the infidels would. be greater, because eventually the sinful would be relieved from the punishment of Allah Almighty, but not the infidels

23. No doubt, those who believed. And did good deeds and turned humbly towards their Lord they are the men of Heaven[53]. therein they shall abide forever .

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ وَاَخْبَتُوْٓا اِلٰى رَبِّهِمْ ۙ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَنَّةِ ۚ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿٢٣﴾

Marfat.com

53. The inmates of Paradise would be those in whom these three qualities are found: Faith, good deeds and turning to Allah Almighty under all conditions i.e. being grateful under comfort and patient under hardship.

مَثَلُ الْفَرِيْقَيْنِ كَالْاَعْمٰى وَ الْاَصَمِّ وَالْبَصِيْرِ وَ السَّمِيْعِ ؕ هَلْ يَسْتَوِيٰنِ مَثَلًا ؕ اَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۲۴﴾ ع ۲/۱۶/۲

24. The condition of both parties is like one the blind and deaf and the other seeing and hearing[54]. Is the case of the two [55] alike? Do you then not take heed?

54. This verse is the commentary of the following verse: "Undoubtedly you cannot make the dead hear, and nor can you make the deaf to hear the call" (S27:V80). And the commentary of this verse is "And you cannot guide the blind" (S27:V81). This tells us that 'dead' and 'blind' here means those who will die as infidels.

55. Although physically the dumb appears like one who can speak, in a like manner the deaf too appears like one who can hear. However, in meaning they are different. Likewise, a prophet and a commoner may appear alike physically but they are not the same in status.

وَ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا نُوْحًا اِلٰى قَوْمِهٖۤ ز اِنِّيْ لَكُمْ نَذِيْرٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿۲۵﴾ لا

25. And no doubt, We sent Nuh to his people saying that I [56]. am for you a clear warner.[57].

56. The blessed name of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) is YASHKAR. He was born one thousand six hundred and forty two years after Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). He lived in Damascus and is buried in Kufa. He preached for nine hundred and fifty years and lived for one thousand and five hundered years (Roohul Bayaan). Thanks to Allah Almighty, I (the author) have had the good fortune of visiting his blessed and auspicious grave. It is reported in some traditions that he became a prophet at the age of forty and preached the Message of Allah Almighty for nine hundred and fifty years. He lived for sixty years after the Floods. According to this calculations his age was one thousand and fifty years. Almighty Allah knows best!

57. Because his people were infidels at that point in time, therefore he did not mention about being a giver of glad-tiding.

اَنْ لَّا تَعْبُدُوْۤا اِلَّا اللّٰهَ ؕ اِنِّيْۤ اَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ اَلِيْمٍ ﴿۲۶﴾

26. That worship none [58] save Allah. Verily, I fear for you the torment of painful day.

58. By this is meant after accepting faith, worship Allah Almighty alone. Hence there is nothing objectionable about the verse.

فَقَالَ الْمَلَاُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْ قَوْمِهٖ مَا نَرٰىكَ اِلَّا بَشَرًا مِّثْلَنَا وَ مَا نَرٰىكَ اتَّبَعَكَ اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ اَرَاذِلُنَا بَادِيَ

27. Then the chiefs of the unbelievers of his people spoke, "We see you a man like[59]. us. And we see not that any one who has followed you but the meanest[60]. of us inadvertently, and we do not find in you any superiority over us; but raher we think you a liar [61].

Marfat.com

الرَّاْيِ ۚ وَ مَا نَرٰى لَكُمْ عَلَيْنَا مِنْ فَضْلٍ بَلْ نَظُنُّكُمْ كٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿۲۷﴾

59. This tells us that to call a prophet an ordinary human being is a root to infidelity and a step towards misguidance. This was the very cause of Shaitaan going astray because he only looked at Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) as an ordinary human being. It should be remembered that prophets were called human beings either by Allah Almighty Himself, or by themselves or by the infidels. No fourth person ever referred to them as such. If any one now calls the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as an ordinary human being then you can imagine who he is.

60. This tells us that to utter disrespectful things about the Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and view them with contempt is the work of the infidels. To proclaim the greatness of every Companion is. the symbol of faith. This tells us that any heart which is bereft of the love and respect for the Companions will be empty of faith. The disrespectful is indeed a wretch. In fact, anyth-ing which is linked to the Noble Companion should be accorded respect

61. Either in 'you' the address is only to the people of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) as sometimes singular is regarded as plural, in Arabic it is addressed to Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) and his disciples who say that Oh Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) you do not possess more knowledge and wealth than us, then how did you become a Prophet? Those who accepted faith in him were generally cloth makers and shoe makers who were looked upon with contempt

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اَرَءَيْتُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُ عَلٰى بَيِّنَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّيْ وَ اٰتٰنِيْ رَحْمَةً مِّنْ عِنْدِهٖ فَعُمِّيَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ ؕ اَنُلْزِمُكُمُوْهَا وَ اَنْتُمْ لَهَا كٰرِهُوْنَ ﴿۲۸﴾

28. He said, O my people! Tell me, if I am on a clear proof from my Lord, and He has bestowed upon me from Himself a great mercy[62], then you remained blind from it. Shall we stick it on your neck while you are verse to it. [63].

62. This tells us that prophethood is not achieved through good deeds, but through the special bounty and mercy of Allah Almighty. However, this mercy is sometimes obtained through the prayer of a Prophet e.g. the prophethood of Hazrat Haroon and Hazrat Lut (On them be peace).

63. From this emerge two issues:

1. The objective of showing a miracle is to establish the truth of his prophethood and not force the people to accept faith. If this was not the case then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, who can make the stones to recite the Kalima would most certainly have made Abu Jahl do the same. There is no reward for accepting faith by force. Likewise, the purpose of holy war is to break the power and strength of infidelity and not to spread Islam by force.

2. Only that person will be blessed with faith whose heart does not show contempt for faith inspiring things and the Prophets of Allah Almighty. Disgust and faith cannot be together.

وَ يٰقَوْمِ لَاۤ اَسْـَٔلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مَالًا ؕ اِنْ اَجْرِيَ اِلَّا عَلَى اللّٰهِ وَ مَاۤ اَنَا بِطَارِدِ

29. And O people! I ask no wealth[64], on it from you. My reward is only with Allah and I am not to drive[65]. away muslims. No doubt, they are to meet their Lord, but I find you wholly ignorant people. [66].

64. This tells us that it is prohibited to take a salary for the purpose of propagation. Neither the Prophets took it, nor is it lawful for the Ulema. However, the order regarding giving religious education is different.

65. The people had demanded that he should remain aloof from the poor believers so

30. And O people! Who will save me from Allah, if I will drive away [67]. them. Do you then not take heed?

67. From this emerge two issues:

1. Love for the believers is the way of the Prophets, and to bear hatred against them is

31. And I niether say not to you, I have treasures [68]. of Allah with me. And nor that I get The unseen [69]. (known my self) and nor I say this. I am an angel [70], and nor I say those whom your eyes despise, " Allah will never bestow any good [71]. to them. Allah knows well whatever is in their hearts. If I do so , then surely I am of the unjust. [72]

68. So that you would reject my prophethood because of my poverty. I have laid claim to prophethood not to wealth.

69. In its literal meaning this verse is against the Wahabis as well because they too accept certain knowledge of the unseen for the Prophets. Therefore they cannot regard this as a proof to negate knowledge of the unseen. It should be remembered that without believing in the unseen one cannot become a believer. Says Allah Almighty: "Who believe without seeing". (S2:V3) Faith is the highest form of knowledge. How can this be possible without having knowledge of the unseen? The personality of Allah Almighty, The Day of Qiyamah, etc. are all unseen. Thus in this verse the negation is regarding the claim to the الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا ؕ اِنَّهُمْ مُّلٰقُوْا رَبِّهِمْ وَ

لٰكِنِّيْٓ اَرٰىكُمْ قَوْمًا تَجْهَلُوْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾

that we would not find it shameful to come to you. At that point he uttered these words.

66. This means that your arrogance of not associating with poor Muslims is due to ignorance. Ignorance gives rise to arrogance, knowledge inspires humility.

وَ يٰقَوْمِ مَنْ يَّنْصُرُنِيْ مِنَ اللّٰهِ اِنْ طَرَدْتُّهُمْ ؕ اَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

the way of the infidels.

2. To keep the poor believers aloof is the cause of Divine punishment.

وَ لَآ اَقُوْلُ لَكُمْ عِنْدِيْ خَزَآئِنُ اللّٰهِ وَ
لَآ اَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبَ وَ لَآ اَقُوْلُ اِنِّيْ مَلَكٌ
وَّ لَآ اَقُوْلُ لِلَّذِيْنَ تَزْدَرِيْٓ اَعْيُنُكُمْ
لَنْ يُّؤْتِيَهُمُ اللّٰهُ خَيْرًا ؕ اَللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا
فِيْٓ اَنْفُسِهِمْ ۖ اِنِّيْٓ اِذًا لَّمِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۳۱﴾

knowledge of the unseen and not regarding the unseen knowledge. Thus it is said: I do not tell you that I know the unseen It should be remembered that those upon whom Allah Almighty bestows His blessings and bounties, are given power of control as well.

70. So that you can reject my prophethood because of my human nature i.e. being a human being. This is the refutation of their following utterance. "We see you, a man like us" (S11:V27). From that prophethood is specifically linked to humans. Thus angels cannot become prophets. Says Allah Almighty: "Any but man to whom we reveal" (S16:V43).

71. In this it is hinted that Allah Almighty will bless those poor believers with a great deal in good of this world and the Hereafter, and as such, the same took place. The infidels were destroyed in the world and these believers became owners of their properties, while they became rightful claimants of paradise in the Hereafter. Whatever is uttered by the pious servants of Allah Almighty, it becomes a reality.

72. From this we learn that anyone who calls a believer a hypocrite or an infidel without any proof is a tyrant because the law of Shariah is based on outward practices.

32. They said, O Nuh, you have disputed [73], with us, and disputed much, then bring that which for you promise us, if you are truthful.

73. By this is meant they had continued to argue and quarrel with us for nine hundred and fifty years. Thus to argue and cause mischief with the propagation and preachings of a prophet or with the sermons of Ulema is the work and habit of the infidels.

33. He said, Allah will bring it to you, if He pleases [74] . and you cannot get him tired.

74. From this we learn that it is not necessary that Divine punishment will come due to infidelity and evil practices. This is dependant on Allah Almighty's intention (Roohul Bayaan).

34. And my admonition will not profit you. If I desire good to you, whilst Allah desires you to go astray [75] . he is your Lord and to Him you shall return. [76].

75. This means I cannot oppose Allah Almighty in matters of your faith. I can convey the message of Almighty Allah but if He does not wish guidance for you I cannot interfere with that. This verse is a commentary of the following verse. "I own no power of benefit or harm to myself". (S7:V188) In verses of this nature mastership and ownership is negated i.e. they are there to establish that only Allah Almighty possesses absolute power to cause benefit and harm.

76. This tells us that without Allah Almighty's wish the teachings of a prophet do not have effect on the hearts of people. The teachings of the prophet is the seed, and the blessing of Allah Almighty is the merciful rain water.

35. Do they say, He has fabricated it? Say you, If I have fabricated it, then upon me is my sin and I am quit of your sins. [77]

اَمْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ افْتَرٰىهُ ؕ قُلْ اِنِ افْتَرَيْتُهٗ فَعَلَيَّ اِجْرَامِيْ وَ اَنَا بَرِيْٓءٌ مِّمَّا تُجْرِمُوْنَ ﴿۳۵﴾ ع

77.From this we learn that the prophets are digusted with the sins of the polytheists. Though they are unhappy with the sins of the believers, they are not disgusted with them and will intercede for them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "My intercession is for those from my followers who have committed major sins". If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remains aloof from us and is disgusted with us then we would be sunk. In this command "say" - address is either made to Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) or to our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

وَ اُوْحِیَ اِلٰی نُوْحٍ اَنَّهٗ لَنْ یُّؤْمِنَ مِنْ قَوْمِكَ اِلَّا مَنْ قَدْ اٰمَنَ فَلَا تَبْتَىِٕسْ بِمَا كَانُوْا یَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿۳۶﴾

36. And it was revealed to Nuh, none of your people will become muslim but those who have already belived[78], grieve not then at what they do. [79].

78. Approximately eighty people believed in him, eight from his family and seventy two from his people.

79. By this is meant these infidels who are engaged in infidelity, polytheism, rebellion and causing harm to you should not discourage you. Let them rebel for a little while. They are inviting destruction. Just as the one condemned to death cannot change his fate by swearing the judge or the police, they too will not benefit by their rebellious behaviour. This does not mean that you should not express disgust and dislike at their infidelity. Expressing disgust at infidelity is an excellent quality of faith.

وَ اصْنَعِ الْفُلْكَ بِاَعْیُنِنَا وَوَحْیِنَا وَ لَا تُخَاطِبْنِیْ فِی الَّذِیْنَ ظَلَمُوْا ۚ اِنَّهُمْ مُّغْرَقُوْنَ ﴿۳۷﴾

37. And built the ark before Us [80], and with Our command, and address me not concerning the unjust [81], they shall necessarily be drowned. [82]

80. In response Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) built an Ark from teak wood which was twelve hundred yards long, six hundred yards broad and three hundred yards high. It had three compartments or divisions, one was for different animals, one was for humans and the third was for birds.

81. By this is meant you should not intercede for those infidels whose fate has been decided to die as infidels because their fate is irrevocable and will not be changed. Therefore it is not proper that your request should go unanswered. In this prohibition is reflected the highest honour of these august persons.

82. From this we learn that those infidels regarding whom decision is taken that they would be dying as infidels, prayer of salvation for them is not allowed while those who died as apostates, prayer of forgiveness for them is totally prohibited. Says Allah Almighty: "It is not worthy for the Prophet and the believers to ask forgiveness for the associates even though they be relatives" (S9:V113).

وَ یَصْنَعُ الْفُلْكَ ۫ وَ كُلَّمَا مَرَّ عَلَیْهِ مَلَاٌ مِّنْ قَوْمِهٖ سَخِرُوْا مِنْهُ ؕ قَالَ اِنْ تَسْخَرُوْا مِنَّا فَاِنَّا نَسْخَرُ مِنْكُمْ كَمَا تَسْخَرُوْنَ ﴿۳۸﴾ؕ

38. And Nuh builds the ark, and whenever the chief of his people passed by him, they laughed [83]. at him. He said. If you laugh at us, then we shall laugh [84]. at you at one time as you laugh.

Marfat.com

83. They were saying that up to now you had been a Prophet but now you are a carpenter, that too a foolish one who is building an Ark on dry land without any need for it. You should have rather built a cart for the road. It should be remembered that Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) is the inventor of ships.

84. From this we learn to express joy at the destruction of the infidels, to ridicule them on their infidelity are all acts of worship. The meaning of this verse is that in future we would laugh and be happy at your drowning in the world and burning in the Hereafter.

39. Now then you shall know to whom comes the torment that may disgrace him, and comes down the torment that may be lasting.

فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۙ مَنْ يَّاْتِيْهِ عَذَابٌ يُّخْزِيْهِ وَ يَحِلُّ عَلَيْهِ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيْمٌ ﴿۳۹﴾

40. Until, when Our command came, and the Oven [85], boiled, We said, embark in the ark a pair male and female of every kind and the members of your family [86], except those against whom the word has already gone forth [87]. and the rest of the Muslims. And Muslims were not with him but a few.

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا جَآءَ اَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنُّوْرُ ۙ قُلْنَا احْمِلْ فِيْهَا مِنْ كُلٍّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَ اَهْلَكَ اِلَّا مَنْ سَبَقَ عَلَيْهِ الْقَوْلُ وَ مَنْ اٰمَنَ ؕ وَ مَاۤ اٰمَنَ مَعَهٗۤ اِلَّا قَلِيْلٌ ﴿۴۰﴾

85. It is clear that by oven is meant the oven used for baking bread. This oven was found at the right hand side of the door of the principal mosque of Kufa. Even today, there are some remains of it. The sign of the coming of the floods was when water begins to boil from this oven by itself. When this happens the believers should immediately take shelter in the Ark. There were many other traditions regarding this event. It was from the time of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and was built of stone. I (the author) had visited this very spot. Today there is no trace of this oven, but water still spurts.

86. This tells us that an infidel is worse than a dog or a cat because these animals were given permission to board the Ark but not the infidels.

87. From this we learn that children and wives are part of the family.

41. And he said, embark therein; in the name of Allah is its moving and its berthing [88], No doubt, my Lord is assuredly Forgiving, merciful.

وَ قَالَ ارْكَبُوْا فِيْهَا بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ مَجْرٖىهَا وَ مُرْسٰىهَا ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّيْ لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۴۱﴾

88. Thus when Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) wishes to steer the Ark, he would recite BISMILLAH at which it would move. Likewise when he wanted to stop it he would recite the same. Even today if those who travel in ships recite this prayer, they would not drown. From this we learn that reciting BISMILLAH before commencing any work is an ancient way. Also, that one should add words to it which are appropriate for the occasion. Thus at the time of drinking medicine one should recite BISMILLAHI SHAFI, BISMILLAHI KAAFI, while at the time of slaughtering an animal recite BISMILLAHI ALLAHU AKBAR and at the time of blowing on a person BISMILLAH URQEEKA.

وَ هِيَ تَجْرِيْ بِهِمْ فِيْ مَوْجٍ كَالْجِبَالِ ۫ وَنَادٰى نُوْحُ ۨ ابْنَهٗ وَ كَانَ فِيْ مَعْزِلٍ يّٰبُنَيَّ ارْكَبْ مَّعَنَا وَ لَا تَكُنْ مَّعَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

42. And it is sailing with them amidst such waves as mountain [89]. And Nuh called his son [90]. embark with us and be not with the infidels[91].

89. Because torrential rain was falling continuously for many days. The earth began to spew out water instead of absorbing it.

90. In Hazrat Alli's (May Allah be pleased with him) recitation the word IBNAHA appears, meaning the son of his infidel wife Wa'ila. Some scholars on the basis of this said that Kanaan was his step son. But the truth of the matter is that he was his own son.

91. By this is meant become a believer then you can travel in the Ark, because only believers were given permission to travel in it. From this we learn that this flood was a particular kind of punishment, thus acceptance of faith by Kanaan at that point in time would have been regarded as credible. However, if this water was a general punishment, then it would not have been proper for any believer to settle on that part of the land where the flood had occured because any land on which Allah Almighty's punishment descends, is made a prohibited settlement for a believer.

قَالَ سَاٰوِيْٓ اِلٰى جَبَلٍ يَّعْصِمُنِيْ مِنَ الْمَآءِ ؕ قَالَ لَا عَاصِمَ الْيَوْمَ مِنْ اَمْرِ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا مَنْ رَّحِمَ ۚ وَ حَالَ بَيْنَهُمَا الْمَوْجُ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُغْرَقِيْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

43. He said , Now I take refuge of any mountain, it will save me from the water[92]. Said he Today there is no protector from the torment of Allah but for him on whom He has mercy, and the wave came in between the two, so he was among the drowned[93].

92. This conversation took place prior to the drowning of the mountains in water. Eventually all the mountains too, were drowned in the flood water.

93. The drowning of Kanaan too was as a result of the prayer of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) which was: "Oh my Lord leave not of the infidels any inhabitant upon the earth". (S71:V26) In this prayer no exception is made of any infidel, neither of Kanaan nor of any non-believer from his household. Hence in it there is no declining of his prayer, but the completion of his previous prayer.

وَ قِيْلَ يٰٓاَرْضُ ابْلَعِيْ مَآءَكِ وَ يٰسَمَآءُ اَقْلِعِيْ وَغِيْضَ الْمَآءُ وَ قُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ وَ اسْتَوَتْ عَلَى الْجُوْدِيِّ وَ قِيْلَ بُعْدًا لِّلْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾

44. And it was commanded, O earth Swallow your water, and O heaven; withhold, and water was dried and the affair was accomplished, and the ark settled on mountain judi[94], and It was said, away be the people unjust.

94. Mt Jody is found in Mosal, a province of Iraq. Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) boarded the Ark on 10th Rajab and got off on Mt. Jody on Friday 10th Muharram and observed a day of Fasting in gratitude for reaching safety. He collected different grains and cooked it for the evening meal (Khazainul Irfaan) On the 10th of Muharram Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was saved from the clutches of the Pharoah, Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace) was united with his son Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace), Hazrat Yunus (On whom be peace) was saved from the belly of the fish.

45. And Nuh called upon his Lord, said he, O my Lord my son too is of my family,[95], and no doubt, Your promise is true, and You are the Greatest of rulers. [96]

95. This does not mean that Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) did not understand that by your family Allah Almighty meant believing men are part of the family but this should be attributed to the mercy of the speaker eg. the utterance of the speaker "the wealthy like you is carried on the jet black object". This is the proof of excessive mercy. In the word "my family" literal meaning is signified while in "he is not of your family" meaning of intent is signified.

96. In this utterance there is no supplication for the saving of Kanaan because he had already been drowned, thus saving him now is really meaningless. The purpose of it is to show that when my people ask me that since Kanaan was your family person, how come he has drowned? What reply do I have for this!

46. He said, O Nuh; he is not of your family [97], No doubt, his work is not righteous,[98], ask not of Me that of which you have no knowledge [99]. I admonish you not to become ignorant. [100].

97. By this is meant your family member is he who follows your religion.

98. Here 'work not righteous' signifies erroneous beliefs as this is the action of the heart, as well as company with the infidels. From this verse we learn that any one who becomes a Shiah, Wahabi or Mirzai is not a Sayyed even if he is from the children of Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him). To be a Sayyed one must have good faith, Observe, the infidel son does not become an heir to the wealth of his believing father although blood relationship is stronger than religious affinity, but without religious affinity, blood ties are useless.

99. By this is meant do not ask us for such an obvious thing. You should give a reply to this to your people. This is just like when an intelligent student asks a simple question to his teacher who tells him do not be foolish, as such a question is below your intelligence.

100. It should be remembered that in this verse there is a negation of Hazrat Nooh's (On whom be peace) knowledge because he knew that Kanaan was his son, which in reality he was. He also knew that he was an infidel and that there is no salvation and forgiveness for an infidel. This is an issue concerning belief. In it the expression of wrath is regarding the hypocrites. Says Allah Almighty: "Oh my beloved Rasool, you don't know these faithless wretches, we know them. (S9 : V101) Do not intercede on their behalf".

47. Submitted he, O my Lord I beg Your refuge from asking You that of which I have no knowledge.

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّیْۤ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ اَنْ اَسْـَٔلَكَ مَا لَیْسَ لِیْ بِهٖ عِلْمٌ ؕ وَ اِلَّا تَغْفِرْ لِیْ وَ

And if you forgive me not and have not mercy on me, then I shall be a loser. [101]

تَرْحَمْنِيْٓ اَكُنْ مِّنَ الْخٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿٤٧﴾

101. Here an impossible is suspendend upon an impossibility like this utterance of Allah Almighty: "Say you, if worst come to worst there had been a son to the Most affectionate". (S44:V80) Otherwise it is never possible for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to be from those who suffer loss because due to his charity thousands of sinful believers would be forgiven, nor is it possible for Allah Almighty not to forgive the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

48. It was said, O Nuh; get down from the ark with peace from Us and with blessings [102]. on you and on some parties with [103] you. And there are some parties whom We shall allow to enjoy[104], in the world, then a painful torment will reach them.

قِيْلَ يٰنُوْحُ اهْبِطْ بِسَلٰمٍ مِّنَّا وَ بَرَكٰتٍ عَلَيْكَ وَ عَلٰٓى اُمَمٍ مِّمَّنْ مَّعَكَ ؕ وَ اُمَمٌ سَنُمَتِّعُهُمْ ثُمَّ يَمَسُّهُمْ مِّنَّا عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿٤٨﴾

102. By bounties here means abundance of children, and included in the children are Prophets and saints, because the world after the floods constitutes all the children of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) and he is the true father of all the Prophets.

103. This signifies either the companions on the Ark or the companions of faith until the Day of Judgement, eg. believers.

104. By this is meant the infidels from his progeny, because they too would receive material things of the world.

49. These tidings of unseen, We reveal to you. Neither you did know nor your people before [105] this . Then be patient. No doubt there is good end for the duty-bound. [106]

105.This does not inform how much earlier. The people did not know at all prior to giving this information, nor did the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم know of it before he was informed by Allah Almighty. But when did he inform them? To explain this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself says: "When Allah placed His hand of mercy on my heart, everything became known to me".

106. By this is meant although tests at times are placed on the pious, they overcome them with great success. It could also mean both the pious and the sinful receive the bounties of the world, but the bounties of the Hereafter are for the pious only. It should be remembered that just as the pious are of different categories, the bounties of the Hereafter too are of different types which will be bestowed according to the status of the pious. The bounties and blessings of the Noble Companions are of different categories and that of the Saints are different. In fact every believer is a pious person and he too will be entitled to the bounties of the Hereafter.

وَ اِلٰى عَادٍ اَخَاهُمْ هُوْدًا ؕ قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ اِنْ اَنْتُمْ اِلَّا مُفْتَرُوْنَ ۝۵۰

50. And towards Aad (sent) Hud [107]. a compatriot of their own. He said. O my people, worship Allah[108]. You have no deity beside Him. You are but fabricators.

107. Here the word "brother" is in accordance to family relation because Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) was geneologically from his people. This does not mean that the believers were given permission to call him a brother.

108. It should be remembered that since accepting faith is an act of worship, the verse means give up infidelity and accept faith. It could also mean worship Allah Almighty after accepting faith, just as one says to the one without Wudu to perform his Salaah, meaning make Wudu then perform your Salaah. Thus no objection can be raised against the verse that a polytheist is not duty bound to the worship of Allah Almighty.

يٰقَوْمِ لَاۤ اَسْـَٔلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ اَجْرًا ؕ اِنْ اَجْرِيَ اِلَّا عَلَى الَّذِيْ فَطَرَنِيْ ؕ اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ۝۵۱

51. O my people, I ask not any wage for this My wage is only on Him Who created [109]. Have you then no wisdom?

109. Every Prophet said the same to his people because only he can give true and sincere advice who is free of personal motives. From this we learn that Mirza Goolam Qadyani is not a prophet because he used prophethood for his personal gains of fulfilling the needs of himself and his children. Without doubt the one who has no ulterior motives is a true and sincere advisor.

وَ يٰقَوْمِ اسْتَغْفِرُوْا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوْبُوْۤا اِلَيْهِ يُرْسِلِ السَّمَآءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّدْرَارًا وَّيَزِدْكُمْ قُوَّةً اِلٰى قُوَّتِكُمْ وَ لَا تَتَوَلَّوْا مُجْرِمِيْنَ ۝۵۲

52. And O my people! Beg forgiveness [110], of you Lord, then turn to Him, He will send over you heavy rain and will add strength [111], to your strength, and turn not away your faces committing crimes.

110. By this is meant accept faith and repent from infidelity, do good deeds and thereby seek forgiveness for your previous sins i.e. seek repentence verbally and practically.

111. When the people of Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) rejected his preaching, rain was withheld from them for three years. Their women became barren and a severe drought came upon them. When this happened, they came to the Prophet of Allah pleading and expressing regrets. He gave them this reply at that point in time. From this we learn that due to the blessings of Taubah and Istighfar there are blessings in wealth and children. Rains came down etc. This is a practise from the QUR'AAN. The ideal time for reciting this is after performing the two sunnats of Fajr.

قَالُوْا يٰهُوْدُ مَا جِئْتَنَا بِبَيِّنَةٍ وَّ مَا نَحْنُ بِتَارِكِيْۤ اٰلِهَتِنَا عَنْ قَوْلِكَ وَمَا نَحْنُ لَكَ بِمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝۵۳

53. They said, O Hud you have not come to us having any proof,[112], and we are not to leave our gods merely because of your saying, nor are we going to believe your words. [113].

112. The stubborn and liars always say this. Despite listening to numerous proofs they say that you have not presented an acceptable proof.
113. By this is meant we will not become believers by merely listening to you. Bring a strong proof in support of your words. This is an adage of the infidels. For a believer an utterance of the Prophet is far greater and stronger than every proof. The greatest proof of a prophet is his miracle. Having accepted their miracles, they then become proof of the Unity of Allah, Faith, righteous deeds, etc. The presence of the sun is a great proof of its existence.

54. We say only that one of our gods has smitten[114] you with evil . He said, I call Allah to witness and you all bear [115] witness that I am quit of all those whom you associate with Him.

إِنْ نَّقُوْلُ إِلَّا اعْتَرٰىكَ بَعْضُ اٰلِهَتِنَا بِسُوْٓءٍ ؕ قَالَ إِنِّيْٓ أُشْهِدُ اللّٰهَ وَ اشْهَدُوْٓا أَنِّيْ بَرِيْٓءٌ مِّمَّا تُشْرِكُوْنَ ۙ﴿۵۴﴾

114. In this there is a hint that devils cannot gain power over the intelligence of a Prophet of Allah, nor can they bedevil them. The effect of an evil eye and magic upon a Prophet is like the sword and poison proving effective. Without doubt devils can have no effect on them. Allah Almighty says: "No doubt those who are My bondsmen, you have no control over them" (S17:V65). It is for this reason that Allah Almighty has referred to this as an utterance of the infidels.
115. This has been said here to rebuke and ridicule them. Religious testimony is not meant by this, because an infidel cannot become a witness over a believer. Also, an enemy does not testify against another enemy when opposing Him.

55. Besides Allah. Devise against me you all together [116]. then respite me not.

116. The meaning of 'they have no fear' which becomes evident teaches us that in the heart of the Prophet of Allah there exists no fear for anyone besides Him. Thus, if Mirza Ghulam was a prophet he would not have abandoned Hajj out of fear for the Pathans.

56. I relied [117], on Allah, my Lord and your Lord. There is no moving creature whose forelock is not under His control. No doubt, my Lord meets on straight path. [118].

إِنِّيْ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ رَبِّيْ وَ رَبِّكُمْ ؕ مَا مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ اٰخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهَا ؕ إِنَّ رَبِّيْ عَلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿۵۶﴾

117.Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace) had presented the loftiest example of reliance on Allah Almighty: Give up sources and rely on the Creator of the sources.
118.The meaning of being on the Path of Allah Almighty and the Path of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is those who truly love them would acquire the Right Path. Besides this they will be on the path but will not reach their destination eg. a traveller en route to Lahore is told Lahore is on the right side but he will only reach his destination if he follows the instruction. Said Allah Almighty to His beloved Rasool: "No doubt you have been sent on a straight Path" (S36:V3-4).

Marfat.com

فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقَدْ اَبْلَغْتُكُمْ مَّآ اُرْسِلْتُ بِهٖٓ اِلَيْكُمْ ؕ وَ يَسْتَخْلِفُ رَبِّيْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ ۚ وَ لَا تَضُرُّوْنَهٗ شَيْـًٔا ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّيْ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِيْظٌ ﴿۵۷﴾

57. Then if you turn your faces, then I have already conveyed to you that with which I have been sent [119], to you, and my Lord will bring others to take your[120], place, and you can not harm Him at all. No doubt my Lord has watch over everything.

119. From this we learn that a Prophet does not conceal any religious laws from his people and conveys to them everything during his life time. Thus when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم requested for pen and paper at the time of his demise it was not for writing any new laws but to write some of the principles already conveyed earlier. In view of this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had decided not to write anything. All the revelations and duties he had already conveyed during his blessed lifetime.

120. This is the law of nature, that if any nation declines to render religious services, Allah Almighty destroys such people and appoints another nation in their place. When Abu Jahl and his compatriots became rebellious, Allah Almighty destroyed them and chose the Ansaar (Helpers) of Madina Munawwarah to serve His Religion. We need Allah Almighty for our success, but He is totally independent.

وَ لَمَّا جَآءَ اَمْرُنَا نَجَّيْنَا هُوْدًا وَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مَعَهٗ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِّنَّا ۚ وَ نَجَّيْنٰهُمْ مِّنْ عَذَابٍ غَلِيْظٍ ﴿۵۸﴾

58. And when Our Command came, then We saved [121], Hud and the Muslims with him, by showing Our mercy, and delivered them from severe torment. [122].

121. This tells us that believers are with the Prophets, and that the fellowship and being among them is a means of obtaining salvation.

122. Four thousand people in total believed in Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace), who were saved from the punishment. From this verse we understand that faith and good deeds are a means and reason for obtaining salvation. In reality, salvation is obtained through the mercy of Allah Almighty. For this reason "showing Our mercy" is used.

وَ تِلْكَ عَادٌ ۛ جَحَدُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَ عَصَوْا رُسُلَهٗ وَاتَّبَعُوْٓا اَمْرَ كُلِّ جَبَّارٍ عَنِيْدٍ ﴿۵۹﴾

59. And these are Aad. They denied the signs of their Lord and disobeyed [123]. His messengers and followed the saying of every contumacious, haughty enemy.

123. This tells us that punishment of Allah Almighty will not come without rejecting the Prophet, even if man claims divinity. Says Allah Almighty: "And We are not to torment until We have sent a Messenger" (S17:V15). Furthermore, the rejection of one prophet is equal to rejection of all the prophets. Observe, though the people of Aad were sent just one prophet - Hazrat Hud (On whom be peace), yet the noun used here is in the plural i.e. prophets, meaning they had rejected all the prophets. The reason for this is the claim of every prophet was one - Faith in the Oneness of Allah Almighty. Hence rejection of one is rejection of all.

وَ اُتْبِعُوْا فِيْ هٰذِهِ الدُّنْيَا لَعْنَةً وَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ؕ اَلَاۤ اِنَّ عَادًا كَفَرُوْا رَبَّهُمْ ؕ اَلَا بُعْدًا لِّعَادٍ قَوْمِ هُوْدٍ ﴿٦٠﴾ ع

60. And the curse[124]. stuck to them in the world and on the Day of Judgement. Listen, And rejected [125] their Lord. How away with Aad the people of Hud[126].

124. Curse on the world means not receiving opportunity to seek repentance, being a victim of punishment, being disgraced, being disliked by servants of Allah; curse in the Hereafter is one's face being blackened, the book of deeds being placed in the left hand and being apprehended by angels.

125. This means that the Aad rejected their Prophet, and the rejection of the Prophet is in reality rejection of Allah Almighty.

126. The people of Aad are two; the one is called Aade Hud, also known as Aad I or ancient Aad, the other is Aade Iram, also known as Aad II or new Aad. For this reason Aad is added with people of Hud.

SECTION 6.

وَ اِلٰى ثَمُوْدَ اَخَاهُمْ صٰلِحًا ؕ قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ هُوَ اَنْشَاَكُمْ مِّنَ الْاَرْضِ وَ اسْتَعْمَرَكُمْ فِيْهَا فَاسْتَغْفِرُوْهُ ثُمَّ تُوْبُوْۤا اِلَيْهِ ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّيْ قَرِيْبٌ مُّجِيْبٌ ﴿٦١﴾

61. And towards Thamud we sent) Saleh [127]. a compatriot of their own . He said, O my people, worship Allah. You have no deity beside Him. He evolved you from the earth [128]. and caused you to live therein [129]. so beg his foregiveness then turn to him. Not doubt, my Lord is near. Responsive [131].

127. The purpose of calling these Prophets their compatriots is to show that they were from these people and not from other people or places as is the case with Hazrat Ebrahim and Hazrat Lut (On them be peace). However, this in no way proves that the people were granted permission to adress them as our brother. Says Allah Almighty: "Make not the summoning of the Messenger among yourselves like one calls the other among you" (S24:V63).

128. This means your ancestral father Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was created from clay. The origin of his creation is the origin of your creation. Hence he is called Adam and you are being called Adami-(people of clay).

129. The verb ISTA'MAR, to colonize is either formed from Imraan or from Umr. Imraan, meaning colony, would mean the earth was colonised with you or that you have been granted a long life span. Thus the life span of the people of Thamud would range between three hundred and one thousand years. But they wasted their long life span in committing sins.

130. Here seeking forgiveness refers to verbal seeking of forgiveness, while repentance signifies turning to Allah Almighty in a practical way. Verbal repentance should precede practical repentance. For this reason the adverb 'then' is used between the two. It could also mean Istighfaar is seeking forgiveness for the previous sins while Taubah refers to making firm commitment to repent from future sins. Istighfaar could also refer to remaining aloof from evil beliefs while Taubah would denote distancing oneself from evil practices. In any case there is no repetition in the verse. From this we learn that Istighfaar and Taubah are most ancient practices. The very first act of worship of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was Taubah.

131. By this is meant the mercy of Allah Almighty is closer to those who seek repentance. The following verse serves as a commentary to this: "Surely the mercy of Allah is near to the good doers" (S7:V56).

قَالُوْا يٰصٰلِحُ قَدْ كُنْتَ فِيْنَا مَرْجُوًّا
قَبْلَ هٰذَآ اَتَنْهٰنَآ اَنْ نَّعْبُدَ مَا يَعْبُدُ
اٰبَآؤُنَا وَ اِنَّنَا لَفِيْ شَكٍّ مِّمَّا تَدْعُوْنَآ
اِلَيْهِ مُرِيْبٍ ﴿٦٢﴾

62. They said, O Saleh, you looked intelligent amongst us before [132], Do you forbid us to worship [133], what our fathers worshipped, and verily we are in a big deceitful doubt regarding that to which you call us [134].

132. By this is meant we had hoped that you would become our Leader. They said that, because prior to revelation of prophethood, Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) had possessed an outstanding character. Extending hospitality, helping the poor, removing the difficulties of the needy were his favourite activities. This tells us that prior to their rise to prophethood every Prophet possesses impeccable character. However, this was not the case with Mirza Goolam Qadyani. His early life too is full of corrupt practices.

133. From this we learn that Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) never indulged in idolatory. If this was the case the people would have said you are telling us now to refrain from worshipping that which you your self were previously doing. In fact we also learn that even his forefathers too did not indulge in idolatory. Otherwise, these people would have remarked that you are stopping us from worshipping that which your forefathers had worshipped. Here the word 'our fathers' helps to illustrate that the Tauheed practised by Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) is par excellence. It should be remembered that here the verb "they had worshipped" denotes past perfect tense as stated in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc.

134. Here doubt denotes to reject and not to hesitate. They were not accepting Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) to be truthful at all as is understood from these verses.

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اَرَءَيْتُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُ عَلٰى
بَيِّنَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّيْ وَ اٰتٰنِيْ مِنْهُ رَحْمَةً
فَمَنْ يَّنْصُرُنِيْ مِنَ اللّٰهِ اِنْ عَصَيْتُهٗ ۫ قف
فَمَا تَزِيْدُوْنَنِيْ غَيْرَ تَخْسِيْرٍ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. He said, O my people! Tell me, if I am on a clear proof [135], from my Lord, and He has bestowed me mercy from Himself, then who will save me against Him, if I disobey Him; then you will increase me nothing save loss.

135. Here 'if' is not used for the purpose of doubt but for confirmation. A pending condition with the confirmed thing is used for the purpose of emphasis and certainty.

وَ يٰقَوْمِ هٰذِهٖ نَاقَةُ اللّٰهِ لَكُمْ اٰيَةً فَذَرُوْهَا
تَاْكُلْ فِيْٓ اَرْضِ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا تَمَسُّوْهَا بِسُوْٓءٍ
فَيَاْخُذَكُمْ عَذَابٌ قَرِيْبٌ ﴿٦٤﴾

64. And O my people! This is a she-camel of Allah, a sign for you, then leave [136], her, that she may eat in Allah's earth, and touch her not with evil [137], lest a near torment reach you.

Marfat.com

136. Some people do not hunt in the jungles of saints. They did not burn the wood therefrom. They use this verse as proof for it, because the meat of the she-camel of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) was religiously not unlawful as camel meat is lawful, but it was harmful and eating its meat was bringing down the punishment of Allah Almighty. For this reason, the order was to refrain from eating its meat. Similarly, the animals and wood of such jungles are not forbidden but prove to be harmful which had been proven as such on many occasions. Hence, people refrain from using these. An example of this is when doctors, for health reasons, put off patients from eating beef or lentils. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had stopped the Companions from drinking water from places of torment and Divine punishment, in fact, he had asked the kneaded dough to be thrown away from it - not because of prohibition but due to its harmful effects.

65. Then they hamstrung [138], her, then Saleh said, enjoy [139]. in your houses three days more. This is a promise, that will not be falsified.

فَعَقَرُوْهَا فَقَالَ تَمَتَّعُوْا فِيْ دَارِكُمْ ثَلٰثَةَ اَيَّامٍ ؕ ذٰلِكَ وَعْدٌ غَيْرُ مَكْذُوْبٍ ﴿٦٥﴾

138. They had cut the legs of this she-camel on Wednesday night and on Sunday punishment descended upon them. Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) had warmed them that on the first day their faces would become yellow, on the second day red, on the third day black. The same happened as foretold. This tells us that the beloved servants of Allah

66. Then when Our Command came, We saved Saleh and the Muslims with him showing Our mercy [140]. and from the humiliation of that day. No doubt, your Lord is Mighty, Honorable.

140. Here, 'company' denotes companionship of faith, and not companionship in terms of time because the faith of the Prophet precedes the faith of the followers.

137. This means do not injure it, do not slaughter it, if it is found gra-zing in anyone's field do not chase is away. These people drank the milk of this she-camel. Its milk would be sufficient for all the people, although they were fifteen hundred in number. This tells us that one should respect the miracle of a Prophet implicitly, because disrespecting it can risk the coming down of Divine punishment. In Pakistan a buffalo gave birth to a calf on whose forehead the word Muhammad was found inscribed. In Gujrat the words Muhammad and Ahmad were seen on eggs laid by a hen. On some stones, the name of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم have been seen. I (author) too have one such stone. These sacred relics should not be destroyed. In fact, it is important to show them utmost respect, as these are miracles of Prophets. Disrespect to them is included in "touch her not with evil".

Almighty are made aware of the future happenings through Divine knowledge.

139. This tells us that Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) knew the time of death of these people through Divine knowledge i.e. they would die after three days. This is part of the FIVE types of Divine knowledge.

Allah Almighty had removed these pious people earlier. Only after that, punishment had descended upon the infidels as described in the next verse.

67. And a roaring noise [141], overtook the unjust, then in the morning, they remained lying crouched in their homes.

141. This was the sound made by Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) which frightened them to such an extent that it caused their hearts to break apart. Even today, death is caused by lightening or explosion of a bomb. In another place the Holy QUR'AAN says:

كَاَنْ لَّمْ يَغْنَوْا فِيْهَا ؕ اَلَاۤ اِنَّ ثَمُوْدَا كَفَرُوْا رَبَّهُمْ ؕ اَلَا بُعْدًا لِّثَمُوْدَ ﴿٦٨﴾

68. As though they had never dwelt therein. Listen no doubt, Thamud denied [142], their Lord, Ho; curse be on Thamud.

142. Because they had rejected the Prophet, and rejection of a Prophet is equal to rejection of Allah Almighty.

SECTION 7

وَ لَقَدْ جَآءَتْ رُسُلُنَاۤ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ بِالْبُشْرٰى قَالُوْا سَلٰمًا ؕ قَالَ سَلٰمٌ فَمَا لَبِثَ اَنْ جَآءَ بِعِجْلٍ حَنِيْذٍ ﴿٦٩﴾

69. And no doubt Our messengers came to Ibrahim with glad tidings. They said, Peace [143]. He said, peace then not being late, brought a calf roasted [144].

143. Hazrat Jibra'eel (On whom be peace) came with some angels in the shape of handsome boys to convey the glad tidings that Hazrat Ishaaque would be born from Hazrat Sarah (On them be peace).

From this emerge few issues.

1. The coming of Prophets takes place in a dignified and splendid way, and their arrival is foretold.
2. Angels have been blessed with knowledge of the Unseen by Allah Almighty through which they provide information of things to come.
3. Extending greetings at the time of meeting is the practice of the angels and the Prophets.
4. Sunnat practice is, that the one who comes must greet.

144. From this we learn that to eat meat of the cow (beef) and to feed it to one's guests is the practice of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). So too, is the entertainment of guests with food even if one does not know them.

فَلَمَّا رَاٰۤ اَيْدِيَهُمْ لَا تَصِلُ اِلَيْهِ نَكِرَهُمْ وَ اَوْجَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيْفَةً ؕ قَالُوْا لَا تَخَفْ اِنَّاۤ اُرْسِلْنَاۤ اِلٰى قَوْمِ لُوْطٍ ﴿٧٠﴾

70. Then when he saw that their hands did not reach towards the food, he thought them strangers and began to fear [145]. of them in his heart. They said, fear not, we have been sent towards the people of Lut.

145. Because at that time when a guest did not eat from the house of his host it was considered a sign of confrontation i.e. he has come to fight. From this we learn that the fear of those other than Allah Almighty is not against trust in Allah Almighty or Prophethood.

Marfat.com

Furthermore, if the angel has come for some other purpose, it is possible that the Prophet may not recognise him. But when he comes with Divine Revelation it is incumbent for the Prophet to recognize him.

وَامْرَاَتُهٗ قَآئِمَةٌ فَضَحِكَتْ فَبَشَّرْنٰهَا بِاِسْحٰقَ ۙ وَ مِنْ وَّرَآءِ اِسْحٰقَ يَعْقُوْبَ ﴿٧١﴾

71. And his wife was standing by, she began to laugh, [146], then We gave her the glad-tiding of Ishaque and after Ishaque of Yaqub[147].

146. Due to happiness. This tells us that to express joy at the destruction of the infidels is a good act.

147. This means Oh Sarah you would be feeding Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace) in your lap as well, you would be given such a long life that you would be able to see the prime of your grandson. This tells us that the work of the true servants of Allah Almighty is in reality His work. Glad tidings were given by the angels, but Allah Almighty says He gave it.

قَالَتْ يٰوَيْلَتٰٓى ءَاَلِدُ وَ اَنَا عَجُوْزٌ وَّ هٰذَا بَعْلِىْ شَيْخًا ؕ اِنَّ هٰذَا لَشَىْءٌ عَجِيْبٌ ﴿٧٢﴾

72. She said Oh; Woe is me shall I bear [148], a child and I am old, and this is my husband an old man? No doubt, this is strange thing [149].

148. Either these words are uttered in a form of surprise, or they express a question in matters of birth i.e. would the two of us become young once again to give birth to a child, or would this happen in our present old age. These words are not of regret, but of joy.

149.That a child would be born to the husband who is one hundred and twenty years old and a wife who is a barren lady of ninety nine years old. This tells us that a son is a great bounty of Allah Almighty, especially such a pious son as this.

قَالُوْٓا اَتَعْجَبِيْنَ مِنْ اَمْرِ اللّٰهِ رَحْمَتُ اللّٰهِ وَ بَرَكٰتُهٗ عَلَيْكُمْ اَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ ﴿٧٣﴾

73. The angels said Do you wonder at Allah's Command? The mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you. O people of the house [150], No doubt, it is He Who is All Praiseworthy Honourable.

150. From this we learn that the wife is included in the family members. Here Hazrat Sarah (On whom be peace) is addressed in the second person plural (masculine) because she is addressed as being from the people of the house.

فَلَمَّا ذَهَبَ عَنْ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ الرَّوْعُ وَجَآءَتْهُ الْبُشْرٰى يُجَادِلُنَا فِىْ قَوْمِ لُوْطٍ ﴿٧٤﴾

74. Then when the fear[151], of Ibrahim disappeared, and he got glad-tidings, he began to dispute with Us about the people of Lut [152].

151. His danger disappeared that they are not eating because they are angels.

152. This tells us that those who love Allah Almighty are always full of pride towards Him. Though they quarrel with him and show insistence, Allah Almighty loves their persistence. We further learn fighting against those beloved to Allah Almighty is fighting against the Almighty. When Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) would quarrel with the angels, Allah Almighty said he had quarrelled with Him. It should be remembered that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) on this occasion did not intercede for the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace), but incidentally tried for the delay in the coming of Divine punishment.

75. No doubt , Ibrahim is clement most tender hearted, penitent. [153].

153. By this is meant Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was extremely kindhearted. He did not want to see the destruction of the infidels but desired that the people of Lut be given some respite to consider what they were doing, in the hope that they may accept faith. From this we learn that there is no intercession for the infidels. But for believers there is intercession.

76. O Ibrahim! Do not plunge in this thought. No doubt, the Command of your Lord has come. And no doubt, the torment is to approach them, that cannot be averted. [154].

يٰإِبْرٰهِيمُ أَعْرِضْ عَنْ هٰذَا ۚ إِنَّهُ قَدْ جَآءَ أَمْرُ رَبِّكَ ۚ وَ إِنَّهُمْ آتِيهِمْ عَذَابٌ غَيْرُ مَرْدُودٍ ﴿٧٦﴾

154. From this emerge two issues:
1. Inevitable fate will not alter in any way.
2. The Prophets have such high esteem by Allah Almighty that He stops them from offering prayer against the Inevitable Fate so that they may not be left unanswered.

77. And when Our angels came to Lut, he was grieved of them and became sad on account [155], of them, and said, this is a fierce day.

155. He did not become mean because of having guests but due to the evil practices of his people. These guests were angels in the form of very handsome boys. To be mean and miserly towards guests is against the status of a Prophet. After taking leave from Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) these angels arrived at Sodom, at the place of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace)

78. And his people came running[156], to him, and they were in the habit of doing evil deeds from before. He said, O people, these are daughters [157], of my people, they are purer for you, then fear Allah, and do not disgrace [158]. me in the face of my guests. Is there not among you any man of good character? [159].

وَ جَآءَهٗ قَوْمُهٗ يُهْرَعُونَ إِلَيْهِ ۖ وَ مِنْ قَبْلُ كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّاٰتِ ۖ قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ بَنَاتِي هُنَّ أَطْهَرُ لَكُمْ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَ لَا تُخْزُونِ فِي ضَيْفِي ۖ أَلَيْسَ مِنْكُمْ رَجُلٌ رَّشِيدٌ ﴿٧٨﴾

156. Because they were informed by Hazrat Lut's (On whom be peace) infidel wife that very handsome young boys have come to our house.

157. Your wives, who are my compatriot daughters. Its explanation is the following verse. "And leave your wives whom your Lord has created for you" (S26:V166). From this one can deduce that he was calling the wives of these cursed people 'my daughters' just as elders sometimes refer to the youngsters as my son or daughter. From this we learn that to serve and protect your guests is the practice of prophets even if you don't know them.

158. From this we learn that the beloved servants of Allah Almighty are displeased with those who annoy and trouble their guests, and happy with those who are hospitable to them. It is for this reason that the people of Madina to this day are hospitable and kind to the visitors of the Holy City, because they are guests of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and that by serving them they will receive the pleasure of the one for whose sake these visitors have come. All of them use this verse as the basis for their service.

159. This means if you reject my words due to your stubborness, then listen to those who are wise and intelligent among you who try to refrain you from your mischief. These words were spoken to them by Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) in utter distress and misery.

79. They said, You know that we have no right in the daughters[160], of your people, and you surely know what, we desire.

قَالُوْا لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا لَنَا فِيْ بَنٰتِكَ مِنْ حَقٍّ ۚ وَ اِنَّكَ لَتَعْلَمُ مَا نُرِيْدُ ﴿٧٩﴾

160. This means we are not inclined towards them or that we are no longer fit for women because those who indulge in sodomy are incapable of having desire for a woman. Otherwise these ladies were their wives.

80. He said, Had I strength against you or might take refuge in a strong pillar [161].

قَالَ لَوْ اَنَّ لِيْ بِكُمْ قُوَّةً اَوْ اٰوِيْۤ اِلٰى رُكْنٍ شَدِيْدٍ ﴿٨٠﴾

161. This tells us that seeking protection from the people or from the external power is no idolatory. It is an act or deed of the Prophet. Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) expressed regret that he has no helper from his people.

81. The angels said, O Lut! We are messengers [162], of you Lord, they cannot reach you, then carry forth your family within night, and let none of you look back [163], except your wife [164]. The same is to reach her [165], too, what will reach them. No doubt, their promise [166]. is for the morning. Is the morning not near?[167]

162. We (the angels) have brought punishment upon the people, and not revelation upon you, because angels who bring Divine Revelation are recognizable to the Prophets, otherwise that will not be positive revelation. It should be remembered that the appearance of the angels in the form of handsome young youths was so to say to apprehend the criminals at the time of crime, just as police come in plain clothes to apprehend the criminals while committing crime, which then becomes indisputable supporting evidence in a case.

163. None of you should look back on your homes, on your wealth and possessions, on your compatriots.

164. This tells us that it is a sin to express regret at the destruction of the infidels, and a cause of one's destruction, His wife was destroyed because she regretted the destruction of the people uttering painfully "Alas! My people". As soon as she uttered these words a stone fell on her skull killing her instantly. These stones were of baked clay. Each stone had the name of the criminal. These stones did the work of a bomb as they fell on the head of the one whose name was on them.

165. This tells us that these angels due to Divine knowledge were fully aware of those who would be dying as infidels, and who would be dying as believers, as well as where and when these people would be destroyed. All three of these are from the Five branches of knowledge. The knowledge of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is far superior to that of the angels. If the angels can have knowledge of these, then how can they be hidden from our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

166. This tells us that early dawn is the time when mercy descends upon the beloved servants of Allah Almighty and punishment descends upon the cursed people. It is for this reason that reciting Istighfaar and engaging in worship during this time is commendable and meritorious.

167. When Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) said that I desire their earliest destruction, the angels responded by telling him that dawn is near, not far.

82. Then when Our command came. We turned that town upside [168], down, and We rained [169]. upon it stones of baked clay continuously.

فَلَمَّا جَآءَ اَمْرُنَا جَعَلْنَا عَالِيَهَا سَافِلَهَا وَ اَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهَا حِجَارَةً مِّنْ سِجِّيْلٍ ۙ مَّنْضُوْدٍ ۙ﴿۸۲﴾

168. This means these five villages were turned upside down, the largest of which was Sadoom. The total population of them was four hundred thousand. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) raised these villages from the bottom by hand so high that the sound of their chickens began to reach the sky. They were raised so suddenly that no water from the utensils spilled, nor did those asleep get up.

169.This tells us that immorality is a terrible evil and a severe sin for which the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) were punished so painfully that the like of it came to no other people after them. It is for this reason that the punishment for murder in Islam is death, but for adultery it is stoning to death (RAJAM).

83. Which are with your Lord marked, and those stones are not away from unjust people [170].

مُّسَوَّمَةً عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ؕ وَ مَا هِيَ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ بِبَعِيْدٍ ﴿۸۳﴾

170. This means wherever these stones had fallen, that place is not far from the infidels of Makkah. It is found on their route. Or it means punishment can descend upon them as well. It is only due to your auspicious presence. Oh My Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that they are saved from such punishment. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah is not one to chastise them, till (O beloved Prophet) you are in their midst" (S8:V33).

SECTION 8

84. And towards Madyan [171]. Shoaib a compatriot of their own. He said

وَ اِلٰى مَدْيَنَ اَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا ؕ قَالَ

Marfat.com

يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ وَ لَا تَنْقُصُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيْزَانَ اِنِّيْٓ اَرٰىكُمْ بِخَيْرٍ وَّ اِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ مُّحِيْطٍ ﴿۸۴﴾

O my people, worship Allah, there is no deity beside Him. And diminish [172]. not the measure and the weight. No doubt, I see you prosperous, and I fear for you the torment of encircling day [173].

171. This means towards the people or city of Madyan. Madyan was the name of one of Hazrat Ebrahim's (On whom be peace) son. His offspring is called Madyan tribe and his locality is called the city of Madyan.

172. These people had made measuring cups of irregular size and cheated with weights and scales. They would give with smaller cups and lesser weights but take with larger cups and heavier weights.

173. Such general and common punishment that no one would be able to escape it. It should be remembered that when sins become common, Divine punishment descends which destroys even innocent animals and children. This is called encircling torment.

وَ يٰقَوْمِ اَوْفُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيْزَانَ بِالْقِسْطِ وَ لَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ اَشْيَآءَهُمْ وَ لَا تَعْثَوْا فِي الْاَرْضِ مُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿۸۵﴾

85. And O my people! Fill up measure and weight with justice and do not give the people their things decreasing [174]. and do not roam in the earth spreading mischief. [175].

174. This tells us that even infidels are duty bound in matters of business dealings, although religious laws in matters of worship are not obligatory on them. Thus Salaah is not obligatory upon an infidel, but accuracy in measuring and weighing is obligatory on him as well, theft is forbidden for him as well. Thus an Islamic government will permit infidels to take interest from believers: Due to unjust business dealings punishment has come and will come on the infidels. Says Allah Almighty: "And when the female buried is questioned about. For what crime was she killed" (S81:V8-9). From this it becomes clear that parents who had buried their daughters alive would be punished for this terrible crime

175. Do not spread mischief through banditry and stealing.

بَقِيَّتُ اللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۚ وَ مَآ اَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ بِحَفِيْظٍ ﴿۸۶﴾

86. And that which is left from the provision of Allah is better for you, if your believe [176]. And I am not over you a guardian.[177].

176. From this we learn that there is prosperity and grace in lawful things while unlawful things will be inauspicious and lack prosperity. Although a she goat reproduces one or two kids and the bitch reproduces ten to twelve puppies, thousands of sheep are slaughtered each year but no one slaughters a dog. One always looks for flocks of sheep, not for packs of dogs. A little bit of sustenance is far better than a large quantity of unlawful sustenance.

177. Jihad (Holy War) was not obligatory in the religion of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace). He was only ordered verbal propagation. He would preach the whole day and pray during the entire night.

87. They said, O Shoaib does your prayer bid you that we should abandon the gods of our fathers , or that we should not do with our riches whatever we will? Yes please, you are the only wise and up right. [178].

178. This tells us that to utter words of praise for the Prophet with the intention of showing disrespect too is an act of infidelity, because this is not praise but it is a joke and flattery. From this the writers and reciters of Na'at Shareef should take heed to rectify their intentions in these matters. The infidels had called their Prophet wise and upright. Their words were good but their intentions were evil.

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اَرَءَيْتُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُ عَلٰى بَيِّنَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّيْ وَ رَزَقَنِيْ مِنْهُ رِزْقًا حَسَنًا ؕ وَ مَآ اُرِيْدُ اَنْ اُخَالِفَكُمْ اِلٰى مَآ اَنْهٰىكُمْ عَنْهُ ؕ اِنْ اُرِيْدُ اِلَّا الْاِصْلَاحَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ ؕ وَ مَا تَوْفِيْقِيْٓ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ ؕ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَ اِلَيْهِ اُنِيْبُ ﴿۸۸﴾

88. He said, O my people, tell me fairly , if I am on a clear proof [179]. from my Lord and he gave me good provision [180]. from Himself. And I do not desire that I myself begin to do against [181]. that which I forbid you to do. I only desire to reform as far as I can. And my succour is from Allah only , I relied only upon Him and I turn towards Him only. [182].

179. By clear proof is meant prophethood and revelation while the adverb 'if' is used to indicate the condition of his people. Otherwise Hazrat Shuaib's (On whom be peace) prophethood and revelation are so positive that there was no room for doubt about them.

180. By this is meant spiritual sustenance i.e Divine Guidance, prophethood and revelation which are connected with eternal life. It could also mean physical lawful sustenance in which there should be no trace of anything unlawful. Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was very wealthy and possessed many animals and properties. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

181. This tells us that the most respected Prophets do not even intend to commit sins. To incline anyone towards committing sins is the work of either the baser self or the Devil. The blessed Prophets do not have a baser self. Allah Almighty says: No doubt the soul is used to command evil but that to whom my Lord has mercy" (S12:V53), and the devil does not overpower or subdue them. Allah Almighty further says: "No doubt those who are my bondsmen, you have no control over them" (S17:V65). In this verse it is pointed out that let alone committing prohibited acts, I do not have any intention of doing anything which is prohibited by Allah Almighty. When the blessed Prophets are protected from intention of sinful acts, then sin itself has no meaning by them. The one who regards them as sinful is worse than the devil because the devil had said that he would not be able to control Allah Almighty's beloved servants, while this wretched person is believing them to be sinful or misguided.

182. In these blessed words of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) there is a hint towards an important issue that besides Allah Almighty's help no one can obtain guidance merely through his own intelligence. What this means is that my hand is in the Hand of Allah and it is important for you to let your hand be in my hand so that the mercy of Allah Almighty can help you. This tells us that only the Prophets maintain absolute contact with Allah Almighty

89. And O my people! Let not your opposition to me make you earn that which befell the people of Nuh, or the people of Hud or the people of Saleh. And the people of Lut are not far away from you [183].

183. The destruction and devastation of the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) in comparison is very close to that of the people of Nooh and the people of Hud. If there was not the object of it, then the destruction of the people of Lut had also taken place thousands of years ago, because Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) was the contemporary of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) while Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was a contemporary of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace).

90. And beg forgiveness of Allah, then turn towards Him. No doubt, my Lord is Merciful. Loving [184].

184. Many Prophets of Allah Almighty had ordered their people towards reciting Istighfaar (words of forgiveness) and seeking repentance is very important. You should also remember there is a different repentance for different type of sin: the repentence of kufr (infidelity) is accepting Faith, the repentence for infringing human rights is compensating them whose rights that have been infringed upon, for sins committed in the open, the repentence should be likewise.

91. They said, O Shoaib, we do not understand [185], most of your talks; and no doubt, we see you weak [186]. among us. And if there would not have been your tribe, [187], we would have stoned you. And there is no respect for you in our eyes [188].

قَالُوْا يٰشُعَيْبُ مَا نَفْقَهُ كَثِيْرًا مِّمَّا تَقُوْلُ وَ اِنَّا لَنَرٰىكَ فِيْنَا ضَعِيْفًا ۚ وَ لَوْ لَا رَهْطُكَ لَرَجَمْنٰكَ ۫ وَ مَآ اَنْتَ عَلَيْنَا بِعَزِيْزٍ ﴿۹۱﴾

185. This tells us the words and conversation of a Prophet can be understood through the intelligence of faith, ordinary intelligence is not sufficient for it. In fact, just to look at them you require the gaze of faith.

186. From this we understand that to reject the powers of Prophets and Saints and to regard them as weak is the work of infidels. Allah Almighty has granted them such powers that no other power can work against them.

187. This means those of your kith and kin who are in the fold of our religion would stand to take up arms against us when they would see us causing harm to you. For this reason we would not say anything to you. An example of this was the leniency of the infidels of Makkah towards the Holy Prophet because of the position of Abu Talib, and due to this, were scared to cause injury to his nephew.

188. This tells us that what respect will one now show to a Prophet, who is disgraced himself. This is the very utterance of the progeny of Ismail in the present time.

Marfat.com

The source of all this is nonsensical talking of the people of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace).

92. He said, O my people! Is the pressure of my tribe over you is more than Allah? And you have cast Him behind [189]. your back. No doubt, what ever you do, is under the cortrol of my, Lord.

قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اَرَهْطِیْٓ اَعَزُّ عَلَیْكُمْ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَاتَّخَذْتُمُوْهُ وَرَآءَكُمْ ظِهْرِیًّا ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّیْ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ مُحِیْطٌ ﴿۹۲﴾

189. This tells us that to show your back to the order of a Prophet is equal to showing your back to the order of Allah Almighty, because their obedience is in fact obedience of Allah Almighty.

93. And O people! Continue[190], your work at your places, I do my work. Soon you are to know, on whom comes the torment that will disgrace him and who is liar. And wait, I also wait with you. [191].

وَ یٰقَوْمِ اعْمَلُوْا عَلٰی مَكَانَتِكُمْ اِنِّیْ عَامِلٌ ؕ سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۙ مَنْ یَّاْتِیْهِ عَذَابٌ یُّخْزِیْهِ وَ مَنْ هُوَ كَاذِبٌ ؕ وَارْتَقِبُوْٓا اِنِّیْ مَعَكُمْ رَقِیْبٌ ﴿۹۳﴾

190. The object of this is not granting permission to those infidels for polytheism and idol worshipping, but its purpose is expressing wrath, as Allah Almighty says: "Then whoso will, let him believe, and whoso will, let him disbelieve". (S18:V29) And Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) said to the magicians: "Cast you down what you have to cast" (S26:V43).

191. This means you should await my destruction, because they were saying our idols will destroy Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) and the believers. Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) told them time alone will tell who is destroyed - you or me. These words too are for the expression of anger.

94. And when my Command came [192], We saved Shoaib and the Muslims with him by showing Our mercy [193] , and the roaring noise overtook the unjust [194]. then they remained lying on their knees in their homes at morning.

وَ لَمَّا جَآءَ اَمْرُنَا نَجَّیْنَا شُعَیْبًا وَّ الَّذِیْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مَعَهٗ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِّنَّا وَاَخَذَتِ الَّذِیْنَ ظَلَمُوا الصَّیْحَةُ فَاَصْبَحُوْا فِیْ دِیَارِهِمْ جٰثِمِیْنَ ۙ﴿۹۴﴾

192. Here the command is not a religious command but existentional command i.e. the command regarding their destruction which was already told to the angels.

193. By this is meant Allah Almighty had removed them from there because punishment does not descend in the presence of a Prophet. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah is not to chastise them while (O beloved Prophet) you are in their midst" (S8:V33). Also, the presence of the pious halts Divine punishment.

194. In that Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) uttered in a frightening voice, "All of you die!" (Khazainul Ifraan). It is stated in Surah Araaf that "they were overtaken by an earthquake" (S7:V91). The truth of the matter is that both forms of punishment came to them, i.e. the roaring noise brought about an earthquake.

95. As they had never dwelt there. Ho: Be Madyan just as Thamud [195]. were removed far away.

195. The people of Thamud and Aad were afflicted with similar forms of punishments, but the people of Saleh i.e. the Thamud were overtaken by the roaring noise from the bottom while the people of Shuaib were seized from the top. Firstly, they were caught up in a severe heat. Then one cloud appeared where there was cold wind. When these people gathered at this place a sudden roaring noise came through which an earthquake took place. The entire locality burst into flames and all these people were totally destroyed through it.

وَ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا مُوْسٰى بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ سُلْطٰنٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿٩٦﴾ لا

96. And verily, We sent Musa with Our signs [196]. and clear authority.

196. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was granted nine miracles: the walking stick, the shining hand, punishments in the form of stones, locusts, lice, frogs, blood, destruction of possessions, death. All seven of these punishments were sent upon the people of the Pharoah.

اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَا۟ئِهٖ فَاتَّبَعُوْۤا اَمْرَ فِرْعَوْنَ ۚ وَ مَاۤ اَمْرُ فِرْعَوْنَ بِرَشِيْدٍ ﴿٩٧﴾

97. To Firawn and his courtiers[197], then they followed the command of Firawn. And the work of Firawn was not rightly directed [198].

197. Because the Pharoah and his people had overpowered the Israelites, mention here has been made about them. Otherwise Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was the Prophet of the Israelites as well. Also, the subject matter which follows "then they followed the command of the Pharoah" is concerning the QIBTIES - the people of the Pharoah. Hence mention here is made of them.

198. This means the Pharoah's misguidance was crystal clear though he was an ordinary human being, he was claiming godhood. In spite of this these people had obeyed him.

يَقْدُمُ قَوْمَهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فَاَوْرَدَهُمُ النَّارَ ؕ وَبِئْسَ الْوِرْدُ الْمَوْرُوْدُ ﴿٩٨﴾

98. He shall be before his people on the Day of Resurrection. And bring them down in the Hell [199]. And what an evil place of watering to descent.

199. From this we learn that on the Day of Judgement every infidel will be in the company of his leader, while every believer, if Allah wills, will be in the company of his leader and guide. Hence it is important to take Bayat on the hand of a Murshid. This is because all Pharoahites will be with the devil only. In fact, through the Pharoah they will all be with the devil. Likewise, the believer will not be directly with the Holy Prophet but through their Murshids and leaders will be able to reach the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. It is for this reason that the pious Sufis say: "He who has no Guide (Murshid) the devil becomes his guide".

99. And the curse followed them in this world and on the Day of Resurrection [200]. What is and evil reward which they got.

200. Every generation that would come until the Day of Judgement would be remembering them in the world with adverse comments, while in the Hereafter, all those before them and after them will curse them.

From this we learn that the disgrace of the world, and the eternal curse of the pious is a punishment of Allah Almighty for such a person, while pious remembrance and good publicity is the mercy from Allah Almighty for him.

100. These are the tidings of the towns that we relate to you, some of them are standing and some mown down. [201].

ذٰلِكَ مِنْ اَنْۢبَآءِ الْقُرٰى نَقُصُّهٗ عَلَيْكَ مِنْهَا قَآئِمٌ وَّحَصِيْدٌ ﴿۱۰۰﴾

201. By this is meant ruins of some are still found in towns and villages which have been ravaged by Divine punishment, eg the desolate towns and villages of the Aad and Thamud.

With some there is no trace of them to be found like the villages of the people of Nooh. Only their stories remain now, but they themselves are not to be found.

101. And we wronged them not, but they did evil to themselves. Their deities whom they used to worship beside Allah availed [202], them not, when the Command of your Lord came, and they increased them nothing save destruction. [203].

وَمَا ظَلَمْنٰهُمْ وَلٰكِنْ ظَلَمُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ فَمَآ اَغْنَتْ عَنْهُمْ اٰلِهَتُهُمُ الَّتِيْ يَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ لَّمَّا جَآءَ اَمْرُ رَبِّكَ ؕ وَمَا زَادُوْهُمْ غَيْرَ تَتْبِيْبٍ ﴿۱۰۱﴾

202. By this is meant that they had not benefitted from the worship of their false gods. Here the verb they worshipped is used to denote an act of worshipping. It should be remembered that the worship of idols in any case is false because these deities are false. If one worships Allah Almighty according to the teachings of the Prophet then it is true but if it is done with the intention of opposing the Prophet it would be false because though the deity is a true one, the worshipper, and his worship are both false. Both these worships would not be beneficial. Though the infidels of Makkah would perform pilgrimage of the sacred Ka'bah, and the previous non-believing people too would worship Allah Almighty, all these were not just useless, but harmful as well.

203.From these verses we learn that the company of the faithless and their obedience is a cause of one's destruction, just as the company of the faithful and their obedience is a means of obtaining Divine mercy.

102. And such is the seizing of your Lord , when He seizes the towns on their injustice [204]. No doubt, His seizing is painful, severe.

204. This tells us that due to the sins of human beings other animals become victims of punishments, just as due to the blessings of the animals some human beings receive merciful rain, etc.

103. No doubt, herein is a sign to him who fears [205]. the torment of Hereafter. That is a Day whereon

اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً لِّمَنْ خَافَ عَذَابَ الْاٰخِرَةِ ؕ ذٰلِكَ يَوْمٌ مَّجْمُوْعٌ ۙ لَّهُ النَّاسُ all shall be gathered together and that is a Day of presence. [206].

205. The purpose of the verse is to admonish a lesson and advise. What it means is that though everyone would be listening to these incidents but only those will obtain a lesson from them in whose hearts there is fear of Allah Almighty. Those who are bereft of this will not receive admonition from anything.

206. In respect of SHAHID and MASH-HOOD some scholars have taken SHAHID "the witness" to mean the beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and MASH-HOOD to mean the Day of Judgement. This verse is perhaps a proof for their interpretation, as well as that command of Allah Almighty: "O Prophet the Communicator of unseen news, no doubt, We have sent you as a Present beholder". (S33:V45) Thus the most appropriate commentary of the Holy QUR'AAN is that which is provided by the Holy QUR'AAN itself.

104. And We defer it not save for a counted period.

وَ مَا نُؤَخِّرُهٗۤ اِلَّا لِاَجَلٍ مَّعْدُوْدٍ ﴿۱۰۴﴾

105. When that Day will come , no-one will speak save by the leave [207]. of God. Then any one of them is unfortunate, and any one of them is fortunate. [208].

207. By "save by the leave of Allah" is meant will not utter beneficial words, make excuses and intercession, give correct answer to a question without the permission of Allah Almighty. Besides these there will be other conversations and utterances like the false talks of the infidels like "By Allah! we were not idol worshippers",(S6 : V 23) etc. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verses.

208. This means that today some people in the world are fortunate while some are unfortunate wretches. Being soft-hearted, crying in abundance in love of Allah Almighty, showing dislike for the world, being modest and shy are signs of being fortunate, while being hard-hearted, (cruel) dryness of the eyes,love of the world, shamelessness, many desires, etc. are signs of wretchedness (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan) It could also mean on the Day of Judgement some would be happy and fortunate, some would be miserable and wretched. The brightness, of the face, having the Books of Deeds in the right hand, having open hands, etc are things to recognise a happy and fortunate person there. Things contrary to these are the recognition of a miserable wretch. From this we learn that even small children and demented people too would be part of these two groups, because Allah Almighty has not described a third group for them.

106.Then those who are unfortunate, they are in the Hell, they will bray like an ass. [209].

209. From this we learn that although some sinful Muslims would be sent into Hell for short while, their voices would not be changed to that of donkeys. This is set aside for the infidels only.

107. They shall abide therein, so long as the heavens and earth abide, save as your Lord will [210]. No doubt, your Lord

خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا مَا دَامَتِ السَّمٰوٰتُ وَ الْاَرْضُ اِلَّا مَا شَآءَ رَبُّكَ ؕ اِنَّ accomplishes what he desires.

رَبُّكَ فَعَّالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيْدُ ﴿۱۰۷﴾

210. This means eternally, because there would never be any limit to the will of Allah Almighty. In other words they would abide in Hell as long as the heavens and earth would be there. Besides this, they abide therein as long as Allah Almighty wills them to be in there.

Thus there is no limit to 'this' and 'keeping'. Says Allah Almighty: "they shall abide therein". Thus there is neither inconsistency in the verses nor do they prove that Paradise and Hell would ever perish. This verse ends on "This is the gift unending".

108. And those who are fortunate [211], they are in heaven. They shall abide therein, so long as the heavens and earth abide, save as your Lord will. This is the gift unending [212].

211. No matter whether they themselves are like pious, believers and due to the blessings of others, like the minor children of the Muslims or like the sinners, like myself, who would become happy and fortunate through the blessings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. All these would be the inmates of Paradise.

212. From "this is a gift unending" we learn that paradise and the bounties therein are eternal. The interpretation of this verse is how we have interpreted it.

109. Then O listener! Be not in delusion concerning that which these infidels worship [213]. They worship as their fathers used to worship before. And undoubtedly, We shall repay them their portion in full undiminished. [214].

فَلَا تَكُ فِىْ مِرْيَةٍ مِّمَّا يَعْبُدُ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ ؕ مَا يَعْبُدُوْنَ اِلَّا كَمَا يَعْبُدُ اٰبَآؤُهُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلُ ؕ وَ اِنَّا لَمُوَفُّوْهُمْ نَصِيْبَهُمْ غَيْرَ مَنْقُوْصٍ ﴿۱۰۹﴾ ع

213. This means Oh Muslims who recite the Holy QUR'AAN, after listening to the incidents which had caused the destruction of the previous nations, do not doubt that idol worshipping is perhaps correct. It is in no way connected to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. In this verse the believers are being addressed.

214. From this we learn that although those who follow the leaders who are infidels would be punished, this would not lessen the punishment of their subordinate infidels.

Likewise, though the rewards of the leaders of the believers would receive equal rewards of good doers, it would not lessen the rewards of the doers of good. From this we also learn that by conveying the reward of the good deeds, it would not lessen the reward of the one who has done this good deed. Further, the religious analogy is correct because Allah Almighty has used the analogy of the present infidels on the previous infidels due to their common activities of infidelity and evil doings.

SECTION : 10

110. And no doubt, We gave Musa the Book [215], then they differed therein, And if a word of your Lord had not gone already before, the matter would have been decided [216]. between them. And no doubt, they are in a deceptive doubt about it.

وَلَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسَى الْكِتٰبَ فَاخْتُلِفَ فِيْهِ ؕ

وَ لَوْ لَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ لَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ ؕ وَ اِنَّهُمْ لَفِيْ شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مُرِيْبٍ ﴿۱۱۰﴾

215. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) is the first Prophet with a revealed Book and the Taurah is the first of the heavenly Books. After his demise there were many disputes about the Book that arose in his followers, some were in possession of the original copy of the Taurah others had a distorted copy. All praise be to Allah Almighty. Muslims have not and will not experience such disputes and disparities regarding the Holy QUR'AAN. It is protected by Allah Almighty from all types of distortions.

216. This means we already decided that they would be subjected to reckoning and punishment on the Day of Judgement. For this reason they are not subjected to punishment now.

وَ اِنَّ كُلًّا لَّمَّا لَيُوَفِّيَنَّهُمْ رَبُّكَ اَعْمَالَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ بِمَا يَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرٌ ﴿۱۱۱﴾

111. And no doubt, to each of them in all your Lord will repay their works [217]. in full. He is aware of their doings.

217. In that the Almighty will not decrease the good deeds of the believers or increase the sins of the infidels. However, increasing the good deeds of the believers and forgiveness of the sins of the sinful is not contrary to Allah's will. Hence no one can use this verse to reject the mercy of Allah Almighty.

فَاسْتَقِمْ كَمَاۤ اُمِرْتَ وَ مَنْ تَابَ مَعَكَ وَ لَا تَطْغَوْا ؕ اِنَّهٗ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرٌ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

112. Then remain you firm as you have been commanded and whoever has repented [218]. with you; and O people! Do not be arrogant. No doubt He is seeing your works.

218. The great saints of Allah Almighty say that one steadfastness is better than a thousand miracles. Steadfastness is that man must not give up or turn his back from the obedience and worship of Allah Almighty during sorrow and distress, during hardship and comfort. Under all circumstances he must resign himself to the will of Allah Almighty. Steadfastness is indeed the root and foundation of sainthood through which one can obtain the company and nearness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

113. And do not lean [219], towards wrong doers, lest the Fire should touch you, and you have no supporter besides Allah, then you will not be helped [220].

219. Here 'wrongdoers' refers to infidels and the apostates and misguided people, while leaning towards them means those who keep friendship and social contact with them, show approval of their deeds, to show softness in opposing them, to flatter them, etc. None of these acts should be shown towards any infidel.

220. This tells us that Allah Almighty appoints helpers for the believers, because the absence of helpers for the infidels is a form of punishment for them. We also learn that inclination of friendship and support towards i.e. coming of punishment upon them and absence of any helper for them.

وَ اَقِمِ الصَّلٰوةَ طَرَفَيِ النَّهَارِ وَ زُلَفًا مِّنَ الَّيۡلِ ؕ اِنَّ الۡحَسَنٰتِ يُذۡهِبۡنَ السَّيِّاٰتِ ؕ ذٰلِكَ ذِكۡرٰى لِلذّٰكِرِيۡنَ ۚ﴿۱۱۴﴾ verse was revealed. This person asked "Is this specially for me?" The reply was, 'no', this is for my entire Ummah (followers) minor sins are forgiven through the blessings of good deeds.

223. By this is meant although the Holy QUR'AAN is a good counsel for all, only those who believe in it will benefit from its counselling as said by Allah Almighty: "There is Guidance to the God-fearing". (S2:V2) Observe, the Holy Prophet is the mercy unto the worlds and unto the believers. Thus there is neither any inconsistency in the verses, nor can you prove from it that the Holy QUR'AAN is a counselling for all.

وَ اصۡبِرۡ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُضِيۡعُ اَجۡرَ الۡمُحۡسِنِيۡنَ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

there is no inequity.

فَلَوۡ لَا كَانَ مِنَ الۡقُرُوۡنِ مِنۡ قَبۡلِكُمۡ اُولُوۡا بَقِيَّةٍ يَّنۡهَوۡنَ عَنِ الۡفَسَادِ فِى الۡاَرۡضِ اِلَّا قَلِيۡلًا مِّمَّنۡ اَنۡجَيۡنَا مِنۡهُمۡ ۚ وَ اتَّبَعَ الَّذِيۡنَ ظَلَمُوۡا مَاۤ اُتۡرِفُوۡا فِيۡهِ وَ كَانُوۡا مُجۡرِمِيۡنَ ﴿۱۱۶﴾ would not have spread to such an extent. The Holy Prophet said: "In my Ummah there will always be one group who would be on the path of righteousness". This is the Ahle Sunnat Wal Jama'at and their Ulema.

226. From this we learn that following the righteous Ulema is a means of obtaining the infidels is infidelity because Allah Almighty has ordained this punishment for it 114. And establish prayer at the two ends of the day and in parts of the night [221]. No doubt good deeds obliterate[222]. evil deeds. This is admonition for the persons accepting admonition [223].

221. This verse hints as a proof for the Five Daily Prayers, because the Salaahs offered during the morning and evening are prayers at the two ends of the day. Likewise Zohr, Asr and Esha too are included in the word parts of the day and night.

222. From this we learn that good deeds help to obtain forgiveness of the evil deeds and that the sinful people can be forgiven through the blessings of the pious. Good and evil deeds are common. Reason for its revelation: One person unintentionally looked at an unfamiliar woman with lust and made a slight pass at her. On realising this he regretted his action and presented himself to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to relate this. In response this

115. And be patient, Allah wastes not the reward of the righteous [224].

224. Although at times there is a delay in receiving the rewards, but by Allah Almighty

116. Then why were there not amongst generations before you persons possessing some virtue [225], who would have forbidden mischief in the earth, yes, there were few of them whom We delivered? And the unjust remained behind the same luxury that was given [226], to them, and they were sinners. [227].

225.By "persons possessing some virtue" refers to righteous Ulema- scholars i.e. they were not from those people, who possessed knowledge and grace of Allah Almighty. The purpose of this verse is to show that this was the very cause of the previous people going astray that they did not have the righteous scholars. If these were in them misguidance salvation, while following wealth is a means of going astray.

227. The general public were criminals because they were indulging in immoral activities, while the scholars were criminals because they were not stopping them from such evil.

117. And your Lord is not such that He would destroy towns without any reason, while its people be good. [228].

وَ مَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ لِيُهْلِكَ الْقُرٰى بِظُلْمٍ وَّ اَهْلُهَا مُصْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۷﴾

228. From this emerge two issues:

1. Allah Almighty is free and pure from any injustice. Injustice is contrary to Divinity.

2. Wherever there are pious people, punishment does not come there. Their presence is a talisman for peace and protection.

118. And if your Lord had willed He would have made all mankind one nation, and they will always remain differing [229].

229. Therefore observe that there is disparity in the language, eating habits, lifestyle, religion and nationality of man. They are not the same in these aspects. What has been said here by Allah Almighty is totally correct. Look at the greatness of Allah Almighty, that among the animals there are no infidels or polytheists. This disease is found only among man or in jinns.

119. Save those on whom your Lord has mercy, and for this has He created [230]. them. And the word of your Lord has been fulfilled, no doubt, I will fill hell with the jinn and mankind together [231].

230. That is, it is for this disparity and difference, as is said by Allah Almighty: "And We said, get down, one of you is the enemy of the other", (S2:V36) or it is for the sake of declaring mercy. For this reason Allah's name is, Most Affectionate and Merciful. It should be remembered that the wisdom behind the creation of man is worship i.e. they have been created to worship Him. Says Allah Almighty: "That they may worship me".(S52 : V56) But the end result of man's creation is disparity and difference, as has been stated in this verse. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verses.

231. This verse clearly expresses that immoral jinns will be sent into hell like immoral human beings. But from the verses of Surah Ahqaf and Surah Jinn one understands that only the believing jinns would be salvaged from Hell. i.e. there is no Paradise for them. Thus the truth of the matter is that Paradise is only for the believing human beings. It should be remembered that even the moon, the sun, the idols, etc. too would be sent into Hell, not for the sake of receiving punishment but for the sake of providing punishment. Thus this verse does not contradict the following verse: "Hence dread the fire whose fuel is men and stones" (S2:V24).

120. And all that we relate to you of the tidings of the messengers [232] is for the purpose of strengthening your heart[233], therewith, and in this

وَ كُلًّا نَّقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ اَنْۢبَآءِ الرُّسُلِ مَا نُثَبِّتُ بِهٖ فُؤَادَكَ ۚ وَجَآءَكَ فِيْ هٰذِهِ

الْحَقُّ وَ مَوْعِظَةٌ وَّ ذِكْرٰى لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۰﴾

Sura the truth has come to you and admonition to the Muslims. [234]

232. From this we understand that Allah Almighty had conveyed the stories of all the Prophets to His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, some through the Holy QUR'AAN and some through His own secret ways. Therefore the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of all the Prophets.

233. So that after seeing the harsh treatment meted out to the infidels the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم heart does not experience any pain or distress, and that it gets the strength to absorb and bear it. From this emerge two issues:

1. The remembrance of the pious servants of Allah Almighty gives contentment to the heart.
2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is beloved to Allah Almighty to such an extent that He provides means of comforting and consoling him; He does not allow his heart to be grieved and distressed.

234. From this we learn that the counselling of pious deeds is for believers only. On the other hand, the guidance of correct beliefs is for all, mankind.

121. And say you to the infidels, continue working on your places, [235], and we do our work.

235. This command is to express intense wrath. This tells us that sometimes in addition to obligatory duties, commands have other meanings as well. In this verse, permission is not granted for committing immoral deeds.

وَانْتَظِرُوْا ۚ اِنَّا مُنْتَظِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۲﴾

122. And wait and we too are waiting.

وَ لِلّٰهِ غَيْبُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَ اِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُ الْاَمْرُ كُلُّهٗ فَاعْبُدْهُ وَ تَوَكَّلْ عَلَيْهِ ؕ وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۳﴾ ع

123. And to Allah belong the unseen [236], of the heavens and the earth and towards Him is the return of the whole affairs, then worship Him and rely upon Him. And your Lord is not heedless of what you do.

236. Whomsoever He desires He will provide information as Allah Almighty says: "Everything between the heavens and the earth belongs to Allah Almighty". (S2:V255) Therefore he can grant kingdom. Thus this verse does not in any way negate the knowledge of any Prophet or saint. If this was the case it would be against those who reject this as well, because they too accept in the partial unseen knowledge of the Prophets.

SURAH YUSUF (MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

12 Sections and 111 Verses 1 1600 Words, 7166 Letters

1. Reason for its Revelation:
The Jewish scholars had taught the Arab leaders to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to explain how the children of Hazrat Yacoob(on whom be peace) arrived in Egypt and what the cause for their settling in this country, and to relate the full story of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). In response to their inquiry this Surah was revealed.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION 1

1. Alif-Lam- Ra . These are the verses of a Luminous[2]. Book.

الٓرٰ ۚ تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ الْمُبِيْنِ ۝١ ۚ

2. The Holy QUR'AAN is called luminous because it reveals everything concerning those in every age, or because it fully and clearly explain religious laws of what is lawful and what is forbidden.

2. No doubt, We have sent[3]. it down as an Arabic Quran so that you may understand.[4].

اِنَّآ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ قُرْءٰنًا عَرَبِيًّا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُوْنَ ۝٢

3. From this we learn that this very Arabic text is most important. Its translations is not the QUR'AAN. nor can they be recited in Salaah, nor is there reward in their recitation.

4. So that the Arabs and through them others can come to understand. Thus the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم amongst the Arabs and the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN into Arabic is Allah Almighty's big favour upon you because through these the entire world has become dependent on you. It could also mean that the revelation of this QUR'AAN into Arabic was to make its understanding easier for you, and not for explaining it to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for he understands every language. He understands the language of even the animals and stones. Why should he not understand these because he is the Prophet for the entire creation, and the Prophet fully understands the language of his people. Today people of every country and language are conveying their entreaties at the Roza-e-Mubarak (Sacred Grave)of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Beloved Prophet understands everyone and no angel has been appointed to interpret.

3. We relate to you the best[5], narration, in that We revealed to you this Quran, though no doubt, you had no knowledge before.[6].

نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ اَحْسَنَ الْقَصَصِ بِمَآ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْكَ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنَ ۖ وَ اِنْ كُنْتَ مِنْ قَبْلِهٖ لَمِنَ الْغٰفِلِيْنَ ۝٣

Marfat.com

5. The story of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is declared by the QUR'AAN as the best of the stories because it contains marvellous and astonishing wisdom, examples and lessons: incidents and events of kings and their subjects, habits and practices of ladies, patience at the oppressive afflictions of the enemies, forgiving an enemy after overpowering him, maintaining chastity and purity in teen years, transitory nature of this world, the unseen knowledge of the Prophets, relics of the pious being the remover of affliction and calamities, gaining knowledge about the period of a Prophet. In short, this story is a complete picture of Faith and practices, and it comprises of many wisdoms and philosophies of life.

6. That is before the revelation of the QUR'AAN. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was at no time unaware or uniformed about everything even before the revelation of the QUR'AAN. He is at all times fully aware of all the affairs of the world.

4. Recall when Yusuf (Joseph) said to his father, O my father, I saw eleven stars[7], and the sun and the moon I saw them prostrating for me[8].

7. From this we learn that the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) were believers, pious and companions because the Prophet of Allah Almighty had seen them in a form of stars. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says about his noble Companions: "My Companions are like the stars".

8. When Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had seen this dream he was twelve years old. This dream was seen on Friday night which was Lailatul Qadr. Prior to this he had seen another dream in which he saw eleven sticks falling on the earth in the shape of a circle. Another small stick was encircling them. Regarding this dream too, Hazrat Yaqoob, (on whom be peace) had asked him not to relate it to his brothers. It should be remembered that by SAJDA here means placing the forehead on the ground. Hence, Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) had seen the eleven stars, the sun and the moon in human shape who have a forehead. The word SAJDA or prostration signifies politeness and humility. The first meaning seems more appropriate.

5. He said, O my son! Relate [9], not your dream to your brothers that they will devise any scheme [10]. against you. No doubt, satan (the devil) is the clear enemy of man.

قَالَ يٰبُنَيَّ لَا تَقْصُصْ رُءْيَاكَ عَلٰٓى اِخْوَتِكَ فَيَكِيْدُوْا لَكَ كَيْدًا ؕ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ لِلْاِنْسَانِ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِيْنٌ ۝۵

9. From this we learn that dreams should not be related to every Tom, Dick and Harry, especially those who bare enmity and are of fickle mind because they are first to believe in the interpretation of dreams.

10. This means they will design secret plans to destroy you. From this we learn that he was fully aware that they would not be able to destroy him because this was a true dream and in time to come its true meaning would dawn upon his family.

6. And thus your Lord will select you, and teach you to draw conclusion of the discourses, and

وَ كَذٰلِكَ يَجْتَبِيْكَ رَبُّكَ وَ يُعَلِّمُكَ مِنْ تَاْوِيْلِ الْاَحَادِيْثِ وَ يُتِمُّ نِعْمَتَهٗ

Marfat.com

عَلَيْكَ وَعَلٰٓى اٰلِ يَعْقُوْبَ كَمَآ اَتَمَّهَا عَلٰٓى اَبَوَيْكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ وَاِسْحٰقَ ؕ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ۝٦ ع ١ ٦ ١١ perfect His blessings upon you and upon the house of Yaqoob(Jacob)[12], as He perfected it formerly on Ishaq (Isaac). No doubt, your Lord is knowing, Wise[13].

12. By this is meant Allah Almighty will bestow His grace and bounty on all my children, and bless them with a kingdom. From this we learn that the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) are either prophets or saints. Some scholars have used this verse to prove that all the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) are prophets Allah Almighty and His Rasool know best!

13. Thus, whomsoever He has chosen for prophethood have been rightfully chosen. There is no objection in it. Also, since Allah Almighty is All-knowing and Wise, He has granted me knowledge and wisdom. Therefore, whatever infromation I give you it is out of His grace and bounty. And in this there is no room for error.

11. From this we understand that during the period of when the whereabouts of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) were unknown, Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware of the condition of his son and had not accepted the news of his death. The reason being Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) himself had explained to his son that "Oh Yusuf, Prophethood, knowledge, etc. would be granted to you". Thus how would Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) die before receiving prophethood, knowledge, etc. Some scholars have interpreted this verse to mean that the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) were not prophets, because only Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was chosen for this purpose. Allah Almighty knows best!

لَقَدْ كَانَ فِيْ يُوْسُفَ وَاِخْوَتِهٖٓ اٰيٰتٌ لِّلسَّآئِلِيْنَ ۝٧

7. No doubt, in Yusuf and his brethren there are signs for the inquirers [14].

this exactly as described in their Tauraat and Injeel and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not learn this from anyone, nor did he sit in the company of these scholars. Thus to hear these concealed details narrated by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم so accurately indeed astonished them (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). This presented as a proof of his prophethood.

14. Here by inquirers is meant those Jews who had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), as well as for the reasons for the children of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) going from Kan'aan to Egypt. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم narrated to them detailed infromation regarding them, they were astonished to hear it because they had found

اِذْ قَالُوْا لَيُوْسُفُ وَاَخُوْهُ اَحَبُّ اِلٰٓى اَبِيْنَا مِنَّا وَنَحْنُ عُصْبَةٌ ؕ اِنَّ اَبَانَا لَفِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنِ ۝٨

8. When they said surely Yusuf and his brother[15] are dearer to our father than we, and we are a party [16]. No doubt, our father is clearly absorbed in their love[17].

Rahil (Rachel) and Laya (Leah) and two slave girls Zulfah and Balha. From these four he had

15. It should be remembered that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) had two wives twelve sons and few daughters. From Laya he had six sons and one daughter. The sons were Rubal, Shamoon, Yahood, As-Sheejar, Zamayoon and Ladi; and from Rachel he had two sons Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and Benyaamin; from the slave girl Zulfah he had tow sons Jaad and Ashar and from Balha he had two sons Daan and Niftaali. At first Rachel was barren. These children were born to her in old age she and died after giving birth to Benyaamin. At that time Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was two years old. From his children Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was the father's most favourite son.

16. By this is meant in Hazrat yaqoob's (on whom be peace) time of need we can render most service because we are a full group, young and healthy. They did not understand that since Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) lost his mother in his infancy the father would naturally be more kind and loving to him because he is without a mother. From this we learn that if you love some of your children more than the others it is not a bad thing. Weak and youngest children normally are well liked. However, being unjust to the children in any way is forbidden.

17. From this we learn disagreement with a Prophet's opinion is not infidelity because the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) brought pain upon Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) who was a Prophet, and declared his opinion as incorrect. But the Holy QUR'AAN did not declare this as infidelity, nor did Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), after uniting with them, make them repent and read the Kalimah to make them believers again. Thus, because of his opposition to Hazrat Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) Amir Muawiya cannot be called a sinner, etc. Here the word DALAAL will not be taken to mean misguidance, because to regard a prophet as misguided is an act of infidelity. The word here really means absorbed in the love of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

9. Kill Yusuf or cast [18] him forth into some land so that your father's face may only remain towards you, and thereafter be righteous[19].

اقْتُلُوْا يُوْسُفَ اَوِ اطْرَحُوْهُ اَرْضًا يَّخْلُ
لَكُمْ وَجْهُ اَبِيْكُمْ وَتَكُوْنُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِهٖ
قَوْمًا صٰلِحِيْنَ ۝٩

18. So that a wolf may devour him, or he may be abducted by a person. Those scholars who had accepted all these brothers to be prophets say Prophets are always free from infidelity and polytheism, but they are free of sin after prophethood, not prior to it. Thus, these brothers at that point in time were not prophets, they became prophets afterwards. This intention of theirs is one of severe sin.

19. From this we learn that all these actions of the brothers was an effort to turn the father's attention on them, not for any egotistical reasons. It is for this reason that they were eventually granted true repentance.

On the other hand the action of QABEEL was for boosting his evil self hence he was not given an opportunity to repent. This tells us that the outcome of a sin committed in the life of a Prophet is a good act and gets the opportunity to repent. Here becoming pious means making the father happy through obedience. Otherwise committing sin with the intention of repentance is infidelity. This is indeed seeking security with Allah Almighty for your sins. Also, no person can become pious by causing pain and usurping someone's rights. Rights of man will not be forgiven through mere repentance.

10. One of them said, kill not Yusuf,[20] and cast him into a dark well, that any traveller may take him away, if you are to do.

قَالَ قَآئِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ لَا تَقْتُلُوْا يُوْسُفَ
وَاَلْقُوْهُ فِيْ غَيٰبَتِ الْجُبِّ يَلْتَقِطْهُ
بَعْضُ السَّيَّارَةِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ فٰعِلِيْنَ ۝١٠

Marfat.com

20. Because killing an innocent person is a harsh sin. These words were uttered by Yahooda who was the most kind hearted amongst them.

11. They said, O Our father! What happened to you that you are not trusting us regarding Yusuf, and we are his wellwishers[21].

21. By this is meant till today you had not sent Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) with us to the jungle for recreation and enjoyment though a brother lends strength to a brother, even though he may be a step-brother.

12. Send him forth with us tomorrow that he may eat fruits and play[22] and no doubt, we are his watchmen.

اَرْسِلْهُ مَعَنَا غَدًا يَّرْتَعْ وَيَلْعَبْ وَ اِنَّا لَهٗ لَحٰفِظُوْنَ ﴿۱۲﴾

22. From this we learn that games that are lawful are lawful for children to play, Similarly wild fruit which do not belong to anyone too are lawful to eat because Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) did not own any gardens.

13. He said, It will grieve me that you should take him away, and I fear that a wolf[23] may eat him while you remain unaware of him.

23. Perhaps the word wolves is meant to signify the brothers themselves because Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is a Prophet and the sand in the grave cannot destroy the body of a Prophet how will an animal eat his flesh. Thus, devouring by the wolf in reality means his destruction by his brothers, while "you remain unaware of him" would mean you are unware of his noble status.

14. They said, if the wolf eats him, and we are a party then we are of no use [24].

24. Thus he sent Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) to the jungle with them. At that time of departure the father placed the shirt of Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) which was in his neck at the time of being thrown in the fire of Namrood, on his son's neck as a means of protection (Ta'weez). From this we learn that to place the relics of the pious in the neck for the purpose of protection is permissible.

15. Then when they took [25] him away, and all agreed that he should be put in a dark well,[26] and We revealed [27] to him that necessarily you shall inform them of this doing while they shall not be knowing[28].

فَلَمَّا ذَهَبُوْا بِهٖ وَ اَجْمَعُوْٓا اَنْ يَّجْعَلُوْهُ فِيْ غَيٰبَتِ الْجُبِّ ۚ وَ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْهِ لَتُنَبِّئَنَّهُمْ بِاَمْرِهِمْ هٰذَا وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

Marfat.com

25. While they were in the sight of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) the brothers continued to carry Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) on their shoulders out of love. As soon as they were out of sight of the father they threw Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) on the ground and everyone began to beat him up. To which ever brother he turned, he would beat him up. When their cruelty became excessive Yahooda said that you are going against your promise. You had not taken a decision to kill him. On hearing this, they stopped this cruel treatment.

26. Thus they threw Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) in such a well which was narrow from the top but spacious below. At the time of throwing him in the well they took of his shirt and tied both his hands with it then suspended him in the well. When he had reached half way in the well they dropped him. Immediately Hazrat Jibraeel Amien (on whom be peace) came in the well and caught him on his wings, wore him the shirt of Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) which was placed in his neck as protective Taweez through the blessing of which the dark well became fully lit. This place was nine miles from Canaan in the Baitul Muqaddas territory.

27. Here revelation means divine inspiration or the words of Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) because at that point in time Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was not yet a Prophet, and revelation comes to a prophet. From this we learn that the words of the pious servants of Allah Almighty are words of Allah Almighty. Here the words were spoken by Hazrat Jibraeel Amien (on whom be peace), but Allah Almighty says We have spoken.

28. This means there shall come a time when you will be gracing the royal throne, while your brothers will come to you as needy people and you would then be able to remind them of today's incident at which they would be ashamed of what they have done. Allah Almighty says that at that you would say: "Are you aware what you did with Yusuf and his brother". (S12:V89) From this we learn that Allah Almighty had made Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) fully aware of the future happenings and blessed him with the Unseen knowledge. He stayed in this well for three days. During this period angels were frequenting this well and would engage themselves with him in the remembrance of Allah Almighty. At this point in time Hazrat yusuf (on whom be peace) was twelve years old and was re-united with his father after eighty years. While in the well he would remember Allah Almighty excessively.

16. And at night they came to their father weeping [29].

وَ جَآءُوْۤ اَبَاهُمْ عِشَآءً یَّبْكُوْنَ ﴿۱۶﴾

29. This tells us that every one who cries is not necessarily sincere and oppressed. Some times even oppressors and liars also shed tears. From this judges and jurists should take a lesson.

17. They said, O our father! We went away racing, and left Yusuf near our provisions, then the wolf ate him[30], and you would not believe us, though we may be true.

30. This mean we had drifted far from the place where Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was kept to look after our clothes, shooting arrows and running. This tells us that archery is an ancient game which was practised in those days. From this we learn that a judge should not remind the accused of giving proof. They had learned the excuse about wolf from Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) because he had told them. "And I fear that wolf may eat him". (S12:V13)

18. And they brought his shirt stained with false blood [31], He said, your hearts have made [32] a thing for you, then patience is good; and I seek help only from Allah against what you describe.

31. This they did by slaughtering a sheep and dipping Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) shirt in its blood. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) placed this shirt on his eyes and cried a lot and said that it must have been a very strange wolf that ate my Yusuf but did not tear his shirt. These brothers had forgotten to tear his shirt. This is the true meaning of 'false' i.e. that falsehood was quite apparent.

32. From this it is crystal clear that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) fully believed that they were telling a lie because the body of a Prophet is never eaten by the sand in the grave, let alone an animal devouring it. Also the father had understood from the son's dream that in time to come he would be a prophet. For this reason he told his sons: "You have most certainly fabricated this story", and did not go in the jungle in pursuit of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). He was fully aware of the Divine secrets but he did not want to reveal them.

دَلْوَهٗ ؕ قَالَ يٰبُشْرٰى هٰذَا غُلٰمٌ ؕ وَ اَسَرُّوْهُ

19. And there came a Caravan[33] they sent their water carrier. He then let down his bucket[34]. He said, Hurrah , what a good news. This is a boy and concealed him as a treasure[35]. And Allah knows what they do.

33. This caravan was coming from Madyan enroute to Egypt but they forgot the road and came in this jungle. They pitched their tents a little away from this well. Prior to this event the water of this well used to be salty but due to the blessings of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) it turned sweet, as was the case with that water which sweetened with the blessed saliva of our Holy Propeht صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

34. The name of the water carrier was Malik ibn Za'ar Khizai who was a resident of Madyan. When he let down his bucket in the well, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) caught it and hung on to it, and came out of the well when he pulled out the bucket. He was completely taken aback in seeing his divine beauty and charm.

35. By this is meant this water carrier and his close friends hid Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) so that the rest of the fellow travellers would not lay claim to partnership regarding him. Daily the brothers were bringing their sheep to gaze near this well in order to keep an eye on him. Today, when they did not find Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) in the well they went to where the caravan had camped. After searching when they found him they told these travellers that this is their run away slave. They further said that if they wished they would sell him to them for a low price. But out of fear Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) remained silent from refuting their claim.

وَكَانُوْا فِيْهِ مِنَ الزّٰهِدِيْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾ ع ۲ ۱۲ ۱۲

20. And the brothers sold him for a mean price [36] on counted dirhams, and they had no inclination in him[37].

36. The word BAKHS signifies counterfeit dirhams; or unlawful because that which is obtained by unlawful means, is unlawful; or without any blessing. These dirhams were less than forty, because according to the custom of that time forty dirhams were always weighed, and less than that were counted i.e. if they were twenty or twenty two.

37. These were the brothers who were the sellers, or the people of the caravan who were buyers. The reason for their disinclination or lack of interest was because these brothers had earlier said that he was their run-away slave, and to be a fugitive is a vice.

21. And the man of Egypt who bought[38] him said to his wife,[39] keep him honourably,[40] perchance he may profit us, or we may take him as son.[41] And thus We established[42] Yusuf in the land and in order that We may teach him to draw conclusions[43] of the discourses. And Allah is Dominant over His affairs, but most men know not[44].

وَ قَالَ الَّذِی اشْتَرٰىهُ مِنْ مِّصْرَ لِامْرَاَتِهٖۤ

لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا یَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۲۱﴾

38. The King of Egypt was Rayan bin Waleed and his Prime Minister was an Egyptian called Qatfeer who was known as Aziz of Egypt He bought him by paying each of these items equal to the weight of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) gold: silver, musk of tartars, jewels, silk cloth. (Weight was two hundred kg)

39. The name of this lady was Raeel bint Ra-abeel her title was Zuleikha on the vocalised scale of Husaina.

40. The value of the beauty of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was different in the well of Canaan, therefore he was sold there for a few dirhams. But in the market of Egypt the value was so extraordinary that he was priced at thousands of dinars (gold-coins, used as currency in some middle East countries), to the ladies of Egypt his value was such that his one gaze made them to cut their hands, to the victims of drought he was the symbol of food to appease their hunger. An example of this is the refulgence of the sun which is different in the morning, at noon and in the evening and different in the clouds. Similarly the beauty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was different in the world, took a different form on the night of Me'raj, takes another form in the graves and is totally different in the settled state.

41. Allah Almighty brought up Hazrat Yusuf and Hazrat Musa (on them be peace) in the homes of the infidels. This tells us that it is permissible to accept gifts of infidels, and out of necessity it is lawful to eat at their homes because Allah Almighty always protects His prophets from unlawful food.

42. This means He afforded him the opportunity of dwelling and moving around in Egypt, that he can move around with respect according to his wishes. The Egyptian territory is forty miles long and forty miles wide.

43. By "discourses" is meant dreams and drawing conclusion means their interpretations. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is the very first expert in science of dreams and Allah Almighty granted him this knowledge directly without any teacher. This tells us that Faith is the root and knowledge is its fruit. Strength of Faith helps to gain inspired knowledge (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan),

44. By this is meant some difficulties are Divine mercies. Coming into Egypt by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) after over coming difficulties opened for him the door of Allah Almighty's mercies and bounties.

Marfat.com

22. An when he reached to his full strength[45] We bestowed him wisdom and knowledge. And thus We recompense the righteous[46].

وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ اَشُدَّهٗۤ اٰتَيْنٰهُ حُكْمًا وَّ عِلْمًا ؕ وَ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِی الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۲۲﴾

45. By this is meant when he reached his full prime. Prime of life begins at the age of eighteen and ends at forty. From forty years to sixty years is regarded as middle age while sixty to one hundred years is called old age. This is regarding those days when people were given long life span. Here, the word "full strength" signifies twenty years.

46. Allah Almighty blessed Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) with inspired knowledge, directly teaching him without worldly knowledge of jurisprudence and pious action. Prophethood is blessed with inspired knowledge. Regarding Hazrat Khizr (on whom be peace) it is said: "And We bestowed upon him Our inspired knowledge". (S18:V65) while regarding our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty says: "And He has taught you what you did not know". (S4:V113) And further it is stated: "The Most Affectionate, Taught the QUR'AAN to His Beloved". (S55:Vs1-2) Thus no man of wordly knowledge can be equal to the knowledge of a Prophet, because these people are tutored by worldly teachers while the Prophets are students of Allah Almighty.

23. And she in whose house[47] he was, allured him lest he may control himself, and bolted [48] all the doors, and she said: Come, I say to you. He said Allah be my refuge that Aziz is my lord[49] that is to say nourisher, he has kept me very well. No doubt, the unjust never prosper.

وَ رَاوَدَتْهُ الَّتِیْ هُوَ فِیْ بَيْتِهَا عَنْ نَّفْسِهٖ وَ غَلَّقَتِ الْاَبْوَابَ وَ قَالَتْ هَيْتَ لَكَ ؕ قَالَ مَعَاذَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ رَبِّیْۤ اَحْسَنَ مَثْوَایَ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۲۳﴾

47. The wife of Aziz of Egypt was a very beautiful young woman who was the daughter of a West African king. She had fallen in love with Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) after seeing him in a dream. She had learned from her dream that she would be able to meet him in Egypt. For that reason she had married the Aziz of Egypt. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Her father's name was Taymoos. Allah Almighty in this verse describes Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) high state of chastity, i.e. though he was staying in her house, though he was young and handsome and though she was full inclined towards him, he still remained chaste and virtuous.

48. By this is meant she came to him in a home which had seven doors. She locked everyone of it. This verse in no way suggests that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) went to this house with Zuleikha or came after her. On the contrary, every step was taken by Zuleikha. For this reason she has been declared the subject or doer.

49. It is apparent that the personal pronoun 'he' is connected to Aziz of Egypt, while the word 'lord' here means the patron and nourisher. The Holy QUR'AAN in many places had referred to nourishers and protectors as 'lord' e.g. "As they both brought me up in my childhood". (S17:V24) and "Return to your Lord'. (S12:V50)

24. And no doubt, the woman desired him, and he would also have

وَ لَقَدْ هَمَّتْ بِهٖ ۚ وَ هَمَّ بِهَا لَوْ لَاۤ اَنْ

desired her, if he would not have seen the proof [50] of his Lord. Thus We did, in order that We might avert[51] from him evil and indecency. No doubt, he is of my selected bondsmen.

50. This tells us that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had not shown any desire for Zuleikha. Otherwise, the Holy QUR'AAN would use one gender for both, and not different gender to extend the passage.

51. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) at that critical moment saw a vision that his father Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was standing in front of him pressing a finger on his teeth and saying "You are a son of a Prophet. Do not stain this pure white sheet". (Khazainul Irfaan) From this few issues emerge:

1. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware of every condition of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).
2. The pious servants of Allah Almighty from far keep a close eye on things concealed.
3. These pious servants provide assistance from far, where no one's help can reach, theirs does.

4. These pious servants are present ,and scient though Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was in Canaan he reached Egypt to protect his son - just like the angels who at one time frequent different places to do the work. From this we learn that 'proof of his Lord' which Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had seen is indeed Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace). The Holy QUR'AAN has referred to the Prophet as Proof. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, a manifest argument has come to you from Allah". (S5:V175) Here, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is called Proof.

5. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had been saved from even the intention of sin because Allah Almighty had said turn away from evil and immoral i.e. stay far away from them. Intention of evil is evil and adultery is an immoral act. Allah Almighty thus protected him from both.

25. And both ran [52] towards the door, and the woman tore his shirt from behind and both met the husband [53] of the woman near the door. She said what is the punishment [54] of him who desired evil with your wife, but that he should be imprisoned or a painfull chastisement?[55]

وَ اسْتَبَقَا الْبَابَ وَ قَدَّتْ قَمِيْصَهٗ مِنْ دُبُرٍ وَّ اَلْفَيَا سَيِّدَهَا لَدَا الْبَابِ ؕ قَالَتْ مَا جَزَآءُ مَنْ اَرَادَ بِاَهْلِكَ سُوْٓءًا اِلَّآ اَنْ يُّسْجَنَ اَوْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۵﴾

52. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) ran to escape while Zuleikha ran to grab him. At that point in time it was due to his miracle that the locks of the doors and their hooks began to open at his signal, though the keys to these locks were with Zuleikha.

53. Because the Aziz of Egypt in reality was not the master of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) as he was a free person, being forcefully and unjustly sold to him. It is for this reason that he is not called the master of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). From this emerges two issues:

1. The sale of a free person is not valid.
2. Anything bought from an illegal sale would be illegal to sell. The travellers had bought him through illegal sale, which means their purchase is not valid. Then they sold him which means this sale too is not valid.

54. Zuleikha accused Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) of intention of adultery, and not adultery. Had he really had intention of it, then Zuleikha would be true in her claim, but the Holy QUR'AAN and a witness had stated that she is a liar. This tells us that even an intention of Allah. He is pure from this type of thing.

55. Lady Zuleikha herself suggested the punishment so as to ensure that the Aziz does not give an order to kill Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) out of fit of anger and thereby deprive her of him.

26. He said , she allured me lest I may protect myself [56] and a witness of the household of the woman bore witness [57]. If his shirt is torn from before, then the woman is true [58] and he is a liar.

قَالَ هِيَ رَاوَدَتْنِيْ عَنْ نَّفْسِيْ وَ شَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ اَهْلِهَا ۚ اِنْ كَانَ قَمِيْصُهٗ قُدَّ مِنْ قُبُلٍ فَصَدَقَتْ وَ هُوَ مِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿٢٦﴾

56. From this two issues emerge:

1. The intention of adultery was of Zuleikha alone as is understood from "She seduced me". Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) expressed no such intention, otherwise this account would have been false and what he said would have been a li.e.

2. To lay a complaint to the judge against a criminal and to absolve oneself from the accusation is the practise of the Prophets. It is stated in a Hadith stay away from places where you could be accused.

57. From this we learn that under certain conditions the testimony of one is given full credence because the Holy QUR'AAN described this incident without any refutation. Even today single information in matters of integrity is accepted. The same ruling is with those Ahadith transmitted by only one narrator. From this the great status of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqa (May Allah be pleased with her) is revealed that when Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was accursed his innocence was testified by a child, but when the beloved wife of the Beloved of Allah was accused Allah Almighty Himself testified about her innocence.

58. The full incident was as follows.

When the Aziz of Egypt asked Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) to prove his innocence he pointed to Zuleikha's uncle's baby to ask him to testify. This baby was only four months old and was swinging in a cradle. This baby at once began to speak what the Holy QUR'AAN has narrated here. It should be remembered that few such infants have spoken this witness of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace); the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who recited the praises of Allah Almighty at birth; Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) Bibi Mariam; Hazrat Yahya (on whom be peace); Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace); the baby of that woman who was accused of adultery when she was innocent; the baby of the afflicted woman of the Trench People of Ukhdood, the baby of the lady who would comb Hazrat Asiyah's hair; Mubarak Yamamah who testified at birth at the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the baby of the monk Juraij who testified. Thus, from this verse we learn we should take assistance from emblems and symbols to win a legal case, because here a baby testified that if Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had an evil intention then Zuleikha would not have been running after him, nor grab him nor would the shirt be torn from behind.

27. And if his shirt is torn from behind, then the woman is a liar and he is truthful.

وَاِنْ كَانَ قَمِيْصُهٗ قُدَّ مِنْ دُبُرٍ فَكَذَبَتْ وَ هُوَ مِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٢٧﴾ of sin had not emanated from this great Prophet

Marfat.com

فَلَمَّا رَاٰ قَمِيْصَهٗ قُدَّ مِنْ دُبُرٍ قَالَ اِنَّهٗ
مِنْ كَيْدِكُنَّ ؕ اِنَّ كَيْدَكُنَّ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۲۸﴾

28. Then when Aziz saw his shirt torn from behind, he said no doubt, this is the device of you women. No doubt your device is great[59].

59. This means the deceit of all the women is greater than that of men because their accusation seems to be accepted easily. Or, it could mean the deception of a woman is greater than that of the devil because Shaitaan tries to deceive under cover while she does it in the open. From this emerges a few issues:

1. A woman is totally deceitful and a cheater. The few women who gained nearness of Allah Almighty was due to the blessings of men. Water by nature is cold but due to the effect of fire it becomes hot. Although these words are spoken by the Aziz of Egypt, but Allah Almighty narrated them without any refutation, as if to support it. It is stated in a Hadith a woman is the devil's web through whom he traps men.

2. The mischief over woman is the worst type of mischief. The very first murder of Habeel was over a woman.

3. In comparison to the deception of the devil, that of the woman is much more intense. Say Allah Almighty regarding the deception of women: "No doubt, your deceit is great", while regarding the devil He said "the devil's deceit is weak". (S4 : V76)

4. Every woman is not deceitful. Some believing pious woman are even superior to angels. Says Allah Almighty regarding Sayyidah Mariam: "And He has chosen you from amongst the women of the world" (S3:V42) and regarding the consorts of the Holy Prophets صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah. Almighty says: "O wives of the Prophet ! you are not like other women". (S33:V32)

يُوْسُفُ اَعْرِضْ عَنْ هٰذَا ۚ وَ اسْتَغْفِرِيْ
لِذَنْۢبِكِ ۖ اِنَّكِ كُنْتِ مِنَ الْخٰطِـِٕيْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾ ع

29. O Yusuf, do not think [60] of it, and O woman! Ask forgiveness of your [61] sin. No doubt, you are one of the sinners[62].

60. This means neither should you grieve about it, nor should you relate this incident to anyone. Preserve my honour and name for you are honest.

61. This means apologise to me, or to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) or seek forgiveness of Allah Almighty.

62. This means that intention of sin has come from you yet you are accusing Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) who is innocent. From this we learn that prior to this Zuleikha was not of bad character. Only intention of sin emanated from her and that due to selfless ecstasy of love, like how the women of Egypt cut their hands in an unconscious state of love. Thereafter Lady Zuleikha repented which is being mentioned later in the Surah. Thus even this is a fact that later Lady Zuleikha came into marriage of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). Furthermore, it is an accepted fact that a wife of a Prophet remains protected from any type of wickedness and immorality. For this Allah Almighty used a mild word 'culprit' regarding Lady Zuleikha.

SECTION 4

وَ قَالَ نِسْوَةٌ فِي الْمَدِيْنَةِ امْرَاَتُ الْعَزِيْزِ

حُبًّا ؕ اِنَّا لَنَرٰىهَا فِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿۳۰﴾

30. And certain women in the city said[63] , The wife of Aziz allures the hearts of her young boy. No doubt, his love has deepened in her heart. We find her infatuated with love openly [64].

Marfat.com

63. Although the Aziz of Egypt did everything to conceal this incident, but some important people got wind of it. Here 'women' either refers to women in general or the following five women: the wives of the cook, the steward, headman of the stables, warder of the jail and gatekeeper (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Because these types of gossiping generally takes place more among women, hence this took place among them.

64. They began to gossip that Lady Zuleikha is not even mindful about her honour for falling in love with her self-purchased slave. They said this because upto now their eyes had not seen the captivating beauty and charm of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace)

فَلَمَّا سَمِعَتْ بِمَكْرِهِنَّ اَرْسَلَتْ اِلَيْهِنَّ
وَ اَعْتَدَتْ لَهُنَّ مُتَّكَاً وَّاٰتَتْ كُلَّ وَاحِدَةٍ
مِّنْهُنَّ سِكِّيْنًا وَّ قَالَتِ اخْرُجْ عَلَيْهِنَّ ۚ
فَلَمَّا رَاَيْنَهٗۤ اَكْبَرْنَهٗ وَ قَطَّعْنَ
اَيْدِيَهُنَّ وَقُلْنَ حَاشَ لِلّٰهِ مَا هٰذَا
بَشَرًا ؕ اِنْ هٰذَاۤ اِلَّا مَلَكٌ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿۳۱﴾

31. Then when Zuleikha heard [65] their whispering then she sent for them and prepared for them cushioned couches, and gave to each of them a knife [66] and said to Yusuf [67] Come forth to them. And when the women saw Yusuf, they began to speak of his greatness, and cut their, hands [68] and said, Holy is Allah he is not from mankind, he is not but a noble angel[69].

65. Here the word MAKR means a secret device. Because their conversation was during a secret meeting, it is referred to as a device.

66. So that they could use the knife to cut and eat the fruit and meat. Islam has made it unlawful to eat by leaning against a pillow or to eat with a knife. During that period this was in vogue.

67. During that time Purdah or Hijaab was not compulsory and Lady Zuleikha has insisted that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) should appear in front of them. Had he not come there was a grave danger for him. Thus he did this permissible deed because of total helplessness. Also there was a hope that perhaps after seeing the beauteous face of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) some of the ladies may accept faith. The extra-ordinary beauty of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was his miracle. To show a miracle is part of propagation. Hence he would be rewarded for this as well because for carrying propagation one will receive many rewards.

68. From this we learn that during the state of unconsciousness a person is not accountable for what he does. It is a serious criminal act to inflict injury upon oneself, but these ladies were not censured for it. Upon those sages who are lost in Divine meditation in the vision of Allah Almighty, laws of Shariah are not binding while they are in this condition. Similarly Lady Zuliekha should not be degraded. The intention of sin which emanated from her was in her unconscious state of love. Later the Holy QUR'AAN has stated her repentance: "I had desired to allure his heart". (S12:V51) She was not a woman of bad character. She was going to be the wife of a Prophet and Allah Almighty always protects the wife of a Prophet from indecency. Besides this intention there is no proof of her indecency. Allah Almighty had protected her from this as well.

69. Angels are well known for purity of face and chastity. The ladies of Egypt uttered these words at seeing not only Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) intense beauty, but they observed on it an absolute picture of chastity, modesty and honour. This does not mean that they had seen angels. The reflection of Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) image had fallen on every nook and cranny in such a way like the warmth of the sun falls on everything. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) her words to be narrated without refutation.

71. This means he would be subjected to remain in jail with thieves and dacoits, which would be disgraceful for him.

قَالَ رَبِّ السِّجْنُ اَحَبُّ اِلَیَّ مِمَّا یَدْعُوْنَنِیْۤ اِلَیْهِ ۚ وَ اِلَّا تَصْرِفْ عَنِّیْ كَیْدَهُنَّ اَصْبُ اِلَیْهِنَّ وَ اَكُنْ مِّنَ الْجٰهِلِیْنَ ﴿۳۳﴾

33. Yusuf said O my Lord, prison is dearer to me than the work to which she calls me [72] . And if You shall not turn their guile from me, then I shall incline towards them[73] and will be ignorant.

72. This tells us the pious servants of Allah Almighty give preference to difficulty during difficult situations. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) preferred to go to jail but did not give in to their suggestions.

73. These words of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) are based on his intense modesty and humility which shows that despite being innocent he at all times depended on Allah Almighty. Thus no believer should ever regard himself safe from the devil's guile. Always keep away from dangerous and risky places, and continue to seek refuge from Allah Almighty.

فَاسْتَجَابَ لَهٗ رَبُّهٗ فَصَرَفَ عَنْهُ كَیْدَهُنَّ ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ السَّمِیْعُ الْعَلِیْمُ ﴿۳۴﴾

34. Then his Lord heard his prayer, and turned the guile of the women [74] from him. No doubt, He hears, Knows.

74. This tells us when confronting a difficult. and troublesome situation, difficulty itself proves to be easier. May Allah Almighty protect us from all difficulties. Allah Almighty saved Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) from the clutches of these ladies and kept him in jail, which he considered as bounty and kindness. Thus being saved from sin is Allah's great bounty.

ثُمَّ بَدَا لَهُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا رَاَوُا الْاٰیٰتِ لَیَسْجُنُنَّهٗ حَتّٰى حِیْنٍ ﴿۳۵﴾ ع

35. Then even after seeing all signs, the same previous thought came to their mind [75] that they should put him in prison for a period.

75. This means that it was their opinion that no adverse effect should be taken of this incident. But after a while, but they saw it expedient to send him to the prison so that people will then believe that he was at fault. However, deep down in their hearts they knew that he was innocent. That time he was sent to the prison for about three days. The Egyptian king had three prisons: prison for those condemned to death, protective prison, prison for torment. The death cells were forty yards under ground in which the criminal was thrown from on top. He would be dead before reaching the ground.

SECTION 5

36. And two young men entered the prison [76] with him. One of them said I dreamt that I press wine[77] and the other said I dreamt that there are some breads on my head whereof the birds are eating. Tell us its interpretation. No doubt, we see you righteous.[78].

وَ دَخَلَ مَعَهُ السِّجْنَ فَتَيٰنِ ؕ قَالَ
اَحَدُهُمَآ اِنِّيْٓ اَرٰىنِيْٓ اَعْصِرُ خَمْرًا ۚ وَ
قَالَ الْاٰخَرُ اِنِّيْٓ اَرٰىنِيْٓ اَحْمِلُ فَوْقَ
رَاْسِيْ خُبْزًا تَاْكُلُ الطَّيْرُ مِنْهُ ؕ نَبِّئْنَا
بِتَاْوِيْلِهٖ ۚ اِنَّا نَرٰىكَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۳۶﴾

76. One was the inspector of the kitchen, the other was the king's steward, both were accused of giving poison to the king. Both were sent to prison where Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was kept.

77. The steward said that he had dreamt that he was in a vineyard in which bunches of ripe grapes were hanging which I was pressing. The cook's dream is mentioned hereafter.

78. They said that we are seeing that you fast during the day, engage in worship during the night, help the prisoners in their difficulties. The interpretation of such pious people is always found to be accurate.

37. Yusuf said, the food which you used to get, will not come to you, but I shall tell you the interpretation thereof [79] before it comes to you, this is of that knowledg which my Lord has taught [80] me. No doubt, I did not concede to the religion [81] of the people who do not believe in Allah and they are the rejecters of the hereafter [82].

قَالَ لَا يَاْتِيْكُمَا طَعَامٌ تُرْزَقٰنِهٖٓ اِلَّا
نَبَّاْتُكُمَا بِتَاْوِيْلِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَكُمَا ؕ
ذٰلِكُمَا مِمَّا عَلَّمَنِيْ رَبِّيْ ؕ اِنِّيْ تَرَكْتُ
مِلَّةَ قَوْمٍ لَّا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ هُمْ
بِالْاٰخِرَةِ هُمْ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۳۷﴾

79. In this there is a mention of his unseen knowledge. Allah Almighty has granted me unseen knowledge through which I can inform you everything concerning food before hand i.e. what and when you would be eating and what effect will this food have on you, and from where the food would be coming. This Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had told them as an example, otherwise, he was fully aware of everything due to this unseen knowledge.

80. This knowledge of mine is inspired knowledge which is not acquired from any teacher. Allah Almighty has bestowed these branches of unseen knowledge upon me directly. This tells us that no one can be learned like the Prophets because they are students of Allah Almighty.

81. This means although I had very little opportunity of staying at home and had very little time to be in the company of these eminent people. Up to now most part of my life is spent in Egypt where the people are irreligious. Despite this, I did not accept their religion and remained firm on the religion of my forefathers. Here the word omit does not mean to leave out, but not to accept it as is stated by the pious translator Ala Hazrat (May Allah have mercy on him) because the meaning of leaving out is doing this after accepting it. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم lived with the infidels of Makkah where he not only safeguarded

38. And I followed the religion [83] of my fathers Ebrahim and Ishaq and Yaqoob. It is not for us to associate anything with Allah. That is a grace [84] of Allah upon us and mankind,[85] but most men thank not.

83. From this emerge a few issues:
1. We should follow the religion of our believing forefathers. Where this practice is condemned is concerning forefathers who are infidels.
2. The recognition of the pious. Any religion which is bereft of Prophet and saints is indeed false.
3. Being the son of a prophet or son of a saint is a means of being noble because Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) in this statement has revealed of being the son of a prophet which is an expression of gratitude of this bounty of Allah Almighty.
84. This means on the group to which the prophets belong enjoy the Divine blessings and

39. O my two fellow prisoners are separate Lords better or Allah the One Omnipotent?[86].

86. From this emerge a few issues:
1. It is permissible to call an infidel your companion and fellow countryman. Similarly if your father or brother are infidels it would be correct to call them as father or brother on himself from even their evil beliefs, but was fully protected from even the intention of sin. This is the purity, greatness and chastity of the Prophets of Allah Almighty.

82. This tells us that Prophets at no time are infidels, polytheists or irreligious. All receive their religious from their parents, and they convey religion to their parents, etc. We further learn we should not conceal our religion but declare it openly. Though Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was in the country of the infidels, he did not conceal his faith.

وَ اتَّبَعْتُ مِلَّةَ اٰبَآءِیْۤ اِبْرٰهِیْمَ وَ اِسْحٰقَ وَیَعْقُوْبَ ؕ مَا كَانَ لَنَاۤ اَنْ نُّشْرِكَ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شَیْءٍ ؕ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ فَضْلِ اللّٰهِ عَلَیْنَا وَ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا یَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۳۸﴾

bounty that Allah Almighty protects us from the evil of practising every form of false beliefs. This tells us all prophets remain protected from false beliefs and evil practices prior to and after prophethood. Anyone who would regard them as having false beliefs at any state of their lives is rejecting this verse. Here polytheism means every type of false belief.
85. This means the purity and chastity of the prophets is a blessing of Allah Almighty upon them as well as their followers because due to their purity the people save themselves from sin. Security of the captain is the security of the ship.

یٰصَاحِبَیِ السِّجْنِ ءَاَرْبَابٌ مُّتَفَرِّقُوْنَ خَیْرٌ اَمِ اللّٰهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ ﴿۳۹﴾ ؕ account of this relationship. However it is totally forbidden to call infidels as your brothers e.g. my Hindu brother, etc. Says Allah Almighty: "He (the devil) only invites his party". (S35:V6) 2. In propagation work one should use mild words but strong proofs.

3. To remind the dying person of his faith is Sunnah of the prophets. Hazrat Yusuf

مَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖۤ اِلَّاۤ اَسْمَآءً سَمَّيْتُمُوْهَاۤ اَنْتُمْ وَ اٰبَآؤُكُمْ مَّاۤ اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطٰنٍ ؕ اِنِ الْحُكْمُ اِلَّا لِلّٰهِ ؕ اَمَرَ اَلَّا تَعْبُدُوْۤا اِلَّاۤ اِيَّاهُ ؕ ذٰلِكَ الدِّيْنُ الْقَيِّمُ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۴۰﴾

40. You worship not besides Him but only names which you and your fathers have carved [87] out. Allah has sent down no authority [88] for them. There is no judgment but of Allah [89]. He commanded not [90] to worship anyone besides Him. This is the right [91] religion, but most men know not.

87. This tells us that most idols of the polytheists are mere figments of their imagination without any truth e.g. the Hindu idols called Hanuman, Ganesh, Kishan, etc are all baseless, imaginary things, having faces of a monkey or an elephant. Any Muslim who tries to prove them to be prophets is very foolish. Let him first try to prove that such things ever existed.
88. This means revelation has come to prove that these idols were not gods nor has any prophet spoken of them as being deities. By authentic proof refers to these two e.g. Divine Revelation and prophets. From this we learn that mere conjecture and analogy are not enough in matters of beliefs, authentic proof of prophethood is very important.
89. By judgement here either means absolute judgement or creational judgement or command. In the socio-religious decision making creation of Allah Almighty too can become judges. This does not mean that no one can be accepted as judges in various matters besides Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Then appoint an arbiter from the family of the man, and from the family of the woman". (S4:V35)

(on whom be peace) had learned that the cook would soon be hanged, hence he gave him this reminder.

This reliance is on account of absolute judgement, while Prophets have full authority in religious judgement and decisions, while in other matters kings and judges have been vested with the authority of decision making.
90. At that time most Egyptians would worship the stars, while others were worshipping trees, stones, etc. There were no monotheists Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is the first person in Egypt to propagate the Oneness of Allah Almighty.
91. It is the Religion of the Prophets, which is the means of reaching Allah Almighty.

يٰصَاحِبَيِ السِّجْنِ اَمَّاۤ اَحَدُكُمَا فَيَسْقِيْ رَبَّهٗ خَمْرًا ۚ وَ اَمَّا الْاٰخَرُ فَيُصْلَبُ فَتَاْكُلُ الطَّيْرُ مِنْ رَّاْسِهٖ ؕ قُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ الَّذِيْ فِيْهِ تَسْتَفْتِيٰنِ ﴿۴۱﴾ ؕ

41. O my two fellow prisoners! As for one of you he will serve [92] wine for drink to his lord (King) and as for the other, he will be crucified, and the birds will eat of his head [93]. The matter about which you enquired has been decreed [94].

92. This means that Oh you steward, you will once again be appointed to your position after being released from prison in three days time. The tree bunches of grapes signify these three days.

93. This means the cook will be crucified

Marfat.com

after three days. His corpse will wither on the cross and vultures will devour its flesh. The three baskets of bread signifies three days. After hearing the interpretaion the two replied we were just joking. There was no such dream. To this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) replied, "Whatever has come from my mouth is unalterable and will take place as told. Thus everything took place as foretold. The cook was the first person in the world to be crucified. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

94. From this we learn that whatever is uttered from the mouth of a Prophet will always take place. What it means now whether you have seen a dream or not, whatever I have said now will not be altered.

42. And Yusuf said to one whom he considered would be saved of the two, mention me [95] before your lord; then Satan (the evil) made him forget [96] to mention him to his lord then Yusuf continued in the prison for several years more [97].

وَ قَالَ لِلَّذِیْ ظَنَّ اَنَّهٗ نَاجٍ مِّنْهُمَا اذْكُرْنِیْ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ۫ فَاَنْسٰىهُ الشَّیْطٰنُ ذِكْرَ رَبِّهٖ فَلَبِثَ فِی السِّجْنِ بِضْعَ سِنِیْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾ ع

95. From this we learn a person can be called a Lord i.e. a patron and a person who nourishes and supports. Also, that in times of need to obtain help from people is not idolatory but permissible and the practice of a Prophet. Observe, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had accepted the assistance of this prisoner to obtain his freedom.

96. Some people are of the opinion that because Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had sought assistance from someone other than Allah Almighty the steward had forgotten to mention him to the king. But this is not correct. If this was the case then it should have been said that Allah Almighty had made the steward to forget, and that forgetting would not have been attributed to the devil. In fact, taking assistance from people is the sunnah of the Prophets. Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) had said to his disciples: "Who become my helpers towards Allah". (S3:V52) Hazrat Zulqurnain had said: " My Lord has given me control" (S18 : V 95) Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) had sent his children to Egypt to bring wheat. If this was wrong then these great personages should have been censured for doing this. The fact of the matter is what is destined to take place will take place.

97. By this is meant seven years, but this period is after interpreting this dream. Before this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had remained in prison for five years. He had thus remained in prison for a total of twelve years. The total Arabic letters of "Mention me to your Lord (king)".

SECTION 6

43. And the King said, I saw in a dream seven fat cows that they are being eaten by seven lean cows, and seven green ears of corn and seven other dry [98]. O courtiers! Answer to my dream if you know interpretation of the dreams[99].

وَ قَالَ الْمَلِكُ اِنِّیْۤ اَرٰى سَبْعَ بَقَرٰتٍ سِمَانٍ یَّاْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَّ سَبْعَ سُنْۢبُلٰتٍ خُضْرٍ وَّ اُخَرَ یٰبِسٰتٍ ؕ یٰۤاَیُّهَا الْمَلَاُ اَفْتُوْنِیْ فِیْ رُءْیَایَ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ لِلرُّءْیَا تَعْبُرُوْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

98. Seven fat cows were eaten by seven lean cows, and lush green pods were being sucked by dry and withered pods. From this we learn that everything has its natural image and appearance. Famine and abundance of provisions were shown to him in the dream in the form of dry and lush greenpods respectively. Similarly, deeds on the Day of Judgement would appear in different forms which would be seen by the respective doers of them.

99. Either you yourselves interpret it or ask those who can interpret dreams to explain it.

قَالُوْٓا اَضْغَاثُ اَحْلَامٍ ۚ وَ مَا نَحْنُ بِتَاْوِيْلِ الْاَحْلَامِ بِعٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾

44. They said, these are confused dreams, and we know not the interpretation of dreams [100].

100. Dreams are of few types: some are from Allah Almighty, some are from devilish suggestion, some from ones own thoughts, while the rest are from the figment of imagination and confusion which one experiences during the day. The first type is the true dream which is divinely inspired, all the others are figment of ones imagination (AHLAAM). They are called meaningless and confused dreams because that is the meaning of the DWAGATH - a collection of different straws e.g. a broom stick. These types of dreams too are a collection of meaningless, evil thoughts.

45. And the one who was saved of the two said when he remembered after a long time, I will tell you its interpretation, send me forth [101].

101. Send me to the prison because in there is a great scholar who is an expert on interpretation of dreams because he had already experienced the expertness of, in this regard of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

يُوْسُفُ اَيُّهَا الصِّدِّيْقُ اَفْتِنَا فِىْ سَبْعِ بَقَرٰتٍ سِمَانٍ يَّاْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَّ سَبْعِ سُنْۢبُلٰتٍ خُضْرٍ وَّاُخَرَ يٰبِسٰتٍ ۙ لَّعَلِّىْٓ اَرْجِعُ اِلَى النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾

46. O Yusuf! O man of truth [102], give us interpretation regarding seven fat cows which are being eaten by seven lean ones and seven green ears and the other seven dry; perchance, I may return to the people, perchance they learn [103].

102. A (SAADIQUE) a truthful person is one true to his word, but a sincere friend (SIDDEEQ) is one who is one faithful in his word, deed and beliefs. The first is one who does not talk a lie the second is one who does not have the capacity to utter falsehood. Saadiq is one whose words are in accordance with the incidence, while Siddeeq is one where the incidence is in accordance to his words i.e. things happen exactly as he says, as was the case with the cook. He tested Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) about his fate, but it happened exactly as was told to him.

103. This means so that the Pharoah and his courtiers should become aware of the interpretation of this dream, or that they should become aware of Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) high degree of excellence and knowledge. Up to this stage they had not been able to recognize his true status, that he was a pearl and jewel of the highest calibre.

Marfat.com

قَالَ تَزْرَعُوْنَ سَبْعَ سِنِيْنَ دَاَبًا ۚ فَمَا حَصَدْتُّمْ فَذَرُوْهُ فِيْ سُنْۢبُلِهٖٓ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا مِّمَّا تَاْكُلُوْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

47. He said, You will do cultivation for seven continuous [104], years, then what you reap, leave it in its ear [105]. but a little which you may eat [106].

104. The word 'cultivate' signifies literal meaning and information i.e. first there will be seven years of rain on its time. During this period cultivate your lands well. Sow the seeds continuously in these years, because after this you would be experiencing seven years of drought in which there will be no growth of any grain. During these years whatever grain has been accumulated would benefit the creation of Allah Almighty.

105. From this we learn that Prophets are fully aware of the worldly and religious affairs which are concealed from ordinary human beings. here Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had outlined such agricultural procedure which only an expert agriculturist would know, that grain remains protected in the chaff. From this one learns that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had stopped them from engrafting date trees and then given them permission to do so, was not due to any lack of knowledge, but because the hastiness of the people in this matter. Had these people not been hasty in the matter they would have succeeded without engrafting. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said "You have knowledge about all worldly affairs" were spoken to express displeasure. Furthermore, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) telling the Pharoah to appoint him as mininster of state Treasury, then organizing the distribution of the grain to those coming to seek it from other parts of the world, in such an excellent manner, go to show that Prophets have full knowledge of running state affairs with prior knowledge about it. Their knowledge is not restricted to only religious affairs but they possess comprehensive knowledge about religious affairs as well as worldly affairs. Otherwise what is the difference between a Molvi and a Prophet!

106. This means that remove the grain from the chaff in accordance with consumption needs, because grain removed from the chaff will become inedible within a year, and if it is left in the chaff it will last for much longer. In this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is hinting that inculcate in you the habit of eating less because difficult times lay ahead.

48. Then after it there shall come seven hard years. That shall eat up what you had stored up for them before, but a little which you may save [107].

107.This means you would be able to eat the grain you have accumulated during these years of drought and famine. However the quantity of grain you would be able to accumulate will depend on how much grain you would be sowing. From this we learn that saving for the rainy days is not against the principle of Tawakkul reliance on Allah Almighty, but rather it is Allah's command. Says Allah Almighty: "Nor open it completely lest you sit down, blamed tired". (S17:V29) Man at all times should try to save a little from his income because you don't know what the future is likely to be. We also learn that it is permissible to accumulate grain if it is not inconvenient to people. Otherwise doing this is forbidden. This is known in Arabic as Ihtikaar (hoarding) i.e. they will accumulate grain even if people can die of want of it, in anticipation of its scarcity or rise in price.

ثُمَّ يَاْتِيْ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ عَامٌ فِيْهِ يُغَاثُ النَّاسُ وَفِيْهِ يَعْصِرُوْنَ ﴿٤٩﴾ ع ١٦

49. Then thereafter there shall come a year wherein people will have rain and in which they will press juice [108].

108. From this emerge two issues:
1. Sometimes the dreams of infidels too become true because the Pharoah was an infidel.
2. Conditions and difficulties, etc are of various forms, which can be seen in dreams, like on the Day of Judgement deeds will assume different froms.

SECTION 7

وَ قَالَ الْمَلِكُ ائْتُوْنِيْ بِهٖ ۚ فَلَمَّا جَآءَهُ الرَّسُوْلُ قَالَ ارْجِعْ اِلٰى رَبِّكَ فَسْـَٔلْهُ مَا بَالُ النِّسْوَةِ الّٰتِيْ قَطَّعْنَ اَيْدِيَهُنَّ ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّيْ بِكَيْدِهِنَّ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٥٠﴾

50. And the king said bring [109], him to me then when the messenger came[110], to him, he said return to your lord then ask him what bout the women who had cut their hands? No doubt my Lord know their guile[111].

109. This means when the steward came in the presence of the Pharoah and related this interpretation to him, he became aware of the calibre of knowledge of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), and he understood that a person of such lofty knowledge and wisdom will indeed be of strong character and excellent practices. He should therefore place this entire administration and management in his hand, because he is not capable of executing it successfully.
110. It means either the same steward or another personal messenger of the king - the first assumption is stronger - came to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and conveyed the message of the king to him requesting him to leave the prison. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) said this to him.
111. This tells us that to absolve oneself of blame and to clarify any misunderstanding about oneself is the practise of the Prophets. Observe, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) did not leave the prison until such time that the false blame that was levelled against his purity and chastity was not cleared by him making those ladies to admit that they had falsely accused him.

قَالَ مَا خَطْبُكُنَّ اِذْ رَاوَدْتُّنَّ يُوْسُفَ عَنْ نَّفْسِهٖ ؕ قُلْنَ حَاشَ لِلّٰهِ مَا عَلِمْنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنْ سُوْٓءٍ ؕ قَالَتِ امْرَاَتُ الْعَزِيْزِ الْـٰٔنَ حَصْحَصَ الْحَقُّ ۫ اَنَا رَاوَدْتُّهٗ عَنْ نَّفْسِهٖ وَ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٥١﴾

51. The King said, O women what business you had when you desired to allure the heart of Yusuf [112]. They said, Holy is Allah, we did not find any evil [113]. in him. The wife of Aziz said now the reality is discovered [114], I desired to allure his heart [115], and no doubt, he is truthful [116].

112. The king asked the ladies if they had perceived any wrong being commited by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace)? From this we learn that in an investigation question only those people who are directly involved in the incident. Further we also learn that even these ladies too had desired evil act from Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), or had requested

Lady Zuleikha to gain his attention hence the plural form of the verb "You plural desired to allure" is being used.

113. From this we learn people of Egypt were believing in Allah Almighty too, and it is possible that after seeing Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) these women may have become monotheists and good believers. The reason being, this statement sounds like that in respect of believers.

114. This means on all the people, because the very special people on that very day had become fully aware of the purity and innocence of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). Observe the show of Divine splendour. At first it was Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) who was trying to redeem himself of the blame, and today the king and his entire kingdom are beseeching him to come out of prison.

115. The declaration of Lady Zuleikha's repentance is being made by Allah Almighty, because admision of one's guilt is best effected through repentance. Thus it is totally forbidden to say anything evil about Hazrat Zuleikha because she is Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) patron, companion and consort. Even Allah Almighty did not censure her when mentioning her error, as she had already repented. The repenting sinner becomes like a sinless person. That Hazrat Zuleikha is a wife of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) as proven from Hadith Shareef of Bukhari and Muslim Shareef. During his last illness the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had told his wives "You are like the wives of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). SAWAHIB is the plural of SAHIBAH signifying wives. Says Allah Almighty: "Whereas there is no woman for Him". (S6:V101) Thus what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم meant was you are like Zuleikha, the wife of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). This tells us that Hazrat Zuleikha is the wife of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). The plural from of the word is used to show that the object for which the simile is used is plural like the reference to the Companions as "suns of guidance" or " The moon of Faith"

116. Thereafter the king sent a message to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) that all the ladies have testified to your purity and innocence. Form this we learn patience is a great virtue and bounty of Allah almighty. By itself it may seem bitter but its fruit is very sweet.

52. Yusuf said, I have done this because Aziz should know that I betrayed him not behind his back, and Allah allows not the guile of betrayers [117].

117. From this we learn that falsehood will never prosper, truth ultimately prevails, deceitful person will always have a bad ending. Every scholar and lecturer should not speak of these ladies and Hazrat Zuleikha in any evil way because all of them have already repented for their error.

53. And I do not hold my soul free from sin [118]; no doubt the soul is wont to command evil but that on whom my Lord has mercy [119], No doubt, my Lord is Forgiving, Merciful.

وَمَآ اُبَرِّئُ نَفْسِیْ ۚ اِنَّ النَّفْسَ لَاَمَّارَةٌۢ بِالسُّوْٓءِ اِلَّا مَا رَحِمَ رَبِّیْ ؕ اِنَّ رَبِّیْ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۵۳﴾

118.Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) expressed this in all humility to Allah Almighty. He said to the envoy of the Pharoah that my remaining chaste and not giving in to the desires of Zuleikha was not due to my own perfection but it was due to the bounty of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that one should not be proud of his good deeds, but instead be grateful to Allah Almighty for giving you the guidance and opportunity for doing these good deeds. The purpose of this verse is not to show that mind and soul of the Prophets of Allah Almighty are not pure - because due to the bounty of Allah Almighty they are innocent of all sins.

119. From this emerge two issues:

1. Human self is of baser nature. Thus no one should be content with it.
2. The blessed Prophets are pure and free of sins because their souls and passion are included in "on whom my Lord has mercy". They are not of baser nature. Also, the devil is out of reach of them. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt those who are my bondsmen, you have no control over them". (S17:V65) It is for this reason that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) did not say that mine is a baser self.

54. The King said, bring him to me that I may choose him specially [120]. for myself. Then when he talked to him [121]. said certainly today you are a man dignified, trusted with us [122].

120. When the Pharoah heard of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) tolerance and knowledge, truthfulness, good treatment of the prisoners, patience and gratitude he was deeply impressed with his dignified nature and was anxious to meet. (KHAZAINUL IRFAAN)

121. The Pharoah sent a group of respectable men with stately dress and horses to the prison. They presented him with the royal dress and conveyed to him the king's message, which Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) accepted. Thereafter he offered a prayer for the well being of all the prisoners and took leave of them and left from the prison in a stately manner. When he arrived at the palace door he said: "Allah is sufficient for me". The Pharoah who was well versed in seventy languages spoke to him. When the Pharoah was addressed in Arabic and Hebrew he was unable to reply in these languages. At that point in time Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was thirty years old. The Pharoah was totally taken aback by Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) different branches of knowledge at such a young age. (Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Bayaan)

122. The Pharoah then listened to the interpretation of his dream from the sacred mouth of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). After learning the full account of it he said that he does not have the capacity to bear this burden and requested him to regulate the administration of it.

55. Yusuf said, set me over the treasures of earth. No doubt, I am watchful, knowing [123].

قَالَ اجْعَلْنِيْ عَلٰى خَزَآئِنِ الْاَرْضِ ۚ اِنِّيْ حَفِيْظٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۵۵﴾

123. From this emerge a few issues:

1. When others are incapable, then it becomes permissible for the most capable person to obtain the reign of power and highest state post for the purpose of maintaining justice and order;
2. To lay your claim based on merit for such a post is acceptable.
3. It is permissible to be employed by an infidel king;
4. It is permissible to seek employment in departments whose revenue is of questionable nature;
5. It is permissible to accept gifts from the infidels;
6. It is permissible to be appointed to the post of judge, etc on behalf of a cruel king for the purpose of administering proper justice.

7. It is forbidden to conceal your religion. Its declaration is absolutely important.
8. The Prophets by nature are fully acqauinted with all bounties of religious and worldly knowledge. Observe, prior to this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had neither ruled as a king or practised agriculture, yet he says: "I am watchful and knowing" (in these matters). He had not acquired this knowledge from any school.

56. And thus We gave control to Yusuf over this land [124]. wherein he might live wherever he wished. We cause Our mercy to reach whom We please, and We waste not the reward of the righteous.

وَ كَذٰلِكَ مَكَّنَّا لِيُوْسُفَ فِي الْاَرْضِ ۚ يَتَبَوَّاُ مِنْهَا حَيْثُ يَشَآءُ ؕ نُصِيْبُ بِرَحْمَتِنَا مَنْ نَّشَآءُ وَ لَا نُضِيْعُ اَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۵۶﴾

124. A year later the king made Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) king of Egypt, and after the death of the Aziz, Zuleikha got married to him.

57. And surely the reward of the hereafter is better of those who believed and remained duty bound[125]

وَلَاَجْرُ الْاٰخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ كَانُوْا يَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۵۷﴾ ع

125. From this we know that the bounties which the pious people receive in this world will not de deducted from the bounties of the Hereafter. They will receive much more in the Hereafter. The world and its bounties are temporary while the Hereafter is permanent.

SECTION 8

58. And the brethren [126], of Yusuf, came, then appeared before him, and Yusuf recognized them but they remained unaware of him.

وَجَآءَ اِخْوَةُ يُوْسُفَ فَدَخَلُوْا عَلَيْهِ فَعَرَفَهُمْ وَ هُمْ لَهٗ مُنْكِرُوْنَ ﴿۵۸﴾

126. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) in these seven years of easy circumstances cultivated abundant grain and accumulated it. When the years of famine set in and rain stopped completely, the people in the first year consumed the grain from what they had saved. In the second year when the grain on the market had been fully utilised people came with their money to purchase the grain from Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace); in the third year they purchased it with their jewellery and live stock; in the fourth year they gave their slaves and maids to obtain the grain; on the fifth year they gave their entire immovable property to obtain the grain; in the sixth year they sold their children to purchase the grain and the seventh year they sold themselves and became the slaves of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) i.e. all the ladies of that place became his handmaids, and the men became his slaves. The Prophet of Allah Almighty then freed all of them and returned all their possessions to them. From this we learn that Allah Almighty had brought about this famine to cleanse the stigma of slavery from his beloved Prophet, and to re-unite the separated children with their parents. This is how Allah Almighty elevates the honour and dignity of His Prophets, sometimes even by plunging the world into anxiety and inconvenience. During this period his brothers too had come to Egypt to purchase grain. On their first trip they had not brought Benjamin.

وَ لَمَّا جَهَّزَهُمْ بِجَهَازِهِمْ قَالَ ائْتُوْنِيْ بِاَخٍ لَّكُمْ مِّنْ اَبِيْكُمْ ۚ اَلَا تَرَوْنَ اَنِّيْٓ اُوْفِي الْكَيْلَ وَ اَنَا خَيْرُ الْمُنْزِلِيْنَ ﴿٥٩﴾

59. And when he got ready their baggage [127], he said, bring your step brother to me, do you not see that I give full measure and I am the best host [128].

127. As about forty years had lapsed since they had thrown Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) in the well they were under the impression that their brother must have died. Therefore they said, Oh King, we are sons of a Prophet. We were twelve brothers but one was devoured by a wolf so we are now eleven. Hearing this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) asked: "Where is your eleventh brother?" They replied: "We have left him to take care of grief-stricken father".

128. Therefore your brother Benyamin will not be inconvenienced here in any way. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had entertained them well.

60. But if you bring him not to me, then there is not measure for you with me and approach me not.

قَالُوْا سَنُرَاوِدُ عَنْهُ اَبَاهُ وَ اِنَّا لَفٰعِلُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾

61. They said, we shall desire him from his father, and we are certainly to do it.

وَ قَالَ لِفِتْيٰنِهِ اجْعَلُوْا بِضَاعَتَهُمْ فِيْ رِحَالِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْرِفُوْنَهَآ اِذَا انْقَلَبُوْٓا اِلٰٓى اَهْلِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُوْنَ ﴿٦٢﴾

62. And Yusuf said to his servants put their capital in their saddlebags, perhaps they may recognize [129], it when they go back to their home, perchance they may return [130].

129. So that they may recognize the money and get the impression that it has been returned as a form of assistance for us, or that they may understand the true meaning of gratitude and accept him as their benefactor, and when they come back for the grain they may bring Benyamin with them.

130. This means either due to this kindness they would come again, or they may come back to return this money thinking that it was wrongfully given to them because children of the Prophet do not keep things that are doubtful. However the first possibility is stronger as is being made to understand from the passages that follow.

فَلَمَّا رَجَعُوْٓا اِلٰٓى اَبِيْهِمْ قَالُوْا يٰٓاَبَانَا مُنِعَ مِنَّا الْكَيْلُ فَاَرْسِلْ مَعَنَآ اَخَانَا نَكْتَلْ وَ اِنَّا لَهٗ لَحٰفِظُوْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. Then when they returned to their father [131], they said, O our father, the food grain has [132], been denied to us, so send with us our brother that we may bring food grain and we shall surely safeguard him [133].

Marfat.com

131. Before opening the merchandise they spoke highly of the king to Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace), so much so that if our own brother was the king he would not have treated us so well.
132. By this is meant the king of Egypt have instructed us that if we did not take our brother Benyamin with us he would not give the grain to us. If Benyamin goes we too will receive the grain, while his share would be separate. Thus it is now absolutely necessary to send Benyamin with us.
133. To bring him back safely is our responsibility.

قَالَ هَلْ اٰمَنُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ اِلَّا كَمَآ اَمِنْتُكُمْ عَلٰٓى اَخِيْهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ فَاللّٰهُ خَيْرٌ حٰفِظًا ۪ وَّ هُوَ اَرْحَمُ الرّٰحِمِيْنَ ﴿۶۴﴾

64. He said, May I trust you about him likewise I trusted you before about his brother [134], Then Allah is the best Guard he is the Most Merciful of the merciful [135].

134. This tells us that a person who deceives you once you should be cautious of him - once bitten twice shy. It is stated in a Hadith that a believer can not fall in the same hole twice.
135. When sending Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) the father had forgotten the remembrance of Allah Almighty, as a result of which they were separated. Now he was fully conscious of Allah Almighty and due to this those separated were brought together. From this we learn that a Prophet is immediately alerted of even his trivial error. We further learn that the remembrance of Allah Almighty is an excellent means to ward off any calamity.

65. And when they opened their goods, they found their capital returned[136]. to them. They said O our father, now what more should we desire? Here is our capital that has been returned to us. And we shall bring food grain for our family and we shall guard our brother [137], and we shall find and extra camel load This offering is nothing before a King [138].

136. These people fully understood that the king had deliberately returned their money and since it is returned as a gift from him it is permissible to use it. This tells us that anything which according to ones thinking has a greater possibility of being lawful its use is permissible.
137. So that this protection becomes the atonement of our previous sins. We have already erred once by not protecting Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), but try us now. It should be remembered that this time they are making a sincere promise of taking care of Benyamin while in the case of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), their promise of protecting him was a deliberate scheme of their part. hence this promise of theirs was sincere. For this reason Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) made the statement which follows.
138.By this is meant we have already tested this king's kindness and generosity. For him to give the grain in such large quantity is nothing. What appears so much to us is insignificant to him. Because Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was the total master of the grain, he was in a position to change whom he wished and give free to whom he desired. Afterwards he did return everyone's money.

Thus no one can raise any objection at this action of giving the king's grain free of charge to his brothers.

66. He said I will never send him with you, until you give me this solemn pledge [139], of Allah that you will be surely bring him back, but that you may be encompassed [140]. Then when they gave Yaqub solemn pledges, he said, Allah is responsible over what we say [141].

قَالَ لَنْ اُرْسِلَهٗ مَعَكُمْ حَتّٰى تُؤْتُوْنِ
مَوْثِقًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ لَتَاْتُنَّنِيْ بِهٖٓ اِلَّآ اَنْ
يُّحَاطَ بِكُمْ ۚ فَلَمَّآ اٰتَوْهُ مَوْثِقَهُمْ قَالَ
اللّٰهُ عَلٰى مَا نَقُوْلُ وَكِيْلٌ ﴿٦٦﴾

139. By this is meant take an oath on Allah Almighty. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) asked them to do this because in respect to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) they had deceived him. From this we learn that in times of need it is permissible to take an oath and make others take an oath.
140. This tells us that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) is fully aware about the incidents that would be taking place and that Benyamin would be held back in Egypt. What it means that if it is going to be beyond your power to bring back my Benyamin it is all right.
141. This means even after your pledge my trust is in Allah Almighty, and no one else. From this we learn that the true meaning of trust in Allah Almighty is an act upon the recources at hand but keep the provider of resources in sight.

67. And said he, O my sons, enter not by one door, but enter you by separate [142]. gates. I can not save you against [143], Allah All decisions belong to Allah [144], I relied on Him , and let the reliant rely on Him.

وَقَالَ يٰبَنِيَّ لَا تَدْخُلُوْا مِنْۢ بَابٍ وَّاحِدٍ
وَّادْخُلُوْا مِنْ اَبْوَابٍ مُّتَفَرِّقَةٍ ۭ وَمَآ
اُغْنِيْ عَنْكُمْ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ۭ اِنِ
الْحُكْمُ اِلَّا لِلّٰهِ ۭ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ ۚ وَعَلَيْهِ
فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُتَوَكِّلُوْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

142. This means at that time Egypt had four different doors to enter the city. Or Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) may have said this so that they may remain protected from people's evil eye. He did not give this instruction on their first trip because the Egyptians were not aware that they were children of one father. Also they were all young and handsome, and since they had become centre of attention of the king on their first trip, people now would take much more interest in them due to their fame. From this we learn that there is truth in the concept of evil eye which can effect harm on whom it falls. Furthermore, to take precaution against it is the practise of the Prophets.
143. This advice is a device to seek protection from the evil eye but mere device and place cannot change destiny and fate. The author of Tafseer Khazain says the instruction to enter Egypt through different doors was given so that due to this pretence Benyamin would able to stay with Hazrat yusuf (on whom be peace). In this way while the rest of the brothers would become divided in groups of two Benyamin would be by himself, as a result of which Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) would keep him by him. From this we learn that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware of every action of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

144. This means that creational command "be, and it becomes" belongs to Allah Almighty alone. None is associated with him in this. The rules and commanders of the world in a metaphorical sense are given authority by Allah Almighty.in matters of legal commands. Hence there is no contradiction in this verse. Says Allah Almighty that if a dispute takes place between the husband and a wife "Then appoint one arbiter each from the family of the husband and the side of the family of the wife". (S4:V35) Thus this verse does not contradict the verse quoted.

68. And when they entered after the manner their father had commanded [145], it could not save [146], them against Allah , yes there was a desire in the heart of Yaqub [147]. which he fulfilled. And verily, he is the man of knowledge [148], by Our teaching, but most men know not [149].

وَ لَمَّا دَخَلُوْا مِنْ حَيْثُ اَمَرَهُمْ
اَبُوْهُمْ ؕ مَا كَانَ يُغْنِيْ عَنْهُمْ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ
مِنْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا حَاجَةً فِيْ نَفْسِ يَعْقُوْبَ
قَضٰىهَا ؕ وَ اِنَّهٗ لَذُوْ عِلْمٍ لِّمَا عَلَّمْنٰهُ
وَلٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۶۸﴾

145. The sons of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace entered Egypt from different doors as per their fathers instruction. This tells us that obeidence to the father is greatly liked by Allah Almighty. Thus their obedience is being described in loving words.

146. This means a device or plan cannot change fate. However, prayer of the pious can alter one's fate. Due to Hazrat Adam's (on whom be peace) prayer the life span of Hazrat Dawood (on whom be peace) was increased from sixty to hundred years. Infact due or prayer itself is destiny or fate. The Holy QUR'AAN states that due to the prayer of the devil's life span has been lengthened.

147. This means bringing Benyamin and Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) together was Hazrat Yaqoob's (on whom be peace) great desire which was achieved through this plan.

Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) is a possessor of vast knowledge.

148. This means Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) is fully aware of what had happened to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) as well as what would happen to him. This is true because when interpreting his son's dream he had already said: "And thus your Lord will select you"... (S12:V6)

149. This means most people reject the different branches of knowledge of those who are beloved to Allah Almighty. They always maintain that Hazrat Yaqoob and Hazrat Yusuf (on them be peace) did not possess much knowledge.

SECTION 9

69. And they went to Yusuf, he gave his brother [150], a place near himself he said believe I am your brother therefore be not grieved of whatever they do [151].

وَ لَمَّا دَخَلُوْا عَلٰى يُوْسُفَ اٰوٰۤى اِلَيْهِ
اَخَاهُ قَالَ اِنِّيْۤ اَنَا اَخُوْكَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ
بِمَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۶۹﴾

150.His brothers informed Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) that they had brought Benyamin with them. He replied that they had responded well to his wishes. Thereafter he treated them all very cordially and hospitabily. He had laid seperate tables for them and made them sit in pairs per table. Because Benyamin was left alone he began to cry and thought to himself that had Hazrat Yusuf been present today he would have sat with me. On seeing him crying Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) said to him since you are alone come and join me at the table.

151. During the meal Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) said to Benyamin how would you like it if I were to take the place of your brother. To this Benyamin replied: Is it possible for anyone to get a brother like you. But how would it be possible for you to be the son of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) and Rachel. Hearing this Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) cried and quietly said "I amYusuf, but do not disclose this secret to anyone." On hearing this Benyamin was enraptured with ecstasy and said now I would never be separated from you. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) said that there is no possibility of keeping you behind besides linking something distasteful to you which would give one the reason to keep you back. Benyamin agreed to this. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan) As a result of this the following incident took place. From this we learn that whatever took place happened due to a mutual agreement and was not aimed at disgracing Benyamin in any way.

فَلَمَّا جَهَّزَهُمْ بِجَهَازِهِمْ جَعَلَ السِّقَايَةَ فِيْ رَحْلِ اَخِيْهِ ثُمَّ اَذَّنَ مُؤَذِّنٌ اَيَّتُهَا الْعِيْرُ اِنَّكُمْ لَسٰرِقُوْنَ ﴿٧٠﴾

70. Then when he made ready their baggage he put the drinking cup in the saddlebag of his brother [152]. Thereafter a Crier cried. O men of Caravan no doubt, you are thieves[153].

152. Either Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) placed the cup in the grain himself or asked someone else to place it. Thereafter he asked the security guard for the cup who searched for it but could not find it. He then ran after this caravan and uttered these words. He thought that since he had measured the grain for them with the cup, they must have taken it.

153. These words are not spoken by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) otherwise they would have been false, these words were uttered by the caller who was totally unaware of what had actually transpired. Hence there is no contradiction in the verse.

قَالُوْا وَ اَقْبَلُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ مَّاذَا تَفْقِدُوْنَ ﴿٧١﴾

71. They said and turned to them. What it is that you find not.

قَالُوْا نَفْقِدُ صُوَاعَ الْمَلِكِ وَ لِمَنْ جَآءَ بِهٖ حِمْلُ بَعِيْرٍ وَّ اَنَا بِهٖ زَعِيْمٌ ﴿٧٢﴾

72. They said, we do not find the kings measuring cup [154], and whosoever will bring it, he shall have a camel's [155]. load and I am his guarantor [156].

154. The king would drink water from this cup and was decked with jewels. At that point in time the grain was measured with it. This cup was placed in Benyamin's goods after which the caravan left for Kanaan.

155. This means who ever brought back the cup would be given a reward of one camel and grain. Now a days too reward is announced to recover lost things. This verse serves as a source for it.

156. This tells that it is permissible to stand as security and guarantee for goods. The word ZAEEM stands for guarantee. Today too there is the practice of standing as a guarantor. The source of this practice is the verse under discussion.

Marfat.com

قَالُوْا تَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَّا جِئْنَا لِنُفْسِدَ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَمَا كُنَّا سٰرِقِيْنَ ﴿۷۳﴾

73. They said By God you are well aware that we came not for creating mischief in the land, nor are we are thieves [157].

157. Because we have come twice to Egypt, and you have tested our piety and purity. Such God-fearing people cannot be thieves. We don't even feed our camels with stolen fodder. When we set out on a journey we leave our homes with food for ourselves and fodder for our animals.

قَالُوْا فَمَا جَزَآؤُهٗٓ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ كٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿۷۴﴾

74. They said what is the penalty of him, if you be liars?[158].

158. This means if the item under question is found in your possesion, you should suggest the punishment for it. From this we understand that it is acceptable to propose and suggest punishment for a crime mutually an condition that the punishment proposed is not contrary to Islamic law.

75. They said , its penalty is that he in whose baggage it is found, be himself the servant in recompense. Thus is the punishment of the unjust at our place [159].

159. This means the punish for stealing in the religion of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was that the owner could keep the thief as a slave for as long as he liked, but he had no right to sell him. He could only obtain service from him.

فَبَدَاَ بِاَوْعِيَتِهِمْ قَبْلَ وِعَآءِ اَخِيْهِ ثُمَّ اسْتَخْرَجَهَا مِنْ وِّعَآءِ اَخِيْهِ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ كِدْنَا لِيُوْسُفَ ؕ مَا كَانَ لِيَاْخُذَ اَخَاهُ فِيْ دِيْنِ الْمَلِكِ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّشَآءَ اللّٰهُ ؕ نَرْفَعُ دَرَجٰتٍ مَّنْ نَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ فَوْقَ كُلِّ ذِيْ عِلْمٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۷۶﴾

76. Then first he began the search of their bags before the bag of his brother then he took it out from the bag of his brother [160]. We taught Yusuf thus to plan [161]. He could not take his brother under the King's Law [162]. but this is what Allah willed. We exalt in degrees whomsoever We please. And above every man of knowledge there is One of More Knowledge [163].

160. From this we learn that religious evasions are prmissible because Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had adopted an excuse to hold back Benyamin which was an absolutely correct means adopted . It was not causing cruelty to anyone. Allah Almighty had taught Hazrat Ayob (on whom be peace) to adopt one form of excuse "Take in your hand a broom of dry grain and strike therewith". (S38:V44)

161. It should be remembered that in adopting this excuse Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had not spoken a lie, because it was his servant who had said to the brothers that you are thieves, who was totally unaware of what had transpired. Neither did Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) accuse his brother of stealing because what had transpired took place after consultation with Benyamin. Allah Almighty praised it and said: "We taught Yusuf thus to plan". Regarding this matter he first asked the brothers for its legal consequences which made it easier to keep back Benyamin. Neither was the secret let out nor was the Egyptian law of flogging the thief and ex1liting wealth from him which is twice the quantity stolen. Also we learnt that the deeds of the prophets are secret deed of Allah Almighty. Raising objection against them is raising objection against Allah Almighty. Observe, this plan to hold back Benyamin was adopted by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) but Allah Almighty says that it was He who had taught him this.

77. The brothers said if he commits [164], theft, then no doubt his brother has already committed theft [165], before, then Yusuf kept this thing secret in his heart and did not disclose it to them. He said within himself, you are at worse [166], place, and Allah knows well what you fabricate [167].

قَالُوْٓا اِنْ يَّسْرِقْ فَقَدْ سَرَقَ اَخٌ لَّهٗ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۚ فَاَسَرَّهَا يُوْسُفُ فِيْ نَفْسِهٖ وَلَمْ يُبْدِهَا لَهُمْ ۚ قَالَ اَنْتُمْ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا ۚ وَاللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَصِفُوْنَ ﴿٧٧﴾

164. This means that firstly Benyamin had not stolen, the cup was erroneously placed in his goods, and if he had actually stolen, then we had not advised him to do so. We are from a different mother and he is from another mother. His blood brother Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) too had once stolen.

165. This is a reference to Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) childhood in which he once stole his uncle's idol broke it and threw it in the filth. This was done for the sake of dissuading his uncle from idolatory and not for mere stealing. However, here his brothers spoke of it to taunt Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

166. By this is meant Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) did not want to disclose to them that the noble work which he did, is referred to by his brothers as theft and whatever they had done to him they are not ashamed or sorry about it. It should be remembered that whoever steals or breaks an idol, or steal any musical instrument or breaks it, his hands will not be cut off for it, because such a person can say that I did this to eradicate idolatory and sinful activity, stealing was not my motive.

167. This means Allah Almighty knows that the actual happening is not what you are claming it to be, neither Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had stolen nor Benyamin. In the case of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) it was for breaking the idol, while in the case of Benyamin it was a plan to hold him back.

78. They said, O Aziz, he has a father aged and advanced in years [168], so take one of us in his place. No doubt we are seeing your favours [169].

قَالُوْا يٰٓاَيُّهَا الْعَزِيْزُ اِنَّ لَهٗٓ اَبًا شَيْخًا كَبِيْرًا فَخُذْ اَحَدَنَا مَكَانَهٗ ۚ اِنَّا نَرٰىكَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿٧٨﴾

162. This means that had Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) not settled this punishment from his brothers before hand, he would not be in the position to hold back Benyamin in terms of the Egyptian law. This law did not advocate making the thief a slave.

163. From this emerge two issues:

1. All the brothers were religious scholars, but Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was more learned then all of them.
2. Religious knowledge is a means of achieving elevated position, and that a scholar is superior to a non-scholar.

168. They said to the king we have an aged father who is grief stricken at the death of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace)and who finds comfort and solace in Benyamin. If you hold back Benyamin our father would become extremely perturbed and restless because this would destroy his last hope and support.
169. Because law is one thing and kindness and benevolence is something else, and that benevolence is superior to law. From this we learn that in the religion of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) the punishment of a thief was regarded as violation of human right and not Divine right, otherwise he would not have made a recommendation for it. In our present Islamic law too before the case of theft reaches the magistrate it is regarded as violation of human right, but once it reaches the magistrate it becomes violation of Divine right, as after this the person who's right is violated cannot pardon the thief.

79. He said, be refuge of Allah that we should take any other but him with whom we found our goods then we shall surely be unjust [170].

قَالَ مَعَاذَ اللّٰهِ اَنْ نَّاْخُذَ اِلَّا مَنْ وَّجَدْنَا مَتَاعَنَا عِنْدَهٗٓ ۙ اِنَّآ اِذًا لَّظٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾ ع

170. Because we have received the command from Allah Almighty to hold back Benyaminn. Also, we have made a promise to Benyamin to hold him back. Thus if we allow him to go and hold you back we would be undermining Divinely inspired order, and breaking our promise to Benyamin. The reason being at that time the punishment for stealing was based on human right, which could be pardoned by a human being.

SECTION 10

80. Then when they were disappointed [171], of him, they began conferring going apart. His elder brother said, do you not remember that your father had taken a solemn pledge[172], of Allah from you, and before this how you committed mistake [173]. regarding Yusuf? Then I shall not move from this place until my father permits or Allah commands [174]. me and His command is best.

فَلَمَّا اسْتَيْـَٔسُوْا مِنْهُ خَلَصُوْا نَجِيًّا ؕ قَالَ كَبِيْرُهُمْ اَلَمْ تَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ اَبَاكُمْ قَدْ اَخَذَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَّوْثِقًا مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَ مِنْ قَبْلُ مَا فَرَّطْتُّمْ فِيْ يُوْسُفَ ۚ فَلَنْ اَبْرَحَ الْاَرْضَ حَتّٰى يَاْذَنَ لِيْٓ اَبِيْٓ اَوْ يَحْكُمَ اللّٰهُ لِيْ ۚ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْحٰكِمِيْنَ ﴿۸۰﴾

171. This is that incident about which Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) had hinted at the time of departure when he had said to his sons: "That you may be encompassed" (S12:V66) Observe! how farsighted is a Prophet of Allah.
172. Your father had made you promise in respect of protecting Benyamin and bring him safely with you. We have failed to protect him.
173. This tells us that expressing remorse at sin is the origin of repentance. These people have expressed regret for their previous Otherwise we should have kept a close eye on his goods and kept his bundle close so that there was no possibility for the cup to come out of it and for them to keep Benyamin behind. We have already broke our pledge in respect of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

incident, hence they had obtained forgiveness. It is not necesary to use the word Taubah when seeking repentance. Words reflecting remorse and regret are sufficient for it. Thus the thought of remorse of these brothers was a means of repentance for them. Now if any one regards them as evil is cruel and unjust.

174. This means I would remain behind in Egypt until such time my father gives me permission to return to Kanaan or the king releases Benyamin. With what face can I go back to my father. These words are spoken by Yahooda who was the eldest amongst them. Later it was him who came to Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) bringing the glad-tidings about Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). Some scholars have stated that these words were spoken by Roobeel who was most intellegent amongst them.

81. Return you all to your father, and say, O our father verily your son has committed [175], theft, and we had become witnesses to this much what we had in our knowledge, and we were not guardians over the unseen.

175. This means that the stealing has been linked to them. Therefore they had continued to say that we are not the guardians of the unseen. Allah Almighty knows best whether under the present circumstances they are thieves or not. From this we learn that even after goods are recovered from a person, the onlookers cannot with certainty call such a person a thief. The judge too will pass the judgement of cutting of the hands after full investigation, not merely on finding goods in the possession of the person.

82. And enquire of the town wherein we [176], were and the Caravan in which we came. And no doubt, we are truthful [177].

176. This tells us that in Arabic the word QARYAH is used for a city as well. Observe! these brothers have referred to Egypt as QARYAH - town or city. Thus while this word has been used for Jummah Prayer, it would denote town or city, because Jummah Prayer cannot be perfromed in a village.

177.Because once before they had acted in a dishonest manner, they now knew that their father would not believe them even when they would be speaking the truth. Hence they said "Ask the people of Egypt for the truth" Therefore one should always make it the habit of speaking the truth at all times.

83. He said , your souls have made for you some excuse [178]. Then patience is good. It is near that Allah may bring them all to [179], me No doubt, it is he the Knowing the wise.

قَالَ بَلْ سَوَّلَتْ لَكُمْ اَنْفُسُكُمْ اَمْرًا ؕ فَصَبْرٌ جَمِيْلٌ ؕ عَسَى اللّٰهُ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَنِىْ بِهِمْ جَمِيْعًا ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ الْعَلِيْمُ الْحَكِيْمُ ﴿٨٣﴾

178. In this word "your souls" Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) too is included. Its purpose is to show that even in the separation of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) my sons had a hand in it and the same is the case with Benyamin i.e. it is Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) who had adopted this plan, otherwise it was not possible for Benyamin to steal. This tells us that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware of every action of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). By using the plural "your souls" Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) tells them that had you not made the king aware of our laws, he would not been able to keep back Benyamin, because in their legal system this is not the punishment prescribed for stealing.

179. From this we learn that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was fully aware that Benyamin is in Egypt with his brother Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) because "with them"

84. And he turned away his face from him and said, Ah woe on the separation of Yusuf, and his eyes were whitened with grief and he suppressed his anger [180].

وَ تَوَلّٰى عَنْهُمْ وَ قَالَ يٰۤاَسَفٰى عَلٰى يُوْسُفَ وَ ابْيَضَّتْ عَيْنٰهُ مِنَ الْحُزْنِ فَهُوَ كَظِيْمٌ ﴿۸۴﴾

180. From this verse emerge a few issues:

1. It is permissible to cry at the separation from those beloved to oneself.

2. Prophets can become blind. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) continuously cried for eighty years until such time that he began to loose his sight which he regained after Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) shirt was placed on his eyes. Says Allah Almighty: "His sight came back". (S12:V96) Hazrat Shuabe (on whom be peace) too cried so much out of fear for Allah Almighty that he also lost his sight.

3. Though this lamentation of Hazrat

85. They said, By God you shall ever continue to remember Yusuf until you approach grave or pass away with you life [181].

قَالُوْا تَاللّٰهِ تَفْتَؤُا تَذْكُرُ يُوْسُفَ حَتّٰى تَكُوْنَ حَرَضًا اَوْ تَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْهٰلِكِيْنَ ﴿۸۵﴾

181. These words were spoken by his son and other relatives. They were not spoken to

86. He said I cry out for assistance in my anguish [182], and sorrow unto Allah, and I know those glories of Allah which you know not [183].

قَالَ اِنَّمَاۤ اَشْكُوْا بَثِّيْ وَحُزْنِيْۤ اِلَى اللّٰهِ وَاَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۸۶﴾

182. From this we learn that crying out to Allah Almighty is not going against patience denotes the plural form used for at least three persons. Since Yahooda had remained behind, that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) the third brother. Further, Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) also knew that soon all of them would be meeting him. The word "bring them" does not mean that those people will come to Kanaan to meet me, but that they will come to meet me. This is exactly what happened because when Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) went to Egypt, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and Benyamin went to the outskirts of Egypt to welcome him.

Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was outwardly due to the separation of his son Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), yet inwardly it was due to his love for Allah Almighty. The love for his son became the means of achieving Divine love. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Other than that he was fully aware of what his son was experiencing. He himself said that Allah Almighty will unite me with him.

4. Any weeping which is free from a dirge is not disallowed. At the birth of his son Ebrahim the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had shed tears.

censure him in any way but to sympathise and comfort him in his sorrow.

However, to utter words of impatience or to complain to people is a sign of impatience.

Marfat.com

Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) cried for eighty years, but not once had he uttered a single word of impatience.

183. I know that Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is alive, he is well and he will be united with me. Once he had enquired from the angel of Death whether he had taken out the soul of his son Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). The reply was in the negative. When asked, Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) too replied that he is safe and well. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan), Khazainul Irfaan) Also, it was him who had interpreted the dream of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).

87. O my sons! Go and search for Yusuf [184]. and his brother and despair not of Allah's mercy . No doubt , none despair of the mercy of Allah but a people disbelieving [185].

184. This means wherever is Benyamin, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) would be there as well. This tells us that Hazrat Yacoob (on whom be peace) is fully aware of the actual condition. We further learn that to undertake a journey in search of some one dear to you is the practise of the Prophets. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) sent his sons in search of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). Thus to undertake a journey to meet a pious person, either in his lifetime or after his demise, to attend Urs gatherings, are all permissible.

185. Here the word "disbeliever" signify those who are ungrateful and impatient. Says Allah Almighty: "Accept my right and do not be ungrateful to Me". (S21:V152) From this we learn that if there is a delay in the acceptance of prayer or achievement of one's goal a person should not become mean and narrow minded.

88. Then when they reached Yusuf, they said O Aziz, distress has reached [186], us and our family, and we have come with worthless capital [187] , then you give us full measure and be charitable [188]. to us. No doubt, Allah rewards the charitable [189].

فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوْا عَلَيْهِ قَالُوْا يٰۤاَيُّهَا الْعَزِيْزُ مَسَّنَا وَ اَهْلَنَا الضُّرُّ وَجِئْنَا بِبِضَاعَةٍ مُّزْجٰىةٍ فَاَوْفِ لَنَا الْكَيْلَ وَتَصَدَّقْ عَلَيْنَا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَجْزِى الْمُتَصَدِّقِيْنَ ﴿۸۸﴾

186. This is the brothers third visit to Egypt. Its purpose was both to obtain grain as well as search for Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) because Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) had commanded them to do so.

187. By 'worthless capital' here means some wool and some counterfeit coins unacceptable to merchants. Traditions has it that Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) had written a letter to the king of Egypt i.e. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and sent with his sons in which he had written a very sad note. The contents of this letter is found in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc.

188. Here charity denotes buying the grain with counterfeit wealth just as it is stated in a Hadith that greeting a Muslim with a smile is a charity. Islamic charity like Zakaat, etc is not meant here, because the Prophets of Allah Almighty do not eat charity prescribed by Shariah. If this type of charity was meant then mention would not have been made of counterfeit wealth. From this we learn that charity is sometimes uttered to express kindness. Infact every deed which is worthy of reward is charity. An example of this greeting a fellow Muslim cheerfully.

Marfat.com

189. Hearing of the distressing conditions of his brothers saddened Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and tears began to roll from his eyes. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan) He then asked the following question.

89. He said, Are you aware what you did with Yusuf and his brother [190], when you were ignorant [191].

190. This question was regarding their ill treatment of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) i.e. throwing him in the well, and separating him from his brother Benyamin. As far as Benyamin is concerned these brothers did not cause any apparent harm to him.

191. This means you were totally unaware of the consequences of your conduct concerning me and you. These words were spoken to express kindness and consideration and not anger. After paying thus Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) smiled. On seeing the brightness of his teeth the brothers recognized him and said. "Are you Yusuf?"

90. They said are you really Yusuf [192]. He said, I am Yusuf and this is my brother [193], No doubt, Allah has favoured us. Verily whosoever refrains [194], and be patient, then Allah wastes not the reward of the righteous [195].

192. Although these brothers were twice before in the court of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), on both these occasions they could not identify or recognize him, today after expressing their helplessness, humility and lowliness Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) disclosed his identity to them. The same is the condition of those who are in the court of the Holy Prophet SAW. Says Allah Almighty: "And when those who believe in our signs come to you then say to them, Peace be upon you". (S6:V54) Here too the word "they came" conveys the same meaning.

193. By "brother" means either his blood brother, or the brother upon who Allah Almighty bestowed His kindness. Otherwise the others too were his brothers.

194. By 'we' is meant Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) himself and his brother Benyamin; by 'benevolence' is meant happy reunion of those separated, and bearing the afflicted days with patience. Although all the brothers were blessed by Allah Almighty with piety and purity, benevolence was bestowed on the two brothers only.

195. The proof of this benevolence is our own incident in which Allah Almighty united who had been separated with honour.

91. They said By God surely Allah has preferred you above us , and no doubt, we had been sinners [196].

قَالُوْا تَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ اٰثَرَكَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْنَا وَاِنْ كُنَّا لَخٰطِـِٕيْنَ ﴿۹۱﴾

196. These are words of repentance of the brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). From this we understand whatever they had done was not due to any enmity towards Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), but due to opposition to him. Enmity towards a prophet is infidelity and apostacy, and an apostate is required to recite the Kalimah again. Just a simple expression of repentance will not be sufficient. From this we learn that Hazrat Muawiya was not an enemy of Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with them) He opposed

Marfat.com

Hazrat Ali on account of Hazrat Uthman's (May Allah be pleased with him) murder. There is a great difference between enmity and opposition. Differing from a Prophet's opinion is no infidelity. If a person given advise by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he need not necessarily act upon it, though obeying his command is obligatory. It should be remembered that here error is meant intentionaly, opposition but rather error in opinion i.e. that the opinion we had formed was wrong.

92. He said there is no reproach today upon you. May Allah forgive [197]. you. And he is the Most Merciful of the merciful.

قَالَ لَا تَثْرِيْبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ ؕ يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ ۫ وَ هُوَ اَرْحَمُ الرّٰحِمِيْنَ ﴿۹۲﴾

197. The brothers of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) were responsible for both human rights and Divine rights. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) forgave infringement of human rights himself by saying: "There is no reproach upon you today", and prayed to Allah Almighty to forgive their infringement of Divine rights. The dua of a Prophet is always accepted. Allah Almighty here mentions his prayer without any refutation from which we can understand that all the brothers were forgiven.

93. Go with this shirt [198], of mine, put it on my father's face, he shall recover his sight [199]. and bring all you family together.

اِذْهَبُوْا بِقَمِيْصِيْ هٰذَا فَاَلْقُوْهُ عَلٰى وَجْهِ اَبِيْ يَاْتِ بَصِيْرًا ۚ وَاْتُوْنِيْ بِاَهْلِكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿۹۳﴾ ع ۱۰ ۱۲ ۴

198. It is quite clear that by this shirt is meant the same cloak which he was wearing at that point in time, while the addition of this shows that the cloak had the effect of giving remedy because it had touched the body of a Prophet of Allah Almighty. The commentators state that this shirt belonged to Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) which had come down from different Prophets to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) .

199. From this emerge two issues:

1. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) became blind due to continues weeping. Otherwise what is the purpose of showing opening of his eyes and him regaining sight?

2. If the relics of the pious, things which have touched their blessed bodies, etc have Divine power to cure the ill, ward of evil, remove difficulties, etc. then they themselves are without doubt removers of diffculties, and one who wards off evil. Allah Almighty had said to Hazrat Ayob (on whom be peace) "Rub your feet against the earth. From it will spring a fountain. Drink and bath in it, it will cure you". The blessed sand of Madina is a sand of cure because it had been touched by the blessed feet of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

SECTION 11

94. When the Carlvan departed from Egypt, their father here said, no doubt I find the scent of Yusuf, if you say me not that he is deceased [200].

وَ لَمَّا فَصَلَتِ الْعِيْرُ قَالَ اَبُوْهُمْ اِنِّيْ لَاَجِدُ رِيْحَ يُوْسُفَ لَوْ لَاۤ اَنْ تُفَنِّدُوْنِ ﴿۹۴﴾

200. These words were spoken by Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) to his grandsons and other family members for all his sons at that time were in Egypt. From this emerges a few issues;

Marfat.com

1. A special sweet fragrance had emanated from the blessed body of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace).
2. Prophets through Divine powers see, hear and smell things from far and near. Observe, Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was smelling this fragrance from his son's shirt although he is hundreds of miles away. Likewise

95. The sons said By Allah you are infatuated with the same old love [201].

201. This means that because he was always concerned about Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace), it became a deep rooted thought, otherwise his eyes had lost their sight

96. Then when the bearer of glad tidings came [202], he laid that shirt on the face of Yaqub forthwith his sight came back [203]. he said did I not say to you that I know those glories of Allah which you know not [204].

202. The bearer of glad tidings was Yahooda, the eldest brother of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). It was him who had previously brought the blood-stained shirt of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and had said that the wolf had devoured him. Today it was his desire that he should be the one to bring the news of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) that he is alive, so that this could become an atonement of his previous sin. Yahooda was so delighted to convey this news that he ran for eighty kilometres without shoes or head gear. The food that he had brought from Egypt for

97. They said , O our father, beg forgiveness of our sins, no doubt, we are sinful [205].

205. The plural from - "they said" tells us that on this occasion not only Yahooda had come from Egypt, but few brothers had come, though Yahooda was the first to convey the good news. Since the condition for seeking forgiveness for injustice and cruelty is that the fragrance of rose emanated from our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم perspiration;

Hazrat Sulaiman (on whom be peace) could hear the footsteps of an ant from miles.
3. There is no fixed time for the apperance of the qualities of the blessed Prophets. This is like the glow of lightning, sometimes they appear, sometimes they remain concealed.

قَالُوْا تَاللّٰهِ اِنَّكَ لَفِیْ ضَلٰلِكَ الْقَدِیْمِ ﴿۹۵﴾ long ago. From this we learn the word DINAL does not only mean to go astray, but it has many other meanings.

فَلَمَّاۤ اَنْ جَآءَ الْبَشِیْرُ اَلْقٰىهُ عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ فَارْتَدَّ بَصِیْرًا ۚ قَالَ اَلَمْ اَقُلْ لَّكُمْ ۙ اِنِّیْۤ اَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

the journey too was not fully eaten by him. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).
203. From this we learn that to place the relics of the pious on the sick, to sprinkle such sacred water on them, etc is the practise of the Prophets. Placing the sacred Kalima in the shroud of the deceased, or to place the shirt of the Peero Murshid (Religious Guide) in it can be deduced from this verse, as these relics can solve many difficulties.
204. This means I am aware that he is alive and well. Infact I was fully aware of every condition of his.

قَالُوْا یٰۤاَبَانَا اسْتَغْفِرْ لَنَا ذُنُوْبَنَاۤ اِنَّا كُنَّا خٰطِـِٕیْنَ ﴿۹۷﴾

one who is unjustly treated should be the one to forgive, these brother had requested Hazrat Yacoob (on whom be peace) to do this, i.e. he should also forgive them and he should pray to Allah Almighty for same.

Marfat.com

98. He said soon I shall beg my Lord to forgive you. Verily . He is the Forgiving, the merciful [206].

قَالَ سَوْفَ اَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكُمْ رَبِّيْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ الْغَفُوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿۹۸﴾

206. The reason for declining to pray at that time was because the heart was not fully enthusiastic of achieving acceptance. May be Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was waiting for the dawn, or for meeting Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). From this we learn that the dua made during the morning receives greater acceptability.

99. Then when they all reached [207], Yusuf, he offered a place near him to his father and mother [208], and said enter Egypt , if Allah wills with security [209].

فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوْا عَلٰى يُوْسُفَ اٰوٰۤى اِلَيْهِ اَبَوَيْهِ وَ قَالَ ادْخُلُوْا مِصْرَ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ اٰمِنِيْنَ ﴿۹۹﴾

207. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had sent two hundred horses and a great deal of other necessities to bring his beloved father and other household members. Thus a total of seventy three people had left Kanaan for Egypt. When they had reached the outskirts of Egypt, Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) took an army of four thousand to accord a cordial welcome to his father. Many residents of Egypt had come out to witness this stately rejoicing. At this point in time Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) was leaning on the hand of Yahooda and walking. On seeing the entire area of the jungle filled with soldiers in full armour and silk banners he asked: "Who are these people?" Yahooda replied "Your beloved son Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and his army has come to welcome you". Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) came and said Look skywards. All those angels have come to witness this great reunion who had been weeping with you in your sadness. This reunion took place on Friday, 10th Muharram When the father and son came near, Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) said: Peace be upon you, Oh healer of distress and pain. Thereafter both hugged one another and weeped a great deal. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

208. Here by mother is meant Leah, the aunt of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) who at that time was the wife of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace). This meeting took place in a tent outside the city which was arranged by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) for welcoming his beloved father.

209. Prior to this the people of Kanaan feared the Egyptian kings. Due to this they would not come to Egypt. For this reason Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) spoke these words of reassurance. This entry into Egypt took place a few days after the first meeting.

100. And he seated his father and mother on the throne [210], and all fell down prostrate for him [211], and Yusuf said O my father , this is the interpretation of my first vision [212]. Verily my Lord has made it true. And no doubt, he favoured me that he brought forth me from the prison [213] and brought you all from the village after Satan had created dissension between me and my brothers [214]. Surely my Lord makes easy any thing He pleases Verily He is the knowing Wise [215].

Thus one Hadith has cancelled what was in another Hadith, but a Hadith has not cancelled a verse of the QUR'AAN. Thus this was a sajdah of salutation not of respect, otherwise Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) would not have prostrated it would have been done by Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) as he was the son.

212. Which became apparent after eighty or forty years.

213. He did not mention about the well because he did not want to put his brothers to shame. Also, coming out of the well was due to human assistance while Allah Almighty Himself made the release from jail possible without anyone's mediation. Furthermore, in the well Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was with Hazrat Jibraeel (on whom be peace) while in the prison he was with thieves and criminals. From this we learn that after pardoning a person one should not speak of his wrong deeds.

214. This tells us that although differences may arise between brother but this does not cut off brotherhood. In a like manner, though differences between Hazrat Alli Murtaza and Amir Muawiya were very strong, they were still brothers. For this reason Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) had said that these people are our brothers, though they have turned against us. Observe, despite their harsh behaviour Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) still called them brothers, and called the devil as cause of their discord.

215. From Bibi Zuleikha Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) had two sons Ifrasheem and Maneisha , Rahmah, was Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) daughter who was married to Hazrat Ayob (on whom be peace). All of them had come before Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) to pay their respect and convey their greetings to him. He was very happy with them and prayed for their well being. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

210. This means the parents and the eleven brothers. Here sajda prostration signifies that prostration which was in vogue in Egypt i.e. placing the forehead on the ground. Without any proof one should not try to interpret verses of the Holy QUR'AAN. This prostration was for Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) and not for Allah Almighty as is understood from "for him". Those sages who try to use this verse to make Sajda of Respect permissible should make such sajdahs to their disciples, and not make the disciples to offer such sajdahs to them, because in the case it was Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) who made this sajdah to Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) i.e. the father prostrated to the son, the Peer (Guide) prostrated to the disciple. In any case this was not a sajdah of salutation, not of worship nor of respect. Observe, Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) left his son and wife in the wilderness without any food and water at Allah Almighty's command. So this was a specific command, not a theological issue from his religion. Regarding Sajdah of respect full discussion appears in the first Para pertaining to the verse on the angels' sajdah for Hazrat Adam (on whom be peace).

211. This does definitely not prove the sajdah of respect was permissible in the religion of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) because these people prostrated only on this occasion, and that too to fulfil what was prophesized in the dream, just as Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) offered to sacrifice his son to fulfil his dream. Neither was sacrifice of sons a religious order in the religion of Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) nor was Sajdah of salutation commanded in the religion of Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace). However, some Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم provide proof that sajdah of respect was permissible in previous religions but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم abolished this practice.

101. O my Lord Verily You have bestowed me a Kingdom [216], and taught me to draw conclusion of some discourses [217], O Creator of the heavens and earth, You are my Helper in this world and the Herafter. Make me die as Muslim and join me with those who are worth to be very close to You [218].

216. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) stayed in Egypt for twenty four years, where he passed away. He had made a will that he should be buried in Palestine, opposite Hazrat Ishaaq (on whom be peace). Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) carried out the instructions of his father. He himself went to Palestine, for this purpose and after returning, lived for further twenty three years. Hazrat Yaqoob's (on whom be peace) age was hundred and forty seven and that of Hazrat Yusuf's (on whom be peace) was hundred and twenty. When Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) began to experience the signs of death, he appointed his oldest brother Yahooda as his successor and handed over his children in his care and thereafter offered this prayer.

217. Because he was the first Prophet to be bestowed with prophethood and kingdom. He was prophet for four generations, he was given the sustenance of the entire world and he was an accepted authority on interpretation of dreams.

218. In this there is an instruction for all the Muslims in general that they should pray that Allah Almighty should give them death on Islam, and that prior to offering the prayer they should recite the praises of Allah Almighty, and in every prayer they offer they should include the prayer for the Hereafter, and not suffice on praying for the good of this world only. There is a difference in opinion whether Bibi Zuleikha passed away before Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) or after him. Majority of the Ulema are of the opinion that she passed away a few days after. Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) was buried in the Nile. Four hundred years later when Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) took the Israelites with him to Egypt he, on the instruction of an old lady, took with him a coffix type of box of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). The old lady after taking from Hazrat Moosa (on whom be peace) the promise of Paradise, informed him about the whereabouts of the grave of Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace) is the first Prophet of the Israelites and Hazrat Isa (on whom be peace) is their last prophet.

220. Because the Prophets do not take wages from anyone for propagations and prophethood. They are innocent and safe from this.

SECTION 12

105. And how many a sign there is in the heavens and earth that most men pass by them and are unaware of them.

وَكَاَيِّنْ مِّنْ اٰيَةٍ فِى السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ يَمُرُّوْنَ عَلَيْهَا وَهُمْ عَنْهَا مُعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾

106. And most of them believe not in Allah but as associators [221].

وَمَا يُؤْمِنُ اَكْثَرُهُمْ بِاللّٰهِ اِلَّا وَهُمْ مُّشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۶﴾

221. Reason for its revelations:
This verse was revealed regarding the infidels of Makkah who were worshipping the idols after accepting Allah Almighty as their Creator and Sustainer. In their call to Allah Almighty (Talbiyyah) they would declare you have no partner, besides one. Thus while they were saying there is no God, they were guilty of idolatory as well. They would accept in the Oneness of Allah Almighty yet at the same time believed in Him having sons and daughters.

107. Have they become fearless from this that they maybe encompassed by the torment [222]. of Allah or the sudden coming of the Hour upon them while they are unaware?

222. This tells us there is a big difference between hope and security. Fear is part of hope while in security there is no fear. Security on Allah Almighty is infidelity, while hope is faith. Here punishment signifies that punishment which would come due to causes e.g. death and imprisonment in a battle, or like femine etc. Otherwise concerning punishment due to no causes Allah Almighty has already promised: "And Allah is not to chastise them (O beloved Prophet) while you are in their midst". (S8:V33) By Qiyamah is meant death. Death is a minor Qiyamah (The appointed hour) of each person. It should be remembered that a sudden death is a Divine punishment for one that is negligent but for a believer it is a Divine mercy. This is because an infidel and the neligent never prepare for death from before hand, while a believer is always ready for it. Hazrat Ebrahim and Hazrat Dawood (on them be peace) experienced sudden death. Sudden death is not that which occurs without any sickness, but that which occurs without any prior preparation for it.

قُلْ هٰذِهٖ سَبِيْلِيْٓ اَدْعُوْٓا اِلَى اللّٰهِ ۣ عَلٰى بَصِيْرَةٍ اَنَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَنِيْ ؕ وَسُبْحٰنَ اللّٰهِ وَمَآ اَنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

108. Say you, This is my way [223]. I call towards Allah. I and those who follow my footsteps have insight [224]. and Holy is Allah and I am not an associator [225].

223. By 'my ways' is meant Islam. From this we learn that the identity of the True Religion is that it should be of the religion of the Prophets and Saints of Allah Almighty. Any religion which is contrary to theirs, and which is against their teachings, is not the true religion Today, besides the Ahle Sunnat all the religions are not the Religion of the Friends of Allah Almighty. Hence they are false religions.

224. By "those who follow my footsteps" is meant the Noble Companions and Saints of Allah Almighty. It is obligatory upon every one to follow them. Says Allah Almighty: "And follow him who turned to Me with repentance". (S31:V15)

225. From this emerge two issues:

1. At no time are the Prophets idolators - not before the appearance of his prophethood or after it. Says Allah Almighty: "Your companion neither went astray nor misled". (S53:V2)
2. It is not permissible to conceal your faith. Reveal your faith through your word, deed, appearance and conduct. To assure the appearance of infidels too is equal to concealing your faith.

وَمَآ اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ اِلَّا رِجَالًا نُّوْحِيْٓ اِلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ اَهْلِ الْقُرٰى ؕ اَفَلَمْ يَسِيْرُوْا فِي الْاَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوْا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ؕ وَلَدَارُ الْاٰخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا ؕ اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۹﴾

109. And all those who were sent as messengers before you were men [226], whom We revealed, and all were residents of the cities. Have they not journeyed in the land, that they may see, what became the end [227]. of those before them? And not doubt, the abode of the Hereafter is better for the duty-bound [228]. Have you not then wisdom?

226. Reason for its revelation:
The infidels would say why did Allah Almighty made human beings as prophets, why did He not send the angels as prophets?. This verse was revealed as reply to their question in which it is said. Why do you express astonishment at this. The very first Prophet was a man. From this we learn that angels, jinns, women, etc. were never made prophets. However, some prophets were already given prophethood in their childhood. Says Allah Almighty: "And We bestowed prophethood on whom in his childhood". (S19:V12) Further we learn that man is superior to a woman because Allah Almighty bestowed prophethood, leadership, position of Chief of Justice, to man. Also that prophets were born in cities. Hazrat Yaqoob (on whom be peace) and his children were not from a village but they had accepted temporary settlement there because of his grazing animals.

227. This is a rhetorical question. The people of Makkah during their business trips do pass the ruins of the people of Aad and Thamood, and they are also aware that these people have been destroyed because they had opposed their prophets, yet these Makkans take no lessons from this.

228. From this we learn that no matter in what comforts the believer may live in this world, yet the comforts and luxuries of the Hereafter which he would be receiving would be far better than those. Similarly no matter in what difficulties the infidel may find himself in this world, yet the difficulties of the Hereafter awaiting him are far worse. Thus a believer is indifferent to the luxuries of the world and while even in hardships the infidel adores this world. It is for this reason the Hadith says that the world is a prison for a believer and a heaven for an infidel. This Hadith does not necessarily means that a believer would always live in hardship in this world, and an infidel in luxury.

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا اسْتَيْـَٔسَ الرُّسُلُ وَ ظَنُّوْۤا اَنَّهُمْ قَدْ كُذِبُوْا جَآءَهُمْ نَصْرُنَا ۙ فَنُجِّيَ مَنْ نَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ لَا يُرَدُّ بَاْسُنَا عَنِ الْقَوْمِ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۰﴾

110. And so much so, when the messengers had no hope of outer causes [229]. and the people thought that the messengers had given them wrong infromation [230]. at that time. Our help came, then whomsoever We willed was rescued. And Our torments cannot be averted from the sinful people.

229. This tells us that to despair about outer causes is not an evil thing, but at times it is a good thing. It is an evil thing to loose hope in Allah Almighty, while having no hope in outer causes is highest form of trust in Allah Almighty.

230. This means that the infidels from the people of these Prophets thought the information about punishment given by these Prophets were wrong. This was not taught by the Prophets nor by those who believed in them. Thus there is no contradiction in the verse. From this we learn that even if there is a delay in the coming of the mercy of Allah Almighty one should not be frightened by it.

لَقَدْ كَانَ فِىْ قَصَصِهِمْ عِبْرَةٌ لِّاُولِى الْاَلْبَابِ ؕ مَا كَانَ حَدِيْثًا يُّفْتَرٰى وَ لٰكِنْ تَصْدِيْقَ الَّذِىْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَ تَفْصِيْلَ كُلِّ شَىْءٍ وَّ هُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۱﴾

111. No doubt, the eyes of the wise men are opened [231]. by their tidings. It is not a discourse concocted, but a confirmation of what went before and a detail explanation of every thing, and a guidance and a mercy for the Muslims [232].

231. From this emerge two issues:

1. The stories of the pious sages are a means of strengthening one's faith, piety, contentment of the heart, etc.

2. An intelligent person is he who derives lessons from these stories to become a believer. No matter how cunning an infidel may be, he is dumb. Any cow or buffalo who merely passes urine and stool and does not give milk, is fit to be slaughtered. Any intelligence which helps to establish the world and not obtain religious progress deserves to be destroyed.

232. This tells us that after the Holy QUR'AAN no Prophet or another Divine book would come for the guidance of man, because the Holy QUR'AAN has not made any such prophecies. It had verified the previous Books and Prophets. Prophecy is pertaining to the future.

Marfat.com

This means that one of the benefits received by the previous Prophets from the Holy QUR'AAN was that due to its blessing their existence was verified in the whole world. One benefit is for you Oh Beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in that the QUR'AAN proclaims your unseen knowledge in detail which is found in the Divine Tablet. The believers too have benefitted in a way through the QUR'AAN as it has been their source of guidance and mercy. It should be remembered that one guidance and mercy of the Holy QUR'AAN has been received by all which is general guidance and salvation from Divine punishments, while type of guidance and mercy is restricted to the believers alone which is reaching the religious goals which would enable them to obtain Paradise. Thus the meaning of the verse is crystal clear.

SURAH AR'RAAD (The Thunder)
(MADANI) Revealed After Hijrah

6 Section 43 Verses 1 855 Words , 3506 Letters

1. This is a Makkan Surah, revealed before Hijrah. Only two of its verses, portion of verse thirty-one and verse forty-three were revealed in Madina. It contains six Rukus, forty three verses, eight hundred and twenty five words and three thousand five hundred and six letters. Some scholars have said it to be revealed in Madina.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

الٓمّٓرٰ ۚ تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ ؕ وَ الَّذِيْٓ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ الْحَقُّ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ۝۱

1.Alif Laam Meem Raa. These are the verses of the book [2]. And that which has been sent down to you from your Lord [3] is the truth, but most people believe not.[4]

2. In the word 'this' there is a hint towards all the past and future verses, or towards the verses contained in Surah Ra'd. By book is meant the Holy QUR'AAN.

3. This tells us that both the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadithe Nabawi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are correct because here "that which has been sent" is being used, because Hadith too is from Allah Almighty. The only difference is that in the QUR'AAN the words are of Allah Almighty while in the Hadith the words are of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but the content is from Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that Hadith Shareef is not recited in Salaah. However, for Islamic Laws the QUR'AAN and Hadith hold equal importance. Thus if one takes "that which" to mean Hadith is better because the Book has been mentioned earlier. Thus "that which" will be something other than the Book. The first of two words joined by a conjunction will be different to the second word.

4. In that some from the infidels call it poetry, some call it magic, some call it sooth saying. From this we understand that the effect of the effector is dependent on the ability of the effected. The noise of the rain cannot grow verdure in the earth, the sun cannot let sunlight reach the bat.

2.Allah is He Who raised up the heavens without the pillars [5] that you can see. Then he settled Himself on the throne (as is befitting to His Destiny) [6] . And made the sun and the moon subservient. Each one runs to a term stated [7] . Allah plans every affair and explains clearly the signs so that you may believe the meeting with your Lord [8].

اَللّٰهُ الَّذِیْ رَفَعَ السَّمٰوٰتِ بِغَیْرِ عَمَدٍ
تَرَوْنَهَا ثُمَّ اسْتَوٰی عَلَی الْعَرْشِ وَ
سَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَ الْقَمَرَ ؕ كُلٌّ یَّجْرِیْ
لِاَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّی ؕ یُدَبِّرُ الْاَمْرَ یُفَصِّلُ
الْاٰیٰتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ بِلِقَآءِ رَبِّكُمْ تُوْقِنُوْنَ ۲

5. This means that skies do have pillars, but they are such that they are not visible to you. The power of Allah Almighty is His justice and equity. His Friends and Prophets are His pillars. Or, it means you are seeing that skies do have pillars, or that the antecedent of the personal pronoun 'it' of "you watch it" is the skies, i.e. you are looking at the skies which are established without the pillars. It should be remembered that the sky does not appear by itself as it is clear and transparent, only its sun and stars become visible to us. Seeing these is indirectly seeing the sky.

6. From this we learn that besides Arsh (Divine Throne) and the sky there is other creation. The assumption of the astronomers is incorrect that the ninth sky is the Divine Throne and the eighth sky is the Divine Chair. We further learn that the creation of the Divine Throne is before that of the skies (heavens) but any inclination and evenness came after them. Says Allah Almighty: "And His Throne was on the water". (S11:V7) Thus this would mean Allah Almighty would be parallel to the Divine Throne, and not sitting on the Throne. In fact, its purpose is He has over-powered the Throne or had made the Throne subject to His commands, He had made it the manisfestations of the Light, as it is said: "The king is sitting on the Throne".

7. From this we learn neither the earth nor the heaven is in movement, but the stars in the sky are moving in such a way like how the swimmer is moving in the sea. Says Allah Almighty: "And each one is floating in an orbit". (S36:V40) Through this rotation people benefit a great deal.

8. The absolute spreader of the earth is Allah Almighty, while metaphorically speaking or on the worldly level His servants too are provided this ability. Says Allah Almighty about the angels: "Then they manage their affairs". (S79:V5) Some Friends of Allah Almighty do manage affairs of the world. They are called creational Saints (TAKWEENI).

3. And it is He who has spread [9] the Earth and made there in anchors [10] and rivers. And he made two [11] kinds of every fruit in the Earth. He covers the night with the day. No doubt in that are signs for a people who reflect [12].

رَوَاسِيَ وَ اَنْهٰرًا ؕ وَ مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرٰتِ جَعَلَ

اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَّتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ۝٣

9. The anchors are on water in such a way that they do not dissolve in water. Otherwise sand normally dissolves in water. Also, it does not move, otherwise normally everything floats in water, and floating brings about a movement.
10.From this we learn that the earth is stationary, because by putting anchor is meant to stop the movement of the earth. Further we learn that the study of Science is permissible as it makes us aware of the powers of Allah Almighty. However, believing in erroneous scientific data which is contrary to the Holy QUR'AAN and Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is harmful to one's faith. In short, make Science the servant of Religion, not its opposition.

11. Sour, sweet, black, white, small, big, The surfacing of fruit trees above the earth after spreading its roots inside, and their sprouting in the middle to spread veins of its root is a natural phenomenon.
12. From this emerge two issues:
1. The entire world is an office of Divine knowledge, but only for those who have the capacity to understand it;
2. Meditation and deliberation are superior type of worship. One moment's meditation is better than a thousand years of Zikr. Hot, cold, dry, wet. From this we learn that even in these Allah Almighty has kept pairs. Knowledge and ignorance; guidance and apostasy; Faith and infidelity, etc. too are pairs.

4.And in the earth there are different regions side by side [13] and there are gardens of grapes and cornfields and palm trees growing from one base and separately, all are watered [14] with one water and in fruits. We make one to excel the other. No doubt, in that are signs for wise people.

14. Similar is the condition of man. In form and appearance all are human. One QUR'AAN has come for every one's guidance, yet in them some are believers, some are infidels, some are negligent, some are intelligent,some are prophets, some are saints, etc.

Those are the ones who denied [17] their Lord, and those are they who will have chains round their necks and those are the people of Hell wherein they shall abide therein forever. [18]

Attributes, as is the belief of the JAHEEMIYAH sect. Rejecting His Prophets as is the belief of the common infidels, or rejecting the greatness of His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as is the belief of those who insult the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . All these are possible ways of rejecting Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And the Jews did not know the estimation of Allah as was necessary for Him, when they said Allah has not sent down anything on any man. (S6:V91)

15. This means Oh My Beloved, if you are so astonished that after seeing so many miracles these infidels still call you a magician and do not accept you as a Prophet, then more astonishing than this is the fact after having seen my powers they do not believe that I have the power to re-create this world. In short, do not be astonish at their refusal, nor express regret. This has become their habit.

16. They do not think everything has its invention and form and that it is easier to create what is invented. Since Allah Almighty has invented everything, then what difficulty is there in resurrecting it after death. When Allah Almighty takes your faith, he seizes your intelligence as well.

17. There are few ways of rejecting Allah Almighty: rejecting His Personality, as is the belief of the atheists; rejecting His Oneness, as is the belief of the polytheists; rejecting His

18. This tells us that the infidels will have shackles in their necks, but the sinful believers will be saved from this disgrace and embarrassment, because this is the punishment of the infidels. The punishment of infidelity is disgrace and eternal stay in Hell. All this is for the infidels, while the end result of a believer is salvation.

وَيَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَكَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ قَبْلَ الْحَسَنَةِ وَقَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمُ الْمَثُلٰتُ ۗ وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُوْ مَغْفِرَةٍ لِّلنَّاسِ عَلٰى ظُلْمِهِمْ ۚ وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَشَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ۝٦

6.And they ask you for hastening the torment before [19] mercy, and the punishment before them have already occurred [20]. And verily your Lord awards forgiveness [21] even on the injustice of the people. And no doubt, the torment of your Lord is severe.

19. Here, the word SAYYIAH denotes punishment and HASANAH denotes peace and security and ISTI'JAL denotes asking for it before its time. By this is meant the infidels of Makkah are asking for the punishment before the period of peace and security has passed. Allah Almighty has set aside for them some period of peace and some of punishment. When the period of peace is over it would be followed by a period of punishment. However, these people are asking for the punishment before its time, in a way of a joke and amusement. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse, because the word HASANAH does not signify Paradise or forgiveness, nor are the infidels entitled for those.

20. Punishment came upon every nation on its appointed time which was due to their rejection of the Prophets. The Makkans should thus take lessons from this.

21. The word "their injustices" denotes infidelity and forgiveness signifies temporary forgiveness i.e. the delay in sending the punishment. Hence this verse does not contradict the following verse: "Allah forgives not that anyone be associated with Him (S4:V116) because there forgiveness denotes salvation. It is for this reason mention of punishment is being made in this verse i.e. even this slackness too is a punishment for the infidels.

7. And the infidels say ' why has not a sign been sent down upon him from his Lord [22]? You are only a Warner and a guide to every nation. ' [23]

وَ يَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَوْ لَآ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ اٰيَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهٖ ؕ اِنَّمَآ اَنْتَ مُنْذِرٌ وَّ لِكُلِّ قَوْمٍ هَادٍ ۧ ⑦

22. This mean why does the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم not show us the miracles which we are asking of him e.g. changing the mountain of Uhud into gold, letting rivers to flow in Makkah, showing miracles with the stick associated with Hazrat Musa (on whom be peace) etc. It is an accepted fact that Prophets of Allah Almighty show miracles through which common people come to know of their prophethood. To show a miracle as per every person's demand is indeed reducing it to playful activity. It is for this reason that previous Prophets had generally shown one or two miracles only. However, our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had shown more than six thousand miracles.

23. From this we understand two issues:
1. All the previous Prophets would come to specific people, for specific place and specific time, but our Beloved Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Prophethood is beyond these restrictions: he whose creator is Allah Almighty, his prophet is our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
2. Our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم miracles too are for all mankind. Thus every verse of the Holy QUR'AAN is a miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for all the people until the Day of Judgement. Miracles of the previous Prophets are now in the form of stories but the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are here for all times.

8. Allah knows whatever is in the womb of any female and whatever the wombs diminish and whatever they increase [24]. And everything with Him is a proper estimate [25].

اَللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَحْمِلُ كُلُّ اُنْثٰى وَ مَا تَغِيْضُ الْاَرْحَامُ وَ مَا تَزْدَادُ ؕ وَ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ عِنْدَهٗ بِمِقْدَارٍ ⑧

24. This means Allah Almighty knows in whose womb is a male and in whose is a female foetus, which child would be born in lesser time and which would take a longer time to be born. The minimum period of human pregnancy is six months while the maximum is two years. A baby that is born before six months does not survive and is lost as miscarriage.

The period of pregnancy of every animal is different.

25. And this estimation is already recorded on the Divine Tablet so that those servants of Allah Almighty would become aware of this estimation whose sight is on the Divine Tablet. This is the very purpose of this passage.

9. Knower of every hidden [26] and open. The Greatest. The Exalted.

26. This means those things which are unseen for you or before you, He has knowledge of all this, as nothing is unseen or hidden from Allah Almighty. Remember that an invisible thing is that which is concealed from a sense, e.g. colour is invisible from the nose, fragrance and odour are hidden from the eye, while the unseen is that which is concealed from the senses and extemporary intellect. The opposite of absent is present while opposite of unseen is to witness. You should also remember that the absolute knowledge of all things seen and unseen is the special attribute of Allah Almighty which is not bestowed upon anyone. However, knowledge of the seen and unseen is bestowed upon His creation. Thus here both ALIF and LAAM are articles of absorption and that there is no inconsistency in the verse.

10.All are alike, one who among you conceals his talks and one who utters [27] openly, and one who hides himself in the night and one who walks by day.

27. The loud Zikr made is not for the purpose of letting Allah Almighty hear it, but it is for making our negligent hearts and other negligent people to come out of their slumber, making the things of the world its witness.

11.For all man there are angels in succession before [28] and behind him that they guard him by Allah's command [29], verily Allah alters not his blessings from any people until they themselves alter their conditions [30]. And when Allah desires evil to a people. Then it cannot be turned back [31], and besides Him they have no supporter [32].

لَهٗ مُعَقِّبٰتٌ مِّنْۢ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَ مِنْ خَلْفِهٖ يَحْفَظُوْنَهٗ مِنْ اَمْرِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُغَيِّرُ مَا بِقَوْمٍ حَتّٰى يُغَيِّرُوْا مَا بِاَنْفُسِهِمْ ؕ وَ اِذَآ اَرَادَ اللّٰهُ بِقَوْمٍ سُوْٓءًا فَلَا مَرَدَّ لَهٗ ۚ وَ مَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ مِنْ وَّالٍ ⑪

28. Sixty or less angels are assigned to each human being for his protection, and two angels are assigned to each person who has reached the age of puberty and intelligence to record the good and bad deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "One sitting on the right and another at left". (S50:V17) After the Fajr Salaah the angels of the right depart, while after the Asr Salaah the angels of the day depart. In addition in Fajr and Asr angels of the day and night meet. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt angels are present in the QUR'AAN of the dawn". (S17:V78)

29. This tells us angels of protection are with each person at all times. Therefore even when one person is being greeted the plural form of the pronoun is used so that the greeting is sent to the angels as well. These angels protect the human beings from the jinns and other calamities.

30. From this we learn that punishments come as a result of evil deeds. The devil was destroyed due to his disobedience. Bal'am Bawoor was destroyed due to disobedience. The people of Dawud (on whom be peace) were turned into monkeys and swine due to excessive sins.

31. This means that if Allah Almighty wants to destroy any infidel nation no power can save them. Seeking medical treatment for illnes or offering prayers during difficulties is not going contrary to this.

Marfat.com

32. This tells us that the infidels have no helpers while many helpers, heirs and guardians are appointed by Allah Almighty for the believers. The absence of helpers for the infidels is a means of punishment for them, from which the believers are protected.

12.It is He who shows you the lightning for fear and hope [33] and raises the heavy clouds [34].

33. Lightning which sparks is called BARQ and that which falls or strikes is called SAIQA. The peal of thunder is called RA'D. By seeing the spark of lightning brings about a hope of rain, while lightning which strikes evokes fear. Similarly, roar of thunder frightens the travellers but brings joy to those at home in anticipation of rain.

34. In that these heavy clouds are bearers of large quantity of water, hail, snow which are being moved in the sky.

13.And the thunder [35] praising Him proclaims His holiness and the angels with His awe [36]. And sends thunderbolts. Then smites therewith whom he wills while they are disputing about Allah and His grip is severe.

وَ یُسَبِّحُ الرَّعْدُ بِحَمْدِهٖ وَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ مِنْ خِیْفَتِهٖ ۚ وَ یُرْسِلُ الصَّوَاعِقَ فَیُصِیْبُ بِهَا مَنْ یَّشَآءُ وَهُمْ یُجَادِلُوْنَ فِی اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ هُوَ شَدِیْدُ الْمِحَالِ ﴿۱۳﴾ ؕ

35. It is a name of an angel who praises Allah Almighty. On hearing the peal of thunder people engage themselves in reciting the praises of Allah Almighty. Or, this pealing and roar of thunder itself is the proof of Divine praises. Any one at the time of peal of thunder recites the following dua will through the grace of Allah Almighty be protected from lightning: SUBHANALLAZI YUSABBIHOR RA'DO BIHAMDIHI WAL MALAIKATO MIN KHEEFATIHI WA HUWA ALA KULLI SHAI-IN-QADEER.

36. This tells us angels too fear Allah Almighty - but this fear is out of His Divine Greatness and Authority. The same is the condition of fear of the Prophets. We sinners fear His punishments. May Allah Almighty grant us this fear Shaitaan or the devil fears Allah Almighty, but out of mischief. The devil himself had said: "I fear Allah Almighty, Lord of the worlds. Thus, fear is of different types, and the law pertaining to each is different 14.Calling to Him alone is true [37], and those whom they call upon besides Him [38], hear them not at all, but like Him who is sitting stretching His hands before the water that it may reach his mouth [39], and it will never reach it. And every prayer of the infidels loses its way [40].

لَهٗ دَعْوَةُ الْحَقِّ ؕ وَ الَّذِیْنَ یَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ لَا یَسْتَجِیْبُوْنَ لَهُمْ بِشَیْءٍ اِلَّا كَبَاسِطِ كَفَّیْهِ اِلَى الْمَآءِ لِیَبْلُغَ فَاهُ وَ مَا هُوَ بِبَالِغِهٖ ؕ وَ مَا دُعَآءُ الْكٰفِرِیْنَ اِلَّا فِیْ ضَلٰلٍ ﴿۱۴﴾

37. This means the worship of Allah Almighty is a fact, and that of the idols is false.

Or, to call upon Allah Almighty for help is absolutely correct and to call upon His creation is incorrect. It should be remembered to seek the assistance of the ruler, the physician, to call upon the pious saints is in reality calling upon Allah Almighty.

38. This means to call upon the idols by worshipping them or regarding them as deifies. In this verse reference is not made upon to calling upon those who are cut off from Allah Almighty. About this we have been told by Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers". (S33:V5) Further, Allah Almighty says: "And Our Messenger was calling you". (S3:V153) In Salaah we recite "Peace be upon Oh Messenger ".

39. This means just as water is without knowledge - i.e. by just calling upon it, it will not rise to quench a person's thirst, the idols are the same. They too have no ability to respond to anyone's call. In fact, even Allah Almighty too does not respond to the infidel as he is calling upon the Almighty without the medium. He responds to those who try to reach Him through the medium of His friends. Says Allah Almighty: "Oh believers! Fear Allah and seek the means of approach to Him". (S5:V35)

40. Either its meaning is that the prayers of the infidels in this world are not accepted. Allah Almighty did not accept the complete prayer offered by the devil, but He rejected it. The devil had asked for eternal life, but he was granted life prior to resurrection, not beyond it. Or, it could mean the infidel's due will not be accepted after he is sent into Hell, or that whatever prayers they seek from the idols are all to no avail, or these polytheists who are worshipping the idols are ruined, and laid to waste they are without any benefits. In short, there is no inconsistency in the verse. The acceptance of some prayers of the infidels is not contrary to this verse.

وَالْاَرْضِ طَوْعًا وَّكَرْهًا وَّظِلٰلُهُمْ

15. And to Allah alone prostrates as many there are in the heavens and earth willingly or unwillingly [41] and their shadows too every morning and evening [42].

41. The believers prostrate with joy while the hypocrites do it unwillingly. From this we learn that performing Salaah indolently is the sign of the hypocrites.

42. In that everyone's shadow in the morning moves towards the west, and in the evening towards the east. The movement of the shadow is found on obedience to Allah Almighty. Or, it could mean that the shadow of everyone in reality recites the praise of Allah Almighty. Thus if any person who does not do this is worse than the shadow.

similar to them? Say you, ' Allah alone is the creator of everything [45] and He is the one. Dominant over all.'

شَيْءٍ وَّ هُوَ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ ﴿١٦﴾

43. There is a big difference between friend of Allah Almighty and the one who is cut off from Allah Almighty. Friends of Allah Almighty are WALI-ULLAH and believing and accepting them is a sign of Faith. On the other hand the ones who are cut off from Allah Almighty are those enemies of Allah Almighty whom the infidels had accepted as their friends. The commentary of this verse is the following verse: "The supporters of the infidels are the devils". (S2:V257). To believe in them is infidelity. Wherever adverse comments are made about those cut off from Allah Almighty, reference is being made to these enemies of Allah Almighty, or verses of this theme are being addressed to those infidels who took friends of Allah Almighty as deity and not as friends of Allah Almighty like the Jews and Christians who took the Prophets as God or as son of God. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

44. Infidelity is of various types, Faith is just one. Hence, the plural form is used for darkness and the singular form is used to express light. From this we learn that all the infidels of the entire world cannot be equal to a single believer.

45. This verse is the commentary of the following verse: "Surely Allah can do everything" (S2:V20) from which we learn that Allah Almighty has the power over the creation of everything and not of acquisition. He is pure of every adverse thing. From this we learn that though Allah Almighty is the creator of all our good and evil things, but the creation of adverse things is not evil.

17.He sent down water [46] from the sky then the channels flow [47] according to its capacity then the flux of water carried with it the swelling foam, and from that over which they kindle [48] a fire for making ornaments or other goods [49] arises foams similar to it. Thus, Allah illustrates [50] truth and falsehood, then the foam is blown [51] up and that which benefits mankind remains in the earth. Thus, Allah illustrates the examples [52].

46. This means from the sky, or due to heavenly causes because evaporation takes place due to the heat of the sun then after condensation clouds are formed which then come down as rain. Otherwise, rain itself does not come down from the sky. Or, it could mean that the foundation of the rain is the oceans, but water in the oceans comes from the sky.

Oceans are the reservoir of water, but the sky is its base or produce. Says Allah Almighty: "And in heavens is your provisions". (S51:V22) It is for this reason that when offering dua hands are raised skywards because the sky is the original treasure of our sustenance, and not because Allah Almighty is seated there. Allah Almighty is free from the restriction of time and space.

47. From this there is a hint that the bestowal and bounties of Allah Almighty are vast but receiving them is according to your own means. "Scanty is my bag for your limitless bestowal". Can a bag fit for two ounces absorb a large quantity?
48. Like the ore of gold, and silver, etc. which had to be heated in the fire to make jewellery or ornaments from them.
49. By wealth is meant other items of use besides the ornaments and jewellery, like utencils, etc.
50. The essence or gist of the example is that falsehood is like that foam which appears in the floods or is on the ore of gold and silver at the time when it is smelted. Truth is like the original ornaments or gold and silver where the foam is on top and the ornaments are below it. However, there is no permanence or continuance for the foam while these things have continuances. By the same token sometimes falsehood prevails over truth for a while because eventually falsehood will be destroyed and truth will become victorious.
51. From this we learn that falsehood has greater noise and agitation but truth has greater power.
52. From this we learn that it will be that those who uphold the truth will not be subjected to hardship - they will most certainly be put to test but in the end victory will be theirs. To achieve this they will require patience.

18.For those who obeyed [53] the commands of their Lord, there is good [54]. And as for those who obeyed not his commands [55]. If they had all that is in the earth, and the more like of it would have been in their possession, then they would have offered it for their ransom [56] . These are those who will have an evil reckoning [57] , and their abode is hell. And what an evil place of rest [58] .

لِلَّذِيْنَ اسْتَجَابُوْا لِرَبِّهِمُ الْحُسْنٰى ؕ وَ
الَّذِيْنَ لَمْ يَسْتَجِيْبُوْا لَهٗ لَوْ اَنَّ لَهُمْ مَّا

لَافْتَدَوْا بِهٖ ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمْ سُوْٓءُ الْحِسَابِ ۙ
وَ مَاْوٰىهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ؕ وَبِئْسَ الْمِهَادُ ﴿۱۸﴾

53. They obeyed the commands by remaining loyal and obedient to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in every respect and every deed. Otherwise Allah Almighty does not just give commands for the straight path to anyone.
54. By good is meant paradise because every type of good is found therein. specially of beholding the blessed Vision of Allah Almighty. The pious Sufis say paradise is dear to a person because it is the place of meeting and beholding the Beloved. From this we learn the inmates of paradise will be its possessors because the preposition LAAM is to denote ownership.
55. In that they did not accept faith.

Here, reference is being made to infidels which is being made clear by the passage that follows. The sinful believer does believe in the commands of Allah Almighty but due to his wretchedness does not act upon them. To reject is one thing, and not acting upon it is another matter.
56. But the believer has paid his ransom in the world. Zakaat, expiation (Kaffarah) sacrifice, (Qurbani), are in reality different of ransans. This too is for the infidels, not for the believers.
57. From this we learn that by the Will of Allah Almighty the reckoning of the believers will be easier. In fact, some will only appear before Allah Almighty and be forgiven, .

Marfat.com

because evil and harsh reckoning will be for the infidels.

58. This tells us that Hell is not the destination of the sinful believers. Even if they are sent therein it will be for a temporary period. Furnace is the destination of the coal, not gold. Thus, is it a temporary stage.

19. Shall he then who knows that what has been sent to you from your Lord is truth be like him who is [59] blind? Only those who have wisdom accept admonition [60].

59. This tells us that those who were unable to recognize the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are blind, even if they had eyes because they did not fulfil the function of the eyes. Even if a believer is physically blind but he possesses vision because his heart is full of light.

60. It should be remembered that intelligence is that which guides us on the correct path, while the intelligent person is that who accepts this guidance. Abu Jahl was foolish but Hazrat Bilal (May Allah be pleased with him) was intelligent.

20. Those who fulfil [61] the covenant of Allah, and turn not after entering in to a covenant.

الَّذِيْنَ يُوْفُوْنَ بِعَهْدِ اللّٰهِ وَ لَا يَنْقُضُوْنَ الْمِيْثَاقَ ۙ﴿۲۰﴾

61. By Covenant of Allah Almighty either means pledge of the Day of the Covenant i.e. the acceptance of the Unity of Allah Almighty and Prophethood, or all those promises from the creation which are linked with Allah Almighty. In this way all the right of your Peer (Religious Guide) parents, husband and wife, etc. would be included in it.

21. And those who join with what Allah has commanded [62] to join and fear [63] their Lord and dread the evil reckoning [64].

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَصِلُوْنَ مَآ اَمَرَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖٓ اَنْ يُّوْصَلَ وَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ وَيَخَافُوْنَ سُوْٓءَ الْحِسَابِ ؕ﴿۲۱﴾

62. Allah Almighty has commanded to establish some relationship and to allienate some. With the Prophet, your Religious Guide and the believers establish relationship of servitude and love. With the infidels allienate relationship of love. In the same way, establish relationship of love with the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم family. Fulfil your family ties with your infidel parents and family members, but do not keep ties of love with them. Thus, this verse is a source of many religious issues.

63. This means after doing good deeds they still have the fear and presence of Allah Almighty in their hearts. They are not arrogant about their good deeds. This does not mean that they fear about his breach of promise, because this type of fear is infidelity.

64. In that before the Day of Judgement they take stock of their deeds before the reckoning of the grave.

22. And those who kept patience for seeking the pleasure [65] of their Lord,

وَ الَّذِيْنَ صَبَرُوا ابْتِغَآءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِمْ وَ

Marfat.com

اَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اَنْفَقُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ سِرًّا وَّعَلَانِيَةً وَّ يَدْرَءُوْنَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ السَّيِّئَةَ اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمْ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ ﴿۲۲﴾ and establish the prayer [66] , and spent out of what We have provided them in our path secretly and openly [67], and drive away evil by means of goodness [68] . For them is the profit of the last abode.

65. This tells us that on mere grounds of helplessness being patient is no virtuous deed, such type of patience is even practised by the infidels. True excellence is to exercise patience to obtain the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty and this is indeed from the special qualities of the believer and it is for this that a person will be rewarded. Forgiving someone despite being in the position of power in order to obtain the pleasure of Allah Almighty is a praiseworthy quality.

66. By establishing Salaah means offered Salaah regularly, punctually and correctly. Greatness does not lie in performing one's Salaah but in establishing it as a Pillar of Faith. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty at every juncture had commanded us to establish Salaah.

67. From this a few issues emerge:

1. Spend a portion of your earnings in Allah Almighty's way. It is not obligatory to spend everything, as is being understood from the preposition "from" i.e. part of .

2. Not only the wealth should be spent but from other things as well as is understood from the general use of "what"

3. One should not be satisfied by spending it once only but one should continue doing this. At another place Allah Almighty says: "And spend in Our path out of Our provided subsistence". (S2:V3)

4. Charity should not always be given secretly or openly, but in both ways - it should be given openly to encourage others, and secretly so that it does not become for show. Obligatory charity should be given openly and voluntary charity should be given secretly.

68. This means that in their personal affairs they give generously at the time of erring, exercise patience at the time of tyranny, and are kind when they are subjected to cruelty. Or they remove their sins through repentance to Allah Almighty and infidelity with faith. They also remove ignorance with knowledge.

جَنّٰتُ عَدْنٍ يَّدْخُلُوْنَهَا وَ مَنْ صَلَحَ مِنْ اٰبَآئِهِمْ وَاَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَ ذُرِّيّٰتِهِمْ وَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ يَدْخُلُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ كُلِّ بَابٍ ﴿۲۳﴾

23. Gardens for habitation in which they will enter, and those who are righteous from among their fathers. And wives and offspring [69] and angels shall enter unto them from every door. Saying; [70]

69. From this there is a hint that the believing parents and relatives of the pious will be of the same status as the pious person so that all can be together. If Allah Almighty wills the blessed parents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم his children, his blessed wives and his true and sincere devotees will remain with him due to his grace and blessings. At another place Allah Almighty says: "And we joined them with their off-spring".(S52:V21)from which one learns that the children of the pious parents will have the same status as them, even if their deeds are not like that of the parents.

70. From this we learn that angels would frequent Paradise, not for reward but to serve the inmates of Paradise. Some angels would remain in paradise permanently, while others will continue to come and go, but this will all be for the purpose of rendering service and not for the sake of reward. Only human beings would go into Paradise for the sake of reward.

Marfat.com

There is no paradise for the jinns or the angels. From this we learn that the places of each inmate of Paradise will have few doors. There will be no privacy or veil from the angels. They will always exchange greetings.

24. Peace be upon you for your patience [71] .' What an excellent last abode you received.

سَلٰمٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِمَا صَبَرْتُمْ فَنِعْمَ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ ﴿٢٤﴾

71. Exercising patience at carrying out all the obligations towards Allah, patience at the time of hardships, patience at the time of cruelty of the people. In short, this includes all types of patience. Thus this verse is not only restricted as a special feature of the martyrs and those oppressed.

25. And those who break [72] the covenant of Allah after confirming it. And cut asunder [73] what Allah has commanded to join, and spread mischief in the earth [74] . Their share is only curse and for them is the evil abode.

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَنْقُضُوْنَ عَهْدَ اللّٰهِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مِيْثَاقِهٖ وَ يَقْطَعُوْنَ مَآ اَمَرَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖٓ اَنْ يُّوْصَلَ وَيُفْسِدُوْنَ فِي الْاَرْضِ ۙ اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمُ اللَّعْنَةُ وَلَهُمْ سُوْٓءُ الدَّارِ ﴿٢٥﴾

72. By their infidelity and idolatory. Thus this verse does not include the sinful believers because he does not reject anything obligatory. He does omit some of the obligations but he expresses regret at this omission.

73. In that they do not obey the Prophets, the Islamic scholars, the Saints of Allah Almighty but worship the idols and the devil. They cut off the ties that should be established, and establish ties that need to be alienated.

74. By committing infidelity and sins, because the punishment on the earth comes as a result of man's excessive sins.

26. Allah increases the provision for whom He wills and also He straitens, and the infidels were strut with the life of the world [75] . And the life of this world is nothing in comparison to the hereafter but a little enjoyment. [76] .

اَللّٰهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَيَقْدِرُ ۭ وَ فَرِحُوْا بِالْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۭ وَ مَا الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ اِلَّا مَتَاعٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ ع ۳ ۸ ۹

75. This tells us expressing joy and arrogance at obtaining material bounties is the way of the infidels while showing joy with gratitude is the way of the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you, only Allah, only His grace and only his mercy, on it therefore let them rejoice". (S10:V58)

76. It should be remembered that the life of the world is that which is spent in worldly activities and which makes us to neglect the remembrance of Allah Almighty. This life is full of evil and is therefore perishable. But that life which is spent for the preparation of the Hereafter is through the grace of Allah Almighty is the life for the hereafter. This is the pure life for which there is no end. Says Allah Almighty: "They are alive". (S2:V154) There is a huge difference between the lives of believers and infidels and between the sinful and the pious. Some people are awake though they may be asleep, while others are asleep even though they might be awake. Some are dead though physically they may be alive and some are alive even though they might be physically dead.

وَ يَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَوْ لَآ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ اٰيَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّهٖ ؕ قُلْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَ يَهْدِيْٓ اِلَيْهِ مَنْ اَنَابَ ﴿۲۷﴾

27. And the infidels say 'why is not a sign from His Lord sent down to him [77] .' Say you , ' Allah leads astray whomsoever He wills, and guides towards Him one who turns to Him.[78]

77. By this is meant why did the miracles requested by us not appear e.g. changing the mountain of Uhud into gold, letting rivers to flow in Makkah Mukarramah, etc, because due to miracles that are demanded Divine punishment comes down, if one does not bring faith at witnessing these.

78. By this is meant faith will not be obtained through the mere seeing of miracles, but through Divine Grace. Otherwise you had seen many miracles yet you did not accept faith. Even if the miracles you had demanded had been shown to you, you will still not obtain faith. But now that you had seen some miracles without accepting faith you would be destroyed. Fatih is not obtained by those who ask for miracles but by those who sincerely turn to Allah Almighty.

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ تَطْمَئِنُّ قُلُوْبُهُمْ بِذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اَلَا بِذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوْبُ ﴿۲۸﴾

28. They are those who have believed and their hearts find satisfaction with the remembrance of Allah [79]. Behold, in the remembrance of Allah alone there is satisfaction of hearts [80].

79. It is possible that by "remembrance of Allah" is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly Allah has sent down for you an honour the Messenger". (S65:Vs10-11) The QUR'AAN further states: "You are but an admonisher". (S88:V21) Thus this would mean the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the source of inner contentment. Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Beloved of Allah Almighty and the origin of creation. Every one found inner contentment through the beloved, and obtains true joy on being with the original.

80. This is either because anxiety is caused by sins while remembrance of Allah Almighty obliterates sins which provides satisfaction to the hearts, or it is because remembrance of Allah Almighty is the remembrance of the country (the heart) therefore its remembrance provides great joy to the one who is on foreign soil. In short the remembrance of Allah Almighty is the satisfaction of the heart of the believer. Just as medicine provides it for the one who is ill, water for the one who is thirsty, bread for the one who is hungry, sun makes night to disappear, the remembrance of Allah Almighty and the discussion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم remove all anxiety and grief from the heart of the believer to obtain inner joy and contentment. The animals too found inner satisfaction through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Although the mentioning of Divine punishment inculcates fear of Allah Almighty in the hearts of the believer, but this fear too is the means of obtaining contentment of the heart, because such hearts are then bereft of fear for worldly people. Hence this verse does not contradict the following verse: "And whose hearts tramble". (S8:V2)

اَلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ طُوْبٰى لَهُمْ وَ حُسْنُ مَاٰبٍ ﴿۲۹﴾

29.Those who believed and performed good deeds for them is the bliss [81] and good end.

Marfat.com

81. They are happy in the world, at the time of death as well as in the Hereafter. Or, the word "bliss" could mean Paradise or the tree of bliss.

كَذٰلِكَ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ فِيْٓ اُمَّةٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ
مِنْ قَبْلِهَآ اُمَمٌ لِّتَتْلُوَا عَلَيْهِمُ الَّذِيْٓ
اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْكَ وَ هُمْ يَكْفُرُوْنَ بِالرَّحْمٰنِ ؕ
قُلْ هُوَ رَبِّيْ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ عَلَيْهِ
تَوَكَّلْتُ وَ اِلَيْهِ مَتَابِ ﴿۳۰﴾

30. Thus we have sent you to a people before whom other people have passed [82] in order that you may recite to them [83] what We have revealed to you, and they are rejecting the Most Affectionate, [84] say you, he is my Lord, none is to be worshipped beside Him. I relied upon Him alone and to Him I returned.

82. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Final Prophet and his followers are the final Ummah because no mention is made of the coming of another Ummah after our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Furthermore, we also learn after the Holy Prophet all other religions are abrogated as understood from the world "have passed".

83. From this we learn that even the recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN is a form of worship so is the Naa't or the praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Also just as the laws of Islam are taken from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , laws and method of recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN too should be taken from him.

84. Reason for its revelation:
On the occasion of the Treaty of Hudaibiya when the terms of treaty were being written it commenced with the entire Bismillah. To this the infidels objected by saying that we do not know who is Rahman, the Most Affectionate. Therefore you should replace this with the precious Bismillah - BI-ISMIKA ALLAHUMMAH. In response to it this verse was revealed.

وَ لَوْ اَنَّ قُرْاٰنًا سُيِّرَتْ بِهِ الْجِبَالُ اَوْ
قُطِّعَتْ بِهِ الْاَرْضُ اَوْ كُلِّمَ بِهِ الْمَوْتٰى ؕ
بَلْ لِّلّٰهِ الْاَمْرُ جَمِيْعًا ؕ اَفَلَمْ يَايْـَٔسِ
الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا اَنْ لَّوْ يَشَآءُ اللّٰهُ لَهَدَى
النَّاسَ جَمِيْعًا ؕ وَ لَا يَزَالُ الَّذِيْنَ
كَفَرُوْا تُصِيْبُهُمْ بِمَا صَنَعُوْا قَارِعَةٌ اَوْ
تَحُلُّ قَرِيْبًا مِّنْ دَارِهِمْ حَتّٰى يَاْتِيَ وَعْدُ
اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُخْلِفُ الْمِيْعَادَ ﴿۳۱﴾ ع ۱۰

31. If there would have come a QUR'AAN by which mountains could be moved or the earth could be cut asunder or the dead could have spoken to. Even then too these infidels [85] would not have believed. But the entire affair is in the authority of Allah. Did then the Muslims not become disappointed with it that if Allah had willed, He would have guided [86] men altogether? And the thump will ever continue to smite [87] the infidels for what they wrought or it will alight near their houses [88] until Allah's promise comes [89]. Verily Allah does not go against His promise.

85. Reason for its Revelation. The infidels of Makkah had said to the Holy Prophet

Marfat.com

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم through the recitation of the QUR'AAN remove the mountains of Makkah, transform the earth into a field for cultivation, let fountains and rivers flow from the ground of Makkah and bring all our forefathers back to life so that they can bear witness to your truth. In response Allah Almighty revealed this verse in which is said even if you were shown these miracles you will still not accept faith. Therefore the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم made fountains to flow from his blessed nails, made stones and animals to recite the Kalimah, split the moon, brought back the sun that had set. Even after seeing these miracles those who did not want to accept faith remained bereft of faith. In it there is a prophesy which became a reality. From this we learn that one does not obtain faith by witnessing a miracle but through the bounty and blessing of Allah Almighty. If this was the case then Abu Jahl would not have remained an infidel.

86. From this two issues emerge:

1. Believers should not hope for the faith of those infidels whose death on infidelity is already decided by Allah Almighty. When such wretches ask for miracles one should not even desire to show them these.

2. The infidelity of the infidel and the heresy of the heretic are in accordance with Divine plan and not according to Divine wishes. There is a great difference between wish, intention and command. Allah Almighty gave a command to sacrifice Hazrat Ismail (on whom be peace) but He neither intended it nor wished for it nor was He pleased by it. Similarly, He had commanded these infidels to believe and He is pleased with their faith, but He neither intended it nor wished for it. Or, the verse could mean Allah Almighty did not desire to cause these infidels to accept faith without their wishes as such guidance is not a means of obtaining rewards. Guidance should be in accordance with the person's own wishes.

87. By 'thump' is meant death, imprisonment, famine, wars amongst themselves which would occur in the midst of Makkah itself, etc.

88. That there should be wars outside the sacred city of Makkah whose effects should be felt by these people.

89. By "Allah's promise" is meant of victory of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم or the Day of Judgement.

32. And surely, the messengers before you were mocked at . Then I let loose the infidels for some days. then I seized them [90] . Then how was my torment?

90. This tells us that to adopt a relaxed attitude at sins is a form of severe punishment. This includes obtaining many bounties in spite of the sins, as these bounties are poison in the form of sweetmeats. May Allah Almighty protect us from this.

33. Is then he who watches every soul with his actions? And yet they ascribe to Allah associates [91]. Say you, ' name them .' or do you inform him of what is not in His knowledge in the entire earth [92] or by the way an empty saying ? Rather their fraud has been made to look good in the eyes of the infidels [93] , and they have been hindered from the way [94]. And he whom Allah leads astray. Has no guide [95].

اَفَمَنْ هُوَ قَآئِمٌ عَلٰى كُلِّ نَفْسٍۭ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ ۚ وَ جَعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ شُرَكَآءَ ؕ قُلْ سَمُّوْهُمْ ؕ اَمْ تُنَبِّـُٔوْنَهٗ بِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُ فِى الْاَرْضِ اَمْ بِظَاهِرٍ مِّنَ الْقَوْلِ ؕ بَلْ زُيِّنَ لِلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مَكْرُهُمْ وَ صُدُّوْا عَنِ السَّبِيْلِ ؕ

وَمَنْ يُّضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ فَمَا لَهٗ مِنْ هَادٍ ﴿٣٣﴾

91. This means how can the idols be like that Lord who is all knowing and Omniscient and these idols are totally ignorant even about themselves. If this is the case then how can these idols be worshipped?

92. To say that there are things of which Allah Almighty is unaware of is fraudulent and false because He is All-Knowing. Hence there is nothing exciting to be associated with Allah Almighty. Here the negation of the necessitated is being made with the negation of the necessary.

93. This means the meaningless idle talk of the infidel leaders was reaching the ears of the infidels as well, like how a bitter thing tastes sweet to the one suffering from yellow fever.

94. They have been hindered from the faith by their baser self, the devil and irreligious friends.

95. By this is meant Allah Almighty cannot give guidance to those whose death on infidelity is within His knowledge, or those in whose hearts evil and false beliefs have been deeply rooted in accordance with their wishes would also be bereft of any guidance. Hence this verse does not necessarily show that man is helpless. Those whom we kill too are given death by Allah Almighty, though we would be guilty of this crime. Similarly, the one who becomes a polytheist by worshipping the idols too is led astray by Allah Almighty, but he is guilty of this act as well.

34. They shall be punished [96] in the life of the world. And verily the torments of the Hereafter is hardest and they have none to defend from Allah. [97]

96. Murder, imprisonment, famine, etc for infidels are Divine punishment but for the believers they are a means of obtaining higher status. General forms of punishment have ceased to come due to the blessings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

97. From this we learn that Allah Almighty will appoint helpers to save the sinful believer, because the absence of any helpers from Divine punishment is for the infidels.

35. The lightness of the heaven which has been promised [98] to the god fearing beneath its streams flow. Its fruits are everlasting [99] and its shade [100]. This is the end of those who fear Allah and the end of the infidels is the fire [101].

مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِيْ وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُوْنَ ؕ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ؕ اُكُلُهَا دَآئِمٌ وَّ ظِلُّهَا ؕ تِلْكَ عُقْبَى الَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا ۖ وَّ عُقْبَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ النَّارُ ﴿٣٥﴾

98. He who gives up polytheism and sin out of fear of Allah Almighty, or gives up polytheism and infidelity is being promised to be rewarded with paradise.

99. By this is meant both the variety and quality as well as the quantity of these fruits will remain constant at all times i.e. as soon as one bunch from it is eaten it would be replaced at once. There are many proofs of this. Today the use of the water of the ocean, the warmth of the sun, knowledge, etc. does not lessen the quantity. Likewise the quantity of those fruits too would not lessen by eating.

100. Its shade too is eternal because in there, there is no sun which can remove the shade.

101. By this is meant Hell, even though some of its layers and categories are cold. Here part denotes all i.e. though fire is just one quality of Hell but here it represents the entire Hell.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰتَيْنٰهُمُ الْكِتٰبَ يَفْرَحُوْنَ بِمَآ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْكَ وَ مِنَ الْاَحْزَابِ مَنْ يُّنْكِرُ بَعْضَهٗ ؕ قُلْ اِنَّمَآ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَعْبُدَ اللّٰهَ وَ لَآ اُشْرِكَ بِهٖ ؕ اِلَيْهِ اَدْعُوْا وَ اِلَيْهِ مَاٰبِ ﴿۳۶﴾

36. And those whom We have given the Book [102] rejoice at what has been sent to you [103]. Some who deny a part thereof [104]. Say you , ' I am only commanded [105] to worship Allah and not to ascribe associates to him. To him I call. And to him is my return.

102. This means those who were given the knowledge of Tauraat and Injeel through the blessings of which they had accepted faith. By this all the people of the Book are not intended, but only blessed and illuminated people like Abdullah ibn Salaam (May Allah be pleased with them) are meant, who were great Jewish scholars and noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

103. From this we learn that to celebrate the blessed birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN is well liked by Allah Almighty. Hence celebrated both the night of Power and night of Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم birth by spending them in the remembrance of Allah Almighty, because the Night of Power is the night of the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN while the night of the blessed birth is the night of the coming of the Possessor of the QUR'AAN. Thus, to celebrate these nights is indeed an act of worship.

104. This means those people of the Book who harbour enmity against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم only accept few injunctions of the QUR'AAN and reject the others. Those injunctions which are suitable to them they accept those and those which are against them they reject these. From this emerge two issues:

1. The infidelity of rejecting one letter of the Holy QUR'AAN is equivalent to rejecting the entire QUR'AAN.2. To use and interpret the QUR'AAN according to ones whims and fancy is an act of infidelity. The correct thing is to design and mould yourself and your thinking in accordance with the teachings of the QUR'AAN.

105. From this there is a hint in the matters of religious laws the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is above everything and everyone else i.e. he is the origin of Shariah, and we are all sub-ordinates to him. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is entrusted with every tenet of Islamic beliefs, even if there is a difference in deeds, because some of the things are obligatory or forbidden for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but not for his followers. For inner details on this refer to the book Jaa-al-Haq.

وَ كَذٰلِكَ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ حُكْمًا عَرَبِيًّا ؕ وَ لَئِنِ اتَّبَعْتَ اَهْوَآءَهُمْ بَعْدَ مَا جَآءَكَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ ۙ مَا لَكَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ وَّلِيٍّ وَّ لَا وَاقٍ ﴿۳۷﴾ ع

37. And thus We have sent it down as a decision in Arabic [106] . And O' listener! If you will follow their desires after what has come to you of knowledge [107], then you shall have no supporter nor defender against Allah.

106. This means just as the previous Prophets were given Books and Scrolls in their own languages, likewise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too was given the Holy QUR'AAN in Arabic as that was his mother tongue. From this we learn that translation of the Holy QUR'AAN is not the actual QUR'AAN. Neither is the recitation of the translation permissible in Salaah, nor is its recitation without Wudhu prohibited.

38. And no doubt, We have sent messengers before you [108] and assigned to them wives and children [109]. And it is not for a messenger to bring any sign, but by Allah's leave [110]. For each promise there is a writing [111].

وَ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ وَ جَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ اَزْوَاجًا وَّذُرِّيَّةً ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ لِرَسُوْلٍ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَ بِاٰيَةٍ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ لِكُلِّ اَجَلٍ كِتَابٌ ﴿۳۸﴾

107. This tells the punishments of a sinful scholar is greater than the sinful ignorant person.

108. Reason for its revelation:
Some infidels had raised an objection that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had been a true Prophet then he would not have entered into marriage, should not raise children and family, should have adopted a life of a recluse. In response to these objections this verse was revealed.

109. In that only Hazrat Yahya and Hazrat Isa (on them be peace) spent life without wife and children. Besides these two all Prophets entered into marriage because marriage is a way of life of the Prophets which is based on the law of nature. Similarly, to keep several wives too is not against Prophetic way of life. Hazrat Dawood (on whom be peace) had ninety nine wives, Hazrat Suliman (on whom be peace) had one thousand wives, yet they were Prophets of Allah Almighty. Some Hindu deites like Krishna and King Jadrat, etc had a number of wives. In fact, Krishna is said to have had one thousand wives.

110. This means all miracles take place through the command and permission of Allah Almighty, although some of these miracles are of personal necessity for the Prophets like handsomeness for Hazrat Yusuf (on whom be peace). However, though some miracles took place through the discretion and control of the Prophets, but these too are effected through the permission of Allah Almighty e.g. the walking stick of Hazrat Musa (on whom be peace) turning into a snake. Whenever Hazrat Musa (on whom be peace) would drop the stick out of his discretion it would through the permission of Allah Almighty change into a snake. In some of the miracles the Prophets had no control over those like the revelation of Quranic verses.

111. This is a reply to that objection of the infidels regarding why there is an abrogation in the verses of Allah Almighty. Thus it is being said that just as there is a fixed period appointed for creational matter like life, death, etc. in the like manner religious laws too have a fixed period. Abrogation is a name given to this period. Thus, there is no inconsistency or objection at this.

39. Allah wipes out what He pleases and establishes (what He pleases) and the real writing is with Him. [112]

يَمْحُوا اللّٰهُ مَا يَشَآءُ وَ يُثْبِتُ ۚۖ وَعِنْدَهٗۤ اُمُّ الْكِتٰبِ ﴿۳۹﴾

112. This tells us that in certain affairs of fate alteration takes place, while in other types no change is possible. Some scholars have said that here those sins of man are intended which would either be forgiven or those which would remain unforgiven, while other scholars are of the opinion that have abrogated and firm verses and laws are meant. In addition, there are some other opinions regarding this as well.

Marfat.com

وَاِنْ مَّا نُرِيَنَّكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِىْ نَعِدُهُمْ اَوْ نَتَوَفَّيَنَّكَ فَاِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلٰغُ وَ عَلَيْنَا الْحِسَابُ ﴿۴۰﴾

40. And if we show you any promise that is made to them or we call you [113] to us before. In any case upon you is only to deliver the message. And on us is the reckoning.

113. This means those punishments of the infidels which had been prophecised by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم some would appear during his earthly life, like their defeat in the battles of Badr and Hunain, while some would after his earthly life. Although after his earthly life the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said this world is fully visible to him, but the nature of this seeing is different to the seeing of his worldly life. Hence, here death is contrasted with inspection. Thus this verse cannot be used as proof that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم cannot see. Observe every musallee until the Day of Judgement would be extending Salaam to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his Salaah, though it is forbidden to extend Salaam - greeting to the one who cannot hear.

اَوَ لَمْ يَرَوْا اَنَّا نَاْتِى الْاَرْضَ نَنْقُصُهَا مِنْ اَطْرَافِهَا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَحْكُمُ لَا مُعَقِّبَ لِحُكْمِهٖ ؕ وَ هُوَ سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿۴۱﴾

41. Do they not see that we are coming, diminishing their population [114] from all sides. And Allah commands. There is none to put back [115] His command, and He is swift in reckoning [116].

114. In that the Islamic soldiers are capturing the territories of the infidel with ease through which the boundaries of the infidel are decreasing and Islamic boundaries were expanding. This verse is revealed in Madina, though Surah Ra'ad is Makkan, because there is no mention of holy war in Makkan verses. The meaning of this verse is that gradually all your territories will be conquered by the Muslims. Exactly the same took place.

115. Here the command denotes creational command over which man has no control or authority, like life and death.

116. Thus just half a day will be needed for entire creation to give their full reckoning on the Day of Judgement as is reported in the Hadith Shareef (Tafseer Jalalain). The remainder of this day would be spent in search of the Intercessor and the singing of praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.Says Allah Almight: "It is near may make you stand at a place where all should praise you". (S17:V79)

وَقَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَلِلّٰهِ الْمَكْرُ جَمِيْعًا ؕ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْسِبُ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ؕ وَسَيَعْلَمُ الْكُفّٰرُ لِمَنْ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ ﴿۴۲﴾

42. And those before them have already plotted [117], but their entire secret plans belong to Allah [118]. He knows what every soul earns. And the infidels are soon to know, who gets the last abode. [119]

117. Like the Aad, Thamood, etc who had made plans to kill their prophets. In it the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is being comforted that just as the cruel manner in which your people are dealing with you the people of the previous prophets dealt the same way with them.

118. Hence without His wishes no one can cause any harm to anyone. Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم be completely at ease, as they will not cause any harm to you.

119. Either they will come to know of it in this world, after seeing Muslim victories, or at the time of death, or after being in the grave or on the Day of Judgement because every coming thing is near. For this reason "He knows" is being used meaning soon they will know. In the last condition all the infidels are intended, while on the first condition only the infidels of Makkah are intended.

43. And the infidels say , you are not a messenger. Say you, 'Allah is sufficient [120] as witness between you and me, and he who has knowledge of the book.' [121]

وَيَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَسْتَ مُرْسَلًا ؕ
قُلْ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ شَهِيْدًا بَيْنِىْ وَبَيْنَكُمْ ۙ
وَمَنْ عِنْدَهٗ عِلْمُ الْكِتٰبِ ﴿۴۳﴾ ع ۱۲

120. From this emerge two issues:
1. Allah Almighty is the Witness over the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the witness of the Oneness of Allah Almighty. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم dispels all doubts and objections about Allah Almighty, and Allah Almighty removes all objections and criticisms levelled against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Allah Almighty's testimony is the miracles, the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN and the obedience of the creation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
2. Anyone who rejects the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, and refuses to accept in the finality of his Prophethood, or who does not regard the Religion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as non-abrogatory, he is an infidel.

121. From this one can understand the excellence of education as Allah Almighty has included the testimony of the scholars with His. Here all the scholars of the Christians and the Jews are intended who had described and testified that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the true Prophet of Allah Almighty.

SURAH IBRAHIM

(MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

7 Sections , 52 Verses 861 Words 3434 Letters

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

1.Alif-Laam, Raa, this is a book that we have sent to so that you may bring the people from darkness to light [2]. By the command of their lord towards the path of the Honourable, Praise-Worthy [3].

الٓرٰ ۚ كِتٰبٌ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ اِلَيْكَ لِتُخْرِجَ النَّاسَ مِنَ الظُّلُمٰتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ ۙ بِاِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ اِلٰى صِرَاطِ الْعَزِيْزِ الْحَمِيْدِ ۙ﴿۱﴾

2. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by the will of Allah Almighty takes people away from darkness and infidelity and brings them towards light and faith. No person can obtain guidance merely from the Holy QUR'AAN without the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

3. From this verse emerge a few issues:

1. The Holy QUR'AAN has come to remove people from darkness, not the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who is Light from inception. He was the worshipper, a devotee of Allah Almighty and a personification of piety before the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN.

2. Even after the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN we are still dependent on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The Holy QUR'AAN is the seed and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the merciful rain. Just as the seed after being sown in the ground is dependent on the rain, we are likewise dependent on the blessed attention of the Holy Prophet after hearing and learning the Holy QUR'AAN. Many people had received guidance from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like Hazrat Waraqa ibn Naufal, Baheera the Priest, etc. or those infidels who had become Muslims at the hands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in the midst of a battle and died in it as martyrs. They had neither heard the Holy QUR'AAN nor did they do any good deed. Their only good deed was establishing one blessed contact with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . No one has obtained guidance only from the QUR'AAN without the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Observe, the magicians became believers, Companions, martyrs, men of patience, etc. only through the medium of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) without the Tauraat.

3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the guide of all mankind until the Day of Judgement. Whenever, and whoever will obtain guidance and the Light, it will be through his medium and blessing, because Allah Almighty has used 'mankind' here without any restriction.

4. The announcement of Apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fundamentally for mankind. The other creation like jinns, etc. are sub-ordinate to man. Hence, mention here is made of man. But this does not necessarily mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not remove the jinns, etc. from darkness and obscurity.

اللّٰهِ الَّذِیْ لَهٗ مَا فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِی الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَ وَیْلٌ لِّلْكٰفِرِیْنَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ شَدِیْدِ ۙ۝۲

2.Allah, to whom belongs whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth [4] and there is misery for the infidels from a severe torment.

4. This entire creation of Allah Almighty in reality is His possession, though outwardly some of His servants too have ownership of it.

الَّذِیْنَ یَسْتَحِبُّوْنَ الْحَیٰوةَ الدُّنْیَا عَلَى الْاٰخِرَةِ وَ یَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِیْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ یَبْغُوْنَهَا عِوَجًا ؕ اُولٰٓئِكَ فِیْ ضَلٰلٍۢ بَعِیْدٍ ۝۳

3.Those who love the worldly life more than the life of the hereafter [5] and bar from the path of Allah and desire crookedness [6] therein, they are in far off error [7].

5. The infidels of Arabia remained bereft of Islam because they had feared of losing their revenue and property. Thus this verse appropriately fits the infidels.
6. By engaging the people in wrong activities, or they desire to bring about perversity in Islam.

From this verse those scholars should take a lesson who are initiating new sects in Islam by portraying themselves as religious scholars.
7. This means because these people are themselves heretics, they mislead others, their punishment too is going to be very severe.

وَ مَاۤ اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ رَّسُوْلٍ اِلَّا بِلِسَانِ قَوْمِهٖ لِیُبَیِّنَ لَهُمْ ؕ فَیُضِلُّ اللّٰهُ مَنْ یَّشَآءُ وَ یَهْدِیْ مَنْ یَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ هُوَ الْعَزِیْزُ الْحَكِیْمُ ۝۴

4. And, We have sent messengers in the language of his own people [8] that he may tell them clearly [9]. Then Allah leads astray whomsoever He will and guides whomsoever He will, and He is the Honourable, the Wise.

8. In this there is a hint that Allah Almighty had taught every language to our Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because every prophet knows the language of the people to whom he is sent. Since every nation is the follower of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم therefore every nation is one to whom the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was sent as prophet and as such he understands the language of all of them. From the Hadith it is understood that camels, bucks, birds, sticks, etc. would talk to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم whose language he understood. Why should this not be so as our Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم has more knowledge than all the Prophets. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was taught every language, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was taught the language of the birds, which is proven from the Holy QUR'AAN.
9. To their own people they taught directly, while to the others they taught them through the interpretation of the scholars. Thus, today the Islamic scholars are doing propagation work throughtout the world. This indeed is the propagation of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم .

وَ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا مُوْسٰى بِاٰیٰتِنَاۤ اَنْ

5. And, We sent Musa with Our signs, that 'bring your people from

Marfat.com

اَخْرِجْ قَوْمَكَ مِنَ الظُّلُمٰتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ ۙ۬ وَ ذَكِّرْهُمْ بِاَيّٰىمِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُوْرٍ ۝۵

the darkness into the light [10], and remind them of the day of Allah [11]. No doubt, in it there are signs for those who are steadfast and thankful [12].

2. Those days which establish links with the pious and beloved servants of Allah Almighty become the days of Almighty Allah. Here, these days could be the days on which Divine punishment came down upon the Aad and Thamood; or the days on which Israelites were bestowed with manna and quails, or the day on which the Pharoah was drowned. The next verse gives strength to this explanation.

10. This tells us that the Prophets take the people out of religious obscurity and darkness and bring them on the path of faith and light. By expressing darkness in the plural from, it tells us that taking a person out of infidelity, heresy, evil deeds, and all forms of irreligiousness is indeed the function of the Prophets alone, as nothing can be achieved without their assistance.

11. From this a few issues emerge:

1. It is praiseworthy to have the lectures of Islamic scholars on the occasions of Meelad, the Night of Ascension (ME'RAJ) and the Night of Power (LAILATUL QADR) as these lectures make the audience aware of the special days of Allah Almighty.

12. By this is meant the days on which Divine punishment descended upon the infidels, and the days on which bounties and blessing were bestowed upon the holy men, are the symbols of Allah Almighty, but these are for those who exercise patience and express gratitude.

وَ اِذْ قَالَ مُوْسٰى لِقَوْمِهِ اذْكُرُوْا نِعْمَةَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ اِذْ اَنْجٰىكُمْ مِّنْ اٰلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُوْمُوْنَكُمْ سُوْٓءَ الْعَذَابِ وَ يُذَبِّحُوْنَ اَبْنَآءَكُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيُوْنَ نِسَآءَكُمْ ؕ وَ فِيْ ذٰلِكُمْ بَلَآءٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ عَظِيْمٌ ۝۶

6. And when Musa said to his people, 'remember Allah's favour upon you [13], when he delivered you from Firaon's people who used to afflict you [14] worstly, and slaughter your sons and let you daughters live, and in it there was shown great mercy of your Lord [15].

13. This remembrance could also be to publicise and remember these incidents, or when these days come engage in greater worship of Allah Almighty. Thus, the Jews would observe fast on the day of Ashurah because the Pharaoh was drowned on this day. As a mark of remembrance, fasting on this day was previously obligatory in Islam as well. Now, it is Sunnat. This tells us that to celebrate days associated with the pious servants of Allah Almighty, and to observe historical days in the worship of Allah Almighty is the way of the Prophets.

14. The oppression of the Pharoah is described as torment in the literal sense i.e. severe hardship, or in a technical sense i.e. the punishment for the cruelties and evil doings of the Israelites given by Allah Almighty. From this we learn that appointment of cruel and oppresive rulers over the Muslims is Allah Almighty's worldly punishment for us and the end result of our evil doings. Similarly, appointment of good and just rulers is Allah Almighty's mercy and the end result of our good deeds.

15. By this is meant that giving this salvation is a great bounty. From this we learn that the destruction of the infidels and tyrants and their death is a mercy of Allah Almighty just as the death of the pious scholars of Islam is a great blow to us. It is a good thing to express joy at the death of oppressors.

SECTION 2

وَاِذْ تَاَذَّنَ رَبُّكُمْ لَئِنْ شَكَرْتُمْ لَاَزِيْدَنَّكُمْ وَلَئِنْ كَفَرْتُمْ اِنَّ عَذَابِيْ لَشَدِيْدٌ ۝٧

7. And remember, when your Lord proclaimed, 'if you will be grateful, then I shall give you more [16],and if you are thankless, then my torment is severe.'

16. From this we learn that we should express gratitude at obtaining every bounty and blessing. Since these bounties are varied, their expression of gratitude should also be of different forms. The infidels express gratitude through sinful means, the Muslims do this through worship of Allah Almighty. Observe what happens during Holi and Diwali and how Muslims celebrate the two Eids. We further learn that gratitude increases the bounty while Allah Almighty is obtained through patience. Thus patience is a superior virtue to gratitude.

وَقَالَ مُوْسٰٓى اِنْ تَكْفُرُوْٓا اَنْتُمْ وَمَنْ فِي الْاَرْضِ جَمِيْعًا ۙ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَغَنِيٌّ حَمِيْدٌ ۝٨

8. Musa said, 'if you and all others in the earth [17] become disbelievers, then verily Allah is Self-Sufficient, Praiseworthy.

17. By this is meant jinns and man. The blessed Prophets are excluded from these because their infidelity is impossible. Or this impossibility is made obligatory like "If you associate other gods with Allah, then surely all your actions shall go in vain" (S39:V65). The gist of the matter is that Allah Almighty is totally without want of your worship. By worshipping Him is beneficial to you just as His disobedience is harmful to you.

9. Have you not received the tidings of those were before you [18], the people of Nuh and Aad, and the Thamud and those after them [19]? They are known to Allah [20] alone. There came to them their messengers with bright proof [21], but they turned their hands to their mouths [22] and said, 'we deny that with which you have been sent, you call us, concerning that we are in doubt creating suspense [23].

18. This means they have already come either in the Tauraat, or through those who had knowledge of history or those who had frequented the ruined places of these people. From this we learn that historical information is reliable, if it does not contradict categorical the Qur'anic statements. Similarly fame of any incident is a proof of its reliability.

19. Like the people of Ibrahim, Shuaib and Lut (On them be peace).

20. From this emerge a few issues:

1. We have not obtained detailed knowledge about all the Prophets and their people. Thus, we should have abridged or synoptic belief about them i.e. all the Prophets of Allah Almighty are true.

2. No person should describe his geneology upto Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), because he does not have detailed knowledge of it.

3. The geneology of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has been ascertained upto Adnaan, beyond this it is not certain. Adnaan lived during the period of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). It is from him that the link between Arab-Adnaan is known.

4. Allah Almighty had given His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم detailed knowledge about the previous Prophets and their people. On the night of Me'raj the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had met all the Prophets and all the Prophets offered their Salaah behind him. Says Allah Almighty:

10. Their messengers said, 'is there any doubt in Allah [24], the maker of the heavens and earth [25]? He calls you that he may forgive some of your sins [26] and may fulfill your life till the stated time of your death without punishment. They said, 'you are human being like us [27]. You desire to bar us from that our fathers used to worship [28]; so bring us clear authority [29].

"The Knower of the Unseen reveals not His secret to anyone" (S72:V26).

21. Although Allah Almighty had blessed all the Prophets with miracles, but since we do not have detailed knowledge about all the Prophets, how will we have detailed knowledge about their miracles? It is sufficient to know that no Prophet had come without a miracle. In a like manner revelation in respect of propagation had come to each Prophet.

22. This is used to express astonishment or anger. Or it could mean they placed their hands on the blessed mouths of the Prophets to prevent them from preaching, i.e. they should refrain from conveying the message of Allah Almighty. The first interpretation has greater strength because it is reported by Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas and Hazrat Abdullah ibn Masood (May Allah be pleased with them)

23. This means they were babbling that we are certain of you being false (Allah Forbid). We are also doubtful about Tauheed (Unity of Allah) and Faith being true. Infidelity and rejection is of one thing and doubt is of another thing. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

قَالَتْ رُسُلُهُمْ اَفِي اللّٰهِ شَكٌّ فَاطِرِ
السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ يَدْعُوْكُمْ
لِيَغْفِرَلَكُمْ مِّنْ ذُنُوْبِكُمْ وَ يُؤَخِّرَكُمْ اِلٰٓى
اَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ؕ قَالُوْٓا اِنْ اَنْتُمْ اِلَّا بَشَرٌ
مِّثْلُنَا ؕ تُرِيْدُوْنَ اَنْ تَصُدُّوْنَا عَمَّا كَانَ
يَعْبُدُ اٰبَآؤُنَا فَاْتُوْنَا بِسُلْطٰنٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ⑩

24. From this we learn that to have a doubt in the Prophet is equal to having doubt in Allah Almighty, just as believing in the Prophet is believing in Allah Almighty. Here the infidels had doubted the Prophet which has been declared here as doubting Allah Almighty, because the Prophets are the reflective phenomenon of Allah Almighty. For physical care Allah Almighty has created diets and medicines and for spiritual development He had sent laws of the Holy QUR'AAN and Islam through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed rejection of the Providential power of Allah Almighty.

25. This tells us that the call of the Prophet is indeed the call of Allah Almighty, because these people were not called to the Straight Path by Allah Almighty, but this was done by their Prophets, but here it is said Allah Almighty is calling them. Therefore obedience to the Prophet is equal to obedience to Allah Almighty.

26. By this is meant Allah Almighty would forgive some of the sins of the period of infidelity due to the blessings of Islam. The reason for saying some of the sins is that infringement of human rights do not receive pardon until such time that the person wronged does not forgive the wrongdoer.

27. The root of infidelity is to regard the Prophet like himself. The devil became an infidel due to this belief. Many nations, too have been destroyed due to this. Until one does not have the honour and greatness of the Prophet in one's heart, one will not be able to establish the gravity of one's faith.

28. Such obedience of one's forefathers is forbidden which is in opposition to the laws of Islam and commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , while obedience to the luminaries of Islam is part of religion. Says Allah Almighty: "And be with the truthful" (S9:V119). Not only that, but the correct identification of the True Path is the Path of the pious servants of Allah Almighty.

29. This means those miracles which you had shown are of no value as they had failed to convince us. Therefore, show us those miracles which are demanded by us.

11. Their messenger said to them, 'We are indeed human beings like yourselves [30], but Allah bestows his favour [31] on whomsoever he will of his bondsmen. And it is not for us to bring you any authority but by the command of Allah. And upon Allah [32] alone the Muslims should rely [33].

قَالَتْ لَهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ اِنْ نَّحْنُ اِلَّا بَشَرٌ
مِّثْلُكُمْ وَ لٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَمُنُّ عَلٰى مَنْ يَّشَآءُ
مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ ؕ وَمَا كَانَ لَنَآ اَنْ نَّاْتِيَكُمْ
بِسُلْطٰنٍ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ
فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ⑪

30. If these words are uttered by infidels, it would be infidelity, but if uttered by a Prophet it will reveal his excellence. It should be remembered that a prophet was called a human either by Allah almighty, or the Prophet himself, or by the infidels. Besides these three no one has called the prophet a human being. Now, if anyone calls them a human being he is neither Allah Almighty nor a Prophet. Therefore he is certainly a faithless infidel. Says Allah Almighty: "Shall a human being guide us? So they disbelieved" (S64:V6).

31. This means though you had seen my outer image, you did not see my inner qualities and the grace of Allah Almighty. This tells us that it is indeed a different gaze of the Prophet which tranforms a human into a Companion of the Prophet.

32. Either this command comes all the time, or it is given once. Thereafter they continue to show miracles out of their own control and discretion. These have thus been given permission so that they continue to use their limbs out of their own control Therefore, although their every motion and movement is through the command of Allah Almighty, our own control too has some access to it. Thus this does not in any way prove that Prophets are totally without control in matters of miracles. Observe, whenever Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) would cast the stick it would turn into a snake and he did not seek Divine permission each time to do this. Hazrat Yusuf's (On whom be peace) dazzling beauty was his miracle which was with him all the time. Thus the purpose of this verse is to intimate that "Oh people, the miracles that you are demanding from us have not been given to us, and we do not reveal any miracles without Divine grant".Hence there is no misconception about the verse.

33. This meant "I am not least concerned about your opposition, because since my believing servants have placed trust in Allah Almighty, then I am a Prophet who has greater trust in Allah Almighty". From this we learn that Mirza Qadyani was not a prophet and could not even perform his Hajj out of fear for the people. He never went to Kabul to propagate his faith because of his fear for the Pathans. All these are against the concept of Trust in Allah Almighty.

12. And what happened to us that we should not rely upon Allah, He has showed us our ways. And we shall surely bear patiently that with which you are annoying us. And let the trustful put their trust in Allah alone [34].

34. Here the word 'Tawakkul' means to remain firm in trust. It is stated in Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan that the true nature of Tawakkul is to engage the body in constant devotion and service, to connect the heart constantly with Allah our Lord, to express gratitude on receiving bounties and exercise patience at the time of misfortune. He who is endowed with these fine qualities is a man of Trust.

SECTION: 3

13. And the infidels said to the messengers, 'We shall surely turn you out of our lands, or you return [35] to our religion.' Then their lord reveled to them' We shall surely destroy the unjust.'

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لِرُسُلِهِمْ لَنُخْرِجَنَّكُمْ مِّنْ اَرْضِنَآ اَوْ لَتَعُوْدُنَّ فِيْ مِلَّتِنَا ؕ فَاَوْحٰۤى اِلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ لَنُهْلِكَنَّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۳﴾ۙ

35. It should be remembered that the word "OOD" means to come back and not to go back because since the blessed Prophets were never on the religion of the polytheists in what way would they come back from it. Also, it is total infidelity on the part of these non-believers to tell those blessed Prophets that they regard this territory as their land from which they would expel them. Land belongs to Allah Almighty and His Prophets. From this we learn that to instil a desire for infidelity in anyone is an act of infidelity. If any person creates in a woman an inclination toward infidelity for the purpose of breaking her marriage, he himself would become an infidel, and his own marriage will become nullified due to his infidelity.

14. And we shall surely make you settle in the land [36] after them. This is for him who fears standing before Me [37], and be afraid of the torment I have commanded.

وَ لَنُسْكِنَنَّكُمُ الْاَرْضَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهِمْ ؕ ذٰلِكَ لِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامِيْ وَ خَافَ وَعِيْدِ ﴿۱۴﴾

36. It is reported in the Hadith Shareef that he who causes discomfort to his neighbour, Allah Almighty would make this oppressed person the owner of the oppresor's home. It should be remembered that any land on which Divine punishment descends, becomes forbidden for the believers to reside in. Thus, the meaning of the verse is not to show that the land on which Divine punishment would be descending would be given for your dwelling.

37. This means to destroy the infidels and make the believers masters of their territory.

This was not restricted only to the followers of these Prophets, but this principle should continue until the Day of Judgement. Whereby the evil doers should be destroyed and the pious people should be put as owners in their place.

وَاسْتَفْتَحُوْا وَخَابَ كُلُّ جَبَّارٍ عَنِيْدٍ ﴿١٥﴾

15. And they asked [38] for a decision, and every tyrant obstinate was disappointed.

38. This means when the Prophets asked for victory and help from Allah Almighty, or that when their followers implored Allah Almighty for help through the medium of these Prophets, Allah Almighty always blessed the believers with victory and destroyed the infidels.

مِّنْ وَّرَآئِهٖ جَهَنَّمُ وَيُسْقٰى مِنْ مَّآءٍ صَدِيْدٍ ﴿١٦﴾

16. The hell ran after him [39] and he shall be made to drink water of oozing pus [40].

39. That immediately after death they would be plunged into punishment, and after the Day of Judgement they would enter Hell. It should be remembered that the infidels in the graves would receive the torment of Hell, by opening its window in the grave through which its heat and stinking odour would emanate. On the other hand, the punishment of the grave for the sinful Muslims would be in the form of fear of the grave, its darkness and narrowness, but not the torment of Hell.

40. This means they would be drinking the blood and pus of other inmates of Hell which would be their water. This would be the condition of the infidel leaders who had led others astray.

يَّتَجَرَّعُهٗ وَلَا يَكَادُ يُسِيْغُهٗ وَيَاْتِيْهِ الْمَوْتُ مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ وَّمَا هُوَ بِمَيِّتٍ ؕ وَمِنْ وَّرَآئِهٖ عَذَابٌ غَلِيْظٌ ﴿١٧﴾

17. He will take its draught little by little with difficulty and there shall be no hope to swallow it, and death shall come to him from all sides, but he shall not die [41]:And there is a terrible torment after him.

41. This means although death will seep into every fibre of the body of the inmate of Hell, he will not be able to die. From this we learn that Hell is eternal and that there is no salvation for the infidels of Hell from its punishment. He who rejects this is, in fact, rejecting this verse.

مَثَلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِرَبِّهِمْ اَعْمَالُهُمْ كَرَمَادِ ِۨاشْتَدَّتْ بِهِ الرِّيْحُ فِيْ يَوْمٍ عَاصِفٍ ؕ لَا يَقْدِرُوْنَ مِمَّا كَسَبُوْا عَلٰى شَيْءٍ ؕ ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلٰلُ الْبَعِيْدُ ﴿١٨﴾

18. The condition of the rejecters of their lord is such that their deeds are like ashes [42] upon which a strong blast of wind came in a day of storm. They got nothing [43] out of entire earning. This is the far off straying [44].

42. Here the deeds of the infidels denote those actions of theirs which they had .

Marfat.com

considered to be good deeds, like helping the poor and needy, digging wells, providing water points, guest houses for travellers, etc. However, they denote Fasting and Salaah, as they had not performed these.

43. Because good deeds is the water, but sound beliefs are the root. To water anything after its root is cut off will not prove beneficial.

44. By this is meant that type of apostasy which keeps you away from virtue i.e. no matter how much good is done it would not be rewardable. A structure will collapse on a weak ground while good deeds are destroyed through weak beliefs.

19. Did you not see that Allah has made the heavens and the earth with the [45] truths? If He pleases He can take you away and bring forth a new creation.

45. Address here is made to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and truth is weighed against things useless i.e. "Oh My Beloved you have seen that Allah Almighty has placed numerous wisdoms and devices between the heavens and the earth. But He has not created any useless thing from these". From this emerge two issues:

1. The Noor (Light) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was created before any creation, and that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had seen the creation of everything.

2. That the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of these devices between the heavens and the earth and their effects of which even the scientists to date have no knowledge.

20. And this is not at all, hard for Allah [46].

46. The infidels are addressed herein, and all of which take place as described i.e. Abu Jahl and other staunch enemies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were destroyed and Muslims resided in Makkah. When these leaders showed pride, Allah Almighty chose the poor of Madina to serve His Religion.

21. They all shall appear before Allah, then those who were weak will say to those proud, 'we were under you, can it be possible for you to put off [47] some of the torment of Allah from us?' They will say, 'if Allah had guided us, we would have guided you [48]. It is alike to us whether we show impatience or remain patient; nowhere is asylum for us [49].

وَبَرَزُوْا لِلّٰهِ جَمِيْعًا فَقَالَ الضُّعَفٰٓؤُا لِلَّذِيْنَ اسْتَكْبَرُوْٓا اِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ اَنْتُمْ مُّغْنُوْنَ عَنَّا مِنْ عَذَابِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ؕ قَالُوْا لَوْ هَدٰىنَا اللّٰهُ لَهَدَيْنٰكُمْ ؕ سَوَآءٌ عَلَيْنَآ اَجَزِعْنَآ اَمْ صَبَرْنَا مَا لَنَا مِنْ مَّحِيْصٍ ﴿۲۱﴾ ع

47. From this emerge two issues:

1. The infidels would be able to recognize one another, and would remember the affairs of the world, that we were obeying such and such infidels in these matters.

2. That the pious believers would, through the permission of Allah Almighty, remove the calamities of their followers through intercession. Seeing this, the infidels would appeal to their leaders to relieve them of their calamities like how the sinful Muslims have been relieved of their misfortune through the intercession of the pious. At that point in time their leaders would give them the reply which is described later. In any case, the discussion here is concerning the infidels and to apply this verse to the believers is the height of heresy and ignorance.

48. This speech of theirs too reveals disrespect because they had linked heresy to Allah Almighty. Thus, this verse has made it crystal clear that this discussion is that of heretics and infidels and not of the Prophets and Friends of Allah Almighty and not the discussion of Prophets and Friends of Allah Almighty with their devotees, as is interpreted by present day ignorant Wahabis.

49. This means that exercising patience at the worldly calamities and misfortune had been a means of obtaining great rewards, but now they should exercise patience by staying in Hell. It could also mean impatience. Now there is no way of obtaining salvation because the world was a place of action and the Hereafter is a place of reward/punishment.

وَ قَالَ الشَّيْطٰنُ لَمَّا قُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَعَدَكُمْ وَعْدَ الْحَقِّ وَوَعَدْتُّكُمْ فَاَخْلَفْتُكُمْ ؕ وَمَا كَانَ لِيَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّنْ سُلْطٰنٍ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ دَعَوْتُكُمْ فَاسْتَجَبْتُمْ لِيْ ۚ فَلَا تَلُوْمُوْنِيْ وَلُوْمُوْۤا اَنْفُسَكُمْ ؕ مَاۤ اَنَا بِمُصْرِخِكُمْ وَ مَاۤ اَنْتُمْ بِمُصْرِخِيَّ ؕ اِنِّيْ كَفَرْتُ بِمَاۤ اَشْرَكْتُمُوْنِ مِنْ قَبْلُ ؕ اِنَّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۲﴾

22. And the Shaitaan will say [50] when the matter would have been decided, 'verily Allah has given you a true promise, and whatever I promised you [51]. I made it false to you, and I had no authority over you [52], but that I called you, and then you responded to me, so then put no blame upon me [53], put the blame upon yourselves. 'Neither I could help you nor you could help me. I am strongly disgusted [54] with that you associated me with Allah before. No doubt, there is a painful torment for the unjust [55].

50. And the infidels would be in Hell, censuring and showing their disgust at the Devil and telling him that you had brought us here. What you had promised us and what has taken place! This tells us that the devil would be punished in Hell, the infidels would be meeting him and would be able to identify him. It is apparent that by devil here is meant Iblees.

51. Shaitaan had been promising them through his agents, the leaders of the infidels, that there is no resurrection after death; there is no reward or punishment; idolatory is an excellent practice etc. This tells us that the words of these leaders was indeed the underhand words of Shaitaan who has declared the promises of these leaders as his promise. Otherwise, Shaitaan had not really made promise to anyone.

52. By 'no authority' means I had proofs to substantiate my promises, nor was I able to exercise any force on you. Here authority does not mean true authority which the true servants of Allah Almighty had been required to negate. "Verily over My bondsmen you have no control" (S15:V42) where able to mislead is meant.

53. Inspite of this you still followed me. Allah Almighty had instructed you not to fall prey to the guiles of Shaitaan, yet you disobeyed this Divine command and followed me. In truth, are you not at fault?

54. From this we learn that Shaitaan causes people to practise idolatory but he himself never practises this idolatory or polytheism. He is a staunch monotheist, so staunch that even at Allah's command he refused to make Prostration of respect to Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), because to him this prostr-ation smacked of polytheism. Furthermore, acceptance of everything about faith after rejecting the Prophet is no faith at all. Shaitaan had accepted the Divine Personality and Qualities of Allah Almighty, as well as Paradise, Hell, Doomsday, etc.yet he remained

23. And those who believed and did good deeds shall be made to enter gardens, beneath which flow rivers abiding there in with the command of their lord. Their greeting at that time of their meeting is 'peace' [56].

56. From this we learn that the Muslim greeting of Salaam will be practised in Paradise as well. The angels would extend the same greeting to the inmates of Paradise, and the inmates of Paradise too would be greeting one another in this way. This greeting originated

24. Did you not see that how Allah has explained the example of the holy words [57] like a clean tree whose root is firmly standing and branches are in the heaven [58].

57. Here the holy word signifies word of Unity of Allah, as well as all righteous words like the Holy QUR'AAN, glorification of Allah, praises of Allah Almighty, (HAMD) praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم (NA'AT) propagation of religion, etc.are all included in it. When these take root in the heart they will not go out of it.

25. It gives its fruit at all times by the command of its lord [59] and Allah explains examples for the people so that they may understand.

59. It is Kalimah Tayyibah which provides good deeds in ones life, good end at an infidel. This is due to his rejection of the Prophet of Allah. The basis of Faith is the belief regarding prophethood. Thus, after the questions on Unity of Allah Almighty and Religion, identification of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the deciding issue in the grave.

55. Because they will have no helpers there, and those in whom they had placed their hopes would give them such rude replies. But Allah Almighty would appoint many helpers for the believers.

وَ اُدۡخِلَ الَّذِیۡنَ اٰمَنُوۡا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ جَنّٰتٍ تَجۡرِیۡ مِنۡ تَحۡتِهَا الۡاَنۡهٰرُ خٰلِدِیۡنَ فِیۡهَا بِاِذۡنِ رَبِّهِمۡ ؕ تَحِیَّتُهُمۡ فِیۡهَا سَلٰمٌ ﴿۲۳﴾ from Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). When he saw the NOOR E MUHAMMADI in the nails of his thumbs, he extended this greeting to it, Allah Almighty gave the reply on behalf of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

اَلَمۡ تَرَ کَیۡفَ ضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ مَثَلًا کَلِمَةً طَیِّبَةً کَشَجَرَةٍ طَیِّبَةٍ اَصۡلُهَا ثَابِتٌ وَّ فَرۡعُهَا فِی السَّمَآءِ ﴿۲۴﴾

58. Just as the roots of strong trees are spread in the ground and the branches grow upwards, the righteous and holy word (KALIMAH TAYYIBAH) is ever present in the heart and its branches are spread in every limb of the body. It is this Kalima that stops the eyes, the ears, the nose, etc. from all forms of evil.

تُؤۡتِیۡۤ اُکُلَهَا کُلَّ حِیۡنٍۭ بِاِذۡنِ رَبِّهَا ؕ وَیَضۡرِبُ اللّٰهُ الۡاَمۡثَالَ لِلنَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمۡ یَتَذَکَّرُوۡنَ ﴿۲۵﴾ the time of death, removes fear in the grave, and success with the reckoning on the Day of

Marfat.com

Judgement. May Allah Almighty bless us with a good end.

26. And the example of evil word is like an evil tree uprooted [60] from the earth, now it has no stability [61].

وَمَثَلُ كَلِمَةٍ خَبِيْثَةٍ كَشَجَرَةٍ خَبِيْثَةِ ِ اجْتُثَّتْ مِنْ فَوْقِ الْاَرْضِ مَالَهَا مِنْ قَرَارٍ ﴿٢٦﴾

60. The evil word is like ruination, stinking trees like garlic, teak, etc. which neither have roots underground nor branches on top. They remain on the surface and are quickly uprooted. A faithless person does not stand firm on one word: he is fickle and inconsistent.

61. Rejection of Allah Almighty, insulting the dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم etc. Due to this an infidel forgets his religion at the time of death already, so that even in the grave he is unable to state what his religion was. He continues to babble such negative nonsense.

27. Allah keeps firm the believers on the right word in the life of the world and the Hereafter [62], and Allah leads astray the wrong doers [63], and Allah does what pleases.

يُثَبِّتُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا بِالْقَوْلِ الثَّابِتِ فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ ۚ وَ يُضِلُّ اللّٰهُ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۙ قف وَيَفْعَلُ اللّٰهُ مَا يَشَآءُ ﴿٢٧﴾ ع ٢ ١٦

62. In this verse there is a proof about the punishment of the grave i.e. while in the world the believer at all times remains firm on Faith, its joys and sorrows do not turn him away from Islam and at the time of death the recitation of the sacred Kalimah enables him to repent for his sins before he leaves this world, at the time of questioning in the grave his heart is at ease to reply the questions easily. But the infidel in the world is never steadfast in sorrow, comfort, difficulties, etc. In the grave his heart is restless and uncertain. Thus, by Hereafter is meant the grave as this too is life after that of the world.

63. He spreads sedition among them due to their cruelty i.e. acquisition is from man, while creation is from Allah Almighty. An example of this is due to cutting of the neck, Allah Almighty will let death take place. Thus, killing is the work of man, while occurence of death will be the work of Allah Almighty.

SECTION: 5

28. Did you not see those who changed the favour of Allah with unthankfulness and have brought the people into the abode of ruin [64]?

اَلَمْ تَرَ اِلَى الَّذِيْنَ بَدَّلُوْا نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ كُفْرًا وَّاَحَلُّوْا قَوْمَهُمْ دَارَ الْبَوَارِ ﴿٢٨﴾ لا

64. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the bounty of Allah Almighty. "Verily Allah did great favour to the Muslims" (S3:V164), while those who changed the bounty are the infidels of Makkah. Their infidelity and rebellion changes the bounty and favour. This means Allah had bestowed such a great favour and bounty on the people of Makkah by sending His beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم unto them. But instead of obeying him, they went against him. Thus, although the verse speaks of the infidels of Makkah, it includes all heretics.

Marfat.com

جَهَنَّمَ ۚ يَصْلَوْنَهَا ۖ وَبِئْسَ الْقَرَارُ ﴿٢٩﴾

29. That which is Hell, they shall enter it, and what an evil place to stay in [65].

65. From this we learn although some sinful Muslims would be sent into Hell, but it would not be their abode. In fact, it will be like a stage where after staying there for a while they would be purified to go to Paradise. Hell is declared as the permanent abode of the infidels by Allah Almighty.

وَ جَعَلُوْا لِلّٰهِ اَنْدَادًا لِّيُضِلُّوْا عَنْ سَبِيْلِهٖ ۭ قُلْ تَمَتَّعُوْا فَاِنَّ مَصِيْرَكُمْ اِلَى النَّارِ ﴿٣٠﴾

30. And they have set up equals for Allah [66] that they might lead astray from his path. Say you; 'enjoy a little verily your end is the fire.'

66. From this we learn that the basis of polytheism is to make someone equal to Allah Almighty. Even if one takes someone as a servant of Allah Almighty and yet accepts him as Allah in some attribute of Allah, such a person will be a polytheist. Thus, the infidels would be addressing their idols on the Day of Judgement in the following way: "When we made you equal with the Lord of the worlds" (S26:V98). If the person does not have such a belief, it will not be polytheism. The belief of the infidels is that their idols had full authority of polythiesm, but the belief of the believers is that the Prophets and servants of Allah Almighty who have been empowered by Allah Almighty in worldly matters, is a high degree of faith. An example of this is accepting the ruler or the king as an authority in his kingdom. It is for this reason that the respect of Ganges is polytheism but accepting the sanctity of the water of Zam Zam is part of Faith. Prostrating to an idol is polytheism but prostration towards the Holy Ka'ba is an act of Faith.

قُلْ لِّعِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا يُقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ يُنْفِقُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ سِرًّا وَّ عَلَانِيَةً مِّنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَّا بَيْعٌ فِيْهِ وَ لَا خِلٰلٌ ﴿٣١﴾

31. Say to my those bondsmen who believed that they should keep up prayer [67] and spend out of what we have given them secretly and openly before the coming of that day in which there shall be neither trading nor friendship [68].

67. From this we learn that propagation of Salaah, Fasting and Zakaat will be taken to the infidel, but only Faith will be propagated to them, the reason being Allah Almighty had ordered that only believers should be preached about Salaah, Fasting, Zakaat, Charity, etc.

68. By purchasing good deeds for a price, or pleading to someone to give you good deeds. Only your own deeds will be beneficial to you. From this we learn that no one can perform physical obligatory duties on behalf of the next person. You cannot perfrom Salaah or observe fast on anyone's behalf. Monetary deeds can be performed, e.g. Hajj-e-Badal, payment of Zakaat, Qurbani, etc. can be performed on behalf of another person if he empowers you to do so. Remember, that by that day is meant either the day of death or the Day of Judgement.

32. Allah is who created the heavens and the earth and caused water to [69] come down from the heaven, then He

Marfat.com

الثَّمَرٰتِ رِزْقًا لَّكُمْ ۚ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْفُلْكَ لِتَجْرِيَ فِي الْبَحْرِ بِاَمْرِهٖ ۚ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْاَنْهٰرَ ۚ ﴿٣٢﴾ produced some fruits therewith for your food [70]; and He made the ships subservient to you that they may sail through the sea by His command [71] and made the rivers subservient to you.

69. From this we learn that the water of the wells and rivers too come from the sky. Thus if there is no rain they all become dry.

70. Of these fruit some you have as nourishment and some as medicine. The purpose of this is to show that everything in the world is created for your benefit because Allah Almighty is not in need of them. Thus appreciation and justice demands that you too should do something in return for Him - you should worship Him, which in reality too, is for your benefit.

71. So that Oh man you should benefit from these conditions because water does not carry a burden, as by nature it is thin. Nevertheless, through the ship heavy and huge things float in the oceans. Likewise, we too should have been completely sunk in this world, but through the blessings of the Prophets and the Saints we are able to cross both the worlds.

33. And He made [72] the sun and moon subservient for you which are constantly moving [73], and made the day and night subservient for you.

72. But the difference between the subservience of the ships and the sun and the moon is that in the movement of the ships we have greater control, but in that of the sun and the moon we have absolutely no knowledge. In spite of that they are all created for our benefit, and are of no use to Allah Almighty.

73. They are constant without any breakage in them that they could be sent for repairs, nor take any leave for the purpose of resting. They are in constant movement for millions of years so that you can determine your time for work and rest and derive countless benefits from them.

وَاٰتٰىكُمْ مِّنْ كُلِّ مَا سَاَلْتُمُوْهُ ؕ وَ اِنْ تَعُدُّوْا نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ لَا تُحْصُوْهَا ؕ اِنَّ الْاِنْسَانَ لَظَلُوْمٌ كَفَّارٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ ع ١٢

34. And He gave you many [74] things you asked for. And if you count the favours of Allah, you cannot count them [75]. No doubt, man is very unjust, unthankful [76].

74. Here the preposition is for partial use meaning from all your wishes you had asked, some are granted or the word 'many' is to denote increase, augment and multiplication, in which case the preposition from, is for enumeration, meaning We granted you many wishes you had asked for. Like Allah Almighty says: "We opened unto them the gates of all things" (S6:V44). Thus the purpose of the discussion is to make us aware that Allah Almighty had granted countless things to us without having prayed for them which have been mentioned already, and many bounties have been given according to our desires. Allah Almighty knows our desires much more than us. His bounties are not dependent on our request and prayer.

75. This is because countless bounties are connected with every hair of your body, and since counting these hair is beyond you, counting these bounties too is out of your reach. Your calculation ends with a trillion, while by Allah Almighty it is the beginning. From this we learn that nobody can calculate the virtues of our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because the bounties of the world are few. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you, the enjoyment of the world is little". (S4:V77) and the virtues of our Holy Prophet are countless. "And undoubtedly, you are on excellent morals. "(S68:V4). Allah Almighty further says "And great is the grace of Allah upon you" (S4:V113). Yet another verse states: "Oh beloved! undoubtedly We have granted you abundance of good" (S107:V1). Thus, if we are unable to count the few, how would we count and calculate that which are countless.

76.Here by man is meant Abu Jahl, Abu Lahab, etc. or total polytheists and infidels as can be seen from the discussion which follows.

SECTION 6

35. And recall when Ibrahim submitted, 'O my Lord make this city secure [77] and save me and my sons from worshipping idols [78].

وَاِذْ قَالَ اِبْرٰهِيْمُ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ هٰذَا الْبَلَدَ اٰمِنًا وَّاجْنُبْنِيْ وَ بَنِيَّ اَنْ نَّعْبُدَ الْاَصْنَامَ ﴿۳۵﴾

77. This means that Holy Makkah always remains a city and can never be deserted. This place should be a place of peace and security wherein no lepers, leucoderma, (associated with skin disorder), the Dajjal, and killing and plundering should infiltrate.

78. It is obvious that the word 'my sons' denotes sons descended from the male progenitor i.e. sons who should all be safeguarded from polytheism. If it is taken to mean my total children, then it would mean my entire children should not indulge in polytheism. In them believers too are found. Allah Almighty accepted this Dua of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace). Until the Day of Judgement none of the descendants of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم will go astray. These will always be believers because they are the children of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace). All Qutubs and Ghaus (highest among the Saints of Allah Almighty will always be Sayeds (Sewaique Muhriqah)

36. 'My Lord, verily the idols have led astray many people [79], then who sided with me, is from me [80] and who disobeyed me, so surely you are most Forgiving and Merciful [81].

79. This means these idols became the cause of the people's heresy. Otherwise, the idols by themselves are lifeless objects which are unable to speak.

80. Oh Allah Almighty forgive their sins through my intercession. This Dua is made for all the believers until the Day of Judgement. From this we learn that believers live in the secured shelter of the Prophets because they become the true devotees of these Prophets. For this reason Allah Almighty showers His blessings upon them.

81. If you, Oh Allah Almighty, so wish You could grant them an opportunity to repent, and after bringing faith, can forgive all their sins. Thus in this verse there is no prayer for the forgiveness of the infidels.

37. 'O my Lord, I have caused some of my children to settle in a valley [82] wherein there is no cultivation by your sacred house [83]. O my Lord in order that they might keep up prayer [84], then you make some peoples hearts incline [85] towards them and give them some fruits for food [86], so that they may be thankful.

رَبَّنَا لِيُقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ فَاجْعَلْ اَفْئِدَةً مِّنَ النَّاسِ تَهْوِيْٓ اِلَيْهِمْ وَارْزُقْهُمْ مِّنَ الثَّمَرٰتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٣٧﴾

82. By 'some children' mean Hazrat Hajira and Hazrat Ismail (On them be peace) and their offspring because the settling there of Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) in reality was the settling of his offspring. Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) is the geneological origin of the Arabs because Arabs have descended from him. At the time when Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) left Hazrat Ismail and Bibi Hajira (On them be peace) in Makkah there were no inhabitants living there. It was a barren desolate jungle without any water or vegetation. It is the Dua, of the great Prophet which beautified and brought life into this lifeless place. For a detailed discussion on the subject consult our first Para of (Tafseer Naeemi).

83. Although at that point in time he had not as yet constructed the Holy Ka'ba, traces of construction of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) were still to be seen and its exact place was fixed. Therefore he had said this. The meaning of the word sacred is one full of dignity and sanctity. Or it could mean it is unlawful for those who enter this city without Ihraam. Or Dajjal is made forbidden to enter it, or that this place remained safe from the floods of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

84. From this emerge a few issues:

1. The object of staying in the sacred city of Makkah is the worship of Allah Almighty only. Therefore Allah Almighty had not kept farming therein so that its people do not get entangled in worldly complexities.

2. Salaah is the most superior form of worship, therefore Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) had made special mention of it. Furthermore, Salaah offered in Makkah is superior to Salaah offered elsewhere.

85. It should be remembered whatever is uttered by the Prophet of Allah Almighty becomes a reality. Till today the sacred Makkah is a city: Although its land is not conducive to farming, yet its people are not left hungry. While the world makes effort to produce, they eat the fruit of their labour. Generally, the hearts of the Muslims are inclined towards Makkah. Thus, what the Great Patriarch had prayed, Allah Almighty made it happen.

86. Thus Allah Almighty filled the jungles of Taif and the valley of Fatima with fruit from which the markets of Makkah are always full with different types of fruit. The fruit one gets there are difficult to find elsewhere.

رَبَّنَآ اِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ مَا نُخْفِيْ وَ مَا نُعْلِنُ ؕ وَ مَا يَخْفٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَ لَا فِي السَّمَآءِ ﴿٣٨﴾

38. 'Oh our Lord, you know what we conceal and what we disclose [87], and nothing is concealed from Allah [88] in the earth or in the heaven.

87. This means some prayers should be mentioned specifically while other desires are left in the heart, like receiving the son from Hazrat Sarah becaue this Dua was made prior to the birth of Hazrat Ishaaq (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). But Allah Almighty is fully aware of all.

88. Allah Almighty agreed with Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace), that whatever he said was really correct, Allah Almighty is fully aware of whatever is known and concealed.

peace) was born, he named the baby Ismail in remembrance of this prayer. At that time Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) was ninety nine years old, while at the birth of Hazrat Ishaaq (On whom be peace) his age was one hundred and twelve years. Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) was thirteen years elder than his brother Hazrat Ishaaq (On whom be peace) From this we learn that never despair of the mercy of Allah Almighty. While offering Dua repeatedly say "Oh our Lord". Before and after the Dua always recite the praises of Allah Almighty. After the Dua recite AMIN or "Accept the Dua".

89. This tells us that a son is a blessing from Allah Almighty, especially when he turns out to be pious, a saint or a Prophet, because through him both the world and the Hereafter are accomplished. Observe, Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) counted the birth of Hazrat Ismail and Hazrat Ishaaq (On them be peace) from the great bounties of Allah Almighty. However being disheartened at the birth of daughter is against the dignity of a believer.

40. 'O my Lord, keep me as an establisher of prayer and my children too, O our Lord accept our prayer.

41. 'O our Lord, forgive me, and my parents [91] and all Muslims on the day when reckoning shall take place [92].

literally mother. However, the word 'parents' is used to denote actual parents.

91. Here 'parents' refers to the actual parents of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace), namely his father Tarrukh and his mother Mitla bint Namr, both of whom were believers. In his old age he had prayed for their forgiveness, i.e. after the birth of his two sons. Azar was his distant uncle with whom he was already disgusted in his youthful years. Azar had died an infidel. The Holy QUR'AAN usually refers to parents, grand parents, uncles, etc. with the words ABB - literally means father and UMM -

92. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Dua should be commenced for oneself;
2. Your parents should be included in it;
3. Pray for the wellbeing of all the Muslims;
4. Always pray for the good in the Hereafter, do not limit your prayer for the good of the world only.

93. Oh the oppressed be patient! Allah Almighty is certaintly not unmindful of the oppressor. He will certainly punish his oppression.
94. The punishment for the infidels and criminals will truly speaking be meted out in the Hereafter. The punishment of the world in comparison is temporary and insignificant which would in no way lessen that punishment as is the case with imprisonment in comparision to local lock up.

43. They will come out running [95] rashly raising their heads high, that their eyelashes do not turn back towards them, and there would be no strength in their hearts [96].

95. From their graves towards Hazrat Israfeel (On whom be peace) where he would be blowing the trumpet.
96. This means they would not be able to wink. Their eyes would remain open. Or, on that day they would not be able to see themselves or anyone else - they would continue to look upwards. Their hearts would not be turned towards anyone. All will be resurrected in a naked state but no one will be able to look at anyone.

44. And warn mankind of the day [97] when the torment shall come to them, then the unjust shall say [98]; 'O our Lord, grant us respite [99] for a short term that we may respond to your call and follow the messengers'. Did you not swear before that we are not to go anywhere moving from the world? [100]

وَ اَنْذِرِ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْهِمُ الْعَذَابُ

قَبْلُ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ زَوَالٍ ۙ﴿۴۴﴾

97. This means warn everybody - the believers as well as the infidels. From this we learn the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet of entire mankind and his prophethood would continue until the Day of Judgement. The reason for this is the word AN-NA'S (mankind) is free of any restriction. The Ulama and Saints will until the Day of Judgement continue to warn mankind as deputies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.
98. The word 'unjust' denotes the polytheist. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong" (S31:V13). Because those whom Allah Almighty would forgive will not show any desire to come back to the world again as is reported in Hadith Shareef.
99. This means to give respite for doing good deeds by sending us back in the world, because the world alone is the place of action, not the Hereafter, as this is the place of reward and punishment.
100. 'Today be under his shelter' today seek his help. Not tomorrow - but perhaps he may accept on the Day of Judgement. Today he is persuading us, but we are not accepting his obedience - but tomorrow we will beg to persuade him but he will reject us. May Allah Almighty grant us His obedience today!

45. And you settled down in the dwellings of those who did evil [101] to them and it was clear to you, how we did it with [102] them and we explained to you giving examples [103].

had covered the entire earth.

102. From this emerge two issues:

1. For the proof of certain things, its publicity is deemed sufficient e.g. geneology, marriage, locality, etc. because the links of these lands with the Aad and Thamood was proven by their fame and publicity.

2. Historical incidents cannot be rejected without any concrete reasons. However, if they are contrary to any categorical statements of the Holy QUR'AAN, they can be rejected.

103. This tells us that religious analogy is true because the object of the verses is to show that these people were destroyed due to their infidelity, and since you too are on infidelity, you too are worthy of being destroyed. Due to material cause partnership can be effected jointly. This in jurisprudence is called analogy.

101. Here "you settled down" denotes settling down temporarily during a journey. During their journeys the people of Arabia would pass through the lands of Aad and Thamood and would make a stop there. Otherwise these settlements lay totally in desolation. They were never inhabited again. It is reported in Hadith Shareef when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with his noble Companions passed the jungles of the Thamood he said: "Do not stop here, nor drink the water from their wells. A place which has been devastated by Divine punishment cannot be populated again!" The floods of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) was a punishment for the infidels, but a mercy and blessing for the believers. It is for this reason that establishing settlements on the earth became permissible after floods, although these floods

وَ قَدْ مَكَرُوْا مَكْرَهُمْ وَعِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مَكْرُهُمْ ؕ وَاِنْ كَانَ مَكْرُهُمْ لِتَزُوْلَ مِنْهُ الْجِبَالُ ﴿۴۶﴾

46. And verily they devise their plans and their plans are under the control of Allah and their planning was not such as to remove these mountains [104].

here is most appropriate. Some commentators have translated it to show that although their plans were staunch and undaunting, that mountains too would flinch under their weight, but the religion of the Holy Prophet and his Noble Companions did not give way from their sacred mission. These august personalities are much more resolute than the mountains.

104. In the translation of the revered translator Ala Hazrat (On whom be peace) the word is in the negative, and mountains denote signs of Allah Almighty. Thus the meaning is that their planning is like the air; just as the air cannot uproot the mountains, the secret devices and plans of the infidels cannot remove the laws of Islam and the signs and symbols of Allah Almighty. This verse has been given other interpretations as well, but the one given infidels. Breach of promise takes place either due to helplessness, and Allah Almighty is All Powerful and All Conquering, never helpless, or due to shamelessness, and Allah Almighty is the Lord of Retribution. He most certainly takes retribution on behalf of His beloved servants.

48. The day when the earth shall be changed other than this earth and the heavens [106] too, and all shall come out standing [107] before Allah, the One Who is Dominant overall.

يَوْمَ تُبَدَّلُ الْاَرْضُ غَيْرَ الْاَرْضِ وَ السَّمٰوٰتُ وَ بَرَزُوْا لِلّٰهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ ﴿۴۸﴾

106. At the time of Qiyamah first thing to undergo change will be the nature of the sky and the earth will be transformed into a huge field. There will be no caves nor hillocks. The stars in the sky will be bottled, and the sky itself will become like a red skin or hide, and sometimes like the sedimentless oil which is referred to in the Holy QUR'AAN as DIHAAN: Red hide. This will be before the blowing of the Second Trumpet. Then at the time of Reckoning, the nature of the sky and earth will change altogether the earth will become of silver and the sky will become of gold. Thus there is no inconsistency in the narrations.

107. They will come out of their graves and present themselves at the Field of Reckoning. Hence there is no objection at the verse, because people, today too are before Allah Almighty. No one is concealed from Him.

49. And you will see the guilty on that day bound together in chains [108].

وَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّقَرَّنِيْنَ فِي الْاَصْفَادِ ﴿۴۹﴾

108. This tells us that on the Day of Resurrection both the infidels and the believers will be identified from their outer symbols: the faces of the infidels would be black, their hands will be tied at the back in chains. The believers on the other hand will be opposite to them. Says Allah Almighty: "The culprits will be recognized by their faces" (S55:V41). It would not be necessary to ask any culprit. Every culprit would be tied to his accompanying devil. There are other interpretations of this as well, but this one is appropriate. With every human-being a devil is born.

50. Their shirt [109] shall be of pitch and the fire shall cover their faces.

سَرَابِيْلُهُمْ مِّنْ قَطِرَانٍ وَّتَغْشٰى وُجُوْهَهُمُ النَّارُ ﴿۵۰﴾

109. This means that their bodies will be smeared in a dark resinous substance which will be like a shirt. This substance has a pungent odour, heat and easily catches fire SARABIL (shirts) is the plural of SARBAAL shirt - SARAWIL with the letter WOW means pants. And fire will destroy their entire bodies, including their faces. The description of the very thing follows after it in "shall cover their faces".

51. In order that Allah may reward every soul according to its earnings. No doubt, Allah is not late in reckoning [110].

لِيَجْزِيَ اللّٰهُ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ مَّا كَسَبَتْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿۵۱﴾

Marfat.com

110. Allah Almighty shall complete the reckoning of the entire creation in a matter of three to four hours. In the remaining hours of Qiyamah the true status and dignity of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم will be revealed, sometimes the search for the intercessor, then the splendid appearance of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم at the Lofty Station (MAQAAM-E-MAHMOOD), the recitation of songs of praise of the Holy Prophet by the entire creation and by the Creator of creation. Thus, the rest of this long Day will be utilised for these blessed activities. If the only purpose of Qiyamah is to take reckoning it would not be fifty thousand years long, it would only be of a duration of three to four hours. The actual purpose of Qiyamah is really to reveal the status and dignity of th Holy Prophet and not just for the accountability of the creation.

52. This is to deliver the commands [111] to mankind and that they maybe warned therewith and that they may know that He is only one God [112] and that the men of wisdom may accept admonition [113].

هٰذَا بَلٰغٌ لِّلنَّاسِ وَلِيُنْذَرُوْا بِهٖ وَ لِيَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّمَا هُوَ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ وَّلِيَذَّكَّرَ اُولُوا الْاَلْبَابِ ﴿۵۲﴾

111. From this emerge two issues:
1. The entire QUR'AAN has been revealed for the purpose of propagation, therefore it is not permissible to conceal any verse.
2. The QUR'AAN has been revealed for all mankind and is thus not restricted to any special place or time, because the prophethood of our beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is for all and sundry.

112. This means the Quranic verses are the proof of the Oneness of Allah Almighty. Accepting Tauheed from sources other than the Quranic verses is not sufficient for salvation.

113. From this we learn that although the Holy QUR'AAN is a warner for everyone, everyone is not blessed to derive the fear of Allah Almighty from it. Only the fortunate people would obtain admonition from it, the wretched would remain bereft of it. It is for this reason to deliver commands to mankind is used at the beginning of the verse and "men of wisdom may accept admonition" is used at the end. We further learn that any wisdom which helps to obtain fear of Allah Almighty, is wisdom in the true sense of the word.

SURAH AL-HIJR (MAKKAN) Revealed Before HIjrah

99 Verses , 6 Sections 654 Words 2760 Letters

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION: 1

Alif-Laam-Raa. These are the verses of a book and of a Bright QUR'AAN [1].

الٓرٰ ۚ تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ وَ قُرْاٰنٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ۝١

1. This means that the name of the pure and blessed conversation is Al-QUR'AAN as well as the Book. Therefore it was revealed recited. It is a Book because it is written in the Sacred Tablet.

2.The infidels would desire ardently [2] that had they been Muslims.

رُبَمَا يَوَدُّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَوْ كَانُوْا مُسْلِمِيْنَ ۝٢

2. The infidels would desire this at the time of death, after seeing the angels of punishment in their graves. Thereafter on the Day of Judgment. But at that point in time, this desire.

The word infidel denotes all types of infidels, whether they are polytheists, Jews or Christians, or Mirzais and Qadyanis, etc.

3.Leave them [3] to eat [4] and enjoy and let the hope may amuse them now then they are about to know [5].

ذَرْهُمْ يَاْكُلُوْا وَ يَتَمَتَّعُوْا وَ يُلْهِهِمُ الْاَمَلُ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝٣

3. This means do not express sorrow at them or do not worry about them, or until they are infidels do not stop them from eating pork or consuming alcohol. But this does not mean that do not convey the message of Islam to them. Thus this verse is firm and not abrogated.

4. This hints to an issue that the infidels are not bound to the laws of Shariah. They can eat tins lawful or forbidden as they please, or pratice whatever is lawful or forbidden. Islamic rulers should not stop them from such practices. However, social dealings are another matter. Thus, an infidel would be prohibited from stealing, etc.

5. At the time of death he became aware of it, that personal desires and tall hopes are against the dignity of a believer. The heedless and unmindful way of dishing out food by an infidel too, is an offensive act, while the sleep of pious believers, too, is an act of worship.

4.And the town We destroyed had a writing known [6].

وَ مَاۤ اَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ اِلَّا وَ لَهَا كِتَابٌ مَّعْلُوْمٌ ۝٤

6. The time of every nation's punishment is recorded in the Divine Tablet. Those pious servants whose gaze is on the Divine Tablet are fully aware of all these matters, because this inscription is not for Allah Almighty but for these pious servants of Him. Thus, the angels of punishment bring down punishment as per this inscription, while the Prophets give prior warning about it, after reading it.

Marfat.com

مَا تَسْبِقُ مِنْ اُمَّةٍ اَجَلَهَا وَ مَا يَسْتَاْخِرُوْنَ ۝٥

5. No community can precede its promised time nor cant fall behind [7].

from sixty to hundred years. All these changes are found in pending fate. Hence there are no inconsistencies in the Quranic verses. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah wipes out what He pleases and establishes what He pleases" (S13:V39). Or the purpose of the verse is to show that no people can advance or retrogress due to its own power. If Allah Almighty desires to do it, He can because He has the absolute power and authority.

7. Here the word "promised time" denotes inevitable fate in which alteration is impossible. The punishment came upon the followers of Hazrat Yunus (On whom be peace), but it was changed because they accepted faith. This withdrawal was due to the suspended faith. Iblees prayed to Allah Almighty for extension of life, which was accepted. Due to the prayer of Hazrat Adam(On whom be peace), the life of Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) was extended

وَ قَالُوْا يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِىْ نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكْرُ اِنَّكَ لَمَجْنُوْنٌ ۝٦

6.And they said, 'O you upon whom QUR'AAN has been sent down [8] you are certainly a madman' [9].

8. This utterance of theirs was not to verify the Holy QUR'AAN but to mock at it. Or, it could mean in your thoughts are different claims regarding the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN, because in reality the infidels had not accepted the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN. It is for this reason that (S15 :V11) "they mocked" is used in the later verse.

9. Abdullah bin Umayyah had called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم insane (Allah forbid). Then, others followed him (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). From this we learn that insanity never comes to a Prophet. These august personalities are safeguarded from deafness, dumbness, insanity, etc. They are the possessors of the highest form of intellect.

لَوْ مَا تَاْتِيْنَا بِالْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ۝٧

7.'Why don't you bring angels to us, if you are truthful' [10].

10. Those who visibly and clearly give assistance to you and testify about your truthfulness. From this emerge two issues:
1. The polytheists of Arabia acknowledged the existence of angels, and in fact, they had believed in them as daughters of Allah Almighty.

2. They had heard the stones and rocks recite the Kalimah, therefore they now made demands for angels. Otherwise, they themselves would have demanded that the stones should recite the Kalimah.

مَا نُنَزِّلُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ اِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَمَا كَانُوْٓا اِذًا مُّنْظَرِيْنَ ۝٨

8.We do not send down the angels without any purpose and if they come down, they would not get time [11].

11. This means the angels in their original form, or that the angels always come with punishment for the infidels, bring Revelation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and for some believers they bring the blessings of Allah Almighty, like the glad tidings which the angels brought to Sayyida Mariam, and to the mother of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Thus, this verse is free of any objection or criticism.

Marfat.com

9.No doubt, We have sent down this QUR'AAN [12] and We most surely are its Guardians [13].

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَ إِنَّا لَهُ لَحٰفِظُوْنَ ۝٩

12. From this emerge a few issues:
1. In Arabia the plural form is used for the singular as a mark of respect.
2. The works of the pious devotees are declared as works of Allah Almighty (i.e. the works of the pious have been declared as works of Allah Almighty). The revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN is the function of the angels but Allah Almighty says "We have sent down".
3. The Divine Tablet is on top, not at the bottom, because descent is referred to what comes down from on top. The revered Sufis say that it is Allah Almighty who reveals the Holy QUR'AAN in the heart of a believer, and it is He who keeps it protected, so that he dies with faith.
13. Thus Allah Almighty has safeguarded the words of the Holy QUR'AAN, its meanings, its injunction, etc. But words are protected in such a manner that their alteration is impossible, while meanings and injunctions are protected in such a way that although some people try to distort them, the original injunctions remain unaltered, they will always remain exactly the same. Therefore, Allah Almighty had enabled the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to remain for all times until the Day of Judgement and maintained the continued existence of Ulama and sages for this purpose. From this we learn that the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are the means of safeguarding the intrinsic meaning of the Holy QUR'AAN.

10.And surely We sent messengers before you amongst earlier prophets [14].

وَلَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِيْ شِيَعِ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ۝١٠

14. This tells us that separate Prophets had come during different periods and for the people of every period. However, our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a Prophet for the entire creation. Light of every home is separate, but their sun is one.

11.And not any messenger came to them, but they mocked at him.

وَ مَا يَاْتِيْهِمْ مِّنْ رَّسُوْلٍ اِلَّا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ۝١١

12.In the same way, We make a life for this mockery in the hearts of the culprits [15].

كَذٰلِكَ نَسْلُكُهٗ فِيْ قُلُوْبِ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ۝١٢ لَا

15. From this we understand two issues:
1. Any heart which bears the seal of faith, will not allow disrespect of the Prophets, mockery and infidelity to seep in it.
2. Allah Almighty is the creator of everything. Although we acquire motives and causes, the infidels were acquiring the causes of infidelity. Thus this has been created in their hearts from Allah Almighty, like we may kill a person but his death will be from Allah Almighty. Thus the verse is crystal clear.

13.They believe not therein, and already the example of the ancients has gone forth.

لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِهٖ وَ قَدْ خَلَتْ سُنَّةُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ۝١٣

14.And if We open any door for them in the heaven that they may ascend through it in the day.

15.Even then they would say, 'our sights have been tied [16], rather we have been mesmerized' [17].

16. From this there is a hint that any heart in which there is hatred for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not receive guidance for faith. Any person who is to be blessed with faith will first receive in his heart the love and dignity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.
17. From this we learn that if there is enmity in a heart, he will not prove effective and beneficial for him.

16.And We have indeed made constellations [18] in the heaven and have adorned it for the beholders [19].

18. The twelve constellations are the stages of seven wandering stars. These are : Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricon, Aquarius, Pisces. The details of these have been mentioned earlier.
19. They have been adorned in such a way that the constellations are part of the eighth sky while the stars are found in the various skies. But all of them become visible in the first sky. According to Islamic law there are seven skies, but by philosophers there is nine, the eighth is. the Divine Chair and the ninth is the Divine Throne.

20. At first the devils would frequent the heavens to listen to the conversation of the angels. After the birth of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) they had been stopped from three heavens, after the blessed birth of our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they have been stopped from all the heavens. (Khazainul Irfaan)

اِلَّا مَنِ اسْتَرَقَ السَّمْعَ فَاَتْبَعَهٗ شِهَابٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿١٨﴾

18.But whoever goes to hear stealthily [21], and then a bright flame [22] pursues him.

21. At times the devils hide and listen to some words of the angels who guard the heavens. Because it is impossible to hide from Allah Almighty, Shaitaan is now being pursued and struck with a bright flame. It should be remembered that for Shaitaan to reach there stealthily from the angels, is like how Iblees reached Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) secretly in Paradise. This is all in accordance with Divine intent in which countless wisdoms are concealed.
22. From this we learn that the star itself does not fall down, but instead a flame bursts from it which strikes Shaitaan like a bullet.

وَ الْاَرْضَ مَدَدْنٰهَا وَ اَلْقَيْنَا فِيْهَا رَوَاسِيَ وَ اَنْۢبَتْنَا فِيْهَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مَّوْزُوْنٍ ﴿١٩﴾

19.And We have stretched the earth [23] and put therein anchors [24], and caused to grow therein everything proportionately [25].

Marfat.com

23. By stretching the earth is meant making it spacious and not making it long and wide, because the earth is round.

24. From this we learn that the earth does not move i.e. the earth is stationary because an anchor is used to control and stop the ship. If there is the slightest movement in the earth, then what is the need to create mountains? Once the ship is brought under control by the anchor it becomes motionless.

20.And We have provided for you therein means of livelihood and also for those whom you did not provide for [26].

25. By "proportionately" means Allah Almighty causes things to grow in different places at different times according to its need and quantity. In Bengal the growth of rice is more, while in Punjab the quantity of wheat is more. In addition, in some places there would be famine while in others there would be abundant growth. In this, too, there are thousands of Divine wisdoms. All these are included in this verse.

وَجَعَلْنَا لَكُمْ فِيهَا مَعَايِشَ وَ مَنْ لَّسْتُمْ لَهٗ بِرٰزِقِيْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

26. Although your maid servants and animals eat our provisions, they work for you.

21.And there is nothing of which there are not treasures [27] with Us, and We do not send it down but with a known measure.

وَ اِنْ مِّنْ شَیْءٍ اِلَّا عِنْدَنَا خَزَآئِنُهٗ ۫ وَ مَا نُنَزِّلُهٗۤ اِلَّا بِقَدَرٍ مَّعْلُوْمٍ ﴿۲۱﴾

27. By treasures are meant created treasures, i.e. Allah Almighty has absolute power to create everything. It does not mean that He has accumulated certain things at some place. In accordance with this meaning, Allah Almighty says "Declare (oh my Rasool Muhammad) I do not possess the treasures of Allah " Thus Allah Almighty is the Creator, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "I have been given the keys of the treasures of the earth".

22.And We have sent winds [28] fecundating the clouds, then We sent down water from the heaven [29], then We gave it to you to drink, and you are not its treasures.

28. The Holy QUR'AAN refers to the wind of mercy as RIYAAH and the wind of wrath as REEH. The wind which brings rain too is excellent as it harbours mercy. Therefore it is appropriate to offer prayer to Allah Almighty at the time when these winds are blowing, and to seek protection of Allah Almighty when the destructive winds are blowing, as is stated in Hadith Shareef.

29. The rain water falls from the sky or due to the natural phenomenon there like vapour, condensation, etc. Thus rational thinkers cannot raise objection at the verse. It is due to the blessings of this rain that water increases in the wells and fountains, and at some places this very water is used for drinking.

31. Reason for its revelation:
After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had explained the virtues of being in the first rows in Salaah, all the Noble Companions then showed great desire to stand therein. So much so that some Companions had even decided to sell their homes and purchase one near the mosque so that they would be able to come to the mosque at its earliest time to obtain place in the first row. Seeing this zeal, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said "remain in your places because Allah Almighty is fully aware of your intentions and will reward you for it". The above was revealed on this occasion. Its meaning is those muqtadees who stand in the first row too are known to Allah Almighty, while those who were powerless to be in it are also within the knowledge of Allah Almighty (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Some hypocrites would stand in the last row so that they could get the opportunity of peeping at the women standing behind in Ruku. The latter part of the verse was revealed concerning them (Roohul Bayaan).

32.From this we learn that it is an excellent act to make an effort to get early to the mosque for the five Daily Prayers to obtain place in the first row. Remember, that for Salatul Janazah it is better to stand in the last row, while standing in the first row for other Salaahs has greater merit, as is stated in the Hadith Shareef.

وَ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْاِنْسَانَ مِنْ صَلْصَالٍ مِّنْ حَمَاٍ مَّسْنُوْنٍ ﴿٢٦﴾

27.And We have made Jinns before from smokeless fire [34].

وَالْجَآنَّ خَلَقْنٰهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ مِنْ نَّارِ السَّمُوْمِ ﴿٢٧﴾

34. From this emerge two issues:
1. The creation of jinns took place before that of the human beings.
2. Shaitaan penetrates the pores of human beings, because his creation is from such a fire which is able to penetrate.

28.And recall when your Lord said to the angels, " I am about to create human beings from the ringing clay which is of the black smelling mud!"[35].

بَشَرًا مِّنْ صَلْصَالٍ مِّنْ حَمَاٍ مَّسْنُوْنٍ ﴿٢٨﴾

35. This information was given by Allah Almighty to the angels and Iblees before the creation of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), because the congregaion was that of the angels, Iblees was the only one in it, therefore mention is made of angels and not of him. Here, reference to Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) as human being is indeed highest praise of him because the word BASHAR is derived from MUBASHARAT which means that Allah Almighty Himself created him directly without any help of the angels. He says "That which I created with My own hands" (S38:V75). This means Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) is the creation unique of His Providential Power. It should be remembered that it is like the final creation, just as our Holy Prophet is the seal among the Prophets.

29.Then when I had informed him and have breathed in to him from my special esteemed [36] spirit, then fall down in prostration for him [37].

36. This tells us that the Sajdah was not only for the body of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) but for his soul as well. Because his body was a manifestation of Light, Sajdah was made for it as well, otherwise He breathed His spirit would not have been a restriction.

37. This prostration (Sajdah) of the angels was not from the injunction of coded Laws of Hazrat Adam because at that point in time, Shariah of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) had not come. Also laws of Shariah are for the human beings, not for the angels. Furthermore, the angels had made this Sajdah once only, they were not commanded to make such a Sajdah again. Thus, it is not permissible for anyone to use this verse as a proof for the permissibility of Sajdah of respect.

30.Then all the angels fell down in prostration together [38].

فَسَجَدَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ اَجْمَعُوْنَ ﴿٣٠﴾ لا

38. From 'all of them' we learn that all the angels fell down in prostration, while 'together' denotes that they did not prostrate separately but all together. It is clear that all the angels prostrated, whether they were from the heavens or the earth. Some people have exempted some angels from this. The author of Roohul Bayaan has stated that this prostration in reality was for the NOOR E MUHAMMADI.

31.Except for Iblees. He refused to be amongst the prostrators.

اِلَّآ اِبْلِيْسَ ؕ اَبٰٓى اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ مَعَ السّٰجِدِيْنَ ﴿٣١﴾

قَالَ يٰٓاِبْلِيْسُ مَا لَكَ اَلَّا تَكُوْنَ مَعَ السّٰجِدِيْنَ ﴿٣٢﴾

39. This question was for the expression of reprimand and anger and not for the purpose of enquiry. This tells us that there can be many reasons for asking a question.

33.He said, 'It is not befitting for me that I should prostrate before a human-being whom you have made from ringing clay which was from black smelling mud' [40].

40. From this emerge a few issues:
1. That Shaitaan was the first in the creation of Allah Almighty to label a Prophet as a human being. Now, if anyone calls the Prophet as a human being to show equality, is obeying satanic practice.
2. Shaitaan had seen the body of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) not his light and soul. Thus, if anyone's gaze is only upon the human nature of the Prophet, his end will be that of Shaitaan.

مِنْ صَلْصَالٍ مِّنْ حَمَاٍ مَّسْنُوْنٍ ﴿٣٣﴾

3. To establish our own opinion in opposition to Divine injunction is indeed the work of the devil. Thus analogy is not permissible which is in opposition to categorical Quranic injunction.

34.Allah said,"get out from paradise, for verily you are rejected" [41].

قَالَ فَاخْرُجْ مِنْهَا فَإِنَّكَ رَجِيْمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾

41. From this we learn two issues:
1. To refrain from answering the prattle of an ignorant person is the way of Allah Almighty. Observe, Allah Almighty did not give a reply to Shaitaan's idle talk, but instead expelled him.
2. The injunction pertaining to sin would not be revealed before sin becomes visible. Allah Almighty only expelled Shaitaan after his rebellious nature became visible, although Allah Almighty knew already that this would be his end.

35.And verily there is curse upon you till the Day of Judgement [42].

وَّ اِنَّ عَلَيْكَ اللَّعْنَةَ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الدِّيْنِ ﴿٣٥﴾

42. This means until the Day of Judgement you will be accursed by all, and after this Day you will be punished eternally.

Thus the Day of Qiyamah is the utmost limit or completion of this curse.

36.He said, 'O my Lord, give me time till the Day of Resurrection [43].

قَالَ رَبِّ فَاَنْظِرْنِيْٓ اِلٰى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿٣٦﴾

43. Shaitaan had prayed to Allah Almighty to grant him life until the completion of the Day of Judgement in order to escape death, because after the completion of this Day, time of death would have lapsed. But this prayer of his was not accepted, and he was granted life until the blowing of the first Trumpet. Thus, after the blowing of the first Trumpet, Shaitaan will die with everyone else. He will remain dead for forty years, and after the second Trumpet would be resurrected with everyone else (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). In any case, part of his prayer was accepted and part of it was rejected.

37.Allah said, "Indeed you are amongst those who have been given time" [44].

44. This tells us that some prayers of the infidels too get accepted. Through Dua ones life span increases, fate alters. If the life span of Shaitaan could increase through his Dua, then imagine what can't be achieved through the Dua of a Prophet.

will of the person. For this reason "one who follows" is used here. It should be remembered that all the Prophets and Saints had continuously sought refuge from the devil, because although they are fully protected from the control of the devil, but no one is safe from evil thoughts. Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) says the true identification of a believer is that he gets devilish thoughts in Salaah because Shaitaan is away from the infidels.

activities after becoming believers would be placed in it temporarily.

45. From this we learn that Shaitaan in reality is the enemy of man, and because of man he is the enemy of others as well. As he was expelled from Paradise because of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), he is taking his

46. From this we learn that all the Prophets are innocent, because one committing sin is either the devil or one's baser self. The souls of the Prophets are never of baser nature. Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) had said:

47. This means safeguarding themselves from your misguidance and deception, and remaining firm on my obedience, is that Path which brings the person direct to Allah Almighty.

48. From this we learn that every Prophet is innocent, and some perfect Saints are protected from sins. This means that no Prophet can commit a sin, while some Saints did not commit a sin like the Four Righteous Caliphs and some perfect Saints.

49. By "follow you" means they would be obedient to you or follow those who are obedient to you. This verse includes all of them. From this we learn that Shaitaan does not lead anyone astray by force, but through the

وَ اَنَّ عَذَابِيْ هُوَ الْعَذَابُ الْاَلِيْمُ ﴿٥٠﴾

58. Reason for its Revelation:
Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم passed a group of his Noble Companions who were laughing among themselves. Seeing this he asked them why they were laughing? On hearing these words of reprimand they got scared. This verse was revealed on that occasion (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). From this we learn that dependence of faith is on hope and fear of Allah Almighty - hope for His mercy, and fear from His punishment is incumbent.

51.And tell them about Ibrahim`s guests [59].

وَ نَبِّئْهُمْ عَنْ ضَيْفِ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ ﴿٥١﴾

59. They were Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) and some angels who had accompanied him, who had gone to the house of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) in the guise of guests to give him glad tidings about the birth of Hazrat Ishaaq (On whom be peace). They were not recognized by Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). From this emerge two issues:

1. Extending hospitability is not dependent on acquaintance, even if strangers come to you, they should be accepted as guests.
2. It is permissible for a Prophet not to recognize an angel if he has not come with Divine Revelation. At the time of Revelation it is absolutely necessary for the Prophet to recognize the angel, otherwise that Revelation would be doubtful.

52.When they came to him they said 'peace' [60]. He said 'We feel afraid of you' [61].

اِذْ دَخَلُوْا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوْا سَلٰمًا ؕ قَالَ اِنَّا مِنْكُمْ وَجِلُوْنَ ﴿٥٢﴾

60. From this we learn two issues:
1. Those who come to visit us are our guests, no matter whether they have been called or not.
2. It is sunnat to greet the one who has come, and not the one who is sitting.

61. Because theirs was an untimely arrival, and had not accepted food. During that time this was looked upon as a sign of enmity

From this we learn that fearing is not against the status of prophethood. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had shown fear for the Pharaoh. This is fear of harm and not of submission and obedience. They do not have fear of obedience of anyone other than Allah Almighty. The Holy QUR'AAN says in this respect: "They have no fear" (S10:V62).

53.They said, 'Do not fear, we give you glad tidings of a son who will possess knowledge' [62].

قَالُوْا لَا تَوْجَلْ اِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلٰمٍ عَلِيْمٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ this word, because the believing children of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) and all his followers obtained salvation.

Marfat.com

69. From this we learn that the deeds of Allah Almighty can be linked with His devoted servants. To grant salvation from punishment is the work of Allah Almighty, but here the angels had said that we will grant salvation, we will save them. Hence, a believer can say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the permission of Allah Almighty will save us from the punishment, or that Oh Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم save me from the fire of Hell.

60.But his wife, We have decided that she will be amongst those who will remain behind [70].

إِلَّا امْرَأَتَهُ قَدَّرْنَآ ۙ إِنَّهَا لَمِنَ الْغٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿٦٠﴾ ع ١٦ ٢

70. From this emerge two issues:
1. Allah Almighty has granted the angels the knowledge of good fortune and wretchedness. Angels are fully aware about who would die as believers and whose death will be on infidelity.
2. Allah Almighty can be joined with His servants to address Him in the plural. The angels said to Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace): We have already decided i.e. we and Allah Almighty have taken this decision. Hence we can say that Allah Almighty and the Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم bestow favours; Allah Almighty and the Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم grant the bounties of this world and the Hereafter.

SECTION: 5

61.Then when the messengers came to the family of Lut [71].

فَلَمَّا جَآءَ اٰلَ لُوْطِ ِالْمُرْسَلُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾ ۙ

71. They came in the guise of handsome boys to the house of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) in Sadoom.

62.He said, 'Indeed you are a strange nation [72].

قَالَ اِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّنْكَرُوْنَ ﴿٦٢﴾

72. This tells us that it is possible for the Prophet not to recognize the angel, but only at the time he does not come with the Revelation. At the time of revelation recognition is absolutely essential, or the word of Allah Almighty would become doubtful. What Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) meant was neither are you residents of this place, nor is there any sign of travelling visible in you. So who are you, travellers or residents?

63.They said, 'Nay, we have come to you that in which they were doubting [73].

قَالُوْا بَلْ جِئْنٰكَ بِمَا كَانُوْا فِيْهِ يَمْتَرُوْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

73. This means that the Divine punishment with which you were putting fear in them, and they were rejecting it. Or, the word doubt here is used to denote rejection, because the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) were rejectors of Divine punishment. Since doubting the information given by the Prophet is equal to infidelity, therefore this has been explained as doubt.

64.And We have brought to you the true command and We are surely truthful.

65.Therefore go away with your family whilst a portion [74] of the night is left and you yourself should follow them [75], and let none of you look back and go straight wherever you are Commanded [76].

look behind. From this we learn that the protectors sometimes remain at the back. Whosoever turns his back towards the Invisible Beings and goes on a battle or debate the will, if Allah Almighty wills, be successful. This verse can be the source of this refuge. Historical incidents about these Invisible people are mentioned in our booklet TASAWWUF.

76. This means towards Syria where these people were commanded to go.

74. From this we learn that besides some of his family members no one believed in Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace), otherwise mention would have been made here of those believers. We further learn until a locality is inhabited by pious people, Divine punishment will not descend on it. It is for this reason that these people are being separated from there.

75. So that you can be fully informed that none of them are left behind, and that you continue to convey to them the orders of Allah Almighty that none of them should turn to angels until the time of arrival of his people, as is revealed from his noble words. Otherwise, it would have been a false thing to call these angels as guests, and telling lies is not possible for the Prophet.

78. They had come with sinister and evil intentions. But this incident took place before the above conversation, as is discussed in other verses, because Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) had not been able to recognize these 71.He said, 'These women of my people are my daughters [82] if you are to do'.

82. This means your wives who are the daughters of my people are in reality my daughters. The commentary of this verse is the following verse: "And leave your wives whom your Lord has created for you" (S26:V166). From this we understand that the venerable man of the people can refer to the young as his sons and daughters even if there is difference in their religious beliefs. Furthermore, the Prophets are like the fathers of their people and not like their brothers.

لَعَمْرُكَ اِنَّهُمْ لَفِيْ سَكْرَتِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ﴿۷۲﴾

72.O beloved, by your life, verily they are wondering about in their intoxication [83].

83. From this we learn that the life of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the most beloved to Allah Almighty, because He has not sworn on anyone's life besides that of our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. It also tells us that even if the infidel is outwardly in his senses, inwardly he is always out of his senses. Any intelligence and sense which cannot distinguish between good and evil is indeed bereft of intelligence and sense. Such a person is always groping in the wilderness. Here, this word refers to the infidels of Makkah or the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace). The former is more apparent. In such a case this sentence is questionable.

73.Then a roaring cry overtook them at sunrise [84].

84. That is, at the time of sunrise Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) destroyed them with one frightening scream.

فَجَعَلْنَا عَالِيَهَا سَافِلَهَا وَ اَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حِجَارَةً مِّنْ سِجِّيْلٍ ﴿۷۴﴾

74.Then We made the upper side of that town lower side [85] and rained upon them stones of baked clay [86].

85. By this is meant Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) raised the earth of this locality and took it near the sky and from there flung it in an inverted position. From this we learn that the works of special devotees of Allah Almighty could be linked with Allah Almighty, because turning the earth upside down was the work of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) but Allah Almighty has said it to be His work.

86. From this verse a hint is given that the adulterer should be punished with RAJAM i.e. to be stoned to death. Also, that sodomy or adultery are worse sins, because due to this, the most perilous punishment was sent on the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace). It should be remembered that in the Hanafi Mazhab there is no restriction stipulated for the punishment of sodomy. The judge can punish him as he deems fit - he can either be destroyed by hanging or by drowning.

77.Truly, in that are signs for the believers [87].

87. From this we understand that faith, religion, intelligence and intuition are great bounties of Allah Almighty as piety and purity are achieved through them. A person who lacks intelligence, is unmindful of his duties, is an infidel, believes in such deeds as either incidental or influenced by heaven, but an intelligent believer regards these as caused by evil doings of the creation and thereby inculcates fear of Allah Almighty in his heart, as can be seen today as well.

وَإِن كَانَ أَصْحَابُ الْأَيْكَةِ لَظَالِمِينَ ﴿٧٨﴾

78.And verily, the people of the thicket were assuredly unjust [88].

88. By this is meant the people of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) because their settlements were situated in the lush green dense gardens of the earth. For this reason they have been referred to as dwellers of the thicket.

فَانتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمَا لَبِإِمَامٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٧٩﴾

79.Then We took revenge [89] on them; and no doubt, both these towns lie on a clear way [90].

89. Allah Almighty took vengeance for His Prophet Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) , by destroying these unjust people through fire.
90. The word Imam means leader. The common road is called Imam because travellers follow it. Likewise, The Divine Tablet and Book of Deeds are referred by the Holy QUR'AAN as Imam. What this means is that the settlement of the people of Hazrat Lut and Shuaib are found on open roads enroute of the people of Makkah, which they would constantly pass by through their journeys. Why then do these people not take lessons from what they see?

وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ الْحِجْرِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾

80.And indeed the people of Hijr belied their messengers [91].

91. HIJR is a place situated between Madina Munawwarah and Syria which had been inhabited by the people of Thamood. Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) was their Prophet. From this we learn that opposing one Prophet is indeed opposing all the Prophets, because the people of Thamood had not believed in Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) only, but Allah Almighty states that these people had falsified all the Prophets. Similarly rejection of just one of the noble Companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is secretly rejecting all the Companions and the Noble Progeny of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The present day insolent people should take a lesson from it.

وَآتَيْنَاهُمْ آيَاتِنَا فَكَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٨١﴾

81.And We gave them our signs [92], but they kept their faces away from them [93].

Marfat.com

92. By "Our signs" means the birth of a she-camel from the rock, in size it was larger than all the camels, giving birth immediately, giving a large quantity of milk, drinking all the water in the well, etc. proved that this she-camel was a collection of miracles. Therefore, signs is used in the plural. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

93. Instead of bringing faith after seeing so many miracles, they killed the she-camel. They had seen that the she-camel would drink the whole day's water at once, but they failed to see that it was giving so much milk which was sufficient for the entire people to drink. This tells us that only that person will bring faith after seeing miracles who is really blessed by Allah Almighty.

82.And they used to carve out houses in the mountains without any fear [94].

وَ كَانُوْا يَنْحِتُوْنَ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوْتًا اٰمِنِيْنَ ﴿۸۲﴾

94. By "without fear" means they had no fear of their homes collapsing nor the danger of being burgled by thieves. Or, it could mean they had become bereft of the fear of Allah Almighty. In the first instance this security is a bounty from Allah Almighty, while in the second instance it is Divine punishment.

83.Then the roaring voice overtook them in the morning.

فَاَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّيْحَةُ مُصْبِحِيْنَ ﴿۸۳﴾

95. In most cases Divine punishment came in the morning. It is for this reason that Salatul Fajr and Salatul Tahajjud is given to us at this time so that through the medium of these worshippers Allah Almighty may turn away these calamities.

84.Therefore their earnings did not help them [96].

فَمَاۤ اَغْنٰى عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ﴿۸۴﴾

96. Thus all their impregnable forts and all their wealth could not ward off the Divine punishment. Their destruction took place on a Sunday morning. Three days earlier, signs of the punishment had began. Thus on the first day their faces became yellow, on the second day they turned red, on the third day they turned black and on the fourth day they were destroyed (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) and his group of believers moved out of there and went to Palestine, and from here to Makkah Mukarramah where they stayed for twenty years until the time of their death (Roohul Bayaan).

85.And We created not the heavens and the earth and whatever is between them without any purpose [97]. And surely the Hour is to come [98] therefore pardon graciously [99].

97. This tells us that in the creation of pure and impure things there is great wisdom. Infidelity is evil, but its creation is not bad. Shaitaan is wicked, but his creation is not without wisdom.

98. This means worldly punishment was not sufficient for their rebelliousness. The true punishment would be meted out to them on the Day of Judgement.

99. This means exercise patience at their cruelties, and do not take any vengeance. This verse is abrogated from the verses regarding Holy War. Now vengeance will be sought against the infidels in accordance with the power at one's disposal.

86.Certainly your Lord is the great Creator and the All-Knowing.

اِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ الْخَلّٰقُ الْعَلِيْمُ ﴿٨٦﴾

87.And no doubt We gave you seven verses that are repeated as well as the glorious QUR'AAN [100].

وَ لَقَدْ اٰتَيْنٰكَ سَبْعًا مِّنَ الْمَثَانِيْ وَ الْقُرْاٰنَ الْعَظِيْمَ ﴿٨٧﴾

100. This means Surah Fateha, and the rest of the Holy QUR'AAN. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Surah Fateha consists of seven verses, and there is complete consensus on this;
2. Surah Fateha is the most excellent Surah because Allah Almighty has mentioned it with a great deal of distinction;
3. Surah Fateha should be recited in all the Raka'ats of every Salaah, as can be understood from "are being repeated"
4. Surah Fateha had been revealed before Hijrah, as well as after it, because this is one meaning given to the word "are being repeated" i.e. one which is revealed repeatedly;
5. The Holy QUR'AAN is a Book of great excellence, hence its quality is stated as Grand; Thus it is prohibited to turn one's back and feet towards the Holy QUR'AAN, and totally unlawful to touch it without Ghusal and Wudu.

88.Do not stretch your eyes; We gave to them some pairs to enjoy [101] and grieve not over them, and take the Muslims in your wings of mercy [102].

لَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ اِلٰى مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهٖۤ اَزْوَاجًا مِّنْهُمْ وَ لَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَاخْفِضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

101. From this emerge two issues:
1. A Muslim should never look upon an infidel and his possession with respect. In comparison, they are like a dog.
2. Even if a believer is poor, we should look upon him with respect and be kind to him. Furthermore, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم kind embrace is open at all times to receive the believer.

102. Seven caravans of the Jews came to trade in Makkah with a great deal of wealth. Seeing them some believers wished that this wealth had belonged to the believers, because the Muslims at that time were poor. At that point in time this verse was revealed in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is outwardly being addressed, yet inwardly it is also the believers who are being addressed. From this we learn that a believer should always be soft and gentle towards the fellow believers.

89.And say, 'I am a clear warner.'

وَقُلْ اِنِّيْۤ اَنَا النَّذِيْرُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿٨٩﴾

الَّذِيْنَ جَعَلُوا الْقُرْاٰنَ عِضِيْنَ ﴿٩١﴾

Marfat.com

103. By 'dividers' here means the Jews and Christians, by QUR'AAN is either meant Tauraat and Injeel from which they kept some verses while they changed and distorted the others. Or, by QUR'AAN is meant QUR'AAN Shareef because some of them had referred to it as poetry, some called it fables, some called it magic. Thus, it means Oh My beloved Prophet We have revealed this Holy QUR'AAN upon you as We had revealed the Tauraat and the Injeel on the Jews and the Christians respectively.

92.Then by your Lord We shall certainly question them all [104].

فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَسْـَٔلَنَّهُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿۹۲﴾

104. This question would be for punishment and reprimand. From this we understand that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the most beloved of Allah Almighty because the oath which Allah Almighty takes, He does it through His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. by your Lord.

93.What they used to do.

عَمَّا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۹۳﴾ الربع

94.Therefore say to them openly what you have been commanded [105], and turn away your faces from the polytheists.

فَاصْدَعْ بِمَا تُؤْمَرُ وَ اَعْرِضْ عَنِ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿۹۴﴾

105. From this emerge two issues:
1. False show of piety is forbidden. One should openly declare one's faith through one's character and appearance.
2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not conceal any religious injunctions, but revealed every one of them to the people Says Allah Almighty: "Communicate that which has been sent down to you" (S5:V17). Anyone who says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had a desire to appoint Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) but did not do so out of fear of his Companions, is an infidel because he is rejecting these verses.

95.Surely We suffice you against those mockers [106].

اِنَّا كَفَيْنٰكَ الْمُسْتَهْزِءِيْنَ ﴿۹۵﴾

106. This verse was revealed regarding the following five leaders of Quraish: Aas bin Wail, Aswad bin Muttalib, Aswad bin Abd Yaghoos, Harith bin Qais and Waleed bin Mugheerah. These five would always cause harm to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and mock at him. All of them met a horrible death. From this we learn that Allah Almighty Himself is the protector of our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم honour and dignity, and wreaks vengeance against his enemies on his behalf.

96.Those who have made another deity with Allah, so very soon they shall know [107].

الَّذِيْنَ يَجْعَلُوْنَ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ ۚ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

107. Thus all five of them died a horrible death before the Battle of Badr (Roohul Bayaan). Aswad bin Muttalib died by repeatedly crushing his head against a tree and saying "I do not know who is crushing my head". After eating fish Harith became extremely thirsty and died due to this.

would be saddened at the oppression of the infidels, he was ordered to indulge in the remembrance of Allah Almighty as a means of overcoming this. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is such a beloved of Allah Almighty, that at all times Allah Almighty tries to console him, and removes his distress and sorrow.

108. From this we learn that remembrance of Allah Almighty is sufficient to remove all distress and sorrow. Says Allah Almighty: "Behold in the remembrance of Allah alone there is the satisfaction of the hearts" (S13:V28). We further learn that he who is entangled with an enemy, his best fortress is the remembrance of Allah Almighty and piety.
When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم certainty. From this we learn that death is the limit of hardships associated with religion, because as soon as a person dies all his religious obligations come to an end. However, the pious devotees of Allah Almighty continue with the remembrance of Allah Almighty even after death. Some of the Noble Companions had been heard reciting Surah Mulk from their graves.

109. From this we understand that no matter how great a saint a servant may become, he cannot become exempted from his obligatory duties (Ibadaat). If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was commanded to perform his worship until the last moments, then who are we?

SURAH AN-NAHAL (THE BEE) MAKKAN

Revealed Before Hijrah 16 Sections 128 Verses 1- 2840 Words ,7707 Letters

1. Surah An-Nahal is Makkan, but the last four verses were revealed in Madina. This Surah is made up of sixteen sections (Rukus), one hundred and twenty eight verses, two thousand eight hundred and forty words and seven thousand seven hundred letters.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION: 1

اَتٰٓى اَمْرُ اللّٰهِ فَلَا تَسْتَعْجِلُوْهُ ؕ سُبْحٰنَهٗ وَ تَعٰلٰى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُوْنَ ۝١

1. Now comes the Command [1] of Allah; therefore, do not ask [2] for it to be hastened. Glory is to Him and He is Exalted above all the associates.

2. Reason for its Revelation:
The infidels of Makkah would proudly say as a jest, when will that punishment come about which you instil fear in us. In reply to their question this verse was revealed. With Allah Almighty's command the punishment here either refers to the punishment on the Day of Badr which descended upon these infidels, or the punishment of the grave or the punishment of the Day of Judgement, all of which seem further and distant to us, but are very near to Allah Almighty.

يُنَزِّلُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ بِالرُّوْحِ مِنْ اَمْرِهٖ عَلٰى مَنْ يَّشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖٓ اَنْ اَنْذِرُوْٓا اَنَّهٗ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّآ اَنَا فَاتَّقُوْنِ ۝٢

2. He sends down the angels with the spirit from His Command, that is the revelation [3] on whomsoever of His bondsmen He pleases [4], 'Warn that none is worthy of worship [5] besides Me, so fear Me.'

3. Revelation is called spirit because it bequeathes life in a person. Life gives existence to the body and revelation gives existence to Life itself. If this is separated death will occur. The bringer of revelation is Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) alone, but out of respect the plural form, angels, is used. At the revelation of certain verses, Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) would be accompanied by other angels as well. Hence use is made of the plural form, angels.
4. This is a reply to the objection of the Jews and Christians which is specific to the prophethood of the Israelites. Or, it is a reply to that taunting remarks of the Quraish that prophethood should have been received by someone wealthy. The Qadyanis cannot use this verse as a proof of their belief, because Allah Almighty Himself ended Prophethood on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This end to prophethood has taken place according to His will and intention.
5. This command of "warn" could be directed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or the believers or the Ulama of Islam because propagation work is here to remain for all times. Every Muslim should propagate the message of Islam according to his own ability.

خَلَقَ الْاِنْسَانَ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ فَاِذَا هُوَ خَصِيْمٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ۝٤

4. He created man from purified drop (semen) [6], so He is an open disputer.

6. By 'man' is meant the progeny of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) from whom Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is excluded. In short, creation of man through a sperm is law of nature, while creating him without it is Divine Power. Allah Almighty says: "The likeness of Isa with Allah is like Adam. He created him of dust" (S3:V59). Thus, there can be no objection raised about the verse. By sperm is meant the sperm of both mother and father. From the sperm of the father, bone structure is formed while from that of the mother, flesh, hair, etc are formed. Hence family lineage is from the father.

Reason for its revelation:

This verse has been revealed regarding Ubay bin Khalf who had once brought the decayed bone of the dead body and began to say that it is impossible for Allah Almighty to bring it back to life. As a reply to him this verse was revealed in which it is said that Mighty Lord who can create man from a single drop of water, can also put life in this decayed bone.

وَ الْاَنْعَامَ خَلَقَهَا ۚ لَكُمْ فِيْهَا دِفْءٌ وَّ مَنَافِعُ وَمِنْهَا تَاْكُلُوْنَ ۝٥

5. And He created the cattle, there is warm costume and there are profits, and of them you eat [7].

7. From this emerge two issues:

1. Every animal is not lawful, some are unlawful. Besides just eating these animals, other benefits can be derived from them e.g. donkey, mule, horse, etc.

2. Not every part of a lawful animal is edible, as is understood from "from it". Thus its anus, penis, testicles, gall bladder, bladder, blood, etc are all unlawful. The details of this are found in books of jurisprudence. Some animals are such that taking beneficial service from them is forbidden, e.g. Pig.

وَ لَكُمْ فِيْهَا جَمَالٌ حِيْنَ تُرِيْحُوْنَ وَحِيْنَ تَسْرَحُوْنَ ۝٦

6. And there is beauty in them for you, when you bring them back in the evening and when you leave them for grazing [8].

8. Animals were the wealth of the Arabs which they would take to the jungles in the morning and bring them home in the evening. They would take immense pleasure in doing this.

وَ تَحْمِلُ اَثْقَالَكُمْ اِلٰى بَلَدٍ لَّمْ تَكُوْنُوْا بٰلِغِيْهِ اِلَّا بِشِقِّ الْاَنْفُسِ ؕ اِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ لَرَءُوْفٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٧

7. And they carry your loads to a city, which you could not reach, but being heavily tired [9]. Verily your Lord is Most Kind and Most Merciful [10].

9. This means, Oh people of Arabia! If Allah Almighty had not created camels, mules, etc. as a means of transport, you would have found great difficulty in reaching distant cities, and would not have been able to transport your trading goods. This has now been made easy for you, for which you should express gratitude.

10. These camels, horses, mules, etc. are consuming the sustenance provided by Allah Almighty, but are rendering service to you. This is indeed due to the mercy of Allah Almighty that He has inspired awe in their hearts for you, and inculcated in them love for you. Had it not been for these wild animals, it would not have been easy for you to control.

8. And horses and mules and asses that you may ride upon them and for adornment [11]. And He will create what you know not [12].

وَّالْخَيْلَ وَ الْبِغَالَ وَ الْحَمِيْرَ لِتَرْكَبُوْهَا وَ زِيْنَةً ؕ وَ يَخْلُقُ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝٨

11. From this we learn that horse is forbidden for human consumption because Allah Almighty has categorized it with the donkey and mule, and described two types of wisdom in its creation - for conveyance and for beauty. Thus, this tells us that the law regarding all three is the same, and since the donkey and the mule are forbidden, so is the horse.
12. In this all forms of transport to be invented until the Day of Judgement are briefly mentioned e.g. the motor car, aeroplane, train, etc. In short, this blessed verse of the Holy QUR'AAN has revealed many unseen forms of knowledge which are linked with transport, or with those besides this.

9. And the middle path is rightly upto Allah [13] and some path is crooked [14]. And had He willed, He would have guided you all together [15].

وَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ قَصْدُ السَّبِيْلِ وَ مِنْهَا جَآئِرٌ ؕ وَ لَوْ شَآءَ لَهَدٰىكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ۝٩ ع ١

13. By this is meant the Religion of Islam and the creed of Ahle Sunnat wal Jama'at, because Islam does not have the strictness of the Mosaic Law, nor the easiness of Christianity. In the creed of the Ahle Sunnat there is no extremeness of the Rafzi and Kharijiyyah sects, nor is there deficiency found in other sects. Hence, this is the middle path which leads to Allah Almighty.
14. By this is meant all forms of infidelities which are beyond our estimation and reckoning. These are all crooked paths which will not lead a person to Allah Almighty. Example of these are polytheism, Judaism, Christianity, Mirzai creed, Wahabi creed, Rafzi creed, Khariji creed, etc.
15. This translation is most excellent and exquisite. The meaning of Guidance is both to show the correct path, as well as to engage the person on the correct path. The guidance of the first type has been made to everybody, while guidance of the second type has been for the Muslims and the infidels. But the person is not forced into it, and accepts infidelity on his own volition. Hence he is entitled for reward and punishment. Says Allah Almighty: "And what you desire, but only this that Allah the Lord of the world desires" (S82:V29). This tells us that man is neither helpless like the stone, nor resolute in authority like Allah Almighty. There is force in power, and there is power in force.

SECTION: 2

10. It is He Who sent down water from the sky [16] for you, from it there is drink [17] for you. And from it there are trees by which you pasture [18].

هُوَ الَّذِيْٓ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً لَّكُمْ مِّنْهُ شَرَابٌ وَّ مِنْهُ شَجَرٌ فِيْهِ تُسِيْمُوْنَ ۝١٠

Marfat.com

16. The great Sufi sages say that prophethood of heaven is the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Says Allah Almighty: "Communicate that i.e. through the Holy Prophet the heavenly water of Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith poured, which became a means of your faith, by drinking from it. The trees of good deeds too have been nurtured from it. Your souls too are deriving benefits from these trees which are your conveyance as well as your hearts and spirits.

11. With this water He causes crops to grow for you as well as olives and dates and grapes and all kind of fruits [19]. Surely, in it there are signs for the people who ponder [20].

يُنۢبِتُ لَكُمۡ بِهِ الزَّرۡعَ وَ الزَّيۡتُوۡنَ وَ النَّخِيۡلَ وَ الۡاَعۡنَابَ وَ مِنۡ كُلِّ الثَّمَرٰتِ ؕ اِنَّ فِيۡ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً لِّقَوۡمٍ يَّتَفَكَّرُوۡنَ ﴿۱۱﴾

19. To the Sufi sages, Shariat is the field of faith through which life of faith is maintained. Religious deeds are the grain and seeds of this field. Tareekat is the Garden of faith, and the deeds of Tareekat and its seclusions of mystic communion, etc. are the tasty fruit of it. All this is extracted from the Holy QUR'AAN. If the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith are not the source of life of anyone, he is groping in the darkness of misguidance.

20. From this emerge a few issues:

1. The field of cultivation is better than a garden, and indulging in farming is better than gardening. This is because farming is the life blood of human existence while gardening is there to enjoy taste and pleasure. Hence fields of crops is mentioned before.

2. Olives, dates and grapes, are better than other fruit. Hence they have been specifically mentioned.

3. Allah Almighty has not created all the fruit in the world. All the fruit will be found in Paradise only. A few varieties from the fruits are provided in this world. For this reason the words "of every kind" is being used.

4. To ponder is better than mere remembrance of Allah Almighty. Through pondering and thinking man becomes a Saint.

17. Because of the water of the wells is there due to the blessings of the rain. If there is no rainfall, wells, etc. would become dry. Hence this order is for the entire world.

18. Although the growth of all vegetation is due to rainfall, but since man derives benefits from these trees which he himself eats or uses as pastures for his animals, mention of them has been made specifically.

12. And He has made the day [21] and the night, the sun and the moon subservient to you. And the stars are subservient [22] by His Command. Verily, in it there are signs for the wise people [23].

21. From this we learn that the entire natural order is created for us; Allah Almighty was not in need of it. Thus, we too should do something for the sake of Allah Almighty so that we could be able to express some gratitude to our Creator.

22. This means the moon, the stars, the sun are serving you in such a manner that they would never become tired nor are ever off duty. It should be remembered that just as physical life is linked with day, night, sun and the moon, in the like manner lives of Faith too are linked there too. Fasting, Salaah, Zakaat, Hajj, etc. are fulfilled through them. In short, they have absorbed all inner and outer benefits and bounties in them.

Marfat.com

23. From this emerge three issues:
1. Everyday mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty is being registered, but intelligence is required to perceive this.
2. By Allah Almighty only that intelligence is good which can enable a person to understand Allah Almighty. Any intelligence which does not enable the person to reach Allah Almighty is indeed stupidity and folly.
3. Medicine, Mathematics, etc. are superior branches of knowledge, if they can help to reflect and ponder over Divine power.

13. And that which He has created for you of various [24] kinds in the land? No doubt, in it there are signs for those who remember [25].

وَ مَا ذَرَاَ لَكُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ مُخْتَلِفًا اَلْوَانُهٗ ؕ
اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَّذَّكَّرُوْنَ ﴿۱۳﴾

24. In the Sufi way of life this means in the heart's field colourful flowers and fruit of Faith, Divine Love, love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and sincerity are created. Likewise, in this same heart colourful thorns of infidelity, hypocrisy, sin, disrepect are also placed. Try to understand Divine Power through this.
25. Here, remembrance denotes that remembrance which is accompanied by pondering and reflecting and is ascertained from the Tashdeed on the letter ZAL. Remembrance is one thing but reflection is another matter altogether.

14. And it is He who has made the sea subservient [26] for you that you may eat fresh meat [27] from it and bring forth its ornaments which you wear [28]. And you see boats making their way [29] through it. And that you seek of His bounty and that perhaps you may be grateful to Him [30].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ سَخَّرَ الْبَحْرَ لِتَاْكُلُوْا مِنْهُ
لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا وَّ تَسْتَخْرِجُوْا مِنْهُ حِلْيَةً
تَلْبَسُوْنَهَا ۚ وَ تَرَى الْفُلْكَ مَوَاخِرَ فِيْهِ وَ
لِتَبْتَغُوْا مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ وَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

26. By means of the boats and ships seas are reached to obtain fish to eat and coral pearls to wear. Allah Almighty made the sea subservient to you that you go in it and come out safe without drowning.
27. In Arabic language the meat of the fish is also called LAHM (meat) but the technical term is against it. Thus those who eat species of meat can eat fish, because species is dependent on name commonly called.
28. This means pearls and corals come out from the sea which women wear, while you too use buttons, etc. made from pearls.
29. By the Sufi sages Tareekat is the ocean, Shariat, is the ship. Or the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith is the Ocean and Fiqh is its ship, because without the Fiqh, Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith is a means of destruction. Cross this ocean through the ship of the Imaam.
30. By this is meant you flourish your trade by travelling in the ships. Some use this route to perform their Hajj, some hunt for fish, etc. By means of the boat; they extract coral pearls from the sea. All these bounties are included in 'to seek', and for this, gratitude to Allah Almighty is incumbent.

15. And He has set up anchors in the earth. Lest it may shake [31] with you. And he has placed the roads and the rivers so that you may be guided.

وَ اَلْقٰى فِي الْاَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ اَنْ تَمِيْدَ بِكُمْ
وَ اَنْهٰرًا وَّ سُبُلًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

Marfat.com

31. This tells us that the earth does not move, because anchors are used to stop the ship. Even now if the earth moves, it would be useless to use the mountains as anchors. The sky too does not move. Only the stars rotate in such a way like the person swimming in the sea. Says Allah Almighty: "And each one is floating in the orbit" (S36:V40). Total number of mountains are six thousand, six hundred and seventy three. This number excludes hills (Roohul Bayaan).

16. And the mark ways [32]. And by the stars they may be guided [33].

وَعَلٰمٰتٍ ؕ وَ بِالنَّجۡمِ هُمۡ يَهۡتَدُوۡنَ ﴿۱۶﴾

32. Allah Almighty has provided such symbols on land and in sea which guide the traveller to reach his destination easily.
33. This tells us that stars are symbols of determing time and direction. To use these to elicit unseen matters is forbidden. Thus science which determines time would be regarded as true while astrology would be regarded as false.

17. Will then He who creates become like him who does not create [34]? Do you not then accept admonition [35]?

34. The infidels of Arabia did not regard their idols as creator. Despite this they would take them to be like Allah Almighty, and as such were worshipping them. Such belief of theirs is refuted in this verse i.e. since the creation cannot be like the Creator, how can it be worthy of worship like Him.
35. It should be remembered that respect is due to Allah Almighty as well as to some of His special servants. However, worship should be of Allah Almighty alone. In worship, the one worshipped is given respect of Allah Almighty or accepting him like Allah Almighty. In Salaah there is respect of Ka'ba but the worship of Allah Almighty. But the prostration of the polytheist and his worship are both directed at the idol, hence this act is polytheism. The believer's respect of Zam-Zam water is positive faith, while the polytheists' respect of the water of Ganges is polytheism.

18. And if you have to count the bounties [36] of Allah, you are unable to do so. Indeed Allah is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful [37].

وَ اِنۡ تَعُدُّوۡا نِعۡمَةَ اللّٰهِ لَا تُحۡصُوۡهَا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَغَفُوۡرٌ رَّحِيۡمٌ ﴿۱۸﴾

36. Allah Almighty has bestowed upon us certain internal bounties and certain external bounties, both of which are beyond our reckoning, let alone showing gratitude for them.
37. Despite the polytheism and rebelliousness of His servants, Allah Almighty does not withhold His bounties from them. Also He grants forgiveness to his most serious sins on repentance.

19. And Allah knows what you conceal and what you show [38].

وَاللّٰهُ يَعۡلَمُ مَا تُسِرُّوۡنَ وَ مَا تُعۡلِنُوۡنَ ﴿۱۹﴾

38. Allah Almighty is fully aware of our deeds from the beginning of time. He is All-knowing and the Eternal. He also observes our deeds while we are doing them, but this observation with regard to our action is temporary (whereas, His Divine attribute this is eternal). Regarding this, the Holy QUR'AAN has said: "So that Allah can become aware", or it is said: "till now Allah Almighty has not become aware of the Muslim soldiers".

20. And those who call on from besides Allah, themselves do not create them from anything but.

21. They are dead [39], not alive, and they do not know when the people will be raised [40].

39. By this is meant the idols of the polytheists of Arabia i.e. the trees, the stones, etc. This verse has no link with Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace). Their excellent ranks and attributes are mentioned in other verses. Even the angels are excluded from this verse. Regarding the martyrs Allah Almighty says: "And say not of those who are killed in the path of Allah as dead" (S2:V154). Hence to include the Prophets in this verse is incorrect.

Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ لَا يَخْلُقُوْنَ شَيْـًٔا وَّ هُمْ يُخْلَقُوْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾ اَمْوَاتٌ غَيْرُ اَحْيَآءٍ ۚ وَ مَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۙ اَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿٢١﴾ ع ۲ ۱۲/۸

40. This means that these lifeless idols are neither aware of your present worship nor do they have any knowledge of your future conditions when you would be resurrected from the grave. To worship such ignorant objects is indeed foolish.

SECTION: 3

22. Your God is One God [41]. Then those who do not believe in the Hereafter, their hearts only deny and they are arrogant [42].

اِلٰهُكُمْ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ ۚ فَالَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ قُلُوْبُهُمْ مُّنْكِرَةٌ وَّ هُمْ مُّسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ ﴿٢٢﴾

41. Allah Almighty is One, in terms of Personality and Attributes. Thus, if anyone after accepting the Oneness of Allah Almighty believes in someone having Divine Attributes is a polytheist as the one who associates someone in His Personality.

42. This means the infidels have two imperfections: rejection and arrogance. Therefore they do not believe in what the prophets speak, and the proofs they present. From this we learn that arrogance is not an attribute of a believer.

23. In fact Allah knows what they hide and what they declare [43]. Certainly He does not like the arrogant [44].

لَا جَرَمَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّوْنَ وَ مَا يُعْلِنُوْنَ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُسْتَكْبِرِيْنَ ﴿٢٣﴾

43. Therefore you should make it your duty to rectify your inner intentions and beliefs which are concealed. Your deeds too should be proper which are evident. Your physical appearance and your character, too, should be like the believers, and safeguard yourselves from sins that are apparent and obvious, and may Allah Almighty grant us guidance to safeguard ourselves from sins that are not seen.

44. This means no matter whether arrogance is displayed by the infidels or the believer, it is disliked by Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that pride can be true as well as false. Therefore one of the attributes of Allah Almighty is MUTAKABBIR - the Majestic. But pride is a name always given to false conceit and vain glory. When in battle against the infidels fighting with pride is an act of worship, while displaying arrogance and conceit against your fellow believer is forbidden.

Arrogance in presence of Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of infidelity and apostasy. Here, the third type of arrogance is signified. The infidels of Arabia were diseased with this type of arrogance. In the court of Allah Almighty humility and lowliness is accepted.

24. And when it is said to them, 'What has your Lord sent down [45]?' They say, 'Tales of the ancients' [46].

وَ اِذَا قِيْلَ لَهُمْ مَّاذَآ اَنْزَلَ رَبُّكُمْ ۙ قَالُوْٓا اَسَاطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ۙ﴿۲۴﴾

45. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed in connection with Nadar bin Harith who had memorised fictitious tales and narrations. He was preaching to the people that the Holy QUR'AAN, too, is a collection of fictitious stories and he, too, knew many tales.

46. The word ASATIER is a plural of ASTOORAH, and Astoorah is used in Arabic to denote minor tales, as well as for absurd and foolish tales from which no benefit can be derived. The infidels of Arabia would call the stories of the Holy QUR'AAN as ASTOORAH in the context of the above meaning - i.e. fictitious and useless stories (Allah forbid).

25. That they may bear their loads [47] in full on the Day of Judgement and from the loads of those whom they had mislead [48] due to their ignorance. Alas, what an evil load they bear! [49]

لِيَحْمِلُوْٓا اَوْزَارَهُمْ كَامِلَةً يَّوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ ۙ وَ مِنْ اَوْزَارِ الَّذِيْنَ يُضِلُّوْنَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ ؕ اَلَا سَآءَ مَا يَزِرُوْنَ ﴿۲۵﴾ ۚ

47. From this we learn that the believers will not be receiving full punishment for their sins, as many of these would be forgiven.

48. The infidel leaders would be carrying the burden of their own sins and those of their followers who had been misguided by their deception. Similarly, the Ulama and the religious guides too would receive the rewards of their own good deeds as well as of their devotees who had become pious through their guidance.

49. From this we learn that the one who misguides people would not only be carrying the burden of all their followers but their own as well. However, they would not be carrying this willingly but out of force.

SECTION: 4

26. Verily those from before have plotted against [50] them, then Allah brought down their structure from the foundation, and then the roof fell down upon them from above. And the torment came to them whilst they were unaware [51].

قَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَاَتَى اللّٰهُ بُنْيَانَهُمْ مِّنَ الْقَوَاعِدِ فَخَرَّ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّقْفُ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَ اَتٰىهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿۲۶﴾

50. By those before could refer to Namrood bin Kanaan who had a very high tower constructed, so that he could do battle with those in the heavens especially Allah Almighty. Its height was five thousand yards. Then through Divine power a strong wind brought this building to the ground, crushing many people under it. Or, it could mean the previous people. Allah Almighty, as an example, is narrating that the deceptions of the infidels in nature are like those of the previous people who had deceived their Prophets but were not successful in it. This is like a person who builds a very tall building which falls to the ground, crushing him to death.

51. So, Allah Almighty destroyed the rebellious king like Namrood through an insignificant mosquito, and the Companions of the Elephants with the swallow, annihilated the mighty people of Aad through the wind. The forces of Allah Almighty are present at all places, at all times which we should fear.

27. Then on the Day of Judgement, He will disgrace [52] them and will say, "Where are those My associates, regarding whom you used to dispute" [53]. The men with knowledge will say [54], 'Today all disgrace and vice are upon the infidels.'

ثُمَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ يُخْزِيْهِمْ وَ يَقُوْلُ
اَيْنَ شُرَكَآءِيَ الَّذِيْنَ كُنْتُمْ تُشَآقُّوْنَ
فِيْهِمْ ؕ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْعِلْمَ اِنَّ
الْخِزْيَ الْيَوْمَ وَالسُّوْٓءَ عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ۙ﴿۲۷﴾

52. From this emerge two issues;
1. The worldly punishment of the infidels will in no way decrease their punishment of the Hereafter. That punishment will be of a separate kind.
2. Although Allah Almighty would be punishing the sinful believers, they would not be humiliated. Humiliation is especially for the infidels. The sinful believers would be punished in such a hidden manner that no one will even know about it.

53. This address of the Almighty would be to reprimand the infidels, while calling the idols as their associates would be for expressing of His wrath i.e. where are those idols now which you had been always as my associates. Prophets and Saints are not included in this verse, because no believer ever accepts them as partners of Allah Almighty. These Prophets and Saints would certainly be helping their devotees with the permission of Allah Almighty.

54. By "the men of knowledge" the Prophets of their people, their scholars, their Saints, the Ulama and Saints of the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . From this we learn that the status of the Ulama is high in this world as well as in the Hereafter, because Allah Almighty has narrated their statement.

28. Those whose lives are taken out by the angels [55] while they were wronging [56] themselves, now they will offer submission that we were not doing any evil [57]. Yes, why not, beyond doubt, Allah knows well what they used to do [58].

الَّذِيْنَ تَتَوَفّٰىهُمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ ظَالِمِيْٓ اَنْفُسِهِمْ ۠
فَاَلْقَوُا السَّلَمَ مَا كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ مِنْ سُوْٓءٍ ؕ
بَلٰٓى اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۲۸﴾

55. From this emerge a few issues:
1. Deeds of Allah Almighty can be linked with some of His special servants, because to give death is the work of Allah Almighty, but

Marfat.com

He states that angels cause death. Thus it is correct to say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم bestows honour, grants paradise, etc.

2. To take out life is the work of Hazrat Izraeel (On whom be peace) but at that point in time he is accompanied by other angels under him. Thus there is no inconsistency in this verse and the other verse: "Say you, the angel of death causes you to die" (S32:V11). Like Allah Almighty says: "He sends down the angels with the spirit from his comand" (S16:V2). Observe, to bring revelation is the duty of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace), but plural form of angels is used.

3. The circumstances of one's death hold credence. He who dies on infidelity is an infidel.

56. From this we learn that credence is given to one's end or death on belief or infidelity. He who is an infidel throughout his life, but at the time of death becomes a believer, is a believer. Likewise, anyone who is a believer throughout his life but becomes an infidel at the time of his death, is an infidel. The verses in which wrongs of the infidels are described, will all signify this.

57. It is obvious that the infidels will intentionally reject that we were not infidels, nor were we evil doers. It is also possible that they may forget their religion and deeds as a result they express denial. As an example the infidel in the grave will utter I know not what my religion is. But the believer will remember his deeds, as well as admit about them.

58. In the presence of the ruler of the day who is All-Knowing and Omniscient, the denial of the accused will be useless. Despite this the hands, the feet, etc. of the infidels will be made to testify against them. However, this testimony is not for the knowledge of Allah Almighty, but to silence the offender.

29. Now enter the gates of Hell, abide in it for ever [59].Then what an evil abode of the proud ones [60].

فَادْخُلُوْٓا اَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا ؕ
فَلَبِئْسَ مَثْوَى الْمُتَكَبِّرِيْنَ ﴿٢٩﴾

59. This tells us that no matter how serious an offender a believer may be, he will not remain permanently in Hell, he will eventually be released from it.

60. This tells us that the pride of a person is false. Therefore it is a sin. Or, any arrogance which is in opposition to the Prophet is a sin. Allah Almighty's grandeur is an absolute truism. Hence, pride for Him is from His blessed attributes.

30. And it was said to the God fearing 'What is that your Lord sent down' they said 'Good' [61]. For those who did good in this world, is good [62].And undoubtedly the home [63] of the hereafter is best. And necessarily, what an excellent abode of the God fearing.

وَ قِيْلَ لِلَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا مَاذَآ اَنْزَلَ

61. During the period of Hajj the rural residents of Arabia would come to the holy city of Makkah to verify particulars and details about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. When they would ask this from the infidels some would say he is a magician, some would say he is out of his mind, some would say he is a poet (Allah forbid). But if they would ask the Noble Companions they would describe the praiseworthy qualities of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as well as the virtues of the Holy QUR'AAN to them. Mention is made here regarding this incident (Khazainul Irfaan).

This tells us that the beauty of the friend is one, but the gaze of the observers are different.

62. By the First 'Good' is meant Faith and pious deeds, while the second 'Good' denotes Paradise and the pleasure of Allah Almighty as well as the good of this world, victory and success, major bounties of Allah Almighty and excellent sustenance.

63. This is so because there will be no death nor any hardship therein. There will be no displeasure of Allah Almighty, no disunity or dissension between one another. To obtain these bounties your deeds, too, have to be good.

31. Gardens of abode, which they will enter, streams running beneath, they will get therein what they wish [64].Allah thus recompense the duty bound.

جَنّٰتُ عَدْنٍ يَّدْخُلُوْنَهَا تَجْرِىْ مِنْ
تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ لَهُمْ فِيْهَا مَا يَشَآءُوْنَ ؕ
كَذٰلِكَ يَجْزِى اللّٰهُ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ۙ﴿۳۱﴾

64. By this is meant you should act in the world according to our wishes, so that in Paradise We would do what you desire. It should be remembered that in the world our baser self is with us as well as our heart. The baser self inculcates evil desires in us, while our heart urges us to do good deeds. Therefore all our wishes here are not worthy of acceptance. But in Paradise there will be no baser self, and as such the inmates of Paradise will only have good desires. Therefore all our wishes there would be accepted by Allah Almighty.

32. Those whose lives are taken out by angels while they are pure [65] saying, 'peace be upon you [66]. Enter paradise [67] for what you did [68].

الَّذِيْنَ تَتَوَفّٰهُمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ طَيِّبِيْنَ ۙ يَقُوْلُوْنَ
سَلٰمٌ عَلَيْكُمُ ۙ ادْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ
تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۳۲﴾

65. This tells us reliability and credence is given to one's end i.e. time of death. A truly pious person is he whose death is on piety. We further learn that at the time of death there is a presence of a large number of angels - the Angel of Death and those under his control. Also that all these angels are present in the entire world at the same time.

66. From this we learn that the angels of death come after greeting the believer and take out his soul after giving him glad tidings about Paradise so that the agonies of death would become easier.

67. Either give this glad tidings presently in a spiritual way that your souls will not visit Paradise in the form of birds, or that cool air of Paradise will continue to come in your grave, or that after Judgement Day you would be granted Paradise, because going to Paradise in a physical state will only take place after the Day of Judgement.

68. It should be remembered that Paradise will be achieved through three ways: firstly through deeds for the pious; secondly through the blessings of the good deeds, like the minor children of the believers would get Paradise without any deeds; thirdly that creation which would be created to fill Paradise. Here the first category is addressed. Says Allah Almighty: "We joined them with their offspring" (S52"V21). Because generally Paradise would be achieved through good deeds, this is repeatedly mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN. The Ulama state that entry into Paradise will be due to grace and bounty of Allah Almighty, and its different ranks will be according to the deeds Bayaan).

هَلْ يَنْظُرُوْنَ اِلَّآ اَنْ تَاْتِيَهُمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ اَوْ يَاْتِيَ اَمْرُ رَبِّكَ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ؕ وَ مَا ظَلَمَهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَ لٰكِنْ كَانُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُوْنَ ﴿٣٣﴾

33. What for are they waiting [69].But that angels should come to them or the torment of your lord should come. Thus did those before them [70]. And Allah oppressed them not, yet they wronged their own souls [71].

69. This means those who did not believe in you after seeing you and hearing your words are either awaiting death or the worldly torments, like the defeat suffered in the Battles of Badr and Hunain. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the final medium of obtaining guidance. Those who did not receive guidance from him cannot obtain guidance from any other source.

70. By this is meant the people of Aad and Thamood, too, remained obstinately on infidelity. After witnessing the Divine punishment they began to perceive the truth about their Prophets. But belief of that time would be of no use, because it would not remove the punishment.

71. By unjust means to use someone's thing without his permission. We belong to Allah Almighty and to act against His wishes would be injustice and oppression. Both the sinful believer and the infidel are oppressors. However, the infidel is a greater oppressor. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong" (S31:V13).

فَاَصَابَهُمْ سَيِّاٰتُ مَا عَمِلُوْا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ﴿٣٤﴾ ع

34. Then their evil earnings [72] befell them and surrounded them that they used to mock at.

72. Here this "evil earnings" denote the punishment for their sins and infidelity. Says Allah Almighty: "And the recompense of evil is evil the like of it" (S 42: V40)

SECTION: 5

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ اَشْرَكُوْا لَوْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ مَا عَبَدْنَا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ مِنْ شَيْءٍ نَّحْنُ وَلَآ اٰبَآؤُنَا وَ لَا حَرَّمْنَا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ۚ فَهَلْ عَلَى الرُّسُلِ اِلَّا الْبَلٰغُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿٣٥﴾

35. And the polytheist said [73], ' Had Allah willed, we would not have worshipped [74] anything save Him, neither we nor our fathers, nor we would have forbidden [75] anything apart from Him thus did those before them; then what is on the messengers, but to deliver clearly [76].

73. The polytheists of Makkah were mockingly saying this about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

74. It should be remembered that here 'will' denotes to be pleased. What they meant was that because Allah Almighty is pleased with polytheism we are committing polytheism. Such a belief is infidelity. But if will is taken to mean intention, then the issue is absolutely correct because every act of this world is performed at the expressed will and intention of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty:

Marfat.com

"And what you desire, but only this that Allah, the Lord of the world desires" (S82:V29). Since these wretches did not differentiate between intention and desire, this statement of theirs became one of disrespect and infidelity.

75. From this we learn that to accept those things to be forbidden and to believe this to be a religious injunction which are not declared as such by Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the way of the infidels because according to their thinking, they were regarding Baheera (she-camel) and Saaibah (she-goats) which were sacred animals as forbidden and would say that Allah Almighty has declared them forbidden. From this those people should take a lesson who try to declare those things as forbidden without any authentic religious proof. They think they are brave who declare Meelad Shareef and Giyarwee Shareef, etc. to be forbidden.

76. This means Prophets are not entrusted with the task of forcing people into accepting faith. From this we learn that the Prophets are totally independent of the people. If no one accepts faith, it will not harm them in any way. Praise be to Allah Almighty!

36. And no doubt, We sent a messenger in every nation that, worship Allah [77]; and avoid the devil then some of them were guided by Allah and upon some of them a straying [78] came rightly. Therefore travel in the land and behold [79], how was the end of those who belied [80].

وَ لَقَدْ بَعَثْنَا فِيْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍ رَّسُوْلًا اَنِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ وَ اجْتَنِبُوا الطَّاغُوْتَ ۚ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ هَدَى اللّٰهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ حَقَّتْ عَلَيْهِ الضَّلٰلَةُ ؕ فَسِيْرُوْا فِي الْاَرْضِ فَانْظُرُوْا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكَذِّبِيْنَ ﴿٣٦﴾

77. This means say after becoming a believer or say that to accept faith, too, is an act of worship, otherwise a polytheist is not duty bound to worship prior to accepting faith. We further learn, that for the sake of faith it is important to protect oneself from the infidels.

78. This means not everyone obtained guidance from any one Prophet. Everything does not benefit from the light of the sun - the bat is deprived of it. Not every ground becomes lush green - some of this ground fails to receive its benefit. Thus Oh My Beloved! if some wretches do not accept faith at your blessed hands, it should not dishearten you.

79. From this we learn if you want to see Divine Punishment and wrath of Allah Almighty, then look at the settlements of the infidels, but if you would like to witness the mercy of Allah Almighty then behold the shrines of the Saints of Allah Almighty and witness the Imaan inspiring scenes from there. Also, it is a meritorious act to undertake a journey to meet the pious sages. If it is permissible to travel to the desolate settlements of the infidels, then without doubt, this too is permissible.

80. From this we learn that the study of History and Geography is a virtuous act as this inculcates fear of Allah Almighty in the heart. But this will only be regarded as such if the contents of these subjects are authentic, and that they are studied with good intentions.

37. If you are eager for their guidance. [81] then undoubtedly Allah guides not him who has been sent stray [82] and they have no helper. [83]

اِنْ تَحْرِصْ عَلٰى هُدٰىهُمْ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَهْدِيْ مَنْ يُّضِلُّ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ نّٰصِرِيْنَ ﴿٣٧﴾

81. Reason for its Revelation:
The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was fully aware that all the infidels would not accept Islam. He had foretold that some of them would be inmates of Hell. Despite this, his effort and desire was that everyone should become believers and he would be saddened at some of those who had not accepted Islam. This verse was revealed regarding the above. It should be remembered that describing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as eager and desirous speaks volumes for the nobility and excellence of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the true reflection of his being a mercy unto the worlds. He would be bestowed with virtue for expressing this eagerness because this is a form of propagation. The grace and virtue of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is spontaneous. To regard this verse as a proof for the Holy Prophet's lack of knowledge or having limited knowledge is indeed the height of stupidity.

82. This means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would not be made to give account about those people who are created for heresy and destined to die as infidels. It should be remembered that these people are created so that they remain heretics on their own free will. Both their heresy and their evil will is within the knowledge of Allah Almighty. Thus, a person is not helpless, but with the permission of Allah Almighty is one possessing free will.

83.From this we learn that being without helpers is for the infidels. Allah Almighty would appoint many helpers for the believers. This verse is an expression of tremendous praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. A fine example of this is the one who tells his able student that no matter how eager you may be to receive extra lessons, I would not teach you anything extra from the rest of the class! This indeed reflects the teacher's benevolence.

38. And they swear by Allah with the utmost endeavour in their oaths that Allah will not raise the dead ones, yes why not, the true promise [84] is on Him but most people know not.

وَاَقْسَمُوْا بِاللّٰهِ جَهْدَ اَيْمَانِهِمْ ۙ لَا يَبْعَثُ اللّٰهُ مَنْ يَّمُوْتُ ؕ بَلٰى وَعْدًا عَلَيْهِ حَقًّا وَّ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳۸﴾

84. From this we learn that some things are regarded obligatory by Allah Almighty due to this extreme kindness and compassion. But this obligation is taken upon Himself by Allah Almighty, and not made obligatory upon Him by anyone else.

39. In order that He may tell them plainly that in which they used to dispute and in order for the infidels to know that they were liars [85].

85. This means the true purpose of holding the Day of Judgement is to reveal upon the creation the truth about the Prophets. Accountability will most certainly take place, but this will be completed within a short space of time, and since the duration of the day is fifty thousand years, therefore the rest of the day would be utilised for revealing the true dignity of the Holy Prophet the disgrace of the infidels and enhancing the honour of the believers.

40. Anything We intend, our saying to it is that We say, 'Be' and it becomes at once [86].

اِنَّمَا قَوْلُنَا لِشَىْءٍ اِذَاۤ اَرَدْنٰهُ اَنْ نَّقُوْلَ لَهٗ كُنْ فَيَكُوْنُ ﴿۴۰﴾

Marfat.com

86. This means that the power of Allah Almighty is that He can create whatever He desires with the would "Be!" But inspite of this, He created somethings from sand and some from other materials after some time. The creation with the command "Be!" is His power, while this delay is His wisdom. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verses. Law of nature is one thing, His Power is another matter. The world of spirits and Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) were created with the command "Be!". This is indeed the Power of Allah Almighty.

41. And those who left their homes in the path of Allah because of being oppressed [87]; We shall surely give them a good place [88] in the life of this world. And undoubtedly, the reward of the hereafter is much greater [89], if the people would have known.

87. This verse was revealed concerning all those emigrant Companions (MUHAJIREEN) who had emigrated to Abyssinia and then to Madina Munawwarah due to the persecution of the polytheists of Makkah. From this we learn that this type of migration which is not undertaken for personal reasons, but for the sole pleasure of Allah Almighty is an act of worship. The same is the condition of other forms of worships.

88. This means in Madina Munawwarah. Thus Allah Almighty fulfilled His promise. It should be remembered that this promise was made only with the early migrant Companions which became fulfilled. This promise is not for all the migrants at all times. Many immigrants do not obtain favourable places and die in the state of helplessness. From this verse we learn that in some respects Madina Munawwarah is superior to Makkah Muazzamah as Allah Almighty has called it a good place. And why should it not be as it is the city of His Beloved? According to Imaam Malik's opinion, prior to Hijrah, Makkah was superior to Madina, but after Hijrah Madina became superior to Makkah because superiority is linked with the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed presence.

89. This means that the comfort which the Muhajireen obtained in Madina Munawwarah will not decrease their rewards of the Hereafter, just as the travelling allowance or any other allowance does not decrease the salary of government officials.

42. Those who have kept patience rely only on their Lord [90].

الَّذِيْنَ صَبَرُوْا وَ عَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

90. Patience and reliance are utmost position of good treatment. From this we learn that all the early Muhajireen were on the highest position of Sainthood which is testified to by Allah Almighty. Because this verse is Makkan, only the early Muhajireen are included in it. Also, exercising patience on migrating from your place of birth is full of excellence. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too at the time of migration looked at Makkah with a sorrowful glance and said "I would not have left you if I was not forced into it" (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

43. And We sent not before you any but men [91] to whom We reveal, then O people! Ask the men of knowledge if you do not know [92].

of those polytheists who would say Allah Almighty cannot bestow prophethood on a human being. From this verse one learns that Taqleed is incumbent upon a non-Mujtahid i.e. one who is not a jurist entitled to independent opinion, because it is necessary for one who is ignorant to seek knowledge from one who knows. The same is with Taqleed. In this case, the non-Mujtahid enquires religious issues from his Imam or religious head.

91. From this we learn that all the Prophets were always mature male adults. Besides humans no other creation was bestowed with prophethood, neither was a woman appointed to this position. Likewise, minor children and demented persons too were not bestowed with prophethood. However, some Prophets were bestowed with prophethood in their childhood and remained with prophethood in their adulthood.

92. This verse was revealed in refutation

بِالْبَيِّنٰتِ وَ الزُّبُرِ ؕ وَ اَنْزَلْنَآ اِلَيْكَ الذِّكْرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ اِلَيْهِمْ وَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٤٤﴾

the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

2. The Holy QUR'AAN was revealed for propagation, not to conceal its contents.

3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not conceal a single commandment of the Holy QUR'AAN. Every injunction was fully conveyed to the people.

4. To ponder and think carefully over Quranic matter is an excellent form of worship. Hence, the scholar of the QUR'AAN is superior to the one who has mastered the art of its recitation, and prudent deliberation of the Holy QUR'AAN is better than its mere recitation. The true purpose of revelation of the QUR'AAN is its meditative reflection.

93. By "clear arguments" is meant miracles, while Books refer to SAHAIF (Scrolls) and all the heavenly revealed Books. From this we learn that Allah Almighty had blessed all the Prophets with miracles. No Prophet had come without them. Likewise, no Prophet was without a Divine Book or heavenly scroll - whether it was a new Book or propagating the previous Book. In short, this verse is the source of many issues.

94. From this emerge a few issues:

1. One name given to the Holy QUR'AAN is "The Remembrance" because it is a means of honour and advice for the believers, and a discussion on the past and future events and memorable remembrance of

اَفَاَمِنَ الَّذِيْنَ مَكَرُوا السَّيِّاٰتِ اَنْ يَّخْسِفَ اللّٰهُ بِهِمُ الْاَرْضَ اَوْ يَاْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿٤٥﴾

45. Do then those who devise evil plans [95] not fear that Allah may sink [96] them in the earth, or the torment may come to them when they are not aware?

and his Noble Companions. صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

95. This means those wretches are always secretly planning to persecute the Holy Prophet

96. From this we learn that Divine punishment from unknown sources can descend upon certain specific people even today. In fact, it has come, and would always come. However mass punishment has stopped since the coming of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

Marfat.com

46. Or that He may seize [97] them while going to and fro, because they cannot tire Him.

97. This means destroy them during their journey on land and sea so that they would not

47. Or that He may catch them [98] by a process of slow wastage. No doubt, your Lord is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful [99].

98. Here mention is made of four types of punishments: to sink into the ground, coming of the punishment while living like Qaroon on earth, coming of the punishment during a journey. These three were all sudden punishments. The fourth is appearance of the signs of punishment, followed by the actual punishment. The object of this is to show that "Oh you infidels since you are under Our control at all times why do you not obey Me and My Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ".

48. And have they not observed that whatever Allah has made, their shadows turn right [100] and left prostrating [101] to Allah and they are degraded before Him [102].

100. This means the shadow of everything is moving according to the movement of the sun. When the sun is in the east, the shadow is in the west. When the sun is in the south, its shadow is in the north. Since they are powerless to change the movement of their shadow, why do they not obey Allah Almighty?

101. This means their shadows are submissive to Allah Almighty. Here the word prostration denotes obedience, and not the

This discussion is regarding that punishment which descends contrary to Divine practices, like pouring of stones from the sky, faces being mutilated, etc. But evident punishment like defeat in the battle, would continue to come.

اَوۡ يَاۡخُذَهُمۡ فِىۡ تَقَلُّبِهِمۡ فَمَا هُمۡ بِمُعۡجِزِيۡنَ ۙ﴿۴۶﴾ be able to return to their homes.

اَوۡ يَاۡخُذَهُمۡ عَلٰى تَخَوُّفٍ ؕ فَاِنَّ رَبَّكُمۡ لَرَءُوۡفٌ رَّحِيۡمٌ ﴿۴۷﴾

99. For this reason He does not send the punishment quickly. If you at this point in time are ready to repent, the mercy of Allah Almighty is ever ready to embrace you. You should further remember that the punishment of the one who is most kind and merciful is very severe when He seizes you in His grip, He will not leave you. Thus, these blessed names are mentioned here with the punishment. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

اَوَلَمۡ يَرَوۡا اِلٰى مَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ مِنۡ شَىۡءٍ يَّتَفَيَّؤُا ظِلٰلُهٗ عَنِ الۡيَمِيۡنِ وَ الشَّمَآئِلِ سُجَّدًا لِّلّٰهِ وَ هُمۡ دٰخِرُوۡنَ ﴿۴۸﴾ conventional prostration - SAJDAH. It is possible that this could mean the formal prostration as well. Thus, He is beyond our comprehension. Everything in the presence of Allah Almighty is in a state of prostration, even if we are unable to see it.

102. This means the polytheist themselves or their shadows are obedient because in creative commands they are completely helpless i.e. they do as they are told, they die on being killed, sleep on being made to sleep, are awake when awakened. Therefore, they should obey Allah Almighty in matters of religion as well.

49. And to Allah prostates all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth and the angels (too) and they do not boast [103].

وَ لِلّٰهِ يَسْجُدُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِي الْاَرْضِ مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ وَّ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ وَ هُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُوْنَ ﴿٤٩﴾

103. From this we learn two issues:
1. Besides man and jinn no one in the creation is polytheist, infidel or disobedient;
2. After man, the angels are most superior in the creation of Allah Almighty. Therefore they have been mentioned with such distinction.

50. They fear their Lord above them and do what they are commanded [104].

يَخَافُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ مِّنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَ يَفْعَلُوْنَ مَا يُؤْمَرُوْنَ ﴿٥٠﴾

104. From this emerge two issues:
1. Angels are bound to duty, but their orders are in accordance to their suitability.
2. They are totally free of any disobedience. Haroot and Maroot only indulged in sin after their angelic state had ended and were given human power. Thus, that incident is not against the innocence of angels. It should be remembered that in Islam only Prophets and angels are innocent and no one else. However, some saints too are under the protective custody of Allah Almighty.

SECTION: 7

51. And Allah has said [105] 'take not two Gods.' He is only One God to be worshipped and therefore fear Me alone [106].

وَقَالَ اللّٰهُ لَا تَتَّخِذُوْٓا اِلٰهَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ ۚ اِنَّمَا هُوَ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ ۚ فَاِيَّايَ فَارْهَبُوْنِ ﴿٥١﴾

105. Allah Almighty commanded His entire creation, whether man or jinns or others in the creation. The commandment of Tauheed (Unity) of Allah Almighty is so general that no distinction is made in this regard to anyone. Every creation is duty bound to it.
106. Fear of divinity should be of none besides Allah Almighty, while fear of distress and oppression as well as other forms of fears can be of the creation e.g. the fear of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) for the Pharaoh and the snake, our fear for the governer or the king are not fear of divinity but fear of oppression and pain, or the fear of their greatness. Hence there is no inconsistency in the verse.

52. And whatever is in the heavens and in the earth [107] belongs to Allah, and His obedience is incumbent [108]. Will you then fear anyone else other than Allah?

وَ لَهٗ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَ لَهُ الدِّيْنُ وَاصِبًا ؕ اَفَغَيْرَ اللّٰهِ تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿٥٢﴾

107. The entire creation and possessions in reality all belong to Allah Almighty. However, the ownership of some possessions is due to Divine endowment and is temporary and metaphorical. On the other hand he who becomes the beloved of Allah Almighty, the world becomes his.
108. This means there is no decline to His

Marfat.com

Religion and obedience. He is eternal and absolute in this world and the Hereafter. The other religions are immediately forgotten by man at death. There will be no obedience to anyone of these in the Hereafter, besides obedience to Allah Almighty.

53. And whatever good you have in this world is all from Allah [109], and then when trouble touches you, towards Him you turn crying for shelter.

وَ مَا بِكُمْ مِّنْ نِّعْمَةٍ فَمِنَ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ اِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فَاِلَيْهِ تَجْـَٔرُوْنَ ۚ﴿۵۳﴾

109. This means some of these have come directly and some indirectly, e.g. the light of the sun, light of the lamp, etc.

54. Then when He removes evil from you, a group of you starts associating others with their Lord [110].

ثُمَّ اِذَا كَشَفَ الضُّرَّ عَنْكُمْ اِذَا فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْكُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُوْنَ ۙ﴿۵۴﴾

110. During times of distress and difficulties, the polytheists of Arabia offer prayer to Allah Almighty alone but during time of comfort and peace they would worship the idols.Their condition is mentioned in this verse.

It should be remembered that in times of difficulties it is not wrong to seek the assistance of the doctor, the ruler, the Prophet, the saint, as they are the natural phenomena of Divine help.

55. That they may be ungrateful to what good We have given them. So they enjoy, but very soon they will come to know.

لِيَكْفُرُوْا بِمَآ اٰتَيْنٰهُمْ ؕ فَتَمَتَّعُوْا ۫ فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۵۵﴾

56. And they appoint a portion out what We have provided [111] them for unknown things [112]. By Allah! You will be questioned about that which you used to forge [113].

وَيَجْعَلُوْنَ لِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ نَصِيْبًا مِّمَّا رَزَقْنٰهُمْ ؕ تَاللّٰهِ لَتُسْـَٔلُنَّ عَمَّا كُنْتُمْ تَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿۵۶﴾

111. This means that they are worshipping those idols of whose disgrace and depravity they are unaware.

112. The infidels would dedicate a portion of their animals and produce to their idols. They would say "This and this is for our idols". This is polytheism. But if the believers set aside a portion of their earnings for offering the prayers of the pious and feeding herewith the poor and needy, it is permissible and desirable. Says Allah Almighty: "And those in whose wealth there is a known right. For one who asks and for one who could not even ask" (S70:Vs 24-25).

113. From this emerge two issues:

1. To set aside a portion of your earnings for the idols is an act of sin because their divinity is non-existent, while doing the same in the name of a saint of Allah Almighty is lawful as their sainthood is proven from the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith.
2. Although the portion set aside for the idols is unlawful, but out of it that portion which comes into the hands of the believers or comes to them as spoils of war will no longer be unlawful and can be used by them. If she-camels and she-goats dedicated to the idols are slaughtered by Muslims in the name of Allah

Almighty become lawful for eating because Allah Almighty has declared their act of dedication as unlawful but not what they had dedicated. Whatever spoils of war came in the hands of the Noble Companions, during the holy war would be used by them, even if these were dedicated to their idols.

57. And they appoint daughters unto Allah [114] Glory be to Him, and for themselves they have what they desire [115].

وَ يَجْعَلُوْنَ لِلّٰهِ الْبَنٰتِ سُبْحٰنَهٗ ۙ وَ لَهُمْ مَّا يَشْتَهُوْنَ ﴿۵۷﴾

114. The tribes of Khaza'ah and Kananah would say that the angels are the daughters of Allah Almighty, although children are from the genus of the father. Also, children cannot be the possessions of the fathers. Thus, if the angels had been the daughters of Allah Almighty then they themselves should have been God and not the servants of God Almighty.

115. This means sons. Its purpose is to make us aware that they are so uncouth and ill mannered that they desire sons for themselves, and try to prove them as daughters of Allah Almighty.

58. And when anyone is given glad tidings of the birth of a girl, his face changes to black and he suppresses his anger [116].

وَ اِذَا بُشِّرَ اَحَدُهُمْ بِالْاُنْثٰى ظَلَّ وَجْهُهٗ مُسْوَدًّا وَّ هُوَ كَظِيْمٌ ﴿۵۸﴾

116. From this we learn that to express sorrow at the birth of a daughter is the practice of the infidels. However, to desire a son for the service of Religion is the Sunnah of the Prophets.

59. He hides himself from the people because of what glad tidings [117] he received. Will he keep the disgrace [118] or bury it in the dust [119]? Lo! They are very bad judges [120].

يَتَوَارٰى مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِنْ سُوْٓءِ مَا بُشِّرَ بِهٖ ؕ اَيُمْسِكُهٗ عَلٰى هُوْنٍ اَمْ يَدُسُّهٗ فِي التُّرَابِ ؕ اَلَا سَآءَ مَا يَحْكُمُوْنَ ﴿۵۹﴾

117. From this we learn that the Arabs would taunt a person in whose house a girl was born, because they would regard a girl to be worse than an animal. If the she-camel gave birth to a female off-spring they would not express any reproach or blame, but if a woman gave birth to a daughter they would express words of sorrow and reproach.

118. So that he can make the daughter do menial work like looking after the domestic animals. Or, it could mean that keep the daughter alive and become a source of disgrace among the people.

119. The infidels of the tribes of Mudir, Khiza'a and Tameem would bury their females alive.

120. After regarding the daughter with so much contempt they were trying to prove them to be daughters of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that to link baser things with Allah Almighty is infidelity, e.g. lies, death, etc.

60. The conditions of those who do not believe in the hereafter are bad [121], and the Glory of Allah is the

لِلَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ مَثَلُ السَّوْءِ ۚ وَ لِلّٰهِ الْمَثَلُ الْاَعْلٰى ؕ وَ هُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ

Loftiest [122]. And He is the Most Powerful and the Most Wise.

الْحَكِيْمُ ﴿٦٠﴾ ع ١٠ ١٣

121. Because while in the world their beliefs and deeds were evil, they were burying their daughters alive, consuming alcohol, stealing, miserliness, they experienced a miserable death, their end in the Hereafter would be wretched.

122. This translation is indeed one of excellence. Hence the word "like" does not mean example or saying. Says Allah Almighty: "There is none like Him". Thus, this word is used to denote glory and splendour, which means the glory of Allah Almighty is most elevated. He is free from triviality and any form of association. He is the personification of excellent qualities and free of all faults.

SECTION: 8

61. And if Allah would have [123] taken them for their wrong doings, then He would have left no [124] crawling creature on earth, but He defers them till a fixed time [125], then when their time comes, they cannot remain behind a single hour, nor can they go ahead of it [126].

وَ لَوْ يُؤَاخِذُ اللّٰهُ النَّاسَ بِظُلْمِهِمْ مَّا تَرَكَ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ وَّ لٰكِنْ يُّؤَخِّرُهُمْ اِلٰٓى اَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۚ فَاِذَا جَآءَ اَجَلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَاْخِرُوْنَ سَاعَةً وَّ لَا يَسْتَقْدِمُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾

123. This means if Allah Almighty were to seize people for all their sins in this world. However, in the Hereafter they would be nabbed for all their sins. In the world too they are seized for some of their sinful deeds in the form of Divine punishment. Thus, here the word wrong doing denotes every form of evil practice and belief.

124. As it happened during the period of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) where every crawling creature had been destroyed. The aquatic creatures were not on land but in the water. Even Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) and his companions at that point in time were not on land but in the Ark. From this we learn that due to the sins of man, punishment descends upon the animals as well, because all the animals are sub-ordinate to man. The weevil too is crushed with wheat. Says Allah Almighty: "The mischief has appeared in the land and sea, because of the evils earned by the hands of men" (S30:V41).

125. By this promise is meant the termination of age of the culprit, or the appointed time of their punishment, or the different times of the different punishments on the Day of Judgement.

126. Here, term of life denotes inevitable fate i.e. Divine knowledge in which there can certainly be no alteration, but the pending fate which is also known as obliteration and affirmation, continues to change. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah wipes out what he pleases and establishes (what He pleases)" (S13:V39). It is reported in the Hadith that age increases by performing good deeds. Due to the prayer of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), the life span of Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) increased from sixty to hundred years. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse.

62. And appoint for Allah what they themselves dislike [127], and their tongues lie saying that they like it [128].

وَيَجْعَلُوْنَ لِلّٰهِ مَا يَكْرَهُوْنَ وَتَصِفُ اَلْسِنَتُهُمُ الْكَذِبَ اَنَّ لَهُمُ الْحُسْنٰى ؕ لَا

Then undoubtedly for them is the fire [129], and they are the people who have crossed the limits.

verse was revealed to refute this nonsensical talk of these infidels. They were certainly not convinced about the Day of Judgement. This means their deeds are hellish, but they are hoping for Paradise. How can you hope to reap wheat when you sow barley?

129. This means their eternal stay in Hell. Hence the calculating opinion expressed in the verse is correct.

تَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَاۤ اِلٰۤى اُمَمٍ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ فَزَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ اَعْمَالَهُمْ فَهُوَ وَلِيُّهُمُ الْيَوْمَ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. By Allah, We sent messengers to many nations before you, then Satan made their work look beautiful in their eyes [130], so he is their companion [131] on this day and for them is a painful punishment.

who tries to prove good deeds to be evil, too, is Iblees.

131. By this 'friendship' is meant the false friendship of the world, and those verses in which it is said that there are no friends for the oppressors, refers to true friendship of the Hereafter. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

وَمَاۤ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتٰبَ اِلَّا لِتُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِى اخْتَلَفُوْا فِيْهِ ۙ وَ هُدًى وَّ رَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

64. And We have not sent down this book to you but in order that you make clear to them what [132] they differ [133], and guidance and a mercy for the believers [134].

صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Therefore it is said you make it clear upon the people. By abandoning the medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Holy QUR'AAN will misguide you. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah sends astray many by it, and guides many" (S2:V21).

133. They differ in worldly or religious matters. From this we learn we should make the Holy QUR'AAN the judge in all our differences, but this should be done through the

127. This means they do not desire daughters and partners for themselves, yet they accept these for Allah Almighty (Allah forbid!)

128. Reason for its revelation:
The infidels were saying that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was a true Prophet, and if the Day of Judgement is really going to take place, we would still be given Paradise. "And even if I be returned to my Lord, for me there is good with Him" (S41:V50).The above

130. Here deeds denote infidelity, polytheism and sins because infidelity and polytheism, too, are practices of the heart. From this we learn that committing sins with the thought that they are pious deeds is infidelity, while thinking of them as sinful deeds is transgresion which is lighter than the first sin. Further, any person who tries to prove evil to be good is a devil. Likewise, anyone

132. From this emerge two issues:
1. The Holy QUR'AAN was not revealed for mere recitation, it is also a cure, a guidance, the Law of Allah Almighty and His Mercy. Thus it is beneficial for the believer to establish the government and to overthrow the government.
2. The Holy QUR'AAN is the guidance and mercy for only that person who accepts it through the medium of the Holy Prophet medium of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the assistance of the religious scholars (Ulama).

134. From this we learn that the special mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is particularly linked with the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "And to the believers is most kind and merciful" (S9:V128), and generally mercy to the entire creation. Says Allah Almighty: "And We sent you not but as a mercy for all worlds". (S21:V107) The general mercy includes Divine punishment not coming in the world, receiving of sustenance, children, etc because all these bounties are being received by everybody because of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The special mercy includes faith, piety, sainthood, gaining the nearness of Allah Almighty, as these are received by the believers only due to the bounty of the Holy Prophet . The infidels are deprived of these gifts.

65. And Allah sent down water from the heavens [135], and then He gave life to earth after its death. Surely there are signs in it for those who listen [136].

وَاللّٰهُ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً فَاَحْيَا بِهِ الْاَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا ؕ اِنَّ فِیْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰیَةً لِّقَوْمٍ یَّسْمَعُوْنَ ﴿۶۵﴾ ع ۸ ۱۴

135. This means from the heavens or from the heavenly treasures or through heavenly causes. Although the rain originates from the oceans, the heat comes from the sky which converts this water into vapour and raises it skywards. Then, due to condensation sends it down in the form of rain.

136. The intelligent people derive two conclusions from the rain.

1. In this very manner Allah Almighty will bring the dead back to life through the sound of the Trumpet.

2. The sermons and admonishing words of the pious instil life into dead hearts. The neglectful heart is like dry earth, the gaze of the pious is like rain water whose ocean is Madinatul Munawwarah.

SECTION: 9

66. And verily, there is a lesson for you in the cattle [137]. We give you to drink whatever is in their bellies [138] from between the dung and the blood, pure milk that is easy to swallow for the drinkers [139].

وَ اِنَّ لَكُمْ فِی الْاَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً ؕ نُسْقِیْكُمْ مِّمَّا فِیْ بُطُوْنِهٖ مِنْۢ بَیْنِ فَرْثٍ وَّدَمٍ لَّبَنًا خَالِصًا سَآئِغًا لِّلشّٰرِبِیْنَ ﴿۶۶﴾

137. By looking at the milk-bearing domestic animals, e.g. cattle, can help to solve many issues pertaining to Faith.

138. To extract milk from chaff and grass is a great proof of Divine power.

139. From the fodder of dry grass, dung, blood and milk are obtained, yet there is no smell of dung or the colour of blood nor is the taste found in the milk. The infidels were saying that after death all the limbs of the body would be scattered. Then how will one be able to differentiate and distinguish between them. In this verse a reply is given to their doubts, that blood, dung and milk are made from chaff and fodder, yet they are not intermixed. They are sifted and sorted out in such an accurate manner. Allah Almighty be praised! Such a Lord who possesses such supreme power will on the that Day, too, have absolute power to gather and sort out all these limbs. The great Sufi sages say "Oh man just as Allah Almighty provided you with pure milk to drink which did not have any mixture of blood and dung, you too should offer sincere and pure worship to your Lord which should not have any mixture of Riya (doing for show)" etc. (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Bayaan).

67. And of the fruits of date palms and grapes, you make therefrom a non-alcoholic drink and good provision [140]. Indeed, in it there is a sign for a nation of wisdom.

140. By good provision is meant dry dates, raisins, large raisins, juices, extracts, vinegar, etc. It should be remembered that the word SUKR is used to denote alcohol as well as non-alcohol i.e. beverage e.g. clear, sweet water. If the word SUKR is taken to mean alcohol, then this verse was revealed prior to the injunction which made alcohol forbidden. It is for this reason that alcohol is contrasted with good provisions so that it can be clearly understood that alcohol is unwholesome provision. And if the word is taken to mean non-alcoholic beverage, then Imaam Abu Hanifa and Imaam Abu Yusuf (On them be peace) have substantiated a proof that the beverage made from grapes and dates is permissible for drinking, if it does not cause intoxication, even if two thirds is burnt and one third remains (Khazainul Irfaan).

68. And your Lord inspired [141] the honey bee to make houses in the hills and in the trees and in the roofs.

وَ اَوْحٰی رَبُّكَ اِلَی النَّحْلِ اَنِ اتَّخِذِیْ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُیُوْتًا وَّ مِنَ الشَّجَرِ وَ مِمَّا یَعْرِشُوْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾ ۙ

141. This means placed inspiration in its heart in a natural way without being tutored to do this by the parents, e.g. inspiring the offspring of fish to swim. Thus, the word "to inspire" has been used literally. This tells us that the honey-bee is an exalted creature.

Remember, that honey is lawful, but to eat the honey bee is forbidden and killing it is prohibited. The trading of honey bees according to Imaam Abu Hanifa (On whom be peace) is not permissible, unless they become part of it.

69.Then eat of every type of fruit [142], and walk the ways [143] of your Lord, which is smooth and easy for you. There comes out from their bellies a drink of varied colours [144] in which there is healing for the people [145]. Verily there are signs in it for those who ponder [146].

ثُمَّ كُلِیْ مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرٰتِ فَاسْلُكِیْ سُبُلَ رَبِّكِ ذُلُلًا ؕ یَخْرُجُ مِنْۢ بُطُوْنِهَا شَرَابٌ مُّخْتَلِفٌ اَلْوَانُهٗ فِیْهِ شِفَآءٌ لِّلنَّاسِ ؕ اِنَّ فِیْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰیَةً لِّقَوْمٍ یَّتَفَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٦٩﴾

142. This means these bees can stay wherever they like and eat whatever they like. Thus, these honey bees fly a great distance in search of fruit and flowers, but they never forget their homes and return without any difficulty.

143. By "ways of Allah Almighty" is meant those ways which Allah Almighty has explained and informed to them.

144. Multi-coloured honey- white, yellow, red, green, black. The difference in the colour of the honey is due to the nectar sucked from different coloured flowers. Also, the honey of young bees is white, of medium bees is yellow and of old bees is red. The honey bees bring nectar sucked from a variety of fruit and flowers and spew it out in their homes (honey combs).

145. It is stated in Mathnawi Shareef of Hazrat Jalaluddeen Rumi (On whom be peace) the honey bee sucks the nectar from the flowers in the gardens and returns while reciting Darood Shareef on the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Through the blessings of this pious act, there is cure placed in this honey, because Darood Shareef in itself is a means of cure. The Darood Shareef is taught to these bees in a natural way. The sweetness of this Darood is placed in the honey. Therefore, just as the blessings of the Darood converts the inspired juice of flowers into one of sweetness, likewise, if Allah Almighty wills, the blessings of the Darood will give our dull worship the sweet flavour of acceptance.

146. If Allah Almighty can accumulate nectar of different flowers in the honey through the honey bees, then is it beyond His power to put together scattered limbs of the dead and raise them back to life?

70. Allah has created you, and then He will cause you to die [147]. And some of you are turned towards the worst part of life, so that they will not know even after having knowledge [148]. No doubt, Allah is All Knowing and All Powerful [149].

وَ اللّٰهُ خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ يَتَوَفّٰىكُمْ ۚ وَ مِنْكُمْ
مَّنْ يُّرَدُّ اِلٰۤى اَرْذَلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْ لَا يَعْلَمَ
بَعْدَ عِلْمٍ شَيْـًٔا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلِيْمٌ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۷۰﴾ ع ۹ ۱۵

147. From this we learn that the works of the special servants of Allah Almighty are linked to Him, because although taking out of souls is the work of the angels, Allah Almighty says "We cause you to die".

148. This physical condition sets in man after he has reached the age of sixty. Then all his strength weakens to a large degree and all his senses become worthless. He forgets what he has studied. Sayyedina Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) states that a pious believer does not experience this condition. He in his old age gains added intelligence. However,those special believers who are most close to Allah Almighty sometimes tend to forget this world due to their communion with their Creator (Khazainul Irfaan).

149. It should be remembered that there are five stages of human life: upto the age of seven is infancy; upto fourteen is childhood; upto thirty years prime of life; thereafter middle age and the last stage is old age. Look at these conditions and realise that you are in some one's control, who after your death will keep you in that state as long as He likes, then bring you back to life whenever He pleases.

should become equal [151] in it. Do they deny the blessings of Allah? [152]

سَوَآءٌ ؕ اَفَبِنِعْمَةِ اللّٰهِ يَجْحَدُوْنَ ﴿٧١﴾

150. From this we learn that a person does not receive sustenance due to his own intelligence and education. Many foolish, ignorant people are wealthy, while many intelligent and knowledgeable persons are without it. This, too, is a proof of Allah Almighty's existence.

151. When you do not practise equality among your servants, then how will I, your Lord, make My servants equal to Me.
However, certain of My servants are bestowed in abundance out of My free will. Likewise, Allah Almighty out of His grace grants His chosen servants ownership over His creation. But, despite this they are not equal to Allah Almighty but they are His servants. In short, there is no negation of having to provide in this verse, but the negation of equality with Allah Almighty, and this is the difference between the believer and an infidel.

152. By this is meant they leave Allah Almighty aside and worship others, or they reject the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . These foolish persons fail to realise that Allah Almighty is the Absolute Master who can enrich anyone with the bounties which He pleases. When everyone is not equal in wealth, then how can they be equal in circumstances?

72. And Allah has made [153] for you women from amongst yourselves and created for you from your women, sons [154], and grand sons and provided you with clean things [155]. Do they then believe in falsehood and deny the favour of Allah? [156]

وَ اللّٰهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّنْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَزْوَاجًا
وَّجَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّنْ اَزْوَاجِكُمْ بَنِيْنَ وَحَفَدَةً

يُؤْمِنُوْنَ وَ بِنِعْمَتِ اللّٰهِ هُمْ يَكْفُرُوْنَ ﴿٧٢﴾

153. From this we learn that man can only enter into marriage with the female of his kind and not with a jinn or animal. The Hoories in Paradise will be given as wives, but that is a different world. We further learn that the off-spring of the humans will be humans. Thus, if a woman gives birth to a snake, that is a bad specie, not a human specie, which will not be able to fulfil the requirements of the period of Iddat, and the blood that follows thereafter will not be regarded as NIFAAS - blood of child birth. If this snake dies there will be no Salatul Janazah for it. In short, the laws of the human species will not be applicable to it.

154. From whom your progeney will be perpetuated. From this we learn that children are a great bounty from Allah Almighty, especially believing children.

155. Physical sustenance, like different types of grain, fruit, etc and spiritual sustenance, like faith, piety, pious life which can be obtained through the guidance of various religious guides. The gardens, fields, and rains of this sustenance are strange. May Allah Almighty bestow this upon us. Amin

156. This means they would say that these bounties are provided by their idols. They make no mention of the true provider of the sustenance, but lean towards the false deities.

Marfat.com

73. And they worship from besides Allah such that We have no power to give provision from the heavens and earth, nor can they do anything [157].

They are lifeless and senseless. This verse is the commentery of all those verses in which calling upon those besides Allah Almighty is forbidden. Here calling upon denotes worship.

157. This means neither are these idols masters at this point in time nor can they become masters in the future because they themselves are the creation of someone else.

فَلَا تَضْرِبُوْا لِلّٰهِ الْاَمْثَالَ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ وَ اَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۷۴﴾ incomparable. "There is none like Him." (S42 : V 11)

158. This means do not make anyone equal to Allah Almighty, because He is ضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ مَثَلًا عَبْدًا مَّمْلُوْكًا لَّا يَقْدِرُ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ وَّ مَنْ رَّزَقْنٰهُ مِنَّا رِزْقًا حَسَنًا فَهُوَ يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ سِرًّا وَّجَهْرًا ؕ هَلْ يَسْتَوٗنَ ؕ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ ؕ بَلْ اَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾

75. Allah explained an example [159], there is a slave who has a master; he does not have power upon anything, and one whom We have provided from ourselves with good provision, then he spends out of it secretly and openly, are they equal [160]? All Praise is to Allah, but most of them do not know [161]?

Almighty. Likewise, how can the followers claim to be equal to the Prophets, because the Prophets are indeed masters of the slaves.

159. Not of Himself, because He has no comparison. But this example is of the infidelity and polytheism of the polytheists. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verses, nor any objection.

160. This question is for rejection, meaning definitely not. Thus, when slave and master are not equal, though both are servants of Allah

161. This means some are aware of it, and those who are fully aware they accept faith. Or, this could mean that some despite their knowledge are infidels due to their stubbornness.

وَضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ مَثَلًا رَّجُلَيْنِ اَحَدُهُمَآ اَبْكَمُ لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلٰى شَيْءٍ وَّ هُوَ كَلٌّ عَلٰى مَوْلٰىهُ ۙ اَيْنَمَا يُوَجِّهْهُّ لَا يَاْتِ بِخَيْرٍ ؕ هَلْ يَسْتَوِيْ هُوَ ۙ وَ مَنْ يَّاْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ ۙ

76. And Allah explained an example, there are two men, one dumb, who can do nothing [162] and is a burden [163] over his master, wherever he sends him, he brings him no good. Will he be equal to the one who orders justice [164] and he, himself is on the straight path?

وَ هُوَ عَلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿۷۶﴾ ع

162. These slaves who cannot speak for themselves, nor understand what others say. This is the example of the infidels. It should be remembered that the ABKAMO are dumb at birth, those who are dumb temporarily are called AKHRAS. The former is beyond any treatment.

163. He will serve his master but will be unable to satistify his basic needs by himself. He will burden the master for this.

164. By this is meant that servant is both intelligent and possesses proper limbs. This is the status of a believer and an example of him. From this example emerge three issues:

1. That tongue which does not utter the truth is dumb, though it may speak a lot
2. That believer is good who is himself good and influences others to be good.
3. That if in the eyes of Allah Almighty believers and infidels are not equal then how can Prophets and non-Prophets be equal?

SECTION: 11

77. And for Allah [165] are the secrets of the heavens and the earth [166]. And the matter of the Hour is not but like the twinkling of the eye or even closer [167]. Surely Allah has power over everything [168].

وَ لِلّٰهِ غَيْبُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ وَمَاۤ اَمْرُ السَّاعَةِ اِلَّا كَلَمْحِ الْبَصَرِ اَوْ هُوَ اَقْرَبُ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَیْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۷۷﴾

165. Here the letter LAAM in the word LILLAH is there to denote possession i.e. everything is the creation of Allah Almighty as well as His possession. Or, in it is the description of Divine knowledge i.e. Allah Almighty has full knowledge of everything. In short, this verse does not contradict "created for you" because in LAKUM the letter LAAM indicates benefit e.g. "for your benefit". Everything is without doubt the creation of Allah Almighty, but we are deriving benefit out of it.

166. The things concealed in the heavens and the earth are possessions of Allah Almighty Who has full knowledge of them, because with His bestowal no one can be the owner and without Him providing information no one can have any knowledge. In this verse there is no negotiation of Allah Almighty's bestowal of bounties and providing information, as Allah Almighty says: "To Him belongs whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth" (S2:V255), yet through His bounty and bestowal, kings become masters of the countries and we of our homes. Just as these possessions are not in any way against His general bounties, the knowledge of the unseen of the Prophets and saints, too, is not against Divine knowledge.

167. Either it means everybody will perish at the coming of Qiyamah in the twinkling of an eye, or at the time of the second Trumpet everybody will be brought back to life instantly. It will take time for the signs of Qiyamah, but not for the occurence of it. Or, it could also mean that in spite of the Day of Judgement being so long, for some pious persons it will be like the twinkling of an eye.

168. Thus it is not difficult for Allah Almighty to cause all creation to perish at the time of Qiyamah at an instant and then raise them back to life instantly. After the few drops of rain thousands of frogs come to life and countless moths come to life, instantly.

78. And Allah has created you from وَ اللّٰهُ اَخْرَجَكُمْ مِّنْۢ بُطُوْنِ اُمَّهٰتِكُمْ لَا

Marfat.com

تَعْلَمُوْنَ شَيْـًٔا ۙ وَّجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْاَبْصَارَ وَ الْاَفْـِٕدَةَ ۙ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۷۸﴾

the wombs of your mothers while you knew nothing [169], and gave you ears and eyes and a heart [170] so that you may be thankful [171].

169. This is the condition of common people, but Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and other Prophets are excluded from it, because they have been born as fully tutored persons having intimate knowledge of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) at birth said: "Verily, I am the servant of Allah"(S19:V30). In this is the natural law, and that is power. Law should not be contrasted or pitted against Divine power. We are bound by power, not Allah Almighty.

170. So that you can overcome your ignorance through them. It should be remembered that ears have been mentioned first because revelation is heard with them. Thus, some of the Prophets, were subjected to the loss of sight but none of them were deaf or dumb (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

171.To be grateful by using all the limbs for which they were made. The gratitude of each limb is different.

اَلَمْ يَرَوْا اِلَى الطَّيْرِ مُسَخَّرٰتٍ فِيْ جَوِّ السَّمَآءِ ؕ مَا يُمْسِكُهُنَّ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ ؕ اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

79. Have you not seen the birds tied to order on the firmament of the heaven? None holds [172] them except Allah. Indeed, there are signs in it for those who believe.

172. The correct thing is that the birds should not be made to remain firm in the air, they should fall down, because heavy things are pulled towards the earth, it cannot stay in the air. Hazrat ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said that there is some creation which only stays in the air, lays its eggs there and after its creation stays there and dies there as well, like fish in the water (Roohul Bayaan). Thus, the swallows which were sent upon the Companions of the Elephants i.e. Abraha and his soldiers were from these creatures.

وَ اللّٰهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّنْۢ بُيُوْتِكُمْ سَكَنًا وَّجَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّنْ جُلُوْدِ الْاَنْعَامِ بُيُوْتًا تَسْتَخِفُّوْنَهَا يَوْمَ ظَعْنِكُمْ وَ يَوْمَ اِقَامَتِكُمْ ۙ وَ مِنْ اَصْوَافِهَا وَاَوْبَارِهَا وَ اَشْعَارِهَآ اَثَاثًا وَّ مَتَاعًا اِلٰى حِيْنٍ ﴿۸۰﴾

80. And Allah has placed houses [173] for your habitation, and made houses from the skin of the cattle so that it is light for you when you travel and light for you when you camp out, and from their wool and fur and hair some household [174] goods and the things of use for a time [175].

173. Canvas tents, and tents made of animal skins which are generally useful during a journey, and at times is used in one's own land as well.

174. Excellent things to wear and spread like sheets, rugs, carpets, etc. From this we learn that the hair and skins of these animals are pure and clean and their use is permissible (Khazainul Irfaan). It should be remembered that besides the hair of the swine and the human beings that of the other animals become clean upon slaughtering and boiling them (Books of Jurisprudence). Further, remember that the hair of the goats and sheep are called wool and that of the camels are called fur.

81. And Allah has given you from what He has created from the shade [176], and made shelter for you in the mountains [177], and garments [178] for you to protect you from heat and garments to protect [179] you from fighting. Thus does He complete His favour [180] upon you, so you should submit to His Command [181]?

وَاللّٰهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّمَّا خَلَقَ ظِلٰلًا وَّ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِّنَ الْجِبَالِ اَكْنَانًا وَّ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ سَرَابِيْلَ تَقِيْكُمُ الْحَرَّ وَسَرَابِيْلَ تَقِيْكُمْ بَاْسَكُمْ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يُتِمُّ نِعْمَتَهٗ عَلَيْكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُسْلِمُوْنَ ﴿٨١﴾

176. Like the trees, clouds, caves in the mountains, roofs of the homes, etc. all of which are the creation of Allah Almighty which provide shelter. Likewise, the Saints and Prophets of Allah Almighty too keep the creation in their shelter.

177. Because the Arabs during battles and summers would frequently seek shelter in the caves, they are specifically mentioned here.

178. By this is meant cotton clothes, because generally in Arabia heat is intense, hence, only heat is mentioned here, other clothes protect us from both the heat and cold. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty has provided some animals with feathers or skins which are warm in winter and cool in summer. Man is a human being having an outer skin on which there is no hair in excess nor any feathers. Thus clothes are made for him. This too is of the power of Allah Almighty.

175. Just as places during a journey are built simple and weak, and the houses for residing are built strong and firm, likewise our bodies are like the weak homes of travelling which cannot bear the pricking of a single thorn. But, in Paradise we will be provided with strong bodies because they would be permanent. Allah Almighty be praised! Thus, do not regard your present bodies as permanent.

179. This means steel armour, etc. which helps to protect oneself from arrows and swords in a battle.

180. Oh man! upon you, because Allah Almighty has bestowed more bounties upon man than any other creation. But in spite of these favours man is more ungrateful than any other creation.

181. From this there is a hint that if Allah Almighty has made such provision for the protection of this mortal body, then He must have made much more provision for the protection of the soul which is permanent. He must have created an abode of peace, some sustenance, some remedies and some spiritual doctors for it.

82. Then if they turn away their faces, then O Beloved, there is nothing upon [182] you but the clear message [183].

فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلٰغُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿٨٢﴾

182. This means Oh My Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم if these people can still not bring faith, then you should not be disheartened, because only propagation was obligatory upon you, not making them Muslims. And as far as propagation is concerned you had discharged your duty fully.

183. From this emerge two issues:

1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had preached and conveyed all the religious laws to the people without concealing any one of them.
2. That the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is totally independent of us.

83. They recognize [184] the bounties of Allah, then they deny them and most of them are infidels [185].

يَعْرِفُوْنَ نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ يُنْكِرُوْنَهَا وَاَكْثَرُهُمُ الْكٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾ ع ١١ ١٢

184. Some Ulama have said that by bounty and favour of Allah Almighty here is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that inspite of knowing him the infidels are still refusing to believe in him due to their stubbornness (Khazainul Irfaan). The explanation of this verse is the following verse: "They recognize this Prophet as a man recognizes his sons" (S2:V146). Or, it could mean all those bounties that have been mentioned above.

185. This means they are infidels in the eyes of Allah Almighty, and their death too would be on infidelity. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse, because presently they are all rejecters and atheists, and all such people are indeed infidels. It should be remembered that this is not supplementary majority.

SECTION: 12

84. And the day when We shall raise a witness from every nation [186], then the infidels will neither be permitted [187] nor shall they be pleased [188]

وَ يَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ مِنْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍ شَهِيْدًا ثُمَّ لَا يُؤْذَنُ لِلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ لَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُوْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

186. Their Prophets, scholars and the pious persons. The first statement holds more weight because these people would testify about their infidelity and enmity.

187. They will not get permission to come back into the world, or to make any excuses. But this refusal of expressing any excuses will only be granted to them after they are sent into Hell; it would be said to them "The Lord will say remain lying despised therein and speak not to me" (S23:V108).

188. In that they would neither be able to persuade Allah Almighty, nor will Allah Almighty persuade them, besides those who are believers.

85. And when the wrong doers will see the torment, so then it will not be lightened from them nor will they have time [189].

189. From this we learn that a decrease in the punishment, and obtaining no respite is set especially for the infidels. The sinful believers are by the will of Allah Almighty, protected from both of these.

86. And when those who associated partners will see their associates [190], they will say, 'O our Lord! These are our associates whom we use to worship [191] besides You. Then their words will be thrown back at them that they are indeed liars [192].

وَ اِذَا رَاَ الَّذِيْنَ اَشْرَكُوْا شُرَكَآءَهُمْ قَالُوْا رَبَّنَا هٰٓؤُلَآءِ شُرَكَآؤُنَا الَّذِيْنَ كُنَّا

نَدْعُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِكَ ۚ فَاَلْقَوْا اِلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلَ اِنَّكُمْ لَكٰذِبُوْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾

191. This tells us that the infidels would remember the deeds that they performed in the world, and recognize one another. The time of not recognizing will be different. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

192. Neither had we commanded you to worship us nor are we the partners of Allah Almighty. You are telling a lie by making us associates.

وَ اَلْقَوْا اِلَى اللّٰهِ يَوْمَئِذِ السَّلَمَ وَ ضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَفْتَرُوْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

87. And they will fall submissively [193] to Allah on that day and what they used to forge will be lost from them [194].

193. So that this falling can become compensation for their infidelity and polytheism of the world and through this Allah Almighty could grant them forgiveness. By this falling is meant an attempt on their part to persuade Allah Almighty to be pleased with them. That prostration on seeing the stem of the Divine Throne on the Day of Judgement would only be granted to the believers.

194. This means those idols that were regarded by the idol worshippers as their helpers will not give them help but will instead testify against them. The including of the stone, the sun, the moon, etc. would be a means of excessive punishment for them. This is what is meant by "lost from them".

اَلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ صَدُّوْا عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ زِدْنٰهُمْ عَذَابًا فَوْقَ الْعَذَابِ بِمَا كَانُوْا يُفْسِدُوْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

88. Those who disbelieved and separated from the path of Allah, We increased torment upon torment because of the mischief they used to do [195].

195. From this we learn that the punishment of the one who misleads severer than the one who is misled because his crime is greater - i.e. to go astray himself, and to lead others astray. It should be remembered that all those whom he would mislead, he would be punished for all of them. Thus, the fire in which he will be thrown will be more intense, the serpents and scorpions would be more poisonous, and he would be made to drink the blood and pus of all the inmates of Hell.

وَ يَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ فِيْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍ شَهِيْدًا عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَ جِئْنَا بِكَ شَهِيْدًا عَلٰى هٰٓؤُلَآءِ ؕ وَ نَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتٰبَ

89. And that day when We shall raise a witness from every community amongst themselves that they may give [196] evidence against them and O Beloved! We shall bring you as a witness [197] against all those. And We have sent down this Book upon you explaining clearly [198] every thing and as a guidance and mercy and as a glad tidings for the Muslims [199].

تِبْيَانًا لِّكُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَّ هُدًى وَّرَحْمَةً وَّ بُشْرٰى لِلْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٨٩﴾ ع ١٢ ع ٦ ١٨

196. By this is either meant the Prophets sent to all the nations, or the hands, feets, etc. of every criminal infidel. The first statement is more weighty as is understood from the last part of the verse. It should be remembered that this testimony of the revered Prophets would be against their disbelieving as is understood from the preposition 'on'.

197. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has seen every condition of his followers as well as every other person, because this testimony of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be based on mere heresay as this would be testimony upon testimony which should be based on seeing. For this reason the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم informed the Companions about the two inmates of the grave. One was a backbiter and the other was careless about his urine as reported in Bukhari Shareef. Remember, the outcome of a court case is dependent on the testimony of the witness. Thus, the outcome of the case on the Day of Judgement will depend on the testimony of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The most exquisite commentary of this can be read in the book SHAAN-E-HABIBUR RAHMAN - The Status of the Beloved of Allah Almighty.

198. This means the Holy QUR'AAN is an illuminating explanation about everything. Says Allah Almighty in (S6:V38) "We have not omitted anything in the Book". Thus when Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whether anyone's good deeds are equal to the stars in the sky, he immediately replied yes, the good deeds of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) are equal to the stars in the sky. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fully aware of the total number of the good deeds of all his followers, as well as about the total number of all the big and small stars in the sky. Only he can inform of the equalness in number, who is fully aware of the number of both.

199. It should be remembered that the Holy QUR'AAN's general mercy, general guidance and general prophecies are for the entire world, but its specific and special mercy, and special guidance is for the bleievers only. Here mention is made of this special mercy, special guidance, etc.

SECTION: 13

90. Verily, Allah commands [200] with justice and good dealings and has given you close relatives [201], and He has forbade you from indecency and wickedness [202] and being rebellious. He admonishes you that you should be mindful.

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَاْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ وَالْاِحْسَانِ وَ اِيْتَآئِ ذِي الْقُرْبٰى وَ يَنْهٰى عَنِ الْفَحْشَآءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَ الْبَغْيِ ۚ يَعِظُكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ﴿٩٠﴾

200. It is quite clear that this command is for all His servants, whether believers or infidels. For this reason "Bids you" is not used here. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) says that justice is Tauheed or the Oneness of Allah Almighty, while good of the creation is piety. It is stated in some traditions that offering worship with sincerity and concentration is doing good.

201. The word relatives includes all relatives, near and distant, and giving account for fulfilling our obligations and discharging our duties towards them, whether those are monetary, physical or religious. Give your relatives monetary and physical assistance and inculcate in them a desire towards faith and doing good deeds. From this we learn that rights of relatives is greater than that of strangers.

202. Every disgraceful act is indecency, like stealing, adultery, while all forbidden acts is wicked e.g. infidelity, polytheism, etc. and injustice and arrogance is rebelliousness. It should be remembered that here command is given regarding three acts and prohibition from three acts. The opposite of justice is indecency and that of good is wickedness while the opposite of giving to kindred is rebellion. This blessed verse is a collection of everything good and evil. After listening to this verse Hazrat Uthman bin Madoon (May Allah be pleased with him) accepted Islam. Even such hard hearted and staunch infidels like Waleed bin Mugheerah and Abu Jahl admitted that this teaching is of a high standard. Therefore this verse is recited at the end of every Khutbah (sermon) (Khazainul Irfaan).

91. And fulfill the promise [203] of Allah when you have made it, and break not [204] the oaths after making them fast [205], and you have already made Allah a surety upon you. Surely Allah knows what you are doing.

وَ اَوْفُوْا بِعَهْدِ اللّٰهِ اِذَا عٰهَدْتُّمْ وَ لَا تَنْقُضُوا الْاَيْمَانَ بَعْدَ تَوْكِيْدِهَا وَ قَدْ جَعَلْتُمُ اللّٰهَ عَلَيْكُمْ كَفِيْلًا ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿٩١﴾

203. Whether this covenant is made with Allah Almighty or His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or made with any other person in the name of Allah Almighty. It includes all types of promises. Thus, the condition accepted at the time of marriage, the promise made with the religious guide (MURSHID) at the time of taking the oath of allegiance (BAI'AT) etc. are all part of this. For this reason the groom is made to recite the Kalimas at the time of marriage (NIKAH) so that this contract will be strong.

204. In this verse covenant signifies those things on which the oath is taken, and taking this in Allah's name is for the purpose of strengthening it. Thus, there is no contradiction of subject in the verse.

205. By making Allah Almighty a surety is meant taking an oath in His name. You had convinced and gained the confidence of others. It should be remembered that while it is important to fulfill every promise made by you, it is absolutely essential to fulfil those in which the name of Allah Almighty is taken. Therefore breach of these makes expiation (KAFFARAH) obligatory. Furthermore, do not fulfil a promise which is not permissible even if you took the name of Allah Almighty on it.

92. And be not like that women who has broken her yarn into pieces [206], after it has become strong. You make your oaths an unreal excuse amongst yourselves so that one community will not be more numerous [207] than the other. Most certainly Allah tests [208] you and necessarily, He will make it clear for you on the Day of Judgement [209] as to what you used to dispute [210].

وَ لَا تَكُوْنُوْا كَالَّتِيْ نَقَضَتْ غَزْلَهَا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ اَنْكَاثًا ؕ تَتَّخِذُوْنَ اَيْمَانَكُمْ دَخَلًۢا بَيْنَكُمْ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ اُمَّةٌ هِيَ اَرْبٰى مِنْ اُمَّةٍ ؕ اِنَّمَا يَبْلُوْكُمُ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ ؕ وَ لَيُبَيِّنَنَّ لَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ مَا كُنْتُمْ

فِيْهِ تَخْتَلِفُوْنَ ﴿٩٢﴾

206. There lived a woman in the Holy city of Makkah called Rita bin Sa'd bin Tameem who was plagued by suspicion. Daily she would spin the yarn until midday, and make her maid do the same. Then, due to her anxiety and superstition she would cut this to shreds. This verse refers to the above incident.

207. It was the custom of the people of Arabia that they would enter into a treaty with one tribe. After finding someone more strong and wealthy, they would break the pact with the former and sign a pact with the latter, i.e. they were making their oaths a means of breach of promise. The example of this is the present practice of the leaders who make promises to voters at the time of elections, but never fulfil them.

208. This means that after entering into a pact with one country we let you come across another nation which is more powerful than your ally as a test to see how true or false you are to your promises.

209. It should be remembered that on the Day of Judgement the sins of the infidels will be revealed to all, while no mention will be made about their good deeds. On the other hand, good deeds of the Muslims would be revealed to all, while their sins would either be forgiven or reckoning of these will be done secretly so as to avoid the embarrassment of the wrongdoers.

210. This means the practical judgement would take place on the Day of Judgement, while verbal judgement has been declared through the Prophets in this world as well. Thus, the above verse does not contradict these verses in which it has been declared that judgement has been passed. "Undoubtedly the QUR'AAN is necessarily a decision word. And it is no merriment" (S86:Vs 13-14).

93. And if Allah had willed, He would have made a single [211] nation but He misguides whom He wishes and guides whom He wishes [212]. And you will be asked about what you use to do [213].

211. Made into a single nation by giving everybody the guidance towards accepting Islam, i.e. everyone would have become Muslims. But this was against Divine wisdom. Just as the world constitutes of the wealthy and the poor, the healthy and the sick, the white and the black, in the like manner the Hereafter will flourish with the believers and the infidels through whom Paradise and Hell would be filled, and the mercy and wrath of Allah Almighty would be revealed.

212. This means by giving the opportunity to accept faith and guidance or inculcate in the heart of man inclination towards evil so that he in his own accord commits infidelity and sin. In short, this verse is not contradicting the will of man.

213. This question would be for the sake of accountability and not for questioning Divine knowledge. Allah Almighty is by Himself All-Knowing and Omniscient.

94. And do not make your oaths as unfounded excuses [214] amongst yourselves lest any foot may slip [215] after being firm and you have to وَ لَا تَتَّخِذُوْۤا اَيْمَانَكُمْ دَخَلًۢا بَيْنَكُمْ فَتَزِلَّ قَدَمٌۢ بَعْدَ ثُبُوْتِهَا وَ تَذُوْقُوا السُّوْٓءَ بِمَا صَدَدْتُّمْ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ۚ taste evil as you used to move [216] away from the path of Allah and a great torment came down upon you [217].

وَ لَكُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿٩٤﴾

214. This means do not take an oath for the sake of falsehood and deception, that how should we now accept faith when we have already taken an oath to remain infidels. Under such conditions this is addressed to the infidels. Or it could mean that do not make the oath an excuse to refrain from doing good deeds or to commit sins i.e. since we have already taken an oath how can we now do good deeds.

215. This means deprived of good deeds after accepting Islam.

Religious issues: Whoever takes an oath to refrain from doing good deeds or committing sins, should break his oath. Under such meaning, this is addressed to the believers. Or, oh infidels! if your hearts become inclined towards Islam, do not make the oaths as an obstacle for accepting faith. If this meaning is taken, then the address is made of the infidels. In such a condition that which follows this is crystal clear.

216. For stopping the people, or disbelievers, or stopping yourselves from doing good by making the oaths an excuse for it, or believers. Under such circumstances the word As-soo-a would signify worldly torments.

217. You would receive great torment for your infidelity or committing sins, or for not doing good deeds.

95. And take not a little [218] price from the promise of Allah. Most definitely, that which is with Allah is better [219] for you if you know.

وَلَا تَشْتَرُوْا بِعَهْدِ اللّٰهِ ثَمَنًا قَلِيْلًا ؕ اِنَّمَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿٩٥﴾

218. Breaking the oath taken on the Day of Covenant for the greed of this world. Oh believers! do not break the promise you had sworn on the hands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم at the time of Baiat-e-Ridwaan by accepting money from the infidels of Makkah, and for this do not turn away from Islam.

219. By better is meant success, victory and riches in the world and reward and pleasure of Allah Almighty in the Hereafter.

96. What is with you will be exhausted and what is with Allah is to remain forever [220]. Certainly We shall give to those that are patient that reward which is most befitting to their best work [221].

مَا عِنْدَكُمْ يَنْفَدُ وَ مَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ بَاقٍ ؕ وَ لَنَجْزِيَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ صَبَرُوْٓا اَجْرَهُمْ بِاَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٩٦﴾

220. The pious Sufis say any good deed which is done for the purpose of show will remain with you, and like you, will perish with you, while a good deed done to gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty will remain by Allah Almighty, fully preserved.

221. From this we learn that Allah Almighty will bestow rewards upon the believers worthy of His lofty rank and not according to the status of the believer. Thus, that reward is beyond our understanding and imagination.

مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِّنْ ذَكَرٍ اَوْ اُنْثٰى وَ هُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَنُحْيِيَنَّهٗ حَيٰوةً طَيِّبَةً ۚ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ اَجْرَهُمْ بِاَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٩٧﴾

97. Whoever works good from male and female and he is a believer, then certainly We shall make him live a good life [222] and necessarily We shall give them their reward befitting to their best work [223].

222. There are various opinions regarding good life. According to some this is contentment and acceptance of Divine desire, to others this is finding delightful pleasure in one's acts of worship. Even in poverty a believer is comfortable and content, while the infidel is uncomfortable even in wealth because of his greed, while the believer is full of content. From this emerge two issues:

1. Sometimes the reward of piety is received in the world as well, which is in addition to what the person would be receiving in the Hereafter.
2. Pure life is a great bounty from Allah Almighty.

223. From this we learn that Faith is a condition for pious deeds.

فَاِذَا قَرَاْتَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطٰنِ الرَّجِيْمِ ﴿٩٨﴾

98.So when you recite the QUR'AAN so seek protection in Allah from the devil (Shaitaan) the rejected one [224].

224. The recitation of Tawwuz as a means of seeking protection from the devil is understood from this verse, while recitation of Tasmiah is acquired from the letter of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) which he had written to Bilqees, Queen of Sheeba "which was in the Name of Allah Almighty, most Beneficient, most Merciful." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, on the occasion of Treaty of Hudaibiyah had BISMILLAH written at the beginning of this treaty. At the beginning of each QURANIC Surah, Bismillah is written. Thus both TAWWUZ and TASMIAH should be recited.

اِنَّهٗ لَيْسَ لَهٗ سُلْطٰنٌ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُوْنَ ﴿٩٩﴾

99. No doubt, he has no control over those who believe in Allah and have trust in their Lord [225].

225. By placing trust in Allah Almighty means the devil cannot mislead the Prophets and certain Saints of Allah Almighty, nor can he induce them to commit sins. The common Muslims upon whom Allah Almighty has bestowed His grace, too, cannot be made infidels, apostates and heretics by the devil. But as far as Shaitaan's suggestions and temptations is concerned , sometimes even the Prophets fall prey to it. Says Allah Almighty: "Thus the devil (Shaitaan) put evil suggestions in their hearts" (S7:V20). Therefore there is no inconsistency in the verses.

اِنَّمَا سُلْطٰنُهٗ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ يَتَوَلَّوْنَهٗ وَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ بِهٖ مُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ ع ١٣ ١١ ١٩

100. He has His control over those who befriend [226] Him and those who assign associates with Him [227].

226. In a straight forward way not even the infidels keep friendship with the devil. Having inclination for evil deeds and showing love for evil people is keeping friendship with the devil.

Marfat.com

This is the root of all sins.
227. From this we learn that the true servants of Allah Almighty, like the Prophets and Saints are innocent of sins or protected from sins because it is the devil who causes you to commit sins, and he has no control over them. He can neither mislead them nor make them commit sins. Misunderstanding and error are a different matter. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) made an error, he did not commit a sin.

them out bravely and steadfastly, though this would bring about difficulties for them. Then a few days later when lighter laws would be revealed the disbelievers would say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is joking with his Companions as he was conveying all these from himself. If this was Divine Message, then those lighter injunctions which were revealed today could have been revealed earlier. Did Allah Almighty not have knowledge of this (Allah forbid) that abrogated injunctions would not be suitable! This verse was revealed to refute this idle talk of the infidels.

228. From this we understand that there has been abrogation in Quranic verses, abrogation in respect of recitation and abrogation in respect of laws. To raise objections in respect of abrogation and not understanding the wisdom thereof is indeed the way of the infidels. If there was nor abrogation in the Quranic verses, then how come the Taurah and Injeel are presently abrogated? Abrogation is no proof of Allah Almighty's lack of knowledge, but this has been caused by our changing conditions.
229. This means Allah Almigthy is fully aware about His wisdom and the expediency of His servants. The time when a particular injunction was revealed, it was most suitable for it. If a doctor brings about a change in his prescription, he does so in accordance with the change in the condition of the patient.
230. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said that when severe laws would be revealed, the believers would carry

231. This means that most infidels raise objection in respect of abrogation because of their own ignorance, as they are unaware of the wisdoms connected with this. But there are others who despite having the knowledge of these wisdoms still raise objections, purely due to their stubbornness. For a detailed discussion on questions and answers, read Tafseer Naeemi, Para Three.

قُلْ نَزَّلَهٗ رُوْحُ الْقُدُسِ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ بِالْحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ هُدًى وَّبُشْرٰى لِلْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿۱۰۲﴾

102. Say, 'The Holy Spirit has brought it down from your Lord with truth [232], that He may make firm [233] the believers and as a guidance and a glad tidings to the Muslims' [234].

232.By 'truth' here is meant brought it down according to the occasion and need, without any change. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) is called the Holy Spirit because he himself is a spirit and is endowed with a spirit. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is called the spirit of Allah Almighty because he was bestowed by Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace). The Holy QUR'AAN says: "That I may give you a pure son" (S19:V19). Further, he is pure and free from all forms of imperfections - hence he is like Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace), the holy spirit.

233. Make the believers firm by letting them ponder over various wisdoms of abrogation which would further strengthen their beliefs. From this verse we understand that Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) keeps the believers steadfast. Here the work of Allah Almighty is linked to Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace).

234. And for the infidels there is heresy and fear. The Holy QUR'AAN is one but its effects are different.

103. And undoubtedly, We know that they say, 'It is only a man who teaches [235] him. The tongue of him towards whom they hint at is foreign and this is clear Arabic language [236].

وَ لَقَدْ نَعْلَمُ اَنَّهُمْ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِنَّمَا يُعَلِّمُهٗ بَشَرٌ ؕ لِسَانُ الَّذِیْ یُلْحِدُوْنَ اِلَیْهِ اَعْجَمِیٌّ وَّ هٰذَا لِسَانٌ عَرَبِیٌّ مُّبِیْنٌ ﴿۱۰۳﴾

235. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Ubaid bin Muslima says we had two non-Arab slaves Yasaar and Jabeer who would burnish iron. Sometimes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would converse with them and listen to their talks. The polytheists began to accuse the Messenger of Allah learns the Holy QUR'AAN from these slaves and recites it. The above verse was revealed to refute this claim. Here the word 'man' refers to these two slaves. From this we learn that the infidels have no consistency at what they say. Some times they call the Holy QUR'AAN a work of magic, sometimes as poetry, sometimes something else. In short, they have no confidence and faith in their own words.

236. How can the non-Arab slaves create the equivalent of the Holy QUR'AAN when the most eloquent literary Arabs are totally helpless to produce the like of it? From this we learn that the Holy QUR'AAN is the name of both the text and meaning. Thus, the mere translation of the Holy QUR'AAN is not the Holy QUR'AAN.

104. No doubt, those who do not believe in the verses of Allah, Allah does not guide them [237] and for them are a painful punishment.

اِنَّ الَّذِیْنَ لَا یُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاٰیٰتِ اللّٰهِ ۙ لَا یَهْدِیْهِمُ اللّٰهُ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِیْمٌ ﴿۱۰۴﴾

237. So that they may accept faith. Otherwise the Holy QUR'AAN has been revealed to guide the entire world on the path of Truth.

105. Surely those who do not believe in the verses of Allah forge lies and they are the liars [238].

اِنَّمَا یَفْتَرِی الْكَذِبَ الَّذِیْنَ لَا یُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاٰیٰتِ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْكٰذِبُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾

238. From this emerge two issues;
1. Falsehood is a major sin and a most wicked crime.

2. Prophets are completely innocent and fully protected from falsehood. Their tongue was not created to utter falsehood. A detailed discussion of this subject can be read in the book ASMATE AMBIYA. Thus, feigning piety and pretentious behaviour is a wicked crime.

مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ اِيْمَانِهٖۤ اِلَّا مَنْ اُكْرِهَ وَ قَلْبُهٗ مُطْمَئِنٌّۢ بِالْاِيْمَانِ وَ لٰكِنْ مَّنْ شَرَحَ بِالْكُفْرِ صَدْرًا فَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ ۚ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿١٠٦﴾

106. Whoever denies Allah after believing [239] in Him save him who is compelled and his heart is firm on belief [240] Y1es, whoever becomes an infidel with open heart, upon them is the wrath of Allah and for them is a great punishment [241].

239. By rejecting the laws of Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . All this would be regarded as a rejection of Allah Almighty.

240. Reason for its revelation:
This entire verse was revealed concerning Hazrat Ammaar bin Yasir (May Allah be pleased with him). The infidels had captured his father Yasir and his mother Sumayya. They tortured his father in a most inhuman way and killed both without pity as they had tried to force them into becoming apostates. But, both these pious souls flatly refused. These two are the first martyrs to give their lives for Islam. Hazrat Ammar was physically weak and did not have the capacity to bear the painful torture of the infidels. As a result, he repeated what the infidels wanted him to say, then came crying to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Seeing him in this condition, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم dried his tears with his own blessed hands.
This verse was revealed on this juncture.
Religious issues:
1. To utter words of infidelity when the life is in danger is permissible, on condition that one's faith is still deeply rooted in one's heart. Having uttered this, one must immediately leave such a place at the first opportunity and not remain there. However, if he refuses to utter words of infidelity for which he is killed, he would be a martyr entitled to a great reward.
2. All the good deeds of an apostate are ruined, and he becomes worse than an actual infidel. The error of the pious servants of Allah Almighty turn out to be a blessing and bounty for the others, and their outward infidelity becomes faith for the others. Hazrat Moulana Jalaluddeen Rumi says: A sincere error of a person becomes a path of guidance for the people. A collective infidelity becomes a path of infidelity for the people.
241. This does not prove in any way the pretentious piety of the Rafzis, because they only utter infidelity to save their lives, while through pretentious piety they deliberately utter falsehood to deceive people. It is for this reason that the order for a genuine helpless person is that after uttering infidelity under compulsion, he should immediately run away from such a place. As soon as such helpless situation is overcome, he should publically declare his faith once more.

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمُ اسْتَحَبُّوا الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا عَلَى الْاٰخِرَةِ ۙ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَهْدِى الْقَوْمَ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ ﴿١٠٧﴾

107. It is because they preferred the life of this world to the life of the Hereafter [242], and because Allah guides not (such) infidels [243].

242. It should be remembered that regarding the worldly life as beneficial for the Hereafter is the way of the believer because he utilises this life for accumulating the virtuous deeds for the Hereafter. While regarding this life superior to the Hereafter is the work of the infidels. Hazrat Ammar uttered infidelity because he was overcome by temptation of prolonging his companionship with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

243. Thus, until a person continues to remain an infidel he does not receive any guidance of doing good deeds. He, whose death on infidelity is within divine knowledge does not receive guidance towards accepting faith. Or he who dies as an infidel will not receive guidance to answer questions of the grave and those on the Day of Judgement correctly. Hence there is no inconsistency in this verse. Millions of infidels have died after accepting Islam, but it in no way contradicts the meaning of this verse.

108. These are the people on whom Allah has placed a seal [244] upon their hearts and their ears and their eyes. And it is they who are unaware.

أُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ طَبَعَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ وَسَمْعِهِمْ وَاَبْصَارِهِمْ ۚ وَ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْغٰفِلُوْنَ ﴿١٠٨﴾

244. It is due to the excessiveness of their sins. As a result the verses of the Holy QUR'AAN now do not reach their ears nor enter their hearts. Their eyes cannot see the truth of the miracles. Thus, the following objection that it is no fault of theirs that, since Allah Almighty has sealed their hearts, ears and tongues, has no credence because this seal has come about due to their transgressions. An example of this is the victim of murder who dies with the death created by Allah Almighty

109. Undoubtedly, in the Hereafter they are the losers [245].

لَا جَرَمَ اَنَّهُمْ فِى الْاٰخِرَةِ هُمُ الْخٰسِرُوْنَ ﴿١٠٩﴾

245. This tells us that negligence of the heart is the greatest form of misfortune and misery, while the greatest form of good fortune is the alertness of the heart.

110. Then no doubt, your Lord, for them who left their homes after being tortured [246], then they struggled and remained patient. No doubt, your Lord thereafter is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful [247].

ثُمَّ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلَّذِيْنَ هَاجَرُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا فُتِنُوْا ثُمَّ جٰهَدُوْا وَصَبَرُوْٓا ۙ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿١١٠﴾ ع ١٤ ع ١٠ ٢٠

246. Reason for its revelation:
This verse was revealed in honour of pious and noble Companions like Hazrat Ammaar bin Yasir, Hazrat Bilal, Hazrat Khabbab (May Allah be pleased with them) all of whom are Emigrants, (MUHAJIR) Soldiers of Islam, embodiment of patience and victims of oppression of the infidels.

247. That Allah Almighty will forgive all their previous sins and transgressions prior to their acceptance of Islam due to the blessings of their pious deeds. We further learn that the transgressions of the soldiers of Islam and those who migrate for the cause of Islam are forgiven by Allah Almighty and the good deeds are a means of attaining forgiveness.

with your own hands. At this juncture Allah Almighty will relate an example. If a crippled person climbs on the shoulders of the blind person and steals, then both would be guilty of the crime. The body is blind, the soul was crippled. Therefore both must go into Hell. This verse makes reference to the above (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

248. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has reported that there will be a confrontation between the body and soul of the infidel. The body will say that I am innocent. It is the soul which entered into me and caused me to commit evil deeds. To this, the soul would reply I was crippled and powerless. So it is you who committed sins

وَ ضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ مَثَلًا قَرْيَةً كَانَتْ اٰمِنَةً مُّطْمَئِنَّةً يَّاْتِيْهَا رِزْقُهَا رَغَدًا مِّنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ فَكَفَرَتْ بِاَنْعُمِ اللّٰهِ فَاَذَاقَهَا اللّٰهُ لِبَاسَ الْجُوْعِ وَالْخَوْفِ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَصْنَعُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

112. And Allah explained a saying of a town, which was safe, and satisfied, its provision came in abundance from all sides, then it began showing ingratitude to the blessings of Allah. Then Allah made it to taste this punishment that it was caused to wear the garment of hunger and fear [249], the recompense of what they did [250].

human devastation due to famine has been heard. The famine during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was due to their evil deeds. Now sustenance reaches this land in such abundance that millions of pilgrims arriving in Makkah all receive a generous supply of food, fruit, eggs, etc. They also obtain Qurbani animals at reasonable prices which are brought in from other parts of the world. Imagine if all this supply were to remain in our lands for long periods would it not provide for the food of our people?

249. This verse is describing the verbal expressions of the infidels of Makkah. Although they had enjoyed peace and security as well as received sustenance without hard work, they were ungrateful to Allah Almighty and instead, rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and opposed the Almighty. Thereafter, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم cursed them and a severe drought came upon them due to which they had to eat the flesh of the dead, and brought them under the control of the believers whose attack they had feared at all times. This is the end result of all those who are ungrateful and unappreciative. It should be remembered that the bounties and blessings of Allah Almighty are constantly being bestowed upon the people of Makkah. Fertile lands have repeatedly experienced famine in which many people had died. But in this barren desert no news of

250. From this we learn that some sins, especially of ingratitude, bring about punishment in the world as well, but this is not the full punishment because this would be completed in the Hereafter, e.g. police lock-up is not the full punishment of the criminal. This would only begin after the court case.

Marfat.com

وَ لَقَدْ جَآءَهُمْ رَسُوْلٌ مِّنْهُمْ فَكَذَّبُوْهُ فَاَخَذَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَ هُمْ ظٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۳﴾

113. And no doubt, a messenger came to them from within themselves, and then they belied him. Then the torment [251] seized them and they were unjust [252].

251. By torment here means a severe famine was sent upon the people of Makkah, and the fear of the believers subdued them.

252. These infidels of Makkah did not adopt a just opinion regarding the Holy Prophet . Instead of referring to him as a Prophet or a Messenger they called him a poet and a magician.

فَكُلُوْا مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللّٰهُ حَلٰلًا طَيِّبًا ۖ وَّاشْكُرُوْا نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ اِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾

114. Then eat [253] out of the provision of Allah lawful and clean and be thankful to your Lord if you worship Him [254].

253. Outwardly, this is addressed to the believers. Lawful things are those which are not forbidden. Any good is that which is not unpalatable, it should be tasty and palatable. In other words, piety does not mean man must give up tasty foods, but true piety is to abstain from sins, or lawful things are those which do not become unlawful by themselves, while good things are those which man himself does not make unlawful. Thus, while the pig is forbidden, bribery, etc. are earnings which are evil and not pure. However, if lawful things are left in the name of the idol, they are neither unlawful nor evil, but are lawful and good. Do not regard them as forbidden, because this verse is revealed to refute this belief that Baheerah, Saaibah, etc. are forbidden animals mention of which is made later.

254. Express gratitude to Allah Almighty in your beliefs, as well as practically and verbally, because the verse give an absolute order for expressing gratitude. Believing in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an expression of gratitude of belief, obedience to him is practi cal gratitude and recitation of Hamd (Praise of Allah Almighty) and Na'at (Praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) is verbal gratitude.

اِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَلَحْمَ الْخِنْزِيْرِ وَ مَآ اُهِلَّ لِغَيْرِ اللّٰهِ بِهٖ ۚ فَمَنِ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَّ لَا عَادٍ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

115. He has made unlawful [255] to you only these, the dead and the blood [256], and the flesh of swine [257], and that upon which other than God's name has been pronounced [258] at the time of slaughtering, then who is helpless neither desiring that nor exceeding [259] the limit, then no doubt, Allah is Most Forgiving and the Most Merciful.

255. This is an extended counting i.e. the animals which are left in the name of the idols are not forbidden, but only these undermentioned animals are forbidden. This does not necessarily mean that dogs, etc. are not forbidden. Also, when the idolized cow and the water of the Ganges themselves are lawful, then why should the animal set aside on their name be forbidden? From this we learn there is no need for a categorical Quranic statement to prove the legality of an object, but this is necessary to prove it unlawful. In other words, if there is no mention of a thing to be lawful or unlawful in the Holy QUR'AAN or Hadith Shareef, then such a thing is lawful. Says Allah Almighty: "Say you; I find not in what has been revealed to me any meal forbidden" (S6:V145).

256. It should be remembered, that if an animal which is necessary to be slaughtered, dies without being slaughtered, it would become unlawful. It is not obligatory at all to slaughter things like the fish or locust. Hence they are not included in the dead! Likewise, the blood which flows is unlawful. Although liver and spleen, too, are blood since they are not free flowing, they become lawful.

257. Before only the flesh of the swine was consumed, hence it has been declared unlawful. However, every limb and part of it is absolutely forbidden for use, so much so, that not even its hair can be put to any use. The mention of the flesh is incidental, not for evasion.

258. This means at the time of slaughtering name other than that of Allah Almighty was invoked, even if Allah's name was taken with it, or not at all.

259. Helplessness is of two types. One is when a person is dying of hunger and there is nothing lawful available to eat besides edibles which are unlawful. The other is severe illness for which a pious Muslim specialist doctor says your life can only be saved by consuming a particular forbidden thing. In both these instances it is permissible to consume only that quantity of the forbidden thing which would save your life. From this we learn that anything which would be regarded permissible out of necessity, would be lawful for that circumstance only, and in that quantity only. Anything in excess would be unlawful. If just one piece of meat of the swine is sufficient to save the life, the second piece would be forbidden to eat. From this numerous jurisdical issues can be deduced.

وَ لَا تَقُوْلُوْا لِمَا تَصِفُ اَلْسِنَتُكُمُ الْكَذِبَ هٰذَا حَلٰلٌ وَّ هٰذَا حَرَامٌ لِّتَفْتَرُوْا عَلَى اللّٰهِ الْكَذِبَ ؕ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَفْتَرُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ الْكَذِبَ لَا يُفْلِحُوْنَ ؕ ﴿١١٦﴾

116. And say not what your tongues tell falsely, this is lawful [260] and this is unlawful so that you may forge a lie against Allah. No doubt, those who forge lies against Allah they will not prosper [261].

260. Do not declare things lawful and unlawful according to your own fancy. Everything provided by Allah Almighty is lawful, besides those which Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم have declared unlawful. Says Allah Almighty: "He it is who created for you all" (S2:V29). Thus, if animals set aside for the idols are slaughtered in the name of Allah Almighty they become lawful to eat as they have not been declared unlawful by Allah Almighty.

261. From this we learn that declaring anything forbidden without any proof is a lie against Allah Almighty. Those who say that the Niaz of Meelad Shareef and food of Fateha are forbidden without any proof are liars. All these are permissible because Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had not declared them as unlawful. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says lawful is that which is declared as such by Allah Almighty while forbidden is that which is declared so by Allah Almighty, and where silence is maintained, that is allowed. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah forgive you, why did you not permit them" (S9:V43).

وَعَلَى الَّذِيْنَ هَادُوْا حَرَّمْنَا مَا قَصَصْنَا عَلَيْكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۚ وَ مَا ظَلَمْنٰهُمْ وَ لٰكِنْ كَانُوْٓا اَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۸﴾

118. And We made for the Jews those things unlawful, which We have already related [262] to you And We did not oppress them but they wronged themselves [263].

Allah Almighty: "Then on account of great injustice of the Jews, We made unlawful for them some of those pure things" (S4:V160). This means that at first these pure and good things were lawful for the Jews, but later were made unlawful upon them.

262. By this is meant it is stated in Sura Anaam: "And to the Jews We forbade every animal having hoofs" (S6:V146).

263. It means due to the rebellious disobedience of the Jews many pure things were made unlawful upon them, but oh believers, these are not forbidden for you. Says regard the unlawful to be lawful is infidelity.

ثُمَّ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلَّذِيْنَ عَمِلُوا السُّوْٓءَ بِجَهَالَةٍ ثُمَّ تَابُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ وَاَصْلَحُوْٓا ۙ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿۱۱۹﴾ ع ۱۵ ع ۹ ۲۱

265. This means to be remorseful at the sinful past and abstain from these in the future.

264. This means they committed these acts foolishly, knowing that they were forbidden, like the common sinful believers, because to

اِنَّ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ كَانَ اُمَّةً قَانِتًا لِّلّٰهِ حَنِيْفًا ؕ وَ لَمْ يَكُ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ۙ﴿۱۲۰﴾

120. No doubt, Ibrahim was a Leader [266] obedient to Allah and separate [267] from all others and was not a polytheist [268].

268. From this is understood that Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) had not committed idolatory for even one moment. When he called the sun and the moon my lord, it was for the purpose of refutation i.e. are those my lords? Therefore in acknowledging this by stating: "And this is Our argument that We gave to Ibrahim against his people" (S6:V83). He who regards Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) to be a polytheist for even a second, is an infidel.

266. By this is meant the symbol of a religious leader, a teacher of Truth, Prince of the Monotheists, chief of the investigators and arch enemy of the polytheists.

267. From this we learn that only that butter and gold has value which is pure and without any mixture in it, similarly only that believer is valuable who is free of any unfaithfulness. Do not keep friendship with the unfaithful. From this those people should take a lesson who advocate calling people of all faiths as brothers.

شَاكِرًا لِّاَنْعُمِهٖ ؕ اِجْتَبٰىهُ وَهَدٰىهُ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿١٢١﴾

121. Thankful to His Blessings Allah chose [269] him and showed him the straight path [270].

269. Allah Almighty selected Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) for prophethood, for sublime status and for being the father of prophets. It should be remembered that his selection is not due to these acts, but it is due to this selection that these actions were performed by him. This is because prophethood is not a thing which can be acquired, but it is bestowed upon those chosen by Allah almighty. It is for this reason that the letter FE is not used with IJTABAHO.

270. This means Allah Almighty had provided him with guidance from his childhood so that at no stage of his life did he commit a sin. This does not mean that (May Allah forbid) at first he was on the wrong path then Allah Almighty guided him to the straight path. Therefore the Holy QUR'AAN, prior to the mention of guidance, has clarified: "*And he was not a polytheis*t".

وَاٰتَيْنٰهُ فِى الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً ؕ وَ اِنَّهٗ فِى الْاٰخِرَةِ لَمِنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿١٢٢﴾

122. And We gave him good in the world [271]. And verily, in the hereafter he is among the righteous [272].

271. By this is meant Allah Almighty blessed Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) with prophethood, abundance of wealth, position of honour in all the major religions, long life, pious children, guidance to worship Him. Many commemorative things about him have been preserved in Makkah, created the Holy Prophet from his children, made the recitation of Daroode Ibrahim obligatory in Salaah, etc. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had five thousand dogs to protect his animals in whose necks were straps of gold.

The Christians and Jews venerate him, and the Hindus, too, honour and accept him as Krishan.

272. That is, after our Holy Prophet , Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) would have the highest position and status. He would be the first to be clothed, because everyone would be resurrected from the grave without any clothes. Amongst all the inmates of paradise he would be the one having a beard. All the people would be showing the highest respect for him.

ثُمَّ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْكَ اَنِ اتَّبِعْ مِلَّةَ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ حَنِيْفًا ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ﴿١٢٣﴾

123. Then We revealed to you that follow the faith of Ibrahim [273] who was separate from all falsehood and was not a polytheist [274].

273. Here the word "to follow" denotes conformity and agreement and not obedience in the conventional meaning of the word, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not the follower of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace), though the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم religion conforms to his.

274. From this we understand that the greatest favour which Allah Almighty bestowed on Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) is by creating our Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) from his progeny and made Islam in accordance with his code of Religion through which he gained world wide publicity. Those prophets whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had mentioned became known, while even the names of the rest of the others, too, have remained concealed and unlisted. This verse gives a hint that even before the revelation of his prophethood the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was firm on the religion of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) and by his nature was a true devotee and worshipper of Allah Almighty and one who had totally abstained from all types of forbidden acts (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

124. The Saturday (Sabbath) was imposed only on those who differed [275] in it. And undoubtedly, your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Judgement about that in which they differed [276].

إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ السَّبْتُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ ۚ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾

275. It should be remembered that Saturday was a great day to the Jews, while Sunday was sacred to the Christians, but Muslims observe Friday as a holy day. However, between their days and ours there are three differences:

1. Their days were chosen by themselves, while our day is chosen by Allah Almighty;
2. They were prescribed strict restrictions for the whole day while we are bound by light restriction during the time of Jumuah Salaah. Therefore these people were unable to carry these out.
3. These restrictions were obligatory upon all of them, while only those believers are duty bound to the restrictions upon whom Jumuah Salaah is obligatory.

276. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had asked the Jews to choose Friday for their day of worship. He further told them to determine one specific day for it. The Jews suggested Saturday, while a few of them had agreed for Friday. Thus Saturday was set aside for them as a special day on which they are prohibited from hunting. Those who agreed to the suggestion of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), remained firm on the restrictions placed upon them, while others failed to carry these out and continued to hunt. As a result of this they were transformed into monkeys and pigs (Roohul Bayaan, Khazainul Irfaan). Discussion regarding this metamorphosis i.e. undergoing change to a lower species, has been dealt with in Surah Araaf. This was due to their disagreement. From this two issues emerge:

1. It is extremely important to obey the instructions of a Prophet, not his suggestion;
2. The suggestion and opinion of a Prophet is auspicious and full of blessings. To go against it can sometimes bring about difficulties.

125. Call to the way of your Lord [277] with wisdom and good admonition [278] and argue with them in a way that is best [279]. No doubt, your Lord knows well who has been misguided from His way [280] and He knows well those who are guided.

اُدْعُ إِلَىٰ سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ وَجَادِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ ۚ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ ﴿١٢٥﴾

277. This means invite the entire creation towards Islam. From this we understand that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a Messenger to the entire mankind, and his propagational work would continue until the Day of Qiyamah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم propagated Islam directly to his Noble Companions, thereafter this work is continued by the scholars - the Ulama. Furthermore, only Islam is the Path of Allah Almighty, besides it all the other religions are the path of the devil. Says Allah Almighty: "Verily, only Islam is the Religion before Allah" (S3:V19).

278. Wisdom constitutes positive proofs like to inculcate an inclination, to instil fear, to narrate incidents of the previous people.

279. Debate with people according to their capacity and benefit. Or, debate so as to provide guidance and not to cause any mischief. From this emerge two issues:
1. To debate on religious issues with those bereft of faith is beneficial.
2. Proofs are effective for specific people, while stories with a moral, inculcating an inclination and instilling a fear, are suitable for common people, but debate should be with those who are bent on mischief. Since people are of three categories, propagation should also be of three types (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).
280. People's nature or their destiny will not change through propagation and debates and all the people will not accept faith through these means. This will however help to fulfil your obligation. Guidance comes from Allah Almighty alone.

126. And if you give punishment, then punish them to the extent they had afflicted you [281], and if you were patient, then undoubtedly, patience is the best for those who are patient [282].

وَ اِنْ عَاقَبْتُمْ فَعَاقِبُوْا بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوْقِبْتُمْ بِهٖ ؕ وَ لَئِنْ صَبَرْتُمْ لَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لِّلصّٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۲۶﴾

281. Reason for its revelation:
In the Battle of Uhud the infidels cut off the nose and ears of some of the martyrs. The same was done to Hazrat Hamzah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was saddened at seeing this. He had taken an oath to have seventy infidels killed to avenge the death of Hazrat Hamza (May Allah be pleased with him). The infidels ears and noses would be cut off from their faces. On this occasion the above verse was revealed. As a result of this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم changed his intention and gave compensation for breaking the oath.

Religious Issue:
Punishment should be meted out to everyone. according to his crime. Issue: It is totally forbidden to disfigure the faces of the deceased by cutting off their nose, ears, etc. (This tells us that this verse was revealed in Madina).
282. This means that not taking exact revenge from the offender in lieu of his crime is exercising patience, and exercising patience is better than revenge. But these laws are for personal matters. To pardon a criminal who is guilty of a religious, national or patriotic offence is a crime.

127. And O Beloved! Be patient and your patience is only because of Allahs grace and grieve not for them, and do not be strained because of their plans [283].

وَ اصْبِرْ وَ مَا صَبْرُكَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ وَ لَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا تَكُ فِيْ ضَيْقٍ مِّمَّا يَمْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۷﴾

283. They had always been deceiving the Prophets, but Allah Almighty will protect you from their wickedness and then make you victorious over them. All these promises had come to fruition.

128. No doubt, Allah is with those who fear and do good [284].

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ مَعَ الَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا وَّالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ مُّحْسِنُوْنَ ﴿۱۲۸﴾ ع

284. This tells us that whoever is kind to Allah's creation, Allah Almighty showers His kindness upon him.

SURAH BANI ISRAEL (MAKKAN) Revealed before Hijrah

12 Sections 111 Verses1 533 Words, 3460 Letters

1. Hazrat Qutadah has stated that in this Surah eight Verses (Ayat) (from وَ اِنْ كَادُوْا to نَصِيْرًا) are Madani, while the rest are Makkan. It is also known as Surah ASRA and Surah SUBHAAN.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION: 1

سُبْحٰنَ الَّذِیْٓ اَسْرٰی بِعَبْدِهٖ لَیْلًا مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ اِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْاَقْصَا الَّذِیْ بٰرَكْنَا حَوْلَهٗ لِنُرِیَهٗ مِنْ اٰیٰتِنَا ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ السَّمِیْعُ الْبَصِیْرُ ①

1. Holy is He [2] Who carried His Bondsman [3] by night [4] from the Sacred Mosque to the Aqsa Mosque [5] around which We have put blessings [6] that We may show him our grand signs [7]. No doubt, He is the All-Hearing and the All-Seeing [8].

2. Pure from every type of blemish and loss and harm. Whoever recites this great Name of Allah Almighty in the form of a Wazeefa (incantation) i.e. SUBHAAN or YA SUBHAAN, Allah Almighty will purify him of sins. The splendour and refulgence of every name of Allah Almighty is cast upon the reciter. One who recites the Wazeefa of YA GHANI, will become wealthy and bountiful.

3. In this verse the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم physical Me'raj is discussed, which took place in the eleventh year of Prophethood 621 C.E, during the latter part of the 27th night of Rajab in a total state of wakefulness. Many Me'raj in the form of dreams had taken place prior and after this great event. During this physical Me'raj the five daily Prayers had been made obligatory. Because the word ABD: BONDSMAN has both a physical and a spiritual link. Also the infidels would have blown such a storm over just a Me'raj of a dream, nor would the discussion of such a Me'raj had commenced with "Holy is He who carried His Bondsman". This expression is only used to describe an incredibly unique incident. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم appeared in the world in a dignified condition of a Prophet and presented himself in the presence of his Lord in a dignified state of a bondsman. Thus "His bondsman" is used in this verse while in Surah FATAH: The victory, "He sent His Messenger" is used.

4. Here Masjide Haraam denotes the Sacred Mosque in Makkah Muazzamah because this Me'raj had commenced from the house of Hazrat Umme Haani, daughter of Hazrat Abu Talib. Says Allah Almighty: "This offering reaching to the Ka'bah" (S5:V95). In here Ka'bah denotes the boundaries of the sacred mosque. Further, Allah Almighty says: "near the sacred mosque" (S2:V191), which is what is meant here. Thus there is no inconsistency in this verse. Going is different to "to take" and "to call". Here to take is used to show that Allah Almighty wants to show that He was with His beloved during this journey, remained with him all the time and took him with Him.

5. By Al-Aqsa is meant Jerusalem. Because this mosque is very far from Makkah Mukarrama requiring a journey of a month. If by Aqsa is taken to be that mosque of great distance far away from the earth found on the seventh heaven i.e. BAITUL MA'MOOR, then this word would be a proof for the heavenly Me'raj. Remember, the Me'raj up to Jerusalem is an absolute reality, and one who rejects it is out of the fold of Islam, while one who rejects the heavenly Me'raj is a heretic. If he rejects this on the ground that it is impossible for the doors of heaven to open and made an opening then he is an infidel, because he is caught up in the web of intricate philosophy.

6. The land of Jerusalem contains many blessings. It is lush green, has gardens and orchards laden with fruit, flowing rivers, clear fountains, as well as religious bounties. Most Prophets were sent to this land, it is a resting place of many Prophets and a place where Divine revelation had come.

7. By inviting His beloved Messenger to the heavens and the Throne of Allah Almighty to show him those symbols and signs about which all the previous Prophets had just heard e.g. seeing Allah Almighty with his own eyes, the Throne of Allah Almighty, The Divine Chair, the Divine Tablet and Pen, Paradise, Hell, etc so that the testimony of the other Prophets regarding these would be based on what is heard and that of our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم on what is seen.
Says Allah Almighty: "Oh Prophet, no doubt, We have sent you as a present beholder and bearer of glad tidings and a warner" (S33:V45). After the testimony of an eye witness there is no need of any other witness. Thus there can be no Prophet after our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Says Allah Almighty: "This day I have perfected your Religion" (S5:V3). Thus, Religion has been completed and perfected because the eye witness has arrived. He showed Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) His dominion, but to His beloved His beauteous vision and symbols.

8. In this verse right up to "Around which We have put blessings", mention is made of earthly Me'raj eg discussion up to Jerusalem while in "that We might show him" mention is made of heavenly Me'raj and in "He is the Hearing, the Seeing" mention is made of Me'raj of the omnipresence i.e. beyond the heavens. The earthly Me'raj is made as an introduction or proof of the heavenly Me'raj i.e. if you accept and believe in the earthly part of Mer'aj, then the rest of the Me'raj i.e. the heavenly and that beyond it will not be denied by you. This sentence means that verily, it is the beloved bondsman who is seeing and hearing. In other words it is only that beloved bondsman who really has the capacity to directly see His great signs, His beauteous vision and speak to Him. Therefore only he is blessed with this Mer'aj.

2. And We gave Musa [9], the Book and made guidance [10], for the children of Israel that do not take any other helper besides Me [11].

وَ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسَى الْكِتٰبَ وَجَعَلْنٰهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ اَلَّا تَتَّخِذُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِيْ وَكِيْلًا ۝۲

9. The Sacred Taurah was given at one time by calling Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) at Mount Sinai. It should be remembered that the entire Taurah as revealed on the 6th Ramadaan, the Injeel was revealed on the 13th Ramadaan and the Scrolls of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) on the 1st Ramadaan (Tafseer Naeemi, etc).

10. From this we learn that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was sent as a Prophet to the children of Israel only and the Taurah was sent as a guidance for them only, while regarding the Holy QUR'AAN it is said: "A guidance to all mankind" (S2:V185).

11. In this verse the word "disposer of affairs" does not mean attorneys and lawyers of courts, but rather it either means Allah Almighty, or the Absolute remover of difficulties, and the True Accomplisher (Allah Almighty) otherwise superficial removers of difficulties and accomplishers can be human being as well e.g. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had said, "I can restore sight to the blind, and cure the lepers". The shirt of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) restored the sight of Hazrat Yaqoob On whom be peace).

3. O You the offspring of those whom We bore with [12] Nuh. No doubt, he was a great and thankful bondsman [13].

ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوْحٍ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ عَبْدًا شَكُوْرًا ۝٣

12. This means all of them were his children who were on board the Ark of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) at the time of the Deluge. It should be remembered, that only the progeny of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) perpetuated the process of procreation. Hence, he is called Hazrat Adam II.

13. The actual name of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) was Yashkar, but because he would shed exessive tears due to fear of Allah Almighty, his title became Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) or the one who laments and mourns.

4. And We revealed [14] to the children of Israel in the Book that surely you shall create mischief [15] in the earth for the second time and you shall become proud excessively.

وَ قَضَيْنَآ اِلٰى بَنِيْۤ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ فِي الْكِتٰبِ لَتُفْسِدُنَّ فِي الْاَرْضِ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَ لَتَعْلُنَّ عُلُوًّا كَبِيْرًا ۝٤

14. In the Taurah, through Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

15. This means of children of Israel, you will create mischief in Syrian two occasions - the first mischief will be your opposition of Taurah, the murder of Hazrat Shajyaar (On whom be peace) and the imprisonment of Hazrat Armiya (On whom be peace), and the second mischief will be the murder of Hazrat Zakariya and Yahya (On them be peace) and the intention of the murder of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace).

5. Then when the first promise came to them, We sent against you Our bondsman as the strong warrior [16], then they entered into the cities for your search [17], and it was a promise to be fulfilled.

فَاِذَا جَآءَ وَعْدُ اُوْلٰىهُمَا بَعَثْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادًا لَّنَآ اُولِيْ بَاْسٍ شَدِيْدٍ فَجَاسُوْا خِلٰلَ الدِّيَارِ ؕ وَكَانَ وَعْدًا مَّفْعُوْلًا ۝٥

16. The warriors could be Jaloot, or King Bakht Nazar or Sakharib. From this we learn that due to one's evil deeds, cruel kings are appointed, because cruel kings too at times are a form of Divine punishment. After the murder of Hazrat Shia'a (On whom be peace), these cruel kings were appointed over the children of Israel.

17. This means they hunted you down and killed you. This tells us that Allah Almighty Himself avenges the death of His beloved friends.

6. Then We made your attack [18], turned over them, and helped you with wealth and sons and increased your band in numbers.

ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَا لَكُمُ الْكَرَّةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ اَمْدَدْنٰكُمْ بِاَمْوَالٍ وَّبَنِيْنَ وَجَعَلْنٰكُمْ اَكْثَرَ نَفِيْرًا ۝٦

Marfat.com

18. This means after you had repented Allah Almighty blessed you with so much wealth and power, that you were able to attack these cruel people to seek revenge. From this we learn that one can obtain wealth and honour due to the blessings of repentance.

7. If you do good it will be for yourself and if you do bad then it will be for yourself [19]. When the second promise came [20], that the enemies might deface your faces [21], and enter into the Mosque [22], as they had entered into it the first time and may destroy utterly whatsoever may fall in their power [23].

19. From this we understand that the Arabic letter LAAM is some times used to mean the preposition ON - i.e. for the purpose of loss. From this many religious issues can be deduced. Here, too, the letter LAAM means the same as the preposition ALA or ON to reflect that if you will engage yourselves in evil deeds, you will surely feel its burden. It will never happen that you will do the evil and somebody else will be made to bear the punishment. However, it is true that you will be made to bear the punishment of anothers evil if you had made him do that evil deed.

20. This means when you had created the second mischief causing the martyrdom of Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace), then the kings of Rome and Persia assumed power over you. Thus, when Herod, king of Rome, entered Jerusalem he saw blood, so he questioned the Jews about it. When they replied that it was the blood of a sacrificial animal, he exclaimed that you are telling a lie. Only after he had put seventy thousand Jews to the sword did they admit that it was the blood of Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace). The murder of Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) had taken place after Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was raised to the Heavens. (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan)

21. This means these kings had put you under such persecution which would bring about signs of misery on your faces, like what was done to you during the reign of Herod and other Roman kings.

22. This means these cruel kings would enter Jerusalem and desecrate its sanctity. From this we learn that due to our sins, the sanctity of our mosques is destroyed at the hands of the infidels.

23. In that they would utterly destroy your cities and your wealth. The great Sufis say that failure to pay Zakaat brings about famine, while murder and devastation come about as a result of common indulgence in adultery.

8. It is near that your Lord may show His mercy upon you [24], and if again you create mischief, then We shall again turn towards you our torment [25]. And We have made Hell the prison for the infidels [26].

عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ أَنْ يَرْحَمَكُمْ ۚ وَإِنْ عُدْتُمْ عُدْنَا ۘ وَجَعَلْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ حَصِيرًا ۝٨

24. This means at the time of your second mischief you were told that if you offer sincere repentance you would be forgiven. Thus they repented and were forgiven. Encouragement of Allah Almighty is for the purpose of instilling positive faith.

25 .Therefore, when the Jews had tried to falsify our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

Marfat.com

Banu Quraizah were put to the sword and Banu Nadzir were banished from Madina (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

26. This tells us that the punishment of the earth are separate from the punishments of the Hereafter, and that the worldly punishments would not decrease the torments of the Hereafter.

9. No doubt, this Qur`aan shows that path which is the most correct [27], and gives glad tidings to the believers who do good deeds so that they shall have a good reward [28].

اِنَّ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنَ يَهْدِىْ لِلَّتِىْ هِىَ اَقْوَمُ
وَيُبَشِّرُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ يَعْمَلُوْنَ
الصّٰلِحٰتِ اَنَّ لَهُمْ اَجْرًا كَبِيْرًا ۙ﴿۹﴾

27. The Straight Path which leads one to Paradise or to Allah Almighty is the Oneness of Allah Almighty and the total belief and obedience to the Prophets of Allah Almighty

28. Those Muslim who do good deeds according to their capacity will be rewarded in this world as well as in the Hereafter.

10. And that those who do not believe in the Hereafter [29], We have prepared for them a painful torment.

وَّاَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ
اَعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ عَذَابًا اَلِيْمًا ﴿۱۰﴾ ع ۱۰ ۱

29. This means either they totally don't believe in the Hereafter, like the polytheists, or they do believe in it but in a wrong way, like some Christians who acknowledge Paradise, but do not believe in all the bounties which are found in it. Or they do not believe in the intercession of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم All of them are rejectors of the Hereafter.

30. This tells us that it is not good to curse your family or any fellow Muslim in a fit of anger. Always utter good words as you don't know which is the time for the acceptance of Dua.

31. Hazrat Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has reported that Nader ibn Harith, an infidel had said that Oh Allah, if Islam is a true religion, then let stones fall upon me. His Dua was accepted and he was killed. Some Ulama say that man here denotes the infidels, while others have said that by man here means that man who in a fit of anger curses himself or his children. If Allah Almighty were to accept all the duas then those people would be destroyed.

them to use. The day is given the light so that you can earn your living during it.

2. Sustenance is a bounty from Allah Almighty and not just the result of our effort to earn it. Thus do not be proud of your skill, but rather seek the bounty of Allah Almighty.

35. Due to the rotation of night and day we have minutes, hours, fraction of the day, chronogram, months, years, centuries due to which we are able to maintain an accurate record of age and period of everything.

36. By this is meant Allah Almighty has provided a detailed description of everything in the Holy QUR'AAN or the Divine Tablet. Therefore those who have their sight on these will have full knowledge of everything.

وَكُلَّ اِنْسَانٍ اَلْزَمْنٰهُ طٰٓئِرَهٗ فِيْ عُنُقِهٖ ؕ وَ نُخْرِجُ لَهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ كِتٰبًا يَّلْقٰىهُ مَنْشُوْرًا ﴿۱۳﴾ good fortune, bad fortune, sustenance and every aspect of his life while he is still in his mother's womb. Thus, this Hadith is a commentary of this verse. Further, this angel is fully aware of everyone's affairs because he has written these. If angels have this much knowledge then imagine the knowledge of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

matter what language he may be speaking.

39. Anyone who may be keeping record of his deeds in this world, would find it easy to keep this record in the Hereafter if Allah Almighty wills!

32. Because night comes before the day, it is mentioned first and then the day, i.e. the coming of the night and the day, the increase and decrease in their duration, their heat and cold is reflecting that it is not time that is affecting this but the One Who is changing this time.

33. This means He has created darkness for the night and light for the day so that you can rest during the night and work in the day. Remember that sleep provides rest for the body and Tahajjud Salaah is the rest for the soul.

34. From this emerge two issues:

1. To remain idle without doing work is a sin. Allah Almighty has provided hands and feet to do work, do not render them useless, put

37. Hazrat Mujahid (On whom be peace) has said that Allah Almighty has placed the state of everyone's good fortune and misfortune in his neck. From this we learn that the pious are fully aware of everyone's destiny. If destiny was a thing to be hidden from everyone, then would it have been placed in their neck? It is reported in a Hadith that the angel writing destiny writes every child's age

38. This tells us that nobody will remain illiterate on the Day of Judgement, and that everyone will be speaking in Arabic as this command to read would be given to everybody, whether he is learned or ignorant, and no

مَنِ اهْتَدٰى فَاِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِيْ لِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَ مَنْ ضَلَّ فَاِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا ؕ وَ لَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِّزْرَ اُخْرٰى ؕ وَ مَا كُنَّا مُعَذِّبِيْنَ حَتّٰى نَبْعَثَ رَسُوْلًا ﴿۱۵﴾

15. Whosoever came to guidance [40], he came to guidance for his own good, and whosoever became misguided, he became misguided for his own evil. And no soul-bearing burden will bear the burden [41] of another. And We do not torment until We have sent our messenger [42].

40. The objective of this verse is to make us aware that man will most certainly get the reward of his guidance and good deeds. It will not happen that the good deeds are done by him, but their rewards would be given to someone else to deprive him. However, someone else may also receive the benefit of his good deeds. Hence this verse is not against the conveying of the rewards of one's good deeds (ESALE SAWAAB) nor does it contradict the Hadith. Says Allah Almighty: "And their father was a noble man" (S18:V82). Also, nobody should place anyone under obligation of his good deeds. Whatever he does is for himself.

41. So that the next person may be free of all his burdens otherwise the sinner will have the burden of the one indulging in sins. Says Allah Almighty: "And undoubtedly they shall surely bear their burdens, and along with their own burdens other burdens" (S29:V13). It is further said: "And also some loads of those whom they misled by their ignorance" (S16:V25). In any case there is no contradiction in these verses.

42. From this we learn that Divine punishment does not come by just disobeying Allah Almighty, but due to the disobedience of the Prophet as well. The Pharoah had claimed divinity, had eighty thousand male babies killed, yet punishment only came to him when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had cursed him. Hazrat Maulana Rumi says: "Allah Almighty does not put to shame any people until they disrespect a pious sage".

وَ اِذَآ اَرَدْنَآ اَنْ نُّهْلِكَ قَرْيَةً اَمَرْنَا مُتْرَفِيْهَا فَفَسَقُوْا فِيْهَا فَحَقَّ عَلَيْهَا الْقَوْلُ فَدَمَّرْنٰهَا تَدْمِيْرًا ﴿۱۶﴾

16. And We intend to destroy any town, We send Our Commands [43], to its well-to-do people, then they disobey [44] therein, then the world is fulfilled on them, then we destroy it with complete ruination [45].

43. By this is meant either specific laws to which the poor are not bound, such as Zakaat, Sadaqat, or common laws like Salaah, Fasting, especially that from the wealthy. It is for this reason mention is made that the poor and destitute are under them, if they carry these out then the poor should do likewise.

44. And because of them the poor under them too become sinful and debauched. Thus, there is no objection to be raised against the verse.

45. From this we learn that the leaders of the community should exercise greater caution, because others are with them as well.

وَ كَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا مِنَ الْقُرُوْنِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ نُوْحٍ ؕ وَ كَفٰى بِرَبِّكَ بِذُنُوْبِ عِبَادِهٖ خَبِيْرًۢا بَصِيْرًا ﴿۱۷﴾ of His bondsmen [47].

46. Like the people of Aad, Thamud and Lut, etc. because they had opposed their Prophets. Thus, the people of Makkah should take a lesson from this. The fall of the previous should alert the present.

47. By letting the angels write the record of deeds, appointing witnesses, etc. is not for His knowledge, but this is for the transgressors.

18. Whosoever desires this hastily [48], world, We soon give him in it whatever We please to whom We intend [49]; then We assign Hell for him, wherein he will enter it despised, being kicked.

48. The quest of this world is evil when this is done by making the person unmindful of his Creator; or when the person does not worry about differentiating lawful from the unlawful; or when he does not have faith in the Hereafter by believing that this world is the ultimate thing in life; or makes the religion as a means of worldly achievements, as is the case with the infidels, the sinners and the hypocrites.

49. This means you will only obtain material things that is put out for you, whether you try to achieve this through your careful planning or through easy circumstances. Ther-efore, a person should not waste his hereafter by concentrating on worldly gains only. The heart of the believer is in this world, the world is not in his heart. The ship floats on water, but if the water comes in the ship it will sink.

19. And whosoever intends for the Hereafter and strives [50], for it as how it should be striven for and he is a believer [51], then their striving has been successful [52].

50. From this restriction we ascertain that mere verbal expression of our desire for the Hereafter is not enough, we must make earnest effort and preparation for obtaining it through sound beliefs and total obedience to Allah Almighty and His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

51. From this we learn that no pious deed will be accepted without faith. Faith is to do good deeds, what Wudu is for Salaah, or like nutritious food to be bereft of poison. Faith is the root, good deeds are its branches.

52. This tells us that there are three conditions for the acceptance of good deeds: Faith, good intentions i.e. intention of acquiring the Hereafter, and sound effort. Without these, the desire is totally in vain (Khazainul Irfaan).

20. We do extend Our help to all these as well as those [53], out of the bestowing of your Lord. And there is no check on the bestow of your Lord [54].

كُلًّا نُّمِدُّ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ وَ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ مِنْ عَطَآءِ رَبِّكَ ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ عَطَآءُ رَبِّكَ مَحْظُوْرًا ﴿۲۰﴾

53. This means that Allah Almighty has provided means for the seekers of the world and the Hereafter in this world. All of them are receiving sustenance. In this world both poison and its antidote are available, it has the devil as well as the true guide.

54. It is for this reason that the bounties of the world are received by both the sinner and the pious, the infidel and the believer. From this we learn that the bounties of the world and the Hereafter are not just the result of our own effort, but rather through the grace of Allah Almighty. No one should be proud about his wealth or achievements.

21. See you; how We have preferred one over another? And without doubt the Hereafter is greatest in degrees and in preferment [55].

اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ ؕ وَ لَلْاٰخِرَةُ اَكْبَرُ دَرَجٰتٍ وَّاَكْبَرُ تَفْضِيْلًا ﴿٢١﴾

55. This means just as everybody is not equal in the world - the rank and status of everyone would be different. Thus, the person who does not believe in the different ranks of people in the Hereafter is in reality not reflecting on the world with a discerning eye.

The reward of the smallest deed of the Prophets will be far greater than our greatest deed. The charity of just a kilogram of barley of a Companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is far greater than our charity of a mountainful of gold.

22. O Listener! Set up no other god with Allah lest you will remain sitting down despised and helpless [56].

لَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ فَتَقْعُدَ مَذْمُوْمًا مَّخْذُوْلًا ﴿٢٢﴾ ع ١٢ ٢ ٢

56. From this we understand that being left helpless and without friends is the lot of the infidels and polytheists. Allah Almighty would. appoint many helpers for the believers, like the Saints, etc.

SECTION: 3

23. And your Lord has Commanded you that you should worship none except for Him and you should do good [57] with your parents. If either or both of them reach old age [58] then you should not utter any faint cry [59] to them and do not chide them and speak to them with respectful words [60].

وَ قَضٰى رَبُّكَ اَلَّا تَعْبُدُوْٓا اِلَّآ اِيَّاهُ وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ اِحْسَانًا ؕ اِمَّا يَبْلُغَنَّ عِنْدَكَ الْكِبَرَ اَحَدُهُمَآ اَوْ كِلٰهُمَا فَلَا تَقُلْ لَّهُمَآ اُفٍّ وَّ لَا تَنْهَرْهُمَا وَ قُلْ لَّهُمَا قَوْلًا كَرِيْمًا ﴿٢٣﴾

57. From this emerge a few issues:
1. The worship of Allah Almighty takes priority over loyalty to man. It should be remembered that obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is included in the worship of Allah Almighty.
2. Amongst all the relatives, obedience to the parents takes the priority as Allah Almighty has mentioned it with His worship.
3. Even if the parents are non-believers, it is obligatory to fulfil their rights, because Allah Almighty has mentioned parents without any condition or restriction.
4.Parents should be served physically and financially because the word kindness to them is mentioned without any condition or restriction.
5. Worship of anyone besides Allah Almighty is not permissible, while obedience would be to Allah Almighty and His Beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

58. Though service to parents is important at all times, but in their hour of need this becomes absolutely incumbent. The fact of the matter is that to serve them when they are not in need of it is desirable, but when they are in need, this becomes obligatory. Thus, to serve them when they are ill or helpless is obligatory.

59. Religious Issue:
1. Parents should not utter words that would hint that the attitude of their children is making life unbearable for them.
2. Do not address your parents by name;
3. Do not treat your parents like your servants
4. The son should not keep his parents like despised servants.

60. That the children should address them with appropriate and kind words. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) addressed his uncle as "Oh my Father". Do not speak to them in a tone of anger, bear with their unpalatable behaviour due to old age, because during old age a person tends to become easily irritable, suspicious and angry.

24. And spread for them the arm of humility with tender heart [61], and say, 'O my Lord, have mercy on them both as they had brought me up in my childhood [62].'

وَ اخْفِضْ لَهُمَا جَنَاحَ الذُّلِّ مِنَ الرَّحْمَةِ وَ قُلْ رَّبِّ ارْحَمْهُمَا كَمَا رَبَّيٰنِيْ صَغِيْرًا ﴿۲۴﴾

61. This means practically you treat them well, do not hesitate to spend on them, because when you were helpless, they cared for you. Now, when they are helpless you must take care of them.

62. From this emerge few issues:
1. No person can ever fulfil every right of the parents, therefore continue to pray for their well being.
2. After the demise of your parents you should hold prayers for the 3rd, 40th day, one year etc as a means of seeking forgiveness of them.
3. If your parents are infidels pray for their guidance.

25. Your Lord knows well what is in your hearts, if you are righteous, then no doubt, He is Most Forgiving to those who repent [63].

رَبُّكُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِيْ نُفُوْسِكُمْ ؕ اِنْ تَكُوْنُوْا صٰلِحِيْنَ فَاِنَّهٗ كَانَ لِلْاَوَّابِيْنَ غَفُوْرًا ﴿۲۵﴾

63. If you have a desire in your heart to serve your parents, but you did not get an opportunity for it. Allah Almighty will not place any blame of it on you because He is fully aware of our desires and intentions.

26. And give your kinsmen their right [64], and to the needy and to the traveller [65], and do not spend extravagantly [66].

64. In addition to the parents, serve their children as well, e.g. their brothers, sisters and their relatives i.e. our dear ones. Some scholars of Islam commenting on this verse said we should fulfil the rights of the kith and kin of the Holy Prophet because from parents we received life, but from the Holy Prophet we received our faith.

65. Even if the Muslim destitutes and travellers are not our relatives, yet assist them with your Zakaat and Sadaqat because Allah Almighty has bestowed more wealth than your needs upon you for this purpose. The buffalo is given more milk than necessary for her calf so that other people can derive benefit from it.

66. To spend more than necessary on things permissible is called extravagance, (ISRAAF) and spending the same on unlawful things is called extravagance (TABZIR). Tabzir is worse than Israaf, therefore it is severely censured.

be severely punished. Just as spending of good things would be rewarded, spending in evil things is a sin.

regarding it in which it is said when your dear ones or any poor Muslim ask you for financial assistance which you are unable to give them speak to them with kindness. By this is meant pray for their well-being or make an encouraging promise for the future. Thus, when you are helpless do not turn away a beggar in a harsh tone. Says Allah Almighty: "And chide not the beggar" (S93:V10).

68. Reason for its revelation:
Some times, Hazrat Bilal Suhaib, Hazrat Salim and Hazrat Khubaab, (May Allah be pleased with them), the jurists amongst the noble Companions, would ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to satisfy their needs. At times when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not have anything to give them, he would remain silent. This verse was revealed

وَلَا تَجْعَلْ يَدَكَ مَغْلُولَةً إِلَىٰ عُنُقِكَ وَلَا تَبْسُطْهَا كُلَّ الْبَسْطِ فَتَقْعُدَ مَلُومًا مَّحْسُورًا ﴿٢٩﴾

29. And keep not your hands tied [69], with your neck, nor open it completely lest you sit down [70], blamed and tired [71].

him) had only one shirt which he was wearing. He took off this blessed shirt and gave it to her and then went to his room. He remained there after the Azaan was given for Salaah but the beloved Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not return to the mosque. This verse was revealed on this occasion. From this we learn that your needs and that of your children take priority over charity. What is saved from this should be given in charity. This is the law of Shariah. The unique charity of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) of laying everything he had in his house at the feet of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was the expression of one who was deeply immersed in the love of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

69. This means do not become stingy and miserly so as not to spend at the time of need, or not to fulfil the rights of the person in question.

70. Reason for its Revelation:
Once a discussion took place between a Muslim lady and a Jewes woman concerning whether Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was more generous than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The Jewes claimed that the nature of generosity of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was such that he would distribute everything that he would have in excess of his needs. To test the generosity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the Muslim lady sent her daughter to the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to request for a shirt which she needed. At that point in time, the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon spendthrift. In the Hereafter both of these would be a curse for the person.

30. No doubt your Lord extends the provision for whom He pleases and He straitens. No doubt, He knows well and sees His bondsmen [72].

إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَيَقْدِرُ ۚ إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيْرًا بَصِيْرًا ﴿٣٠﴾

72. Thus those whom He had kept as poor is correct and those on whom He had bestowed wealth, too, is full of Divine wisdom.

SECTION: 4

31. And kill not your children for fear of poverty; We shall provide them and you too. No doubt, their murder is a great error [73]

وَلَا تَقْتُلُوْٓا اَوْلَادَكُمْ خَشْيَةَ اِمْلَاقٍ ۚ نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُهُمْ وَاِيَّاكُمْ ۚ اِنَّ قَتْلَهُمْ كَانَ خِطْاً كَبِيْرًا ﴿٣١﴾

73. Reason for its Revelation:
The people of Arabia prior to Islam would bury their female infants alive. The wealthy would do this so that no one would become their son in-law, thereby making them feel small, and the poor were doing this so as to save them the problem of providing their trousseau and feeding them. To stop the poor from this act the above verse was revealed. Here the word 'error' denotes a major sin. It should be remembered that this type of laws are enforced upon both the believers and the infidels, therefore, no infidel would be allowed to take life.

32. And approach not adultery [74], undoubtedly that is immodesty and a very vile path [75].

وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا الزِّنٰٓى اِنَّهٗ كَانَ فَاحِشَةً ۚ وَسَآءَ سَبِيْلًا ﴿٣٢﴾

74. This means safeguard yourself from the motives of adultery as well. Thus, to cast an evil eye, being alone in the company of a strange woman, the exposure of a woman, etc. are all forbidden. To prevent fever, try and prevent the inflammation of the mucous membrane, to stop the plague, first destroy the rats. The obligation of Purdah, the unlawfulness of song and music, the order to lower one's gaze are all introduced for the prevention of adultery.
75. From this we learn that adultery is a worse crime than murder because the punishment for murder is death but that of adultery is RAJAM - or stoning to death. The reason being adultery is both a crime as well as shamelessness and debasing the process of procreation.

33. And kill not any soul [76], which Allah has forbidden without any right. And whosoever killed without any right, then undoubtedly We have given authority to his heirs [77], but he should not exceed the limit in killing [78]. Necessarily he is to be helped [79].

وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا النَّفْسَ الَّتِىْ حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ اِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ ۚ وَمَنْ قُتِلَ مَظْلُوْمًا فَقَدْ جَعَلْنَا لِوَلِيِّهٖ سُلْطٰنًا فَلَا يُسْرِفْ فِّى الْقَتْلِ ۚ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ مَنْصُوْرًا ﴿٣٣﴾

Marfat.com

76. It should be remembered that it is permissible to take the life of a combatant infidel, but it is forbidden to take the life of a believer, a non-Muslim under the Islamic state and a confederate. However, the taking of life of a believer is allowed under three conditions: A life for a life, or for adultery or for banditry. From "Allah has forbidden" is obtained the first benefit while from "without right" these benefits. Thus, this verse is a source for establishing many religious issues.

77. From this we learn that punishment with like retaliation is a human right, if the guardian so wishes he can forgive the killer. Also, that the guardian of the murdered person may neither do exactly the same with the murderer nor kill another innocent person. It is not obligatory that the method of killing should be the same. The guardian should have the killer killed with a sword, even if he had killed his victim in another way.

78. There are a few ways of exceeding the limits of killing: to kill a few in place of one, to kill after granting pardon, to kill by subjecting the victim to unnecessary harsh treatment, i.e. by cutting his hands and feet, after killing the person to cut off his limbs like the nose, the ears, etc i.e. to mutilate the body all these practices are forbidden. The infidels would practise this during the Days of Ignorance.

79. It is reported in Sawaiqe Muharriqah that Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said to Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) that Hazrat Ameer Muawiya (May Allah be pleased with him) is quite right in his demand for avenging the death of Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him), because he is his true guardian. If you show laxity in seeking retaliation or punishing his murderers Hazrat Muawiya will use this as an excuse to take control over the empire. He used this verse to substantiate his argument.

وَ لَا تَقْرَبُوْا مَالَ الْيَتِيْمِ اِلَّا بِالَّتِیْ
هِیَ اَحْسَنُ حَتّٰی یَبْلُغَ اَشُدَّهٗ ۪ وَ اَوْفُوْا
بِالْعَهْدِ ۚ اِنَّ الْعَهْدَ كَانَ مَسْـُٔوْلًا ﴿۳۴﴾

34. And do not approach the property of the orphan [80], but by a way, which is best [81], until he reaches his maturity [82], and fulfils the promise, surely the promise is to be questioned of [83].

80.From this we learn if the heirs are minors, then the wealth of the deceased should not be used for the purpose of Fateha food, etc. as this food would not be lawful for anyone. Wealth for doing this commendable deed should be spent by the adult heirs from their share, because devouring the wealth of the orphans is devouring the fire of Hell. People are unmindful about this fact. The minor orphans should not be made to fill in water, because that water too is the wealth of the orphan.

81. From this we learn that the guardian of the orphan can trade with his wealth which would increase his wealth as this is included in good. Likewise, it is permissible to deposit his money in the bank in his name as this is a method of safeguarding his wealth.

82. From 12-18 years is regarded as a youthful or adolescent age or age of puberty i.e. after the age of twelve upto eighteen. But now the verdict is on the statement of Hazrat Imam Muhammad and Abu Yusuf, i.e. after the completion of the fifteenth year. From this we learn that a person who has reached the age of puberty is no longer called an orphan.

balance [84]. This is better, and its end is good.

when you receive, let the measure be an even balance without any extra. The end result of this is good as it is full of blessing as well liked in the eyes of the people and proves beneficial to flourish the trade.

وَ لَا تَقْفُ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهٖ عِلْمٌ ؕ اِنَّ السَّمْعَ وَ الْبَصَرَ وَ الْفُؤَادَ كُلُّ اُولٰٓئِكَ كَانَ عَنْهُ مَسْئُوْلًا ﴿۳۶﴾

36. And do not go after that thing which you do not know [85]. No doubt, the ears and the eyes [86], and the heart all are to be questioned of [87].

84. It is obligatory that at the time of giving the measure or weight must be accurate, in fact to give a little more is desirable. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "When you weigh, weigh slightly more". But

85. This tells us that it is forbidden to give a verdict or explain a religious issue without knowledge, all of which is included in this world.

86. This means a person will be questioned with regard to harbouring evil thoughts or having, defective beliefs. However, those evil thoughts which come in one's heart involuntarily are excused. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses and the Hadith.

87. This means that all these inner and outer limbs will be questioned on the Day of Judgement that you did not use these for doing permissible deeds. Therefore use these to do good deeds only. These questions are not for the knowledge of Allah Almighty, but to seek the acknowledgement and admission of guilt by the transgressors.

وَ لَا تَمْشِ فِى الْاَرْضِ مَرَحًا ۚ اِنَّكَ لَنْ تَخْرِقَ الْاَرْضَ وَ لَنْ تَبْلُغَ الْجِبَالَ طُوْلًا ﴿۳۷﴾

37. And do not walk on the earth proudly [88], undoubtedly, you shall never cleave the earth, and shall never reach to the mountains in the height [89].

88. This tells us that the practice of pride and arrogance, and the postures and outer show of these people, etc are all forbidden. Our sitting, walking, moving should all display humility and modesty. Our speech should be soft, walking slow and dignified. Many issues branch out from this, some of these extracted by the jurists are that it is not permissible to use the elephant for a mode of transport, and wearing gloves made from the lion's skin, the source of which is this verse.

89. This means there is no benefit in boasting, but rather it is sinful. Therefore one should abstain from it and adopt simplicity and modesty. The fruit of very tall trees are small, while shrubs which display modesty are laden with big fruit like pumpkins, melons, etc. An outrageous fire does not have gardens, these are found in humble sand.

wisdom [90]. And do not put with Allah any other god, lest you will be thrown in Hell taunted, being banished [91].

وَ لَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ فَتُلْقٰى فِيْ جَهَنَّمَ مَلُوْمًا مَّدْحُوْرًا ﴿٣٩﴾

90. Here the word wisdom denotes those laws which are acceptable to even a sound mind. Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) says ever since my eyes beheld the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم I had never cast a glance on my private parts. Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him) says ever since I accepted Islam I had never uttered a word of lie. A king never sits in a dirty rubbish place. Can the light of faith be found in a sinful heart and false tongue? (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

91. From this we learn that Allah Almighty will protect the sinful believer from all types of taunting remarks and paralysing fear in Hell. He will not embarrass him, as both of these are punishments set aside for the infidels.
"Those who do not bear to expose the faults of anyone in this world, How will they desire to embarrass me on the Day of Judgement?

40. Has your Lord picked you for sons and has made for Himself daughters [92] from the Angels? No doubt, you speak that which is a grave saying.

اَفَاَصْفٰىكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ بِالْبَنِيْنَ وَ اتَّخَذَ مِنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اِنَاثًا ؕ اِنَّكُمْ لَتَقُوْلُوْنَ قَوْلًا عَظِيْمًا ﴿٤٠﴾ ع ٥

92. Reason for its revelation:
The polytheists of Arabia were describing the angels as daughters of Allah Almighty. This claim of theirs is refuted in this verse, in which it is said that "oh! you wretched people, you would dislike daughters for yourselves, yet you are approving the same for Allah Almighty. Has Allah Almighty given you good things i.e. the sons, and kept the bad things for Himself i.e. the daughters". Even now, the polytheist Hindus give female names for most of their idols. This tells us that it is an old sickness of the polytheists. The Hindus regard Durga, Parvathi, Ganga, Jamana, Kali etc as ladies. Hindustan is known as Bharat Mata - Mother India.

41. And no doubt, We explain in this Qur`aan variedly that they may understand [93], and nothing is increased in them by it but hatred [94].

93. He explained one topic, in various styles, proofs, examples, wisdom, lessons, and narratives, because some accept proofs, some through admonitions, some through examples. Since the Holy QUR'AAN has come for all, it caters for all types of people as well.

94. This tells us that any heart which is bereft of the love and greatness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would not benefit from the Holy QUR'AAN, but on the contrary, the Holy QUR'AAN will cause harm to him. Some trees are destroyed by rain, those of weak bladder become sick through nutritious food. It is for this reason that an infidel is given a Holy QUR'AAN after he recites the Kalima.

food. They had heard the weeping sound of the pillar. It should be remembered, that although everything recites Tasbeeh, the effects of these are different. Thus, the incantation of a green plant on a grave lessens the punishment of the inmate of the grave, although the shroud as well as the sand of the grave too are engaged in the recitation of an incantation (Tasbeeh). It is for this reason that flowers and green shrubs are placed on the grave. Likewise, there is a difference in the effect of Tasbeeh of a believer and an infidel.In fact, even among the believers there is a difference between the worship and incantations of a saint and a non-saint.

97. This means angels and other creations, because besides humans and jinns there are no polytheists and infidels in any other creation.

98. From this we learn that everything is engaged in reciting the glorification of Allah Almighty with its verbal tongue, and not with just its discerning tongue, because every intelligent person understands condition of things, though he does not understand the theoretical meaning of these words. However, there are some pious sages who do understand these as well and listen to their incantations. Thus, at the time of eating the noble Companions would hear the incantation of

وَ اِذَا قَرَاْتَ الْقُرْاٰنَ جَعَلْنَا بَيْنَكَ وَ بَيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ حِجَابًا مَّسْتُوْرًا ۙ﴿۴۵﴾

45. And O beloved! When you recited Qur`aan, we placed between you and those who do not believe[99], in the hereafter a hidden veil[100].

Marfat.com

99. Reason for the Revelation:
When the verse "Perish be the two hands of Abu Lahab" (S111:V1) was revealed, Jameela, wife of Abu Lahab came with stones where the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was sitting with Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him). She began to speak to Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) without seeing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and asked: "Where is your master? He speaks ill of me (satirises)". To this Hazrat Abu Bakr replied that my Master does not recite poetry. She then left saying that she had brought those stones to bash his head. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) then enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the reason for Jameela not seeing him. The reply was that Allah Almighty had placed an angel between him and her. The verse is referring to this incident (Khazainul Irfaan).

100. The fact of the matter is that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed light and bounties do not reach the infidels, therefore they are groping in misguidance. If this cover is lifted and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is able to reach them then they too would be able to receive Faith and Divine knowledge. "The disputes of Faith and infidelity have increased due to your cover. If you can lift the curtain then you and you alone will prevail".

46. And we have put coverings [101], over their hearts lest they should understand it and in their ears is heaviness [102]. And when you remember in QUR`AAN your Lord alone, they run away turning their back hatefully [103].

وَّ جَعَلْنَا عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ اَكِنَّةً اَنْ يَّفْقَهُوْهُ
وَ فِيْٓ اٰذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا ؕ وَاِذَا ذَكَرْتَ
رَبَّكَ فِي الْقُرْاٰنِ وَحْدَهٗ وَلَّوْا عَلٰٓى
اَدْبَارِهِمْ نُفُوْرًا ﴿۴۶﴾

101. Due to which they are unable to understand the QUR'AAN correctly. From this we learn that the correct understanding of the QUR'AAN can only be obtained through faith and piety without which the mind functions in a confused way as can be seen today. Every book is recited with a light, but the light of the Holy QUR'AAN is piety. Every commentator should develop piety in him. May Allah Almighty guide us!

102. This tells us that any heart which is not connected to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not be able to hear or understand the Holy QUR'AAN. The understanding of the Holy QUR'AAN is dependent on the respect and dignity for the possessor of the Holy QUR'AAN صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

103. Because they are addicted to polytheism, they become displeased at hearing topics based on the Oneness of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that an unfortunate wretch does not find guidance anywhere. If they do not find this from the door of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then from where else will they find it? The sins from everywhere are presented at the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for forgiveness, but if these are committed at his blessed door then where will they be taken for forgiveness?

47. We know well for they hear, when they put their ears [104], towards you and when they counsel together, when the unjust say, 'you follow not but such a man who has been enchanted [105].

نَحْنُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَسْتَمِعُوْنَ بِهٖٓ اِذْ يَسْتَمِعُوْنَ

Marfat.com

104. This means that even if the infidels listen to the QUR'AAN it is for the purpose of making fun of it. This type of hearing is an act of sin.

105. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Allah Almighty Himself takes vegeance from the infidels for causing any harm to His beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم when they called him one bewitched, Allah Almighty labelled them tyrants.

2. A liar is never at ease with one's talk. Thus, the infidels would sometimes call the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as a magician, i.e. one who casts a spell on others, at other times they would call him the victim of other people's spell; sometimes they would call him insane, i.e. one having no sense and other times a poet - i.e . one who possesses great intelligence. In short, they did not rozy themselves in what they were saying.

48. See how they have pro-founded similitude's for you,[106], then they have gone astray that they cannot get away [107].

اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوْا لَكَ الْاَمْثَالَ فَضَلُّوْا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ سَبِيْلًا ﴿۴۸﴾

106. In this verse Allah Almighty is complaining to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم about the infidels. The beauty about this is that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم did not complain to Allah Almighty about what these wretches were calling him, but instead, Allah Almighty Himself is complaining about them to His Beloved Rasool صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. This reflects the extent of love which Allah Almighty has for His Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

Those who possess literary taste would understand and appreciate this line of discussion.

107. From this emerge two issues:

1. It is an act of infidelity to use trivial words and to present mean examples in respect of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

2. Those who harbour personal hostility and enmity against the Holy Prophet will not be guided to obtain faith. The devil, too, had this sickness of hostility.

49. And say what! When we shall become bones and broken particles, shall we be raised really as new creation? [108].

وَ قَالُوْٓا ءَاِذَا كُنَّا عِظَامًا وَّ رُفَاتًا ءَاِنَّا لَمَبْعُوْثُوْنَ خَلْقًا جَدِيْدًا ﴿۴۹﴾

108. This questions of the infidels of Makkah was to express astonishment and rejection i.e. after death when the bones would have decomposed totally it would be impossible to form a body from nothingness and bequeath a life and soul in it. They had forgotten their own origin. A fault finder always raises an objection blindly.

50. Say you, 'be stones or iron'.

قُلْ كُوْنُوْا حِجَارَةً اَوْ حَدِيْدًا ﴿۵۰﴾

51. Or any other creation, which may be bigger [109], in your thinking, then now they will say who will create us again [110]. Say you, 'He who created you for the first time', now then they will shake there heads jesting

اَوْ خَلْقًا مِّمَّا يَكْبُرُ فِيْ صُدُوْرِكُمْ ۚ فَسَيَقُوْلُوْنَ مَنْ يُّعِيْدُنَا ؕ قُلِ الَّذِيْ فَطَرَكُمْ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ ۚ فَسَيُنْغِضُوْنَ اِلَيْكَ towards you, 'when [111], it is', say you, 'perhaps it may be near' [112].

رُءُوْسَهُمْ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ مَتٰى هُوَ ؕ قُلْ عَسٰۤى اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ قَرِيْبًا ﴿۵۱﴾

109. If iron and steel, etc which have no links with life can be recreated, then what about living things being transformed into bones and sands which earlier had life? Remember, the word "BECOME" is a verb for a command, but not to make the command obligatory, but for the purpose of labelling accusation and blame at the rejectors to silence them.

110. Because these infidels had forgotten the inventor, therefore they had forgotten the one who can recreate them.

111. The infidels asked three things about their being brought back to life again: how will He bring them back to life, who would bring them back to life, when will He bring them back to life. Answers to all three questions are given separately and in a most exquisite manner.

112. The use of 'perhaps' by Allah Almighty expresses proof of certainty. This tells us that the Day of Judgement is very near because the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a major sign about it. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم joining his two blessed fingers together said, "Qiyamat and I are just like this" From this there is a hint that Allah Almighty had bestowed knowledge about the Day of Judgement upon our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

52. The day when He will call you [113], then you will come [114], praising Him and will think that you tarried not but little [115].

يَوْمَ يَدْعُوْكُمْ فَتَسْتَجِيْبُوْنَ بِحَمْدِهٖ وَ تَظُنُّوْنَ اِنْ لَّبِثْتُمْ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴿۵۲﴾ ع ۵ ۱۲

113. By this is meant calling you to the place of reckoning by means of sounding the trumpet. From this we learn that the activities of certian special servants of Allah Almighty are indeed the activities of the Almighty because resurrecting the people, summoning them to the plains of Reckoning, blowing the Trumpet, are all assigned to Hazrat Israfeel (On whom be peace). Yet, Allah Almighty is saying He would be summoning the people. In a like manner He refers to many activities of His servants as His work eg, Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) had told Bibi Mariam, "I would grant a son to you".

114. This tells us that all worships will come to an end in the Hereafter, but the act of praising Allah Almighty would continue there as well. However, this offering of praise will not be of any inconvenience but one of spiritual nourishment just like the respiratory process in this world. But offering praise of Allah Almighty will not benefit the infidels in the Hereafter.

115. In comparison to the life in the Hereafter, because the life of this world and the period of stay in the grave is lesser than that of the Hereafter. Or due to the fear of the Day of Judgement their long lives will seem short. Thereafter they will remember their ages and all the incidents during it (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

SECTION 6

53. And say to My bondsmen that they should speak that which is best [116]. No doubt, the Satan provokes strife among [117]. Verily the devil is an open enemy to man.

وَ قُلْ لِّعِبَادِيْ يَقُوْلُوا الَّتِيْ هِيَ اَحْسَنُ ؕ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ يَنْزَغُ بَيْنَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ كَانَ لِلْاِنْسَانِ عَدُوًّا مُّبِيْنًا ﴿۵۳﴾

Marfat.com

116.This brief verse includes thousands of issues pertaining to beliefs, worships, and affairs and dealings of day to day life. Its reason for revelation is: When the polytheists of Arabia would hurl abuse at the Muslims, they complained to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. In response this verse was revealed in which the Muslims are told not to react to the uncouth and uncivilized speech of the polytheists in like manner. Some Ulama are of the opinion that this verse is abrogated from the following verse: "Oh Prophet! strive hard against the infidels and the hypocrites and be strict against them" (S66:V9). It is possible that in that verse the word 'be strict' could denote a severe proof. This would then mean substantiate a strong proof but do not utter absurd words. It should be remembered that Kalima Tayyiba, recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN, to speak sweetly to people when discussing religious issues which could exercise good effect on the hearts of people, are all included in this.

117. The devil provokes strife by making you angry and inflamed so that you give tit for tat which could lead to a situation of confrontation. Under such circumstances exercise control and become a good example of the lofty character and qualities of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

54. Your lord knows you well, he will have mercy [118], upon you if he pleases, or he will torment you if he pleases. And we have not sent you as a guardian over them [119].

رَبُّكُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِكُمْ ؕ اِنْ يَّشَاْ يَرْحَمْكُمْ اَوْ اِنْ يَّشَاْ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ ؕ وَ مَاۤ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَكِيْلًا ﴿۵۴﴾

118. Oh infidels that Allah Almighty may give you guidance towards faith and doing good deeds. Or Oh Muslims that He may accept your good deeds. Thus, do not fully accept that the infidelity of an infidel or your faith would be eternal. There is a hope that an infidel may become a believer, and there is always a danger of a believer becoming a heretic. Therefore, always seek refuge in Allah Almighty.

119. From this emerge two issues:
1. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is not responsible for the deeds of the infidels;
2. That if Allah Almighty wills, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم would be responsible for the deeds of the believers by having them pardoned through his intercession - "ardently desirous of your welfare" (S8:V128).

55. And your lord knows well those that are in the heavens and in the earth. And undoubtedly, we preferred one to the other in prophets and gave to Dawood the Zaboor (a scripture) [120].

وَ رَبُّكَ اَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ وَ لَقَدْ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَ النَّبِيّٖنَ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ وَّ اٰتَيْنَا دَاوٗدَ زَبُوْرًا ﴿۵۵﴾

120.In which there is glad tidings about the coming of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Or, Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) was a Prophet as well as a king. But prophethood was a great bounty. Or that the Jews were under the impression that after Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) there would be no other prophet coming. But Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) came after him. Likewise, our beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم also became Nabi so what does it matter? There were hundred and fifty Surahs in the Zaboor, but they had contained prayers and incantational practices (Roohul Bayaan, Khazain).

قُلِ ادْعُوا الَّذِيْنَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ فَلَا يَمْلِكُوْنَ كَشْفَ الضُّرِّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا تَحْوِيْلًا ﴿٥٦﴾

56. Say you, 'call them whom you think besides Allah, [121], then they have no authority to remove affliction from you nor to avert it [122].

given permission for practising idolatory i.e. call upon your idols and see, they will not be able to relieve you of the drought. Then why do you worship such helpless objects.

122. This means they are neither objects of worship nor do they have power to remove difficulties, nor can they take them from you and transfer them onto others. This is the very difference between transfer of one thing to another and a miracle.

121. Reason for its revelation:
Once the infidels of Arabia were caught up in a severe drought, so much so that they had to eat the flesh of dogs and dead animals. When matters became unbearable they came crying for assistance and requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for them. This verse was revealed on this occasion. It should be remembered that 'Call them' is grammatically a verb for command, but this has been said for taunting. In it the infidels are not

أُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ يَبْتَغُوْنَ اِلٰى رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيْلَةَ اَيُّهُمْ اَقْرَبُ وَيَرْجُوْنَ رَحْمَتَهٗ وَيَخَافُوْنَ عَذَابَهٗ ؕ اِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ كَانَ مَحْذُوْرًا ﴿٥٧﴾

57. Those chosen bondsmen whom these infidels worship, [123], they themselves seek access [124], towards their Lord that who is near to Him in them, they hope for His mercy and fear [125]. His torment. No doubt the torment of your Lord is a thing to be feared.

123. Like Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace) angels and jinns. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Masood (May Allah be pleased with him) says this verse was revealed regarding those infidels of Arabia who were worshipping the believing jinns, though these jinns had accepted faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

124. From this we learn that it is incumbent to seek a medium in order to approach Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "Oh believers fear Allah and seek the means of approach to Him" (S5:V35). We further learn that some of the deities of the infidels, too, are desirous of seeking a medium like the believing jinns and angels, because all of them would be seeking the medium of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the Day of Judgement.

125. Then on what grounds are the infidels regarding them as deities? From this we learn that the Prophets as well as the angels all fear Allah Almighty and place their hope in Him. Why not? Because faith is established on fear and hope.

وَاِنْ مِّنْ قَرْيَةٍ اِلَّا نَحْنُ مُهْلِكُوْهَا قَبْلَ يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ اَوْ مُعَذِّبُوْهَا عَذَابًا شَدِيْدًا ؕ كَانَ ذٰلِكَ فِي الْكِتٰبِ مَسْطُوْرًا ﴿٥٨﴾

127. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Masood (May Allah be pleased with him) says that any place which abounds in adultery and usury will become the victim of devastation. Some Ulema have said that devastation would be for the settlements of the believers and punishment for the settlements of sinners (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

59. And we abstained from sending such signs because the former people belied [128]. them. And We gave to Thamud a she camel as an eye-opener, then they wronged her [129]. and We don't send but to cause fear[130].

وَ مَا مَنَعَنَاۤ اَنۡ نُّرۡسِلَ بِالۡاٰیٰتِ اِلَّاۤ اَنۡ
كَذَّبَ بِهَا الۡاَوَّلُوۡنَ ؕ وَ اٰتَیۡنَا ثَمُوۡدَ
النَّاقَةَ مُبۡصِرَةً فَظَلَمُوۡا بِهَا ؕ وَ مَا
نُرۡسِلُ بِالۡاٰیٰتِ اِلَّا تَخۡوِیۡفًا ﴿۵۹﴾

128. Reason for its revelation:
The infidels of Arabia had told the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم that if you are a true Prophet, then change Safa into a mountain of gold, and remove the other mountains from Makkan land. Allah Almighty through revelation informed the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم that if you desire We will fulfil their demands. But after seeing the miracles, if they fail to accept faith, they will then be destroyed. If you so desire We will spare them and not fulfil these demands of theirs (Khazainul Irfaan). This verse was revealed at that point in time. Therefore here refers to "signs" to the miracles demanded by them, otherwise, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had shown many miracles far greater than these. It should be remembered that any person who demands miracles of his choice and then fails to accept faith after seeing these, is destroyed. Hence not seeing these miracles, too, was a mercy from Allah Almighty.

129. Because they had killed this she-camel for no reason, and they had not accepted faith even after seeing this miracle. Therefore they were cruel to the she-camel and unto themselves.

130. Instill fear in them about the punishment which would be coming in the near future. By this is meant self requested miracles become the prelude of future Divine punishments.

60. And when We said to you, 'all are under the control [131]. of your lord.' And We made not the vision which We had showed you but as a test for [132], the people and also the tree upon which there is curse [133], in Qur`aan. And we frighten them; then nothing increases them but a great contumacy.

وَ اِذۡ قُلۡنَا لَكَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ اَحَاطَ
بِالنَّاسِ ؕ وَمَا جَعَلۡنَا الرُّءۡیَا الَّتِیۡۤ
اَرَیۡنٰكَ اِلَّا فِتۡنَةً لِّلنَّاسِ وَالشَّجَرَةَ
الۡمَلۡعُوۡنَةَ فِی الۡقُرۡاٰنِ ؕ وَ نُخَوِّفُهُمۡ ۙ فَمَا
یَزِیۡدُهُمۡ اِلَّا طُغۡیَانًا كَبِیۡرًا ﴿۶۰﴾ ع

131. This means the knowledge and power of Allah Almighty has encompassed everything and not Allah Almighty Himself, because Allah Almighty personally is free from encompassing and of being surrounded.

132. In this there is a proof about heavenly Me'raj, because from this one learns that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم saw the signs of Allah Almighty at the Divine Throne and heavenly regions by going there in a state of wakefulness, which the polytheists had denied and created mischief about it. If it was only a Me'raj in a dream, then they would have neither rejected it nor created mischief about it. Here the word "We had showed" denotes the journey of the night of Me'raj, about which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had given information to the Makkans. On hearing this, they made a joke of it, some with weak faith became apostates and Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) became Siddique (Faithful witness of the truth) Thus after hearing about Me'raj some became Siddique and others became infidels.

133. By this is meant the tree of salinity which would grow from the surface of Hell, its branches would be in all its regions and pits it would become the food of the inmates. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم gave his information to the infidels they laughed and said that how strange is the fire of Hell - that would burn human beings and stones but will be unable to burn a fresh tree. Thus, its discussion became a means of mischief for them. These blind people failed to see that the Lord who can keep the sea worms alive in the fire; through whose command ostrich fowls eat burning coals: In Turkey towels were made from the skin of this worm, which would not burn in the fire, then is it difficult for Him to command the tree of salinity not to burn in the fire of Hell!

وَ اِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اسْجُدُوْا لِاٰدَمَ فَسَجَدُوْٓا اِلَّآ اِبْلِيْسَ ؕ قَالَ ءَاَسْجُدُ لِمَنْ خَلَقْتَ طِيْنًا ۚ﴿۶۱﴾

61. And when We commanded [134], angels to prostrate before Adam, then they prostrated except the Iblis. He said, 'shall I prostrate before him whom you have made of clay? [135]

134. Prostration of respect which the angels performed before Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) by placing their forheads on the ground before him. This was not a religious injunction because at that point in time no religious law of any Prophet had come. Also, Laws of Shariah on the earth are for human beings and not for angels. Also, this Sajda for Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was only performed once. If this was a religious command, then this type of Sajda would have been continued.

135. From this emerge a few issues:

1. To put your conjecture in opposition to Divine Command is infidelity and a practice of the devil.
2. Not respecting the inner Light of the Prophet, and to call him creation of sand or an ordinary human is the work of the devil.
3. Disobeying the command of Allah Almighty is impiety, and denying it is an act of infidelity.

قَالَ اَرَءَيْتَكَ هٰذَا الَّذِىْ كَرَّمْتَ عَلَىَّ لَئِنْ اَخَّرْتَنِ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيٰمَةِ لَاَحْتَنِكَنَّ ذُرِّيَّتَهٗٓ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴿۶۲﴾

62. He said 'see you, this whom you have honoured [136], above me, if you will grant me time till the day of judgement then I shall assuredly [137] crush his children but a few [138].

136. That you wanted to make me into a prostrator and Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) into an object of prostration, yet I am a worshipper and Sufi of thousands of years, while Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) has not yet started to worship.

137.Iblis mentioned about progeny because he knew that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) is a Prophet, and he had no power to mislead a Prophet or those from his progeny who would be Prophets and special saints. For this reason he said "but a few". It should be remembered that the devil is wreaking revenge of our Father (i.e. Hazrat Adam On whom be peace) on us. Therefore all of us should at no time be unmindful of him.

138. This tells us that not even the devil spoke

63. He said, 'get away [139], therefore who so of them will follow you, then the recompense of all is Hell, a full punishment [140].

قَالَ اذْهَبْ فَمَنْ تَبِعَكَ مِنْهُمْ فَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ جَزَآؤُكُمْ جَزَآءً مَّوْفُورًا ﴿٦٣﴾

139. "To get away" means to be away from My Mercy, My Paradise or from My Presence. You have been given the period of waiting until the first blowing of the Trumpet of the day of Judgement. From this we learn that sometimes even the prayer of an infidel too is accepted, in fact through the prayer of this devil, even his life span is increased. In a like manner the prayers of the sages can change the destinies of men, increase their life span, etc. If this devil's life span had been increased from before, he would not have prayed for it. In another place

64. And stagger whosoever of them you can with your voice [141], and mobilise against them your horsemen and your footmen and share with them in their wealth and their children [142], and promise them. And Satan does not promise them but with delusion [143].

وَ اسْتَفْزِزْ مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتَ مِنْهُمْ بِصَوْتِكَ وَاَجْلِبْ عَلَيْهِمْ بِخَيْلِكَ وَ رَجِلِكَ وَ شَارِكْهُمْ فِي الْاَمْوَالِ وَ الْاَوْلَادِ وَعِدْهُمْ ؕ وَ مَا يَعِدُهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ اِلَّا غُرُوْرًا ﴿٦٤﴾

141. From this we learn that music and false misleading lectures are all voices of the devil, as well as his pedestrians and riders i.e his soldiers. Hazrat ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said that any voice or sound which emanates without the wishes of the Almighty is the voice of the devil - whether they are in the songs and music, false sermons or incorrect commentaries of the Holy QUR'AAN.

142. Before eating any food or having cohabitation, if one does not recite BISMILLAH - the devil then has a hand in it. Similary, never name your boy ABDUSH SHAMS, etc.

65. No doubt those who are My bondsmen, you have no control [144] over them. And your Lord is sufficient as their guardian [145].

اِنَّ عِبَادِيْ لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطٰنٌ ؕ وَكَفٰى بِرَبِّكَ وَكِيْلًا ﴿٦٥﴾ lies in the presence of Allah Almighty. Whatever he wanted to do he said openly. Thus, the one who talks lies in front of Allah Almighty is worse than the devil.

it has been said: "You are given time" (S7:V15), which tells us that his life span has been increased due to his prayer.

140. From this we learn two issues:

1. The devil too would be given punishment in Hell, and will experience the same type of pain which can be experienced by us through sand and stones.
2. Only those humans and jinns would be punished in Hell who had been obeying the devil. Thus, the minor children of the infidels would not be inmates of Hell.

143. To give the polytheists hope of salvation through infidelity and polytheism, the miserly Muslim hope of wealth through miserliness and hope of fame through extravagance are all promises of the devil.

Marfat.com

144. This tells us that all the Prophets are innocent, and some saints are protected. Innocent is he who does not commit a sin, while protected is that being who can commit sin, but through Divine grace does not do so. Innocence is compulsory for prophethood, but protection is not obligatory for sainthood.

Those who Allah Almighty wishes to protect will remain safe from sins e.g. the Rightly Guided Caliphs, etc.

145. That Allah Almighty will protect his chosen servants from all the deceptions of the devil.

66. Your Lord is He who speeds for you the ship in the sea, so that you may seek His Grace [146]. No doubt, He is Merciful towards you.

رَبُّكُمُ الَّذِیْ یُزْجِیْ لَكُمُ الْفُلْكَ فِی
الْبَحْرِ لِتَبْتَغُوْا مِنْ فَضْلِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ
بِكُمْ رَحِیْمًا ﴿۶۶﴾

146. This tells us that journey by sea is auspicious even if it is for religious or worldly affairs e.g. for Hajj or for business, etc. while it is forbidden if it is undertaken for no valid reason. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the Hadith and Holy QUR'AAN.

67. And when any trouble approaches you in the sea, then all whom they worshiped are lost [147]. except He. Then when He delivers you towards land, then you turn away your faces. And man is very ungrateful [148].

وَاِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فِی الْبَحْرِ ضَلَّ مَنْ
تَدْعُوْنَ اِلَّاۤ اِیَّاهُ ۚ فَلَمَّا نَجّٰىكُمْ اِلَى الْبَرِّ
اَعْرَضْتُمْ ؕ وَكَانَ الْاِنْسَانُ كَفُوْرًا ﴿۶۷﴾

147. When the polytheists of Arabia would experience adverse or unfavourable conditions at sea or were caught in a storm, they would pray to Allah Almighty alone and call upon Him for help and not their idols. After they would safely reach the shores they would once again indulge in polytheism. Reference in this verse is made to this action of theirs.

148. Instead of seeking the pleasure of Allah Almighty on receiving His favours they resort to deeds to displease Him. This fault is found in every negligent person, therefore the word 'the man' is used in it, which includes negligent believers and the infidels.

68. Have you then become fearless of that He may cause you to sink [149], the shore of the land with you or send you a stone storm; then you will find no supporter for yourself [150]?

اَفَاَمِنْتُمْ اَنْ یَّخْسِفَ بِكُمْ جَانِبَ الْبَرِّ
اَوْ یُرْسِلَ عَلَیْكُمْ حَاصِبًا ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُوْا
لَكُمْ وَكِیْلًا ﴿۶۸﴾

149. Like Allah Almighty had Qaroon submerged in the earth. What it means is just as Allah Almighty had power of drowing you in the sea, He has the power to submerge you in the ground, land and sea, both are in His control. Everywhere and at all times you are under His control and totally dependent on His mercy. How foolish it is then to indulge in infidelity on land. Although this verse is addressed to the infidels, negligent people like us, too, need to take a lesson from it. Allah Almighty knows how to give and take back.

150 .Like He had sent them on the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace). From these verses one cannot seek proof for possibility of a lie because after the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم there is a promise of withholding of the general punishment. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah is not one to chastise them, till you are in their midst" (S8:V33). At certain specific times

69. Or have you become fearless of that He may carry you back in the sea for the second [151], time, then it is sent upon you a breaking storm blast then He may cause you to drown because of your infidelity, then you will not find anyone who may pursue against Us [152]?

specific punishments can come, in fact, it will come. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verses.

اَمۡ اَمِنۡتُمۡ اَنۡ يُّعِيۡدَكُمۡ فِيۡهِ تَارَةً
اُخۡرٰى فَيُرۡسِلَ عَلَيۡكُمۡ قَاصِفًا مِّنَ
الرِّيۡحِ فَيُغۡرِقَكُمۡ بِمَا كَفَرۡتُمۡ ۙ ثُمَّ لَا
تَجِدُوۡا لَكُمۡ عَلَيۡنَا بِهٖ تَبِيۡعًا ﴿۶۹﴾

151. By making a journey by sea necessary for you and then you get trapped there. On what ground are you being disobedient to Allah Almighty? Wherever a person's death is determined he has to go there and on reaching the place he dies there. (I wish Allah Almighty can determine my death in Madina Muawwarah on Faith. Ahmad Yar).

152.In this verse their is a negation of the belief of the infidels about intercession. It was their belief that the intercession of the idols is a bluff or one being bullied because they have been surpressed by Allah Almighty. Believers had not conceded to such intercession, nor do they accept it nor will they ever be convinced about it.

70. And no doubt, We honoured the children of Adam [153], and got them ride in the land and sea [154], and provided them with clean things [155], and preferred them over many of Our creations [156].

وَلَقَدۡ كَرَّمۡنَا بَنِىۡۤ اٰدَمَ وَ حَمَلۡنٰهُمۡ فِى الۡبَرِّ وَ
الۡبَحۡرِ وَرَزَقۡنٰهُمۡ مِّنَ الطَّيِّبٰتِ وَ فَضَّلۡنٰهُمۡ
عَلٰى كَثِيۡرٍ مِّمَّنۡ خَلَقۡنَا تَفۡضِيۡلًا ﴿۷۰﴾ ع

153. From this emerge two issues:
1. That man is superior and noble in all creation, for this reason he is called the 'noblest creation' Prophets and saints are found from the human race. It is man who has been blessed with fairest features, control over everything, the management affairs of the world and the Hereafter, intelligence and judgement. Everything is created for him.
2. In terms of humanity a sinner and an infidel is better than the other creation, although he himself is worse than an animal. The true state of a human is something else. Therefore, the infidels will not enter Hell in a human form.

154. To ride in the land means to ride on the animals in land, in trains motor cars, etc. in the boats and ships, etc. at sea. This is due to His mercy and power that He has made everything subservient and under control to man. Now it is the duty of man that he remains subservient to Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. "Everything is for us and we are for Allah Almighty".

155. By this is meant lawful tasty physical bounties and spiritual nourishment. An ox works harder in a field - but he only receives grass and chaff, man's effort is less but he enjoys the grain, fruit, milk and butter. This is due to Divine favours.

156. Here the word 'many' denotes all. Says Allah Almighty: i.e. "most of them are liars" (S26:V223). He said: "And most all of them follow not but conjective" (S10:V36). Hence the human species is superior to the angels because angels have intelligence but no lust, animals have lust but no intelligence, but human beings have both. There for Paradise is only for the humans, prophethood and sainthood and is found in human species (Taken from Khazainul Irfaan). Says Allah Almighty: "And exalted you over the entire world in your time" (S2:V47). Allah Almighty further states: "And family of Imran from over the entire world" (S3:V33).

Marfat.com

SECTION: 8

يَوْمَ نَدْعُوْا كُلَّ اُنَاسٍۭ بِاِمَامِهِمْ ۚ فَمَنْ اُوْتِيَ كِتٰبَهٗ بِيَمِيْنِهٖ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ يَقْرَءُوْنَ كِتٰبَهُمْ وَ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ فَتِيْلًا ﴿٧١﴾

71. The day when We shall call every people with their leaders [157], then whosoever is given his record in his right hand, they shall read [158]. their records and their rights shall not be suppressed a single thread.

157. From this we learn that we should make a pious person our leader in the world, through Taqleed in Shariah and through Bai'at (taking Mureedi) in the path of Tareeqat (mystic way of life) so that our end will be with the pious. If he does not find a pious leader or guide then his guide would be Shaitaan. In this verse there is ample proof for Taqleed, Bait, Mureedi.

158. From this emerge two issues:
1. No one on the Day of Judgement will be illiterate, everyone will be able to read, even though some were ignorant in the world.
2. Everybody's language on that day would be Arabic, because the deeds are recorded in Arabic. However, it will not be necessary for anyone for its translation. In fact, the questions in the grave would also be in Arabic.

وَ مَنْ كَانَ فِيْ هٰذِهٖٓ اَعْمٰى فَهُوَ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ اَعْمٰى وَ اَضَلُّ سَبِيْلًا ﴿٧٢﴾

72. And whosoever is blind in this world, he is blind in the Hereafter and even more astray from the way [159].

159. This means whose hearts were sealed in the world and did not accept guidance, he will be blind in the Hereafter too from seeing the path of salvation and paradise. In fact, there his blindness will be greater, because while in the world there was a possibility of obtaining guidance but this would not be possible in the Hereafter. Thus this verse does not contradict "So today your sight is sharp" (S50:V22). The outward eyes of everything on that day will be sharp.

وَ اِنْ كَادُوْا لَيَفْتِنُوْنَكَ عَنِ الَّذِيْٓ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْكَ لِتَفْتَرِيَ عَلَيْنَا غَيْرَهٗ ۖ وَ اِذًا لَّاتَّخَذُوْكَ خَلِيْلًا ﴿٧٣﴾

73. And indeed it was near that they would have seduced [160], you from Our Revelation sent to you [161], that you might relate something other than that towards Us, and if it would have been so then they would have certainly taken you as a fast friend.

160. Reason for its revelation:
One deputation from Banu Thakeef came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said if you accept our three conditions we will take an oath of allegiance to you. Firstly, we will not bow down in Salaah i.e. we will not perform Ruku and Sajda; secondly, although we will not worship our idols, but once a year we will do collection for sacrificial offerings to them; we will not break our idols with our own hands. In addition they also said that you should bestow a special honour upon us which was not accorded to anyone, and if any Arab were to enquire about it you should tell them that this was the injunction of Allah Almighty. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم rejected all this. On this occasion the above verse was revealed

74. And if We had not kept you firm, then it was near that you would have inclined towards them a little [162].

162. By this is meant the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was not even near of ben-ding to their wishes, because it is made clear

75. And if it would have been so, then We would have let you taste the double life and double death, then you would not have found any helper against Us [163].

163. This verse is so firm like the command of Allah Almighty "If worst comes to worst had there been a son to the Most Affectionate, I would have worshipped first" (S43:V81). Neither is their any possibility of Allah Almighty having a son nor its worship by the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Likewise, there was no possibility of the Holy Prophet's

76. And undoubtedly, it was near that they might startle [164], from this land so they might take you out therefrom and if it had been so, then they would not have stayed after you but a little [165].

164. Reason for its revelation:
The polytheists of Arabia had made a concerted effort to banish the Holy Prophet out of Arabia, but due to the grace of Allah Almighty they were powerless to do this.This verse was revealed to show the above.

77. The tradition of those whom We sent before you as messengers [166]. and you would not find Our law changing [167].

in which the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم fortitude is praised. This tells us that Allah Almighty has blessed the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم with natural fortitude.

161. This tells us that the infidels were near to taking a false step but the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was not near to being seduced. It is for this reason that the plural form is used.

وَ لَوْ لَاۤ اَنْ ثَبَّتْنٰكَ لَقَدْ كِدْتَّ تَرْكَنُ اِلَيْهِمْ شَيْـًٔا قَلِيْلًا ﴿۷۴﴾ after "if we had not" i.e. if We had not kept you firm then you would have been near to bending to their seduction.

اِذًا لَّاَذَقْنٰكَ ضِعْفَ الْحَيٰوةِ وَ ضِعْفَ الْمَمَاتِ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ عَلَيْنَا نَصِيْرًا ﴿۷۵﴾

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم nearness of inclination towards the infidels nor the possibility of worldly punishment coming near him. In that verse too there is the adverb if and here too the same adverb is used. From this we learn that the sin of the one knowing is severer than that of the person not knowing.

وَ اِنْ كَادُوْا لَيَسْتَفِزُّوْنَكَ مِنَ الْاَرْضِ لِيُخْرِجُوْكَ مِنْهَا وَ اِذًا لَّا يَلْبَثُوْنَ خِلٰفَكَ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴿۷۶﴾

165. Because after the departure of the Prophet, Divine punishment comes. Similarly after the locality becomes empty of all believers it can cause the coming of Divine punishment.

سُنَّةَ مَنْ قَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنْ رُّسُلِنَا وَ لَا تَجِدُ لِسُنَّتِنَا تَحْوِيْلًا ﴿۷۷﴾ ع

Marfat.com

166. This means those people who banished their Prophet's out of their localities, they themselves were not given the opportunity to reside therein and were plunged into punishment.

167. It should be remembered that nobody can change the laws of Allah Almighty. Only if He wishes to change these to show His power that it can be done. Although the Makkans got the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم out of the city, no punishment came upon them. In fact, many of them received guidance to accept Islam. This is the favour of Allah Almighty and the mercy of the Holy Prophet . That the fire did not burn Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and the knife did not slaughter Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) are an example of changes in the laws of Allah Almighty which could not have been effected by anyone else.

SECTION: 9

78. Establish [168], prayer from the declining of the sun till the darkening of the night [169], and the Qur`aan of the dawn [170]. No doubt Angels are present in the Qur`aan of dawn [171].

اَقِمِ الصَّلٰوةَ لِدُلُوْكِ الشَّمْسِ اِلٰى غَسَقِ
الَّيْلِ وَ قُرْاٰنَ الْفَجْرِ ؕ اِنَّ قُرْاٰنَ الْفَجْرِ
كَانَ مَشْهُوْدًا ﴿۷۸﴾

168. This means offer your Salaah regularly, correctly and with the presence of mind and heart. It should be remembered that offering Salaah is not attaining of perfection, but establishing it as a pillar of religion helps to achieve this. It is for this reason that the injunction of Allah Almighty at all places is to establish Salaah.

169. In this four Salaahs are included: Zohr, Asr, Maghrib and Esha, because all four of these are offered after Zenith until the last portion of the night.

170. By this is meant the Fajr Salaah. From this we learn that recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN in Salaah is obligatory. By mention of part is taken to mean the whole.

171. At the time of Fajr before the angels of protection and writers go, those of the day arrive on duty. Both these groups take part in Fajr Salaah. The angels of protection are sixty and writers are two. Sixty two angels are with every person. From this we learn that Salaah offered with the pious is good and the more we have of these the greater will be the reward of Salaah.

79. And offer Tahajjud [172], in some portion of the night, this is especially for you in addition [173]. It is near that your Lord may make you stand at a place where all shall praise you [174].

وَ مِنَ الَّيْلِ فَتَهَجَّدْ بِهٖ نَافِلَةً لَّكَ ۖ
عَسٰۤى اَنْ يَّبْعَثَكَ رَبُّكَ مَقَامًا مَّحْمُوْدًا ﴿۷۹﴾

172. This means give up your sleep. HUJOOD is an Arabic word which indicates to leave or give up and TAHAJJUD is to give up sleep. From this we learn that Tahajjud Salaah can only be at night. You cannot perform Tahajjud Salaah after getting up from an afternoon nap because the words "from the night" are used. We further learn that to sleep a little before performing Tahajjud is a condition for this Salaah, as without sleep there can be no Tahajjud Salaah. A little nap after performing this Salaah, too, is Sunnat. The appropriate time for this Salaah is the last sixth portion of the night. Anyone who gets up from sleep without having performed Esha Salaah cannot perform his Tahajjud Salaah. Minimum Rakaats for it are two, and the maximum are twelve. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would perform eight Rakaats.

173. The truth of the matter is that Tahajjud

Marfat.com

Salaah was obligatory upon the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and upon the followers SUNNAT E MUAKKIDAH ALAL KIFAYA i.e. even if one person in the locality performs it, the rest of its people will be absolved of its obligation, but if no one performs it all the people will be guilty of omitting a Sunnah.

174. The Creator as well as all the creation. This is the very place from where the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم will open the doors of the main intercession. This place is specifically granted to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم of which all would be envious. From this we learn that people of greater rank should worship more. Also that the Holy Prophet's true position of Muhammad - the Praised one will rightfully be revealed at the Place of Mahmood because on that day the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم will become Muhammad - object of praise of the Creator and the creation.

80. And submit like this, 'O my Lord, make me enter with a just entering [175] and make me go forth with a just going and grant me from yourself a helping control [176].

وَ قُلْ رَّبِّ اَدْخِلْنِیْ مُدْخَلَ صِدْقٍ
وَّاَخْرِجْنِیْ مُخْرَجَ صِدْقٍ وَّ اجْعَلْ لِّیْ
مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ سُلْطٰنًا نَّصِیْرًا ﴿۸۰﴾

175. This means where I am to go should be with truth and from where I am to go out should be with honesty, exit from Makkah entry into Madina Munawwarah, go into the grave emerging from the grave on the Day of Judgement should be with dignity. Getting into worship and finishing from it should be with humility and fear of Allah Almighty (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). Whenever a believer decides to travel he should enter that place reciting this Dua.

176. Grant me such an army, servants, proofs with which I would be able to gain victory over the enemy from you. From this we learn that he with whom Allah Almighty is pleased, He appoints good helpers for him.

81. And say, 'Truth has come and the falsehood has vanished [177]. Undoubtedly the falsehood was certain to vanish [178].

وَ قُلْ جَآءَ الْحَقُّ وَ زَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ ؕ اِنَّ
الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوْقًا ﴿۸۱﴾

177. This means through the advent of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم light came and darkness vanished, Islam came and infidelity disappeared; The Holy QUR'AAN came and Shaitaan vanished; good came and evil disappeared; guidance came and heresy vanished. But all this happened through the blessed presence of this glorious Groom, all this beauty and verdure is due to his auspicious existence. All this is brought by him صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم .

178. On the day of Conquest of Makkah when the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم entered the sacred Ka'bah a whip was in his blessed hand. He recited this verse and pointed towards an idol at which it would fall, though all these idols were fixed in iron and tin. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم himself is truth. Those who become linked to the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم are the embodiment of truth and those who are not linked with him are the embodiment of falsehood. Any Salaah which is not linked with the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم such a prayer is not valid and if worldy affairs become linked with him, they are on truth.

وَ نُنَزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَآءٌ وَّرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۙ وَ لَا يَزِيْدُ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ اِلَّا خَسَارًا ﴿۸۲﴾

82. And We send in the Qur`aan that which is healing [179]. and a mercy to the believers and it adds loss only to the unjust [180].

179. Spiritual cure because spirit is the thing of a world of matter. Its nourishments and remedies should be of the same world. e.g. the body is a thing of the world of creations, its nourishments and remedies too are from the same world. Because the injunctions of the Holy QUR'AAN and Possessor of the Holy QUR'AAN صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are of the world of matter, therefore they are spiritual nourishment. If you recite the entire QUR'AAN and blow on the impure clothes, they will not become pure. If the impurity is of this world then the water to clean it must also be of the same world. Even if the infidel is bathed in seven oceans he will still remain impure. Only recitation of the Kalimah with sincerity will make him pure. This is because the impurity of infidelity is of that world therefore the water to purify it should also be of that world. It could also mean the Holy QUR'AAN is a remedy for all the outer and inner diseases. Therefore its blowing, its Ta'weez locket, etc. are permissible.

180. Observe, even today some people do not eat the food on which the Holy QUR'AAN is recited. For them the Holy QUR'AAN had indeed become a means of loss.

83. And when We bestow a favour on man, he turns away his face and moves far away towards himself, and when evil touches him then he becomes disappointed [181].

181. From this we understand that to forget Allah Almighty in our times of comfort, and making lengthy Duas when in difficulty and becoming despondent when there is a delay in their acceptance are all signs of an infidel or a negligent person. Believers should make sure that they remain pure of these three faults. It should be remembered that here the word man denotes an infidel or negligent person.

قُلْ كُلٌّ يَّعْمَلُ عَلٰى شَاكِلَتِهٖ ؕ فَرَبُّكُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ هُوَ اَهْدٰى سَبِيْلًا ﴿۸۴﴾ ع ۹

85. And they ask you about the spirit. Say, 'The spirit is a thing in the command of my [182]. Lord and you did not receive the knowledge but a little[183].

182. By this is meant that the soul is the creation of the world of matter and you are of the physical world. Therefore you are unable to understand its true nature (Tafseer ibn Arabi). The infidels of Quraish went to the Jewish scholars and said teach us a plan through which we would be able to say to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that he is false. Those scholars asked them to put three questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم; 1. the events of People of the Cave; 2. the incident of Zulqarnain; 3. The truth about the soul. Even if he gives answers to all three questions he is still not the true Prophet; if he does not give replies to all three questions he is still not the true prophet. If he gives replies to the first two and does not answer the third, then he is a true Prophet. Thus they came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and asked these three questions. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم answered the first two in great detail, but he did not describe the true nature of the soul.

183. This means oh you inquirers, it is you who have been given less knowledge and not me. Allah Almighty has provided me with a great deal of knowledge. Soul itself has been created from the light of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. So how can he not have knowledge about it. For the details about the knowledge of the soul consult our book JAA-AL-HAQ.

86. And if We pleased, We could take away [184], that We have revealed to you, then you would have found none to plead for you before Us.

وَ لَئِنْ شِئْنَا لَنَذْهَبَنَّ بِالَّذِيْٓ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْكَ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ بِهٖ عَلَيْنَا وَكِيْلًا ﴿۸۶﴾

184. This could have been done by erasing the Holy QUR'AAN from its pages and your hearts, as would be the case just before Qiyamat takes place.

87. But mercy [185]. from your Lord. Undoubtedly His grace to you is greater [186].

اِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِّنْ رَّبِّكَ ؕ اِنَّ فَضْلَهٗ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ كَبِيْرًا ﴿۸۷﴾

185. Allah Almighty through His blessings and kindness has taken upon Himself to preserve and protect the Holy QUR'AAN until Qiyamat. Just before Qiyamat takes place it would be erased from its pages and the hearts of Huffaaz. From this we learn that the knowledge of the Holy QUR'AAN and its memorisation is achieved through the great bounty of Allah Almighty.

186. In that Allah Almighty has made you the leader of all His Prophets, revealed the Holy QUR'AAN upon you. bestowed upon you the honour of being the chief intercessor, continued the process of creating Ulama (scholars) and saints in your religion until the Day of Judgement. Who is there who can understand your greatness in the true sense of the word!

88. Say you, 'If the men and Jinn all agree together to bring the like thereof, they would not be able to bring the same and even if in them one may be a helper of the other [187].

قُلْ لَّئِنِ اجْتَمَعَتِ الْاِنْسُ وَ الْجِنُّ عَلٰٓى اَنْ يَّاْتُوْا بِمِثْلِ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنِ لَا يَاْتُوْنَ بِمِثْلِهٖ وَ لَوْ كَانَ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيْرًا ﴿۸۸﴾

187.Reason for its revelation:

The polytheists of Arabia had said that if we want to we can produce the like of the Holy QUR'AAN. Here this claim is refuted. If man cannot produce anything like the sun and the moon, then how would he produce anything like the Holy QUR'AAN? Thus, these Arabs made every possible effort to do this but they could not succeed in producing even one verse like that of the Holy QUR'AAN. It should be remembered, here that even the angels are included in the concept of jinn because they too are invisible to the eye (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

Marfat.com

وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِيْ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ ۚ فَاَبٰۤى اَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ اِلَّا كُفُوْرًا ﴿۸۹﴾

89. And undoubtedly We have in this Qur`aan described [188], every kind of sayings in various ways, then most of the men accepted nothing but being ungrateful.

Holy QUR'AAN is for mankind in general, but its implied meanings and hints are for the specific people, its subtleties are for the saints and its truths are for the Prophets. Hazrat Maulana Rumi says: The Holy QUR'AAN in its visible form is for four types of people: Its visible text is for someone else, its concealed meanings are for someone else.

188. Here the word 'sayings' denotes strange, curious and marvellous meanings, their proofs, previous happenings, to instil fear, to give glad tidings, etc. Because the nature of human beings is different and the Holy QUR'AAN has come for all mankind, therefore it should include everything. Imaam Ja'fer ibn Mohammad Saadique says that the text of the

وَ قَالُوْا لَنْ نُّؤْمِنَ لَكَ حَتّٰى تَفْجُرَ لَنَا مِنَ الْاَرْضِ يَنْۢبُوْعًا ﴿۹۰﴾ۙ

90. And they shall say, 'We shall never believe you until you cause a spring to gush forth for us from the earth' [189].

Well, if you are a true Prophet then let four rivers flow in Makkah, let the mountains clear the jungles of Makkah, bring our forefathers back to life so that they can testify to your Prophethood or let an angel come down to testify on your behalf, or at least let there be excellent gardens and treasures of gold and silver in your possession. Omayyah added that I will only bring faith in you if you can reach the sky through a long ladder, and then bring from there such a book which we would be able to read. In response to their nonsensical demands this blessed verse was revealed (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). This tells us that demanding a miracle for the sake of confrontation is the way of the infidels, but requesting it for the sake of Faith is permissible.

189. Reason for its revelation:
When the leaders of the Quraish became totally frustrated, because they were incapable of opposing the Holy QUR'AAN, they gathered outside the Holy Ka'bah and asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to come there. They then said that today we have called you for a decisive talk. If you so desire we are prepared to give you wealth, a beautiful wife, kingship of Arabia, if you are suffering from any mental ailment we are prepared to provide you with the best treatment. On hearing this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم replied: "I do not desire any of these things but that you believe in the Oneness of Allah Almighty and accept me as His True Messenger. In this lies your safety. If not, I will bear your persecutions with patience and wait for Divine decision in this matter". To this they said:

اَوْ تَكُوْنَ لَكَ جَنَّةٌ مِّنْ نَّخِيْلٍ وَّ عِنَبٍ

91. 'Or you have a garden of date palms and vines, then you cause springs to gush forth.

92. Or you may cause [190], the heavens to fall upon Us in pieces as you have asserted, or bring Allah and the Angels as surety' [191].

190. You have said that the heaven will fall at the time of Qiyamat. So let it fall today.

191. Who can verify about you in our presence.

اَوْ يَكُوْنَ لَكَ بَيْتٌ مِّنْ زُخْرُفٍ اَوْ تَرْقٰى فِي السَّمَآءِ ؕ وَلَنْ نُّؤْمِنَ لِرُقِيِّكَ حَتّٰى تُنَزِّلَ عَلَيْنَا كِتٰبًا نَّقْرَؤُهٗ ؕ قُلْ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّيْ هَلْ كُنْتُ اِلَّا بَشَرًا رَّسُوْلًا ﴿۹۳﴾

93. Or you have a house of gold or you ascend up in heaven and we shall never believe even after your ascending up until you send down to us a book that we may read [192]. Say you, 'Glory be to my Lord, who am I, but a being sent by Allah' [193].

192. In that an angel should appear before us and gives a completed book to you i.e. we should be able to see the angel as well as him handing the book over to you. This entire nonsensical talk was spoken without any intention of bringing faith but rather for the sake of amusement and jest. Even if these demands were fulfilled they would not have declared faith.

193. The purpose of this answer is not to show that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was incapable of fulfilling any of these demands, but rather to show that your demands are unacceptable because after having seen any of these miracles, if you still fail to declare faith then you will be destroyed as is the Divine practice. This means the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had the power to perform all these miracles, but was not given the permission to show these to them. The fire did not burn Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), the knife did not slaughter Hazrat Ismail, simply because they were not given the permission to act. Such is the nature of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم power that he made the stones to recite the Kalima, let fountains of water flow from his blessed fingers, many times angels appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whom the Companions, too, had seen. In short, not to do is not the same as unable to do. It should be remembered that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself says that he is a human, it is his high degree of excellence, but if we say this to claim equality with him, we would go out of the fold of Islam. Prophets have called themselves cruel and in error out of their humility, but we have no right to use such words for them.

SECTION: 11

وَمَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ اَنْ يُّؤْمِنُوْٓا اِذْ جَآءَهُمُ الْهُدٰٓى اِلَّآ اَنْ قَالُوْٓا اَبَعَثَ اللّٰهُ بَشَرًا رَّسُوْلًا ﴿۹۴﴾

94. And what prevented [194], men from believing when the guidance came to them, but this that they said, 'Has Allah sent down a man as a messenger?' [195].

Marfat.com

194. This tells us looking upon the human nature or human weakness of Prophets will stand as an obstacle for our faith. Those who only looked at Muhammad bin Abdullah remained infidels eg. Abu Jahl, but those who say Hazrat Muhammadur Rasoolullah became Companions, e.g. Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him)

95. Say you, 'If there would have been angels in the earth walking about in peace [196], then We would have certainly sent down an angel as a Messenger to them [197].

196. It should be remembered that some angels are found on the earth but they do not dwell there. Their true place is the invisible world, therefore "walking about in peace" is used here. The stay of angels on the earth is like how officers and police from different areas are assigned to another area for the purpose of surveillance. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verse, because the presence of angels on the earth is proven from Hadith Shareef.

197. This means that had the earth been inhabited by angels as is found in the case of human beings, then the prophet sent would have been an angel. Because prophets are sent for the purpose of propagation, only that person can preach to the people who is able to speak their language and understand their habits and customs, can understand their joys and sorrows. And this can only take place if the prophet is of their genesis or origin. It is rather surprising that these infidels were regarding the angels superior to human beings. For this reason they were saying, why had an angel not come as a prophet? In reality, a human being is superior to an angel. It is the angels who prostrated to man, and not vice versa.

96. Say you, 'Sufficient is Allah as a witness for me and you [198], undoubtedly He knows and sees His bondsman [199].

قُلْ كَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ شَهِيْدًا بَيْنِيْ وَ بَيْنَكُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهٖ خَبِيْرًا بَصِيْرًا ﴿٩٦﴾

198. From the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the recitation of the Kalima by inanimate objects, the obedience of the sun and the moon to the command of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are all examples of the testimony of Allah Almighty. A further example of this is the continuation of the beloved servants of Allah Almighty being true believers until the Judgement Day.

199. The demands of these infidels too point out who was on the true path, who was gone astray, on what condition would a particular person die, are signs of their wretched end.

97. And he whom Allah guides, he is on the straight path, and he whom He leads astray, then you will find no supporter for them but Him [200]. And وَمَنْ يَّهْدِ اللّٰهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ ۚ وَ مَنْ يُّضْلِلْ فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ مِنْ

Marfat.com

دُوْنِهٖ ؕ وَ نَحْشُرُهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ عَلٰى وُجُوْهِهِمْ عُمْيًا وَّ بُكْمًا وَّ صُمًّا ؕ مَاْوٰىهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ؕ كُلَّمَا خَبَتْ زِدْنٰهُمْ سَعِيْرًا ﴿۹۷﴾

We shall raise them on the day of Resurrection on their faces, blind, dumb and deaf [201]. Their abode is Hell. Whenever it will become to be extinguished, We shall make it to blow in flames vigorously' [202].

But this will be during the early part of Judgement Day. Thereafter, everyone will be given sharp ears and eyes. Says Allah Almighty: "We have removed from you the covering, so today your sight is sharp" (S50:V22). So to say, from the grave he will go blind and deaf for his reckoning and after reaching there he will gain his sight. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verses. In different verses times are mentioned.

200. From this we learn that for the believers Allah Almighty has appointed helpers in this world and the Hereafter, because the absence of helpers is the punishment for the infidels. We further learn that only those derive benefits and blessings from the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith in whose hearts Allah Almighty has planted the seed of guidance. The Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith are the downpours of mercy.

201. This tells us that on Judgement Day the conditions of the heart will be unfolded upon the various parts of the body. Those whose hearts were blind in the world, their eyes will be blind in the Hereafter, those whose heart were deaf here, there ears will be deaf there.

202. So that after this despondency will become a means of great difficulty for the infidels because they would be hoping that the fire of Hell would become cool. But the vigorous flaming of the fire again will sink their hopes.

ذٰلِكَ جَزَآؤُهُمْ بِاَنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ قَالُوْٓا ءَاِذَا كُنَّا عِظَامًا وَّ رُفَاتًا ءَاِنَّا لَمَبْعُوْثُوْنَ خَلْقًا جَدِيْدًا ﴿۹۸﴾

98. This is their punishment because they rejected [203], Our signs and said, 'When shall we become bones and broken particles, then shall we really be raised up as a new creation?' [204].

203. This tells all these punishments are for the infidels. The nature of punishment for the believers will be different, no matter how severe a sinner he may be. It should be remembered that rejection of one verse is rejection of all the verses. Similarly rejection of one attribute of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not only rejection of the Holy QUR'AAN, but of all the revealed Books.

204. By this is meant you will be raised to life once again in a different manner, without a sperm, but from just sand. And the nature of this body would be different to that. How is this possible? This question of the infidels was not for the purpose of genuine enquiry but for the purpose of rejection and ridicule.

اَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا اَنَّ اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضَ قَادِرٌ عَلٰٓى اَنْ يَّخْلُقَ مِثْلَهُمْ وَ جَعَلَ لَهُمْ اَجَلًا لَّا رَيْبَ فِيْهِ ؕ فَاَبَى الظّٰلِمُوْنَ اِلَّا كُفُوْرًا ﴿۹۹﴾

99. And whether they see not that Allah made the heavens and the earth [205], that He can make the like [206], of them, and He has appointed for them a term in which there is no doubt [207]. But the unjust refuse to accept but they are ungrateful.

Marfat.com

205. This means without any matter or any example. If Allah Almighty can do this then is it difficult for Him if He creates you without any sperm?

206. It should be remembered that on the Day of Judgement the original limbs of the human body would be the same as those when he was in the world. Likwise, his soul too will be the same. However the component parts will be different. From this reason the infidels who are white here would be black there, and the believers who are black here would be white there. The bodies of the infidels would be very big there, hence the word 'like them' is used here. The soul and the limbs in terms of originality will be the same, but in terms of component parts, it will be different in resemblance.

207. Everything has a determined time. Illness, cure, success, acceptance of prayer will all take place on their time. One should not make haste for acceptance. Pray to your Lord, but do not give advice to Him. In the same way the demand by the infidels to the Prophets to let the punishment come immediately was before its time.

قُلْ لَّوْ اَنْتُمْ تَمْلِكُوْنَ خَزَآئِنَ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّيْٓ اِذًا لَّاَمْسَكْتُمْ خَشْيَةَ الْاِنْفَاقِ ؕ وَ كَانَ الْاِنْسَانُ قَتُوْرًا ﴿۱۰۰﴾ ع ۱۱

100. Say you, 'If you had been the owners of the treasures of the mercy of my Lord, you would have surely held it back because of fear of spending [208]. And man is a great miser [209].

208. By this is meant oh infidels if you had become the owners of the bounties of Allah Almighty, you would not give a dime to anyone but rather spend everything on yourselves, and this expenditure, too, you have done with great caution so that it does not get depleted. Allah Almighty has made our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the owner of all His bounties. Says Allah Almighty: "O beloved Rasool We have bestowed upon you an abundance of good" (S107:V1), and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "I have been given the keys of the treasures of the world". He further says: "If I so desire, the mountains of gold would walk with me". Thus this verse is addressed to the infidels from which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is excluded. Therefore this verse cannot serve as a proof to show that the Messenger of Almighty Allah had no power or authority over the bounties of Allah Almighty.

209. Here the word 'man' denotes an infidel, a negligent and miserly man, not all the men. The generosity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is unequalled in the entire world.

It should be remembered that the death of a person on obedience and villainy is part of the FIVE BRANCHES OF KNOWLEDGE which is taught by Allah Almighty to His Prophets. Our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had informed that Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique is from the inmates of Paradise, Hazrat Imaam Hussain (May Allah be pleased with them) is from Paradise, so and so will be an inmate of Hell, etc.

217. This means the pious and the sinners, the believers and the infidels will all be gathered on the Day of Judgement together. Thereafter they would be sifted out. SaysAllah Almighty: "And today he separates you, oh you culprits" (S36:V59).

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as a magician it is not beyond you because it is the ancient habit of

102. He said, 'You know well that none sent these down except the Lord of the heavens and the earth [212], as opener of the eyes of the heart, and in my opinion, O Firawn, You are necessarily to be ruined' [213].

212. From this we learn that Pharoah knew in his heart that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet, but verbally he rejected this, just as Shaitaan knew about the Prophethod of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), and Abu Jahl knew about the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Pharoah had already seen Mosaic miracles when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was still a child.
213. Here the word 'opinion' is used to mean certainty. This tells us that the Prophets are fully aware of every person's end. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had already

103. Then he desired to oust[214]. them from the land then We drowned him and all his associates [215].

214. This means that Pharoah wanted to annihilate Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and his followers from the surface of the earth. If he merely wanted to see them banished from Egypt, that they had done by leaving Egypt, yet Pharoah went in pursuit of them when they

104. And We said to the children of Israel after him, 'dwell [216], in this land, then when the promise of the Hereafter will come, We shall bring you all rolled together [217].

216. This means land on which Divine punishment had not come is permissible to inhabit. Pharoah was taken out of Egypt and then drowned. Otherwise, just to stop in the land which has been subjected to Divine punishment is prohibited, let alone inhabiting it. By this land is either meant Syria, or both

وَ بِالْحَقِّ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ وَبِالْحَقِّ نَزَلَ ؕ وَ مَاۤ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَّ نَذِيْرًا ﴿۱۰۵﴾

105. And We sent down the QUR`AAN with truth and it has come down [218]. for truth and we have not sent you down but as a bearer of glad tidings and as a Warner [219].

218.It came down in exactly the same way as Allah Almighty had revealed it. No change had taken place on the way. So, it has reached us just the way it was revealed. From this we learn that Hazrat Jibraeel, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the Noble Companions are all the personification of trust and honesty. The following verse: "And We sent down QUR'AAN with Truth and it has come down for truth" (S17:V105), is a cure for every ailment. Keep your hand on the place of ailment and recite this verse then blow on it, if Allah Almighty wills, the person will be cured.

This Dua was taught by Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) to Hazrat Muhammad bin Samaak (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

219.This means you are not responsible for their guidance, nor will he be questioned about it on the Day of Judgement. Says Allah Almighty: "And you shall not be questioned about the inmates of Hell" (S2:V119). Thus, this does not mean that you have not been given any authority. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the permission of Allah Almighty is empowered to do things.

وَ قُرْاٰنًا فَرَقْنٰهُ لِتَقْرَاَهٗ عَلَى النَّاسِ عَلٰى مُكْثٍ وَّ نَزَّلْنٰهُ تَنْزِيْلًا ﴿۱۰۶﴾

106. And We sent down the Qur`aan in pieces so that you may read it to mankind at intervals and We sent it down gradually bit by bit [220].

220.From this verse we learn a few issues:
1.The slow revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN is for the purpose of man's learning. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was already fully conversant with all its injunctions, as is seen from "to mankind" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was the practicer of the Holy QUR'AAN prior to commencement of his Prophetic. mission.
2.The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم method should be emulated in the recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN. Do not invent your own rules of Tajweed.
3.The Holy QUR'AAN should be recited slowly and with pauses.
4.Just as the rules of recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN have been received from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم similarly its mystical meanings and interpretation would be obtained from him. Interpretation through ones own opinion is totally prohibited. For further investigation of this consult our Tafseer Naeemi and the introduction to JAA-AL-HAQ.

قُلْ اٰمِنُوْا بِهٖۤ اَوْ لَا تُؤْمِنُوْا ؕ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ قَبْلِهٖۤ اِذَا يُتْلٰى عَلَيْهِمْ يَخِرُّوْنَ لِلْاَذْقَانِ سُجَّدًا ۙ﴿۱۰۷﴾

107. Say you, 'Believe in it or believe in it not [221]. Certainly those who got knowledge before it was sent down do fall in prostration on their faces when it is recited to them [222].

221.In this verse the infidels are not given the right for infidelity in fact, Allah Almighty has made His and His Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم independence known i.e. We will not benefit, if you accept faith, neither will your infidelity harm Us in any way. It is you who will either benefit or lose out through it.
222.From this we learn that the scholars of the People of the Book were from before hand awaiting the coming of the Holy Prophet

Marfat.com

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and acknowledged the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN. Thus, after seeing the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and listening to the Holy QUR'AAN they accepted faith e.g. people like Hazrat Abdullah ibn

108. And they say 'Glory be to our Lord, undoubtedly the promise of our Lord is always fulfilled' [223].

223.This means the promise which was made in Our revealed Books has been fulfilled through the coming of the Final Prophet (Peace

109. And they fall down on their faces weeping, and this Qur`aan increases them in humble submission [224].

224.From this emerge two issues:
1.It is Sunnah to cry when listening to the recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN.

110. Say you, 'Call upon Him saying Allah or saying The Most Affectionate [225], whichever you call upon him, all these are his good names [226], and neither offer your prayer with loud voices [227]. nor with low voices and seek a way in between.

225.Reason for its revelation:
Once the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم performed a lengthy Sajdah in which he was repeatedly saying YA ALLAH YA RAHMAAN - Oh Allah! Oh the Most Merciful! On hearing this, Abu Jahl babbled that we are being prohibited from worshipping two deities, but he is calling upon two Gods. In refutation of it, this verse was revealed in which it is told that though the names are two, the possessor of the name is One.
226.Even more than ninety nine names whose meanings are extremely pure and exquisite. Because the needs of the seeker were different, therefore the qualitatives name of Allah Almighty too become different so that every beggar asks for his needs by calling upon His appropriate name in his Dua. From this we Salaam etc. Therefore, oh believers you too should prostrate to emulate their practice. This Sajdah was either a Sajdah of gratitude or a Sajdah of Divine Grandeur.

وَّيَقُوْلُوْنَ سُبْحٰنَ رَبِّنَآ اِنْ كَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّنَا لَمَفْعُوْلًا ﴿۱۰۸﴾ be upon him) and the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN. And thus Our Books were proven true.

وَ يَخِرُّوْنَ لِلْاَذْقَانِ يَبْكُوْنَ وَ يَزِيْدُهُمْ خُشُوْعًا ﴿۱۰۹﴾ ۩

2.The recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN brings about softness and humility in the heart.

قُلِ ادْعُوا اللّٰهَ اَوِ ادْعُوا الرَّحْمٰنَ ؕ اَيًّامَّا تَدْعُوْا فَلَهُ الْاَسْمَآءُ الْحُسْنٰى ۚ وَ لَا تَجْهَرْ بِصَلَاتِكَ وَ لَا تُخَافِتْ بِهَا وَابْتَغِ بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ سَبِيْلًا ﴿۱۱۰﴾ learn that it is prohibited to remember Allah Almighty through unsuitable names. Do not call Him as Raam, Prabhoo, Parmatma, etc. It should be remembered the word KHUDA is not the name of Allah Almighty but its synonym just as Nourisher and Sustainer are the synonyms of KHALIQ, and saying this is permissible.

227.Thus, it is prohibited to lead the Salaah on the loudspeaker because a loudspeaker emits sound louder than it is required which is prohibited in Salaah. Likewise, when the followers are fewer in number, the Imaam should recite the Qira't very loudly.
Reason for its revelation: When the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم would recite the Qir'at aloud in salaah, the infidels would on hearing this hurl words of abuse at Allah Almighty. In response, this verse was revealed. Thus even today the believers recite the Qira't silently in Zohr and Asr Salaah as a reminder about the helplessness of the believers of that time.

111. And say, 'All Praise is due to Allah Who has no son [228], and no partner [229], in His Kingdom and He has no supporter [230], because of any weakness and proclaim His Greatness Magnifying [231].

وَ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ لَمْ یَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَّ لَمْ یَكُنْ لَّهٗ شَرِیْكٌ فِی الْمُلْكِ وَ لَمْ یَكُنْ لَّهٗ وَلِیٌّ مِّنَ الذُّلِّ وَ كَبِّرْهُ تَكْبِیْرًا ﴿۱۱۱﴾ ع ۱۲

228.As was said by the polytheists of Arabia, the Christians and the Jews. The polytheists called the angels as the daughters of Allah Almighty, while the Jews were calling Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace), and Christians were calling Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as the son of God.

229.As is the belief of the polytheists of Arabia and India. The Zorastrians believed that YAZDAAN is the creator of everything good, and AHARMAAN is the creator of everything evil. The belief of the Mo'tazilla sect is that every person is the creator of his own deeds. All these are means of making association in Kingdom.

230.In it refutation is made of these polytheists who were holding such beliefs that Allah Almighty enlisted the help of some because He is unable to take care of the management of the entire universe i.e. He is weak (Allah forbid!). In terms of Islamic beliefs, Allah Almighty has bestowed friendship out of honour on some of His servants e.g. the angels have been given the management of the world; and not out of weakness.

231.Recite the glory of Allah Almighty (ALLAHO AKBAR) in Salaah and out of Salaah. It is stated in a Hadith Shareef that Allah Almighty loves the following FOUR words: 1. LA ILAHA ILLALLAH; There is no god but Allah: 2. ALLAHO AKBAR; Allah is the Greatest: 3. SUBHANALLAH; Allah be praised: 4. ALHAMDOLILLAH; All praise is due to Allah. Some Sheikhs of the Qadiri order recite after every Salaah the verse from WA QULIL HAMDO LILLAHI till the end aloud and recite Takbir loudly.

SURAH AL-KAHF (THE CAVE) (MAKKAN)
Revealed before Hijrah 110 V : 12 S 1577 Words , 6360 Letters

SECTION 1

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْٓ اَنْزَلَ عَلٰى عَبْدِهِ الْكِتٰبَ وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَّهٗ عِوَجًا ؕ سکتۃ ①

1. All praise to Allah who sent down the book upon his bondsman [1], and has not put therein any crookedness[2].

1.From this, two issues emerge:
1.The revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN on the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم by Allah Almighty is a high degree of perfection of Divine phenomenon. Therefore, He has revealed Himself through the medium of this quality.
2.The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the perfect and absolute servant of Allah Almighty, and this absolute slavehood is the highest praiseworthy quality of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم . The rest of the creation is the fettered or confined slaves of Allah Almighty (Roohul Mu'ani). It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is Allah Almighty's true servant. The rest of the creation is dependent on him, and the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is dependent on Allah Almighty.
2.Neither is there any flaw or shortcoming in this passage of the Holy QUR'AAN, nor is there any contradiction in its meaning, neither are its prophecies false, nor is there any discrepancy in its subject matter.

قَيِّمًا لِّيُنْذِرَ بَاْسًا شَدِيْدًا مِّنْ لَّدُنْهُ وَيُبَشِّرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ يَعْمَلُوْنَ الصّٰلِحٰتِ اَنَّ لَهُمْ اَجْرًا حَسَنًا ۙ ②

2. The book of justice that may warn [3]of severe punishment from Allah, and that may give the believers who do good deeds the glad-tidings that for them[4] there is a good reward.

3.Either this Book or the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم should instill fear in the infidels, or the negligent people about the punishments of this world or the Hereafter.
4.It should be remembered that the Holy QUR'AAN is the giver of glad tidings to the pious believers, and a binder of hope for the sinful believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Despair not of the mercy of Allah" (S39:V53)

Therefore, the restriction of good deeds is correct. In the terminology of the Saints, good deeds are those, which are performed for gaining the pleasure of Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Thus, Salaah offered for show is a bad act, while eating, drinking, sleeping and remaining awake for the pleasure of Allah Almighty is piety.

مَّاكِثِيْنَ فِيْهِ اَبَدًا ۙ ③

3. In it they shall abide forever.[5]

5. From this we learn that no person who enters Paradise will have his reward taken away from him.

Marfat.com

وَّ يُنْذِرَ الَّذِيْنَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللّٰهُ وَلَدًا ۝٤

4. And that it may warn those who say, Allah has taken those for himself[6].

6. These are the Christians, Jews and polytheists of Arabia. In this verse, mention of the specific is followed by that of the common people.

مَا لَهُمْ بِهٖ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَّ لَا لِاٰبَآىِٕهِمْ ؕ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ اَفْوَاهِهِمْ ؕ اِنْ يَّقُوْلُوْنَ اِلَّا كَذِبًا ۝٥

5. They have no knowledge about it nor their forefathers[7]. What a monstrous word it is. That comes out [8]. from their mouths. They are merely telling a lie

7.Here, the word 'knowledge' does not mean to know, but to have knowledge of things that represent truth. To know about wrong things is called compound ignorance. Thus, no objection can be raised at the verse.

8. Because saying such a thing necessitates the belief that Allah Almighty is transitory, is helpless, dependent, resembles creation and has an associate, etc. (God forbid). Thus, to believe of Him having children is the cause of severest infidelity.

فَلَعَلَّكَ بَاخِعٌ نَّفْسَكَ عَلٰٓى اٰثَارِهِمْ اِنْ لَّمْ يُؤْمِنُوْا بِهٰذَا الْحَدِيْثِ اَسَفًا ۝٦

6. Then haply you will risk your life with grief after them if they believe not in this discourse [9].

9.From this, two issues emerge:
1.The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم endeavours much more to spread the Message of Allah Almighty than what is demanded by the obligation of his position as a missionary and is more kind to the creation of Allah Almighty than their parents.
2.Allah Almighty is so kind to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that even parents would not be so kind to their children, because He, at all times, takes care of all that affects Him.

اِنَّا جَعَلْنَا مَا عَلَى الْاَرْضِ زِيْنَةً لَّهَا لِنَبْلُوَهُمْ اَيُّهُمْ اَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا ۝٧

7.Undoubtedly we adorned the earth whatever is on it [10], so that we may test them as to which of them is best in works.[11].

10. This refers to man, animals, farming, gardens, etc. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has not created anything without its utility. Some things are bad, but their creation is not bad. The infidels are evil, but their creation is not evil. If the infidels were not created, then how would the believers have participated in Holy Wars and received the spoils of war and martyrdom? Due to the presence of the infidels, many acts of worship of the believers are established. For further information about this, consult Tafseer Naeemi in which the wisdom for the creation of the devil is outlined.

11.Who are those who adopt lawful things and abstain from prohibited things and who are those who differentiate between these two? It should be remembered that testing by Allah Almighty is not for His knowledge, but to make this apparent upon His servants so that nobody can raise objections regarding this on the Day of Judgement.

Marfat.com

وَ اِنَّا لَجٰعِلُوْنَ مَا عَلَيْهَا صَعِيْدًا جُرُزًا ۝۸

8. And undoubtedly whatever is on it, we shall one day leave it as a barren field. [12].

12. By this is meant on Judgement Day there will be no trace of farming fields, gardens, etc.

found on the entire earth. Therefore, why put your heart in such ephemeral things.

اَمْ حَسِبْتَ اَنَّ اَصْحٰبَ الْكَهْفِ وَالرَّقِيْمِ ۙ كَانُوْا مِنْ اٰيٰتِنَا عَجَبًا ۝۹

9. Did you know that the men of the cave and of the forests side were of our a wonderful sign? [13].

13.The word 'Raqeem" is either a Roman word for a dog, or the name given to the jungle of the People of the Cave, or a name of their settlement/village, or the name of the state in which their names were engraved and hung at the door of the cave.

اِذْ اَوَى الْفِتْيَةُ اِلَى الْكَهْفِ فَقَالُوْا رَبَّنَآ اٰتِنَا مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً وَّ هَيِّئْ لَنَا مِنْ اَمْرِنَا رَشَدًا ۝۱۰

10.When those youths took refuge [14], in the cave and said 'O our Lord, grant to us mercy from yourself and provide for us guidance in our affair.'[15].

14.From this, emerge a few things:
1.The Companions of the Cave are people.
2.That all of them are males.
3.That all of them are young and do not include children or old people as is indicated by the word 'youths'. The majority is of the view that they are seven in number: YAMLEEKHA, MAXIMILLAN, MARTOONIS, SANOONAS, SARINOONAS,ZOONAWAAS, KASTITO-ONAS. The name of their dog is QATMEER (Tafseer Khazin, Khazainul Irfaan and Mazhari). These names have such power that if written and hung on the door, it protects the house from burning, if placed on top of goods they will not be stolen, if hung on a ship it will not sink, if written on a piece and thrown in a fire it will extinguish it, if placed in the neck of a child, it protects the child from excessive crying and infantile epilepsy. If these names are written and fastened on the arms of the prisoners they will obtain freedom and if an unwise/stupid person wears it as a Ta'weez, he will become wise and intelligent (Tafseer Khazain).

15.The following is a brief account of the Companions of the Cave. After Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was raised to the heavens, the common people became polytheists. In the city of Ephesus, these seven men had remained devout believers. This was the period of the rule of Emperor Daqyanus (Emperor Decius –248 AD) who was a very cruel king, bent on killing every believer. These people fled from this city and took sanctuary in a nearby cave to save their faith and slept therein. They had a few coins and a dog with them. The dog slept at the mouth of the cave. The name of the mountain was Banjlos, while the cave was called Jeerom. Through Divine power, these people had slept for three hundred years. In the meantime, Emperor Daqyanus had died and several kings ruled after him. Eventually, Emperor Theodorius, a pious believer, who ruled for sixty years sat on the throne. During his reign, people began to reject Judgement Day. So he offered a dua asking Allah Almighty to show such a sign, which will serve as a proof of resurrection. The Companions of the Cave awoke at that time. Their faces were lively and jolly. They said to Yamleekha: "Go to the market and buy some food. But do not inform anyone of our whereabouts". When Yamleekha came to the city, he found things were totally different. He went to a bakery to buy bread. When he gave the money to the baker, the baker said this coin is three hundred years old and was used during the reign of Emperor Daqyanus. How did you get it? He was taken to the governor who said that perhaps you have laid your hands on a treasure. Please tell me where it is? To save himself, Yamleekha related the full story. After hearing this extraordinary tale, the Emperor, some of his officers and citizens of the city went to meet these persons at the cave.Emperor Theodorius embraced them with joy and informed his subjects that if Allah Almighty can wake them after three hundred years sleep, He can most surely raise the dead on the Day of Judgement, as well. These Companions then, once again, went back to sleep. The Emperor ordered for a mosque to be built at the door of the cave. Every year people would gather there and celebrate the occasion like the day of Eid (Tafseer Khazin, Khazainul Irfaan, etc.). From this we learn that celebrating Urs of the saints is an ancient custom, which is practised by the believers.

فَضَرَبْنَا عَلٰٓى اٰذَانِهِمْ فِي الْكَهْفِ سِنِيْنَ عَدَدًا ﴿١١﴾

11. Then we smote their ears many years in the cave.[16].

16. Two issues emerge from this:
1.The miracles of the saints are true. The Companions of the Cave are the saints of the Israelites. Their existence for so long, without any food or water, is a miracle.

2. A miracle can be enacted by a saint, even when he is asleep, as well as after his physical demise. The preservation of their bodies by sand, too, is a miracle.

ثُمَّ بَعَثْنٰهُمْ لِنَعْلَمَ اَيُّ الْحِزْبَيْنِ اَحْصٰى لِمَا لَبِثُوْٓا اَمَدًا ﴿١٢﴾ ع ١٢/١٣

12. Then we raised them up that we might see which of the two groups most rightly tell the period of their stay there. [17].

17.By this is meant people will disagree of the period of staying in the cave by these dwellers of the cave. Let us see who would be able to give the correct figure.

SECTION 2

نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ نَبَاَهُمْ بِالْحَقِّ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ فِتْيَةٌ اٰمَنُوْا بِرَبِّهِمْ وَ زِدْنٰهُمْ هُدًى ﴿١٣﴾ ط ج

13. We relate to you their story with truth. They were some men who believed[18]. in their Lord We increased them in guidance.

18.Through their own inspiration, or through the blessings of their companionship with the disciples of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace).

وَّ رَبَطْنَا عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ اِذْ قَامُوْا فَقَالُوْا رَبُّنَا رَبُّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ لَنْ نَّدْعُوَاْ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖٓ اِلٰهًا لَّقَدْ قُلْنَآ اِذًا شَطَطًا ﴿١٤﴾

Marfat.com

19. By this is meant Allah Almighty had kept them on the path of guidance and gave them the power and strength to speak in the presence of the emperor.
20. Here, the word "Dua" is used to denote worship and not to call. It does not mean we will not call on anyone besides Allah Almighty. Calls are made day and night for doing worldly and religious deeds. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had called upon dead animals. In every Tashahud we call upon the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم to send greetings.
21. This means they had told Daqyanus, we will not worship idols made by you.

15. These our people have taken for themselves gods besides Him. Why then do they not bring for them a bright authority? Then who is more unjust that he who fabricates a lie against Allah. [22].

هٰٓؤُلَآءِ قَوْمُنَا اتَّخَذُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖٓ اٰلِهَةً ؕ لَوْ لَا يَاْتُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِسُلْطٰنٍۢ بَيِّنٍ ؕ فَمَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا ۝۱۵

22. After relating their story to the emperor, they began to converse among themselves.

16. And when you have separated[23]. yourselves from them and from all that which they worship beside Allah. Then take refuge [24]. in the cave. Your lord will unfold for you His mercy and will prepare an easy arrangement of your affairs. [25].

وَاِذِ اعْتَزَلْتُمُوْهُمْ وَ مَا يَعْبُدُوْنَ اِلَّا اللّٰهَ فَاْوٗٓا اِلَى الْكَهْفِ يَنْشُرْ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ مِّنْ رَّحْمَتِهٖ وَ يُهَيِّئْ لَكُمْ مِّنْ اَمْرِكُمْ مِّرْفَقًا ۝۱۶

23. This means do not stay with these infidels. Let us go away and take shelter at some place where we can hide from them and engage ourselves in the worship of Allah Almighty. We have full hope that Allah Almighty will certainly provide for us a safe haven. From this we learn that during times of mischief, separation from people is a means of safety.
24. From this we learn that it is forbidden to stay with the infidels under false pretences. One should go away from there at the earliest opportunity. Says Allah Almighty: "Is the earth of Allah not wide?" Observe, the Companions of the Cave did not adopt this pretentious behaviour.
25. This means Allah Almighty is going to solve all your problems because you remained firm in your religion.

17. And O beloved! You will see [26]. the sun when it rises. Moves away from their cave to the right and when it sets. Turn away from them on the left. [27]. where as they are in the open space [28], of the cave, this is of the sign of Allah . he whom Allah guides is on the right way [29], and he whom he

26. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had seen the Companions of the Cave, as well as the direction they are facing in their sleep, as is mentioned in the events of Me'raaj.

27. This means their cave had been facing south, so that when the sun rises it is on the left side, and at sunset it comes on the right side so that at no time does sunshine fall upon them. This is the most appropriate explanation for it.

28. That at all times fresh air is reaching them. This means despite being in an open ground, they are protected from sunshine. Or, it may be their miracle, or perhaps the direction is such. The first statement lends more weight because Allah Almighty had declared this among His Signs.

29. One who is on the path of guidance acknowledges the miracles of the Saints of Allah Almighty, but one who is misguided will always reject their miracles. He will either enter into discussion or pass verdicts of polytheism.

30. From this we learn that there are neither any helpers for the misguided people, nor do they have any guide. Whereas the believers have both. Today all those who are found without any religious guides and mentors are groping in heresy.

SECTION 3

18. And you might deem them awake and they sleep [31], and we turn them about to the right and to the left [32], and their dog has stretched his forelegs at the threshold [33]. of the Cave. O listener! If you had a look peeping at them, then you would have run away [34]. turning your back and would have surely filled with terror of them.[35].

وَتَحْسَبُهُمْ اَيْقَاظًا وَّ هُمْ رُقُوْدٌ ۚ وَّ نُقَلِّبُهُمْ ذَاتَ الْيَمِيْنِ وَذَاتَ الشِّمَالِ ۚ وَكَلْبُهُمْ بَاسِطٌ ذِرَاعَيْهِ بِالْوَصِيْدِ ؕ لَوِ اطَّلَعْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ لَوَلَّيْتَ مِنْهُمْ فِرَارًا وَّ لَمُلِئْتَ مِنْهُمْ رُعْبًا ﴿۱۸﴾

31. This tells us that they are asleep even now. They are alive, not dead. Their eyes are open so that the one who may look at them will think that they are awake. If they were dead, they would not be called "awake", because a corpse is not called one who is sleeping.

32. Twice a year, or only once a year, on the day of Ashurah. The first saying is that of Hazrat Abu Huraira, while the second is that of Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with them) (Roohul Mu'ani and Khazainul Irfaan). From this, two issues emerge:

1. The works of some special servants of Allah Almighty are called Allah's works because this changing of sides is the work of the angels, yet, Allah Almighty is saying We are turning them about.

2. The Companions of the Cave are alive, because only the living change their sides, not the dead. Allah Almighty has the power that these persons should not turn sides and yet remain preserved from decay.

33. From this we learn that the companionship of these pious persons had such an effect on the dog, that it became worthy of mention in the Holy QUR'AAN and people began to recite incantations in its name, and it gained eternal life. Sand cannot decompose its body. If the dog can achieve these blessings, then what about those who have gained the companionship of the Prophet? We further learn that to seek the companionship of the pious is greater than every type of worship because the benefit of this is not just limited to human beings only.

34. From this we learn that miracles are shown by saints in their subconscious state as well, because this sleep and position of awe, of the Companions of the Cave, is their miracle.

35. This awe and imposing state of these Companions is a means of their protection. During the Battle of Rome when Hazrat Amir Muawiyah (May Allah be pleased with him) reached this cave he tried to enter it, but Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) stopped him by reciting this very verse. Then Hazrat Muawiyah sent a group of men in it, but all of them were burnt to ash (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). It is quite apparent that this address is made to the believers and not the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because when he saw Allah Almighty he did not become frightened; while the Companions of the Cave are His mere servants. Says Allah Almighty: "The eye deviated not nor crossed the limit" (S53:V17) i.e. My Beloved on seeing Me did not even wink nor did he go astray. Also, it is stated in some traditions that on the night of Me'raaj, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had seen the Companions of the Cave. Allah Almighty and His Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم know best!

19. And likewise we did rouse them that they might question [36]. one another. One spokesman of them spoke [37]. 'How long have you stayed here, some of them spoke. we stayed a day or part of a day [38], others spoke, your Lord knows well how long you stayed', [39] now then send one of you with this silver to the city' [40], then let him look for which food is the cleaner [41], there, and that he may bring [42], for you provision from it and let him be courteous [43]. and let him not inform anyone about you.

وَ كَذٰلِكَ بَعَثْنٰهُمْ لِيَتَسَآءَلُوْا بَيْنَهُمْ ؕ
قَالَ قَآئِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ ؕ قَالُوْا
لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا اَوْ بَعْضَ يَوْمٍ ؕ قَالُوْا
رَبُّكُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثْتُمْ ؕ فَابْعَثُوْۤا اَحَدَكُمْ
بِوَرِقِكُمْ هٰذِهٖۤ اِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَلْيَنْظُرْ
اَيُّهَاۤ اَزْكٰى طَعَامًا فَلْيَاْتِكُمْ بِرِزْقٍ مِّنْهُ
وَلْيَتَلَطَّفْ وَ لَا يُشْعِرَنَّ بِكُمْ اَحَدًا ﴿۱۹﴾

36. In this is given the wisdom of waking of the Companions of the Cave after three hundred years –that is those who saw them would strengthen their own faith, while the faith of the Companions, too, would become very strong.

37. This refers to Maximillan who is the oldest amongst them, and also their leader (Khazainul Irfaan).

38. Because Allah Almighty wanted the people to see this miracle of His saints, He therefore made them unaware about this world, in a state of sleep and turned their attention towards Him, just as Allah Almighty had kept Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace) unaware about his external environment in a death-like condition, so that his miracle could be seen. Otherwise, the true servants of Allah Almighty are fully aware of everything, whether they are asleep or when they leave this physical world. Says Allah Almighty: "Heavy upon him is your suffering" (S9:V128). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: My eyes sleep, not my heart". It is for this reason that the Wudhu of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would not break from sleep, because he was never unconscious or unaware of things. All the Prophets, during the night of Me'raaj, performed their Salaah behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Many Prophets had joined in the Farewell Pilgrimage. Therefore, the Holy QUR'AAN is saying here:

Marfat.com

"Likewise We did inform them" (S18:V21). Therefore, the saying of the Wahabis that the beloved servants of Allah Almighty become totally unaware of the conditions in the world, is incorrect. If this were the case then greetings would not be extended to the dead in the graveyard, because there is no greeting for those who are unconscious.

39. Because these pious persons had entered the cave when the sun was rising and awoke when the sun was setting. Because of this they thought that they had slept for that day. From this we learn that to exercise interpretation of Islamic law is permissible because these pious persons described the time of their sleep through assumption and interpretation. We further learn that whatever injunction, when overwhelmed by assumption, should not be given any credence. When they saw that their hair and nails had grown so long, they expressed hesitation as to how their hair could have grown so long in a matter of a day. Then they said; Allah Almighty alone knows how long we have slept.

40. The coin of Decius (Daqyanus), which they had taken with them in the cave. From this we learn that keeping money and supplies when on a journey, is not going against trust in Allah Almighty.

41. From this, emerge a few issues:

20. Undoubtedly, if they would know you, then they would stone you or make you revert to their faith and if it was so , then you would never get any good. 44

44. From this, emerge a few issues:

1. If you do not have the power to declare your faith openly, then it is permissible for you to conceal it, but staying among the infidels would not be lawful. At the first opportunity, you should migrate from there. Thus, they cannot be used as proof for adopting pretentious living.

2. Turning to infidelity should be regarded with the same contempt as falling into a fire.

1. Doing business with the infidels is permissible.

2. The food cooked by a non-Muslim is not prohibited for a Muslim to eat, because all the shopkeepers in the city were infidels. For many years Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) ate at Pharaoh's. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ate at Hazrat Abu Talib's house prior to the announcement of Prophethood. However, it is stated in Bukhari Shareef that even prior to the announcement of Prophethood, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم never ate from what was sacrificed to the idols.

3. Eating tasty, wholesome food is not against the rules of piety.

42. They were made to feel hunger, so that through it, they could show their miracle, in order for people to believe in the miracles of saints. Otherwise, Allah Almighty who had thus far kept them asleep without any food; had the power to suppress their hunger at this point in time as well. From this we learn that it is not difficult for Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) to remain in the heavens without consuming food. This very thing is proven in the case of the Companions of the Cave, as well.

43. It should be remembered that the second LAAM of this word WALMUTA-LATTAF is in the first half of the Holy QUR'AAN, while the TA is in the second half.

اِنَّهُمْ اِنْ يَّظْهَرُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ يَرْجُمُوْكُمْ اَوْ يُعِيْدُوْكُمْ فِيْ مِلَّتِهِمْ وَلَنْ تُفْلِحُوْٓا اِذًا اَبَدًا ﴿٢٠﴾

3. A pious and god-fearing person should place his trust in his faith and piety. He should at all times seek the bounty and mercy of Allah Almighty. Observe, the Companions of the Cave feared that today we have to mix with infidelity because they were not in a position to act otherwise, and if they remain there any longer, perhaps their hearts would become inclined towards infidelity and not be able to return to Islam and thereby destroy their

Marfat.com

Hereafter. This is the intended meaning of 'will not benefit'. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

وَ كَذٰلِكَ اَعْثَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَعْلَمُوْٓا اَنَّ
وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقٌّ وَّ اَنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَا
رَيْبَ فِيْهَا ۚ اِذْ يَتَنَازَعُوْنَ بَيْنَهُمْ
اَمْرَهُمْ فَقَالُوا ابْنُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ بُنْيَانًا ؕ
رَبُّهُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِهِمْ ؕ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ غَلَبُوْا
عَلٰٓى اَمْرِهِمْ لَنَتَّخِذَنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ مَّسْجِدًا ﴿۲۱﴾

21. Likewise we did inform of them that the people might know that Allah's promise is true and that hour, there is no doubt about it, [45], when they began disputing among themselves about their affair. Then they said. ' build over their cave any building.' [46]. their Lord knows well about them. Those who prevailed in their affair said, 'we swear that we shall erect over them a mosque,' [47].

45.This is the wisdom behind awakening the Companions of the Cave, letting them feel hungry and sending them to the market place. This tells us that sometimes, even the eating and drinking of the pious becomes a means of faith for the people.

46.From this we learn that erecting a dome on the graves of the pious is permissible, because Allah Almighty has related this statement of theirs without any refutation, which serves as a symbol of permissibility and justification.

47.From this we learn that it is an excellent act to have a mosque built in the surrounds of the pious, because acceptance of Salaah is greater there. It is for this reason that the reward of one Raka'at in the Mosque of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is fifty thousand times better than other mosques because of his close proximity. Here, 'themselves' is used to denote it is near them, and not in their actual place of rest. We further learn that visiting the shrines and places of the pious people is an ancient tradition of the believers. The purpose for building the mosque or tomb was to make things easier for the visitors to this place.

سَيَقُوْلُوْنَ ثَلٰثَةٌ رَّابِعُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ ۚ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ
خَمْسَةٌ سَادِسُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ رَجْمًۢا بِالْغَيْبِ ۚ وَ

22. Now they will say. ' they are three and the fourth one is their dog'. [48], and some will say, ' they are five and sixth one is their dog, without seeing, guessing at random, [49], and some will say they are seven and the eight one is their dog.'[50], say you , ' My Lord knows them but a few, [51], so debate not about them, but the discussion to the extent outwardly expressed' [52], and ask not to any man of the book about them.[53].

48.This means during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the people relating the story about the Companions of the Cave are in disagreement about its facts, i.e. each one is giving different figures concerning the number of these Companions.

49.Both these estimations are incorrect, i.e. they are neither three nor five.

50.This means the believers who speak after obtaining the information from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not refuted by Allah Almighty. This tells us that this statement is correct and that the Companions of the Cave are seven in number (Roohul Mu'ani, Khazai-nul Irfaan).

51.This tells us that a few servants of Allah Almighty have been given the knowledge about the actual number of the inmates of the Cave. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is certainly included in this. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas and Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with them) say that they, too, are amongst those few to whom Allah Almighty has provided the knowledge in respect of the correct number of the Companions of the Cave (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani and Khazainul Irfaan). The writer of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan has listed the names of these Companions differently.

52.This means do not enter any debate with these people on this subject to reveal their ignorance. Such debates are against the noble status of people possessing the purity of character. Limit your discussion to the details, which are explicitly described in the Holy QUR'AAN. From this we learn that Allah Almighty has given His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم a detailed account of the Companions of the Cave, but had prohibited him from revealing these details. This is because these opponents of Islam are not worthy of it.

53.Because he has been informed about it by Allah Almighty, it is not necessary for him to ask these enemies of Islam about matters concerning it.

SECTION 4

23. And never say of anything that I will do this tomorrow.

24. But that Allah please [54], and remember your Lord when you forget [55], and say like this' it is near that my Lord might make me see the right path nearer that this' [56].

وَلَا تَقُوْلَنَّ لِشَايْءٍ اِنِّيْ فَاعِلٌ ذٰلِكَ غَدًا ﴿٢٣﴾ اِلَّآ اَنْ يَّشَآءَ اللّٰهُ ۡ وَاذْكُرْ رَّبَّكَ اِذَا نَسِيْتَ وَ قُلْ عَسٰٓى اَنْ يَّهْدِيَنِ رَبِّيْ لِاَقْرَبَ مِنْ هٰذَا رَشَدًا ﴿٢٤﴾

54.Reason for its revelation:
When the people of Makkah enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the condition of the Companions of the Cave, he told them that he would relate it later. But, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had forgotten to say, "If Allah wills", revelation was delayed for a number of days. At that point in time Allah Almighty had not yet acquainted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the full details of the Companions of the Cave.

55.By this is meant if you forget to recite INSHA-ALLAH (if Allah wills) in the beginning, then you should recite it as soon as you remember. The author of (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan) has commented that at the time of revelation of this expression, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم recited INSHA-ALLAH. From this we learn that if a person had forgotten to perform his Salaah, he should do so as soon as he remembers.

56.By this is meant that the types of miracles given to me are such that they are far greater than these. You are merely testing me by asking me about the incident of the

Marfat.com

Companions of the Cave, but remember that one day I will stand on my pulpit and narrate to you every event that would be taking place

25. And you stayed in their cave three hundred years. Nine more [57],

وَ لَبِثُوْا فِیْ كَهْفِهِمْ ثَلٰثَ مِائَةٍ سِنِیْنَ وَ ازْدَادُوْا تِسْعًا ﴿۲۵﴾

57.This means three hundred years as per solar months, and nine years more as per lunar months. Because the practice of calculation of the year was in accordance with solar months,

26. Say you,' Allah Knows well how long they stayed. [58]. for Him alone is all the unseen of heavens and earth. What excellent He sees and what excellent He hears[59]. they have no protector[60]. beside him and he associates no one in His order. [61].

قُلِ اللّٰهُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثُوْا ۚ لَهٗ غَیْبُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ اَبْصِرْ بِهٖ وَ اَسْمِعْ ؕ مَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ مِنْ وَّلِیٍّ ۪ وَّ لَا یُشْرِكُ فِیْ حُكْمِهٖۤ اَحَدًا ﴿۲۶﴾

58.On hearing this verse, the people of Najraan said the period of three hundred years is fine, but why the increase of these nine years. In response, this verse was revealed to inform them that you do not understand the difference between the solar and lunar months. It should be remembered that the solar calendar has ten days more than the lunar calendar. In terms of this in a period of three years, one month has to be added to it, and in thirty-six years there is a difference of one full year. This is an estimated difference. Thus, for every hundred years there is a difference of three years.

59.By this is meant the hearing and seeing capacity of Allah Almighty is so strong and powerful that you would express

27. And recites what has been revealed to you of the book of your Lord [62], there is none to alter His words and never you will find refuge beside Him [63].

وَ اتْلُ مَاۤ اُوْحِیَ اِلَیْكَ مِنْ كِتَابِ رَبِّكَ ۫ لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمٰتِهٖ ۚ وَ لَنْ تَجِدَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ مُلْتَحَدًا ﴿۲۷﴾

62. This tells us that recitation of the Holy Qur'aan is an act of worship, no matter whether one understands what he is reading or not.

before Judgement Day. Thus, all this took place as prophesized, which is recorded in Hadith Shareef.

the same has been used i.e. the people of Arabia had added nine more years to the period stated by the People of the Book.

astonishment at these. The words how excellent He sees and how He hears are used to denote intense astonishment.

60.This means there is no true helper of the inmates of the heavens and the earth besides Allah Almighty. Or, there is no real helper for the infidels. Those whom they are regarding as helpers are under a delusion. Thus, this verse does not contradict the following verse: "Only Allah is your Friend and His Messenger" (S5:V55).

61. The true and absolute authority is Allah's, all other rulers besides Him are merely superficial and worldly rulers. Thus, this verse does not contradict the following verse: "Then appoint an arbiter from the side of the family" (S4:V35).

63.Anyone who tries to evade or put off divinely sent calamities and difficulties, is opposing Allah Almighty. Thus, this verse is not contradicting the following verse: "And I heal the born blind, and the leper by the command of Allah" (S3:V49). Because the warding off of calamities by the pious people is done through the command of Allah Almighty.

وَاصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدٰوةِ وَ الْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُوْنَ وَجْهَهٗ وَ لَا تَعْدُ عَيْنٰكَ عَنْهُمْ ۚ تُرِيْدُ زِيْنَةَ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَ لَا تُطِعْ مَنْ اَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَهٗ عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَ اتَّبَعَ هَوٰىهُ وَكَانَ اَمْرُهٗ فُرُطًا ﴿٢٨﴾

28. And keep yourself familiar to those who call upon their Lord in the morning and evening [64], seeking His pleasure [65], and your eyes should not see you like the adornment of the life of this world? And obey not him whose heart We have made neglectful of our remembrance and who followed his own desire [68]. and whose affair exceeded the limit.

64.This tells us that to be in the company of the pious is a good act, even if they are destitute, while being in the company of the evil, is evil even if they are wealthy. Furthermore, the remembrance of Allah Almighty with utmost devotion during morning and in the evening is an act of great excellence. Says Allah Almighty: "Therefore remember the name of your Lord, and devote yourself to Him exclusively, leaving all others" (S73:V8). It also intimates the persons who are pious but poor, are most liked and dear to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم ,because their hearts are broken and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a solace to the broken-heart.

65.Reason for its revelation:
The leaders of the Quraish had said that we would accept Islam, but we feel ashamed to be with the poor and destitute believers. If you, Oh Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم separate them and keep them apart from your blessed company, then not only us, but also a large crowd would accept Islam. In response to this, the above verse was revealed. From this we learn that a handful of sincere believers are better than a crowd of pretentious people. A little perfume is far better than a large quantity of urine. May Allah Almighty keep us closely connected with this perfume.

66.From this we learn that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed attention is always on the pious persons of his Ummah. No matter where or in whichever time they may be, they are always in front of the Holy Prophet. صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This helps to prove the issue of HAAZIR and NAAZIR - the question of being Omnipresent and Omniscient.

67. This means you will not approve of it, because Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم We have created your nature. We are fully aware that you do not have any inclination towards them. This question is for negation.

68.In this there is guidance for all the Muslims until the Day of Judgement not to pay heed to the negligent, the arrogant, the hypocrites and the wealthy. Sincere and pious destitute and the poor believers should be obeyed. Listening to these wealthy can destroy your world and the Hereafter, while being with these destitute believers can rectify both worlds. Therefore, most Prophets and saints were from the poor.

وَ قُلِ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَّبِّكُمْ ۟ فَمَنْ شَآءَ فَلْيُؤْمِنْ وَّ مَنْ شَآءَ فَلْيَكْفُرْ ۙ اِنَّآ

29. And say 'the truth is from your Lord. Then who so will, let him believe and who so will, let him

اَعْتَدْنَا لِلظّٰلِمِيْنَ نَارًا ۙ اَحَاطَ بِهِمْ سُرَادِقُهَا ؕ وَ اِنْ يَّسْتَغِيْثُوْا يُغَاثُوْا بِمَآءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِى الْوُجُوْهَ ؕ بِئْسَ الشَّرَابُ ؕ وَسَآءَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿۲۹﴾

disbelieve. [69]. Undoubtedly We have already prepared for the unjust a fire whose walls would surround them [70], and if they complain for water, then they will be like molten lead [71]. that will burn the faces. What a bad drink it is and hell what an evil place to stay. [72].

69.This means because of you, my poor Companions would not be separated from my company - whether you accept Islam or not. Thus, this command is used for the purpose of expressing anger. This does not mean that Allah Almighty had given permission or choice of accepting or not accepting Islam. From this we learn that there is a great status for the poor Companions in the eyes of Allah Almighty.

70. Because you feel ashamed of yourselves to be in the company of the poor, and Paradise is the place set-aside for the poor, you would therefore be kept in Hell, wherein there will be just the leaders.

71.From this we learn that this boiling hot water and this food is set-aside for the infidels only. Allah Almighty will save the sinful believers from these, because believers will not receive the punishment of infidelity.

72. Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) said, that water would be thick and coarse like the sediment of the oil. When it would come near to the mouth the skin would burn and peel off. Some other scholars say it is molten lead. May Allah Almighty protect us from it! (Tafseer Khazain).

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ اِنَّا لَا نُضِيْعُ اَجْرَ مَنْ اَحْسَنَ عَمَلًا ﴿۳۰﴾

30. Undoubtedly those who believed and did good deeds We shall not waste the reward of those whose works are good. [73].

73.That neither the reward of their good deeds would be decreased, nor would they be totally destroyed on condition that he himself may not have destroyed his own good deeds.

Allah Almighty does not lay waste to anybody's good deeds. If man himself does this, then it is his wish.

اُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمْ جَنّٰتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرِىْ مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْاَنْهٰرُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيْهَا مِنْ اَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَّ يَلْبَسُوْنَ ثِيَابًا خُضْرًا مِّنْ سُنْدُسٍ وَّ اِسْتَبْرَقٍ مُّتَّكِـِٕيْنَ فِيْهَا عَلَى الْاَرَآئِكِ ؕ نِعْمَ الثَّوَابُ ؕ وَحَسُنَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿۳۱﴾

31. For them there are gardens [74], for habitation beneath which streams flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets [75], of gold and will wear green garments [76], of silk and heavy brocade. Leaning therein on raised couches, and the paradise, what a good resting place.

74.This means for eternal habitation, from where they will never be taken out, nor will anyone experience death therein. May Allah Almighty grant this to us!

75. Every inmate of Paradise will be adorned with three bracelets, one of gold, one of silver and one of pearls, reaching that part of the hand where the water of ablution can reach. It was forbidden for man to wear jewellery in the world because holy wars were taking place there. If they had worn bracelets, how would they have picked up swords? Because there would be no war taking place in Paradise, it would be permissible for man to wear jewellery there.

76. From this we learn that Allah Almighty dearly loves the colour green. Thus, the earth of Paradise is green, the souls of the martyrs are green, the dome of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is green, etc.

SECTION 5

وَاضْرِبْ لَهُمْ مَّثَلًا رَّجُلَيْنِ جَعَلْنَا لِاَحَدِهِمَا جَنَّتَيْنِ مِنْ اَعْنَابٍ وَّحَفَفْنٰهُمَا بِنَخْلٍ وَّجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمَا زَرْعًا ﴿٣٢﴾

32. And state to them the position of two men ,[77], that to one of them we provided with two gardens of grapes and covered them with date palms and we placed agricultural farming in between. [78].

77.This means let the believers and the infidels listen to those two examples, so that every party will be able to take a lesson from it and give a thought to their end. From this we learn that the analogy of the jurists is correct. Furthermore, the Ulama should relate examples when explaining an issue to the believers.

78.It should be remembered that it is a pleasant sight to see green gardens surrounded by lush green fields. From these, the owner is able to fulfill all his requirements - he obtains food from the fields and fruit from the gardens. Dates and grapes are exquisite nourishment and fruit.

كِلْتَا الْجَنَّتَيْنِ اٰتَتْ اُكُلَهَا وَلَمْ تَظْلِمْ مِّنْهُ شَيْـًٔا ۙ وَّفَجَّرْنَا خِلٰلَهُمَا نَهَرًا ﴿٣٣﴾

33. Both gardens brought forth their fruits [79], and gave nothing short in it,[80] and We caused to flow streams amidst both. [81].

79.This means the excellent harvest was obtained in both gardens of dates and grapes - they bore much fruit.

80.This means neither the growth of fruit was less nor did the fruit fall off after their growth.There was a full harvest of ripened fruit.

81.A flowing river between the gardens is a means of obtaining its beauty and lushness.

وَّكَانَ لَهٗ ثَمَرٌ ۚ فَقَالَ لِصَاحِبِهٖ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهٗٓ اَنَا اَكْثَرُ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَّاَعَزُّ نَفَرًا ﴿٣٤﴾

34. And he had fruits, [82], then he said to his companion. And he used to argue [83], with him; ' I have greater wealth [84]. then you and am stronger in respect of men.'

82.This means that besides this garden, the owner also possessed a great deal of wealth, gold and silver. Or, besides the orchards of grapes and dates, he also possessed other fruit gardens.

83.This means this arrogant infidel and his believing neighbour were having a debate with one another, in which this boastful infidel, in an attempt to disgrace the believer, would say this. Thus, this talk of his became a criminal act.

84.From this we learn to brag and boast is the way of infidels, while expressing gratitude and praise at obtaining Divine favours is the way of life of the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "And publicize well the favours of your Lord"

35. And he entered in his garden while wronging his soul. He said, [85], ' I do not think that it will ever perish.' [86].

85.This means he was an infidel, an ungrateful wretch as well as arrogant. After receiving all these bounties of Allah Almighty, he showed such ingratitude and imperfection. This tells us that the worldly wealth is a means of becoming sinful, for a negligent person. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan wrote that the name of this ungrateful person was Kitros, and

36. And I don't think that the hour will ever come, [87], and even if I am returned [88]. to my Lord. Then I shall surely, get a better place of return than this garden. [89].

87.This means I do not even suspect that Qiyamah would take place, in fact, I am certain that Qiyamah would never take place. Therefore, this would not be taken as an objection against this verse that the infidels are of the belief that the Day of Judgement would not take place.

88.From this we learn that hoping for Paradise after doing evil deeds is the way of the

37. His companion replied to him while arguing with him, do you disbelieve in Him Who created you from dust [90], then from a purified drop of water, then made you a right man?. [91].

90.From this we understand that the rejection of Islamic beliefs, like the Day of Judgement, is in reality rejection of Allah Almighty because this infidel had not rejected Allah Almighty. In fact, he had said that if "I were to return to my Lord". But because he

38. But I say only this that He, Allah, is my Lord and I associate none with my Lord,.[92].

(S93:V11). In a like manner, to regard a believer as disgraceful, too, is the work of an infidel.

وَ دَخَلَ جَنَّتَهٗ وَ هُوَ ظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهٖ ۚ قَالَ مَآ اَظُنُّ اَنْ تَبِيْدَ هٰذِهٖٓ اَبَدًا ۙ﴿۳۵﴾ that this story is not only related for the sake of illustrating a moral, but it is a true happening.

86.This means for my entire life. This does not signify eternity because even the foolish infidels know that one garden cannot last for all times. Therefore, this should be its appropriate meaning.

وَّمَآ اَظُنُّ السَّاعَةَ قَآئِمَةً ۙ وَّلَئِنْ رُّدِدْتُّ اِلٰى رَبِّيْ لَاَجِدَنَّ خَيْرًا مِّنْهَا مُنْقَلَبًا ﴿۳۶﴾ infidels. Do not hope to reap wheat after sowing barley.

89.This means, in the first place, Judgement Day will never take place, and if it were really to take place, then even there I would be receiving gardens. Just as I received wealth and comfort in this world, I would receive the same there as well. Receiving of wealth in this world is a sign of Divine approval.

قَالَ لَهٗ صَاحِبُهٗ وَ هُوَ يُحَاوِرُهٗٓ اَكَفَرْتَ بِالَّذِيْ خَلَقَكَ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ سَوّٰىكَ رَجُلًا ﴿۳۷﴾ؕ had rejected the Day of Judgement, his believing neighbour had addressed him as well.

91.That Almighty Lord who can create you as a human being out of sand and sperm, can most surely resurrect you after death on the Day of Judgement.

لٰكِنَّا۠ هُوَ اللّٰهُ رَبِّيْ وَ لَآ اُشْرِكُ بِرَبِّيْٓ اَحَدًا ﴿۳۸﴾

Marfat.com

92.From this we learn that a believer should always disclose his beliefs, and reveal his good deeds so that others can follow him. This is an act of reward and not of show.

39. And why it was not so that when you entered in your garden then you would have told, as Allah wills we have no power but the help [93], of Allah, if you see me as less than you in wealth and offspring.

وَ لَوْ لَآ اِذْ دَخَلْتَ جَنَّتَكَ قُلْتَ مَا شَآءَ اللّٰهُ ۙ لَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ ۚ اِنْ تَرَنِ اَنَا اَقَلَّ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَّ وَلَدًا ﴿۳۹﴾

93.From this, emerge two issues:
1.There is such a thing as an evil eye and the following should be recited to protect oneself against it: MASHA ALLAHO LA QUWATA ILLA BILLAH: "As Allah wills, we have no power but the help of Allah" (S18:V51). Says Allah Almighty: "And it seems that the infidels with their bad looks will necessarily stumble you" (S68:V51).
2.The believer sees through the Light of Allah Almighty. Whatever prophecy was made by the believer always came true. In reality, punishment descended upon his gardens.

40. Then it is near that my Lord will give me something better [94], then your garden and send down thunder bolt [95], from heaven on your garden, then it may become a bare plain ground. [96].

فَعَسٰى رَبِّيْٓ اَنْ يُّؤْتِيَنِ خَيْرًا مِّنْ جَنَّتِكَ وَ يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهَا حُسْبَانًا مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ فَتُصْبِحَ صَعِيْدًا زَلَقًا ۙ﴿۴۰﴾

94.Either in this world or in the Hereafter. But, the former meaning holds more weight, because this infidel had viewed the worldly garden of this believer with contempt. The discussion, which follows, is regarding worldly punishment.
95.The thunderbolt from heaven comes down on your garden in your own lifetime, so that while seeing the garden being destroyed you would utter words of regret.
96.This tells us that a believer sees through Divine light and his estimation and assumption is always accurate. Whatever was said by this believer, the same came to pass. This is the miracle of the believer or of his intuition. If this were the condition of a believer's inspiration and sagacity, then what would be the status of the knowledge and sagacity of a saint and a Prophet? This is much beyond our estimation.

41. Or its water sink [97], in the ground, then you could never be able to find it.

اَوْ يُصْبِحَ مَآؤُهَا غَوْرًا فَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيْعَ لَهٗ طَلَبًا ﴿۴۱﴾

97.This means the water of the river and the wells would become so dry that it would not be visible to the eye, or, that it would go so low that it would be out of reach.

42.And his fruits were encompassed,[98], then he remained wringing his hands [99], for what he had spent in that garden

وَ اُحِيْطَ بِثَمَرِهٖ فَاَصْبَحَ يُقَلِّبُ كَفَّيْهِ عَلٰى مَآ اَنْفَقَ فِيْهَا وَ هِيَ خَاوِيَةٌ عَلٰى عُرُوْشِهَا وَ

Marfat.com

يَقُوْلُ يٰلَيْتَنِيْ لَمْ اُشْرِكْ بِرَبِّيْٓ اَحَدًا ﴿۴۲﴾ and it had fallen [100], on its trellises and he is saying Oh: ' if I would not have associated anyone with my Lord'. [101].

98.This means that everything happened as foretold by the believer i.e. lightning or heavenly calamity befell the fruit laden trees, through which the entire garden was burnt to ash. From this we learn that due to one's ingratitude, gardens and fields can become desolate.

99.Due to grief and regret man rubs his hands, or bites his finger or sucks his palm. The above image is described here.

100.This means that those top branches of the grapes on which the shrubs of the grapes had spread, had fallen down. The sterms of the dates, too, had been uprooted. In short, the garden was so badly damaged that no watering could bring it back to life.

101.This tells us that his repentance was accepted; because expression of regret at sins in one's worldly life is called repentance. Here, mention is not made whether his repentance was accepted or not, and whether he was given back the garden or not. It is quite evident that his repentance was accepted, but he did not get the garden back as is stated in the following verse.

وَلَمْ تَكُنْ لَّهٗ فِئَةٌ يَّنْصُرُوْنَهٗ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَمَا كَانَ مُنْتَصِرًا ﴿۴۳﴾ ؕ

43. And he had no party to help him against Allah, nor was he able to take revenge.[102].

102.This means neither were his supporters and wellwishers able to rebuild the destroyed garden, nor was he able to do this,. because now he did not have the power and strength, physical or material. By taking revenge, signifies ability to set another garden.

هُنَالِكَ الْوَلَايَةُ لِلّٰهِ الْحَقِّ ؕ هُوَ خَيْرٌ ثَوَابًا وَّخَيْرٌ عُقْبًا ﴿۴۴﴾ ع

44. Here it becomes clear that the authority is of Allah, the true. [103]. his reward the best and best is the end of believing in him.

103.By this is meant seeing such incidents makes man perceive Allah Almighty's power through positive knowledge, in fact, through absolute knowledge.

SECTION 6

وَاضْرِبْ لَهُمْ مَّثَلَ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا كَمَآءٍ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ فَاخْتَلَطَ بِهٖ نَبَاتُ الْاَرْضِ فَاَصْبَحَ هَشِيْمًا تَذْرُوْهُ الرِّيٰحُ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّقْتَدِرًا ﴿۴۵﴾

45. And relate to them the example of the life of the world it is a water We sent down [104], from the heaven, then the greenery of the earth because of it came out thickly and then it became dry grass which the wind scatters [105]. And Allah is powerful over everything [106].

104.The world has been compared to heavenly water and not to water of the well, because heavenly water is not within one's control. Also, one has no real information about its coming or not, and that sometimes it falls more than necessary and sometimes less than its need, and sometimes not at all. The very same is the condition of this world. For a most exquisite commentary of this verse consult MAWAIZ-E-NAEEMIYAH. It should be remembered that those worldly activities, which are connected with religion, are no longer just worldly activities anymore. They will not perish, but will become eternal: "And the lasting are the good deeds" (S18:V46). Allah Almighty further says: "And say not of those who are killed in the path of Allah as dead" (S2:V154). However, the world, which is bereft of religion, is going to perish. All types of evil are of this world, which is bereft of religion.

105.This means that due to the present condition of the field its existing greens is not reliable. Who knows when hot air will blow, it leads to destruction. Likewise, the wealth of the world, youth, beauty, strength, etc. is not to be trusted or relied upon. A minor calamity can ruin all these. The only time you can really depend on the lush green fields and pregnant cattle is when they are ready for production.

106.This means Allah Almighty has absolute power to create and destroy everything. The world has been compared to greenery because it becomes fresh and mellow and verdant in everyone's eyes, then it withers completely to such an extent that let alone its fresh greenery, no sign is left that it had ever existed.

46. The wealth and sons are an adornment [107], of the life of this world and the lasting are the good things[108], their reward is better with your Lord and is best in hope.

اَلْمَالُ وَ الْبَنُوْنَ زِيْنَةُ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَالْبٰقِيٰتُ الصّٰلِحٰتُ خَيْرٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَّخَيْرٌ اَمَلًا ﴿٤٦﴾

107.When these can be utilized for worldly purposes, and if both are made as a means of achieving the Hereafter, then these become lasting good deeds. It is reported in a Hadith Shareef that a pious son is a continuous charity, who will continue to benefit the father, even in his grave, until Judgement Day.

108.This means those good deeds which are not wasted and destroyed in this world, but will accompany us in the Hereafter. In these acts of worship, good deeds, charity whose rewards continue to accrue etc., are all included. Some Ulama have said that by this is meant those girls who are given in marriage to those men, through which they are increased in number.

47. And the day We shall cause the mountain[109], to move and you will see the earth clean open [110], and We shall raise them, We shall not leave any one of them [111].

وَ يَوْمَ نُسَيِّرُ الْجِبَالَ وَتَرَى الْاَرْضَ بَارِزَةً ۙ وَّحَشَرْنٰهُمْ فَلَمْ نُغَادِرْ مِنْهُمْ اَحَدًا ۚ ﴿٤٧﴾

109.In that after being uprooted from the earth they would be roaming like clouds. They would fall down in thin particles. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

110.This means no mountain will remain on the earth, nor any caves or trees and no buildings either. The entire earth will become a desolate ground.

111.This means no one will remain in the grave, all would be resurrected - human beings as well as other creations.

48. And all shall be presented before your Lord standing in rows. Undoubtedly you have come to Us same as We have made you at first[112], but you thought that We would never fix any time of the promise.

وَعُرِضُوْا عَلٰى رَبِّكَ صَفًّا ؕ لَقَدْ جِئْتُمُوْنَا كَمَا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ ۚ بَلْ زَعَمْتُمْ

اَلَّنْ نَّجْعَلَ لَكُمْ مَّوْعِدًا ﴿۴۸﴾

112.This means nude bodies and bare legs, and uncircumcised like they were born from their mother's wombs. Criminals and sinners will be raised for punishment; the believers for rewards, the saints and Prophets would be present to testify.

49. And the book shall be put [113], then you will see the culprits fearing for what is written therein and will say, 'Oh! Woe to us, what happened to this writing? It left neither any small sin nor a big sin that has not been encompassed [114], and they found all that they did before them [115]. And your Lord is not unjust to anyone [116].

وَ وُضِعَ الْكِتٰبُ فَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ مُشْفِقِيْنَ مِمَّا فِيْهِ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ يٰوَيْلَتَنَا مَالِ هٰذَا الْكِتٰبِ لَا يُغَادِرُ صَغِيْرَةً وَّ لَا كَبِيْرَةً اِلَّاۤ اَحْصٰىهَا ۚ وَ وَجَدُوْا مَا عَمِلُوْا حَاضِرًا ؕ وَ لَا يَظْلِمُ رَبُّكَ اَحَدًا ﴿۴۹﴾ ع

113.Everyone's book of deeds will be in his hand, that of the believers will be in their right hand and that of the infidels in their left hand.

114.From this, emerge three issues:

1.Every sin of the infidels is recorded, whether major or minor, not only their beliefs of infidelity.

2.Good deeds of the infidels are not recorded because the condition for good deeds is the correction of beliefs which he did not accept, or that his worldly comforts had already become the reward of his good deeds. Says Allah Almighty "And whatever work they had done, We have purposely made them minute particles of dust scattered" (S25:V23).

3.Every infidel is duty bound to Allah Almighty to do good deeds and to refrain from doing sinful deeds, i.e. it is obligatory upon him to accept faith and perform his Salaah. And alcohol is prohibited for him and thus he will be punished for disobeying both these commands, even if religiously he is not duty bound to these conditions. It should be remembered that here 'small' signifies minor sins and 'big' denotes major sins, e.g. kissing and hugging a strange woman would be regarded as a minor sin, but committing adultery with her would be a major sin.

115.From this we learn that no one would be an illiterate on the Day of Judgement, everybody would be able to read and know Arabic, as the writing of the book of deeds would be in Arabic. In fact, soon after death everybody's tongue becomes Arabic because the questions in the grave would be in Arabic and everyone answers in Arabic. On the Day of Judgement everybody would be able to read his or her book of deeds. It should be remembered that, here, the word 'present' denotes the presence of the writing of these deeds. It could also mean that the evil deeds of the infidels would be presented in different frightening forms.

116.In that uncommitted sins might be recorded, or someone may be given more punishment than his crime. In short, full justice would be meted out to the infidels and the believers would be bestowed with the grace and bounty of Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that bounty is not contrary to justice, but injustice is contrary to justice.

وَ اِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اسْجُدُوْا لِاٰدَمَ فَسَجَدُوْٓا اِلَّآ اِبْلِيْسَ ؕ كَانَ مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَفَسَقَ عَنْ اَمْرِ رَبِّهٖ ؕ اَفَتَتَّخِذُوْنَهٗ وَذُرِّيَّتَهٗٓ اَوْلِيَآءَ مِنْ دُوْنِيْ وَهُمْ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ ؕ بِئْسَ لِلظّٰلِمِيْنَ بَدَلًا ﴿۵۰﴾

50. And remember when We ordered angels to postrate [117], before Adam, then all prostrated save Iblees (Devil). He was of the jinn [118], and then he went out [119]. of the command of his Lord. do you take him and his offspring's for friends [120]. apart from Me? And they're your enemies what an evil exchange the unjust got [121].

117.The prostration of respect was for Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), who was made the object of Sajdah. This does not mean prostration would be for worship and the object of prostration would be Allah Almighty. Thus, Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) is the person for whom this Sajdah was made, but the actual object of worship is Allah Almighty.

118.Because Iblees was dwelling with the angels, he was included in this order. It should be remembered that he is the remote ancestor of the jinns, just as Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) is of man. His first name was Azazeel, but after he had gone astray, his title became Iblees, the deceiver.

119.From this we learn that at first, Shaitaan was an obedient servant of Allah Almighty, now he has become disobedient.

120.This tells us that friends other than Allah Almighty are Shaitaan and his progeny, while the pious are true friends of Allah Almighty. The friends of Allah Almighty are totally different to friends not linked to Allah Almighty. Whenever mention is made of those not linked to Allah Almighty, it signifies Shaitaan and his progeny. Says Allah Almighty: "They are supporters of the devil" (S2:V247). This verse is a commentary of all those verses in which prohibition is made to accept such supporters of the devil.

121.This means, at first, Paradise was your home. I then expelled your enemy, the devil, out of your home for your sake. Thus, your heart is the house of Allah Almighty. So why don't you expel Shaitaan from My house! Shaitaan became my enemy because of you and now you have made him your friend.

مَآ اَشْهَدْتُّهُمْ خَلْقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَ لَا خَلْقَ اَنْفُسِهِمْ ۪ وَ مَا كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذَ الْمُضِلِّيْنَ عَضُدًا ﴿۵۱﴾

51. I had neither made them sit before Me while heavens and earth, nor while creating [122], themselves, and nor it is benefiting to My dignity that I should make My supporters to those who lead astray to others [123].

122.This means We had not called the devil and his progeny at the time of the creation of the heavens, the earth and of man. So, in what way have they become my associates?

123.From this, emerge two issues:

1.Allah Almighty has not made anyone His associate due to any weakness on His part. He is free of such limitations. He Himself says: "Who has not taken Him as a son and no one is a partner in His kingdom" (S17:V111).

2.Allah Almighty has placed the control of worldly things in the hands of His beloved servants in order to show how beloved they are to Him; like the angels, the Prophets and Saints are made to manage the affairs. But no creational affairs are assigned to His wretched and cursed servants. Therefore "to those who lead astray" is mentioned here.

52. And the day when He will say, 'call My associates whom you fancied[124], then they will call them, they will not answer [125], them, and We shall set a field of destruction between them[126].

124.This means call upon your false gods to come to your assistance. This would be done to expose how powerless and helpless they are.
125.This means they would not be able to help them. Otherwise, verbally they would be replying to tell them that you yourselves had gone astray, and it was not us who did this to you, as is described in other verses.
126.Mobiq - a field of destruction, is either one of the layers of Hell, or it could mean a place of utter destruction.

وَ رَاَ الْمُجْرِمُوْنَ النَّارَ فَظَنُّوْٓا اَنَّهُمْ مُّوَاقِعُوْهَا وَلَمْ يَجِدُوْا عَنْهَا مَصْرِفًا ﴿۵۳﴾ ع

وَ لَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِيْ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنِ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ ؕ وَكَانَ الْاِنْسَانُ اَكْثَرَ شَيْءٍ جَدَلًا ﴿۵۴﴾

54. And undoubtedly we have explained in varied [128], manner all kinds of examples in this QUR'AAN for the people, and the man is over everything most contentious.[129].

128. Because the temperaments and habits of people are different, some accept things through proofs, some out of fear and others out of greed. Yet, the Holy QUR'AAN has come for everybody, and as such, it contains information on everything.
129.Here, the word 'man' refers to Nadar bin Harith who remained stubborn till the very end and failed to accept faith.

وَ مَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ اَنْ يُّؤْمِنُوْٓا اِذْ جَآءَهُمُ الْهُدٰى وَ يَسْتَغْفِرُوْا رَبَّهُمْ اِلَّآ اَنْ تَاْتِيَهُمْ سُنَّةُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ اَوْ يَاْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ قُبُلًا ﴿۵۵﴾

55. And what hindered men from believing when guidance came to them and from asking forgiveness [130], from their Lord, but that the traditions of the ancients should come to them or that the varied torments should come upon them. [131].

130.Here, 'guidance' either refers to the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or the Glorious QUR'AAN. Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Final Guide and the greatest Guide, therefore he is presented here as an absolute guide. What it means is after the coming of such complete guidance, the rejection of faith by these stubborn people is indeed a prelude of the coming of severe Divine punishment. Those who do not receive guidance from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will not receive.

guidance from any other source.
131.This tells us that he who fails to accept, through proofs and explanations, is inviting trouble. The only cure for stubbornness is Divine punishment.

وَ مَا نُرْسِلُ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ اِلَّا مُبَشِّرِيْنَ وَمُنْذِرِيْنَ ۚ وَ يُجَادِلُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِالْبَاطِلِ لِيُدْحِضُوْا بِهِ الْحَقَّ وَ اتَّخَذُوْٓا اٰيٰتِيْ وَ مَآ اُنْذِرُوْا هُزُوًا ﴿٥٦﴾

56. And we send not the messenger but as bearers of glad tidings and warners [132], and those who are infidels contend [133], with falsehood that they may subvert [134], the truth where with, and they took My signs and what they were warned of, as a joke.

132.In this verse Allah Almighty has revealed the independence of His Prophets, that they have been given the responsibility of giving glad tidings and giving warnings. They are not duty bound for your guidance. Thus, if the entire world were to go astray, it would do no harm to them in any way. Yet, not accepting guidance would bring about their own destruction. These great sages are the reflection of Allah Almighty's grandeur.
133.Because they were taking the Prophets to be ordinary human beings like them and claiming equality with them. They entered into debates with them.
134.This means they are trying to extinguish the light of the sun through their puny puffs of breaths.

وَ مَنْ اَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّهٖ فَاَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا وَ نَسِيَ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدٰهُ ؕ اِنَّا جَعَلْنَا عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ اَكِنَّةً اَنْ يَّفْقَهُوْهُ وَ فِيْٓ اٰذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا ؕ وَاِنْ تَدْعُهُمْ اِلَى الْهُدٰى فَلَنْ يَّهْتَدُوْٓا اِذًا اَبَدًا ﴿٥٧﴾

57. And who is more unjust that he who when he is reminded of the signs of his Lord turns away his face from them and forgets what his hands have sent forward [135]. We have put covers [136]. on their hearts that they may not understand Quran and in their ears a heaviness. [137]. and if you call them towards guidance they will never find the way. [138]

135.This tells us that to forget the previous sins is the way of the cursed wretches, while remembrance of the sins and forgetting the good deeds, is the way of the pious. Always remember your sins and the good deeds of others.
136.The linking of these covers, etc. towards Allah Almighty is the own doing of the human beings i.e. due to their stubborn nature and hostility, Allah Almighty has placed coverings on their hearts and heavy weights on their ears, just as it can be said Allah Almighty caused the deceased to die i.e. He created death.
137.This is so because they do not have your dignity and respect in their hearts. The Holy QUR'AAN only reaches those hearts in which love for the Beloved Possessor of the Holy QUR'AAN has been inculcated. It is for this reason that an infidel is made a Muslim through; first, reciting Kalimah Tayyibah, thereafter the Holy QUR'AAN is taught to him. Thus, from this verse it does not necessarily mean that those infidels would be innocent.

Marfat.com

From this we learn that faithless people do not obtain true understanding of the Holy QUR'AAN, as can be seen today.

138. From this are meant those infidels whose death on infidelity is within the knowledge of Allah Almighty and not to all the infidels in general, because many of them accepted Islam.

58. And your Lord is the Forgiver full of mercy. If He would have seized them for what they did then he would have hastened torment [139]. for them. But for them there is an appointed time [140]. against which they will not find any refuge.

وَرَبُّكَ الْغَفُوْرُ ذُو الرَّحْمَةِ ؕ لَوْ يُؤَاخِذُهُمْ بِمَا كَسَبُوْا لَعَجَّلَ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابَ ؕ بَلْ لَّهُمْ مَّوْعِدٌ لَّنْ يَّجِدُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ مَوْئِلًا ﴿۵۸﴾

139.Allah Almighty says if He were quick to pounce for every sin committed, then by now Divine punishment would have descended upon them already. By Allah Almighty there is no haste as only that judge is hasty who fears the disappearance of the criminal. But, where will the sinner of Allah Almighty run? He is at all times under His total control. Allah be Praised! A true king is he, from whom no one is beyond control.

140.That is Judgement Day, or day of death, or the day appointed for his burial, or the day on which he suffers complete annihilation at the hands of the believers.

59. And those towns: we have destroyed were destroyed when they committed injustices, and We had appointed a fixed time for their destruction.[141].

وَتِلْكَ الْقُرٰى اَهْلَكْنٰهُمْ لَمَّا ظَلَمُوْا وَ جَعَلْنَا لِمَهْلِكِهِمْ مَّوْعِدًا ﴿۵۹﴾ ع

141.This means even the previous infidels, too, were not subjected to hasty punishment instead, their day of destruction was appointed and they were destroyed on that day.

SECTION 9

60 And recall; when Musa [142], said to his servant, [143]' I shall not desist until I reach there where two [144], seas have joined, or I go on for ages.[145].

وَ اِذْ قَالَ مُوْسٰى لِفَتٰىهُ لَاۤ اَبْرَحُ حَتّٰۤى اَبْلُغَ مَجْمَعَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ اَوْ اَمْضِىَ حُقُبًا ﴿۶۰﴾

142. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) delivered an excellent lecture to a group of Israelites. After the lecture, someone asked whether there is any greater Alim or scholar than him? The reply was in the negative. To this, Allah Almighty said that Oh Musa, Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) is greater and more knowledgeable than you. He (Musa), then, asked Allah Almighty for his whereabouts. He was told to find him at a place where two seas have joined. As a sign of identification of that place, Allah Almighty said that there the fried fish would come to life and go back into the sea, there would be an underground passage made in the water. At such a place Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) would be found. Taking the fish, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) set out for this place accompanied by Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace). This incident is described here.

143.That servant was Hazrat Yusha ibn Nun ibn Ifrasheem ibn Yusuf (On whom be peace). He was also his nephew, his worthy successor and his able student. From this we understand that a student is a servant of the teacher.

144.This refers to the Persian Sea and the Mediterranean Sea, which was an appointed place for the meeting between Hazrat Musa and Hazrat Khizr (On them be peace). Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) made a firm intention of going there.

145.From this incident, many issues are ascertained:

1.To undertake a journey for the sake of seeking knowledge is the way of life of the Prophets.

2.To undertake a journey to meet your teacher.

3.It is Sunnah to go to him instead of calling him to your home.

4.It is a blessed act to desire for an increase in one's knowledge.

5.It is a good thing to provide provisions for the journey.

6.To take a suitable companion for the journey.

7.Respect for the teacher is absolutely necessary.

8.One should not raise an objection at what is being said by the teacher.

9.If saints sometimes do anything that may seem contrary to the laws of Shariah, it is based on reasons unknown to us. In reality, that work is not against the laws of Shariah at all, and as such one should not be hasty in becoming suspicious or distrustful of them. However, this can be said about the deeds of perfect religious guides only.

10.Knowledge is not gained from books only; it can be gained from the company of the teacher as well. The company of the pious has alchemic power. If a touch of the experienced artisan can change the value of a common thing to one of greatness, then how much will a common man not gain through the company of a saintly person?

61. Then when they both reached the meeting place of two seas they forgot their fish! [146]. and it found its way in the sea making an underground passage. [147].

فَلَمَّا بَلَغَا مَجْمَعَ بَيْنِهِمَا نَسِيَا حُوْتَهُمَا فَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيْلَهٗ فِي الْبَحْرِ سَرَبًا ﴿٦١﴾

146.There was a large block of stones below, which was the fountain of the water of immortality. Both of them rested there. When the fried fish, which they had brought with them, came into contact with this water, it became alive and swam into the water and became a niche or an arch therein. Hazrat Yusha (On whom be peace) was awake, but he forgot to mention this to him. Both men then moved on from this place.

147.This was either due to the miracles of the Prophet or due to the miraculous effect of this blessed water that Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) was frequenting it. The air of the land in which pious servants of Allah Almighty dwell has the effect of granting life to the people. Hence, every grain of Madina Munawwarah, too, can have the curative effect for all our physical illnesses.

62. Then when they had passed over from there. Musa told his servants, bring my breakfast, we have hard-ship in this journey. [148].

فَلَمَّا جَاوَزَا قَالَ لِفَتٰىهُ اٰتِنَا غَدَآءَنَا لَقَدْ لَقِيْنَا مِنْ سَفَرِنَا هٰذَا نَصَبًا ﴿٦٢﴾

148.When Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had left the place where two seas have joined, he began to feel pain. This tells us that a student regards it as a Sunnah to bear pain.

Marfat.com

قَالَ اَرَءَيْتَ اِذْ اَوَيْنَآ اِلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَاِنِّيْ نَسِيْتُ الْحُوْتَ ز وَمَآ اَنْسٰنِيْهُ اِلَّا الشَّيْطٰنُ اَنْ اَذْكُرَهٗ ج وَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيْلَهٗ فِي الْبَحْرِ ط عَجَبًا ﴿٦٣﴾

63. He said, please see, when we took rest that rock, then undoubtedly I forgot the fish, and the Satan (devil) made me forget [149] so that I may mention it and it took its way in the sea, it is strange.

149.This tells us that Shaitaan can never mislead a Prophet of Allah Almighty, nor can he tempt them to commit a sin. However, he can cause them to do certain things in a forgetful way.

قَالَ ذٰلِكَ مَا كُنَّا نَبْغِ ط فَارْتَدَّا عَلٰٓى اٰثَارِهِمَا قَصَصًا ﴿٦٤﴾ لا

64. Musa said, ' that is what we wanted;[150], then turned back retracing their footsteps.

150.Because the very purpose of the disappearance of this fried fish is the sign of reaching our place of destination. This is exactly what Allah Almighty had said.

فَوَجَدَا عَبْدًا مِّنْ عِبَادِنَآ اٰتَيْنٰهُ رَحْمَةً مِّنْ عِنْدِنَا وَعَلَّمْنٰهُ مِنْ لَّدُنَّا عِلْمًا ﴿٦٥﴾

65 Then they found a bondsman [151], from Our bondsmen, whom We gave mercy from Ourselves and bestowed him Our inspired knowledge. [152].

151.This refers to Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) whose actual name is Balyaan ibn Malkan ibn Falikh ibn Amir ibn Shalikh ibn Araf Khashad ibn Saam ibn Nuh (On whom be peace). His appellation is Abul Abbas and his title is Shareef Khazir, having Zabar on the letter Kha and the Zer on letter Dwad. He is among those four Prophets who would be alive until the Day of Judgement two upon the earth i.e. Hazrat Khizr and Hazrat Ilyas (On whom be peace), and in the heaven Hazrat Idris and Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani). The reason for calling him Khizr is, if he were to sit on a dry ground,greenery would begin to grow there. In addition, there are other traditions mentioned about him as well.
152.This means without being tutored by anyone they are born Aalims and most Prophets possess inspired knowledge (Ilm e Laduni); Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) too, was provided with this knowledge.

قَالَ لَهٗ مُوْسٰى هَلْ اَتَّبِعُكَ عَلٰٓى اَنْ تُعَلِّمَنِ مِمَّا عُلِّمْتَ رُشْدًا ﴿٦٦﴾

66. Musa said to him. ' should I remain with you on the condition that you will teach me of the right things which you have been taught. [153].

153.From this, emerge a few issues:
1.The staying of the student with the teacher.
2.For the student to serve his teacher.
3.The respect of the teacher by the student.
4.For the Prophet to follow someone in order to gain mystical knowledge.

Marfat.com

67. He said. ' you can never stay with me.' [154].

قَالَ اِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيْعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٦٧﴾

154.From this we learn that Allah Almighty had bestowed knowledge of the Unseen upon Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). It is because of having this knowledge that he was able to tell Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) that he would not be able to exercise patience, which is exactly what transpired. Whatever he said was not based on assumption or conjecture, but on positive knowledge.

68. And how you will keep patience over that which your knowledge encompasses not? [155]

وَكَيْفَ تَصْبِرُ عَلٰى مَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهٖ خُبْرًا ﴿٦٨﴾

155. This tells us Shariah is a name given to outward knowledge while Tareeqat is based on hidden knowledge and mystic secrets. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was the Imam of Shariah, but Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) was the expert of Tareeqat. Therefore, the works, which Hazrat Khizr did, outwardly seemed to be against Shariah.

69 Musa said. ' soon if Allah wills, you will find me patient, [156]. and I shall not disobey you in any affair. [157].

قَالَ سَتَجِدُنِيْٓ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ صَابِرًا وَّ لَآ اَعْصِيْ لَكَ اَمْرًا ﴿٦٩﴾

156.This means, I will exercise full control over myself. This statement of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was not based on his specialized knowledge, but on assumption and conjecture. For this reason he had said "If Allah wills" while this was not said by Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). Also Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) stated that he would find him among those who are patient and not that he would exercise patience.

157.This means whatever command you give me I will act upon it. From this we learn that the teacher is the higher authority, while the pupil is subservient to him.

70. He said. ' if you remain with me, then ask, [158], not anything, unless I myself mention it. [159].

قَالَ فَاِنِ اتَّبَعْتَنِيْ فَلَا تَسْـَٔلْنِيْ عَنْ شَيْءٍ حَتّٰٓى اُحْدِثَ لَكَ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿٧٠﴾ ع ١١ ٢١

158.From this we learn that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is the Prophet of Israelites, and his religious laws were not binding on Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). If this incident had transpired during the time of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , then Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) would have been duty bound to him.

159.From this, emerge two issues:

1.The knowledge which, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) desired to obtain from Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) was not of Shariah, but it was Mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty. If it is was knowledge of Shariah, then that would have been revealed to him by Allah Almighty through Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) without sending him to Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). Also, Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) would have instructed him through symbolism not through verbal statements and passages, as is the practice of the Ulama.

2.The mystical knowledge is not taught verbally but through companionship and visual communication. "It is ordered from Madina and concealed in the hearts. The drink of Tauheed is not given from the cups but instilled through visual contact".

فَانْطَلَقَا ۫ حَتّٰۤى اِذَا رَكِبَا فِى السَّفِيْنَةِ خَرَقَهَا ؕ قَالَ اَخَرَقْتَهَا لِتُغْرِقَ اَهْلَهَا ۚ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْـًٔا اِمْرًا ﴿۷۱﴾

SECTION 10

71. Now both of them set out, until when they embarked in a boat, [160], he cleaved it. Musa told . ' have you cleaved it in order to drown [161], he cleaved it in order to drown its passengers, undoubtedly you have done a wrong thing.' [162].

160.The inmates of the ship recognizing Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) boarded it without paying the ticket. It should be remembered that Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) did not board the ship due to any necessity or want, but it was due to prudence and expedience, which is mentioned ahead. Otherwise, Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) is certainly protected from drowning.

161.Because he had broken that portion of the ship which is always in the water. Thus, water did not get into the ship. From this we learn that through the blessings of the miracles of the pious, ships that had sunk begin to float. Had Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) broken the upper part of the ship, then Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) would not have said that he would drown the passengers.

162.This means I am certain that you would not drown if the ship were to be broken, but the other passengers on board would drown, and it is not a good act to drown innocent passengers. Therefore, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had not uttered that you would be drowned but that you would make the passengers on board the ship to drown.

قَالَ اَلَمْ اَقُلْ اِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيْعَ مَعِىَ صَبْرًا ﴿۷۲﴾

72. He said , ' did I not tell you, that you would not be able to stay with me.'

قَالَ لَا تُؤَاخِذْنِىْ بِمَا نَسِيْتُ وَ لَا تُرْهِقْنِىْ مِنْ اَمْرِىْ عُسْرًا ﴿۷۳﴾

73. Musa said,' catch me not [163]. for what I forgot and put not difficulty in my affair on me.'

163.I did not remember the oath you had taken from me, nor the promise I had made to you. In Shariah, there is no sin for doing anything inadvertently. Therefore, you, too, should overlook my error.

Furthermore, the religious guides should not become over zealous in making mureeds disciples in a hurry, but should always put a sincere Mureed to a test (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

فَانْطَلَقَا ۫ حَتّٰۤى اِذَا لَقِيَا غُلٰمًا فَقَتَلَهٗ ۙ قَالَ اَقَتَلْتَ نَفْسًا زَكِيَّةًۢ بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ ؕ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْـًٔا نُّكْرًا ﴿۷۴﴾

74. Again both of them set out until when they met a boy [164], he killed him, Musa said, ' have you killed an innocent soul without his having killed another? [165]? Undoubtedly you have done a hideous thing'[166].

164. The name of the one who was handsome and of big built was Jaseewar and was playing with children. Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) took him behind the wall and severed his neck from the body.

165.This means innocent, because he was still a minor, and not duty bound to laws of Shariah. By saying "without his having killed another" suggests that if a mature and sensible boy were to kill any believer intentionally, blood money would be taken from him.

75. He said, ' Had I not told you, [167], that you could never keep company with me'? [168]?

قَالَ اَلَمْ اَقُلْ لَّكَ اِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيْعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٥﴾

167.Here, the word 'for you' is used which is not the case in the earlier instance, so that, it should convey the meaning that, here, the expression of anger is greater.

168. From this full incident one understands that a law giving Prophet can become subservient to another Prophet. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is a Prophet to whom a Book was given; yet he went to Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) to be under his guidance. Thus, when Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) comes back to earth just before Qiyamah and leads the life in accordance with the religious laws (Shariah) of the Holy Prophet 76. Musa said, 'if I ask anything of you after this, then keep not my company [169], with me; undoubtedly, your excuse is already fulfilled from my side [170'].

قَالَ اِنْ سَاَلْتُكَ عَنْ شَيْءٍ بَعْدَهَا فَلَا تُصٰحِبْنِيْ ۚ قَدْ بَلَغْتَ مِنْ لَّدُنِّيْ عُذْرًا ﴿٧٦﴾

169.Do this by separating me from your company. This does not mean that you yourself choose to remain aloof from me, because this would be against the practice of respect.

77. Again both went on till they came to the people of a village [171], they asked the villagers for food [172], out they refused [173], to entertain them, then the two found a wall about to fall, he set it up

فَانْطَلَقَا ۫ حَتّٰٓى اِذَآ اَتَيَآ اَهْلَ قَرْيَةِ ِۨ اسْتَطْعَمَآ اَهْلَهَا فَاَبَوْا اَنْ يُّضَيِّفُوْهُمَا فَوَجَدَا فِيْهَا جِدَارًا يُّرِيْدُ اَنْ يَّنْقَضَّ فَاَقَامَهٗ ۭ قَالَ لَوْ شِئْتَ لَتَّخَذْتَ عَلَيْهِ

Otherwise, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) would not have said the above words after the word 'innocent'.

166.By first he had said "you have done a wrong thing" but here he says "hideous thing" because a broken ship could be repaired, but a dead person cannot be made alive. Thus, this action was more severe than the first act.

it would not be out of place. صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم The Qadyanis cannot say that one Prophet cannot follow another Prophet. Although Christianity, presently, is abrogated, Mosaic religion at that time was not, and despite this, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) still became the follower of Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). Although Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet, his prophethood had not manifested itself there. Likewise, before Qiyamah the prophethood of Hazrat Isa would not manifest itself at that time, and this great Prophet would live life as a follower of our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

170.This means you would be excused for separating me from you because of three errors committed by me. No objection of breach of promise can be raised against you.

Marfat.com

right [174]. Musa said, 'if you had wished, you could have taken a wage for it [175]'.

171.That place was called Intakia, which at that time was a large city. From this we learn that in Arabic language even cities, too, are referred to as QARYA. Furthermore, hospitality is not dependent on knowing the guest. Whoever comes to meet us is our guest and as such he has certain rights and privileges.

172.This refers to the rights of a guest, and not that question which is against the status of Prophets. It is for this reason that "refused to entertain them" is used here. From this we learn that a guest can demand his rights of hospitality.

173.Tafseer Roohul Bayaan on the authority of Tafseer Kabir states on revelation of this verse that the people of Intakia brought a large amount of gold before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and requested that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should change the letter BA of ABWA to letter TA so that the meaning would then become the people

78. He said, 'this is the separation [176], between me and you'; now I shall tell you the explanation [177]. of those things over which you could not have patience [178].

176.It means this is the time for separation. Your objection has become the cause of our separation. From this we learn that the religious guide and the teacher should overlook one or two mistakes of their mureeds (disciples) and students respectively. They should not be separated at their first mistake.

177.It means I will make you aware of the secret and wisdom behind these deeds so that you would be able to go away fully satisfied.

79. As for the boat, it belonged to certain poor people [179], who were working in the sea, then I intended to make it faulty [180]. and behind them there was a king who used to seize every perfect boat forcibly [181].

أَجْرًا ﴿٧٧﴾

of Intakia had carried out their hospitality and thus we would not be put to disrepute and become an object of disgrace. This request was turned down by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saying that it would result in distortion of Allah Almighty's words i.e. the Holy QUR'AAN.

174.That wall was hundred feet high, which Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) miraculously straightened just by pointing his hand towards it, as this wall had bent and was on the verge of falling. Therefore, Allah Almighty used the singular verb "He set it up". If both of them had repaired it through the use of bricks, then the dual form of the verb AQAMA would have been used.

175.Because one should not show kindness to those who are ungrateful. As we are hungry, money obtained for our labour would have been useful to us.

قَالَ هٰذَا فِرَاقُ بَيْنِيْ وَ بَيْنِكَ ۚ سَاُنَبِّئُكَ بِتَاْوِيْلِ مَا لَمْ تَسْتَطِعْ عَّلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٨﴾

178. It should be remembered that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had shown further desire to be under the tutelage of Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace), but did not put this into practice. Neither did he act upon this knowledge thereafter. The purpose of all this was that Allah Almighty wanted to show Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) that there are people who possess greater knowledge than him.

اَمَّا السَّفِيْنَةُ فَكَانَتْ لِمَسٰكِيْنَ يَعْمَلُوْنَ فِي الْبَحْرِ فَاَرَدْتُّ اَنْ اَعِيْبَهَا وَكَانَ وَرَآءَهُمْ مَّلِكٌ يَّاْخُذُ كُلَّ سَفِيْنَةٍ غَصْبًا ﴿٧٩﴾

179.In which they were working as labourers and not as its owners, because a destitute is he who does not own anything. Or, they have been called indigent out of compassion. Thus, the words "working in the sea" are used in the latter part of the passage. In short, this verse is not against Imam Abu Hanifa (On whom be peace)

180.This tells us that defectiveness should not be linked with Allah Almighty. Therefore, Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) linked it with him and said, "I had wished". Otherwise, everything he did was in accordance with the wishes of Allah Almighty.

181.So that he would allow defective ships to pass by. Thus, he made the ship defective so that these poor people on board would be safe and after going through , these people would repair it. From this we understand that for the purpose of correction it is permissible to use things of another person without seeking his permission. If there is a fire in anyone's house, it is permissible to destroy a certain portion of his house; which may become a danger to others; without seeking permission of the owner. In fact, doing this would be a commendable act. The name of that king was Jalandi bin Karkar who was the king of Qurtaba, in Spain. The labourers on the ship were unaware of his intentions. This tells us that for the king to seize any possession of the subject by force is included in usurpation. This is a prohibited act. Payments of penalty are prohibited, and auctioning and purchasing of these things, too, is prohibited. This is a sale by a person who is not its owner.

80. And as for the boy, his parents were Muslims, then we feared that he might involve them in contumacy and infidelity [182].

وَ اَمَّا الْغُلٰمُ فَكَانَ اَبَوٰهُ مُؤْمِنَيْنِ
فَخَشِيْنَآ اَنْ يُّرْهِقَهُمَا طُغْيَانًا وَّ كُفْرًا ﴿٨٠﴾

182.From this we learn that some Saints of Allah Almighty do have the knowledge of people's end, as well as about their good fortune and misfortune, because Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) had prior knowledge about the misfortune of this boy. Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) says: "And they will beget none but an evil doer, an ungrateful" (S71:V27).

81. Then he intended [183], their Lord might give them one better than he in purity and nearer in affection [184].

فَاَرَدْنَآ اَنْ يُّبْدِلَهُمَا رَبُّهُمَا خَيْرًا مِّنْهُ
زَكٰوةً وَّاَقْرَبَ رُحْمًا ﴿٨١﴾

183.This tells us that just one singular case can be used to denote Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because in the word "Then we intended" the plural form signifies Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) as well as Allah Almighty.

184.Thus, Allah Almighty blessed these parents with one pious daughter who was married to a Prophet and in whose progeny there were seventy prophets (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani). Jaisoor's father's name was Zubair and mother's name Sahawi. It should be remembered that killing of a Saint or a scholar on the basis of fear of infidelity is not allowed now. This was from the distinctive features of Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace).

82. As for that wall, it belonged to the two orphan [185], lads of the city and underneath it was their treasure and their father was a noble [186], man; then your Lord desired [187], that those two should reach to their maturity [188], and bring forth their treasure as a mercy [189], from your Lord, and this I did, not for my own biding [190]. This the significance of those things on which you could not have patience[191].

وَ اَمَّا الْجِدَارُ فَكَانَ لِغُلٰمَيْنِ يَتِيْمَيْنِ

وَكَانَ اَبُوْهُمَا صَالِحًا ۚ فَاَرَادَ رَبُّكَ اَنْ يَّبْلُغَآ اَشُدَّهُمَا وَ يَسْتَخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا ۖ رَحْمَةً مِّنْ رَّبِّكَ ۚ وَمَا فَعَلْتُهٗ عَنْ اَمْرِىْ ۭ ذٰلِكَ تَاْوِيْلُ مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَّلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ۝۸۲

185. Their names were Ihraam and Hareem. The name of their father was Kasteh who was a pious person and a globetrotter. Gold and silver were buried under this wall and these boys were heirs to this treasure.

186. This tells us a father's piety can come to the rescue of the son and it is a proof for mediation and intercession. Therefore, since Prophets are like fathers to their followers, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم pious deeds would come to the rescue of sinners like us. Says Allah Almighty: "And those in whose wealth there is a known right. For one who asks for, and for one who could not even ask for and remains deprived" (S70: Vs24-25). Hence, we also have the right in the good deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Remember, that he was the father of these two boys as stated in the book SAWWAIQE MUHARRIQAH. It is stated in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan that the pigeons of the Sacred Haram are all descendents of that female pigeon which had laid the eggs at the Cave of Thaur during the night of Hijrah. If Allah Almighty has given so much honour to these pigeons through the blessings of this one female bird, then imagine the honour and dignity of the children (descendants) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم until the Day of Judgement.

187. This tells us that if the Orchard of Khyber was the hereditary property of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and rightful claim of Bibi Faatimah (May Allah be pleased with her), then Allah Almighty would most certainly have bestowed ownership of it to her. No one would have taken it away from her. If He had sent Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) to protect the estate of his pious father, and saved it through the building of a wall over it, then it is impossible that He would have wasted the inheritance of Bibi Faatimah (May Allah be pleased with her). This tells us that the Orchard of Khyber was in reality not the property of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, but rather a public property.

188. From this we learn that only minor children are regarded as orphans. A child who has reached the age of majority will not be regarded as an orphan.

189. The protection of the property of these boys is the mercy of Allah Almighty upon them. Through the medium of their father, He had sent a Prophet to repair their broken wall. Allah Almighty be praised! Mediation and intercession is a thing of great excellence.

190. In fact, he did this through the inspiration and revelation of Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that there is a difference of opinion about the prophethood of Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace). But the truth of the matter is that he is a prophet because it seems a bit far-fetched that Allah Almighty would have placed Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), a Prophet, under the tutelage of a saint. Those who regard a saint as superior to a Prophet on the basis of this verse, are infidels (Tafseer Madarik). Hazrat Khizr and Hazrat Ilyas (On whom be peace) are both alive. (Tafseer Khazain)?

191. Saying this, Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) parted from Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) with the following advice. You should become the benefactor of humanity and not cause any harm to them, always be of jovial countenance, without being sulky, do not flatter the people; do not go anywhere without a valid reason; do not laugh excessively; do not let any sinner feel ashamed after he has repented; always shed tears at your faults, do not procrastinate; always be mindful of the Hereafter (Roohul Mu'ani).

SECTION 11

83. And they ask [192], you about Zulqarnain, say, you, 'I recite to you an account of him'. [193].

وَ يَسْـَٔلُوْنَكَ عَنْ ذِى الْقَرْنَيْنِ ؕ قُلْ سَاَتْلُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ مِّنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿۸۳﴾

192. The Jews had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a matter of test, to inform them that, which is that king who had travelled from East to West. In response to it, this verse was revealed.

193. The name of Zul-Qarnain was Iskinder bin Failqoos. He was a Greek. He became king of the world. Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) is a cousin as well as his minister. Some Ulama have accepted him as a prophet.

In total, four kings had been given the kingship of the world. Two were believers. Hazrat Sulaiman and Iskinder Zul-Qarnain, two were infidels: Bakht Nasir and Namrood. Zul-Qarnain had lived to an age of sixteen hundred years. He died in a village called Zoor, near Jerusalem. He is called Zul-Qarnain because he had travelled to both rays of the sun, i.e. East and West.

84. Undoubtedly, We gave him a control in the earth and bestowed him a means of everything [194].

اِنَّا مَكَّنَّا لَهٗ فِى الْاَرْضِ وَاٰتَيْنٰهُ مِنْ كُلِّ شَىْءٍ سَبَبًا ﴿۸۴﴾

194. We had granted him all the necessities required for a kingdom.

85. Then he followed a way [195].

فَاَتْبَعَ سَبَبًا ﴿۸۵﴾

195. This means he had departed for a specific purpose. Here, the word "course" denotes journey, while provisions signify a special purpose for the journey. Or "course" could mean path/route.

86. Till when he reached the place of sun setting [196], he found it setting in a spring of black mud [197], and he found a people there. We said, 'O Zulqarnain, either you punish [198]. them or do good to them'.

حَتّٰٓى اِذَا بَلَغَ مَغْرِبَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَغْرُبُ فِىْ عَيْنٍ حَمِئَةٍ وَّوَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا قَوْمًا ؕ قُلْنَا يٰذَا الْقَرْنَيْنِ اِمَّآ اَنْ تُعَذِّبَ وَ اِمَّآ اَنْ تَتَّخِذَ فِيْهِمْ حُسْنًا ﴿۸۶﴾

196. This means the place where population in the West comes to an end, beyond which there was no possibility of population, as there was only quagmire and bergs of ice. Here, this verse does not contradict science. Heavens and the earth are spherical. The sun, in reality, does not set at any given time. But, it rather disappears from our sight.

197. This means that from what was perceived one could gather that the cold in the West was so intense that it changed the water into icebergs. Here, day and night is for the duration of a year. At the time of sunset it seems as if it is setting in this iceberg, just as the traveller at sea perceives the sun setting in the water.

Marfat.com

198. This tells us that some servants are granted power and authority by Allah Almighty to punish those who they desire and pardon

87. He submitted, as one who did injustice, we shall punish [199], him soon, then he will be returned towards your Lord, he will strike him with an evil [200].

قَالَ اَمَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ فَسَوْفَ نُعَذِّبُهٗ ثُمَّ يُرَدُّ اِلٰى رَبِّهٖ فَيُعَذِّبُهٗ عَذَابًا نُّكْرًا ﴿۸۷﴾

199. This means those who would remain in infidelity, and will not accept faith, despite our propagation, we would cause them to die.

200. From this we understand that the punishment, which the infidel and an apostate receive in this world, will not be counted in the punishment of the Hereafter. Its eternal punishment is totally different.

88. And one who believed and did good deeds then the recompense for him is the good; and soon We shall speak to him easy affairs.[201].

وَ اَمَّا مَنْ اٰمَنَ وَ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَهٗ جَزَآءَ ۨ الْحُسْنٰى ۚ وَ سَنَقُوْلُ لَهٗ مِنْ اَمْرِنَا يُسْرًا ﴿۸۸﴾

201. By this means we would put them to lighter labour and give them greater pay. This means a believer is entitled to every type of leniency.

89. Again he followed a way. [202]

ثُمَّ اَتْبَعَ سَبَبًا ﴿۸۹﴾

202. This means returned from here and travelled to the East, either to capture those countries or in search of the Fountain of Elixir. In fact, traditions have it that he did not obtain the Fountain of Elixir, but Hazrat Khizr (On whom be peace) did. Some are of the opinion that although Zul-Qarnain, too, had come to that region, but due to Divine wisdom he did not find it (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

90. Until, when he reached the place of sun-rising [203]. he found it rising on a people for whom We had Not put any shelter against the sun.[204]

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا بَلَغَ مَطْلِعَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَطْلُعُ عَلٰى قَوْمٍ لَّمْ نَجْعَلْ لَّهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهَا سِتْرًا ۙ﴿۹۰﴾

203. This means towards the East there is that place where human population had ceased, though there too, the earth is spherical, and everywhere there is sunshine.

204. This means there was no trace of any tree or sign of any building. Neither did these people have any cloth to cover their bodies. The earth there was so soft that nothing could be built on it. These people would hide in a cave after sunrise and after sunset would come out to do their work. They were surviving on fish only.

91. So is the talk. And whatever he had, Our knowledge encompasses all.[205].

كَذٰلِكَ ؕ وَ قَدْ اَحَطْنَا بِمَا لَدَيْهِ خُبْرًا ﴿۹۱﴾

205. This means Zul-Qarnain had so much military equipment, such a massive army, so much material for his kingdom, or was such an accomplished ruler that only We (Allah Almighty) knew of it, and which is far beyond our perception.

Marfat.com

92 Again he followed a way[206].

ثُمَّ اَتۡبَعَ سَبَبًا ﴿۹۲﴾

206. It means the path between East and West - i.e. he left towards the North.

93. Until when he reached[207], between two mountains, he found inside them some such people who deemed not to understand any word. [208].

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا بَلَغَ بَيۡنَ السَّدَّيۡنِ وَجَدَ مِنۡ دُوۡنِهِمَا قَوۡمًا ۙ لَّا يَكَادُوۡنَ يَفۡقَهُوۡنَ قَوۡلًا ﴿۹۳﴾

207. While moving in a northerly direction, wherever population was coming to an end there he saw two magnificent mountains on the other side of which Yajooj and Majooj had settled. They would come out from the path between the two mountains to cause death and destruction. This place was situated on the eastern boundary of Turkey (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

208. Because their dialect was very strange. Neither would they understand anyone's speech, nor would anyone understand their talk. Thus, these people made use of symbols and allusions as a means of communication.

94. They [209], said,' O Zulqarnain, undoubtedly, Yajuj (Gog) and Majuj (Magog) create mischief [210], in the earth , should we then fix some tribute for you on the condition that you may set up a wall between us and them' [211].

قَالُوۡا يٰذَا الۡقَرۡنَيۡنِ اِنَّ يَاۡجُوۡجَ وَمَاۡجُوۡجَ مُفۡسِدُوۡنَ فِى الۡاَرۡضِ فَهَلۡ نَجۡعَلُ لَكَ خَرۡجًا عَلٰۤى اَنۡ تَجۡعَلَ بَيۡنَنَا وَبَيۡنَهُمۡ سَدًّا ﴿۹۴﴾

209. Or communicated through signs, or they may have found such an interpreter who could understand the languages of both, Zul-Qarnain and these people. Or, that Allah Almighty had given Zul-Qarnain the knowledge of all the languages and he found no difficulty in speaking or understanding any language.

210. He was from the descendents of Hazrat Yafath bin Nuh (On whom be peace). He was very strong and extremely mischiefvous. On this side he would come and destroy people's fields and gardens. He would take all the dry things, to this extent, that he would even eat serpents and scorpions, as well as humans and beasts. It should be remembered that Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) had three sons, Saam, Haam, and Yafath. Arabs and the Romans are children of Saam. The Negroes and the people of Noba are that of Haam, while the Turks and Yajooj and Majooj are children of Yafath (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani). Yajooj and Majooj were so tall that some among them were as tall as three hundred and sixty feet (Tafseer Rooh)?. Their entire body was covered in hair.

211. This means that money you would take from us and management would be done by you. You should build such a wall that Yajooj and Majooj (Gog and Magog) would not be able to come on the other side and we would be able to live in peace and security.

95. He said,' that upon which my Lord has given me control is better [212], then help me with strength, [213] I may make a strong barrier between you and them'. [214].

قَالَ مَا مَكَّنِّىۡ فِيۡهِ رَبِّىۡ خَيۡرٌ فَاَعِيۡنُوۡنِىۡ بِقُوَّةٍ اَجۡعَلۡ بَيۡنَكُمۡ وَبَيۡنَهُمۡ رَدۡمًا ۙ﴿۹۵﴾

212. This means Allah Almighty has provided me with all types of provisions and wealth. Therefore, I do not need anything from you.

213. From this we learn that it is permissible to seek assistance form people, and it is not against the concept, of "And beg You alone for help" (S1:V4). To seek helpers in opposition to Allah Almighty is polytheism. Zul-Qarnain sought the assistance of the people regarding this work. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had said: "Who shall become my helpers towards Allah" (S3:V52).

214.This means we would spend the materials and wealth, but physical work must be done by you, either by taking payment or voluntarily. The second meaning is more appropriate. It is apparent that those people were prepared to provide the material as well.

96. Bring to me the pieces of iron,[215], till when he leveled the wall up to the sides of the two mountains, he said, 'blow', till when he made it a fire, said he, 'bring me, that I may pour molten copper on it'. [216].

اٰتُوْنِیْ زُبَرَ الْحَدِیْدِ ؕ حَتّٰۤی اِذَا سَاوٰی بَیْنَ الصَّدَفَیْنِ قَالَ انْفُخُوْا ؕ حَتّٰۤی اِذَا جَعَلَهٗ نَارًا ۙ قَالَ اٰتُوْنِیْۤ اُفْرِغْ عَلَیْهِ قِطْرًا ﴿۹۶﴾ ؕ

215. Thus, he dug the foundation up to the water, collected stones of molten copper and built steel sheets, top and bottom and stuffed it with wood and coal. Fire was set to it through which the steel smelted into a column. And in this way the wall was raised to the height of the mountain.

216. So that this molten copper could become the plaster for the wall, just as it is the practise of putting cement on the walls when plastering them.

97. Then Yajuj and Majuj could neither climb over it, and nor could make a hole in it. [217].

فَمَا اسْطَاعُوْۤا اَنْ یَّظْهَرُوْهُ وَ مَا اسْتَطَاعُوْا لَهٗ نَقْبًا ﴿۹۷﴾

217. This means due to the height and glossiness of the wall they were unable to scale it, and because of its extreme strength and compactness they were unable to dig holes in it.

98. He said, ' this is a mercy from my Lord' , then when the promise of my Lord will come, will break it into pieces [218], and the promise of my Lord is ever true'. [219].

قَالَ هٰذَا رَحْمَةٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّیْ ۚ فَاِذَا جَآءَ وَعْدُ رَبِّیْ جَعَلَهٗ دَكَّآءَ ۚ وَ كَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّیْ حَقًّا ﴿۹۸﴾ ؕ

218. This tells us that Allah Almighty had provided Zul-Qarnain with knowledge of the unseen because the incidents that would be taking place just before the Day of Qiyamah i.e. the complete shattering of this wall and the escape of Gog and Magog were foretold by him at that very point in time. Thus, the very things would be taking place just before the Day of Judgement.

219. It is reported in the Hadith Shareef that Gog and Magog are daily digging this wall. Just before it is about to break, they tell themselves we will complete the rest of the work the next day. When they come the following day they find the wall to be stronger than before. Through the order of Allah Almighty, before Qiyamah they would say that if Allah Almighty wills we will break it tomorrow. Through the blessings of saying "If Allah wills" they would find the wall in the same broken state as they had left it the previous day. Thus, they will then be able to bring it down and come out of it on the other side. They would cause great mischief. Besides Jerusalem, Madinatul Munawwarah and Makkatul Mukarramah they will reach every other place. Then, due to the Prayer of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) they would be destroyed (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

99. And on that day We shall leave them that one group of them will surge [220], one group of them the trumpet shall be blown, then we shall gather them all-together.[221].

وَتَرَكْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَّمُوْجُ فِيْ بَعْضٍ وَّنُفِخَ فِي الصُّوْرِ فَجَمَعْنٰهُمْ جَمْعًا ﴿٩٩﴾

220. Due to their greater numbers.

221. From this we learn that Gog and Magog would come out of their captivity just prior to Qiyamah.

100. And We shall bring the Hell before the infidels. [222].

وَّعَرَضْنَا جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِّلْكٰفِرِيْنَ عَرْضَا ﴿١٠٠﴾ لا

222. Hell would be brought in sight of the infidels, which they would be able to see. From this we learn that some of the believers will have no contact with Hell at all, i.e. it will remain concealed from them.

101. That upon whose eyes there was covering from My remembrance and could not hear the truth [223].

الَّذِيْنَ كَانَتْ اَعْيُنُهُمْ فِيْ غِطَآءٍ عَنْ ذِكْرِيْ وَكَانُوْا لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ سَمْعًا ﴿١٠١﴾ ع ١١ ١٩ ٢

223. Because they had malice in their hearts for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Those hearts, which are bereft of the love for the Possessor of the Holy QUR'AAN, this great Book will not find its place in them.

SECTION: 12

102. Do then the infidels think [224], that they will make my bondsmen [225], as their supporters [226], beside Me? Undoubtedly We have already prepared hell for the hospitality of the infidels [227].

اَفَحَسِبَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اَنْ يَّتَّخِذُوْا عِبَادِيْ مِنْ دُوْنِيْٓ اَوْلِيَآءَ ؕ اِنَّآ اَعْتَدْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكٰفِرِيْنَ نُزُلًا ﴿١٠٢﴾

224. By this is meant the Jews and the Christians, or it could denote all infidels.

225. This means either Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), or Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace), or the idols, because all of them are servants of Allah Almighty.

226. It should be remembered that the literal meaning of the word DOEN is to curtail (Al-Mufridaat, Raghib) i.e. to be separated, to be cut off or "Cut short" (S48:V27). Therefore, "Those besides Allah" are those people who are cut off from Allah Almighty i.e. without any link. However those "cut from Allah" are of two types. The first is the actual, and in the beliefs of the infidels the actual ones are the idols, etc. The second group of those cut off from Allah are those prophets whom the infidels have accepted as deities and thereby cut them off from Allah Almighty i.e. the belief of Christians regarding Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) as the son of God. Thus, in terms of their beliefs these prophets are those cut off from Allah Almighty, but in actuality these Prophets are true Friends of Allah Almighty. Therefore, in mentioning the authority of the Prophets of Allah Almighty says: "With my permission" or "With the permission of Allah Almighty". If you believe in the Prophets as servants of Allah Almighty then they are given the authority to do everything. But, if you cut them off from Allah Almighty then they will not be able to do anything. An electric wire will supply current if it is connected to a powerhouse, but the moment it is disconnected it is rendered useless. Says Allah Almighty: "And at the other side of them he saw two women..."(S28:V23). Allah Almighty further says: "Then she put the screen away from them" (S19:V17). In another verse it is stated: "This provision is specially for you and not for the believing men" (S33:V50). It is further stated "And besides them, there are two other gardens" (S55:V62). In all these verses the word "Besides" is used to denote separate and distant.

227. The word "cut off from Allah" is mostly used for those who are cursed in the court of Allah Almighty. The saints of Allah Almighty are those beloved to Him. Supporters cut off from Allah Almighty are those idols that polytheists had made as their deities. Says Allah Almighty: "And call upon all your helpers besides Allah" (S2:V23). It is further stated: "Undoubtedly you and whatever you worship besides Allah" (S21:V98). In all these verses 'besides Allah' refers to idols. Says Allah Almighty: "Do you take him and his offspring for friends apart from Me? (S18:V50). It is further stated: "Supporters of infidels" (S2:V257). Here, the word 'besides Allah' denotes those in opposition to Allah Almighty. The Prophets and Saints have no connection with this verse. Otherwise, the object of this verse is to show that after offending Me they claim to befriend My Prophets. Or, it could mean they make My Prophets and Saints as deities. This tells us that to worship anyone besides Allah Almighty is infidelity, even if it involves the worship of Prophets and Saints, or that of the idols. Only Allah Almighty is worthy of worship. The destination of the infidels is indeed the fire of Hell.

103. Say you, 'shall I tell you. Whose actions are worst?

104. Those whose all struggles were lost in life of the world and they imagine that they are doing good work [228].

قُلْ هَلْ نُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِالْاَخْسَرِيْنَ اَعْمَالًا ﴿۱۰۳﴾ اَلَّذِيْنَ ضَلَّ سَعْيُهُمْ فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَ هُمْ يَحْسَبُوْنَ اَنَّهُمْ يُحْسِنُوْنَ صُنْعًا ﴿۱۰۴﴾

228. From this we learn that a pious person who, through consistent efforts, tries to do good deeds but which turn out to be futile is more unfortunate than the immoral and sinful person, because such a person is living under the false belief that he is pious. May Allah Almighty protect us!

105. These are the people who disbelieved in the signs [229]. of their Lord and in his meeting. Therefore all their deeds are in vain [230], and We shall not establish any weight for them on the day of judgement [231].

اُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَ لِقَآئِهٖ فَحَبِطَتْ اَعْمَالُهُمْ فَلَا نُقِيْمُ لَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَزْنًا ﴿۱۰۵﴾

229. From this we learn that the good deeds of the infidels are a wasted entity, and that infidelity destroys piety. Thus, the slightest insult and disrespect of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an act of infidelity, because raising our voice above the voice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم results in confiscation and forfeiture of all one's good deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "Lest your good deeds become vain while you are unaware"

(S49:V2).

230. This tells us that the good deeds of the infidels are all in vain because that branch which is cut off from the tree cannot become green by just watering it. He, who has cut off the servitude of the prophet, will not be able to benefit from any good deeds. Even the smallest good deed of a believer is useful because it is connected with the tree.

231. Or, it could mean that, the good deeds of the infidels would not be weighed at all. There will be no scale for them at all. Or else, they will be weighed, but will be of no weight. They will appear to be big and weighty but in the scale they will be devalued and without any weight. This tells us that the true weight is given to the good deeds by faith and sincerity. Observe, the Kharijites of Kufa, in appearance were pious worshippers, but in the light of the injunction of the Hadith Shareef, they are out of the fold of Islam.

106. This is their recompense, the hell for they disbelieved and took My signs and My messenger in mockery[232].

ذٰلِكَ جَزَآؤُهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ بِمَا كَفَرُوْا وَاتَّخَذُوْٓا اٰيٰتِيْ وَرُسُلِيْ هُزُوًا ﴿١٠٦﴾

232. From this we understand that the worst type of infidelity is the infidelity incurred through the disrespect and belittling of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, for which the person would be punished in this world as well as in the Hereafter. It should be remembered that the Friends of Allah Almighty and the Ulama are the deputies of the Holy Prophet, and as such their insult is, in truth, the insult of the Prophet (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

107. Undoubtedly, those who believed and did good deeds, the gardens of paradise are for their hospitality [233].

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ جَنّٰتُ الْفِرْدَوْسِ نُزُلًا ﴿١٠٧﴾

233. FIRDOUS is the most superior part of Paradise and is uppermost in situation. Above it is the Throne of Allah Almighty from where rivers flow into it. The word 'hospitality' is used here to show that the inmates of Paradise would be treated with utmost cordiality, like that of guests. Other than that, these inmates would be the owners of it forever.

108. They shall dwell in it forever, not willing to change the place therefrom [234].

خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا لَا يَبْغُوْنَ عَنْهَا حِوَلًا ﴿١٠٨﴾

234. Just as people are continuously in the process of abandoning unsuitable places and purchasing good suitable places, similar things will not take place in Paradise because every place therein is most beneficial and beautiful.

109. Say you, 'if the sea be the ink for the words of my Lord, then necessarily, the sea would be exhausted and the words of my Lord would not come to an end [235] thoughWe may bring the likes of it for help' [236].

قُلْ لَّوْ كَانَ الْبَحْرُ مِدَادًا لِّكَلِمٰتِ رَبِّيْ لَنَفِدَ الْبَحْرُ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَنْفَدَ كَلِمٰتُ رَبِّيْ وَلَوْ جِئْنَا بِمِثْلِهٖ مَدَدًا ﴿١٠٩﴾

235.Reason for its revelation:
Once a group of Jews said in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that two verses of your Holy QUR'AAN are always contradicting one another. In one verse it is said that you are given little knowledge. In another verse it is stated that whoever is given wisdom he is granted abundance in good. Since wisdom, has been granted to us, therefore how is it that we have been given less knowledge? As a reply to their objection, this verse was revealed in which it is said that no matter how much knowledge the creation may have obtained, but in comparison to the knowledge of Allah Almighty, it is totally insignificant. Here, "Words of Allah" denote the knowledge and Wisdom of Allah Almighty.

236. Here, mention is being made of two oceans, while in another verse seven oceans are mentioned. This tells us that the sciences of Allah Almighty are limitless. Furthermore, we learn that the entire knowledge of all the Prophets in comparison to that of Allah Almighty is not even like a drop in the ocean, because that is a ratio of the limited with the limited, while this, in comparison, is the ratio of the limited with the unlimited. Some Sufi sages comment that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is the word of Allah Almighty, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is the interlocutor of Allah Almighty, but our Holy Prophet is the highest form of interlocution of Allah Almighty. The praiseworthy qualities of our Holy Prophet are beyond description.

110. Say you, 'apparently in facial outlook of a man [237], I am like you, I receive revelations [238], that your God is one God, then whosoever hopes to meet his Lord, he should do noble deeds [239]. and associate not any one in the worship of his Lord [240].

قُلْ اِنَّمَآ اَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُوْحٰٓى اِلَيَّ
اَنَّمَآ اِلٰهُكُمْ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ ۚ فَمَنْ كَانَ
يَرْجُوْا لِقَآءَ رَبِّهٖ فَلْيَعْمَلْ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا
وَّلَا يُشْرِكْ بِعِبَادَةِ رَبِّهٖٓ اَحَدًا ﴿۱۱۰﴾

237. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the mirror of the beauty of Allah Almighty. The full image will only come in the mirror when its one side is clear and the other side is totally covered with different ingredients i.e. it is darkened. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on one side is light, but on the other side there is a cover of human nature on him so that through these diverse natures he can become a complete mirror. Here, mention is made of his side, comprising of human nature while in the verse: "There has come to you from Allah a Light" (S6:V15), mention is made of the other side. By using the command 'say' it is hinted that in terms of expressing humility only you Oh Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can call yourself human, no one else has the permission to call you in this way. Says Allah Almighty: "Make not the summoning of the Messenger among yourselves, like one calls the other among you" (S24:V63). If the king says to the subjects that I am your servant he does so out of humility, but if the same is said of him by another person, he will be punished.
238. This means I am a human who is blessed with Divine revelation. One usually says that a human being is the most rational animal. Thus, just as the word rational has distinguished man from lower animals, the word revelation has distinguished the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم among all other human beings. Only in outer appearance does the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم reflect human nature, but in reality he is the resplendent light of Allah as is stated in the verse: "There has come to you from Allah a Light" (S6:V15). This can be understood as in the case of Hazrat Jibraeel who whenever he assumed human form, his clothes would always be white and his hair would be black. In spite of this, his true nature is one of light. It should be remembered that Prophets have referred to themselves as cruel, unjust, deviators, wrong-doers, etc. but they said it out of humility. If we were to use these words regarding them we would become infidels. In the same way, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, was asked to call himself as a human being. If we use this word to claim equality with him, then we would be out of the fold of Islam. The Arabic words of the Holy QUR'AAN are unique and incomparable. Hence, they constitute the inimitable Book of Allah Almighty. Likewise, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم does have in him human qualities, but these are unique and incomparable. Hence, he is the Prophet of Allah Almighty. This incomparability is being described by "I receive revelation".

239. This means he who wishes to see the vision of Allah Almighty. This means Allah Almighty would speak to everyone but only the believers will be blessed with His vision.

240. It is stated in the Hadith Shareef that whoever memorizes the first ten verses of Surah Kahf would be protected from the mischief of Dajjal, and whoever recites this complete Surah at least once a week he would be protected from all forms of calamities for a complete week (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

SECTION 1

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

كٓهٰيٰعٓصٓ ﴿١﴾

ذِكْرُ رَحْمَتِ رَبِّكَ عَبْدَهٗ زَكَرِيَّا ﴿٢﴾

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

1. Kaaf-Ha-Ya, Ain-Saad

2. This is the record of that mercy of your Lord which he showed to his bondsman Zakariya [1].

1. Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be peace) is from the children of Raheem bin Sulaiman bin Dawood (On whom be peace), and these men are from the descendants of Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Harun is from the progeny of Ladi bin Yaqub bin Is'haaq bin Ibrahim (On them be peace). From this we learn that having a pious son is a Mercy of Allah Almighty. In this Surah, a pious son is called a mercy, especially when such a son is given in one's old age.

اِذْ نَادٰى رَبَّهٗ نِدَآءً خَفِيًّا ﴿٣﴾

3. When He called His Lord secretly [2].

2.This tells us that it is better to offer a prayer secretly. Says Allah Almighty: "Call your Lord humbly and secretly" (S7:V55). At the time of this prayer, Hazrat Zakariya was eighty years old and without any children.

Marfat.com

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّیۡ وَ هَنَ الۡعَظۡمُ مِنِّیۡ وَ اشۡتَعَلَ الرَّاۡسُ شَیۡبًا وَّ لَمۡ اَکُنۡۢ بِدُعَآئِکَ رَبِّ شَقِیًّا ﴿۴﴾

4. He submitted, 'O My Lord, my bone is weakened [3] and the flame of oldness appeared from the head [4], and O my Lord, I never remained unsuccessful after calling You [5].

3. This means I have already become so old that even a strong thing like my bones, too, have become weak, let alone my flesh and blood. The essence of this discussion is to show the weaknesses, which set in due to old age, have reached their limits.

4. This means all the hair of my head have become white. Not a single hair is black. At first, Hazrat Ibrahim's (On whom be peace) hair had become white.

5. This means until today You have accepted all my prayers. From this we learn that the duas of the Prophets are always accepted in the court of Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that they are approached to make duas for others. From this, two issues emerge:

1. At the time of making dua it is important to mention your helplessness and deficiency to Allah Almighty.

2. Mentioning of Allah Almighty's previous favours and bounties, too, is the way of the Prophets and a means of acceptance of the dua. It is as if the servant is making the blessing of Allah Almighty as a means of blessing itself.

وَ اِنِّیۡ خِفۡتُ الۡمَوَالِیَ مِنۡ وَّرَآءِیۡ وَ کَانَتِ امۡرَاَتِیۡ عَاقِرًا فَهَبۡ لِیۡ مِنۡ لَّدُنۡکَ وَلِیًّا ۙ﴿۵﴾

5. And I fear my relations after me[6],and my wife is barren [7], then bestow me from Yourself any one may take over my work 8.

6. That my uncle's sons (cousins) after me would distort the religion because they were the worst people among the Israelites (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Mu'ani). In short, this dua is for a religious purpose.

7. His wife's name is Isha bint Faqooz who is the sister of Hanna; Hanna is the mother of Bibi Mariam. Thus, she is the maternal aunt of Bibi Mariam and Hazrat Zakariya is the maternal uncle of Bibi Mariam. At that point in time, Hazrat Isha's age was more than seventy years.

8. From this we learn that prayer for a son is a Sunnah of the Prophets, only so that he becomes a means of one's salvation for the Hereafter. However, expressing dissatisfaction and disappointment at the birth of a daughter is the way of the infidels.

یَّرِثُنِیۡ وَیَرِثُ مِنۡ اٰلِ یَعۡقُوۡبَ ۫ وَ اجۡعَلۡهُ رَبِّ رَضِیًّا ﴿۶﴾

6. He should be my heir and be the heir of the children of Yaqub [9] and O my Lord! make him acceptable [10].

9. As far as knowledge and prophethood and not for the reason of material wealth, because wealth of the Prophets does not become hereditary estate. It is for this reason "of the children of Yaqub" is used here. From this we learn that to appoint your son as your successor or your deputy is not inappropriate. Thus, we cannot criticize Hazrat Amir Muawiyah for nominating his son Yazid as his successor because his son's sinfulness and impiety became fully known after the father's death.

10. This means prophethood was conferred upon him.

Marfat.com

يٰزَكَرِيَّآ اِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلٰمِ اسْمُهٗ يَحْيٰى ۙ لَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَّهٗ مِنْ قَبْلُ سَمِيًّا ۝٧

7. O Zakariya! We give you glad tidings [11] of a son whose name is Yahya. We have not made anyone of this name before him [12].

11. Allah Almighty spoke to Hazrat Zakariya through the medium of the angels. In another place it is said: "Then the angels called him" (S3:V39). This verse is a commentary of the verse under discussion.

12. This means just as his name is unique and incomparable, some of his deeds, too, would be matchless and unique. Thus, Hazrat Yahya was a devotee of Allah Almighty as well as a hermit without equal. From this we learn that we give names to our children, while Allah Almighty Himself gives names to His Prophets and becomes the guardian of their names and deeds. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had foretold that our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم name would be Ahmad (S61:V6).

قَالَ رَبِّ اَنّٰى يَكُوْنُ لِىْ غُلٰمٌ وَّكَانَتِ امْرَاَتِىْ عَاقِرًا وَّ قَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ الْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ۝٨

8. Submitted he. 'O my Lord, from where shall I have a son when my wife is barren [13] and I have reached the condition of being emaciated due to old-age.

13. Either both of us would be made young once again, or that we would be given a son in our present physical condition. In it there is no rejection of the power of Allah Almighty. Its reply is so it is i.e. in this very condition of old age you shall be given a son.

قَالَ كَذٰلِكَ ۚ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَىَّ هَيِّنٌ وَّ قَدْ خَلَقْتُكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ لَمْ تَكُ شَيْـًٔا ۝٩

9. He said, 'so it is[14], your Lord said, that is easy to Me and indeed I made you before at a time when you were nothing [15].

14. This means you and your wife would remain as old as you are and in this very state you would be given a son. Your youth will not be returned to you.

15. Thus, He who has the power to make the non-existent, existent, has the power to grant you a son in your old age as well. There is nothing astonishing or incredible about this.

قَالَ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ لِّىْٓ اٰيَةً ؕ قَالَ اٰيَتُكَ اَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ النَّاسَ ثَلٰثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا ۝١٠

10. Submitted he, 'O my Lord, give me any sign [16]'. He said, 'your sign is this that you speak not for three nights, being healthy[17].

16. A sign that would give me an indication that my wife is pregnant, so that from that very moment I can engage myself in expressing gratitude to You.

17. This means during these three days his tongue would be engaged in the remembrance of Allah Almighty and not be utilized for talking to people. This tells us that he would not suffer from being a mute, because the blessed Prophets are protected from such a disability. Thus, the word "being healthy" is used here.

فَخَرَجَ عَلٰى قَوْمِهٖ مِنَ الْمِحْرَابِ فَاَوْحٰٓى

11. Then he came out to his people from the mosque [18] and he beckoned

Marfat.com

اِلَيْهِمْ اَنْ سَبِّحُوْا بُكْرَةً وَّ عَشِيًّا ﴿۱۱﴾ to them, continue glorifying morning and evening [19].

18. This means he came to the Mosque to perform his Salaah on his favourite Musalla (carpet) where the worshippers were awaiting his arrival. This incident took place long after his dua and the receiving of the glad tidings, because the dua of Hazrat Zakariya (On whom be peace) was made during the childhood of Bibi Mariam, and at the time of the birth of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) she was either twenty years or thirteen years old. In spite of this, Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is of the same age as Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace). In fact, only six months separate the two (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

19. This tells us that on such occasions Prophets preach through signs as well. No time of theirs is wasted from propagation.

يٰيَحْيٰى خُذِ الْكِتٰبَ بِقُوَّةٍ ؕ وَ اٰتَيْنٰهُ الْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا ﴿۱۲﴾ لا

12. O Yahya, (John) hold fast [20] to the book. And We bestowed him prophethood in his childhood [21].

20. This means Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) was born. In his childhood We said this to him. From this we learn that Prophets are the students of Allah Almighty and not of any human being, because hereby 'book' is meant the Holy Tauraat and by "hold fast" denotes total practice of it. Action without knowledge is not possible.

21. This tells us that Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) is from those Messengers who was bestowed with prophethood in his childhood. In this is the indication of the acceptance of dua of Hazrat Zakariya because he had asked for Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) to be His chosen servant i.e. to bestow prophethood upon him. Allah Almighty accepted everything asked by him.

وَّ حَنَانًا مِّنْ لَّدُنَّا وَ زَكٰوةً ؕ وَ كَانَ تَقِيًّا ﴿۱۳﴾ لا

13. And kind heartedness from Us and purity. And was utmost God fearing [22].

22. This means We had directly granted Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) knowledge, compassion, purity, piety, and integrity and in addition made him an obedient son of his parents. Thus, no sin ever became evident from him. He achieved all these qualities in the first three years of his life.

وَّ بَرًّا بِوَالِدَيْهِ وَ لَمْ يَكُنْ جَبَّارًا عَصِيًّا ﴿۱۴﴾

14. And was well-behaved towards his parents and was not arrogant, disobedient.

وَ السَّلٰمُ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ وُلِدَ وَ يَوْمَ يَمُوْتُ وَ يَوْمَ يُبْعَثُ حَيًّا ﴿۱۵﴾ ع

15. And peace is on him the day when he was born and the day, he will die and the day when he will be raised [23] alive.

23. This tells us that Hazrat (Yahya) (On whom be peace) is in the protection of Allah Almighty during his birth, life, death, grave, resurrection, etc. At the time of his birth, Hazrat Yahya (On whom be peace) was not touched by Shaitaan, as is done to other children (Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ مَرْيَمَ ۘ اِذِ انْتَبَذَتْ
مِنْ اَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا ۙ﴿۱۶﴾

16. And remember, Maryam [24] in the book; when she went apart from her family towards a place in the east [25].

24. This means We are revealing the events of Bibi Mariam in the QUR'AAN so that you Oh My Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can recite these to the people so that the fame and the purity and chastity of Bibi Mariam, is proclaimed throughout the four corners of the world. Thus, there is nothing objectionable about the verse. Besides Bibi Mariam, the QUR'AAN has not mentioned the name of any woman. The meaning of the word Mariam is a worshipping woman, a devotee. From her childhood she had been in the service of Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem and constantly engaged in worship therein.

25. She went to the bathroom, on the eastern side of Baitul Muqaddas from her aunt Isha's house, to take a bath (Roohul Bayaan); or she went to the eastern portion of this sacred Mosque to worship in seclusion (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

فَاتَّخَذَتْ مِنْ دُوْنِهِمْ حِجَابًا ۖ فَاَرْسَلْنَآ
اِلَيْهَا رُوْحَنَا فَتَمَثَّلَ لَهَا بَشَرًا سَوِيًّا ﴿۱۷﴾

17. Then she put a screen [26] away from them, then We sent our spiritual [27] towards her, and he appeared before her in the shape of a healty man [28].

26. Either to take a bath or for the purpose of engaging in worship, so that no one would be able to see her. At that point in time, Bibi Mariam was either thirteen or twenty years old.

27. This means Hazrat Jibraeel on whom there is an overwhelming effect of spirituality, or is the companion of the spirit of Allah Almighty, or who is Rooh - i.e. one who is appointed to bring revelation, or one who bestows a soul, for it is due to his breath and blowing that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was conceived, and through the dust of the hoof of his mare, life was bequeathed in the calf of Samari.

28. From this we understand that the word BASHR is used to denote the face and outer image of a human. When Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) would appear in the human form, his angelic nature had not changed, just as our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who is human in form, but in reality he is Light. There is a big difference between outer form and reality.

قَالَتْ اِنِّيْٓ اَعُوْذُ بِالرَّحْمٰنِ مِنْكَ اِنْ
كُنْتَ تَقِيًّا ﴿۱۸﴾

18. She said, 'I beg refuge of the most Affectionate from you if you are afraid of God [29].

29. You must go away from here because I am alone in the bathroom. At that point in time, she had already worn her clothes, after taking her bath. These words of hers reveal the true nature of her purity and piety, that instead of screaming for anyone, she took refuge in Allah Almighty, so that no one should come to know of this incident.

قَالَ اِنَّمَآ اَنَا رَسُوْلُ رَبِّكِ ۖ لِاَهَبَ
لَكِ غُلٰمًا زَكِيًّا ﴿۱۹﴾

19. He said, 'I am only a messenger of your Lord, that I may give you a pure son [30]'

Marfat.com

30. This tells us that through the permission of Allah Almighty, Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) can give a son. Likewise, one can obtain children as well as all types of bounties from the court of the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. From this we know that the bounties of Allah Almighty can be linked to His servants. Thus, we can say that the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم does give faith, honour, children, Paradise, etc. Hazrat Rabeeah beseeched the Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم that I am asking you for Paradise. We further learn that there is no need to seek a veil or cover from angels, as they are not human beings. Observe, there is no cover from animals.

20. She said, 'from where shall I have a son, no man has touched me, nor I am an unchaste?

قَالَتْ اَنّٰى يَكُوْنُ لِىْ غُلٰمٌ وَّ لَمْ يَمْسَسْنِىْ بَشَرٌ وَّ لَمْ اَكُ بَغِيًّا ﴿۲۰﴾

21. He said, 'so it is [31]. Your Lord has said, this is to me , and that We make it a sign for the people and a mercy from Us, and this matter is already decreed [32].

قَالَ كَذٰلِكِ ۚ قَالَ رَبُّكِ هُوَ عَلَىَّ هَيِّنٌ ۚ وَ لِنَجْعَلَهٗۤ اٰيَةً لِّلنَّاسِ وَ رَحْمَةً مِّنَّا ۚ وَ كَانَ اَمْرًا مَّقْضِيًّا ﴿۲۱﴾

31. That you shall be granted a son without you being touched by a man, so that through this miraculous deed the absolute power of Allah Almighty can be revealed and made manifest.

32. Therefore there can be no change in this (it should be remembered that there can be a change in the fate which is pending, but not in the fate which is inevitable). By saying this, Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) blew in the upper garment of Bibi Mariam, as a result of which she conceived. From this we learn that there is power in the blowing of the pious servants. Also, through this, emerge a few issues:

1. The birth of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was neither from the sperm of a father nor a mother.
2. From one capacity Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is a human; from the other he is a spirit. It is for this reason that he is called the Spirit of Allah Almighty.
3. Because he was born through the blowing of an angel, therefore his blowing had the power of giving life to the dead, cure the sick, could put life in sand, etc.
4. That sometimes the effect and quality of the original transfer into the offshoot. Hence the effect and qualities of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) was in Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). While the former is the Holy Spirit, the latter is Spirit of Allah Almighty.

22. Now Maryam conceived it, then she went away with him to a far off place [33].

فَحَمَلَتْهُ فَانْتَبَذَتْ بِهٖ مَكَانًا قَصِيًّا ﴿۲۲﴾

33. The jungles of BAITUL LAHM are situated six miles from the city of Ayliya. She left the same night under the cover of darkness, because signs of labour pains had become visible and she could not divulge this secret to anyone due to the feeling of shame. On the night of Me'raaj Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) had asked our Holy Prophet صلی اللّٰہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم to recite two Raka'ats at that place, because it is the birth place of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) (Nisai, Baihaqi - vide Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

Marfat.com

فَاَجَآءَهَا الْمَخَاضُ اِلٰى جِذْعِ النَّخْلَةِ ۚ قَالَتْ يٰلَيْتَنِىْ مِتُّ قَبْلَ هٰذَا وَ كُنْتُ نَسْيًا مَّنْسِيًّا ﴿٢٣﴾

23. Then the pains of the child birth brought her to the trunk of a palm-tree [34]. She said, 'Oh, would that I had died before this and had become a thing forgotten, lost [35].

34. This tree was dry and had no leaves or branches. Only the bare stem had remained. For this reason the Holy QUR'AAN has called it as "trunk of the palm tree" and not palm tree. She sat resting against this root in severe labour pain.

35. From this we learn that there was a long period of time between Hazrat Mariam's (May Allah be pleased with her) conception and delivery, she had not delivered the baby immediately. It is stated in traditions that none besides Joseph the Carpenter knew of her pregnancy. One day, the mother of Hazrat Yahya told Bibi Mariam (May Allah be pleased with her) that when I come in your presence the baby in my womb prostrates to the baby in your womb.

فَنَادٰىهَا مِنْ تَحْتِهَآ اَلَّا تَحْزَنِىْ قَدْ جَعَلَ رَبُّكِ تَحْتَكِ سَرِيًّا ﴿٢٤﴾

24. Then one called [36] from under neath her, grieve not undoubtedly, your Lord has caused to flow a rivulet below you [37].

36. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) called Bibi Mariam from the sloping part of the jungle and told her this.

37. This river came into being either from the wing of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) or from the heel of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace). Thus, its water is curative, like we have the water of Zam-Zam today.

وَهُزِّىْٓ اِلَيْكِ بِجِذْعِ النَّخْلَةِ تُسٰقِطْ عَلَيْكِ رُطَبًا جَنِيًّا ﴿٢٥﴾ ۚ

25. And shake towards yourself holding the trunk of the palm [38] tree; fresh and ripe dates will fall upon you [39].

38. Where she was sitting at the time of labour pains, there was a palm tree, which was in the form of a dry trunk. She was told to shake this and out of your blessed touch this trunk will instantly become green and fruit bearing. Instantly its fruit will ripen and fall on you, which you can eat. The reason for letting her touch the tree was to inform that the mere touch of a saint can transform a dry withered trunk to a lush green tree. If their hands can do this, their gaze, too, can change dry impious heart to one of piety.

39. In this there is a proof of the miracle of a saintly lady or it reflects the bounty and link with a Prophet because it is incredible for fruit to fall from a dry tree. We further learn that at the time of delivery the women should be fed with dates, which would ease all difficulties. Even today, the ladies at the time of labour are given dry dates to eat, on which a person had prayed. Proof for doing it, is this blessed verse.

فَكُلِىْ وَاشْرَبِىْ وَ قَرِّىْ عَيْنًا ۚ فَاِمَّا تَرَيِنَّ مِنَ الْبَشَرِ اَحَدًا ۙ فَقُوْلِىْٓ اِنِّىْ نَذَرْتُ لِلرَّحْمٰنِ صَوْمًا فَلَنْ اُكَلِّمَ الْيَوْمَ اِنْسِيًّا ﴿٢٦﴾ ۚ

26. Then eat and drink and cool your eyes [40]; then if you see any man, then say [41], I have vowed a fast to the Most Affectionate [42], so I shall not speak to anyone today [43],

Marfat.com

40. This means eat the dates, drink water and cool your eyes through this beautiful son of yours. To call the son comfort of one's eyes is proven from this verse.
41. This means through signs, because during those days it was forbidden to speak during silent fasting, i.e. if anyone asked you that how was this baby born, then reply them through signs that I am fasting, I cannot speak.
42. This means I have today observed the fast of silence. So, Oh Mariam, begin your fast from now. It should be remembered that Bibi Mariam had eaten the dates before the morning and had drank water. She had been made to fast from the morning, that she should not eat anything nor speak to anyone. Thus, in this there is no teaching about any lies. From this we learn that silence is the best answer to the ignorant.
43. In their religion there was a fast of silence, but this is abrogated in the current Shariah. The word 'then say' signifies talking through signs and not verbally, otherwise the fast would have been nullified.

27. Then she brought him to her people [44], taking him in her lap. They said, 'no doubt you have committed a very vile thing' [45].

فَاَتَتْ بِهٖ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهٗ ؕ قَالُوْا یٰمَرْیَمُ لَقَدْ جِئْتِ شَیْـًٔا فَرِیًّا ﴿۲۷﴾

44. From this we learn that Bibi Mariam was safeguarded from childbirth bleeding and fatigue. Otherwise, women after childbirth are not in a position to walk about, while Bibi Mariam immediately came with the baby to the people as the dates and the water from unknown source provided her with complete healing and strength. This tells us that the blessed things of the pious have the power to provide strength and healing.
45. This incident took place at the time of Zohr, and the birth of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) took place at night. At that time he was half a day old. There are a few sayings regarding this (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

28. O sister of Harun [46]! Your father was not a wicked man and nor was your mother an unchaste woman'.

یٰۤاُخْتَ هٰرُوْنَ مَا كَانَ اَبُوْكِ امْرَاَ سَوْءٍ وَّ مَا كَانَتْ اُمُّكِ بَغِیًّا ﴿۲۸﴾

46. By Harun is meant one pious person from the Israelites, who was well known for his piety. His name was Harun, meaning Oh pious lady like Harun. It could also mean Harun who was the religious brother of Bibi Mariam who, too, was extremely pious. Or, it could refer to Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace). Because she was from his descendants, she is referred to as his sister, just as the Arabs call Bani Tameem brother of Tameem. Otherwise, there was a difference of one thousand eight hundred years between the two. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

29. Then Maryam pointed towards the child [47]. They said, how can we talk to him who is a baby in the cradle [48].

فَاَشَارَتْ اِلَیْهِ ؕ قَالُوْا كَیْفَ نُكَلِّمُ مَنْ كَانَ فِی الْمَهْدِ صَبِیًّا ﴿۲۹﴾

47. This means ask this boy. She had pointed to him with fear and forgot to say the actual words.
48. This means the boy is fit to be cradled, otherwise Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was in his mother's arms and not in a cradle. The meaning is Oh Mariam, are you making a fool of us by saying such a thing?

Marfat.com

30. The baby said, I am a bondsman of Allah, he gave me the Book [49] and made me the communicator of unseen news (the prophet) [50].

قَالَ اِنِّیۡ عَبۡدُ اللّٰہِ ۟ اٰتٰنِیَ الۡکِتٰبَ وَ جَعَلَنِیۡ نَبِیًّا ﴿۳۰﴾

49.By this is meant the Injeel (New Testament). This tells us that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was aware of the Injeel before its revelation, just as our Beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, too, was fully aware of Quranic injunctions before its revelation. It should be remembered that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was blessed with prophethood at the age of thirty. Thus, his duty as Messenger is before his Prophethood (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

50. From this we learn that prophets are born with the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty. The Holy QUR'AAN says: "You did not know the Book before it, nor the details of the laws of the Religion" (S42:V52). In it there is a negation of understanding, not of knowledge i.e. he did not know this through his intellect. Observe, Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) at birth had delivered an exquisite talk about the Oneness of Allah Almighty, about his prophethood as well as about the matters regarding his good actions.

31. And he made me blessed wherever I may be [51] and enjoined on me prayer and poor due [52] so long as I live.

وَّ جَعَلَنِیۡ مُبٰرَکًا اَیۡنَ مَا کُنۡتُ ۪ وَ اَوۡصٰنِیۡ بِالصَّلٰوۃِ وَ الزَّکٰوۃِ مَا دُمۡتُ حَیًّا ﴿۳۱﴾ ۖ

51. This means wherever he is, he is the benefactor of people, and I am the provider of good and a beneficial teacher of them. This tells us that the personality of a Prophet is noble and his name is a means of obtaining blessings.

52. This refers to the purity of the body and spirit, because Zakaat of wealth is not obligatory on the Prophets, and Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had never accumulated wealth, so how could Zakaat have become obligatory on him? It should be remembered that here, 'living' refers to living on the earth, because Namaaz is not obligatory upon him in the heaven.

32. And dutiful to my mother [53] and not made me vigorous, unfortunate[54].

وَّ بَرًّۢا بِوَالِدَتِیۡ ۫ وَ لَمۡ یَجۡعَلۡنِیۡ جَبَّارًا شَقِیًّا ﴿۳۲﴾

53. This tells us that he was born without a father; otherwise he would have said one showing kindness to the parents. It is for this reason that the Holy QUR'AAN refers to him as Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), son of Sayiddah Mariam.

54. This tells us that Prophets are totally innocent in respect of defective beliefs, sinful actions, defective intellect and hard-heartedness, because people of defective beliefs are irreligious and wicked.

33. And the same peace on me the day I was born and the day I die and the day I am raised alive [55].

وَالسَّلٰمُ عَلَیَّ یَوۡمَ وُلِدۡتُّ وَ یَوۡمَ اَمُوۡتُ وَ یَوۡمَ اُبۡعَثُ حَیًّا ﴿۳۳﴾

55. This tells us that Prophets at the time of birth, in their lifetime, at their time of death and in the Hereafter, are under the protection of Allah Almighty. We further learn that these gracious personalities are fully aware of their end result. Anyone who says that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had no knowledge about what would be his own result; is rejecting the veracity of these verses. It should be remembered that the first thing which Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) spoke about was his own servitude or slavehood to Allah Almighty, because people were on the verge of calling him the son of Allah Almighty, which he refuted. Also, he spoke about the innocence and chastity of his mother, because every person would be able to think that such a pure child can only be born from the womb of a pure and chaste mother, because an illegitimate baby and an illegitimate off-spring cannot be a saint. The status of Prophethood is very elevated. The allegation was levelled against the mother, but he spoke about his own attributes and virtues as an expression of Divine favours. This is the way of the Prophets.

34. This is Isa the son of Maryam, [56] a word of truth [57] in which they doubt 58.

ذٰلِكَ عِيْسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ ۚ قَوْلَ الْحَقِّ الَّذِىْ فِيْهِ يَمْتَرُوْنَ ﴿۳۴﴾

56. From this we learn that he was born without a father, otherwise he would have been linked to the father. Says Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers" (S33:V5).

57. This means the one who speaks the truth - i.e. I am the servant of Allah Almighty.

58. That the Jews were calling Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) a magician, and the Christians were calling him the son of God.
They forgot his teachings. It should be remembered that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was born fifty-six years after Alexandra the Great had conquered Babel, became Prophet at the age of thirty, and was raised to the heavens at the age of thirty-three. Bibi Mariam lived for six years after him. Bibi Mariam took him to Egypt, due to the fear of King Herodus. He stayed in Egypt until he was twelve years. Then, after the death of Herodus he was brought back to Syria.

35. It is not befitting to Allah that He should take Himself anyone as son, Holy is He. When He decrees anything, thus then He says to it, 'be', it becomes at once [59].

مَا كَانَ لِلّٰهِ اَنْ يَّتَّخِذَ مِنْ وَّلَدٍ ۙ سُبْحٰنَهٗ ؕ اِذَا قَضٰٓى اَمْرًا فَاِنَّمَا يَقُوْلُ لَهٗ كُنْ فَيَكُوْنُ ﴿۳۵﴾ؕ

59. It is the excellence of His Power, but the law is that all the worldly activities take place with a degree of slowness. He made the heavens in six days. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

36. And Isa said 'undoubtedly Allah is my Lord and your Lord, then worship Him. This path is straight [60].

وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ رَبِّىْ وَ رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوْهُ ؕ هٰذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيْمٌ ﴿۳۶﴾

60. This is the statement of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). In between, Allah Almighty states His words as a parenthetical clause.

37. Then the parties differed [61]: then misery is for the infidels from the presence of a great day [62].

فَاخْتَلَفَ الْاَحْزَابُ مِنْۢ بَيْنِهِمْ ۚ فَوَيْلٌ لِّلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْ مَّشْهَدِ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿۳۷﴾

Marfat.com

61. After Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) was taken to the heavens, the Christians became divided into many sects. The Yaqubiyah sect claimed that Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) is God who had personally come upon the earth and has now gone back to the heavens. The Nastooriah sect began to claim that he is the son of God. The Malikaniyah sect was claiming that he was the servant of Allah Almighty, and His Messenger. This sect was made up of believers (Tafseer Madarik and Khazainul Irfaan).

62. Because the Christian sects were made up of believers, therefore it is said that there is misery for the infidels, and not for every Christian.

38. How much they will hear and how much they will see[63] the day they will come to Us, but today the unjust are in open error.

اَسْمِعْ بِهِمْ وَ اَبْصِرْ ۙ يَوْمَ يَاْتُوْنَنَا لٰكِنِ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ الْيَوْمَ فِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿۳۸﴾

63. This means they would be given so much punishment and they would see so much torment that it would be beyond your imagination.

39. And warn them of the day of regret [64] when the matter would have been decreed [65] and they are in negligence and they believe not [66].

وَ اَنْذِرْهُمْ يَوْمَ الْحَسْرَةِ اِذْ قُضِيَ الْاَمْرُ ۘ وَهُمْ فِيْ غَفْلَةٍ وَّ هُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۳۹﴾

64. On the Day of Judgement every pious person and evildoer would express regret; the evildoer for committing sins, and the pious for not doing enough good deeds, as is reported in Ahadith. For this reason the Day of Judgement is also called the Day of Sorrow or Regret.

65. In that the inmates of Paradise would be sent to Paradise, and the inmates of Hell into Hell. Death, too, would be slaughtered. Now, all can stay eternally in their respective abodes without ever experiencing death.

66. This means these people neither believe in the Day of Judgement, nor make any preparations for it.

40. Undoubtedly We shall inherit the earth [67] and whatever is thereon and they shall return towards Us [68].

اِنَّا نَحْنُ نَرِثُ الْاَرْضَ وَ مَنْ عَلَيْهَا وَ اِلَيْنَا يُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿۴۰﴾ ع ۲ ۲۵ ۵

67. On the Day of Judgement none, besides Allah Almighty, will have apparent ownership of anything. In the world people are kings in a metaphorical sense as well as owners and masters. Here, this is what is meant by inheritance. Otherwise, Allah Almighty is completely free and independent from the actual meaning of inheritance.

68. The believers returned joyfully, and the infidels by force. In short, all have to return to Allah Almighty, but the nature of their going would be different.

SECTION: 3

41. And remember Ibrahim in the book. No doubt, he was truthful [69].

وَ اذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ ۘ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ صِدِّيْقًا نَّبِيًّا ﴿۴۱﴾

69. The truthful is he who never has an inclination to utter a lie, a true person never talks a lie. Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) never spoke a lie. Those three things, which he had spoken from the Tauraat, were not untrue. They were absolutely true, like calling his wife Sarah as his religious sister, etc. It should be remembered that a lie by nature is not bad. Sometimes a lie becomes an act of worship, e.g. like an innocent person, out of humility, says, I am a terrible sinner, or I am cruel.

42. When he said to his father [70], 'O my father, why do you worship that which neither hears nor sees and nor it is of any use to you [71].

اِذْ قَالَ لِاَبِيْهِ يٰٓاَبَتِ لِمَ تَعْبُدُ مَا لَا يَسْمَعُ وَلَا يُبْصِرُ وَلَا يُغْنِيْ عَنْكَ شَيْـًٔا ﴿۴۲﴾

70. Here, the word father refers to Hazrat Ibrahim's (On whom be peace) uncle Azar and not his actual father i.e. Taarukh. Uncle is commonly referred to as father, because since the time of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) up to Hazrat Abdullah none in the predecessors of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whether males or females had been polytheists.
Allah Almighty says: "And your movements among those who offer prayers" (S26:V219).

We are seeing the movement of your Noor (Light) in pure ancestors and pure stomachs.
71. This means he will not be able to remove difficulties from you in the matters of the world as well as of religion as this is the quality of Allah Almighty. Otherwise, stones and iron are greatly beneficial in this world and are of much utilitarian value. They are our servants, not our lord. Hence, there is nothing objectionable about the verse.

43. 'O my father! Undoubtedly' there has come to me that knowledge which has not come to you [72], then follow me [73], I shall guide you to straight path.

يٰٓاَبَتِ اِنِّيْ قَدْ جَآءَنِيْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا لَمْ يَاْتِكَ فَاتَّبِعْنِيْٓ اَهْدِكَ صِرَاطًا سَوِيًّا ﴿۴۳﴾

72. Therefore you should not feel ashamed or regard it as below your dignity to acquire knowledge from me. From this we learn than an uneducated father should not feel ashamed to be a student of a learned son, nor should a common father feel the same at becoming a disciple (Mureed) of a Sufi son.

Furthermore, Prophets are blessed with Divinely inspired knowledge (Ilm-e-Laduni). They come to teach and educate the world, not to learn from it.
73. This tells us that even if the prophet's fathers are elder due to fatherhood, they become their followers and remain subordinate to them.

44. O my father! Serve not the devil74 Undoubtedly the devil is disobedient against the most affectionate [75].

يٰٓاَبَتِ لَا تَعْبُدِ الشَّيْطٰنَ ؕ اِنَّ الشَّيْطٰنَ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمٰنِ عَصِيًّا ﴿۴۴﴾

74.Do not commit infidelity by worshipping the devil. It should be remembered that an infidel and the polytheist become followers of the devil through their infidelity and polytheism. Here, the word 'serve' signifies one who serves or worships and does not mean creation, because in this regard even the devil is the creation and servant of Allah Almighty.

75. He became disobedient by refusing to prostrate to Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace). Obedience to one who is disobedient leads the person towards disobedience. It deprives the person of the bounties and blessings and leads him towards suffering and punishment.

Marfat.com

يٰٓاَبَتِ اِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ اَنْ يَّمَسَّكَ عَذَابٌ مِّنَ الرَّحْمٰنِ فَتَكُوْنَ لِلشَّيْطٰنِ وَلِيًّا ﴿٤٥﴾

45. O my father! I fear that the torment of the Most Affectionate may reach you [76].Then you become the companion of the devil (Shaitaan).

76. If you do not take refuge in me you will be caught up in Divine punishment. From this we learn that to come under the protection of the Prophets is a means of saving oneself from Divine punishment. From these verses we learn that to address an infidel father and an infidel son with words of honour and respect is permissible. It is important to fulfill their religious rights as fathers. However, they should not be regarded inwardly as your friends, but continue to give guidance to them.

قَالَ اَرَاغِبٌ اَنْتَ عَنْ اٰلِهَتِيْ يٰٓاِبْرٰهِيْمُ ۚ لَئِنْ لَّمْ تَنْتَهِ لَاَرْجُمَنَّكَ وَاهْجُرْنِيْ مَلِيًّا ﴿٤٦﴾

46. He said, ' do you turn your face from my gods O Ibrahim? No doubt, if you would not desist [77]; then I shall stone you, and be away from me for a good long time.

77. By refraining from insulting my idols and preaching unity of Allah Almighty to me.

قَالَ سَلٰمٌ عَلَيْكَ ۚ سَاَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكَ رَبِّيْ ۭ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ بِيْ حَفِيًّا ﴿٤٧﴾

47. He said, 'now enough [78], peace be to you [79], I will beg my lord forgiveness [80] for you, no doubt, he is kind enough to me.

78. By this is meant I extend distant greetings to you. Religious Issue: It is forbidden to extend greetings of peace to an infidel, because in it there is a prayer for forgiveness and Paradise while offering a prayer of forgiveness for an infidel is totally forbidden. Says Allah Almighty: "It is not worthy of the Prophet and the believers to ask forgiveness for the polytheists, even though they may be relatives" (S9:V113). This greeting was not one of salutation, but one of desertion to express displeasure.

79. I will pray for you at the time of Tahajjud Salaah or at any other which is conducive to the acceptance of Dua. This tells us that the best relationship a son can have with the father is to bring him on the path of guidance through his efforts or prayers.

80. By praying to Allah Almighty to grant his father Divine help to accept faith so that he can become worthy of forgiveness by becoming a believer. Otherwise, such a prayer for an infidel is forbidden.

وَاَعْتَزِلُكُمْ وَمَا تَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَاَدْعُوْا رَبِّيْ ۡ عَسٰٓى اَلَّآ اَكُوْنَ بِدُعَاۗءِ رَبِّيْ شَقِيًّا ﴿٤٨﴾

48. And I shall be apart from you and from from all those whom you worship besides Allah [81] and I shall worship my Lord, it is near that by serving my Lord, I may not be unfortunate [82].

81. From this, emerge two issues:

1. Feigning piety and hypocrisy in Islam is forbidden, because Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) did not conceal his religion.

2. It is forbidden to keep company with people of irreligious beliefs, because Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) severed the relationship with his infidel uncle.

Marfat.com

82. This means all worshippers of idols are wretches while worshippers of Allah Almighty are fortunate people. From this we learn that the worship of Allah Almighty is a means of removing misfortune and acquiring good fortune. Therefore, no believer should call himself wretched and unfortunate. If we were unfortunate, we would not have obtained the Kalimah of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. Peace be upon him whose remembrance, never saturates Peace be upon him in whose gathering destiny never sleeps.

49. Then when he departed from them and from their deities besides Allah[83] We gave him Ishaque and Yaqub [84]. And made each of them Prophets the communicator of unseen news.

فَلَمَّا اعْتَزَلَهُمْ وَ مَا يَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ۙ وَهَبْنَا لَهٗۤ اِسْحٰقَ وَ يَعْقُوْبَ ؕ وَ كُلًّا جَعَلْنَا نَبِيًّا ﴿۴۹﴾

83. By departed means migrated from Babel towards Syria. From this we learn that hypocrisy and pretentious piety is an evil act, for Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) did not stay in Babel under pretentious cover.

84. From this, emerge a few issues:

1. A pious son is a great favour and bounty of Allah Almighty.
2. Allah Almighty had granted Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) such a long life that he was able to see his grandson Hazrat Yaqub (On whom be peace).
3. Due to the blessing of an acceptable migration, Allah Almighty grants worldly favours and bounties to the immigrant refugee. It should be remembered that Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) is older than Hazrat Is'haq (On whom be peace), but because Hazrat Is'haaq (On whom be peace) is the father of many Prophets, he is mentioned with great distinction.

50. And we gave them our mercy [85] and put for them true lofty renown[86].

وَ وَهَبْنَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ رَّحْمَتِنَا وَ جَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ عَلِيًّا ﴿۵۰﴾

85. Being very wealthy, and the father of blessed Prophets, the honour of constructing the sacred Ka'bah, the honour of having the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم from his progeny, in short, countless blessings of distinction and all people of religion praise him, in fact even some polytheists, too, respect him by calling him Krishna. One religious Hindu himself said that the person whom you call Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is called Krishna by us, and who you call Ismail is known to us as Arjun.

86. The Christians, the Jews, the Muslims

SECTION: 4

51. And remember [87] Musa in the book, no doubt, he was the chosen one and was a messenger the communi- cator of unseen news [88].

وَ اذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ مُوْسٰۤى ۫ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ مُخْلَصًا وَّ كَانَ رَسُوْلًا نَّبِيًّا ﴿۵۱﴾

87.Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is from the offspring of Hazrat Yaqub (On whom be peace). Here, he is being mentioned before Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) so that there would not be a big gap in the listing between the grandfather and the grandson. Otherwise, in terms of time Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) appeared long before Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

88. Messengers are ours, and Prophets belong to the creation. Therefore, Messengers are given priority over the Prophets. It should be remembered that the Apostleship is linked with the Creator, while Prophethood is linked with the creation (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc).

52. And We called [89] him from the right side of the Mount (Tur) and drew him near for telling our secrets[90].

وَ نَادَيْنٰهُ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّوْرِ الْاَيْمَنِ وَ قَرَّبْنٰهُ نَجِيًّا ﴿۵۲﴾

89. Mount Tur is a small hill along the road between Egypt and Madyan where Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was bestowed with Prophethood, while bringing his wife Bibi Safoorah from Madyan to Egypt. This was the call: "Oh Musa, verily I am Allah". The word "Aiman" refers to either the right side of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) coming from Egypt, or a blessed direction.

90. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) spoke directly, without the medium of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace). Therefore, he gained the title of KALEEMULLAH (God's interlocutor). It should be remembered that all the words of secret, which Allah Almighty spoke to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) were disclosed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, but the secret talk that took place between Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on the night of Me'raaj were not disclosed to anyone. Instead, it is referred to as "Now He revealed to His bondsman whatever He revealed" (S53:V10). This tells us that while all the others are distant friends, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an intimate friend.

53. And gave him out of Our mercy his brother, the communicator of unseen news (a prophet) [91].

وَ وَهَبْنَا لَهٗ مِنْ رَّحْمَتِنَآ اَخَاهُ هٰرُوْنَ نَبِيًّا ﴿۵۳﴾

91. This tells us that Prophethood was granted to Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) due to the prayer of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). From this we can understand the greatness of those who are beloved to Allah Almighty. The bounty that you can receive through their prayers will not be found in the treasures of kings. So, if you do obtain children or other worldly favours through their prayers, then what difficulty is there in it?

54. And remember [92] Ismail in the book, undoubtedly, he was true in promise [93] and was a messenger, a communicator of unseen news (prophet).

وَ اذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ ۫ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ صَادِقَ الْوَعْدِ وَ كَانَ رَسُوْلًا نَّبِيًّا ﴿۵۴﴾ ج

92. Who is the eldest son of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم glorious grandfather.

93. All the promises, which he made with Allah Almighty and the people, will be fulfilled. Although all Prophets are absolutely true to their word, Hazrat Ismail (On whom be peace) stands out prominently in this quality. Once a person said to him till I come back, wait for me here. He stood there waiting for him for three days. At the time of his sacrifice, he fulfilled the promise of exercising patience.

55. And he bade [94] his family

وَ كَانَ يَاْمُرُ اَهْلَهٗ بِالصَّلٰوةِ وَ الزَّكٰوةِ ۪ members to pray and to give poor due (Zakaat) and was pleasing to his Lord [95].

Marfat.com

وَ كَانَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهٖ مَرْضِيًّا ﴿۵۵﴾

94. This command was not only given to his kith and kin, but to his servants and his entire people.

95. This tells us that to order your children to perform their Salaahs is loved by Allah Almighty and is a way of the Prophets. If a person is a regular Musallee but he fails to make his children as such, he is in danger of being punished by Allah Almighty.

56. And remember Idris [96] in the book, undoubtedly he was a man of truth, the communicator of unseen news.

وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتٰبِ اِدْرِيْسَ ز اِنَّهٗ كَانَ صِدِّيْقًا نَّبِيًّا ﴿۵۶﴾ ق لا

96. The name of Hazrat Idris (On whom be peace) is Shareef Akhnokh. He is the great grandfather of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace), and is from the children of Hazrat Sheeth (On whom be peace). The genealogy of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) is as follows: Nuh bin Mak, bin Muta wash Lakh, bin Akhnokh (Idris) bin Bard, bin Salos, bin Qainaan bin Anosh bin Sheeth bin Adam (On whom be peace). Hazrat Idris (On whom be peace) was the first person to write with a pen, wear sewn clothes, made scales and measures, wear armour, waged holy war against the children of Qabeel, invented arithmetic and calculation (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan. Tafseer Roohul Mu'ani).

57. And We raised him up to a lofty building [97].

وَّرَفَعْنٰهُ مَكَانًا عَلِيًّا ﴿۵۷﴾

97. After death, giving life and sent him into Paradise with the same body. It should be remembered that four Prophets are alive; two are on the earth: i.e. Hazrat Khizr and Hazrat Ilyas (On whom be peace), one is in the heavens i.e. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and one is in Paradise i.e. Hazrat Idris (On whom be peace).

58. These are they on whom Allah bestowed His blessings [98] from the communicators of unseen news, of the offspring of Adam and of them whom We bore [99] with Nuh and of the offspring of Ibrahim [100] and Yaqub [101] and of them whom We guided and chose. Whenever the verses of the Most Affectionate are recited [102] to them, they fell down prostrating and weeping [103].

اُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْعَمَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنَ النَّبِيّٖنَ مِنْ ذُرِّيَّةِ اٰدَمَ ق وَ مِمَّنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوْحٍ ز وَّمِنْ ذُرِّيَّةِ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ وَ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ز وَمِمَّنْ هَدَيْنَا وَاجْتَبَيْنَا ط اِذَا تُتْلٰى عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتُ الرَّحْمٰنِ خَرُّوْا سُجَّدًا وَّبُكِيًّا ﴿۵۸﴾ سجدة

98. Therefore be with them. Says Allah Almighty: "Guide us on the Straight Path. The Path of those whom You have favoured" (S1: Vs5-6).

99. This means Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) is the grandson of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) and the son of that son of Hazrat Nuh (On whom be peace) who was in the ark i.e. Hazrat Saam.

Marfat.com

100. Hazrat Is'haaq and Hazrat Ismail (On them be peace).

101. Hazrat Musa, Hazrat Harun, Hazrat Zakariya, Hazrat Yahya and Hazrat Isa (On them be peace). From these verses we learn that parents gain honour through pious children.

102. When those verses, which were in the books of these Prophets, were being recited, people who were on the right path would weep and fall into prostration. Therefore, Oh Muslims you, too, prostrate so that you can imitate them. Therefore, Sajdah of Tilawat here is Wajib on the believers. This tells us

59. Then after them came those degenerate [104] who wasted prayer [105] and followed their lusts, then soon they will encounter a valley of the hell [106].

فَخَلَفَ مِنۡۢ بَعۡدِهِمۡ خَلۡفٌ اَضَاعُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاتَّبَعُوا الشَّهَوٰتِ فَسَوۡفَ يَلۡقَوۡنَ غَيًّا ۙ﴿۵۹﴾

104. Christians, Jews and other followers of these pious people who were acting contrary to their teachings.

107. From this verse we learn that it is important, first, to show total disgust for infidelity, then accepting faith, then doing good deeds. This should be the sequence.

61. Gardens of dwelling which the most Affectionate [109] promised to His bondsmen in the unseen [110] undoubtedly His promise to come.

that imitation of the pious is an act of piety.

103. From this, emerge three issues:

1. To recite from the book of Allah Almighty, and to listen to its recitation is the way of the previous Prophets, i.e. their inherent quality.
2. To recite the Holy QUR'AAN with sincerity and humility is an act of piety.
3. To weep out of love for Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or due to the fear of Divine punishment at the time of Quranic recitation or listening to its recitation is most beloved to Allah Almighty and the Sunnah of most of the previous Prophets.

congregation without any valid reason, not performing it at all, to perform it for show, etc.

106. Ghai is a name of a valley in Hell from whose heat other regions of hell seek refuge. In here, the adulterers, usurers, those disobedient to parents and those who bear false testimony, would be kept (Khazainul Irfaan).

108. In that the reward of their good deeds should be decreased without any reason. If the good deeds of any believer is seized or decreased, it is due to his own doing.

110. This means in that state when Paradise was concealed from the believers, and they were far away from it. Then they believed in this promise.

62. They will not hear therein any word vain [111], but only greetings of peace [112]. And for them there is their provision morning and evening [113].

111. This means neither will they utter any unlawful and worthless words in Paradise, nor will anyone talk to them in this way. In this, a command is hinted that while in the world safeguard yourselves from all types of worthless talks. Do not speak anything improper.

112. The inmates of Paradise will extend greetings to one another or the angels will greet them, or they will hear greetings extended to them from Allah Almighty. This means greeting of peace in this world is a heavenly speech. There, too, greetings would be extended at the time of meeting and departure.

113. This means eternally, because there will be no morning and evening. Some scholars have said that in this time the angels would be bringing food for the inmates of Paradise according to their honour. Or else, they themselves would be eating whenever they desire food. There will be no restriction placed on this.

تِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِىْ نُوْرِثُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا مَنْ كَانَ تَقِيًّا ﴿۶۳﴾

63. This is the Garden which We shall cause to inherit to that of Our bondsmen who is duty-bound righteous [114].

114. This means the inherited Paradise will only be granted to the pious people. The inmate of Paradise will include in his share the portion of the infidel. But bestowed Paradise will be obtained without any good deeds, e.g. for the minor children of the believers or to those people who are created to fill it.

وَ مَا نَتَنَزَّلُ اِلَّا بِاَمْرِ رَبِّكَ ۚ لَهٗ مَا بَيْنَ اَيْدِيْنَا وَ مَا خَلْفَنَا وَمَا بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ ۚ وَ مَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا ﴿۶۴﴾ ۚ

64. (And Jibraeel said to the beloved Prophet), 'we angels do not descend but by the command [115] of your honorous Lord. His is whatever is before us and whatsoever is behind us and whatsoever is in between [116] and your honorous Lord is never forgetful.

115. The author of Roohul Bayaan states that in this verse Allah Almighty has reproduced those words of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace), which he had uttered in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Once, when the infidels had enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about the People of the Cave, he replied that he would inform them the following day. But revelation had not come for fifteen or forty days. Thereafter, when Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) came with the revelation, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم asked him why he had not come with any revelation during these days. To this he replied: "I am a commissioned servant of Allah Almighty. Whenever I am ordered, I come to you".

116. The word 'before' signifies the Hereafter, 'behind' signifies the world, and 'in between' signifies the prophecies and state of affairs from the beginning of time until its end.

65. Lord of the heavens and earth and what is in between, then worship Him and remain firm [117] on His worship. Do you know any other of His name [118]?

117. This tells us that worshipping during both happy times and difficult times is an act of excellence, and those who are well liked by Allah Almighty. There is no excellence in the worship performed during happy times only or difficult times only. May Allah Almighty grant us guidance to act upon this.

118. This refers to the glory and dignity of Allah Almighty, that even the infidels had not named any idols as Allah Almighty. It is said here that since no one is associated in His Name, then how would He be associated with a deed? Allah Almighty had not given the name Muhammad to any other Prophet or Saint before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This name of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, had been kept unused.

SECTION: 5

وَ يَقُوْلُ الْاِنْسَانُ ءَاِذَا مَا مِتُّ لَسَوْفَ اُخْرَجُ حَيًّا ﴿۶۶﴾

66. And the man says, ' shall when I die, then necessarily soon be brought forth alive? [119]

119. Reason for its revelation:
This verse had been revealed regarding Waleed bin Mugheerah and Ubay bin Khalaf who had rejected life after death.

اَوَلَا يَذْكُرُ الْاِنْسَانُ اَنَّا خَلَقْنٰهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ يَكُ شَيْـًٔا ﴿۶۷﴾

67. And does the man not remember that We made him before when he was nothing [120].

120. This means Oh Waleed when Allah Almighty had brought you to life, when you were not in existence and did everything for you, then why should it be difficult for Him to bring you back into existence once again after your death? Initial creation is difficult, but recreating it is easy.

فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَحْشُرَنَّهُمْ وَالشَّيٰطِيْنَ ثُمَّ لَنُحْضِرَنَّهُمْ حَوْلَ جَهَنَّمَ جِثِيًّا ﴿۶۸﴾ ج

68. So by your Lord [121], We shall gather [122] them and the devils together, and shall bring them around the Hell falling on their knees.

121. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is such a beloved, that Allah Almighty takes His Oath through the reference of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم e.g. through the oath of your Lord.

122. This tells us that anyone who is linked with that person; his end will take place with him. The resurrection of those linked with the evil people will take place with the devils, and the resurrection of those linked with the saintly people will take place with the saints of Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that man should keep contact with the pious. On the Day of Judgement every infidel would be chained with that devil with whom he was linked in this world.

ثُمَّ لَنَنْزِعَنَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شِيْعَةٍ اَيُّهُمْ اَشَدُّ عَلَى الرَّحْمٰنِ عِتِيًّا ﴿۶۹﴾

69. Then We shall pick [123] out from every group those who will be most fearless against the Most Affectionate [124].

123. This means, on the Day of Judgement when the multitude of infidels would be sent to Hell, they would be chained to their leaders, but afterwards they would be separated so that the infidel leaders would be placed into separate regions, and those under them would be kept in another section of Hell.

124. Although infidelity is of a similar type, 'Infidelity is of one group' but the infidels are of various types. Every type of infidel would be punished according to his infidelity. Abu Talib and Abu Jahl cannot be entitled to similar punishment, because Abu Talib was the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم obedient servant, while Abu Jahl was his enemy. The leaders of the infidels would be separated from the rest of the infidels so as to intensify the severity of their punishment.

ثُمَّ لَنَحْنُ اَعْلَمُ بِالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ اَوْلٰى بِهَا صِلِيًّا ﴿۷۰﴾

70. Then We know very well those who are worthiest to be roasted in the fire [125].

125. This means We are aware of which infidel is suitable for a particular region of Hell so that he would be sent to that particular place, and who will be thrown first and who would be thrown afterwards.

وَ اِنْ مِّنْكُمْ اِلَّا وَارِدُهَا ۚ كَانَ عَلٰى رَبِّكَ حَتْمًا مَّقْضِيًّا ﴿۷۱﴾

71. There is not one of you who may not pass over the Hell [126] this is necessarily a decided thing for your Lord.

126. Because Hell is on the way to Paradise. The extremely narrow bridge (PULSIRAT) is found on Hell, which everyone would be required to cross. The infidels would be unable to cross it. The believers would be able to cross it, some like lightning, some like the wind, some like a swift horse.

ثُمَّ نُنَجِّي الَّذِيْنَ اتَّقَوْا وَّنَذَرُ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ فِيْهَا جِثِيًّا ﴿۷۲﴾

72. Then We shall save [127] the God-fearing; and will leave the unjust in it falling on their knees [128].

127. The heat of the fire of Hell would not be able to touch the believers even when they are crossing the bridge. In fact, the fire would be proclaiming Oh believer cross swiftly because your light has extinguished my flames.

128. Those infidels would fall down from the bridge into Jahannam. They would remain there eternally, while some sinful believers who would also be falling therein, would be taken out of it after they had served their period of punishment. Here, the word 'unjust' denotes infidel, while "leaving" signifies to be kept therein eternally.

وَ اِذَا تُتْلٰى عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتُنَا بَيِّنٰتٍ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لِلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْٓا ۙ اَيُّ good and better in assembly [130].

الْفَرِيْقَيْنِ خَيْرٌ مَّقَامًا وَّ اَحْسَنُ نَدِيًّا ﴿٧٣﴾

129. Reason for its Revelation:
The wealthy Quraish of Makkah would dress smartly, groom their hair using oil and out of pride and arrogance say this to the poor believers. To repudiate their claims, this verse was revealed (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).
130. This means because in this world we are living more comfortable than you i.e. you are poor, we are wealthy, then if, according to you, there is the Day of Judgement, then there too, we will be better than you. Or, it could mean Allah Almighty is pleased with our infidelity, and displeased with your Islam. Therefore, we infidels are more comfortable than you believers. This tells us that to say worldly comforts to be better than the Hereafter is proof of the ways of the infidels. These very luxuries can sometimes turn out to be a cause of burden and misery of the Hereafter.

74. And how many generations We have destroyed before them, that they were better in goods and outward show than them [131].

وَ كَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْنٍ هُمْ اَحْسَنُ اَثَاثًا وَّ رِءْيًا ﴿٧٤﴾

131. Like the Pharaoh, Hamaan, Qarun and their companions. Thus, the wealth of this world is no proof for the salvation of the Hereafter.

75. Say you, 'one who is in error, then the Most Affectionate let loose him [132] well until when they see that they are promised [133] with, either the torment of the Hour. Now then they will know [134] whose position is worse and whose force is weak.

قُلْ مَنْ كَانَ فِي الضَّلٰلَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ لَهُ الرَّحْمٰنُ مَدًّا ۚ حَتّٰۤى اِذَا رَاَوْا مَا يُوْعَدُوْنَ اِمَّا الْعَذَابَ وَ اِمَّا السَّاعَةَ ؕ فَسَيَعْلَمُوْنَ مَنْ هُوَ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا وَّ اَضْعَفُ جُنْدًا ﴿٧٥﴾

132. The great Sufis say that despite their sins, infidelity, and rebelliousness, if men are bestowed with wealth, long life, worldly comforts, etc. then those are signs of Divine punishment for them. Stay far away from such people. On the other hand, if one is plunged into worldly miseries despite one's piety and purity, it is a sign of Divine mercy for him. Make your duty to be in their company.
133. At the time of being killed or captured by the believers. Or, at the time of death, or when in the grave, or on the Day of Judgement. Among all these, the punishment of the Hereafter is most severe, because on that day there will be punishment as well as disgrace.
134.Seeing this punishment in its outward form. Some infidels today know in their inner hearts that they are entitled for punishment, but this disclosure will be made on the Day of Reckoning.

76. And those who got guidance, Allah will increase them in guidance [135]. And the abiding good things are excellent with your Lord in respect of reward [136] and in respect of return [137].

وَ يَزِيْدُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اهْتَدَوْا هُدًى ؕ وَ الْبٰقِيٰتُ الصّٰلِحٰتُ خَيْرٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَّ خَيْرٌ مَّرَدًّا ﴿٧٦﴾

Marfat.com

135. Either in this world, by providing them with firmness of Guidance and death on faith. Or, on the Day of Judgement they would be blessed with positive knowledge from convincing knowledge, so that whatever they had understood from what they had heard, they would be able to witness it today.

136. Every good deed, which will not be ruined in this world, is included in the concept of "abiding good things" e.g. accepting faith with sincerity, sincere form of worship, and honesty in the execution of all affairs. All these are included in this verse. May Allah Almighty grant this to us.

137. Therefore, the wealth of the infidel is a burden of the Hereafter for him, while even the poverty of the believers in this world is a means of pleasure of the Hereafter for him. Thus, the poverty of the believers is better than the wealth of the infidel.

77. Have you seen him who has disbelieved in Our Signs and says, 'I shall surely be given wealth and children? [138].

أَفَرَءَيْتَ الَّذِى كَفَرَ بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ قَالَ لَاُوْتَيَنَّ مَالًا وَّ وَلَدًا ﴿۷۷﴾

138. Reason for its Revelation:
Hazrat Khubab had given a loan to Aas bin Waail. He went to him for its payment. Aas bin Waail replied: "If you give up Islam, I will pay your debt". To this, Hazrat Khubab said: "Even if you were to die and then come back to life, I will not abandon Islam". Hearing this, Aas enquired "Will I come back to life after I die?" Hazrat Khubab replied in the affirmative. On hearing the reply, Aas said: " How nice it would be if I were to die then come back to life in which I would gain children and wealth from which I would be able to settle your debt". In response to the above, this verse was revealed. From this we learn that to make fun about the laws of Shariah is the way of the infidels. We further learn, that to expect mercy about committing sins, abstaining from doing good deeds, too, is the way of the infidels.

78. Has he looked into the unseen, or has he taken any covenant with our Most Affectionate?

اَطَّلَعَ الْغَيْبَ اَمِ اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ عَهْدًا ﴿۷۸﴾

79. Never [139] now We shall put in writing [140] what he will prolong and for him the torment [141].

كَلَّا ؕ سَنَكْتُبُ مَا يَقُوْلُ وَ نَمُدُّ لَهٗ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ مَدًّا ﴿۷۹﴾

139. This means neither has he admitted this to his Lord, nor has he peeped into the events of the unseen. Or, that he will never receive wealth and children. If Allah wills, believers will receive believing children as well as the reward of their wealth.

140. This means Our Angels Kiraman Katibain. From this we learn that the deeds of the beloved servants of Allah Almighty are indeed deeds of Allah Almighty.

141. Which is eternal, without any end.

80. And for whatever he is speaking, We shall inherit [142] and he will come to Us alone [143].

وَّ نَرِثُهٗ مَا يَقُوْلُ وَ يَاْتِيْنَا فَرْدًا ﴿۸۰﴾

142.This means all these things he is mentioning i.e. wealth, children, etc. would be their heirs after his death, without him receiving any benefit from them. From this we learn that even after death, the wealth and children of the believers are beneficial to them.

Marfat.com

143. This means he will come alone from his wealth and children, although he will be chained to the devil. This verse is not in contradiction with those verses in which it is said that every person will be with his Imam etc.

81. And they have taken other Gods beside Allah that they may give them strength.

وَاتَّخَذُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ اٰلِهَةً لِّيَكُوْنُوْا لَهُمْ عِزًّا ﴿٨١﴾

82. Never, soon they will deny their worship and will become their opponents [144].

كَلَّا ؕ سَيَكْفُرُوْنَ بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ وَ يَكُوْنُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمْ ضِدًّا ﴿٨٢﴾

144. From this we learn that the noble Prophets and the blessed saints would testify about the worship and obedience of the believers, not deny them.

SECTION 6

83. Did you not see that We sent the devils [145] upon infidels, that they impel them well (towards sins) [146].

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّاۤ اَرْسَلْنَا الشَّيٰطِيْنَ عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ تَؤُزُّهُمْ اَزًّا ﴿٨٣﴾

145. From this, emerge three issues:
1. The devil overpowers man due to his evil practices.
2. Evil friends are a form of Divine punishment.
3. To make a person inclined towards doing evil is the work of the devil and his cohorts.

and infidelity, and showed them green pastures for committing sins. When this results in calamity, they separate themselves from those infidels. An example of this is the manner, in which some people instill fear in the Muslims regarding Zakaat, but they themselves, instead of paying their Zakaat, hope for the best, or they stop people from giving charity, but encourage them to spend freely in unlawful wedding customs.

146. This means the devil and his cohorts greatly encouraged the infidels towards polytheism

84. Then be not you in haste against them. We are completing their counting [147].

فَلَا تَعْجَلْ عَلَيْهِمْ ؕ اِنَّمَا نَعُدُّ لَهُمْ عَدًّا ﴿٨٤﴾

147. Calculation of their evil deeds, or their breaths or the term of completion of their punishment.

85. The day We shall carry the duty-bound (pious) towards the Most Affectionate as guests [148].

يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ اِلَى الرَّحْمٰنِ وَفْدًا ﴿٨٥﴾

148. The appearance of the infidels on the Day of Judgement would be like the appearance of criminals in front of the judge, while that of the believers would be like distinguished guests in the presence of their hosts. The concept of appearance is the same, but its form would be different.

86. And will drive the culprits towards the Hell thirsty [149].

وَّنَسُوْقُ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ اِلٰى جَهَنَّمَ وِرْدًا ﴿٨٦﴾

Marfat.com

149. From this, emerge three issues:
1. The entry of the infidels in Hell would be one of utter disgrace and ignominy, while that of the believers would be with honour and respect.
2. Allah Almighty declares the deeds of angels as His deeds, because urging the inmates of Hell would be the function of the angels, but Allah Almighty declares it as His work.
3. The infidels on Judgement Day would be extremely thirsty, while one tributary of the River of Kauthar will be brought to this place for the believers from which the infidels would be barred.

87. The people are not the owners of intercession [150] but only those who have taken a covenant with the Most Affectionate [151].

لَا يَمْلِكُوْنَ الشَّفَاعَةَ اِلَّا مَنِ اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ عَهْدًا ﴿۸۷﴾

150. In this verse there is a rejection of either the intercession of the idols, or there is a total negation of intercession for the infidels.
151. This means those who have already been granted permission for intercession. It should be remembered that our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has been granted permission for intercession by Allah Almighty in this world already. By prostrating in the court of Allah Almighty is in fact, for the sake of seeking permission to speak. Thus, there is no inconsistency between the verse and the Hadith. Respect of the Royal Court requires that you should seek permission before you speak.

88. The infidels said, 'the Most Affectionate has taken a son'.

وَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمٰنُ وَلَدًا ﴿۸۸﴾

89. No doubt, you brought a thing of heavy limit. (Most evil)

لَقَدْ جِئْتُمْ شَيْـًٔا اِدًّا ﴿۸۹﴾

90.It is near that the heavens may burst by it and the earth may crack down and the mountains fell down collapsed.

تَكَادُ السَّمٰوٰتُ يَتَفَطَّرْنَ مِنْهُ وَتَنْشَقُّ الْاَرْضُ وَ تَخِرُّ الْجِبَالُ هَدًّا ﴿۹۰﴾

91. That because they ascribed a son to the Most Affectionate [152].

اَنْ دَعَوْا لِلرَّحْمٰنِ وَلَدًا ﴿۹۱﴾

152. This means it is such a terrible sin to prove children for Allah Almighty that if He were to show His wrath for this type of mischief it will split the sky asunder and the mountains would be torn apart.

92. And it behoves not the Most Affectionate that he should take a son [153].

وَ مَا يَنْۢبَغِيْ لِلرَّحْمٰنِ اَنْ يَّتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا ﴿۹۲﴾

153. From this we learn that children cannot become our slaves because children have rights over the parents, while there are no rights over the master. The learned jurists comment that if a father purchases his son, who was previously a slave of someone else, such a son would immediately be a free person. There, in refutation of the infidels, Allah Almighty has mentioned the slavehood of His creation. It should be remembered that everyone is a slave of Allah Almighty, but there is a difference in servitude. There are

95. And of them every one will come to Him alone on the day of judgement [155].

96. Undoubtedly, those who believed[156] and did good deeds soon the Most Affectionate will make for them love [157].

156. This means We instill the love of Our beloved servants in the hearts of people in a natural way, so that people love them without any apparent reasons.

157. From this we learn that the sign of a saint is that he is known as a saint among them. Likewise, hearts of people are naturally inclined towards them. Says Allah Almighty:

97.So we made this Qur'aan quite easy[158] in your tongue that you may give glad-tidings to the Godfearing and you may warn thereby a contentious people [159].

158. There could be a few explanations to this verse: Made the QUR'AAN easy in your own language i.e. He revealed the QUR'AAN in Arabic, He made it easy as per your own Observe, even today people are inclined towards them while they are sleeping in their Mazaars, though no one has seen them. This is the nature of love bestowed by Allah Almighty. Even sticks have wept out of love for our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

By this is meant it was impossible for common people to receive the Holy QUR'AAN, as they are earthlings, while the QUR'AAN is heavenly. But through the blessing of your language, the world was able to obtain the QUR'AAN. Allah be praised! Abu Jahl and Abu Lahab, too, knew the literal meaning of the Holy QUR'AAN, but because they had cut off links with the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, they remained infidels.

159. From this we learn that the true giver of glad tidings, and the true warner is the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم, while the Holy QUR'AAN is a means of glad tidings and warning. Anyone who cuts off his link with the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم and accepts the Holy QUR'AAN, fear and hope, which are the pillars of faith, will not be instilled in his heart.

98. And how many generations We destroyed before them. Do you see any one of them or you hear of them any whisper [160]?

وَكَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْنٍ ؕ هَلْ تُحِسُّ مِنْهُمْ مِّنْ اَحَدٍ اَوْ تَسْمَعُ لَهُمْ رِكْزًا ﴿۹۸﴾

160. This means Oh My Beloved, you do not see these ruined nations in this world, nor are you able to hear their footsteps as they walk. All of them are completely destroyed. However, wherever they are kept in captivity, your blessed eyes are observing them. On the night of Me'raaj, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم had seen all types of sinners in Hell. Hence, the Wahabis cannot use this verse to extract any proof.

SURAH TAHA

(MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

8 Sections and 135 Verses 1641 Words , 5242 Letters

SECTION: 1

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

طٰهٰ ۚ ﴿۱﴾

1. TAHA [2]

2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would engage himself in so much worship that his blessed feet would swell. He would offer Salaah the entire night. The above verse was revealed to reflect this. Or, it could mean the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be greatly disheartened at the callous attitude of the infidels towards Islam. This verse was revealed in which Allah Almighty comforts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم by saying: "Oh My Beloved Messenger We did not reveal this Holy QUR'AAN in order that you may experience any physical or spiritual hardship through it".

مَآ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْاٰنَ لِتَشْقٰٓى ۙ ﴿۲﴾

2. O beloved! We sent not this Qur`aan upon you that you may be put to trouble. [3]

3. In it there is the highest form of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم praise. Others are instructed to increase their good deeds, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is counselled to decrease them. The reason being the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from the first instance was engaging himself in intense worship.

اِلَّا تَذْكِرَةً لِّمَنْ يَّخْشٰى ۙ ﴿۳﴾

3. Yes as an admonition to him who fears. [4]

4. Because only this type of person would benefit from the Holy QUR'AAN. Otherwise, the Holy QUR'AAN is counselling everybody. Thus, the Aryans cannot raise an objection against the verse.

تَنْزِيْلًا مِّمَّنْ خَلَقَ الْاَرْضَ وَالسَّمٰوٰتِ الْعُلٰى ﴿۴﴾ ؕ

4. A sent down by Him Who has made the earth and the high heavens.[5]

5. This means the physical world or the world of bodies. Because the earth is nearest to us, and the heaven is far away, therefore the earth is mentioned first because we are aware of its details.

اَلرَّحْمٰنُ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ اسْتَوٰى ﴿۵﴾

5. He, The Most Affectionate, is established on the Throne [6] (befitting to His Dignity).

Marfat.com

6. The word ARSH denotes the throne of the king, while ISTAWA denotes sitting on it. Allah Almighty is free and pure from both of these acts. Hence, this verse is from the ambiguous verses viz. the type of sitting and establishment which is befitting to the dignity of Allah Almighty, and not the manner of sitting like that of ours.

6. His is whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth and whatever is in between and whatever is beneath the wet soil.

لَهٗ مَا فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِی الۡاَرۡضِ وَ مَا بَیۡنَهُمَا وَ مَا تَحۡتَ الثَّرٰی ۝٦

7. And if you speak the word loudly, then He knows. The secret and that which is more hidden [7] than this.

وَ اِنۡ تَجۡهَرۡ بِالۡقَوۡلِ فَاِنَّهٗ یَعۡلَمُ السِّرَّ وَاَخۡفَی ۝٧

7. "Secret" is that which we know, and not the others, while "hidden" denotes those things, which even we are unaware of, like the future deeds, which would be done by us. Or, 'secret' means our hidden deeds, which are concealed, from people, while 'hidden' things are our inner evil suggestions. Or, secrets are our mysteries, which we know of, while Ikhfa is Divine mysteries which none can fathom. What is really meant is you should neither commit sins openly, nor in secret, because Allah Almighty is fully aware of everything. This does not mean that you should not remember Allah Almighty publicly or openly. The Azaan, Talbiyah of Hajj and, Takbeere-e-Tashreek are all recited loudly. However, a person should not engage in loud Zikr with the knowledge that Allah Almighty does not hear the silent Zikr, but he should do this loudly to awake one's own soul, to awaken those who are asleep and to get others inclined towards the remembrance of Allah Almighty.

8. Allah none to be worshipped but He. His are all good names. [8]

اَللّٰهُ لَاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ؕ لَهُ الۡاَسۡمَآءُ الۡحُسۡنٰی ۝٨

8. This tells us that Allah Almighty has many Names, because His Attributes are many. Names reflect the qualities. Also, the needs of people are many; hence His names are just as many. Every needy person should call upon Him according to the name of his need.

9. And has there come to you the tiding of Musa?

وَهَلۡ اَتٰىكَ حَدِیۡثُ مُوۡسٰی ۝٩

10. When he saw a fire, then said to his wife, 'stay [9], I have seen a fire, haply I may bring for you a brand [10] of fire or find a way at the fire'.

اِذۡ رَاٰ نَارًا فَقَالَ لِاَهۡلِهِ امۡكُثُوۡۤا اِنِّیۡۤ اٰنَسۡتُ نَارًا لَّعَلِّیۡۤ اٰتِیۡكُمۡ مِّنۡهَا بِقَبَسٍ اَوۡ اَجِدُ عَلَی النَّارِ هُدًی ۝١٠

9. From this we learn that a wife can be called as a household person because at that point in time only his wife Safoorah was with him, whom he called as a household member. Since the word AHL is masculine therefore the verb 'stay', too, is masculine. Hence, in the progeny of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم his wives, too, are certainly included.

10. This tells us that only Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) has seen that fire, not Bibi Safoorah. We also learn that fire can be taken without permission, perhaps this was said because Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was not certain of bringing the fire.

11. Then when he came near to the fire [11], a call was made O Musa!

فَلَمَّآ اَتٰىهَا نُوْدِیَ یٰمُوْسٰی ﴿۱۱﴾

11. Here, that incident of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is mentioned when Hazrat Musa had taken permission of his father in-law Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) to take his wife Bibi Safoorah from Madyan to Egypt to meet his beloved mother. He had deviated from the road due to the fear of Syrian kings, and took the road towards the jungles. Bibi Safoorah at that time was pregnant. On arriving near Mount Sinai, at night, her labour pains began. The night was dark and it was bitterly cold and the need arose for fire and medicine. On seeing the light from far, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) thought that there was fire there. There, he had seen either a dark red or violet tree, which was bright from top to bottom. But neither the fire had brought about a change in its greenness nor was the fire extinguished through the greenness from the tree.

12. Verily, I am your Lord [12], then take off your shoes, undoubtedly, you are in a sacred valley called Tuwa [13].

اِنِّیْۤ اَنَا رَبُّكَ فَاخْلَعْ نَعْلَیْكَ ۚ اِنَّكَ بِالْوَادِ الْمُقَدَّسِ طُوًی ﴿۱۲﴾

12. This sound was coming from the tree. That tree was not Allah Almighty, but the reflection of His Speech. For example, the box of the radio does not speak, but it reflects the voice of the speaker. Likewise, those great saints engrossed in the meditation of Allah Almighty who said: "Anal Haq" (I am the Truth) ("Ya Subhani Ma Azamu Shaani") in a state of fervour, did not utter these words out of their own volition, but like this tree they were the reflection of Someone's speech. Thus, Hazrat Mansoor bin Hallaj was a believer, while by saying "I am your lord" the Pharaoh became an infidel because he made himself god through his ego.

13. From this, emerge three issues:

1. We show respect to blessed and sacred jungles, like the jungles of Makkah and Madina Munawwarah, which are known as sacred territories.
2. To take off your shoes for the sake of respect is the way of the Prophets. Thus, it is appropriate to take off shoes before entering the mosque, even if it is free of any impurity.
3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has been blessed on the night of Me'raaj with Divine Proclamation, but there is no proof anywhere that the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was given the order to take off his shoes. This tells us the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم shoes are superior to the Divine Throne, just as his luminous Roza is superior to everything.

13. And I have chosen you [14], now listen carefully to what is revealed to you.

وَ اَنَا اخْتَرْتُكَ فَاسْتَمِعْ لِمَا یُوْحٰی ﴿۱۳﴾

14. These words Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) heard without the medium of the angel and heard it from every hair of his body. It is for this reason that he is called KALEEMULLAH - the Interlocutor of Allah Almighty.

14. Verily I am Allah there is none worthy of worship but Me, so worship Me and establish Prayer for My remembrance [15].

اِنَّنِیْۤ اَنَا اللّٰهُ لَاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّاۤ اَنَا فَاعْبُدْنِیْ ۙ وَ اَقِمِ الصَّلٰوةَ لِذِكْرِیْ ﴿۱۴﴾

Marfat.com

15. From this, emerge a few issues:
1. After faith, Salaah is the most important obligation.
2. Salaah should be offered for the remembrance of Allah Almighty and not for showing others.
3. That even Allah Almighty remembers that person who offers Salaah because the meaning of this verse is that you establish prayer, and in return, I will remember you.

15. Undoubtedly, the Hour is to come. It was near that I should conceal [16] it from all, that every soul may be recompensed for his endeavour.

إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ اٰتِيَةٌ اَكَادُ اُخْفِيْهَا لِتُجْزٰى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا تَسْعٰى ﴿١٥﴾

16. He did not conceal it, but instead He made its coming and its signs known to everyone through the medium of the Prophets so that people can prepare for that Day. The day and the month of Qiyamah had been made known to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Therefore, he had said that Qiyamah would take place on a Friday. According to one tradition it will take place on Friday the 10th Muharram, the Day of Ashurah. He did not reveal the year so as not to divulge this secret, but said: "I and the Day of Judgement are as close as my two joined fingers". Just as one neighbour is fully aware of his neighbour, I too am fully aware of when Qiyamah would be taking place.

16. Then let no one who does not believe in it and follows his own desire [17] bar you from believing it lest you may perish.

فَلَا يَصُدَّنَّكَ عَنْهَا مَنْ لَّا يُؤْمِنُ بِهَا وَ اتَّبَعَ هَوٰىهُ فَتَرْدٰى ﴿١٦﴾

17. This means Oh believer do not listen to the infidel. Do not reject the Day of Judgement or else you would be destroyed.

17. 'And what is in your right hand, O Musa?' [18]

وَ مَا تِلْكَ بِيَمِيْنِكَ يٰمُوْسٰى ﴿١٧﴾

18. From this we learn that the asking of the question is not always based on the ignorance of the questioner but there are hidden wisdoms in it. Thus, the occasion when the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) asked questions, is no proof to establish that he was not aware of what was under question. Allah Almighty is fully aware that there is a stick in the hands of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), yet He asked what is in your hand?

18. He said, 'it is my staff [19], I lean on it, and with it I beat down leaves for my sheep and there are my other works in it' [20].

قَالَ هِيَ عَصَايَ ۚ اَتَوَكَّؤُا عَلَيْهَا وَ اَهُشُّ بِهَا عَلٰى غَنَمِيْ وَ لِيَ فِيْهَا مَاٰرِبُ اُخْرٰى ﴿١٨﴾

19. On the upper portion of this stick there were two points branching out, and its name was NABGHA. The objective for asking the question was to change this stick into a snake at that point to show it to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) so that when this miracle is shown to the Pharaoh he does not become frightened of it.
20. From this we learn that when there is a confrontation between love and respect, love is always victorious. The reason is that the demand of respect is to keep the talk brief, but the demand of love is to prolong the talk with the beloved so as to establish the dialogue for a longer period. The only question put forward to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was: "What is in your hand?" Its reply should have been: "A stick". However, the reply to the question was out of love.

19. Said He, 'cast it down O Musa?'

قَالَ اَلْقِهَا يٰمُوْسٰى ﴿١٩﴾

20. Then Musa cast it down and that very moment it became a serpent running [21].

فَاَلْقٰهَا فَاِذَا هِيَ حَيَّةٌ تَسْعٰى ﴿٢٠﴾

21. This means the stick, in size, became like a huge python, but in speed it became like a thin snake. Allah Almighty says: "It at once became a serpent manifest" (S7:V107). It is further said: "As if it were a snake" (S27:V10). Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

21. Said He, 'pick it up and fear not, now We shall restore it to its former condition [22].

قَالَ خُذْهَا وَ لَا تَخَفْ ۖ وقفة سَنُعِيْدُهَا سِيْرَتَهَا الْاُوْلٰى ﴿٢١﴾

22. From this we learn that this miracle of the stick was from Allah Almighty, but the special stick and the hand of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) were the condition for its performance. Another stick in the hand of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) or the same stick in someone else's hand could not have become a snake. It is for this reason that the instruction "You hold it" is used. This tells us that blessings and Divine powers are wielded through the hands of those who are beloved of Allah Almighty.

22. And make your hand close to your side [23]; it will become crystal white without any disease as one more sign.

وَاضْمُمْ يَدَكَ اِلٰى جَنَاحِكَ تَخْرُجْ بَيْضَآءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوْٓءٍ اٰيَةً اُخْرٰى ﴿٢٢﴾ لا

23. This means that place your right palm under your left armpit and take it out, it will shine like the sun, not due to any illness, but due to miraculous power. When you place it again at the same place, it will come to its original nature.

23. That We may show you of Our great signs.

لِنُرِيَكَ مِنْ اٰيٰتِنَا الْكُبْرٰى ﴿٢٣﴾ ج

24. Go to Firawn [24] as he has raised the head .

اِذْهَبْ اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ اِنَّهٗ طَغٰى ﴿٢٤﴾ ع ١٠ ع ٢٤

24. This means as a Prophet of Allah Almighty. This tells us that he was the Prophet for the whole of Egypt, whether they were Sibtis or Qibtees.

SECTION: 2

25. He said, 'O my Lord, open my breast for me' [25].

قَالَ رَبِّ اشْرَحْ لِيْ صَدْرِيْ ﴿٢٥﴾ لا

25. That I would be able to bear the pressure of prophethood.

26. And make my task easy for me.

وَ يَسِّرْ لِيْٓ اَمْرِيْ ﴿٢٦﴾ لا

Marfat.com

27. And loosen the knot of my tongue [26].

وَ احْلُلْ عُقْدَةً مِّنْ لِّسَانِيْ ﴿٢٧﴾

26. From this we learn that a deaf and dumb person is not fit for the position of a prophet because propagation cannot be made without the use of the tongue and the ears. Fluency of the tongue is a great favour from Allah Almighty.

28. That they may understand my speech [27].

يَفْقَهُوْا قَوْلِيْ ﴿٢٨﴾

27. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), in his childhood, had once placed a red-hot coal in his blessed mouth, due to which, his blessed tongue would stutter or lisp. This happened when he was playing in the lap of the Pharaoh, he seized his beard and slapped him on his face. Pharaoh became angry and decided to have him killed. Seeing this, Sayyeda Asiya said that he is still an unintelligent child unable to make a distinction between gold and fire. Hence, the Pharaoh placed before Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) two trays, one containing fire and in the other a red ruby. He took the redhot coal and placed it in his mouth.

29. And make a minister for me from my family.

وَ اجْعَلْ لِّيْ وَزِيْرًا مِّنْ اَهْلِيْ ﴿٢٩﴾

30. My brother Harun.

هٰرُوْنَ اَخِيْ ﴿٣٠﴾

31. Strengthen my loin by him [28].

اشْدُدْ بِهٖۤ اَزْرِيْ ﴿٣١﴾

28. From this we learn that Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was given prophethood through prayer. This is the same prophethood, which some prophets received in inheritance like Hazrat Yahya and Hazrat Sulaiman (On them be peace). In addition, two more issues are understood from this:

1. To obtain power and help from other sources besides Allah Almighty is neither against the concept of trust in Allah Almighty, nor does it negate the concept of Tauheed or Unity of Allah Almighty.

2. It is not unlawful to appoint your relative as your deputy. Thus, appointment of Yazid, as his successor, by Amir Muawiyah is not a sinful act, the appointment to Khilafat of Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) by Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) is not a sin and the appointment of Hazrat Imam Hassan (May Allah be pleased with him) as his successor by Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) is not an act of transgression.

32. And associate him in my task [29].

وَ اَشْرِكْهُ فِيْۤ اَمْرِيْ ﴿٣٢﴾

33. So that we may glorify You much [30].

كَيْ نُسَبِّحَكَ كَثِيْرًا ﴿٣٣﴾

29. In matters of prophethood and propagation, so that I would not have to go alone to the Pharaoh, but with someone who would be able to back me up.

30. Here, the word TASBEEH denotes worship of Allah Almighty and His remembrance signifies propagation of Religion. Or, Tasbeeh would mean the remembrance of Allah Almighty in Salaah, while remembrance of Almighty Allah would denote His remembrance outside of Salaah. This tells us that it is an excellent act to remember Allah

Almighty in a congregation and in the presence

34. And may remember You in abundance.

35. Undoubtedly, You are seeing us [31].

31. Because I am in need of an assistant, Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) is the most appropriate person for this purpose. Allah

36. Said He, 'O Musa [32], you are granted your request.'

32. This means all your prayers were answered. From this we learn that Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was given prophethood through the prayer of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). We further learn that the stuttering of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was largely cured, through which he was able to propagate. Nevertheless, there was still

37. And indeed We favoured you once again [33].

33. Here the word MANNA means to show kindness, and not to admonish kindness. It should be remembered that to return the kindness of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the means of inclining towards them with gratitude, while reminding another person of kindness is a cause of enduring hardship. Therefore, we are

38. When We inspired to your mother what was to be inspired [34].

34. Either instilled in the heart or through a dream as an inspiration. This tells us that the mother of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace)

39. That you must put this child into a box and cast it into the river then the river will cast him on the bank [35]. There who is the enemy to Me [36] and who is the enemy of him will pick him up and I cast on you the love from Me [37] and so that you may be brought up before My sight [38].

of the pious servants of Allah Almighty.

وَّ نَذْكُرَكَ كَثِيْرًا ﴿٣٤﴾

اِنَّكَ كُنْتَ بِنَا بَصِيْرًا ﴿٣٥﴾

Almighty accepted all these requests and prayers of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

قَالَ قَدْ اُوْتِيْتَ سُؤْلَكَ يٰمُوْسٰى ﴿٣٦﴾ some effect left behind. For this reason the Pharaoh had said: "Or am I better than this man who is contemptible and seems not to be clear in speech" (S43V52). Since prophethood had been received through the prayer of the Prophet, then you can certainly receive children, kingdom, cure, etc. through him as well. Thus, it is beneficial to let them pray for us.

وَلَقَدْ مَنَنَّا عَلَيْكَ مَرَّةً اُخْرٰٓى ﴿٣٧﴾ prohibited from reminding another person of our kindness. The purpose of this is to show that Oh Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) the prophethood that We have granted you, too, is Our act of kindness. Saving your life from the Pharaoh earlier, too, was due to Our kindness. We are indeed the oldest who show kindness.

اِذْ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلٰٓى اُمِّكَ مَا يُوْحٰٓى ﴿٣٨﴾ was a saint, as inspiration is the end result of sainthood.

اَنِ اقْذِفِيْهِ فِى التَّابُوْتِ فَاقْذِفِيْهِ فِى الْيَمِّ فَلْيُلْقِهِ الْيَمُّ بِالسَّاحِلِ يَاْخُذْهُ عَدُوٌّ لِّىْ وَ عَدُوٌّ لَّهٗ ؕ وَ اَلْقَيْتُ عَلَيْكَ مَحَبَّةً مِّنِّىْ ۚ وَ لِتُصْنَعَ عَلٰى عَيْنِىْ ﴿٣٩﴾

Marfat.com

35. This command is to denote information, i.e. the river will place you on the shores. This tells us that the mother of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was Divinely informed that your son would not be killed in the River Nile, but instead you would be able to find him safely in the house of the Pharaoh. Thus, his mother Yuhaiz had a box made by Saanom the carpenter, whose joints were firmly covered with a waterproof material. Then, spreading a cotton sheet, she placed her son in it and let it flow in the Nile. One canal of the Nile was flowing towards the Pharaoh's palace. This box flowed through this canal and reached the palace of the Pharaoh. At that point in time Pharaoh was sitting with his wife at the shores of this canal. He took the box out and on opening it, both of them were tremendously enamoured when they saw the baby in it. Allah Almighty be praised! In short, though he had killed eighty thousand Israelite babies, that very baby who was to take the kingdom away was now in his care.

36. From this we learn that the enemy of the servant of Allah Almighty is, in reality, His enemy because Pharaoh who was the enemy of the Israelites, in general, and Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) in particular, is declared as the enemy of Allah Almighty. Likewise, the one who loves those beloved of Allah Almighty are beloved to Him.

37. From this we learn that being loved and accepted by the creation, too, is a miracle of the Prophets. Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is eternally loved by the creation. This, too, is the miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

38. This tells us that care is taken of others by their parents, but Allah Almighty Himself takes care of His loved ones. He said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم : "Verily you are before our eyes" (S52:V48).

إِذْ تَمْشِيٓ أُخْتُكَ فَتَقُولُ هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ
عَلٰى مَنْ يَّكْفُلُهٗ ۖ فَرَجَعْنٰكَ إِلٰٓى أُمِّكَ
كَيْ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَ لَا تَحْزَنَ ۖ وَقَتَلْتَ
نَفْسًا فَنَجَّيْنٰكَ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَ فَتَنّٰكَ
فُتُوْنًا ۚ فَلَبِثْتَ سِنِيْنَ فِيْٓ أَهْلِ
مَدْيَنَ ۙ ثُمَّ جِئْتَ عَلٰى قَدَرٍ يّٰمُوْسٰى ﴿٤٠﴾

40. When your sister [39] walked along, then she said, 'Shall I tell you about who will nurse [40] this child'. Then We turned you back to your mother that she may find coolness in her eyes and that she may not be grieved [41]. And you slew a soul, and then We delivered you from sorrow [42] and tested you well. Then you did stay with the people of Madyan [43] for many years, and then you came at a fixed promise O Musa! [44].

39. The name of Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) sister was Mariam bint Imraan, and the name of the mother of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), too, was Mariam bint Imraan. But that Imraan was another person.

40. The Pharaoh summoned all the midwives of the city who could take care of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). But he did not accept anyone's milk. At that point in time, Bibi Mariam suggested that there is a midwife in Egypt whose milk is of a very high quality. So, Hazrat Yuhaiz who is, in reality, the mother of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was called. In this way Allah Almighty fulfilled His promise.

41. In this way she would feed her son, as well as food and reasonable wages would be fixed from the Pharaoh.

42. At the age of twelve Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had slapped a Qibtee, and the Qibtee died. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), fearing the wrath of the Pharaoh, left for Madyan. Here, he is being reminded of that time.

43. Madyan is about eight travelling stages from Egypt where Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was residing. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) stayed there for between eight and ten years and married Bibi Safoorah, the daughter of Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace).

41. And I made you particularly for Me [45].

وَ اصْطَنَعْتُكَ لِنَفْسِيْ ﴿٤١﴾

45. From this we learn that the purpose of creation of the people is different. The Prophets are born for the sake of Allah Almighty, while others are created for the purpose of worshipping Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And I have created the jinn and the men only for this sake that they may worship Me" (S51:V56). There is a marked difference between being for the worship of Allah Almighty and being for Allah Almighty.

42. You and your brother both go taking My signs and do not slacken in My remembrance [46].

اِذْهَبْ اَنْتَ وَ اَخُوْكَ بِاٰيٰتِيْ وَ لَا تَنِيَا فِيْ ذِكْرِيْ ﴿٤٢﴾

46. Because the remembrance of Allah Almighty gives relief from all difficult situations.

43. You both go to Firown, undoubtedly he has raised the head.

اِذْهَبَآ اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ اِنَّهٗ طَغٰى ﴿٤٣﴾

44. Then speak to him in gentle words [47], haply he may be mindful or he may have some fear [48].

فَقُوْلَا لَهٗ قَوْلًا لَّيِّنًا لَّعَلَّهٗ يَتَذَكَّرُ اَوْ يَخْشٰى ﴿٤٤﴾

47. But Our Prophet is given an order: "Oh the Communicator of the Unseen (Prophet), strive hard against the infidels and hypocrites and be strict against them" (S66:V9), because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم himself is compassionate while Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is wrathful.

Or, another reason is that the Pharaoh had brought him up, therefore that person was entitled for a kinder treatment.

48. This hope is with regard to the human beings and not for Allah Almighty, Who was fully aware that the Pharaoh would die an infidel.

45. They both submitted, 'O our Lord! Undoubtedly, we may commit excess [49] against us or become before us with mischief.

قَالَا رَبَّنَآ اِنَّنَا نَخَافُ اَنْ يَّفْرُطَ عَلَيْنَآ اَوْ اَنْ يَّطْغٰى ﴿٤٥﴾

49. From this we learn that to fear dangerous motives, dangerous people and dangerous animals is not against the high status of prophethood or against the concept of trust in Allah Almighty. By "There is no fear upon them" is either meant the fear of the Day of Judgement, or that fear which causes harm by taking him away from the Creator. Fear of causing injury and pain is from the creation.

46. Allah said, 'I am with you Hearing and Seeing [50].

قَالَ لَا تَخَافَآ اِنَّنِيْ مَعَكُمَآ اَسْمَعُ وَ اَرٰى ﴿٤٦﴾

50. This means My help and victory is with you. The blessed Saints say that from this is learnt that Allah Almighty joins with the Prophets, and that the Prophets are a means of locating Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And when they do injustice unto their souls, then Oh Beloved, they should come to you then beg forgiveness of Allah Almighty, and the Messenger should intercede for them, then surely they would find Allah Almighty most Relenting, Merciful" (S4:V64).

47. Then go to him and say, 'We have been sent [51] by your Lord, then send forth [52] with us the children of Yaqub and torture them not. No doubt, we have brought to you the sign from your Lord. And peace be to him who follows the guidance [53].

فَأْتِيٰهُ فَقُوْلَآ اِنَّا رَسُوْلَا رَبِّكَ فَاَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ۙ وَ لَا تُعَذِّبْهُمْ ؕ قَدْ جِئْنٰكَ بِاٰيَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّكَ ؕ وَ السَّلٰمُ عَلٰى مَنِ اتَّبَعَ الْهُدٰى ۝٤٧

51. From this we learn that the recognition of the Prophet is above everything else. First, recognize the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, and then through his medium learn to recognize Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that in the process of propagation the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم introduced his personality to the infidels and made them recognize him when he said: "How do you find me?"

52. Emancipate them from slavery. It does not mean send all of us out of Egypt. He wanted to stay in Egypt, then "Torture them not" is the commentary of this verse.

53. If it becomes necessary to greet the infidels, then greet them with these words, because it is not appropriate to extend a greeting of peace for the infidel. Likewise, to say that he has had Divine mercy, or on him be peace is totally wrong.

48. No doubt, we have been revealed that the torment is on him who belies and turns [54] his face.

اِنَّا قَدْ اُوْحِيَ اِلَيْنَآ اَنَّ الْعَذَابَ عَلٰى مَنْ كَذَّبَ وَ تَوَلّٰى ۝٤٨

54. Through our obedience and the worship of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had promised the Pharaoh that if he accepts faith, he would never experience old age, his kingdom will never be taken away from him, he would continue to obtain the taste of food, drink and that of marriage until his death. After death Paradise would be granted to him. Pharaoh had been persuaded towards accepting Faith, but his Prime Minister Hamaan dissuaded him by saying are you going to accept slavehood, after ruling as a god. Are you going to become a worshipper after you had been an object of worship? Hearing these words, the Pharaoh did not accept faith (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

49. Firown said, 'who is the Lord of you both O musa?' [55].

قَالَ فَمَنْ رَّبُّكُمَا يٰمُوْسٰى ۝٤٩

55. The Pharaoh spoke only too Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) because he knew that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was the king and Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) was his Prime Minister.

50. He said, 'our Lord is He Who gave its proper form to everything [56], then guided [57].

قَالَ رَبُّنَا الَّذِيْٓ اَعْطٰى كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلْقَهٗ ثُمَّ هَدٰى ۝٥٠

56. This means every animal has been given the image suitable for it. The elephant is given a short neck but a long trunk. A trunk is not given to a camel but instead a long neck. Or, it could mean everyone is given a suitable shape.

51. Firown said, 'what is the state of former generations [58]?

58. This means the condition of the people of Aad and Thamud. Pharaoh wanted to turn the attention of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) from propagation to one of mere story telling, so that the people would not become

52. He said, ' their knowledge is with my Lord in a book [59], my Lord neither errs nor forgets [60].

59. This means in the Divine Tablet. The reason for not giving the information was not because he was not aware about the condition of these people. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) himself had already told Pharaoh: "I fear for you a day like the day of former groups" (S40:V30). But its true reason was what we have given.

60. From this we learn that the recording of everything in the Divine Tablet is not because

53. He Who made the earth for you as a bed and laid for you walking paths in it and sent down rain [61] from the sky. And thereby We brought forth varied pairs of vegetation [62].

61. After this, Allah Almighty, as a parenthetical clause, addresses the Makkans in this way to corroborate the words of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

62.From this we learn that for every type of vegetation there is a male and a female pair. Says Allah Almighty: "And We have made pairs

54. Eat you and pasture [63] your cattle. No doubt in it there are signs for the men of wisdom.

63. Both these orders are for the purpose

The shape of the foot is different to the hand.

57. Provided the guidance of the world, gave him intelligence, showed him the guidance for the Hereafter, by sending the Prophets.

قَالَ فَمَا بَالُ الْقُرُوْنِ الْاُوْلٰى ﴿۵۱﴾ influenced by his prophetic message. For this reason he did not give any reply to his question, but instead he evaded it and continued with the preaching.

قَالَ عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ رَبِّيْ فِيْ كِتٰبٍ ۚ لَا يَضِلُّ رَبِّيْ وَ لَا يَنْسَى ﴿۵۲﴾ ز of any fear of Allah Almighty forgetting anything, but it is there to inform His beloved servants, whose sight is on the Divine Tablet, about these things. Hence, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had said this so that Pharaoh should not be under any misconception. From this there is a hint that although he had full knowledge about these people, he was not willing to divulge it.

الَّذِيْ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْاَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَّ سَلَكَ لَكُمْ فِيْهَا سُبُلًا وَّ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً ؕ فَاَخْرَجْنَا بِهٖۤ اَزْوَاجًا مِّنْ نَّبَاتٍ شَتّٰى ﴿۵۳﴾ of everything that you may reflect" (S51:V49). Or, it could mean Allah Almighty has created opposites of everything; cold and hot; dry and wet; harmful and beneficial; like in the human beings believer and infidel; learned and ignorant, etc.

كُلُوْا وَ ارْعَوْا اَنْعَامَكُمْ ؕ اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّاُولِي النُّهٰى ﴿۵۴﴾ ع ۲ ۱۱ of permission. What it really means is that we have created all these things to benefit you. Therefore, it now becomes your obligation to do some deeds for Our sake as well.

SECTION: 3

55. We created you from the earth, and into the same We shall bring [64] you back and from the same We shall bring you forth a second time.

مِنْهَا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ وَ فِيْهَا نُعِيْدُكُمْ وَ مِنْهَا نُخْرِجُكُمْ تَارَةً اُخْرٰى ﴿٥٥﴾

64. This tells us that after death everything will go back into the earth, or that they would be buried into it, or that they would be burned, or they would be devoured by the lion, etc. Then, their original limbs would remain in the earth. Thus, this verse is in no way inconsistent. In fact, even those who dro-wn in the seas and are eaten by the fish have also gone in the earth, because the water of the ocean, too, is on the earth. It is for this reason that man has natural affinity with the earth because it is his source of temporal and spiritual needs. The path of Paradise begins from here.

56. And undoubtedly We showed to him all Our all signs [65], then he belied and refused [66].

وَ لَقَدْ اَرَيْنٰهُ اٰيٰتِنَا كُلَّهَا فَكَذَّبَ وَاَبٰى ﴿٥٦﴾

65. This tells us that the deeds of the blessed Prophets are deeds of Allah Almighty. The miracles were shown by Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), but Allah Almighty says: "We have shown them".

66. By calling the miracles magic, and Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) as a magician. This tells us that those who fail to achieve guidance through the Prophets; they will not find guidance from any other source.

57. Firawn said, 'Have you come to us for driving us out from our land by your magic O Musa!' [67]

قَالَ اَجِئْتَنَا لِتُخْرِجَنَا مِنْ اَرْضِنَا بِسِحْرِكَ يٰمُوْسٰى ﴿٥٧﴾

67.From this we learn that the Pharaoh was inwardly accepting Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) as a true Prophet because a mere magician cannot drive a king away from his kingdom. There were many magicians in the land of the Pharaoh and he was never frightened of them at any time, nor did he speak to anyone like this before. All were staying there as his slaves.

58. Then necessarily, we too bring a like magic before you, so make an appointment between us [68] and yourself, neither we change nor you, at an even place [69].

فَلَنَاْتِيَنَّكَ بِسِحْرٍ مِّثْلِهٖ فَاجْعَلْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَّا نُخْلِفُهٗ نَحْنُ وَ لَاۤ اَنْتَ مَكَانًا سُوًى ﴿٥٨﴾

68. That is, to transform the sticks and ropes into snakes because the magicians would show such tricks.

69. Here, the word "even" means either an even or spacious ground where people are able to sit conveniently as a large crowd. Or, it could mean a ground in between Pharaoh's palace and Hazrat Musa's (On whom be peace) place. It should be remembered that the Pharaoh had made the people understand that the long absence of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) from Egypt was to have gone to study magic. Although, in reality, he had gone to Madyan to Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace).

59. Musa said, 'your promise is for the day of festival [70] and that the people be assembled late after sunrise'? [71]

قَالَ مَوْعِدُكُمْ يَوْمُ الزِّيْنَةِ وَ اَنْ يُّحْشَرَ النَّاسُ ضُحًى ﴿٥٩﴾

70. By this concourse is meant the special fair organized by the people of the Pharaoh where everyone would gather to decorate the place and celebrate the joyous occasion. From this we learn that at the time of religious necessity it is permissible for the believers to go to the fair of the infidels, as Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) went to the fair of the infidels for the sake of confrontation. Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) had gone to the temple to break the idols.

71. This means let there be proclamation about this confrontation in the entire locality. The time for this debate should be mid-morning so that there is sufficient light for the people to behold this actual incident without any doubt in their minds. It should be remembered that the Arabic language has different names to denote the different times of the day: e.g. FAJR (daybreak); SABAH (early morning); GHADAH (approaching dawn); BUKRAH (early morning); DOHA (lunch time); ZAHEERA (midday)
DAHWAH (after lunch time); MASAH (approaching evening); RAWAH (siesta time); ASR (late afternoon); ASEEL (evening – close of day); HAJIRA (meridian); ESHA OOLA (early night) and ESHA AKHIRAH (late night) (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc).

60. Then Firown turned back and collected all his plans, [72] thereafter he came back.

فَتَوَلّٰى فِرْعَوْنُ فَجَمَعَ كَيْدَهٗ ثُمَّ اَتٰى ﴿٦٠﴾

72. This refers to the seventy two thousands magicians and their equipment.

61. Musa said to them, ' woe be to you, forge not a lie against Allah [73] that He may destroy you by torment and undoubtedly, he who forged a lie remained unsuccessful'. [74]

قَالَ لَهُمْ مُّوْسٰى وَيْلَكُمْ لَا تَفْتَرُوْا عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا فَيُسْحِتَكُمْ بِعَذَابٍ ۚ وَ قَدْ خَابَ مَنِ افْتَرٰى ﴿٦١﴾

73. Do not tell miracles to be magic, as this is a lie. From this we learn to link the Prophets towards falsehood is attributing falsehood to Allah Almighty.

74. From this we learn that disobedience to the Prophet of Allah is a cause of Divine punishment. Observe, up to that point in time Allah Almighty had kept our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Makkah so that the Makkans would not be able to say that he had gone somewhere to study magic.

62. Then they disputed[75] their affairs among themselves and consulted secretly.

فَتَنَازَعُوْٓا اَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ وَ اَسَرُّوا النَّجْوٰى ﴿٦٢﴾ no Divine punishment had come to the Pharaoh and his followers, although they were indulging in infidelity and polytheism. But now, says Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) Divine punishment will come to you because you are disobeying me.

Marfat.com

75. They disputed with one another i.e. some of the magicians were saying that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was a magician like us, while others said no, he is a true Prophet. The discussion of the magicians with one another is never interesting or true. Or, they were disputing about the nature of the confrontation i.e. what form should this confrontation take so as to show their victory.

63. They said, 'undoubtedly, these both are necessarily, magicians, they desire to drive you out from your land by the strength of their magic and take away your good religion.[76]

قَالُوْٓا اِنْ هٰذٰنِ لَسٰحِرٰنِ يُرِيْدٰنِ اَنْ يُّخْرِجٰكُمْ مِّنْ اَرْضِكُمْ بِسِحْرِهِمَا وَيَذْهَبَا بِطَرِيْقَتِكُمُ الْمُثْلٰى ﴿٦٣﴾

76. By taking you away from the worship of the Pharaoh and engaging you in the worship of Allah Almighty. At that point in time they regarded worship of the Pharaoh as a good act.

64. Make firm your stratagem, [77] then come in ranks and today he who overcome reached to his goal.[78]

فَاَجْمِعُوْا كَيْدَكُمْ ثُمَّ ائْتُوْا صَفًّا ۚ وَ قَدْ اَفْلَحَ الْيَوْمَ مَنِ اسْتَعْلٰى ﴿٦٤﴾

77. So that when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) looks at your ranks and file he would be overawed. Thus, they came forward forming seventy-two rows, and in every row there were a thousand magicians (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan, etc.).

78. If we overpower him, we would become favourites of the Pharaoh, but, if Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) gains power over us, then he would become great in the eyes of the Pharaoh.

65. They said, "O Musa! Either you cast first'. [79]

قَالُوْا يٰمُوْسٰٓى اِمَّآ اَنْ تُلْقِيَ وَ اِمَّآ اَنْ نَّكُوْنَ اَوَّلَ مَنْ اَلْقٰى ﴿٦٥﴾

79. Allah Almighty loved this show of respect of the magicians, - they did not immediately attack Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) with their magic but, first, respectfully sought his permission. Due to this respect they were blessed with the wealth of faith (Roohul Bayaan, Khazainul Irfaan).

66. Musa said, ' may you cast, [80] hence their ropes, and staffs looked to him [81] as though they were running by the strength of their magic,[82] according to his imagination

قَالَ بَلْ اَلْقُوْا ۚ فَاِذَا حِبَالُهُمْ وَ عِصِيُّهُمْ يُخَيَّلُ اِلَيْهِ مِنْ سِحْرِهِمْ اَنَّهَا تَسْعٰى ﴿٦٦﴾

80. The purpose of his command was not to grant permission to show magic, but its true object is to destroy magic so that the people could first see the power of falsehood and observe how it is destroyed by the power of truth. Thus, there is nothing objectionable about the verse about why Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) granted permission for doing a thing, which is unlawful.

81. From this, emerge two issues:

1. Magic does not change reality, but it creates some impression in the eyes of the observers as it is reflected by "as though they were running towards him".

2. The effect of magic can take place on the thought and eyes of a prophet. Magic had affected the memory of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Its effect is like the effect of a sword and of poison. This is not against prophethood.

82. It is obvious that the personal pronoun in 'towards him' is turning towards Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) i.e. even he felt as if the staffs and the ropes were moving towards him, because the effect of magic can influence the thinking of the prophet.

67 Then Musa got a fear within himself.[83]

فَاَوْجَسَ فِيْ نَفْسِهٖ خِيْفَةً مُّوْسٰى ﴿٦٧﴾

83. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had no fear of their magic but instead feared that his miracles and magic may create the wrong impressions. Truth may not distinguish itself over falsehood, because my stick would also turn into a snake just as theirs had turned into snakes.

68. We said, ' fear not that undoubtedly you have the dominance[84].

قُلْنَا لَا تَخَفْ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ الْاَعْلٰى ﴿٦٨﴾

84. From this we learn that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had not become frightened by the snakes, but he was afraid of not gaining victory over the magicians and the erroneous effect of the miracle and magic over the observers.

69. And cast down what is in your right hand, it will swallow [85] their makings. That which they have made is the trick of the magician, and the magician does not prosper, anywhere he comes.

وَ اَلْقِ مَا فِيْ يَمِيْنِكَ تَلْقَفْ مَا صَنَعُوْا ؕ اِنَّمَا صَنَعُوْا كَيْدُ سٰحِرٍ ؕ وَ لَا يُفْلِحُ السّٰحِرُ حَيْثُ اَتٰى ﴿٦٩﴾

85. In this there is a prophecy of the unseen - i.e. in future it would happen like this. Thus, exactly the same took place as prophesized i.e. the staff of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) swallowed everything. From this we can understand when the stick assumed the shape of the snake it will eat and drink but it would, in reality remain a stick. This eating and drinking would be due to the effect of the shape that it had assumed. Similarly, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Light of Allah Almighty, but when he came in human form, he was an illuminating being. His eating, drinking, marriage and death are the functions of his human nature, while the journey of Me'raaj, not feeling hunger and thirst during his continuous fasts (Saume Visaal) are the manifestations of refulgence. Observe, when the angels Harut and Marut were sent in the world in human form, they were eating and drinking and they even had the desire for a woman. Despite all this, they were angels created from light.

70. Then all the magicians were made to prostrate [86] they said, ' We believe in him who is the Lord of Musa and Harun'. [87]

فَاُلْقِيَ السَّحَرَةُ سُجَّدًا قَالُوْٓا اٰمَنَّا بِرَبِّ هٰرُوْنَ وَ مُوْسٰى ﴿٧٠﴾

86. They did not fall by themselves but they were made to fall through Divine help, for they had shown respect for Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). This tells us that through the respect of the Prophet one obtains guidance and faith, while disrespect for the Prophet results in the ruination of all one's good deeds. A classical example of this is the incident of the Devil.

Marfat.com

87. This tells us that the Prophets are the means of the identification of Allah Almighty as well as His Proof because the magicians exclaimed we believe in the Lord of Hazrat Musa and Hazrat Harun (On them be peace) i.e. True Lord is He whom these blessed personalities are calling as Lord, and not the Pharaoh, even if all the Pharoites are calling him as such. For this reason, these magicians called Allah Almighty the Lord of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) although He is the Lord of everybody.

71. Firawn said, ' did you believe in Him before I permitted [88] you'? Undoubtedly, he is your chief who taught you magic. Then I swear necessarily I will cut off your hands, and feet of alternate side [89] and will crucify [90] you upon the trunks of the palm-trees, and certainly you will know, which of us is more severe and more lasting in punishment. [91]

قَالَ اٰمَنْتُمْ لَهٗ قَبْلَ اَنْ اٰذَنَ لَكُمْ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَكَبِيْرُكُمُ الَّذِیْ عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ ۚ فَلَاُقَطِّعَنَّ اَیْدِیَكُمْ وَ اَرْجُلَكُمْ مِّنْ خِلَافٍ وَّ لَاُوصَلِّبَنَّكُمْ فِیْ جُذُوْعِ النَّخْلِ ز وَ لَتَعْلَمُنَّ اَیُّنَاۤ اَشَدُّ عَذَابًا وَّ اَبْقٰی ﴿۷۱﴾

88. This means without my permission you are declaring faith, because there was no hope of obtaining permission to believe from the Pharaoh. This is the same as "The sea would be exhausted and the words of my Lord would not come to an end" (S18:V109).

89. This is the awesome fear of truth, because Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) said nothing to the Pharaoh. Whatever he said was to the magicians. In fact, he himself had said that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) is your teacher.

90. Either the preposition is used to indicate on, or it means I will keep you on the branches for a long time after crucifying you. That tree would become your house.

91. My punishment or that of the Lord of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). In reply to this, the magicians spoke thus.

72. They said, ' we shall never prefer you against these clear evidences [92] that came to us, by our Creator, do what ever you have to do. [93] you will do in the life of this world only.'

92. The magicians thought over this that even if the turning of the stick of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had been due to magic, then where have so many of our sticks and ropes disappeared because although this one stick had swallowed everything of ours, its weight has not increased even a wee bit. From this we learn that knowledge no matter of what type it may be is good because some of it leads to obtaining guidance. The magicians came to know the truth about Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) through their magic and thus, accepted faith.

93. Through one blessed gaze of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), these magicians became believers, his companions and then martyrs, all of which happened within one day, all through the altar of love of this blessed school and Teacher. We further learn that the heart of the believer is full of bravery. After accepting faith the magicians told Pharaoh do what you want to, we will not turn away from our faith. Mirza Ghulam Qadyani could not perform Hajj due to fear of people.

اَكْرَهْتَنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنَ السِّحْرِ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ خَيْرٌ

73. Undoubtedly, we believed in our Lord that He might forgive our sins[94] and also that to which you forced us on magic. [95] and Allah is the Best and Most Lasting.[96]

94. This means through the blessing of this faith may Allah Almighty forgive our sins. This tells us that faith is a means of forgiveness of the sins.

95. From this we learn that all the magicians were not in agreement to oppose Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). They did so because the Pharaoh forced them. Furthermore, to oppose the Prophet is the worst form of infidelity. These blessed people after pleading for their sin separately and distinctly admitted their fault; otherwise this was included in sinful activity.

96. Hence, the reward and punishment of Allah Almighty would remain for a very long time. This was a reply to that idle talk of the Pharaoh who had said that you would see whose punishment would remain longer.

اِنَّهٗ مَنْ يَّاْتِ رَبَّهٗ مُجْرِمًا فَاِنَّ لَهٗ
جَهَنَّمَ ؕ لَا يَمُوْتُ فِيْهَا وَ لَا يَحْيٰى ﴿٧٤﴾

74. No doubt, he who comes before his Lord as culprit, then necessarily for him is Hell, in which neither he shall die nor live.[97]

97. From this we learn that Allah Almighty granted the magicians inspired knowledge about all the beliefs of Islam as soon as they had declared belief. They explained the issues about beliefs in such an elucidating manner without acquiring their knowledge from anyone.

وَ مَنْ يَّاْتِهٖ مُؤْمِنًا قَدْ عَمِلَ الصّٰلِحٰتِ

75. And he who comes to his Lord as a believer having done good deeds, for such are the high ranks.[98]

98. In that, if Allah Almighty wills, admission to Paradise would be due to good deeds. This paradise is for some, and others will obtain through the medium of someone and their status would be raised, like the deceased infants of the believers, and the demented.

جَنّٰتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ

76. Gardens for habitation, beneath which streams flow, they will abide there in forever and this is the recompense of him who has purified himself.[99]

99.The hearts will be purified of defective beliefs and the bodies of defective deeds. Such people are worthy of Paradise from the beginning, while the one whose heart had been pure, but he was engaged in evil deeds, he would enter Paradise after he had been forgiven of his sins or he had completed his punishment for them. Thereafter, the Pharaoh proclaimed crucifixion for all these blessed men. These were the first people to be crucified by the order of Pharaoh.

SECTION 4

77. And no doubt, We revealed to Musa that walk away [100] with My bondsmen by night and make a dry way [101] for them in the river. You will have no Firown may overtake nor any danger [102].

وَ لَقَدْ اَوْحَيْنَآ اِلٰى مُوْسٰٓى ۙ اَنْ اَسْرِ بِعِبَادِىْ فَاضْرِبْ لَهُمْ طَرِيْقًا فِى الْبَحْرِ يَبَسًا ۙ لَّا تَخٰفُ دَرَكًا وَّ لَا تَخْشٰى ﴿۷۷﴾

100. Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) uttered words of curse for the Pharaoh, which was accepted by Allah Almighty. Its acceptance came into reality after forty years and this became a command. This tells us that sometimes the effect of a prayer can be delayed.

101. From this, two issues emerge:

1. The law of Nature and Divine Power is that the power of Allah Almighty should appear through the hands of those beloved to Him, so that in addition to Divine Power, the greatness of these personages, too, would become a certainty. The Divine objective was to dry this sea, but He made this happen through the walking stick of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace).

2. Miracles of opposite nature took place through the stick of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Through this same stick water flowed from the stone, and through it water of the sea became dry.

102. The fear of drowning in the sea. Thus, after spending the 9th of Muharram, Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) on the night of Ashurah left for the Red Sea with six hundred and seventy thousand Israelites (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). In the morning, when Pharaoh came to know of this he set out in pursuit of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and the Israelites with a huge army, and by the afternoon had caught up with the Israelites.

78. Then Firown followed them with his host [103], and then the river covered them as to be covered.

فَاَتْبَعَهُمْ فِرْعَوْنُ بِجُنُوْدِهٖ فَغَشِيَهُمْ مِّنَ الْيَمِّ مَا غَشِيَهُمْ ﴿۷۸﴾

103. The advance guard of this army consisted of six hundred thousand paid staff.

79.And Firown misguided his people and showed not the way [104].

وَ اَضَلَّ فِرْعَوْنُ قَوْمَهٗ وَ مَا هَدٰى ﴿۷۹﴾

104. This tell us that the Pharaoh and all his followers died as infidels. The faith of Pharaoh at the time of drowning is of no consequence. Hence, anyone who accepts the Pharaoh to be a believer is rejecting many Quranic verses.

80. O children of Israel! No doubt, We delivered [105] you from your enemy and gave you the promise [106] of the right side of Mount tour and sent down on you Manna and Salwa[107].

يٰبَنِىْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ قَدْ اَنْجَيْنٰكُمْ مِّنْ عَدُوِّكُمْ وَوٰعَدْنٰكُمْ جَانِبَ الطُّوْرِ الْاَيْمَنَ وَ نَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَنَّ وَالسَّلْوٰى ﴿۸۰﴾

105. The word 'ADOO' (enemy) denotes both singular and plural, and denotes the Pharaoh and all his men.

106. It means part of the mountainous portion of the road to the right, which leads from Egypt to Syria. Otherwise, a mountain itself does not have right and left. Allah Almighty had promised Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) that he should sit for I'tikaaf (sitting in total seclusion) on the right side of Mount Sinai and then take the Tauraat. Because the promise with the Prophet is a promise with the entire Ummah, the promise is linked to everybody.

81. Eat what We provide you of pure things and exceed not [108] therein that My anger may descend on you and he on whom My anger descends falls down [109].

كُلُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبٰتِ مَا رَزَقْنٰكُمْ وَ لَا تَطْغَوْا فِيْهِ فَيَحِلَّ عَلَيْكُمْ غَضَبِيْ ۚ وَ مَنْ يَّحْلِلْ عَلَيْهِ غَضَبِيْ فَقَدْ هَوٰى ﴿٨١﴾

108. 'Do not exceed' means do not save anything for tomorrow, do not commit sins after eating Manna and Salwa and do not fight with one another.

107. When you were imprisoned in the field of Teeha there was no provision made for your food and drink, at that point in time MANNA (sweet meat) and SALWA (salty meat balls) were sent for you from heaven to satisfy your hunger and thirst.

109. For the punishment in Hell, or become disgraced in the world, fell from the high position of Divine nearness into the cave of the furthest point of Truth.

82. And undoubtedly, I am the most forgiving to him who repented [110] and believed and did good deeds, then remained on guidance [111].

وَ اِنِّيْ لَغَفَّارٌ لِّمَنْ تَابَ وَاٰمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا ثُمَّ اهْتَدٰى ﴿٨٢﴾

110. This means he repented in accordance with his sins. Repentance from infidelity after accepting Faith, repentance from sin by seeking forgiveness, repentance of infringing human rights by fulfilling these rights, and the rightful person for the delay in the fulfillment of the rights.

111. Hazrat Thabit Bannani (On whom be peace) says, now, guidance is dependent on the love for the family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم (The Ahle Bait). The same is reported by Hazrat Imam Jaffer Saadiq (May Allah be pleased with him) (SIWAIQ E MUHARRAQA). From this we also learn that only that Faith and repentance are reliable, which provide a successful end. Only that crop is successful which cuts well.

83. And what has made you hasten from your people, O Musa [112]?

وَ مَآ اَعْجَلَكَ عَنْ قَوْمِكَ يٰمُوْسٰى ﴿٨٣﴾

112. At the time when Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) went to Mount Sinai to speak to Allah Almighty, he was accompanied by seventy Israelites. On arriving closer to the mountains, the urge and desire of talking to Allah Almighty was so great that he left the seventy people behind him and got on the mountain all by himself. At that time Allah Almighty asked this question. This tells us that by asking a question does not serve as a proof about the ignorance of the enquirer. Allah Almighty is All Knowing, yet He asks a question.

84. Submitted he, 'those are they behind me, and O my Lord! I hastened to you so that you may be pleased [113]'.

قَالَ هُمْ اُولَآءِ عَلٰٓى اَثَرِيْ وَ عَجِلْتُ اِلَيْكَ رَبِّ لِتَرْضٰى ﴿٨٤﴾

Marfat.com

113. From this, emerge three issues:
1. The show of desire and the feeling of love are good acts.
2. Interpretation of Islamic law is permissible.
3. Sometimes, even Prophets undertake to interpret juridical laws. Observe, this was the interpretation of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) to walk quickly as this would gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty. But, this was not commanded by Allah Almighty.

85. He said, 'We have put your people in the trial [114] after you and the Samari has misled them'[115]

قَالَ فَاِنَّا قَدْ فَتَنَّا قَوْمَكَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِكَ وَ اَضَلَّهُمُ السَّامِرِیُّ ﴿۸۵﴾

114. This means that those Israelites, whom he had left behind in Egypt, were put to a test under Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace).

115. Because Samari was the cause of their going astray, therefore apostasy is linked with him. This tells us that the Friends of Allah Almighty can provide guidance.

86. Then Musa returned full of anger and sorrowful [116] to his people, he said, ' O my people! Did your Lord not promise [117] a fair promise to you'? Did a long time [118] pass on you or did you desire that the anger of your Lord should descend on you, so that you did against my promise' [119].

فَرَجَعَ مُوْسٰۤی اِلٰی قَوْمِهٖ غَضْبَانَ اَسِفًا ۚ قَالَ یٰقَوْمِ اَلَمْ یَعِدْكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ وَعْدًا حَسَنًا ؕ اَفَطَالَ عَلَیْكُمُ الْعَهْدُ اَمْ اَرَدْتُّمْ اَنْ یَّحِلَّ عَلَیْكُمْ غَضَبٌ مِّنْ رَّبِّكُمْ فَاَخْلَفْتُمْ مَّوْعِدِیْ ﴿۸۶﴾

116. From this we learn that to express fear and regret for the sake of Allah Almighty is the way of the Prophets and there is a reward for doing this. In fact, not expressing anger after seeing evil is a criminal act.
117. Here, the word 'good' denotes the blessed Tauraat. There were one thousand chapters and each chapter consisted of a thousand verses. In it was light as well as guidance and a means of respect and honour for the Israelites.
118. This means that I had been away from you for just a few days, I had stayed at Mount Sinai for just forty days. In this brief period you had forgotten the lesson of Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) and have engaged in polytheism. If this is the case now, what will happen to you after my demise? If you perpetrated this crime intentionally, then, you have now become entitled to receive Divine punishment.
119. They were guilty of breach of promise, because after promising to remain firm on the religious tenets, they failed to remain steadfast.

87. They said, 'we did not break your promise [120] of our own will but we were made to carry some load [121] of these peoples ornaments [122] so we cast them then likewise did the Samri cast [123].

قَالُوْا مَاۤ اَخْلَفْنَا مَوْعِدَكَ بِمَلْكِنَا وَ لٰكِنَّا حُمِّلْنَاۤ اَوْزَارًا مِّنْ زِیْنَةِ الْقَوْمِ فَقَذَفْنٰهَا فَكَذٰلِكَ اَلْقَی السَّامِرِیُّ ﴿۸۷﴾

120. In fact, due to the misguidance of Samari, our thinking was no longer straight and thus we became involved in this polytheism.

Marfat.com

121. The word 'AWZAAR' (loads) is the plural of WIZAR (load), which means burden. The Minister is called 'Wazeer', because he carries the burden of the state.

122. From this we learn that even if the wealth of a malicious infidel combatant is with you on loan you should seize it after his destruction, because the gold jewellery which the Israelites had asked the people of Pharaoh, on loan, were not returned to them. Returning them would have revealed the secret. Now, after these people were drowned, the Israelites became owners of the jewellery. But because their law had made it unlawful to devour the wealth of the spoils of war, they spent it for the building of the golden calf. The evil gold of the wicked Pharoites sowed seeds of mischief among the Israelites. The wealth of the evildoers, too, is evil.

123. This means we placed the jewellery that was with us into the fire to smelt them, while Samari placed the gold that he had seized into it. Samari was one of the jewellers, and a respectable citizen of the tribe of Samara.

88. Then he brought out for them a calf, a life less [124] body lowing, then they said, 'this is your God and the god of Musa, and Musa forgot [125].

فَاَخۡرَجَ لَهُمۡ عِجۡلًا جَسَدًا لَّهٗ خُوَارٌ فَقَالُوۡا هٰذَاۤ اِلٰهُكُمۡ وَ اِلٰهُ مُوۡسٰى ۙ فَنَسِىَ ؕ﴿۸۸﴾

124. This calf was able to speak due to the hoof of Hazrat Jibraeel's (On whom be peace) horse, and not due to some holes which were made in its nose through which air would pass, and a sound would emanate like that of a whistle. Such a belief is contrary to the verse of the Holy QUR'AAN, which follows this verse.

125. And went to Mount Sinai in search of Allah Almighty, but a god had instead come here.

89. Do they then not see that it does not return reply to them of any word and nor posses any power to hurt or profit them? [126]

اَفَلَا يَرَوۡنَ اَلَّا يَرۡجِعُ اِلَيۡهِمۡ قَوۡلًا ۙ وَّ لَا يَمۡلِكُ لَهُمۡ ضَرًّا وَّ لَا نَفۡعًا ﴿۸۹﴾ ع ۱۳

126. It should be remembered that, here, Allah Almighty has negated about becoming the possessor of profit and loss and not being its benefactor, because everything of the world, especially gold, does provide benefit without any doubt. However, to provide benefit is one thing, but to blame the master of the benefit is totally another thing. The basis of divinity is the second thing, not the first. Thus, there is nothing objectionable about the verse.

SECTION: 5

90. And undoubtedly Harun had told them from before that, 'O my people! You have fallen on temptation on account of it, and undoubtedly, your Lord is the Most-Affectionate [127], therefore follow me and obey my command' [128].

وَ لَقَدۡ قَالَ لَهُمۡ هٰرُوۡنُ مِنۡ قَبۡلُ يٰقَوۡمِ اِنَّمَا فُتِنۡتُمۡ بِهٖ ۚ وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ الرَّحۡمٰنُ فَاتَّبِعُوۡنِىۡ وَ اَطِيۡعُوۡۤا اَمۡرِىۡ ﴿۹۰﴾

127. By stating Rahman (Most Affectionate) he has revealed that if you, too, would repent, He would accept it because He is Most Affectionate.

128. This tells us that the obedience and loyalty to the Prophet is absolutely necessary for receiving guidance. By opposing the Prophet, Tauheed will not prove beneficial. The Rafzis claim that Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him), after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was like Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) after Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Then, they also say that Hazrat Alli (On whom be peace) put up a show of piety to swear allegiance to the first Caliphs, though this was not done by Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace), as he did not join the polytheists. Thus, according to the Rafzis, Hazrat Alli is not like Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace). Hazrat Alli (On whom be peace) at that point in time did not say: "Follow me and be obedient to my command".

91. They said, 'we shall remain sitting around it firmly until Musa comes back to us' [129].

قَالُوْا لَنْ نَّبْرَحَ عَلَيْهِ عٰكِفِيْنَ حَتّٰى يَرْجِعَ اِلَيْنَا مُوْسٰى ﴿٩١﴾

Musa (On whom be peace) returned and saw the polytheism of these people, he became extremely angry. Then, holding the hair from the head of Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) in the right hand the beard in the left hand he began to speak.

129. This was said as a form of pretentious plea and not as a promise of repentance. If there were the intention of seeking repentance, they would have done it on that day. On hearing this, Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) with twelve thousand Israelite believers separated from these apostates. When Hazrat

92. Musa said, 'What prevented you from guiding them when you saw them going astray'.

قَالَ يٰهٰرُوْنُ مَا مَنَعَكَ اِذْ رَاَيْتَهُمْ ضَلُّوْٓا ﴿٩٢﴾ اَلَّا تَتَّبِعَنِ ؕ اَفَعَصَيْتَ اَمْرِيْ ﴿٩٣﴾

قَالَ يَبْنَؤُمَّ لَا تَاْخُذْ بِلِحْيَتِيْ وَ لَا بِرَاْسِيْ ۚ اِنِّيْ خَشِيْتُ اَنْ تَقُوْلَ فَرَّقْتَ بَيْنَ بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ وَ لَمْ تَرْقُبْ قَوْلِيْ ﴿٩٤﴾

the father, teacher, a Prophet. Although Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was hard on Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) when he was innocent, there was no retaliatory action sought by Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) against Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), nor did Allah Almighty command him to seek forgiveness. We further learn that we, common people, have no right to interfere and meddle in the battles of our pious predecessors, which they had fought among themselves. It is not permissible for any believer to speculate in this

131. From this we learn that a beard should be one fistful in length i.e. length of four fingers which one is able to catch. This length was the practice of the Prophets. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would practise Khilaal of the beard (running fingers through his blessed beard) at the time of making Wudhu, and this is only possible if the beard is long.

132. From this we understand that if a pious person wrongly punishes you, there is no retaliation for it. There is no retaliation upon incident between Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace). Likewise, no Muslim should wag his tongue concerning the battles that were fought between the Noble Companions. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم presented himself for the purpose of retaliation, it was for the purpose of teaching justice.

133. It should be remembered that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) had caught the beard of Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace) in a fit of anger and in a state of frenzy without investigating what had actually taken place.

قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكَ يٰسَامِرِيُّ ﴿٩٥﴾

95. Musa said, ' now what is your position O Samari?'

قَالَ بَصُرْتُ بِمَا لَمْ يَبْصُرُوْا بِهٖ فَقَبَضْتُ قَبْضَةً مِّنْ اَثَرِ الرَّسُوْلِ فَنَبَذْتُهَا وَكَذٰلِكَ سَوَّلَتْ لِيْ نَفْسِيْ ﴿٩٦﴾

96. He said, ' I saw that the people did not see, [134] so I took a handful of dust from the footstep of the angel, then cast it, [135] and this looked fair to my soul.[136]

134. This means that I had seen Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace), or I had also seen the effect of the hoof of his horse with my own eyes. Although on that day Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) had appeared in outer form so that even the Pharaoh's horse had seen his horse. But the people did not see the growing of grass from its hoofs. Only Samari had seen this. No one's attention was focused on that.

135. By means of which life was bequeathed in the calf. This tells us that the dust from the hoof of Hazrat Jibraeel's (On whom be peace) horse is a life-giving source, but because the gold was that of the Pharaoh, people had gone astray from the calf's voice and had not come on the path of guidance. Likewise, when the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith emanate from the tongues of irreligious people, they will lead the people astray and they would not come on the path of guidance. From this we further learn that there were no holes in the mouth and nose of the calf from which a sound could emanate like that from a flute, but this was due to the effect of the hoof of Hazrat Jibraeel's horse. If the dust of Hazrat Jibraeel's horse can put life in a lifeless golden calf, then surely the dust of the pious sages can put life in the dead hearts of sinners.

136. This means whatever I had done was out of my physical desires and not on anyone's instructions, nor was I inspired to do it. Because these words of Samari reflect a touch of regret and shame, he was not put to the sword by Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Otherwise, the punishment of an apostate is death.

قَالَ فَاذْهَبْ فَاِنَّ لَكَ فِي الْحَيٰوةِ اَنْ تَقُوْلَ لَا مِسَاسَ ۖ وَاِنَّ لَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَّنْ تُخْلَفَهٗ ۚ وَانْظُرْ اِلٰٓى اِلٰهِكَ الَّذِيْ ظَلْتَ عَلَيْهِ عَاكِفًا ۭ لَنُحَرِّقَنَّهٗ ثُمَّ لَنَنْسِفَنَّهٗ فِي الْيَمِّ نَسْفًا ﴿٩٧﴾

97 Musa said, ' then go away that your punishment in the life of this world in this, that you should say, ' touch me not' [137]. And undoubtedly, there is an appointment for you which shall not be averted [138] from you, and look at your god before which you remained sitting devoted for the whole day. Certainly We shall burn it then break it to pieces then cause to flow in the river. [139]

Marfat.com

137. From this we learn that the tongue of the pious is the key of immediate results. Whatever they utter, turns into reality with the permission of Allah Almighty. Thus, this effect was instilled in the body of Samari, that whatever would touch him would get a fever as well as Samari. Thus, Samari would say to the people not to touch him, and to remain aloof from him. He would stay all by himself like an animal. Whatever Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) Kaleemullah had uttered became a reality.

138. This means that the punishment of the Hereafter would be in addition to this. From this we learn that Samari did not repent. Also,

98. Your GOD is only Allah beside whom none to be worshipped. His knowledge encompasses everything.[140]

140. In all probability, this is the utterance of Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace), but it is

99. Thus We relate to you the preceding news [141] and We have given you from Us a remembrance.[142]

141. It is not for your information, but for the purpose of bringing it to the ears of the people, because you have been granted with inspired knowledge, as is stated in the next verse.

142. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was blessed with inspired knowledge, through which he was already fully aware of the affairs of the world. The Holy

100. One who turns his face from it, then undoubtedly he shall bear a burden on the day of judgement.143 that Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was fully aware of Samari's end; that he would die an infidel, that he would be severely punished, etc.

139. This tells us that surety is not necessary for breaking the instrument and tools used for carving idols and making instruments of fun. If anyone throws away the alcohol belonging to an alcoholic or destroys a drum, paying their price is not obligatory, because no price was taken from Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) for destroying this golden calf. Furthermore, destroying these objects is a form of religious propagation, not destroying of wealth.

اِنَّمَآ اِلٰهُكُمُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِیْ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ؕ وَسِعَ كُلَّ شَیْءٍ عِلْمًا ﴿۹۸﴾

QUR'AAN is the description of this knowledge as well as a Book for the instructions of the people. Says Allah Almighty: "And He has taught you what you did not know" (S4:V113).The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had said: "everything became brightened for me". Allah Almighty further says: "It is a clear explanation on everything" (S16:V89).

145.On the Day of Judgement there will be some clear signs visible about the infidels: their faces will be blackened, their eyes would be blue, their hands would be tied, their deeds would be in their left hand. The condition of the believer on the other hand would be the total opposite. Hence, on the Day of Judgement everyone would be able to differentiate between a believer and an infidel. Those who say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم could not differentiate between a believer and an infidel, are rejecting this verse.

105. And they ask [147] you regarding mountains, say you; My Lord will squander them breaking into pieces[148].

147.Reason for its revelation:
Hazrat Abdullah ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) says one person from the tribe of Thaqeef asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم what would be the condition of the mountains at the time of Qiyamah. In response, this verse was revealed. This tells us what great status the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had by Allah Almighty. When a question is asked to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , Allah Almighty answers it. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan has stated that the number of large mountains found in the world is six thousand six hundred and thirty.

148.By this is meant at the sound of the first trumpet, mountains will break asunder. Then their pieces will fly in the air like cotton wool. Then, they will break into pieces and fall on the ground like tiny particles. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses. Different conditions of the mountains have been described in different verses.

108. On that day they will run behind [149] the caller, there will be no crookedness in him, and all voices will be low [150] before the Most Affectionate, then you will not hear but a very low sound [151].

149.This means the voice of Israfeel (On whom be peace), which would be conveyed at the time of the second trumpet and will travel to every nook and cranny of the earth. On hearing it, everyone will come to life and begin to run.

150.This means due to the awe and fear of Allah Almighty, there would be total silence at the Field of Resurrection (MAHSHAR). This will be the first condition of the Day of Qiyamah. Petitions, entreaties, interrogations, etc. will come later. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

151.Sound of the feet, sound of walking from the graves towards the plain of Mahshar or in the plain of Mahshar itself, in search of the intercessor, or due to any other reason.

يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ اِلَّا مَنْ اَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمٰنُ وَرَضِيَ لَهٗ قَوْلًا ﴿١٠٩﴾

109. On that day the intercession [152] of any one will not avail but of him whom the Most Affectionate has permitted [153] and whose word He liked.

152.This means there will be no intercession for the infidels at all. It does not mean that there will be intercession for them but they will not benefit from it. A negative subject, too, does become applicable. It should be remembered that in this verse, intercession denotes intercession of salvation from punishment. Otherwise, some infidels would receive intercession for remission in their punishment. Hazrat Abu Talib would receive a very light punishment.

153.This means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has already been granted permission to intercede. He has already been given the title of "intercessor of sinners". On the Day of Judgement, he will fall into prostration to seek permission to begin the conversation. From this we also learn that there are two conditions for intercession:

1.The intercessor should be the beloved of Allah Almighty.

2.The receiver of intercession must be a believer. The reference of the first is found in "who is given permission", while the second is mentioned in "He liked".

يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ اَيْدِيْهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَلَا يُحِيْطُوْنَ بِهٖ عِلْمًا ﴿١١٠﴾

110. He knows whatever is before them and whatever is behind them[154] and their knowledge can not encompass Him.

154.This means Allah Almighty is fully aware of all the past and future affairs of the entire creation, but His creation is unable to comprehend His Personality, His Attributes and the extent of His Knowledge, or the Intercessor of Sinners is fully aware of the past and future conditions of the entire creation, but the creation is unable to encompass him. Without this knowledge, intercession is impossible, just as the doctor is unable to prescribe treatment without diagnosing the illness (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan: Ayat ul Kursi).

وَ عَنَتِ الْوُجُوْهُ لِلْحَيِّ الْقَيُّوْمِ ؕ وَ قَدْ خَابَ مَنْ حَمَلَ ظُلْمًا ﴿۱۱۱﴾

111. All faces shall be down cast [155] before the All-Living, the Sustainer. And undoubtedly he who bore the burden of injustice remained unsuccessful.

155.This means every infidel and believer will express his helplessness. No one will be able to show any arrogance. But, this humility of the infidels will not help them because when they were in the world they were rebellious.

وَ مَنْ يَّعْمَلْ مِنَ الصّٰلِحٰتِ وَ هُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَا يَخٰفُ ظُلْمًا وَّ لَا هَضْمًا ﴿۱۱۲﴾

112. And he who does good works and be a Muslim [156] then neither he will he be afraid neither of excessiveness nor of loss [157].

156.This tells us that faith is a precondition for the acceptance of good deeds. However, after the acceptance of faith, the good deeds of the period of infidelity are also accepted as it is reported in the Hadith. Remember, there is a difference between acceptance and legality.

157.There, even the infidels will not have the fear of being unjust and cruel, although there will be the danger of loss. Or, by cruelty is meant the cruelty that the infidels did upon themselves and upon others, not the fear of Allah's cruelty. Or, cruelty could mean not obtaining any rewards while the word 'loss' suggests less reward.

وَكَذٰلِكَ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ قُرْاٰنًا عَرَبِيًّا وَّ صَرَّفْنَا فِيْهِ مِنَ الْوَعِيْدِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُوْنَ اَوْ يُحْدِثُ لَهُمْ ذِكْرًا ﴿۱۱۳﴾

113. And thus We have sent down the Qur`aan in Arabic [158] and explained therein various ways of the torments that haply they may fear or it may generate in their hearts some thinking.

158.This means just as Books were revealed on the previous Prophets in their own languages, the Holy QUR'AAN was revealed in the Beloved Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم own language - Arabic.

فَتَعٰلَى اللّٰهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ ۚ وَلَا تَعْجَلْ بِالْقُرْاٰنِ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ يُّقْضٰۤى اِلَيْكَ وَحْيُهٗ ۪ وَقُلْ رَّبِّ زِدْنِيْ عِلْمًا ﴿۱۱۴﴾

114. Allah is the most high the true king, and hasten not[159] with Qur`aan until its revelation is completed to you, and submit, 'O my Lord increase me in knowledge [160]!

159.Reason for its Revelation:
When Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) would appear with the revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would sit with him and recite it. He would hasten so as not to forget any word of the Holy QUR'AAN. In response to it, this verse was revealed in which it is promised that the Messenger would not forget any word.

160.From this we learn one should never be fully content with knowledge. The greed for knowledge is a good thing. Observe, although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the most knowledgeable person in the entire creation, yet he was commanded to pray for an increase in knowledge. We further learn that the knowledge of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is always in a progressive state. Says Allah Almighty: "And undoubtedly, the following one is better for you than the preceding one" (S93:V4). This means every last state is better than the first.

115. And undoubtedly, We had given an emphatic commandment [161] to Adam before this, then he forgot and We did not find his intention [162].

وَ لَقَدْ عَهِدْنَآ اِلٰٓى اٰدَمَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَنَسِىَ وَ لَمْ نَجِدْلَهٗ عَزْمًا ﴿۱۱۵﴾

161.This order was that let alone eating from this prohibited tree, do not even go near it.

162.From this, emerge a few issues:

1.Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) did not eat the fruit intentionally, but he erred in understanding the reason of prohibition. Thus, he is not a sinner.

2.For people like us to err is excusable, but the Prophets are censured for it due to their lofty status.

3.No person should regard himself safe from the guiles of the devil. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was totally innocent, and Paradise was a place of safety, yet the devil succeeded in his mischief there. If Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was not safe from the devil in Paradise, then certainly we are totally unsafe from him and thus have to be on our guard all the time.

SECTION: 7

116. And when We said angels, 'prostrate before Adam, then all prostrated but Iblees (the devil) he refused [163].

وَ اِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اسْجُدُوْا لِاٰدَمَ فَسَجَدُوْٓا اِلَّآ اِبْلِيْسَ ؕ اَبٰى ﴿۱۱۶﴾

163. He misunderstood the command of Allah Almighty in terms of belief, verbally and practically.

117. Then we said O Adam! Undoubtedly, this is an enemy to you and your wife, so it may not happen that he may drive you both out of the Garden, then you are put to hard labour.[164]

فَقُلْنَا يٰٓاٰدَمُ اِنَّ هٰذَا عَدُوٌّ لَّكَ وَ لِزَوْجِكَ فَلَا يُخْرِجَنَّكُمَا مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَتَشْقٰى ﴿۱۱۷﴾

164.So that you could get into the world to earn your living.

118. Undoubtedly, for you in the Garden is this that neither you be hungry nor go naked.

اِنَّ لَكَ اَلَّا تَجُوْعَ فِيْهَا وَ لَا تَعْرٰى ﴿۱۱۸﴾ لا

119. And that neither you feel thirst therein nor be exposed to sun. [165]

وَ اَنَّكَ لَا تَظْمَؤُا فِيْهَا وَ لَا تَضْحٰى ﴿۱۱۹﴾

165.From this we learn that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was kept in this very famous Paradise, which would be granted to the pious people after the Day of Judgement. It was not any worldly garden, because in such a garden there is heat of the sun as well as the pangs of hunger.

Marfat.com

فَوَسْوَسَ اِلَيْهِ الشَّيْطٰنُ قَالَ يٰٓاٰدَمُ هَلْ اَدُلُّكَ عَلٰى شَجَرَةِ الْخُلْدِ وَمُلْكٍ لَّا يَبْلٰى ﴿١٢٠﴾

120. Then the Shaitaan gave evil suggestion [166] to him, he said, ' O Adam! Shall I tell you the tree [167] of eternity and a kingdom that decays not? [168]

166.From this we learn that this entry of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was not for the sake of reward or good deeds but for providing him with training, so that by looking at the system in Paradise, he could come into the world and establish the system he had seen there. It was like the stay of students in the institutions of learning. When he would come there for receiving his reward, he would not be expelled from it, as Allah Almighty says: "They will be abiding therein for ever" (S98:V8). Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

167.Until that time Shaitaan was not totally barred from entering Paradise. Sometimes he would sneak into it like a thief. In this way he had reached Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace).

After the arrival of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he is barred from, even, entering the heavens.

168.It means this is a heavenly tree whose effect is that the one who eats of it will neither experience death, nor be expelled from Paradise. And when your Lord had prohibited you from eating it, it was because your stomach was incapable of digesting it. But now you have acquired sufficient strength and you would be able to digest it as well. Thus, that prohibition was of a temporary nature whose period had expired (Tafseer Azizi). Under this condition, this is not an objection against Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), that when he knew about this prohibition why did he eat it?

فَاَكَلَا مِنْهَا فَبَدَتْ لَهُمَا سَوْاٰتُهُمَا وَ طَفِقَا يَخْصِفٰنِ عَلَيْهِمَا مِنْ وَّرَقِ الْجَنَّةِ ز وَ عَصٰٓى اٰدَمُ رَبَّهٗ فَغَوٰى ﴿١٢١﴾ ص

121 Then they both ate thereof, now their things of shame became apparent [169] to them, and they began to stick the leaves [170] of the Garden over themselves. And Adam slipped the commandment of his lord. Then what he had desired, did not what he had desired, did not get the way to it.[171]

169.From the dual form of the pronominal suffix we learn that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Hawa (On whom be peace) were concealed in Paradise. Or, they were not revealed to the devil but unto themselves only because the dress of Paradise was taken off from them. We further learn that the husband and wife should not appear in nudity in front of each other, as this is a shameful act.

170.The leaves of figs. This tells us that modesty, chastity and concealing the private parts is the practice of the Prophets.

171.This means the purpose for which the fruit was eaten was not achieved i.e. everlasting life. It should be remembered that the errors of the Prophets do not mean acts of sin, but they are mistakes just as having of hand, etc. for Allah Almighty do not mean physical hands and feet. The meaning of some things are necessary, due to the object to which they are linked. Sometimes one word has different meanings, depending on what they are linked with. The Urdu word BAITH means 'to sit' but when it is used with the eye it would mean to be blind, with the throat it would mean to be hoarse, with the ear it would mean to be deaf, with the heart it would mean to have one's heart in one's mouth. The meaning of the word is different in each case.

ثُمَّ اجْتَبٰهُ رَبُّهٗ فَتَابَ عَلَيْهِ وَهَدٰى ﴿١٢٢﴾

122. Thereafter his Lord chose him and turned towards him with His Mercy and showed him the way towards his favoured nearness [172].

172. When Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) offered repentance through the medium (WASEELAH) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it was accepted in the court of Allah Almighty.

قَالَ اهْبِطَا مِنْهَا جَمِيْعًا بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ ۚ فَاِمَّا يَاْتِيَنَّكُمْ مِّنِّيْ هُدًى ۙ فَمَنِ اتَّبَعَ هُدَايَ فَلَا يَضِلُّ وَلَا يَشْقٰى ﴿١٢٣﴾

123.Allah said,"Get down both of you from Heaven as one is the enemy [173] of the other. Then if there comes a guidance to you all from Me[174], then who so followed My guidance, he is neither misled nor unfortunate[175].

173. This means in your offspring some will be enemies of others. The believers will be the enemies of the infidels regarding their good fortune and wretchedness. Also, in worldly matters, too, some will be enemies of the others.

174. This adverb 'if' is not used for the purpose of doubt regarding Allah Almighty, but it is used for man; because to some the teachings of the Prophet will reach, but for others, it will not. The demented and the naturists will be deprived of this teaching.

175. This tells us that the one who obeys the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will neither go astray in this world, nor will he be unfortunate in the Hereafter. His merciful lap is the means of sheltein worldly and religious matters.

وَمَنْ اَعْرَضَ عَنْ ذِكْرِيْ فَاِنَّ لَهٗ مَعِيْشَةً ضَنْكًا وَّنَحْشُرُهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ اَعْمٰى ﴿١٢٤﴾

124. And whoever turned his face from My remembrance, then undoubtedly, for him there is a straightened life [176] and we shall raise him blind on the Day of Judgement [177].

176. Worldly life, or life in the grave or in the Hereafter. The hardship of the worldly life means he will be deprived of guidance to do good deeds as well as from contentment. Due to greed he would not find peace of mind.

177. This means that he would be blind from the time of his resurrection until he reaches the Field of Reckoning, he would be blind and continuously stumbling or would reach there in a headlong state. Thereafter, he would gain his sight. In another place Allah Almighty says: "We have removed from you the covering, so today your sight is sharp" (S50:V22). Thus, there is no contradiction between these two verses. Mention is made of separate times and separate places.

قَالَ رَبِّ لِمَ حَشَرْتَنِيْٓ اَعْمٰى وَقَدْ كُنْتُ بَصِيْرًا ﴿١٢٥﴾

125. He will say, 'O my Lord, why have you raised me blind whist I possessed sight?'

قَالَ كَذٰلِكَ اَتَتْكَ اٰيٰتُنَا فَنَسِيْتَهَا ۚ وَكَذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمَ تُنْسٰى ﴿١٢٦﴾

126. Allah will say, "Thus Our signs had come to you [178], and you did forget them and in the like manner no one will take care of you" [179].

Marfat.com

178. The verses of the Book of Allah Almighty or the proofs of the Oneness of Allah Almighty and strong arguments thereof. Oh man, you have forgotten these, you have not pondered over these.

179. From this we learn that just as the punishment of sins befall in the world and the Hereafter, the reward of good deeds, too, are received in both worlds. Any Muslim who adheres to the performance of his five daily prayers with congregation will find blessing in sustenance, spaciousness in his grave, and will be able to cross the Bridge easily. But, the one who abandons congregation, there will be no blessing in his earnings, there will be no signs of piety on his face, people will dislike him; in his hour of death and the grave he will experience severe hunger and thirst as well as tightness of the grave and his reckoning will be difficult.

127. And thus we do recompense him who crosses the limit and believes not in the signs of his Lord. And undoubtedly, the torment of the Hereafter is the severest and forever lasting [180].

وَكَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِیْ مَنْ اَسْرَفَ وَ لَمْ یُؤْمِنْۢ بِاٰیٰتِ رَبِّهٖ ؕ وَ لَعَذَابُ الْاٰخِرَةِ اَشَدُّ وَاَبْقٰی ﴿۱۲۷﴾

180. Thus, any one who wants to save himself from this punishment should learn to bear the toil of proper worship and mystical exercise.

128. Has it then not given guidance to them that how many a generation, We have destroyed before them that in whose dwellings they walk? [181]. Undoubtedly therein are signs for men of wisdom [182].

اَفَلَمْ یَهْدِ لَهُمْ كَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّنَ الْقُرُوْنِ یَمْشُوْنَ فِیْ مَسٰكِنِهِمْ ؕ اِنَّ فِیْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰیٰتٍ لِّاُولِی النُّهٰی ﴿۱۲۸﴾ ع ۱۶

181. During their mercantile journeys the infidels of Makkah would walk through the devastated colonies of ravaged nations, because no particular people in Makkah Muazzamah had been afflicted by Divine punishment. The punishment on the Companions of the Elephants of Abraha Ashraan was sent in the jungles of Makkah, where there were no buildings.

182. This tells us that the intelligence through which one does not obtain a lesson is, in reality, no intelligence at all, even though this may be very sharp in worldly matters.

130. Then be patient [185] over what they say, and praise your Lord proclaiming His Holiness before the rising of the sun [186] and before the sunset. And proclaim His Holiness in the hours of the night and at the ends of the day, haply so that you may be pleased [187].

185. This means you must remain steadfast with patience, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was patient from the beginning. This is what Allah Almighty has said: "Oh believers! Keep faith in Allah" (S4:V136), which means Oh people of Faith, remain steadfast on Faith. Or, this may be addressed to the believers. If the objective of the verse is to admonish the believer to bear the torments of the infidels steadfastly, then this verse is abrogated by the verses of Jihad.

186. Here TASBEEH and TAHMEED denote Salaah. A part is mentioned to include the whole. Only reciting of Tasbeeh and Tahmeed during these times is a virtuous act, although this is permissible at all times. These two sentences signify Fajr and Asr Salaah. The hours of the night denotes Esha Salaah while 'ends of the day' reflect Fajr and Maghrib Salaah. Because Fajr Salaah is so important, it has been denoted twice.

187. In it, there is a hint towards the Five Daily Prayers. From "Haply you may be pleased", it is understood that there is a difference in the purpose of our Salaah and that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Our Salaah is to seek forgiveness for our sins, while that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is to gain loftiness of status. Thus, Allah Almighty says: "Haply you may be pleased". The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم status should increase to such a degree so as to please him.

وَ لَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ اِلٰى مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهٖۤ

131. And O Listener! Stretch not your eyes to what we have given to the pairs [188] of the infidels to enjoy the freshness of the living world, that We may thereby try them. And the provision of your Lord is the best and ever lasting [189].

188. Do not look at the wealth and children of the infidels with a sense of greed and importance. They are indeed a punishment for them in the form of blessing. From this we learn that we should look at the wealth and property of the believers with a sense of pride. If Allah Almighty could grant to us a minute portion of Hazrat Uthman-e-Ghani's wealth, then we too would be able to do charitable work, as is stated in Hadith Shareef.

189. That which is granted to the believers in this world and the Hereafter. This tells us that the sustenance of the believer is eternal, because by giving charity he gains eternally.

وَاْمُرْ اَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلٰوةِ وَ اصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا ؕ provide [191] to you. And the good end is for those guarding evil [192].

الْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوٰى ﴿١٣٢﴾

190. From this, emerge three issues:
1. All these inmates of the house are included in the family: wives, children, brothers, etc.
2. A true worshipper is not he who only offers his Salaah, but he who offers his Salaah as well as involves the entire household in it.
3. The nature of the command of Salaah is of a varying type: small children and wives should be forcefully made to perform their Salaah, brothers, cousins, etc. should be verbally instructed to perform their Salaah.

191. This means you have not been made responsible for the sustenance of yourself and your children; We are the true supporters and surety of it. This verse does not mean that man should stop earning his living. Numerous commands to do this are found in the Holy QUR'AAN and Hadith. But its true purpose is to show that one should not be neglectful of the Hereafter by just engaging in earning one's living.

192. In it, there is a hint that through good deeds, sustenance is granted through unknown sources. Says Allah Almighty: "And we will make a way for his deliverance. And will provide for him when he expects not" (S65: Vs 2-3).

133. And the infidels said, 'Why does he not bring us a sign [193] from his Lord?' And has there not come to them as to what was in the former scriptures? [194].

وَ قَالُوْا لَوْ لَا يَاْتِيْنَا بِاٰيَةٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّهٖ ؕ اَوَلَمْ تَاْتِهِمْ بَيِّنَةُ مَا فِي الصُّحُفِ الْاُوْلٰى ﴿١٣٣﴾

193. This means that which we are seeking, like the mountain of gold, and the land of the holy city of Makkah becoming lush green.

194.This means that the prophecy of the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in the previous Books, and the performance of such incredible miracles by him, which were not performed by any of the previous Prophets, are things, which are sufficient proof to bring faith in him.

134. And had we destroyed them before the coming of the Messenger, then they would have necessarily said, 'O my Lord, why you sent not a Messenger [195] that we might have followed your signs before we were disgraced and humiliated' 196.

وَلَوْ اَنَّاۤ اَهْلَكْنٰهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ مِّنْ قَبْلِهٖ لَقَالُوْا رَبَّنَا لَوْ لَاۤ اَرْسَلْتَ اِلَيْنَا رَسُوْلًا فَنَتَّبِعَ اٰيٰتِكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ نَّذِلَّ وَنَخْزٰى ﴿١٣٤﴾

195. This means Oh My Beloved! If We send punishment on the infidels without sending My Prophets to them, then these people can lodge a complaint that Oh our Lord had You sent Your Prophet to us and we had not obeyed him, then we would be entitled to your punishment. Now, they have no opportunity to lodge this complaint.

196. The punishments, which were sent to the polytheists at the time of the Battle of Badr, Battle of the Trench, etc. came after the coming of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Thus, there is no objection that can be raised against this verse.

135. Say you, 'All are waiting, then you too wait, then now you will know that who are the men who are on the straight path and who received guidance' 197.

197. Reason for its revelation:
The polytheists of Arabia were saying that we are awaiting the revolution of time when it would come on the Muslims and they would be destroyed. In response to it, this verse was revealed.

SECTION: 1

1. The accountability [1] of the people is near and they have turned their faces in heedlessness [2].

1. Here, people means the infidels as is understood from the subject that follows, while accountability denotes accountability in the grave or accountability on the Day of Judgement. Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the final Prophet, hence now the Day of Judgement would definitely come, or in relation to the previous periods, Day of Judgement is now near. This verse was revealed regarding those who were rejecting the Day of Judgement. We should regard every moment here as a boon because the world is a tillage field and the Hereafter is place of reaping the harvest.
2. From this we learn that to remain fully engaged in the affairs of the world by forgetting the Hereafter is the practice of the infidels. A believer should make this life as a provision for the Hereafter.

مَا يَاْتِيْهِمْ مِّنْ ذِكْرٍ مِّنْ رَّبِّهِمْ مُّحْدَثٍ اِلَّا اسْتَمَعُوْهُ وَهُمْ يَلْعَبُوْنَ ﴿۲﴾

3.The book of Allah Almighty is eternal, but its coming to us is new. Here it is referred to as an innovater (Mohdith) due to its coming.

4. This means these infidels, do not listen to the Holy QUR'AAN with the correct intention.

3. Their hearts have fallen in sport [5]. And the unjust counselled amongst them secretly; that who is this, is he only a man like you [6]? Do you go to magic and while you are seeing? [7]

5. This tells us that to play and joke at the time of reciting the Holy QUR'AAN is a practise of the infidels. Says Allah Almighty: "And when the QUR'AAN is recited, hear it patiently and be silent so that you may have Mercy (S7:V204). From this many issues of jurisprudence may be deduced.
6. From this we learn that even the infidels feared and were embarrassed at the time of openly calling him a human being like them, because they were seeing numerous changes with their eyes. Therefore, they were

4. The Prophet said, 'My Lord knows every word of the heavens and the earth. And He is the All-Knowing and the All-Seeing' [8].

8. Thus, these infidels would be given punishment for these secret sayings of theirs,

5. On the contrary, they said, 'These are the perturbed dreams, rather it is his own fabrication, nay, he is a poet[9]. Then let him bring any sign to us as the former had been sent' [10].

9. From this we learn that the liar has no confidence in his own words, therefore he is not firm on his word. It is for this reason that these infidels were calling the words of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم at times as magic, sometimes as a nightmare, at times as fabricated words, sometimes as poetry, etc. It should be remembered that here 'poetry' does not mean versified words, but words which are saying this secretly. Those who are labelling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم today as an ordinary human being are far worse than these infidels. Also, to call a Prophet an ordinary human being is the root of all forms of infidelities and which are the branches of it.

They listen to it attentively only to make fun of it and to reject it. Thus, there is no inconsistency between "hearing" and "jesting".

Or, this is the saying of the infidel people of the People of the Book or that of the polytheists, which they had heard from the priests and monks. Otherwise, the polytheists had not acknowledged these Prophets.

13. From this, the obligation of Taqleed is proven, (Taqleed - following one of the Four Imaams in religious practices) because a thing which one does not understand, it is obligatory to enquire from the one who knows. Thus, it is obligatory upon a non-Mujtaheed (one who does not have the necessary knowledge of deducing issues relating to jurisprudence) to enquire from a Mujtaheed (one who has neccessary knowledge of these issues) and to act upon them. It is totally forbidden for such a person to use his own deduction in such issues.

concealed from them, Only the believers have knowledge about them. In the same manner, the human nature of the Prophet is visible, but his peculiarities are concealed. The infidels had only seen the human form of the Prophet (Peace of Allah be upon him), while the noble Companions had seen the inner side of him. The one who merely sees the human form of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is not regarded as a Companion, otherwise Abu Jahl, too, would be regarded as a Companion.

11. It means these are the excuses of the infidels, otherwise those nations to whom their Prophets came with similar miracles which these infidels were asking of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم should they not believe in

12. From this we understand that Prophets had always been humans and males, not a woman, a jinn or an angel. It is understood from a Hadith in Bukhari Shareef, Prophets had always been from lofty families and of noble lineage. From the words of Allah Almighty it is understood that after Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be peace) all subsequent Prophets were from his progeny. Says Allah Almighty: "And We placed prophethood and the book in their off-spring". (S57:V26) It is further said "I am to make you the leader of the people, and from my off-spring. Said He, My covenant does not reach the unjust" (S2:V124). From this we understand that prophethood is from the progeny of Hazrat Ibrahim (On whom be

14. This verse is a reply to that idle and worthless talk of the infidels in which they were saying that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the true Prophet of Allah Almighty, then why does he eat and drink, and if he is not a human being like us then why would he be experiencing death? It should be remembered that just as the words of the QUR'AAN are visible, its mystical meanings are concealed. Mere words are visible to the infidels as well, but the mystical meanings are

15. This means death is necessary for every creation. Death does not negate prophethood, whether it has come already or whether it is still to come. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), too, would be experiencing death. Thus, this does not prove that he has already experienced death.

9. Then We made Our promise good[16] to them, so We delivered them and those whom We pleased and destroyed the extravagant.

ثُمَّ صَدَقْنٰهُمُ الْوَعْدَ فَاَنْجَيْنٰهُمْ وَ مَنْ نَّشَآءُ وَاَهْلَكْنَا الْمُسْرِفِيْنَ ۝٩

17. The word Zikr denotes admonition, deliberation, memoirs and fame. In the context of this verse, all these meanings are applicable, i.e. Oh people of Arabia, there is admonition for you in the Holy QUR'AAN, or it is a deliberation about your necessities, or that it is a discussion of what has happened and will still take place, or in it there is honour and fame for you. It is due to this QUR'AAN that Arabic, Arabia and the Arabs have gained world wide honour.

18. This means these were towns of the infidels because an infidel oppresses himself and his household. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong" (S31:V13).

19. Your condition will be the same as this, if you do not accept faith. Observe, the leaders of the Quraish did not serve the cause of Allah Almighty, as a result of which He made the poor people like the Ansaar of Madina serve Islam. Abu Jahl, etc. were destroyed in the Battle of Badr.

Allah Almighty established the rule of the Bakht Nasar, who either killed or imprisoned these people. Those who managed to save themselves, ran away from this place seeing the condition of these people, the angels said these words sarcastically. But this narration is true under that circumstances, if Prophets had come to Arabia before the advent of our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

فَمَا زَالَتْ تِّلْكَ دَعْوٰىهُمْ حَتّٰى جَعَلْنٰهُمْ حَصِيْدًا خٰمِدِيْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

24. From this we learn that repentance and acknowledgement of one's guilt at the time of punishment is of no benefit. Only that tree can bear fruit which is cultivated at the right time. Any field which is cultivated out of season will not bear any harvest. Repentance which is offered at the wrong time, cannot ward off punishment.

16. And we made not the heavens and the earth and whatever are between the two in vain [25].

وَ مَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَآءَ وَ الْاَرْضَ وَ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا لٰعِبِيْنَ ﴿۱۶﴾

25. In fact there are many practical benefits in their creation. Therefore you too are not created as a useless thing, but out of absolute wisdom. If you were created merely for eating and drinking, then these things would have been done better than you by the animals. This tells us that you have been created for something very important which is to understand the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty and to obey the Prophet of Allah.

35.By 'those with me' denotes the entire Ummah of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This means that the Holy QUR'AAN mentions about good deeds and sins and their reward and punishment about my Ummah. The QUR'AAN has mentioned about the previous Ummahs, that in none of these Ummahs poly theism was regarded as permissible. Thus, this is a fictitious proof about Tauheed (Unity of Allah Almighty.)

36. This is the condition of the common people of the infidels, that they reject the Truth stupidly without any knowledge, while their scholars reject it intentionally and with hate. From this we learn that to be ignorant in matters of religion is a crime, and to have knowledge about them is obligatory.

وَ مَاۤ اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رَّسُوْلٍ اِلَّا نُوْحِيْۤ اِلَيْهِ اَنَّهٗ لَاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّاۤ اَنَا فَاعْبُدُوْنِ ﴿۲۵﴾

At times there is a difference in meaning between the two, while at other times they are of a similar meaning.

38. From this we understand that all the Prophets are unanimous in matters of beliefs but different in practice. Polytheism was never made permissible in the religion of any of the Prophets. Hence, prostration of respect is not an act of polytheism, because this has taken place during the time of some of the Prophets.

26. And they said, 'the Most Affectionate has taken for Himself a son'. Holy is He. Nay they are honoured bondsmen [39].

وَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمٰنُ وَلَدًا سُبْحٰنَهٗ ؕ بَلْ عِبَادٌ مُّكْرَمُوْنَ ۙ﴿۲۶﴾

39. From this we learn that do not insult the pious sages for the refutation of the infidels. Instead, refute them in such a way that the greatness of the pious will always remain. When the infidels accepted the angels and some Prophets as children of Allah Almighty and worshipped them, Allah Almighty did not talk ill of these pious sages, but instead spoke of them as honourable. From this, the Wahabis and the Kharijites need to take a lesson. This verse was revealed regarding Bani Khaza'a who were worshipping the angels as daughters of Allah Almighty.

27. They precede Him not in word, and they act only by His Command[40].

لَا يَسْبِقُوْنَهٗ بِالْقَوْلِ وَ هُمْ بِاَمْرِهٖ يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۲۷﴾

40. From this we understand that the angels are innocent and do not commit any sin.

Says Allah Almighty: "They do not disobey the Commands of Allah" (S66:V6).

28. He knows whatever is before them and whatever is behind them, and they intercede not but for him whom He is pleased [41] with. And they fear of His awe [42].

يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ اَيْدِيْهِمْ وَ مَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَ لَا يَشْفَعُوْنَ ۙ اِلَّا لِمَنِ ارْتَضٰى وَ هُمْ مِّنْ خَشْيَتِهٖ مُشْفِقُوْنَ ﴿۲۸﴾

41. From this we learn that Allah Almighty is pleased with even the sinful believer on the basis of his faith, because the sinful, too, would be pardoned through intercession. We further understand Allah Almighty is totally displeased with the infidels. If He was totally displeased with the sinful believers, he would not have addressed them with these endearing words: "Oh those who believe!"

42. This means that inspite of being innocent, the angels tremble with awe in the presence of Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that Awe is fear out of greatness of a person while ISHFAAQ is due to fear of Allah Almighty's independence. Fear of Allah Almighty is a pillar of faith which is acquired by Prophets, Saints and angels. In fact, the stronger the faith, the stronger the fear.

29. And whosoever of them says [43], 'I am a god beside Allah'. Then we shall recompense him with Hell. Thus We recompense the oppressors.

وَ مَنْ يَّقُلْ مِنْهُمْ اِنِّيْۤ اِلٰهٌ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖ فَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِيْهِ جَهَنَّمَ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾ ع ۲ ۱۹ ۲

43. This means that in these angels such a type of utterance is impossible and absurd, like when Allah Almighty says: "If Allah Almighty has a son, I will be the first to worship it." Some scholars have said that the speaker of these words is Shaitaan and would be sent to Hell. Because he was staying with the angels, therefore the pronoun 'from them' is used.

Marfat.com

SECTION: 3

30. Did the infidels not consider that the heavens and the earth were closed up, then We opened [44] them out? And We made every living from water [45]. Will they then believe?

أَوَلَمْ يَرَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اَنَّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ كَانَتَا رَتْقًا فَفَتَقْنٰهُمَا ؕ وَ جَعَلْنَا مِنَ الْمَآءِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ حَيٍّ ؕ اَفَلَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

44. 'Were close' denotes there was no rain, then it began to rain. Or, it means at first all the heavens clung to one another, then they were spaced. In the first instance to see denotes seeing with the naked eye, in the second it denotes seeing with the inner eye e.g. to ponder.

45. This tells us that every animal, is either alive due to water or it is created through a sperm. Everyone's origin is water, so much so that even the heavens and the earth are created from water. The heaven is the vapour of water while the earth is its foam.

31. And we put anchors [46] in the earth lest it should shake with them, and We made thereinwide pathways that haply they may be guided.

وَ جَعَلْنَا فِي الْاَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ اَنْ تَمِيْدَ بِهِمْ ۪ وَ جَعَلْنَا فِيْهَا فِجَاجًا سُبُلًا لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿۳۱﴾

46. This tells us that the earth is not in motion, because Allah Almighty has called the mountains as anchors. After placing the anchor, the ship will not move. Likewise, the earth now does not move.

32. And We made the heavens a roof well protected [47]; and they turn away from its signs [48].

وَ جَعَلْنَا السَّمَآءَ سَقْفًا مَّحْفُوْظًا ۚ وَّ هُمْ عَنْ اٰيٰتِهَا مُعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿۳۲﴾

47. Which cannot fall or which cannot rub, although it is neither established on a pillar nor is it hanging on anything. It is established purely through the power of Allah Almighty.

48. This means the infidels do not ponder over these signs of Allah Almighty. This tells us that mathematics and astronomy are superior sciences when they are used as a means of acquiring the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty. The great saints say that a single moment of inner reflection is better than a thousand years of prayer which is bereft of true concentration.

33. And it is He Who created the night and the day [49] and the sun and the moon. Each one is floating in a circumference [50].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ خَلَقَ الَّيْلَ وَ النَّهَارَ وَالشَّمْسَ وَ الْقَمَرَ ؕ كُلٌّ فِيْ فَلَكٍ يَّسْبَحُوْنَ ﴿۳۳﴾

Marfat.com

49. So that you can rest during the night and work during the day. From this we learn that the night comes before the day. This is the very system on which Islamic law is based i.e. after the sunset the date changes. Even human intellect desires this, because darkness precedes light.

50. From this we understand that the sky and the earth are not in motion. In fact, all the stars are floating in the orbit in such a manner as if someone is floating in the water. Thus, the ancient philosophy is false so is the modern philosophy i.e. the claim of science, too, is baseless. We further learn that the liquid-like substance of the sky is fluid and thin like the water or the wind in which the stars are floating. It is not solid and heavy. Thus, the Russian rocket which had presently entered the heavens is not against the teachings of Islam. In fact this verse serves as a proof for this occurence as well as that of Me'raj.

34. And We made not before you for any man to live forever [51] in the world. Will they then live forever if you pass away?

وَ مَا جَعَلْنَا لِبَشَرٍ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ الْخُلْدَ ؕ اَفَاْىِٕنْ مِّتَّ فَهُمُ الْخٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۳۴﴾

51. The enemies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were awaiting his demise and would joyously say a time will come when the Messenger of Allah Almighty, too, would experience death. This verse was revealed in response to what these infidels were saying in which it is said that no one is out of the reach of death who will not become a victim of it. Hazrat Khizr and Hazrat Isa (On them be peace) and even the cursed Iblees, too would be experiencing death. This verse does not in any way prove that Hazrat Isa (On him be peace) has already experienced death as is claimed by the Qadyanis. In short, having long life is one thing, but eternity and immortality is another thing altogether. No one is granted eternal life in this world.

35. Every soul is to taste death [52]. And We prove you by evil and good for trial. And to Us you are to return[53].

كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَآىِٕقَةُ الْمَوْتِ ؕ وَ نَبْلُوْكُمْ بِالشَّرِّ وَ الْخَيْرِ فِتْنَةً ؕ وَ اِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿۳۵﴾

52. The taste of death is sweet for the true devotees of Allah Almighty, while it is extremely distasteful to those who are negligent. Death is like a vehicle, it transports one to the Beloved, the other to prison.

53. Some will return out of joy, others against their wishes.

36. And when the infidels see you, they take you not but with mockery [54]. Is this he who speaks evil of your gods? [55]. While they are themselves the rejecters [56] of the very remembrance of the Most Affectionate.

وَ اِذَا رَاٰكَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْۤا اِنْ يَّتَّخِذُوْنَكَ اِلَّا هُزُوًا ؕ اَهٰذَا الَّذِيْ يَذْكُرُ اٰلِهَتَكُمْ ۚ وَ هُمْ بِذِكْرِ الرَّحْمٰنِ هُمْ كٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۳۶﴾

54.Cause of revelation;
On seeing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Abu Jahl would laugh, and pass remarks to make fun. In reponse to it, this verse was revealed.

55.This means (Allah Almighty forbid) these Prophets are of a very low standing, while our idols are very prestigious. Being so low they are talking ill of those who are so lofty. Here "they are themselves" is used for the purpose of showing contempt. From this we learn that to say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a person of low rank is infidelity. These persons are of the highest degree of servitude, and only Divinity is above that.

56. This means those who look at you with contempt cannot give account of Allah Almighty accurately, because you are the highest means of the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty. In fact, you yourself are the remembrance and description of Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that they have been mentioned as rejectors of the remembrance of Allah Almighty.

37. Man is made hasty [57], and I will show you My signs[58], be not hasty to Me [59].

57. It should be remembered that haste in certain thing is regarded as good: repentance from sins, performance of Salaah, marriage of the daughter when a husband is chosen, burial procedure of the deceased. This haste is excellent, while haste in other matters is detestable.

58. This means that the concrete proofs would be established about the truth of Islam and for the refutation of infidelity, and their bright signs and symbols would be shown by gaining total ascendency by the weak believers over the powerful infidels, the continuous rise of Islam and the fall of infidelity, in spite of the lack of material resources of the believers, while the infidels are fully equipped.

59. Reason for its revelation:
Nadar ibn Harith would say that why does the punishment about which you are instilling fear in us not come to us? When will it come? Regarding it, this verse was revealed. From this we learn to make haste with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is making haste with Allah Almighty. This is exactly what Nadar had said and Allah Almighty states that do not make haste with Me.

38. And they say, 'when this promise will be (fulfilled) if you are truthful?[60].

وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ مَتٰى هٰذَا الْوَعْدُ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿۳۸﴾

60. This is the description of that haste. Thus, this verse is the commentary of the previous verse.

39. And how the infidels knew the time when they will not be able to keep off fire from their mouths and not from their backs [61], neither shall they be helped [62].

لَوْ يَعْلَمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا حِيْنَ لَا يَكُفُّوْنَ عَنْ وُّجُوْهِهِمُ النَّارَ وَ لَا عَنْ ظُهُوْرِهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ يُنْصَرُوْنَ ﴿۳۹﴾

61.This means the fire would surround the infidels from all directions in the grave or in the Hereafter and they will not be able to ward off this fire through any means. If the fire does reach the sinful believer it will be (if Allah Almighty wills), extinguished through the blessings of his charities or through his tears which were shed when weeping due to fear of Allah Almighty. Also, fire will not reach a believer from all directions, in fact, his heart, brain and parts of Sajdah will be protected from it.

62. This tells us that being without helpers is for the infidels. Allah Almighty has provided many helpers for the believers. Says Allah Almighty: "Only Allah is your helper and

Marfat.com

His Messenger and the believers" (S5:V55). From this you further understand that the fire of Hell would be burning the faces of the infidels, but not that of the sinful believers. The parts of Sajdah would be safe. There, the believer will appear in his human form and infidels in another shape.

40. Rather it will come to them all of a sudden, then it will confound [63] them, and they will not be able to avert it. Nor will they be given respite.

بَلْ تَاْتِيْهِمْ بَغْتَةً فَتَبْهَتُهُمْ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ رَدَّهَا وَ لَا هُمْ يُنْظَرُوْنَ ﴿۴۰﴾

63. From this we understand that on the Day of Judgement everybody will not be confounded, the senses of some will be in their place e.g. those of the favourite servants of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "The Great Terror shall not grieve them" (S21:V103). It is further stated: "There is no fear nor any grief upon them" (S10:V62).

41. And undoubtedly, the Messengers before you [64] were mocked, and then the mockery [65] of the scoffers took themselves in its fold.

وَ لَقَدِ اسْتُهْزِئَ بِرُسُلٍ مِّنْ قَبْلِكَ فَحَاقَ بِالَّذِيْنَ سَخِرُوْا مِنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ﴿۴۱﴾ ع ۴

64. Thus Oh my Beloved صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم do not grieve at the vulgarity and wickedness of these wicked people.

65. This means that the previous infidels were making fun of the Prophets who would inform them about Divine punishment. Then suddenly these punishments would come to them. The same would be the condition of these funmongers.

SECTION: 4

42. Say you, 'who keeps watch upon you from the Most Affectionate [66] by night and by day?' Yet they have turned their faces from the remembrance of their Lord [67].

قُلْ مَنْ يَّكْلَؤُكُمْ بِالَّيْلِ وَ النَّهَارِ مِنَ الرَّحْمٰنِ ؕ بَلْ هُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿۴۲﴾

66. Besides Allah Almighty, i.e. day and night it is We who are taking care of you and protecting you from Divine punishment.

67. It should be the practice of the believer to keep his tongue fully engaged in the remembrance of Allah Almighty at all times. Any person who recites Ayatul Kursi at the time of going to bed, his entire house is protected from burglary, fire, calamities and accidental happenings. Also, the constant remembrance of Allah Almighty will protect the believers from the fire of Hell.

43. Have they some gods who protect them besides us? They cannot protect [68] their own souls, and nor against Us may they have company with [69].

اَمْ لَهُمْ اٰلِهَةٌ تَمْنَعُهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِنَا ؕ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ نَصْرَ اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَ لَا هُمْ مِّنَّا يُصْحَبُوْنَ ﴿۴۳﴾

68. If they cannot save themselves, then how would they save their worshippers? Hence, their worship is not beneficial, but harmful.

44. Nay, We allowed them and their fathers to carry on, until their life grew long [70] upon them. Do they then not observe that We are coming gradually reducing the land from its outlying borders? [71] Will they then overcome?

70. This tells us that a long life span, abundant wealth and excessive comfort are the punishment of Allah Almighty, if they are utilised in sinful activities. And the same are Divine blessings if they are spent in doing pious deeds. The long life span of Shaitaan is a means of excessive punishment for him, while the long life span of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) is positive Divine mercy for him.

71. In that, believers are continuing to capture lands of the infidels. The boundaries of the believers are expanding and that of the infidels are becoming smaller. From this, they should take a lesson. This verse is revealed in Madina because prior to Hijrah, Muslims had not embarked on the path of conquests.

قُلْ اِنَّمَآ اُنْذِرُكُمْ بِالْوَحْيِ ۚ وَ لَا يَسْمَعُ الصُّمُّ الدُّعَآءَ اِذَا مَا يُنْذَرُوْنَ ﴿۴۵﴾ the Prophet verbally, mere revelation in the heart is not sufficient. This is the task of Allah Almighty.

2. Those who are unable to reap benefits through lectures are deaf, blind and dead, although they may possess all these qualities outwardly.

وَ لَئِنْ مَّسَّتْهُمْ نَفْحَةٌ مِّنْ عَذَابِ رَبِّكَ لَيَقُوْلُنَّ يٰوَيْلَنَآ اِنَّا كُنَّا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۴۶﴾ even equal to a grain of a mustard seed, then We shall bring it. And We are sufficient to take account [77].

مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ اَتَيْنَا بِهَا ؕ وَ كَفٰى بِنَا حٰسِبِيْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

75. This scale would be for them who have both good and evil deeds. There is no scale for the infidels as they have no good deeds: Says Allah Almighty: "We shall not establish any weight for them on the Day of Judgement" (S18:V105). There is no weight for those who are absolutely pious, as they have no sins. Says Allah Almighty: "Then they shall enter Paradise and they shall be provided therein without count" (S40:V40). The scale would be for everybody. If so, the weight of the good deeds would be done with sincerity and more lovingly.

76. This means Allah Almighty will have the scale to weigh the deeds in which the good and the bad deeds would be weighed. Or it means the deeds themselves would be appearing in different forms after which they would be weighed or the book of deeds would be weighed. Weighing on the Day of Judgement is a certainty, its rejection is heresy.

77. Although it is the angels who would be taking the account of man, this would not be due to Allah Almighty's helplessness, but it would be in accordance with Divine Law. Says Allah Almighty: "None is supporter of Him because of weakness" (S17:V111).

48. And undoubtedly, We gave Musa and Haroon judgement [78]. and the light and admonition those who fear God.

وَ لَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَا مُوْسٰى وَ هٰرُوْنَ الْفُرْقَانَ وَ ضِيَآءً وَّ ذِكْرًا لِّلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

78. The Taurah was given directly to Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) while to Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) it came through Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace). Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

49. Those who fear [79], their Lord, Unseen, and who are dreadful of the Hour.

الَّذِيْنَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَيْبِ وَ هُمْ مِّنَ السَّاعَةِ مُشْفِقُوْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

79. This tells us that fear of Allah Almighty is beneficial, although it is developed without seeing. On seeing even the Devil becomes frightened. On seeing, the angels of punishment at the Battle of Badr, he had said: "I fear Allah, the Lord of the worlds" (S5:V28). But this fear of his did not benefit him.

50. And it is the blessed admonition that We have sent [80]. down. Are you the deniers of it?

وَ هٰذَا ذِكْرٌ مُّبٰرَكٌ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ ؕ اَفَاَنْتُمْ لَهٗ مُنْكِرُوْنَ ﴿۵۰﴾ ع

80. This tells us one of the names of the Holy QUR'AAN is Zikr narration because it has narrations about those that have come before. Also, it contains regulations regarding the temporal and the spiritual needs, about this world and the Hereafter. There are thirty two names given for the Holy QUR'AAN (Tafseer Naeemi).

SECTION 5

51. And undoubtedly, We bestowed over Ibrahim his righteous path [81], from before, and We knew him[82].

وَ لَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَاۤ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ رُشْدَهٗ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَ كُنَّا بِهٖ عٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۵۱﴾ ج

Marfat.com

81. This means before Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was given the Taurah (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Or, before Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had attained the age of maturity e.g. he was born a pious believer, while prophethood was bestowed upon him much later.

82. From this we understand that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) at no time digressed from the path of Truth - neither in belief nor in practice. Anyone who would regard him as a polytheist or sinner during any stage of his blessed life is denying the veracity of this verse because Allah Almighty in this verse has intimated that he is entitled to this piety. He who is guided by Allah Almighty can never go astray.

52. When he said to his father [83] and his people, 'what are these images before which you are sitting firmly' (for worship) [84].

اِذْ قَالَ لِاَبِيْهِ وَقَوْمِهٖ مَا هٰذِهِ التَّمَاثِيْلُ الَّتِيْٓ اَنْتُمْ لَهَا عٰكِفُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

83. From this we learn that the mother of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was a true believer, it is for this reason that her name was not mentioned on such an occasion. No Prophet's mother has ever been a polytheist. Here the word 'father' denotes uncle because his father was Ta'arrukh and his uncle was Azar. Azar was destroyed on that day on which Namrood had ordered Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) to be thrown in the fire. One flame of this very fire had destroyed him. After his death Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had never prayed for his salvation, but he had prayed for his parents when he already had children. "O my Lord! forgive me and my parents". (S71:V28). In Arabic the word ABB is used to denote a father, grandfather, uncle, etc. but the word WAALID is used only for a father (Tafseer Naeemi: Surah An-aam.

84. It should be remembered that the people of Babel i.e. the people of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) were indulging in the worship of the moon, the sun, the stars, Namrood and the idols sculptured in his image. Namrood was calling himself the big god and the other objects as the small gods. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

53. They said, 'we found our fathers worshipping them.'

قَالُوْا وَجَدْنَآ اٰبَآءَنَا لَهَا عٰبِدِيْنَ ﴿۵۳﴾

54. He said, 'Undoubtedly, you and your fathers are in manifest error [85'].

قَالَ لَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ اَنْتُمْ وَ اٰبَآؤُكُمْ فِيْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿۵۴﴾

85. From this we understand three issues:

1. No consideration should be given to anyone in matters of Religion. No respect should be given to anyone even if such a person is one's relative or older in age.
2. Taqiyyah feigned piety in matters of religion is not permissible.
3. In matters of religion, view of the majority does not have any credence. Even if the entire world were to say that there are two Gods, they are liars, and the Prophets are true.

55. They said, 'Have you brought truth to us, or you are making a play unintentionally? [86].

قَالُوْٓا اَجِئْتَنَا بِالْحَقِّ اَمْ اَنْتَ مِنَ اللّٰعِبِيْنَ ﴿۵۵﴾

Marfat.com

86. The people said this because they had full faith of being on the path of truth. Oneness of Allah Almighty to them seemed like a very strange thing.

56. He said, 'Nay, your Lord is He Who is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Who created them [87], and I am of the witness to that [88].

87. Because only that being is worthy of worship who is ancient, unending and eternal and who is a creator. The moon, the stars, the idols nor Namrood had possessed these two attributes. Then, on what other grounds do they become worthy of worship? There is a great difference between obedience and worship. One can obey any great person, but worship is only worthy to One who is the greatest i.e. who is the Creator.

88. Here testimony does not signify testimony based on religious law because the plaintiff himself cannot become a witness. At that point in time Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was the claimant of Tauheed.

57. And I swear by Allah, I shall devise bad against your idols after you have turned your backs [89].

وَ تَاللّٰهِ لَاَكِیْدَنَّ اَصْنَامَكُمْ بَعْدَ اَنْ تُوَلُّوْا مُدْبِرِیْنَ ﴿۵۷﴾

89. This tells us that a Prophet has no fear of anyone in his heart. They are not born to be supressed. If Mirza Goolam had been a prophet, he would not have deprived himself of a great obligation like Hajj because of his fear for the Pathaans. We further learn that sometimes the 'device' is used to mean something good as well i.e. a secret plan. Furthermore, Prophets never practise hypocrisy. Taqiyyah feigning piety is the practise of the devil. Says Allah Almighty: "And he swore to them both that I am the well wisher of you both" (S7:V21).

58. Then he broke them in to pieces[90], but the big one of them, that haply they may ask to it something [91].

فَجَعَلَهُمْ جُذٰذًا اِلَّا كَبِیْرًا لَّهُمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ اِلَیْهِ یَرْجِعُوْنَ ﴿۵۸﴾

90. These people were holding their annual fair. On that day they would be in the jungle to indulge in revelry and gaiety. When they would return in the evening, they would first go to the temple to worship the idols then go home. By coincidence, the day after this incident had taken place was the day of their funfair. They, therefore said to Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) that tomorrow he should accompany them to see their funfair. Thereafter, a discussion would take place about it. The next day, he made an excuse and remained behind in the city, while the rest of the people had left for the fun-fair. In their absence he broke all their idols and placed the axe on the shoulders of the biggest idol.

91. From this big idol or from Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace).

59. They said, 'Who has done this to our gods?' undoubtedly, he is unjust.

قَالُوْا مَنْ فَعَلَ هٰذَا بِاٰلِهَتِنَاۤ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الظّٰلِمِیْنَ ﴿۵۹﴾

Marfat.com

قَالُوْا سَمِعْنَا فَتًى يَّذْكُرُهُمْ يُقَالُ لَهٗٓ اِبْرٰهِيْمُ ﴿٦٠﴾

60. Some of them said, 'We have heard a youth called Ibrahim [92]. saying bad to them'.

92.When the news of this incident reached Namrood and his people, they said these words.

قَالُوْا فَاْتُوْا بِهٖ عَلٰٓى اَعْيُنِ النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْهَدُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾

61. They said, 'Then bring him before the people, haply they may bear witness [93].

93. That these people had seen the destruction of the idols, or heard the evil words spoken about the idols. This tells us that even a cruel and tyrant king like Namrood would pass judgement in a case after listening to the testimony of the witnesses. Today's officials who give one sided judgement without listening to the testimony of both sides should take a lesson from this.

قَالُوْٓا ءَاَنْتَ فَعَلْتَ هٰذَا بِاٰلِهَتِنَا يٰٓاِبْرٰهِيْمُ ﴿٦٢﴾

62. They said, 'have you done this to our gods O Ibrahim?'

قَالَ بَلْ فَعَلَهٗ ۖ كَبِيْرُهُمْ هٰذَا فَسْـَٔلُوْهُمْ اِنْ كَانُوْا يَنْطِقُوْنَ ﴿٦٣﴾

63. He said, 'Rather this big one [94], of them would have done this, so ask them, if they can speak'.

94. By 'this big one' is meant Allah Almighty because they would call Allah Almighty as the Big God and the idols as small gods. Because the deed of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was like the work of Allah Almighty, he had linked his work to Allah Almighty. Or its meaning is that which the blessed translator (On whom be peace) has outlined that this was derisive talk i.e. it must have been done by the big idol. In the statement of derision and suspicion there is no lie and falsehood. This is an expression of uncertainty. Allah Almighty will tell the infidels: "Taste it Yes, you are the honourable, the benignant" (S44:V49). In any case, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had not spoken a lie.

فَرَجَعُوْٓا اِلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ فَقَالُوْٓا اِنَّكُمْ اَنْتُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾ لا

64. They turned to themselves and said, 'Undoubtedly you yourselves are the unjust' [95].

95. That they were worshipping such lifeless and helpless objects. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is on the path of Truth, yet it is not sufficient to think as such for the purpose of faith until there is no admission and acknowledgement about it. Thus, they remained polytheists.

ثُمَّ نُكِسُوْا عَلٰى رُءُوْسِهِمْ ۚ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا هٰٓؤُلَآءِ يَنْطِقُوْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

65. Then they were layed downwards on their heads [96] that you know well that these do not speak.

96. Either by the devil or by their baser self. They were once again returned to downward infidelity, but because their first thought was not based on faith, therefore this turning of theirs was not declared as apostasy.

66. He said, 'Do you then worship beside Allah that which neither profits you and nor hurts you' [97].

قَالَ اَفَتَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُكُمْ شَيْـًٔا وَّ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ ﴿٦٦﴾

97. This means their worship is not beneficial, and breaking and destroying does not cause any harm. Observe, I had broken them yet they did not say anything to me

Otherwise, there is both benefit and harm derived from stones. From them buildings are constructed and if you hit anyone with them, they can break a person's head.

67. Woe upon you and those deities, which you worship besides Allah, do you then have no wisdom? [98].

اُفٍّ لَّكُمْ وَ لِمَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ ؕ اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

98. From this we learn that a Prophet does not have fear for people. "They have no fear" (S10:V62). Also, they do not have consideration for the people when in the path of Allah Almighty, neither for a king nor for a father or other relatives. Observe, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is boldly and fearlessly speaking to the infidels all by himself.

Also rebuking and scolding the infidels at times is the Sunnah of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) for he said to them: Fie on you" Says Allah Almighty: "And be strict to them" (S9:V73) Those who propagate that we should regard every one as our brother should take heed from this.

68. They said, 'Burn him and help your gods, if you have to do' 99.

قَالُوْا حَرِّقُوْهُ وَ انْصُرُوْٓا اٰلِهَتَكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ فٰعِلِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾

99. Thus Namrood and his people imprisoned him and Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was collecting wood for a month at a place called KOTI. Then a huge fire was lit and as a result of its intensity, birds were unable to fly over it. Thereafter, he was placed in a catapult and thrown towards the fire. At that point in time, he was reciting this verse: "Allah is sufficient for us and what an excellent disposer of Affairs" (S3:V173). He met Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) on the way, who had enquired whether he was in need of anything. The reply was "I do not need anything from you. My need is with Allah, Who is fully aware of it." Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was under the impression that at the time of a problem, seeking Allah's assistance would perhaps be looked upon as impatience on his part. The woodpecker, was bringing water in its beak to put off the fire, but the chameleon was trying to fan the fire from a distance. Neither did the fire get extinguished by the woodpecker nor was the chameleon successful in brightening the fire. However, this revealed what was in their hearts i.e. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was able to distinguish between a friend and an enemy. It is for this reason that there is an order to kill the chameleon.

69. We said, 'O Fire! Be cool and a safety for Ibrahim' [100].

قُلْنَا يٰنَارُ كُوْنِيْ بَرْدًا وَّ سَلٰمًا عَلٰٓى اِبْرٰهِيْمَ ﴿٦٩﴾

Marfat.com

100. This means it turns from hot to cold and becomes secure through coolness. If Allah Almighty had not used the word 'safe',

70. And they desired evil for him, but We made them the worst losers [101].

101. In that He had saved you from the fire

71. And We delivered [102], him and Lut, towards the land in which We had placed the blessings for the worlds [103].

102. This tells us that if a believer wishes to spend a proper life in this world, then he should, like Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), build his house in the fire, Allah Almighty will change it into a garden.

72. And We bestowed him Ishaaq and as grandson, Ya`qoob, and We made all of them able for Our special favour [104].

104. This tells us that pious children are a special mercy of Allah Almighty. Pious children

73. And We made them leaders [105], who called by Our Command and We revealed to them the doing of good deeds [106], and establishing prayer and the paying of Zakaat (poor-due) [107]. and they constantly served Us.

105. It is about the people of that period. On every one of them his obedience was obligatory. Or that he had been made the Prophet of the entire world for all times, so that He had made it compulsory on everyone to accept faith through the Prophets of Allah Almighty.

106. In it there is a hint that the Prophets from their infancy are people who are pious and doers of pious deeds.

the fire would have become very cold and could have become a means of destruction.

وَاَرَادُوْا بِهٖ كَيْدًا فَجَعَلْنٰهُمُ الْاَخْسَرِيْنَ ﴿۷۰﴾ and destroyed Namrood through a mosquito.

103. This means the land of Syria where the blessings of this world and the Hereafter are found. It is the resting place of many Prophets. There are many types of fruit and rivers therein. Its weather is very mild.

وَوَهَبْنَا لَهٗۤ اِسْحٰقَ ؕ وَيَعْقُوْبَ نَافِلَةً ؕ وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا صٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۷۲﴾ are those fruits which would be beneficial in both the worlds.

وَجَعَلْنٰهُمْ اَئِمَّةً يَّهْدُوْنَ بِاَمْرِنَا وَاَوْحَيْنَاۤ اِلَيْهِمْ فِعْلَ الْخَيْرٰتِ وَاِقَامَ الصَّلٰوةِ وَاِيْتَآءَ الزَّكٰوةِ ۚ وَكَانُوْا لَنَا عٰبِدِيْنَ ﴿۷۳﴾

107. That he should order people to pay their Zakaat, as this is not obligatory upon the Prophets. Or Zakaat could refer to cleanliness and purity of the heart. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) had said: "Wherever I may be and enjoined in prayer and poor tax (Zakaat) so long as I live (S19: V31). Although he had, not paid Zakaat at any stage of his life. In fact, he had never accumulated wealth.

74. And to Lut We gave government and Knowledge [108], and delivered him from that town which had been doing foul deeds [109]. Undoubtedly, those evil people were disobedient.

108. Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) was the son of Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) and the nephew of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). He had become a Prophet due to the Prayer of these great Prophets.

109. This means evil action from the boys. These people were from Sodom and places close to it. From this we learn that though the infidels are not duty-bound to worship, but they are dutybound to affairs of friendship.

وَ اَدْخَلْنٰهُ فِيْ رَحْمَتِنَا ؕ اِنَّهٗ مِنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾ ع

75. And We caused him to enter Our Mercy. Undoubtedly, he is of those able for Our special favour.

SECTION: 6

وَ نُوْحًا اِذْ نَادٰى مِنْ قَبْلُ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهٗ فَنَجَّيْنٰهُ وَ اَهْلَهٗ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ الْعَظِيْمِ ۚ﴿۷۶﴾

76. And to Nuh when he called Us before this, then We listened to his prayer and delivered him and his family [110]. from severe torture [111].

110. It means his one wife and the believing children. From this we learn that a wife is included in the household.

111. This means from the non-believing people, or from heavy floods. From this we learn that the destruction of the infidels is a mercy of Allah Almighty at which one should be happy.

وَ نَصَرْنٰهُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِيْنَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا قَوْمَ سَوْءٍ فَاَغْرَقْنٰهُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿۷۷﴾

77. And We helped him against a people who belied our signs [112]. Undoubtedly they were evil people, so We drowned them all [113].

112.By giving miracles to the progeny of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) and thereafter drowning these people. The mention of the second information comes a little further.

113.In that not a single infidel was left in the entire world. This was due to the effect of this prayer of his: "Oh my Lord! leave not of the infidels any inhabitant upon the earth" (S71:V26).

وَ دَاوٗدَ وَ سُلَيْمٰنَ اِذْ يَحْكُمٰنِ فِي الْحَرْثِ اِذْ نَفَشَتْ فِيْهِ غَنَمُ الْقَوْمِ ۚ وَ كُنَّا لِحُكْمِهِمْ شٰهِدِيْنَ ۙ﴿۷۸﴾

78. And remember Dawood and Sulaiman [114], when they gave decision regarding a feud of tillage when the sheep of certain people strayed therein by night, and We were present at the time of their judgement.

Marfat.com

114.At that time Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) was the king and the Prophet, while Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was still young - he was only eleven years old.

79. We made Sulaiman [115], to understand the matter and bestowed to both of them government and knowledge [116], and We made the mountains subservient to celebrate Our Praises with Dawood. And so the birds [117]. and these were Our doings.

فَفَهَّمْنٰهَا سُلَيْمٰنَ ۚ وَ كُلًّا اٰتَيْنَا حُكْمًا
وَّعِلْمًا ۡ وَّسَخَّرْنَا مَعَ دَاوٗدَ الْجِبَالَ
يُسَبِّحْنَ وَالطَّيْرَ ؕ وَكُنَّا فٰعِلِيْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

115. This case was decided by Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) by saying that the goats must be given to the owner of the land because the value of these goats was equal to the crop devoured by them. When the Plaintiff and the defendant left there, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) said that there could be a simpler solution to this. Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) told him "Please do tell me about it" To this, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) replied that the owner of the field should be given the goats conditionally, and the owner of the goats should cultivate his land. When the crop reaches that stage when it had been devoured, the owner of the field should return the goats to the owner and take possession of the land. During this period, the owner of the field can make use of the milk, etc. of these goats. Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) gave the order according to it.

116. From this emerge a few issues:

1. Authoritative interpretation of Islamic Law is fully justifiable and those who have the capacity for it should do so;
2. Prophets, too, are authoritative interpretators because the order of both these Prophets was based on authoritative interpretation and not through revelation.
3. Even if there is an error in the interpretation of a prophet, the possibility of such errors is far greater in the non-prophets;
4. A mujtahid will not be regarded as sinful due to an error in interpretation. Observe, Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) had erred in the interpretation but he was not censured for it;
5. One interpretation can cancel another interpretation but the categorical order cannot be cut off from the interpretation;
6. Prophets do not stick to faulty interpretation Allah Almighty corrects this error;
7. In the Law of Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) this was the judgement of loss of crop, but in our Law of Shariah, if the shepherd is not with the flock, the owner of the goats will not be implicated or liable for payment of the damage.

117. In that the mountains and the birds would recite the glorification of Allah Almighty with him in such a manner that those who could hear would hear their recitation. Otherwise, trees and stones are continuously engaged in glorifying Allah Almighty.

A case came to Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) that without the shepherd, how did the goats of the people get to the field belonging to a person, causing destruction of its crop.

80. And We taught [118] him the making of garments for you so that it may protect you against your violence. Will you then be grateful?[119].

وَ عَلَّمْنٰهُ صَنْعَةَ لَبُوْسٍ لَّكُمْ لِتُحْصِنَكُمْ

118. This means to make an armour. Iron would melt in his blessed hand and he would mould it as he desired it. He would make armour in this way, which was used in battles.
119. Oh believers express gratitude to Allah Almighty that He provided for you armour through Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace). Or oh people of Dawood (On whom be peace) express gratitude that He granted this bounty to your Prophet. It should be remembered that Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) would make the armour and sell them from which he was making his living. He took nothing from the state treasury for his personal needs (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) is the inventor of armour.

81. And to Sulaiman We made subservient the violent wind that it blew at his biding [120]. to the land in which We had placed Our blessings[121]. And We are in known of every thing.

وَ لِسُلَيْمٰنَ الرِّيْحَ عَاصِفَةً تَجْرِىْ بِاَمْرِهٖۤ اِلَى الْاَرْضِ الَّتِىْ بٰرَكْنَا فِيْهَا ؕ وَكُنَّا بِكُلِّ شَىْءٍ عٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۸۱﴾

120. From this emerge two issues:
1. The kingdom of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was a general one, he was the ruler over the jinns and the air as well.
2. It is not polytheism to say that this work is done through such a person. Observe, Allah Almighty had said that the wind blows through the order of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace).
Thus, one can say that the moon was split by the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the sun came back, the rain fell, etc through his command. This order is from that which is bestowed by Allah Almighty.
121. That Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) would by means of his throne fly every morning and evening in the air completing a journey of a month. Here, earth, refers to the ground of Syria.

82. And of the devils, those who dived [122], for him and did other work beside that [123], and We had a check over them [124].

وَ مِنَ الشَّيٰطِيْنِ مَنْ يَّغُوْصُوْنَ لَهٗ وَيَعْمَلُوْنَ عَمَلًا دُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ ۚ وَكُنَّا لَهُمْ حٰفِظِيْنَ ۙ﴿۸۲﴾

122. To take out pearls, etc.
123. To construct buildings to prepare and manufacture astounding objects.
124. That they had not rebelled against his orders, and were not damaging things they would manufacture, as was their custom.

83. And remember Ayyub [125], when he called his Lord that distress has touched me and you are the Most Merciful of the merciful [126].

وَ اَيُّوْبَ اِذْ نَادٰى رَبَّهٗۤ اَنِّىْ مَسَّنِىَ الضُّرُّ وَاَنْتَ اَرْحَمُ الرّٰحِمِيْنَ ۚ﴿۸۳﴾

125. Hazrat Ayoob (On whom be peace) is from the progeny of Hazrat Ishaque (On whom be peace). He was a prophet of Harraan, which was one of the areas of Damascus. He had seven sons, seven daughters, countless animals and other wealth. He was very handsome.

Allah Almighty tested him by causing all his children to die, his buildings to fall, his animals to perish, his harvest to be ruined. He himself became ill. His entire body was full of worms and wounds. Besides his wife, all had deserted him. This test lasted for seven years.

Thereafter he offered this dua (prayer.)
126. From this we learn that to present your need, too, is a form of prayer, and the expression of glory and praise of Allah Almighty is also a prayer. Furthermore, at the time of offering prayer, one should always recite praises of Allah Almighty. We also know that in the dua the praises of Allah Almighty should be such which should be suitable to the prayer itself. One should not say Oh Vanquisher, have mercy upon me, or Oh most Benificient and Merciful, destroy the infidels. Instead, remember Allah Almighty in the most sublime form according to your dua.

84. Then We responded to him and We removed the distress which he had and we gave him his family and along with them the like thereof as a mercy [127]. from Us. And as an admonition to the devotees.

فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهٗ فَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهٖ مِنْ ضُرٍّ وَّاٰتَيْنٰهُ اَهْلَهٗ وَ مِثْلَهُمْ مَّعَهُمْ رَحْمَةً مِّنْ عِنْدِنَا وَذِكْرٰى لِلْعٰبِدِيْنَ ﴿۸۴﴾

127. By this is meant a fountain came into existence from an unknown source through the rubbing of his feet. By drinking and bathing in this water all inner and outer diseases were removed. All his deceased children came back to life, his wife became young once again and he was granted additional children.

85. And remember Ismail and Idrees[128]. and Zul-Kifl. They were all men of patience [129].

وَ اِسْمٰعِيْلَ وَ اِدْرِيْسَ وَذَا الْكِفْلِ ؕ كُلٌّ مِّنَ الصّٰبِرِيْنَ ﴿۸۵﴾

128. The blessed name of Hazrat Idries (On whom be peace) is Akhnooq ibn Burda, ibn Mahla Beel. He had come before Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) and was sent to Paradise alive. Says Allah Almighty: "And We have raised him up to a lofty place" (S19:V57).
129. Worship of Allah Almighty; hardship caused by the people; being patient at the natural calamities.

86. And we got them to enter into Our Mercy. Undoubtedly, they are of the righteous ones.

وَ اَدْخَلْنٰهُمْ فِيْ رَحْمَتِنَا ؕ اِنَّهُمْ مِّنَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿۸۶﴾

87. And remember Zun-Noon [130]. And when he departed in anger [131], he imagined that We would not cause him any distress [132], and then he cried out in the darkness [133], there is none worthy of worship but You, Glory is to you. Undoubtedly, I did improper act [134].

وَذَا النُّوْنِ اِذْ ذَّهَبَ مُغَاضِبًا فَظَنَّ اَنْ لَّنْ نَّقْدِرَ عَلَيْهِ فَنَادٰى فِي الظُّلُمٰتِ اَنْ لَّاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّاۤ اَنْتَ سُبْحٰنَكَ ۖ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۸۷﴾

130. His blessed name is Yunoos ibn Matta, his title is Zun-Nun i.e. the Prophet linked with the fish, because he had spent some time in the belly of the fish. He was a Prophet sent to a place called Neiniwai, which is a territory of Mosul.
131. Becoming displeased with the people of Neiniwai, because these people did not act on his advice i.e. did not bring faith in him.

132. This means I will not censure you. This was an error of interpretation on his behalf by not waiting for Divine command before leaving this territory. When he had reached the middle of the Mediterranean Sea, his ship came to a halt at which the sailors began to say that it seems as if there is a person in our midst who has run away from his Master. Lots were drawn in which was revealed the name of Hazrat Yunoos (On whom be peace). At this he admitted that it is him, and then dived into the sea where he was swallowed by the fish.

88. Then We responded to his call and delivered [135]. him from the grief and We shall likewise deliver the Muslims [136].

135. After forty days, the fish threw him out on the shores. The belly of this fish is more sacred than the Arsh (Throne) of Allah Almighty because it had been the abode of a Prophet. Due to the blessings of this prayer, he had obtained light and air in the belly of the fish.

136. In this there is a hint that whoever recites this prayer as a Wazeefa at the time of difficulty, he would obtain salvation.

89. And to Zakariyah when he called his Lord, O my Lord! Leave me not alone and you are the best inheritor[137].

137. From this emerge two issues:

1. To pray and desire for a son for the purpose of serving the Religion is the way of the Prophets.
2. Use names of Allah Almighty inaccordance with the Dua you are offering. Because his son was destined to become the heir of his virtues, hence he remembered Allah Almighty with the attribute of the Inheritor.

90. Then We responded to his call and We bestowed him Yahya and cured his wife [138]. for him. Undoubtedly, they used to hurry in good deeds and use to call us with hope and fear. And they humble themselves before Us [139].

138. Allah Almighty accepted his prayer for a son, although his wife was barren, and made her capable of bearing children, and not transforming her old age to youth, because Allah Almighty had already sent revelation: "And He said be, so it is". (S19:V9) i.e. you would beget a son in a state of old age.

139. From this we learn that he who wishes

133. Darkness of the night, of the sea and of the belly of the fish.

134. If another person uses this word for a Prophet, he would come out of the fold of Islam. By using this on themselves shows their greatness. Here the word tyranny denotes an improper act, a deed against expectation, because Hazrat Yunoos (On whom be peace) had not infringed any Divine command. In this verse, there is such an effect that its continuous recitation relieves all those difficulties which are tricky and obstinate, because words uttered by a Prophet are full of effect.

فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهٗ ۙ وَنَجَّيْنٰهُ مِنَ الْغَمِّ ؕ وَكَذٰلِكَ نُـْۨجِى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۸۸﴾

وَزَكَرِيَّآ اِذْ نَادٰى رَبَّهٗ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْنِىْ فَرْدًا وَّ اَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْوٰرِثِيْنَ ﴿۸۹﴾

فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهٗ ۙ وَ وَهَبْنَا لَهٗ يَحْيٰى وَاَصْلَحْنَا لَهٗ زَوْجَهٗ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا يُسٰرِعُوْنَ فِى الْخَيْرٰتِ وَيَدْعُوْنَنَا رَغَبًا وَّ رَهَبًا ؕ وَ كَانُوْا لَنَا خٰشِعِيْنَ ﴿۹۰﴾

to become a person whose Dua would be acceptable in the court of Allah Almighty, he should do these three deeds: not delay in doing good deeds; pray (make dua) to Allah Almighty at all times, and make himself humble in the presence of Allah Almighty.

91. And as to she who guarded her chastity [140], then breathed into her of Our spirit [141], and made her and her son a sign for the world [142].

وَالَّتِیْۤ اَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا فَنَفَخْنَا فِیْهَا مِنْ رُّوْحِنَا وَجَعَلْنٰهَا وَ ابْنَهَاۤ اٰیَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِیْنَ ﴿۹۱﴾

140. This means Sayyeda Mariam who is eternally a virgin, and absolutely pure and chaste. This tells us that chastity is the greatest virtue of a woman.

141. From this emerge two issues:

1. To blow on a person for the purpose of blessing is the way of the angels.
2. The deeds of pious people can be linked with Allah Almighty. Although Allah Almighty is free and pure of blowing and breathing, when Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) had blown, Allah almighty says "We had blown." Likewise a person who has gained total nearness with Allah Almighty, too, can link Divine deeds to him. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) said: "That I may give you a pure son" (S19:V19).

142. The birth of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) without the father, and Bibi Mariam giving birth as a virgin are both signs of Allah Almighty.

92. Undoubtedly, this religion of yours is a single religion [143], and I am your Lord, so worship Me [144].

اِنَّ هٰذِهٖۤ اُمَّتُكُمْ اُمَّةً وَّاحِدَةً ۖ وَّ اَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوْنِ ﴿۹۲﴾

143. This means the Religion of every Prophet was Islam. All are unanimous in their beliefs.

144. This means the religion that was sent through the Prophets is pure and worthy of acceptance, and therefore you should first accept it. Thereafter, worship Me, because beliefs have priority over deeds. It should be remembered that the word Ummah is used to denote a group, an organization, a society as well, as well as for the leader of the group i.e. the Imaam, and the beliefs of the group i.e. their religion. Here the third meaning is applicable. Says Allah Almighty: "No doubt, Hazrat Ebrahim was a leader, obedient to Allah" (S16:V120). Hence the meaning of the verse is clear.

93. And others split up their affairs among themselves. All are to return to Us [145].

وَتَقَطَّعُوْۤا اَمْرَهُمْ بَیْنَهُمْ ؕ كُلٌّ اِلَیْنَا رٰجِعُوْنَ ﴿۹۳﴾ ع ۶ ۱۸ ۲

145. This means people had forsaken the Divine religion and fabricated different religions according to their own thinking. As a result, they also became divided and their deeds became different. All of them are entitled for punishment. It should be remembered that the religious deeds of the Prophets have been different but this was due to the command of Allah Almighty. In this there were thousands of practical philosophies and wisdoms. Those differences were not liable for punishment. But their self-invented differences are a cause of Divine punishment. Hence, the verse is very clear.

SECTION: 7

94. Then whosoever does righteous

فَمَنْ یَّعْمَلْ مِنَ الصّٰلِحٰتِ وَ هُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ deeds and becomes a believer, then his efforts [146]. are not disregarded and We are recording it [147].

فَلَا كُفْرَانَ لِسَعْيِهٖ ۚ وَاِنَّا لَهٗ كٰتِبُوْنَ ﴿۹۴﴾

146. Those who do good deeds after accepting faith would be rewarded. This tells us that no deed would be accepted without faith, and if Allah Almighty wills, no good deeds of a believer will be in vain, instead their efforts will obtain their goal.

147. From this we learn that the deeds of the beloved of Allah Almighty are indeed deeds of Allah, because recording of the deeds is the work of the angels, yet Allah Almighty says: "I am writing them".

95. And it is forbidden to town, which We have destroyed, that they returned [148].

وَ حَرٰمٌ عَلٰى قَرْيَةٍ اَهْلَكْنٰهَاۤ اَنَّهُمْ لَا يَرْجِعُوْنَ ﴿۹۵﴾

148. Here the word unlawful denotes something impossible while "that they shall not return" is the explanation of it. What it means is that the infidels shall not be allowed to return in the world after their demise, to do good deeds. Whatever good they can do should be done in their worldly lives i.e. accept Faith become believers. Thus, there is nothing objectionable about the verse. Or, it could mean that those who are destined to be wretched will be debarred from returning to the path of Truth.

96. Until [149], when Ya`jooj and Ma`jooj [150]. would be let loose and they would be coming down from every height.

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا فُتِحَتْ يَاْجُوْجُ وَ مَاْجُوْجُ وَهُمْ مِّنْ كُلِّ حَدَبٍ يَّنْسِلُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

149. This means the continuous destruction of the infidels will be until the time of Gog and Magog's (Yajooj, Majooj) release from captivity. This is the furthest point of their destruction. Several other meanings of this have been listed by others.

150. Gog and Magog are two tribes. Numerically, they constitute ninety % and the rest of the humans form only ten %. When they will be released, they would drink the water of all the oceans.

97. And the true promise drew near, then the eyes of the infidels [151]. will remain staring and woe to us. Undoubtedly, we were headless of this and rather we were unjust [152].

وَ اقْتَرَبَ الْوَعْدُ الْحَقُّ فَاِذَا هِيَ شَاخِصَةٌ اَبْصَارُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ؕ يٰوَيْلَنَا قَدْ كُنَّا فِيْ غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هٰذَا بَلْ كُنَّا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۹۷﴾

151. Due to severe terror and fear. From this we learn that if Allah Almighty wills, believers would be saved from this terror. Says Allah Almighty: "And they are secure on that Day from bewilderment" (S27:V89).

152. At first these people would call themselves as negligent, then they would say no, we had become polytheists knowingly. But at that time the admission of their sin would not help them.

Marfat.com

98. Undoubtedly, you and whatever you worship besides Allah, all are the fuel [153], of the Hell, and you have to enter therein.

إِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ حَصَبُ جَهَنَّمَ ۖ أَنْتُمْ لَهَا وَارِدُونَ ﴿٩٨﴾

153. It means those lifeless things which are the deities of the polytheists, would be sent into Hell e.g. the moon, the sun, the stars, some trees and stones which are being worshipped. But these objects would not be sent there for the sake of punishment, but to give punishment to the polytheists because the fault was of these people and not of these lifeless objects. Thus,those Prophets who had been made the object of worship e.g. Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace) are not connected to this verse because the word whatever, that which, etc. are used with inanimate objects. Also, these Prophets had not been worshipped, but their false photos, the Cross, etc had been worshipped which would also be sent into Hell.

99. If these had been gods, they would not have gone to Hell [154], and all shall abide therein [155].

لَوْ كَانَ هَٰؤُلَاءِ آلِهَةً مَا وَرَدُوهَا ۖ وَكُلٌّ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾

154. There are two reasons for sending these worshipped objects into Hell. One is to increase the punishment of the infidels i.e. the heat of the sun will increase the heat of the fire of Hell. The second reason is to let the infidels see the helplessness of the things they had accepted as deities. In this verse, the second purpose is mentioned, i.e. if these objects were gods why did they come into Hell?

155. This means the deities as well as their worshippers. The worshippers to receive punishment and the false gods like the sun, etc to administer the punishment.

100. They will groan therein and they will hear nothing in it [156].

لَهُمْ فِيهَا زَفِيرٌ وَهُمْ فِيهَا لَا يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾

156. This means that they will not be able to hear the screams of one another due to either the noise of Hell or their own frightening voices. Or that every infidel would be locked in a box of fire, as a result of which he will not be able to hear the voice of another.

101. Undoubtedly, those for whom Our promise of good has already gone forth, they have been kept away [157] from the Hell.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ سَبَقَتْ لَهُمْ مِنَّا الْحُسْنَىٰ ۙ أُولَٰئِكَ عَنْهَا مُبْعَدُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ ۙ

157. This means even if the pious persons are made an object of worship, they will have nothing to do with Hell. Only those deities would be sent into Hell who are either lifeless or they themselves are infidels i.e. the leaders of infidelity. Thus, no objection can be raised against the verse.

102. They will not hear the faintest sound of it and they will abide [158] in that which their souls desire.

لَا يَسْمَعُونَ حَسِيسَهَا ۚ وَهُمْ فِي مَا اشْتَهَتْ أَنْفُسُهُمْ خَالِدُونَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ ۚ

158. This means that let alone these pious people going to Hell, they will not even hear its voices and sounds. It should be remembered that loud screams and boiling sound of Hell is heard from a distance of forty years. But these pious people will not be able to hear this.

لَا يَحْزُنُهُمُ الْفَزَعُ الْاَكْبَرُ وَ تَتَلَقّٰىهُمُ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ ؕ هٰذَا يَوْمُكُمُ الَّذِیْ كُنْتُمْ تُوْعَدُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۳﴾

103. The Great terror [159], shall not grieve them and the angels will come to greet them saying, 'This is your day which you were promised' [160].

159. This tells us that everybody will be experiencing the fears and anxieties of the Day of Judgement, except those who are pious, because they have already experienced these in the world out of the fear of Allah Almighty.

160. Reason for its revelation:
When the verse "Undoubtedly you and whatever you worship besides Allah Almighty, all are the fuel of Hell" (S21:V98) Ibn Zohri said then Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace), Hazrat Uzair (On whom be peace), all the angels are inmates of Hell because they were also being worshipped. On that occasion this verse was revealed.

يَوْمَ نَطْوِی السَّمَآءَ كَطَیِّ السِّجِلِّ لِلْكُتُبِ ؕ كَمَا بَدَاْنَاۤ اَوَّلَ خَلْقٍ نُّعِیْدُهٗ ؕ وَعْدًا عَلَیْنَا ؕ اِنَّا كُنَّا فٰعِلِیْنَ ﴿۱۰۴﴾

104. The Day when We shall roll up the heavens as the angel Sajil rolls up[161]. the record of deeds. As We made it first, We shall restore [162]. it. This is a promise on Us; We shall definitely do it.

161. The angel recording the deeds folds the record when that person dies.

162. Naked and without circumcision. On the Day of Judgement everyone will be raised naked and without circumcision. It should be remembered that our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is excluded from this as is recorded in books of commentaries. But due to total fear and anxiety, no one will be looking at another person.

وَ لَقَدْ كَتَبْنَا فِی الزَّبُوْرِ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ الذِّكْرِ اَنَّ الْاَرْضَ یَرِثُهَا عِبَادِیَ الصّٰلِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾

105. And undoubtedly, We wrote [163]. in the Zaboor after the admonition that My righteous bondman will inherit this land [164].

163. This means in the Psalms of Dawood i.e. Zaboor, first their people were counselled, thereafter this prophecy was recorded. Or by Admonition is meant Taurat i.e. Zaboor was revealed after Taurat in which this was written.

164.This means the ground of Paradise. Says Allah Almighty: "And they will say, all praise to Allah Who has made good His promise to us, and made us inherit this land" (S39:V74). This is the earth of Syria which the Ummah of the Final Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم would be conquering. This prophecy was fulfilled. This does not mean that the one who becomes the owner of the land should be pious. This temporary ownership was even given to Namrood and Pharoah. It should be remembered all those believers who would be receiving their share in Paradise would, in addition be taking the share of the infidels as well, because Allah Almighty has created a place for every human being in Paradise, as well as in hell.

إِنَّ فِي هَٰذَا لَبَلَاغًا لِّقَوْمٍ عَابِدِينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾

106. Undoubtedly, this Qur`aan is sufficient for the worshippers [165].

165. This means the Holy QUR'AAN is sufficient for the guidance and leadership of believers and worshippers on condition that these persons are taught and instructed in accordance with the teachings of the Possessor of the book, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Mere intellectual explanation is not enough.

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٧﴾

107. And We did not send you but as a Mercy for all worlds [166].

166. It should be remembered that Allah Almighty has called Himself 'Lord of the worlds', while for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم He has used 'Mercy unto the worlds.' This tells us that he whose Lord is Allah Almighty, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a mercy unto him. Thus, his mercy is absolute, complete and in its entirety. It includes everything and it is for everything. It is within the surrounds of Allah Almighty, the Knower of everything, hidden and open and Omnipresent eternally in both the worlds (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). In addition, the general mercy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم his sustenance, etc. is received by the believers and the infidels, but his specific mercy i.e. faith and mystical knowledge, etc is received by the believers only. Says Allah Almighty "is the most kind and merciful to the believers" (S9:V128). If any person makes this mercy a punishment for himself, it is his own doing. Some of the plants are destroyed by the rain, but most of them flourish. The bat is blinded by the brightness of the sun. But, this is not due to the fault of the sun or the rain.

قُلْ إِنَّمَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ أَنَّمَا إِلَٰهُكُمْ إِلَٰهٌ وَاحِدٌ ۖ فَهَلْ أَنتُم مُّسْلِمُونَ ﴿١٠٨﴾

108. Say you, 'I am revealed only so for this that you have no god but One[167] Allah; do you then become Muslims?

167. In this word the accountability is relative or supplementary i.e. I am given revelation about Tauheed and not about Shirk or polytheism. It does not mean that besides Tauheed (Oneness of Allah) I have not received revelation about any other commandments.

فَإِن تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ آذَنتُكُمْ عَلَىٰ سَوَاءٍ ۖ وَإِنْ أَدْرِي أَقَرِيبٌ أَم بَعِيدٌ مَّا تُوعَدُونَ ﴿١٠٩﴾

109. But if they turn away their faces, they say, 'I have proclaimed war against you on equal basis [168] and I do not know whether that which you are promised [169] is near or far.

168. This means I have given you information about the battle long before it and did not attack you all of a sudden so that like us, you too can prepare for it. Or I preached to all of you in the same manner. Thus in this verse there is a refutation of the false sects.

169. This means without Divine revelation I do not, just, understand whether the punishment of Allah Almighty is far or near from mere conjecture and analogy. Thus these verses "And the true promise drew near" (S21:V97) and "The accountability of the people is near" (S21:V1), are not contrary to the above verse. The Holy Prophet knew that the Day of Judgement is near. He himself had said "Qiyamat and I are joined like the first and second fingers" (after the thumb).

110. Undoubtedly, Allah knows concerning loud talk and whatever you conceal [170].

conspiracies against the believers and He will punish you for all of these evils.

170. This means that Allah Almighty is fully aware about your open infidelity, inner jealousy and hatred as well as your secret

111. And I know not, haply it may be a trial [171] for you and the provision for a fixed time.

infidels, they were defeated. These victories of the few and ill-equipped Muslims were indeed the decisive judgement of Allah Almighty in favour of Truth.

172. Allah Almighty has mentioned the effect of a special Dua of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which was truly perceived in the Battle of Badr and Hunain, that despite the numerical and material superiority of the اپنے کرم فرماؤں کی خدمت میں ایک اہم گزارش

السلام علیکم ورحمۃ اللہ!

اللہ رب العزت کا خاص فضل وکرم ہے کہ جس نے آپ کو اپنے پاکیزہ اور نجات آفریں کلام کی تلاوت کا شرف عطا فرمایا اور ہمیں اپنی مقدس کتاب کی خدمت کی سعادت سے بہرہ اندوز کیا۔

ایک مسلمان کے لئے اس سے بڑھ کر خوش نصیبی کا اور کون سا مقام ہوسکتا ہے کہ وہ اللہ تعالیٰ کی بابرکت کتاب کی طباعت واشاعت کے ذریعے سے اس کے دینِ مبین کے پیغام کو عام کرنے میں حصہ لے۔ اس نعمت عظمیٰ پر اس بندہ ناچیز کا سر اپنے رحیم اور کریم پروردگار کے حضور میں اظہار تشکر کے لئے خم ہے۔

ادارہ کے کارکنان کی ہر ممکن کوشش ہوتی ہے کہ قرآن پاک کے صوری حسن میں کسی بھی قسم کی خامی نہ رہ جائے۔ اس وقت جو مبارک نسخہ آپ کے ہاتھوں میں ہے، میں اس کے بارے میں آپ کو یقین دلاتا ہوں کہ اس کی صحت کتابت کے لئے ہر ممکن کوشش کی گئی ہے اور بفضلہٖ تعالیٰ یہ نسخہ ہر قسم کی غلطی سے پاک ہے۔ طباعت اور بائنڈنگ کے معیار کو مکمل طور پر درست رکھنے پر بھرپور توجہ دی گئی ہے۔ لیکن بایں ہمہ کوشش وکاوش کسی بھی قسم کی بشری فروگزاشت کا امکان ہوسکتا ہے۔ اگر خدانخواستہ آپ کی نظر میں ایسی کوئی غلطی گزرے تو براہ کرم آپ ہمیں فوراً مطلع فرمائیں۔ ادارہ اس امر کا پابند ہے کہ بلا تاخیر آپ کی شکایت کا ازالہ کرے اور آپ کو متبادل نسخہ فراہم کرے۔

یہ ضروری نہیں کہ کسی غلطی کی صورت میں ہی آپ ادارہ سے رابطہ کریں آپ اپنی تلاوت میں رہنے والے نسخہ کو امعان نظر سے ملاحظہ فرمائیں۔ اس کی کتابت، حسن ترتیب، کاغذ، جلد بندی، سرورق کی ڈیزائننگ کے بارے میں کسی بھی قسم کا مشورہ خاکسار کے لئے انتہائی فرحت ومسرت کا باعث ہوگا۔ آپ کی جانب سے یہ شراکت میرے اور میرے جملہ رفقاء کے لئے انتہائی فخر کا موجب ہوگی۔

امید ہے کہ آپ اپنی توجہ سے بھی نوازیں گے اور دعاؤں سے بھی مستفید فرماتے رہیں گے۔

FOREWORD

All praise and glory is due to Allah Almighty, our Creator and Master, Revealer of the Holy Qur'aan for our guidance, and choicest Darood and Salaams on Hazrat Muhammadur Rasulallah Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, the noblest creation of Allah Almighty, the Holy Qur'aan personified, the absolute guide for our success in this world and the Hereafter.

The Holy Qur'aan is Allah Almighty's final message for the guidance of mankind. Before one can put its message into practice, one has to understand it. Thus, it is an incumbent duty of every Muslim to read this message, understand it and then act upon it. This task is proving very difficult for us because there is no translation or commentary in English, which is Sunni orientated, other than a translation of Ala Hazrat's translation — Kanzul Imaan. This, too, is just a translation without commentary. All the other translations and commentaries that we have in English are not only scanty, but they are full of inconsistencies. In short, they do not cater for our needs. Many renowned commentators of the Holy Qur'aan like Imam Baidawi, Imam Jalaluddeen Suyuti, Maulana Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dehlvi (May Allah be pleased with them) and the like, are of the opinion that the Holy Qur' aan can only be understood if the commentator of it has a deep love for Allah Almighty - its Revealer, the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam —its teacher, his illustrious Companions — the direct recipients of its message and the pious saints who are an embodiment of the Holy Qur' aan.

With this in mind, Hazrat Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi Saheb, the religious and educational head of the Darul Uloom Pretoria, in consultation with renowned international Sunni scholars like Hazrat Allama Shaikli ul Qur' aan and Hadith Maulana Sayed Haseenuddeen Shah Saheb, the Chancellor of Islamic University Jamia Razvia Rawalpindi (Pakistan) and Hazrat Ustadhul Ulama Mufti Gui Rahman Saheb of Birmingham (UK) showed a keen desire to have TAFSEER NOORUL IRFAAN of Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan Badayuni translated into English, as it is a brief, but comprehensive, commentary based on the Sunni way of life. After much effort, trying to convince the officials of the Darul Uloom and the Pretoria Sunni Institute, it was finally decided to undertake this monumental task. Mufti Saheb then approached me for this important work. A meeting was then arranged between the officials, Hazrat Mufti Saheb and my self, in which this onerous and highly responsible task was placed on my shoulders.

It is purely through the Grace of Allah Almighty and the Bounties of the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam that I have embarked on this huge task. How it came to my lot to be chosen for this blessed work, is beyond my imagination.

This translation is thus a humble effort made possible through the infinite Mercy and Grace of Allah Almighty, as well as through the constant assistance and guidance of Hazrat Mufti Akbar Hazarvi Saheb. May Allah Almighty and His Beloved Nabi Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam shine the torch of guidance upon me to complete the task that I have undertaken. Aameen!

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

In the Name of Allah, the Most Compassionate the Most Merciful

All Praise be to Allah Almighty and choicest blessings and salutations on the Final Prophet and Messenger, Hazrat Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam and upon his Family and Companions (May Aiiah be pleased with them).

The Holy Qur'aan is undoubtedly the Word of Allah Almighty, communicated to humanity through the Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam and is from the Heavenly Books. It is still in its original form and is protected, and will always be protected against any change, to this effect, that not even a single dot has or will be removed form it, because Allah Almighty has taken it upon Himself to protect the Holy Qur'aan. Since Hazrat Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam is the Final Messenger of Allah Almighty, the Holy Qur'aan is the closing episode of Divine revelation. It is a proclamation that, now humanity has no other choice but to receive guidance from the Holy Qur'aan. The beautiful style of language and order of the Holy Qur'aan is unique and there is none second to it.

The Holy Qur'aan challenged all its opponents, Arab and non-Arab alike, to produce a single verse like that of the Holy Qur'aan, but they had to decline. It is a glittering miracle, which removes the darkness of evil and sin.

The Holy Qur'aan is certainly the most read book in the world and its many translations and exegesis have been written hitherto. Imam Ahie Sunnah Maulana Ahmad Raza Khan's (May Allah be pleased with him) translation Kanzul Imaan is considered to be the best in Urdu translations. It deserves to be translated into other languages, particularly into English. This was accordingly carried out by Professor Shah Faridul Haq of Pakistan. Maulana Naeemuddeen Muradabadi wrote brief, but valuable notes on this rendering, which were later developed by Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan (Rahmatullah Alaihe) under the title "Noorul Irfaan". The credit for presenting this worthwhile work goes to Maulana Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi and his colleagues, especially Br. Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam, who is the translator of this work.

Maulana Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi's origination is from Ghazi Khot in Mansehra, Pakistan. He completed his Dars-e-Nizami course at Jamia Razvia Zia-ul-Uloom (Rawalpindi) and obtained his M.A. degree in Arabic from the International Islamic University in Islamabad (Pakistan). On the invitation of the late Abdul Haq Saleh Muhammad of Lenasia (Johannesburg), he travelled with me to South Africa in 1988 and I was asked to allow him to stay on in Laudium (Pretoria) for the education of the Muslims there. This was done on condition that a Darul Uloom is established, and the Darul Uloom Pretoria, of which Mufti Hazarvi is Principal, is now doing remarkable Islamic work.

They have commenced with the publication of books and this translation is a masterpiece in this series. Congratulations must go to the translator Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam for the sterling work he has done, as well as to Mufti Muhammad Akbar Hazarvi and Hafez Muhammad Ismail Hazarvi and Maulana Abdul Wahhab Wookay.

I pray that Allah Almighty, through the intercession of His Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, accepts the efforts of Mufti Hazarvi, Mohamed Hoosain Mukaddam, their colleagues as well as the officials of Darul Uloom Pretoria in producing this work. May Allah Almighty always keep them safe and under His Protection. Furthermore, I advise the purchase and distribution of this Tafseer as a means of sending Esaale Sawaab on the souls of your kindred, who have departed from this world.

A Brief Profile on Maulana Shah Ahmad Raza Khan

Ala Hazrat, Imam Ahmad Raza Khan, a great jurist and a learned scholar of Islam, was born in 1858 at Bareilly (India) and died in 1921.

Imam Ahmad Raza Khan was a born genius. He read the Holy Qur'aan when he was oniy four years old. Later, he became astonishingly well-versed in more than fifty branches of learning pertaining to the Ancient and Modern Sciences, Hadith, Fiqh, Islamic Jurisprudence, Mathematics, Economics and many more. He left contributions in all these academic disciplines. He was a prolific writer and wrote about one thousand books relating to various aspects of Islam. He is considered to be the most learned and authentic authority on the Qur'aan, Sunnah and jurisprudence.

Although he was well versed in scores of branches of knowledge, yet in his later years, he restricted his interest to the following branches of religious learning:

1. To support and defend the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam.
2. To uproot and rectify the innovations prevalent in Muslim Society.
3. To issue religious decrees according to the Hanafi School of jurisprudence.

Ala Hazrat's religious works have no parallel in his time. His ability, farsightedness and depth of thought have been recognized by the Ulama of the four schools of jurisprudence. Although he has written a large number of books on numerous topics, his two most famous works are the translation of the Holy Qur'aan in Urdu and Fatawa Razvia in twelve volumes.

It is an accepted fact that the revealed Arabic words of the Holy Our'aan cannot be actually transformed in any other language. A literal translation of the Arabic Qur'aan conveying the same meaning is not only difficult, but also impossible. Therefore, the translation of the Holy Qur' aan in any other language is usually an explanatory translation.

Ala Hazrat's Urdu translation, known as KANZUL IMAAN is an explanatory translation. This explanatory translation of the Holy Qur'aan into Urdu was completed in 1910. It is the most famous and accepted Urdu translation in the world. In his translation, Ala Hazrat has tried to assign such meanings to the words of the Holy Qur' aan that there may not be any contradiction in the meaning of the words and verses of the Holy Qur'aan. The other thing which he has kept in mind while translating the Holy Qur'aan is that such a meaning should be selected that may not slight the status and dignity of Almighty Allah and His Prophets.

A Brief Profile on Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan

Tafseer Noorul Irfaan is the first complete and comprehensive exegesis written in Urdu. Its author, Hazrat Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan, the son of Maulana Muhammad Yaar Khan was born in 1906 and passed away on the 3rd of Ramadaan, 24 October 1971 in Gujarat (Pakistan). He received his primary education from his learned father and then studied at Madressa Shamsul Uloom in Badayun, India. Thereafter, he proceeded to Muradabad, also in India, to study under Sayed Muhammad Naeemuddeen at Jamia Naeemia

Besides this prominent work, he produced several other scholarly works mentioned hereunder:

1. Naeemul Ban Fi Inshirah-al-Bukhari
2. Mirat Sharah Mishkaat
3. Jaa Al-Haq
4. IlmulMiraas
5. Shaan-e-Habibur Rahman
6. Islami Zindagi
7. Ilmul Qur'aan
8. Risala-e-Noor

A true commentary of the Holy Qur'aan requires a thorough knowledge of Arabic grammar, semantics, lexicology, tradition, jurisprudence as well as various other branches of knowledge. Sheikhui Tafseer Hakeem ul Ummah, Mufti Ahmad Yaar Khan Naeemi was no doubt qualified in all the required branches of knowledge. The author studied all previously written exegesis and his work sums up concisely the major points discussed in these commentaries. Further, he has particularly summarized the contents of Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan of Maulana Sayed Muhammad Naeemuddeen Muradabadi. A great number of religious scholars have paid tribute and benefited from his immense knowledge.

APPEAL TO READERS

It is the Grace and Bounty of Allah Almighty that he chooses some of His servants for His work. This has nothing to do with that person's level of education, his expertise in the field or his experience. Allah Almighty chooses whom He wills.

The task of printing and publishing is not an easy one. It is accompanied by a huge responsibility of maintaining good standards in respect of quality of work, accuracy of the subject matter, cohesion in its presentation and appropriateness of its format.

Taking into account the above requirements, we have made every possible effort to present this volume to the best of our ability. Nevertheless, no one can claim perfection besides our Supreme Lord, Allah Almighty. Thus, there may be errors terms of expression and presentation If you detect any, we humbly appeal to you to bring them to our notice.

The purpose of this effort is to make the Message of the Holy Qur'aan in accordance with the Sunni Aqaaid accessible to the Muslims globally. We therefore make a request to all our readers to make Dua that Allah Almighty, through the Waseela of His Beloved Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam, accepts this humble effort of ours in His Supreme Court so that it becomes a source of salvation for our Hereafter Aameen.

May Allah Almighty grant all of us the guidance to become active Muslims for promoting and glorifiing of Allah's Deen! Aameen

Gratitude

The Darul Uloom Pretoria wishes to place on record its sincerest Thanks and Gratitude to the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family UK, for having acknowledged this tremendous work and effort of the Darul Uloom Pretoria. An effort of 14 years could only be made possible to reach the greater masses is through publication df this masterpiece of work. Having recognized this effort and to ensure that this is shared with the English speaking Muslim communities, the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family accepted responsibility to bear the cost of the printing of these two volumes,

Says Allah Almighty in the Holy Qur'aan:

> "The parable of those who spend their wealth in the way of Allah, is likened to a grain of corn which grows seven ears, and each ear bears a hundred grains. Allah gives manifold increase to whomsoever he pleases. And Allah cares for all and He is knower of all things."

This is certainly a means of obtaining continuous rewards (Sadaq-e-Jariah). Whosoever would be reading this valuable translation and the commentary would be a recipient of rewards as well as those who made it possible for them to read. For as long as this is existent, members of the Zeeshan Siddiq & Family will be the recipients of equal rewards.

May Allahu Ta'ala aceept this efforts of the and we request you, the reader to remember them in your kind duas.

SECTION 1

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

Allah in the name of the most affectionate. the merciful.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوْا رَبَّكُمْ ۚ اِنَّ زَلْزَلَةَ السَّاعَةِ شَيْءٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۝١

1. O people! Fear [2] your Lord undoubtedly, the tremor of the Hour is a thing very hard [3] tremor which would be taking place near the time of Qiyamah, prior to the rising of the sun from the west. It would be severer than all the tremors. Or it could denote the very tremor of the Day of Judgement.

يَوْمَ تَرَوْنَهَا تَذْهَلُ كُلُّ مُرْضِعَةٍ عَمَّآ اَرْضَعَتْ وَ تَضَعُ كُلُّ ذَاتِ حَمْلٍ حَمْلَهَا وَ تَرَى النَّاسَ سُكٰرٰى وَ مَا هُمْ بِسُكٰرٰى وَ لٰكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللّٰهِ شَدِيْدٌ ۝٢

2. Fear should be inculcated by becoming believers and giving up infidelity, the sinners should become pious and the pious should remain steadfast on their piety. Every person should fear Allah Almighty.

3. By this tremor is meant a specific

2. The day when you would see it. Every suckling woman shall forget [4] her infant whom she suckled, and every pregnant shall cast away her burden and you will see men as they are drunk [5] and they will not be drunk, but the torment of Allah is severe.

4. This means the condition of the fear of Qiyamah would be such that if there were any pregnant or foster mothers at that point in time they would have lost their babies and would have forgotten about them. Otherwise, on that day there will neither be anyone pregnant nor any suckling baby, because forty years before the Day of Judgement child birth would have come to an end. If by this tremor is meant the tremor at the time of the rising of the sun from the west prior to the Day of Judgement, then there is no need for any explanation because at that point in time there will be taking place to pregnancies, etc.

5.Rather it is due to the Fear of Allah Almighty that people would have lost their senses. Even from this, too, the special devotees of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are excluded.

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يُّجَادِلُ فِى اللّٰهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَّ يَتَّبِعُ كُلَّ شَيْطٰنٍ مَّرِيْدٍ ۙ۝٣

3. And there are some who dispute [6] about Allah without knowledge[7], and follow every rebellious devil.

6. Like Nadar ibn Harith who had accepted the angels as the daughters of Allah

Marfat.com

Almighty and was always having an argument with the believers over this issue. From this we learn that in a debate, the one who is false will always be arguing to prove his point, while the one who is on the path of truth will not waver from the Truth. Both cannot be called quarrelsome persons. This verse was revealed concerning Nadar bin Harith.

7. From this we learn that to debate about the Personality and Attributes of Allah Almighty is not proper. Believe in Him without any arguments. Have full trust in the words of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. However, the religious scholars discuss about the Personality and Attributes of Allah Almighty for the sake of verification on condition that its purpose is not to go into any argument, and that the aim of such a discussion is to remove any objections and establish affirmation about these matters. Thus, science of oratory is not bad but good.

4. For whom it has been written that who will befriend [8] him, then he will necessarily misguide him and will guide him towards the torment of Hell.

كُتِبَ عَلَيْهِ اَنَّهٗ مَنْ تَوَلَّاهُ فَاَنَّهٗ يُضِلُّهٗ وَ يَهْدِيْهِ اِلٰى عَذَابِ السَّعِيْرِ ۝٤

8. By keeping evil beliefs, or doing evil deeds, or keeping friendship with evil people. In short, having a liking for evil things, and keeping friendship with evil people is equal to loving the devil, just like having love for the friends of Allah Almighty is equal to loving Allah Almighty.

5. O people! [9] if you have any doubt the Resurrection, then consider that We created you from dust [10], We from a drop of water (sperm). Then from the clot of blood, [11] then from a piece of flesh fashioned and unfashioned [12], so that We may manifest [13] to you Our signs. And We cause whom We will to remain in the womb of mothers till an appointed time [14], then we bring you out as infant [15], then in order that you may reach [16] your maturity, and of you is one who dies [17] early and is one who is put to a worthless age [18] so that after knowing knows nothing [19] And you see the earth withered up then when We sent down water upon it, it was freshened and swelled up and grew every beauteous pair [20].

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِيْ رَيْبٍ مِّنَ الْبَعْثِ فَاِنَّا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ مِّنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ وَّ غَيْرِ مُخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ ؕ وَنُقِرُّ فِي الْاَرْحَامِ مَا نَشَآءُ اِلٰٓى اَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوْٓا اَشُدَّكُمْ ۚ وَ مِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُّتَوَفّٰى وَ مِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُّرَدُّ اِلٰٓى اَرْذَلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْلَا يَعْلَمَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ عِلْمٍ شَيْـًٔا ؕ وَ تَرَى الْاَرْضَ هَامِدَةً فَاِذَآ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَآءَ اهْتَزَّتْ وَ رَبَتْ وَ اَنْۢبَتَتْ مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍۭ بَهِيْجٍ ۝٥

9. This means Oh infidels! and rejectors of the Day of Judgement! because the topics which follow are in accordance with these.

10. This means Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace), because creation of the father is indirectly the creation of the children. Or it means a person's creation is from a sperm, the sperm is from blood, the blood is from nourishment, the nourishment is from the sand.
11. In this verse the procedure of the creation of man is described, while in the creation of Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) is done by the Hand of Providence. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verses. This verse cannot be used to prove that Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) was created from a father, as is understood by the Qadiyanis.
12. By this is meant that at first the clot of blood does not have any form, then it assumes form. By this is not meant any miscarried pregnancy, fashioned or unfashioned because through this, no birth takes place. Hence, the verse is crystal clear.
13. These are things for you to ponder over, that what you were at conception and what you have become now. How did these changes take place?
14. From this we learn that during pregnancy, the period of keeping the foetus is not restricted to any given length of time. This is left entirely to the wishes of the Almighty. Some children remain in the wombs for six months and some as long as two years. In it there is a hint that the mother's womb was not a permanent place of rest for you but a temporary one. Likewise, this world, too, is not a permanent place of abode, but it is just a transitory place which you have to leave. You were placed in the mother's womb so that your physical structure could be fully formed, while in the world for your spiritual development.
15. Upto the first six years the child is called an infant, thereafter he is called SABEE - infant boy (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).
16. The prime of life is from the time of puberty until the age of thirty, during which one obtains full maturity.
17. Prior to the prime age or after this age comes to an end i.e. some die in their infancy and others in the prime of their age.
18. This means until old age. It should be remembered that the true meaning of age is the habitation of the body.
19. Hazrat Ikramah (May Allah be pleased with him) says any believer who is a habitual reciter of the Holy Qur'aan, will not experience this i.e. worthless age. Hence, the august Prophets and the chosen friends of Allah Almighty are not included in this law. If the blessed Prophets of Allah Almighty in their old age had experienced this condition, then propagation would not have remained obligatory on them and Prophethood would have been taken away from them. Otherwise, there would have been a possibility of an error in propagation. But these great personalities remain Prophet's by receiving revelation till their very end. Thus these great Prophets are protected from this.
20. This means even if all types of seeds are sown in the ground, but if the ground is not watered, it will remain dry. Likewise, even if a person may perform many deeds, without the blessings, of Prophethood, it would be useless. The earth remains lush green with water and the heart with the blessings of the pious. After Hijrah and prior to the conquest of Makkah, Muslims were deprived from living in this holy city. Migration was obligatory, because although the Ka'ba is the house of Allah Almighty, at that point in time it had not been brightened by the light of Prophethood.

6. This is so because Allah is the Truth and that it is He who Will give life to the dead and that He can do all things 21.

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَ اَنَّهٗ يُحْيِ الْمَوْتٰى وَ اَنَّهٗ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ۙ﴿٦﴾

21. The essence of this comparison is to show that just as the parched earth becomes lush green through rain water, in the same manner, the sound of the trumpet will bequeath life into the lifeless bodies.

وَّ اَنَّ السَّاعَةَ اٰتِيَةٌ لَّا رَيْبَ فِيْهَا ۙ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَبْعَثُ مَنْ فِي الْقُبُوْرِ ۝٧

7. And because the Hour is to come, there is no doubt in it and because Allah will raise those who are in the graves. [22]

22. By grave is meant the world of Barzakh which is between death and the Day of Judgement and not just a hollow or a cave which is the burial place of the corpses. Thus, all these bodies which had been burned or drowned, etc. will all be resurrected. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

وَ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يُّجَادِلُ فِي اللّٰهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَّ لَا هُدًى وَّ لَا كِتٰبٍ مُّنِيْرٍ ۙ ۝٨

8. And from mankind there are those who disputes about Allah with out having any knowledge and without any guidance [23] and with out any enlightening Book. [24]

23. From this we learn that to enter into battle with the infidels in support of the Religion for the sake of Allah Almighty is better by having full knowledge. The teaching and learning of knowledge in a systematic way is beneficial, it equips you to debate with the infidels for the sake of Allah Almighty. We further learn that the real disputers are those who are on the path of falsehood and not the one who is on the path of Truth, as such a person is the supporter of Truth. If there is a battle between the police and the robbers, the police would be the upholders of the law, while the robbers are the breakers of the law.

24.This verse was revealed concerning Abu Jahl and the infidels, like him, who would argue with the believers about Tauheed. Here, knowledge denotes natural sciences while guidance indicates knowledge of reason and argumentation. By book is meant knowledge of revelation. All this shows that their nature and vision is evil, and away from revelation. If this is the case then, from where will they obtain intelligence and understanding.

ثَانِيَ عِطْفِهٖ لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ؕ لَهٗ فِي الدُّنْيَا خِزْيٌ وَّ نُذِيْقُهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ عَذَابَ الْحَرِيْقِ ۝٩

9. Turning his neck [25] from truth o that he may mislead others from the path of Allah For him there is humiliation. [26] in the world and on the Day of Judgement. We shall make him taste the torment of burning.

25. This means such a person proudly leaves the august gathering tries his best to mislead the believers, and prevent the infidels from accepting faith. From this we learn that those who run away from the gatherings of the pious will not come on the path of guidance.

26. Death in the Battle of Badr and curse of the believers until the Day of Judgement.

ذٰلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدٰكَ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ لَيْسَ بِظَلَّامٍ لِّلْعَبِيْدِ ۝١٠ ع ١٠ ٨

10. This is because of what your Hands [27] sent forth and Allah oppresses not His bondmen.

27. From this we learn that the minor children of the infidels who die in this condition, will not go into Hell, because this is set aside for those who die in infidelity and doing evil deeds. These children are not guilty of either thing. Also, sending those into Hell without being guilty of sin is declared here by Allah Almighty as an act of injustice, and that Allah Almighty is indeed pure of any form of injustice.

SECTION 2

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يَّعْبُدُ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى حَرْفٍ ۚ فَاِنْ اَصَابَهٗ خَيْرُ ِۨاطْمَاَنَّ بِهٖ ۚ وَاِنْ اَصَابَتْهُ فِتْنَةُ ِۨانْقَلَبَ عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ ۚ خَسِرَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةَ ۭ ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِيْنُ ⑪

11. And some men worship Allah on an edge, [28] then if any good reaches him, then he is content [29] their with and if trial befalls, turn round on his face; there is loss of the world and hereafter both. This as I manifest loss [30].

28. This verse was revealed regarding those Bedouin converts who would accept faith. If after accepting Islam, they would obtain children, wealth and health, they would say Islam is a true religion. If things were contrary to this, then they would say Islam is a bad religion (May Allah forbid) i.e. ever since we have accepted Islam we found ourselves in difficulties.

29. Here the word 'good' denotes all worldly bounties, and contentment denotes contentment of the heart i.e. these people have understood the comforts of the world as the proof of Truth and slightest hardship makes them disgusted with Islam.

30. From this we learn that sometimes the pious servants of Allah Almighty, too, have to endure hardships in the form of a test. Says Allah Almighty "And necessarily We shall put you to test with something of fear and hunger and with some loss of wealth and lives and fruits: and glad tidings to the patient" (S2:V155). Without, doubt piety and purity ward off calamities and are a means of obtaining mercy of Allah Almighty. Says the Holy QUR'AAN: "And he who fears Allah, Allah will make a way for his deliverance. And will provide for him whence he expects not" (S65:V2-3).

يَدْعُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا يَضُرُّهٗ وَمَا لَا يَنْفَعُهٗ ۭ ذٰلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلٰلُ الْبَعِيْدُ ⑫

12. They worship beside Allah such that which can neither do no bad or good to them [31]. This in indeed straying a-far

31. This means to call upon them and worship them, is bereft of any worldly benefit or loss. These deities will neither provide benefit by worshipping them, nor cause any loss by not worshipping them. However, their worship will prove extremely disastrous in the Hereafter. On the contrary, the moon, the sun, the rocks, etc. provide benefit as well as loss.

Numerous tasks are completed through the use of stones, but if these are used to harm someone, these can cause great damage. Likewise, there are thousands benefits derived from the sun, while at times this very sun can cause harm as well. Thus, there can be no objection raised at the verse.

يَدْعُوْا لَمَنْ ضَرُّهٗٓ اَقْرَبُ مِنْ نَّفْعِهٖ ۭ لَبِئْسَ الْمَوْلٰى وَلَبِئْسَ الْعَشِيْرُ ⑬

13. They worship such that whose harm is more [32] expected than his benefit. No doubt, what an evil patron and no doubt what as evil comrade!

32. In this verse the word 'harm' denotes harm in the true sense of the word i.e. death in the world, and Hell in the Hereafter, while benefit indicates their imaginary benefits (eg. intercession of the idols, etc.) This means the hope of benefits these idol worshippers are having from these idols is very remote and impossible, while the harm of their foolishness of the idols worship they will see in a near future. This verse does not contradict the previous verse in any way in which it is said that these idols will not provide any benefit nor any harm. Also, this verse in no way gives the belief that is a hope of receiving benefits from the idols, but perhaps in some distant future. Such belief is totally without any substance.

Marfat.com

14. Undoubtedly, Allah will cause those who believed and did good deeds to enter gardens beneath which rivers [33] flow. No doubt, Allah does what He will.

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِىْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيْدُ ﴿١٤﴾

33. It should be remembered that Faith is the cause of entry into Paradise, while good deeds are the means of obtaining its bounties and high status. The mention here is made of acquiring Paradise i.e. Paradise acquired through one's effort of faith and good deeds. because conferred Paradise would be awarded to the minor Muslim children and, we, sinners through some good deeds.

15. Whosoever imagines that Allah will not help His prophet in the world and the hereafter[34]: let him stretch a rope upward and let him see that for which his heart so buring.[35]

مَنْ كَانَ يَظُنُّ اَنْ لَّنْ يَّنْصُرَهُ اللّٰهُ فِى الدُّنْيَا وَ الْاٰخِرَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ بِسَبَبٍ اِلَى السَّمَآءِ ثُمَّ لْيَقْطَعْ فَلْيَنْظُرْ هَلْ يُذْهِبَنَّ كَيْدُهٗ مَا يَغِيْظُ ﴿١٥﴾

34. This tells us that Allah Almighty will give assistance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in this world as well as in the Hereafter. The assistance in the world would be to make his religion prevail over all other religions, and provide honour for his devotees, while in the Hereafter, He would accept the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمintercession and grant him the Lofty Place and the Desired Status promised to him.

35. From this we learn that if anyone becomes enraged or talks nonsense he will not cause any harm to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم personality. No matter how much nonsense you may talk about the sun it will continue to shine brightly. The devotees of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will continue to prosper in this world and the Hereafter.

16. And thus we have sent down this Quran as Manifest signs and that Allah guides whom He will. [36]

وَكَذٰلِكَ اَنْزَلْنٰهُ اٰيٰتٍۢ بَيِّنٰتٍ ۙ وَّاَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَهْدِىْ مَنْ يُّرِيْدُ ﴿١٦﴾

36. This tells us that the desire for guidance is not for everybody but permission for guidance is for all i.e. Allah Almighty loves that everyone should come on the path of guidance, but His intention is that some person should be on the path of guidance and some person should remain misled.There is a big difference between intention, love and pleasure. It is for this reason that everyone is given the command to seek guidance, but everyone is not provided with guidance. Many times a command is given against one's intention. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was given the command to sacrifice his son, but that was not His intention.

17. Undoubtedly, Muslims and Jews and the sabians and the Christians [37] and the Magians and the polytheist [38], verily Allah the polytheists , verily Allah will judge [39] between them on the Day of judgement. Undoubtedly, every thing is before Allah.

Hell all other Prophets, the Personality of Allah Almighty and many of His Attributes, but they have not been called as believers. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the basis of Faith.

38. This means the worshippers of stones and trees. Thus there is no contradiction in the verse because, although, the Jews and Christians are polytheists, they do not worship stones.

39. This means practical decision i.e.the believers will be sent to Paradise and the infidels to Hell. Otherwise, the verbal judgement has been made in this world as well. Thus, there is no objection against the verse.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَسْجُدُ لَهٗ مَنْ فِي
السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَنْ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَ الشَّمْسُ
وَ الْقَمَرُ وَ النُّجُوْمُ وَ الْجِبَالُ وَ الشَّجَرُ
وَالدَّوَاۗبُّ وَكَثِيْرٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ ۭ وَكَثِيْرٌ حَقَّ
عَلَيْهِ الْعَذَابُ ۭ وَ مَنْ يُّهِنِ اللّٰهُ فَمَا لَهٗ
مِنْ مُّكْرِمٍ ۭ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاۗءُ ۝١٨

18. Have you not seen [40] that to Allah prostrates who so ever is in the heavens and in the earth, and the sun, and the moon, and the stars, and the mountains, and the trees, and the beast, and many [41] are those upon whom the torment is already justified, [42] none [43] is there to give him honour. Undoubtedly, Allah does what He pleases.

40.This tells us that every creation between the heavens and the earth is visible to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and he is seeing their worship and deeds. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمhimself, says "your Rukus and Sujoods, your fear of Allah Almighty and humility are not hidden from me". In short, he is aware of every action and movement of the believers until the Day of Judgement. Regarding the two inmates of the grave, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had informed that one was a backbiter, and the other was a shepherd who would not protect himself from the chintz of urine.

41. From this we learn that besides man and jinn there is no infidelity among any other creation. All prostrate and worship Allah Almighty. Regarding man Allah Almighty has used the word 'many' This restriction is not used as a relative pronoun that it may contradict this verse: "And there are few in My bondsmen that are thankful" (S34:V13), but it is used to state the actual condition i.e. there are many believers and many infidels. Also, the purpose of the Sajdah in this verse is not the subservience to affairs of creation, because even the infidel does that. This Sajdah signifies Sajdah of worship.

42. It is important that one should offer Sajdah after reciting this verse so that you would be included in the first 'many' i.e. believers and not in the second many i.e. infidels. May Allah Almighty bless us!

19. There are two parties who disputed [44] concerning their Lord. As for those who disbelieved, the garments of fire were cut out for them, and boiling water will be poured down on their heads.

هٰذٰنِ خَصْمٰنِ اخْتَصَمُوْا فِيْ رَبِّهِمْ ۫ فَالَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا قُطِّعَتْ لَهُمْ ثِيَابٌ مِّنْ نَّارٍ ؕ يُصَبُّ مِنْ فَوْقِ رُءُوْسِهِمُ الْحَمِيْمُ ۚ﴿۱۹﴾

44. This means these five types of infidels and believers are enemies among themselves and their enmity is linked with the Personality of Allah Almighty. From this emerge two issues:
1. There can never be real unity between an infidel and a believer because Allah Almighty has called them enemies.
2. Dispute regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in reality dispute regarding Allah Almighty, because the Jews and the Christians had not rejected Allah Almighty but they had rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. The friend of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed the friend of Allah Almighty and the enemy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed the enemy of Allah Almighty.

20. Where by that which is in their bellies will be melted and their skins too.

يُصْهَرُ بِهٖ مَا فِيْ بُطُوْنِهِمْ وَالْجُلُوْدُ ؕ﴿۲۰﴾

21. And for them are the maces of iron. [45]

وَ لَهُمْ مَّقَامِعُ مِنْ حَدِيْدٍ ﴿۲۱﴾

45. This tells us that clothes of fire, bathing in boiling water, drinking boiling water, being beaten with iron mace, are punishments of the infidels. May Allah Almighty protect the believers from these. Some sinful believers would be sent into Hell to purify themselves of their sins just as impure gold is purified in fire.

22. When they will wish to greet out [46] of it due to anguish, again they will be turned back into it and it will be commanded to them, taste the torment of the fire.

كُلَّمَاۤ اَرَادُوْۤا اَنْ يَّخْرُجُوْا مِنْهَا مِنْ غَمٍّ اُعِيْدُوْا فِيْهَا ۫ وَذُوْقُوْا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيْقِ ﴿۲۲﴾ ع ۲ ۱۲ ۹

46. Sometimes it will happen that the gate of Hell would open and its inmates would run towards it to escape. After much difficulties when they would reach there, the gate would close. This will always take place.

SECTION 3

23. No doubt, Allah will cause those who believed and did good deeds to enter Gardens beneath which

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا

Marfat.com

الْاَنْهٰرُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيْهَا مِنْ اَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَّ لُؤْلُؤًا ؕ وَ لِبَاسُهُمْ فِيْهَا حَرِيْرٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ streams flow [47], they will be made to wear bracelets [48] of gold and pearls. And their apparel there is of silk.

47. Four rivers of water, milk, honey and pure drink, as mention of these is made in the other verses.

48. Upto where the water of Wudu would be reaching, they would be made to wear the bangles i.e. upto their elbows.

وَ هُدُوْٓا اِلَى الطَّيِّبِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ ۚ وَ هُدُوْٓا اِلٰى صِرَاطِ الْحَمِيْدِ ﴿٢٤﴾

24. And they were guided to pure speech and were guided [49] to the path of the All- Praiseworthy. [50]

49. This tells us that evil is spoken by people themselves while pious things are spoken through Divine guidance, in this world, in the grave as well as in the Hereafter. "They were guided" tells us that pure speech was due to Divine inspiration. This 'pure speech' includes Kalima Tayyibah, recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN, Darood Shareef, Na'at recitals, true and pious talks.

50. This is the same Path which is followed by the Prophets and the Saints of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "The Path of those whom Thou hast favoured" (S1:V6). Allah Almighty further says: "And be with the truthful" (S9:V119). Only by treading in this Path will you find Allah Almighty. May Allah Almighty guide us on this path and keep us firmly on it.

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ يَصُدُّوْنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ الَّذِيْ جَعَلْنٰهُ لِلنَّاسِ سَوَآءَ ۨ الْعَاكِفُ فِيْهِ وَالْبَادِ ؕ وَ مَنْ يُّرِدْ فِيْهِ بِاِلْحَادٍ بِظُلْمٍ نُّذِقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ ﴿٢٥﴾

25. Undoubtedly, those who disbelieve and hinder from the way of Allah [51] and from the sacred Mosque [52]which We have appointed equal for all, both for dwellers there in and visitors [53].And whoso seek any excessiveness in it unjustly[54],we shall cause them to taste painful torment.[55]

51. Prevent the infidels from accepting faith, the believers from worshipping Allah Almighty or those believers who wanted to perform their Umrah prevent them from this. Under the third condition this verse refers to abu Sufyaan and his companions who had prevented the believers from entering the sacred city of Makkah on the occasion of the Treaty of Hudaibiya. This verse is of Madinite period. From this we learn that nobody should stop anyone from entering the sacred Mosque. It is for this reason that even at night, the doors of the Haraam Shareef are kept open.

52. The Sacred Mosque is referred to as the Ka'ba as well, as well as the Mosque in which the Holy Ka'ba is situated, to the entire city of Makkah as well as to boundaries of the Haram. According to those of Hanafi school the place referred to here as Makkah Muazzamah, while to those of Shafaee school it refers to the sacred Mosque only. It is for this reason in the Hanafi school the sale and rental of the places of Makkah is unlawful, but the Shafaees regard it as lawful.

53. The citizens and non-citizens all have the right to perform Tawaaf and Salaah there at all times (Sawaafe) or the citizens and the non-citizens both have residential rights in Makkah (Hanafi).

54. Reason for its revelation:
The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sent one of his Companions Hazrat Abdullah ibn Anees with an Ansari. They discussed their family greatness between themselves which angered Abdullah ibn Anees and he killed the Ansari and abandoning his faith, he fled to Makkah. This verse was revealed at that occasion (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

55. From this we learn that you can be punished for the intention of sin in Makkah Muazzamah. Religous Issue: The reward of one good deed in Makkah is one hundred thousand, the punishment for one sin is also one hundred thousand, while intention of sin, too, is liable for punishment. In Madina Munawwarah the reward of one good deed is fifty thousand, the punishment of one sin is one, while the intention of sin is not liable for punishment.

SECTION 4

26. And when We informed Abraham the right [56] place of the house and ordained, associate [57] not anything with Me and keep My House clean for persons making round of it and those who bow and prostrate. [58]

وَ اِذْ بَوَّاْنَا لِاِبْرٰهِيْمَ مَكَانَ الْبَيْتِ اَنْ لَّا
تُشْرِكْ بِیْ شَیْـًٔا وَّ طَهِّرْ بَیْتِیَ لِلطَّآىِٕفِیْنَ
وَ الْقَآىِٕمِیْنَ وَالرُّكَّعِ السُّجُوْدِ ﴿۲۶﴾

56. This means at the time of the construction of the sacred Ka'ba i.e. Allah Almighty appointed a portion of the cloud to remain at the place of the Ka'ba while the wind cleansed that much place from which Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) understood as a place for the construction of the Ka'ba. It should be remembered that Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was the first person to construct the Ka'ba which had disappeared in the Flood of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace). Thereafter Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was commanded again to rebuild it and in this way that place was shown.
57. This means they should firmly refrain from polytheism. Otherwise, the Prophets of Allah Almighty do not commit polytheism for even a single moment. They are totally innocent and sinless as well.
58. From this we learn that to sweep inside the mosques, to maintain their cleanliness and to beautify them is the Sunnah of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and an excellent act of worship. Says Allah Almighty: "They only inhabit the mosques of Allah who believe in Allah and the Last Day" (S9:V18). Also, that Salaah, Tawaaf, I'tikaaf are an-cient acts of worship, and that trustees of the mosque should be pious people.

27. ' And proclaim [59] among people the pilgrimage. They will come [60] to you on foot and on every lean camel coming from every distant track.'[61]

وَ اَذِّنْ فِی النَّاسِ بِالْحَجِّ یَاْتُوْكَ رِجَالًا وَّ عَلٰی

59. Thus Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) stood on Mount Abu Qubais, called out once in all four directions that "Oh servants of Allah Almighty come towards the House of Allah". Every soul that would be born until Qiyamah heard this call. The Number of times each soul responded with LABBAIK 'I am present', that is the number of Hajj the person would be performing. Any soul which had remained silent will not be performing Hajj (Tafseer Roohul Manani, Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).From this we learn that call in absentia from far is permissible. Thus we can say YA RASOOLALLAH. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) called Hazrat Saria from Madina Munawwarah, although he was engaged in Holy War in Nihawand. Or this is a command to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to declare the obligation of Hajj to the believers.
60. This tells us that going to the Holy Ka'ba is like going to Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). Furthermore, the effect of the call of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) would remain until the Day of Qiyamah. Also, this is a miracle of our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that his blessed voice will reach East and West and would be heard by those present and those not yet in existence. Such a miracle has been made manifest by some saints as well. It should be remembered that the sacred Ka'ba has been constructed five times: Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) first constructed it; then by Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace); then by Qureish about fifteen years prior to the prophethood of the Holy Prophet , thereafter by Hazrat Abdullah ibn Zubair (May Allah be pleased with him) and finally by Hajjaj bin Yusuf. The present structure of the Ka'ba is the construction of Hajjaj (Tafseer Roohul Manani).

62. Hajj provides religious as well as material benefits. Trade, accommodation, travelling, etc. are material benefits, while obtaining salvation, being cleansed of sins, and doing worship, etc. are religious benefits.

63. To recite the Takbir BISMILLAH ALLAHO AKBAR at the time of slaughtering the sacrificial animal from the 10th till the late afternoon of the 12th of Zill Hajj. The Zikr here does not mean TALBIYA because recitation of Talbiya ends with the pelting of Jamaratul Aqabah.

65. This means to take a haircut, cut the nails, shave the hair below the navel because at the time of coming out of the Ihraam it is obligatory to take a haircut while all the other things mentioned are desirable.

61. From this we learn that the walking Hajj is superior to Hajj in a conveyance. Hajj performed through hardship is superior to Hajj done in comfort and Hajj of those who come from far is superior to the Hajj performed by those who live nearby (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani).

64.From this emerge a few issues:

1. The meat of the Qurbani of HADY, of Qiraan and of Tamattoo can be eaten by the one offering sacrifice, while the meat offered in sacrifice of atonement cannot be eaten by the offerer of sacrifice.

2. It is better not to eat all the meat of Qurbani.

3. All its meat should not be given away in charity, some should be eaten, others given in charity.

mannat of Giyarwi Shareef, etc. is not a religious supplication but a verbal supplication i.e. a gift whose fulfilment is a virtuous act.

67. Here Tawaaf refers to Tawaafe-Ziyaarat which is performed after coming out of the Ihraam, once the haircut is taken. Its time begins from the 10th Zill Hajj until the late afternoon of the 12th Zil Hajj.

68. Those things which are worthy of veneration, should be shown full respect. In it all these things are included: the Holy Ka'ba, the Holy Qur'aan, the month of Ramadaan, the sacred Mosque of Makkah, every nook and corner of Madinatul Munawwarah, every blessed Sunnat of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Their respect is in reality showing resepct for Allah Almighty.

69. This tells us that the veneration for the things of Allah Almighty is the root of all worship. If there is veneration and love in the heart then that worship is worthy of acceptance. If the heart is bereft of these virtues then that worship has no worth in the eyes of Allah Almighty. The worship of the devil was rejected solely because he had no respect for Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) in his heart.

70. This verse points out to the following verse of Surah Ma'idah "You are forbidden (to eat) the dead, and blood" (S5:V3).

72. Just as gold, milk, etc is wholesome which is pure, so is that faith accepted which is in its pristine purity, free of any mixture of infidelity of an infidel.

73. This is a compound comparison: Faith is loftiness while infidelity is a deep cave, whoever falls into infidelity the devils of the bases soul cut it to shreds, let him wander in every evil spot, without letting him find any sanctuary.

32. The thing is this and who so respects the signs of Allah, and then it is from the piety of hearts [74]

74. This tells us that the external acts of Ibadaat are the piety of the external body, while veneration for the pious and their blessed relics in one's heart is the inner piety. May Allah Almighty bless us with it! Further, any animal and stone which is associated with the venerated they become the symbols of Allah Almighty. The Holy Qur'aan has called the sacrificial animals of Hajj as symbols of Allah Almighty because they are associated with the Holy Ka'ba, and the Hills of Safa and Marwa as symbols of Allah Almighty because of the blessings of Bibi Hajirah (May Allah be pleased with her) who is linked with the Holy Ka'ba. It is stated in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan that the graves of the pious, too, are symbols of Allah Almighty, and those who get linked with the beloved personages of Allah Almighty all become His symbols.

different. The issue of Udhiyya is different and normal Qurbani is different. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم always offered his Qurbani in Madina Tayyibah.

75. Here those sacrificial animals are menitoned which can be slaughtered at the Haram Shareef only. This is the accepted ruling according to the Hanafi school. Qurbani which is obligatory upon the wealthy can be offered anywhere says Allah Almighty: "Therefore offer prayer for your Lord and do the sacrifice" (S107:V2). Neither is there any place stipulated for Salaah, nor there is restriction of place for Qurbani. These act can be performed everywhere. However, the Qurbani of the Hajj is different issue and the DHAMM or penalty for contravening the Wajibaat is any other name is joined with the name of Allah Almighty, that animal will become unlawful. If one omits to take the name of Allah Almighty unintentionally, that animal is lawful for consumption but if it is done intentionally then that animal becomes unlawful.

76. This means those Hady animals which you take to slaughter at the Haram Shareef, you can ride on them out of necessity, drink their milk, etc. and after slaughtering them you are allowed to eat their meat, use their skins and wool, etc. It should be remembered, that before sacrizicing the Hady animals they should not be ridden unnecessarily nor you should drink their milk.

77. From this we understand that before Islam, too, Qaabeel had also offered Qurbani. Says Allah Almighty: "And narrate you to them the true news of the two sons of Adam, when they each offered an offering" (S5:V27).

78. Thus at the time of slaughtering take His name only.

spending on parents and relatives, etc. But you must not spend the entire wealth - just part of

So mention the name of Allah over them while standing in line with three legs [84] and ties up with one leg, then when their sides fall down,eat thereof yourself and contented and feed [85] the beggars, thus we have subjected [86] them to you may be thankful.

it, as is understood by the preposition 'from'.

81. This means the cows and camels are symbols of Allah Almighty and therefore show them respect. From this emerge a few issues:
1. That a cow, too, is a Qurbani animal as it is used in the word 'bulk animals';
2. That Qurbani can be offered everywhere, not just in Makkah Muazzamah;
3. It is permissible to decorate Qurbani camels, cows and to display them as this is showing respect for the symbols of Allah Almighty. Those who we reject the sacrifice of cows, or say that Qurbani can only be made in Makkah Muazzamah should take a lesson from this.

82. From this we learn a thing which is linked with a venerated object becomes a symbol of Allah Almighty - Safa, Marwa have become worthy of respect because of the blessed feet of Bibi Hajira, and the Hady animals through their association with the Holy Ka'ba. The respect of the symbols of Allah Almighty is the basis of true faith. The respect of Qurbani is to make the animal fat and corpulent, slaughter it with joy, refrain from riding it unnecessarily, refrain from drinking its milk, after slaughtering it, eat its meat as a benediction.

83. Qurbani is beneficial both in this world as well as in the Hereafter. Eating its meat, using its hair, skin, wool, etc. are its worldly benefits, while Sawaab in the Hereafter is its religious reward.

84. When slaughtering the camel, it is Sunnat that its one foot should be tied to the thigh and let him stand on three feet and cleave its neck in its length. This is called Nahr. This procedure is not followed in the case of cows and goats.

85. If you so wish, because neither is it obligatory upon oneself to eat the Qurbani meat nor to feed it to others. This is desirable in both cases. Even if no one eats the meat, one would still be relieved of the obligation of Qurbani.

86. That despite having strength, these animals still walk to obey you, they do not oppose you. Observe, the fly and mosquito are not within our control, but the camel, elephant and horse are within our control. Allah Almighty did not place strength and boldness together. If this was the case, we would have been destroyed.

you. And O beloved! Give glad tiding to the righteous.

87. From this there is a hint that if your intention is to convey the reward of the food to some. the actual food will not reach him, only its reward will, which is due to the result of one's piety. Those who mock at the concept of IESAALE SAWAAB should take a lesson from this verse. The conveying of reward through charity has been proven by inference as well as traditions. For a detailed discussion on the subject consult JAA-AL-HAQ. We further learn that no good deed is accepted without intention.

39. Permission is given to them with whom the infidels fight because they were oppressed [89]. And no doubt, Allah is necessarily Powerful to help them.

89. The infidels were persecuting the Noble Companions in the sacred city of Makkah. Everyday the Noble Companions would come in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in a state where either someone's head was broken, or hand was badly damaged, or someone's foot was bandaged. They were trying to seek permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to retaliate but the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would exhort them to exercise patience as Allah Almighty had not as yet granted permission for Jehad - to wage war against the infidels. After the arrival in Madina, this verse was revealed after which permission was granted to the Noble Companions for Jehad (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). From this we learn that without Divine permission, Jihad is not permissible. When Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) struck one Qibti prior to Divine order he expressed regret for his action, although striking an infidel is a rewardable act.

الَّذِيْنَ اُخْرِجُوْا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ اِلَّاۤ اَنْ يَّقُوْلُوْا رَبُّنَا اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ لَوْ لَا دَفْعُ اللّٰهِ النَّاسَ بَعْضَهُمْ بِبَعْضٍ لَّهُدِّمَتْ صَوَامِعُ وَ بِيَعٌ وَّ صَلَوٰتٌ وَّ مَسٰجِدُ يُذْكَرُ فِيْهَا اسْمُ اللّٰهِ كَثِيْرًا ؕ وَ لَيَنْصُرَنَّ اللّٰهُ

مَنْ يَّنْصُرُهٗ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَقَوِیٌّ عَزِیْزٌ ﴿۴۰﴾

90. This means the believers spoke the truth for which they were unjustly persecuted by the infidels and banished from the land of their birth.

91. This is in respect of that period when religions of Hazrat Isa or Hazrat Musa (On them be peace) were not as yet abrogated. Synagogues and churches were still worthy of respect. Now, they are neither worthy of respect, nor is there prohibition for demolishing them. If Christians of any locality accept Islam, they can demolish their church and construct a mosque in its place. However, Muslims are not allowed to demolish places of worship of others. What it means is, if holy wars had not been waged in the past, then neither the places of worship of the Christians nor that of the Jews would have remained protected.

92. This means that in the previous times, too, churches, synagogues, monasteries etc. too had been protected from the infidels due to the blessing of Jihad. Now, too, these places of worship can remain safe through Jihad. For the protection of the human beings kill the serpents and scorpions, while for the protection of the faith wage holy war. Break the glass of the acquaintance with his own stone.

41. Those, if We give them control [94] in the land they, would establish [95] prayer and pay the zakat (poor-due) and command good and forbid [96] evil. And for Allah is the end of all affairs. [97]

اَلَّذِیْنَ اِنْ مَّكَّنّٰهُمْ فِی الْاَرْضِ اَقَامُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَ اٰتَوُا الزَّكٰوةَ وَ اَمَرُوْا بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَ نَهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ ؕ وَ لِلّٰهِ عَاقِبَةُ الْاُمُوْرِ ﴿۴۱﴾

94. By granting them victory over the infidels made them kings and rulers over them.

95. From this we understand that the empire of the believers is not for personal glory but for the establishment of Allah's religion. The war of kings is revolution and devastation. The war of believers is based on Prophetic Sunnah. Thus, the nature of war differs from people to people.

96. Through power and strength because the ruler should stop through power and the religious scholar through oral communication, and the general public should shun evil with heart and soul. Thus, the verse does not mean that if the believers do not have a kingdom they should not engage in doing propagation work. If you want to see the commentary of this verse, then study the rule of the Khulafa-ur-Rashideen as they are the living example of it.

97. The meaning of the verse is that the assistance of these Muslim warriors is the responsibility of Allah Almighty. These warriors do not engage in lustful activities after obtaining a kingdom. But they fill the land of their kingdom with the worship of Allah Almighty and stop the people from sinful activities. The people of Pakistan should take a lesson from it. They should seriously think that after gaining Pakistan, what have they really done to render services to Islam?

42. And if they belie you, then no doubt, before them the people on Nuh and Aad and Thamud have already belied.

44. And the dwellers of Madyan [98] and Musa too was belied, [99] then I let loose the infidels, then I seized them, so how was My torment.

98. Madyan is the name of the colony/settlement of Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) which was established by Madyan ibn Ebrahim.
99. He was falsified by people of the Pharoah and not by the Israelites. For this reason the word 'nation' is not used here. It means this is the old practice of the infidels. Hence, this should not make you despondent.

فَكَاَيِّنْ مِّنْ قَرْيَةٍ اَهْلَكْنٰهَا وَ هِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ فَهِيَ خَاوِيَةٌ عَلٰى عُرُوْشِهَا وَ بِئْرٍ مُّعَطَّلَةٍ وَّ قَصْرٍ مَّشِيْدٍ ﴿٤٥﴾

45. And how many towns We destroyed [100] that they were unjust, so now they are fallen down on their roofs, [101] and how many wells are lying neglected and how many places are deserted.

100. This tells us that due to the evil deeds of people, the other creations get destroyed as well, because on whichever localities Divine punishment had come, the animals therein, too, had been destroyed. Says Allah Almighty: "The mischief has appeared in the land and sea because of the evils earned by the hands of men" (S30:V41). Because the real object in creation is man, and they are the object of destruction, then it will serve no purpose to preserve the other things in creation.
101. They are in the same condition to this day, and these people constantly have a look at them during their journeys.

46. Have they not travelled in the land [102] that they should have hearts with which to understand, or ears with which to hear? [103] Certainly it is not the eyes that becomes blind but hearts [104] which are in the breasts.

102. This is a negative question i.e. these people always pass through these destroyed localities, yet they fail to take a lesson from what they observe. From this we understand that we should always visit the Mazaars of the Friends of Allah Almighty so that the beauty and splendour of these blessed places will instil in us the desire to do good deeds. For the sake of instilling fear, go to the places of Divine punishment of the infidels. To attain hope, visit the graves of the pious where Divine blessings had descended.
103. This means that although the infidels have eyes, they are bereft of insight. Sight is obtained from outer eyes but insight is gleaned from the eyes of the heart. Guidance is based on insight. The collyrium of insight is the remembrance of Allah Almighty, companyionship of the pious, recitation of the Holy Qur'aan, hunger, Tahajjud Salaah, the recitation of Istighfaar in the morning (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani).

Marfat.com

104. This verse is commentary of the following verse: "And you cannot guide the blind from their error" (S27:V81). Here by 'blind' is meant those who are blind of insight i.e. whose hearts are blind. Similarly, it is a commentary of the following verse: "And whoso ever is blind in this world, he is blind in the Hereafter" (S17:V72). Thus even if the infidel has eyes, he is seeing blind, while even if the believer is physically blind, he sees with the inner eye. The living infidel is dead, while the slain martyr is alive.

punishment of the Hereafter is still to be meted out to them.

106. It should be remembered that in this world the days of winter are shorter, but the days of summer are longer. Likewise, one day of the Hereafter is equal to one thousand years and the duration of the Day of Judgement is fifty thousand years. Thus there is no inconsistency in the verses. Yet, some people will feel this day to be a few minutes.

105. From this emerge two issues:
1. That the punishment on the infidel is a mercy for the believers, therefore the word promise is used and not censure
2. That breach of censure is not possible for the infidels, just as breach of promise is not possible for the believers. However, breach of censure is not impossible for the believer but a matter of fact (Roohul Ma'ani). Thus the promise of punishment for the infidels was fulfilled at the Battle of Badr, while the of tyrants and on the coming of the Divine punishment, all were destroyed.

108. Thus, you should not be deceived by the delay. Though the wheel of wrath grinds slowly, it grinds very fine.

SECTION 7

قُلْ يٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنَّمَاۤ اَنَا لَكُمْ نَذِيْرٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ﴿۴۹﴾ ج

49. Say you, ' O mankind; I am but a clear warner [109] to you'.

is a warner for all, but his prophecy is for the specific people. He warns some from the punishment of the fire of Hell and some from separation of the Beloved.

109. From this emerge two issues:
1. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Prophet for the entire creation. His prophethood is not restricted to any specific people.
2. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

فَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَهُمْ

50. Then those who believed and did good works for them. Is forgiveness and an honourable [110] provision.

110. Guidance to do good deeds in the world; to make the person the object of honour and respect in the eyes of people: to grant him Paradise in the Hereafter; the vision of Allah Almighty; the intercession of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ سَعَوْا فِيْٓ اٰيٰتِنَا مُعٰجِزِيْنَ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَصْحٰبُ الْجَحِيْمِ ﴿٥١﴾

51. And those who strive in our signs with the intention of victory and defeat, they are inmates of Hell. [111]

111. From this there is a hint that if any stubborn scholar tries to prove a false thing as true and try to substantiate this with verses of the Holy Qur'aan will be an inmate of Hell. Similarly to enter into debate for the purpose of personal victory and which is not intended for the proclamation of truth and the service of religion. is the work of the infidels. However, debate for the expression of Truth is the way of the life of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Says Allah Almighty: "And argue with them in a way that is best" (S16:V125). Allah Almighty further says: "Who quarreled with Ebrahim about his Lord because Allah gave him Kingdom" (S2:V258).

وَمَآ اَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رَّسُوْلٍ وَّ لَا نَبِيٍّ اِلَّآ اِذَا تَمَنّٰٓى اَلْقَى الشَّيْطٰنُ فِيْٓ اُمْنِيَّتِهٖ ۚ فَيَنْسَخُ اللّٰهُ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطٰنُ ثُمَّ يُحْكِمُ اللّٰهُ اٰيٰتِهٖ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ۙ﴿٥٢﴾

52. And we sent as many Messenger [112] or Prophets, on all this incident has occurred sometimes, that when they recited then the devil added [113] something from his own side in their recital towards the people. But Allah removes what the devil casts forth, then Allah firmly establishes His signs [114] And Allah is Knowing, wise.

112. There is a difference between a NABI and a RASOOL. Prophet is general, Messenger is specific i.e. every Messenger is a Prophet but every Prophet is not a Messenger. Thus, it is said that there are approximately one hundred and twenty four thousand Prophets, while Rasools are three hundred and thirteen.

113. From this we learn that Iblees can never assume the facial appearance of theHoly Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but he can make his voice sound like that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمsaid: "He who has seen me has in reality seen me, because Shaitaan cannot assume my form". But when even the Devil tries to imitate voice to place you in an error, then Allah Almighty removes this doubt, and thereafter no doubt remains.

114. Reason for Revelation.

When Surah Najm was revealed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم recited it in Masjide Haraam slowly so that the people could listen to it attentively and ponder over it. When he recited "And the third Manaat" (S53:V20). and waited, the devil whispered in the ears: "These idols are of a lofty status, and there is a hope of their intercession". The infidels mistook this to have been said by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . They therefore prostrated with joy and gratitude saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had praised our idols. At that time, this verse was revealed. This is the authentic saying on which there is no objection. It should be remembered that at that time people would hear the voice of the devil, and at times they would be deceived by it. In the battle of Badr the devil had told the infidels: "No man is to prevail against you today" (S8:V48), while in the Battle of Uhud he had uttered that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is martyred.

لِّيَجْعَلَ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطٰنُ فِتْنَةً لِّلَّذِيْنَ
فِيْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ وَّ الْقَاسِيَةِ قُلُوْبُهُمْ ؕ
وَ اِنَّ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ لَفِيْ شِقَاقٍۭ بَعِيْدٍ ۙ﴿۵۳﴾

53. That He may make what the devil casts forth a trial [115] for those in whose hearts is a disease and whose hearts are hardened. And undoubtedly the oppressors and quarrelsome [116] to the end.

115. Thus the polytheists and the infidels were placed in further doubt and confusion by this incident when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم refuted their idols saying that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had gone back against his words. May Allah forbid. However, this did not worry the believers at all, because they were not deceived by the voice of the devil. It should be remembered that the voice of the devil in this incident did not resemble the voice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because everything about the Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is unique and without any comparison. Thus, despite the difference in voice the infidels were deceived by their own error of judgement. Therefore the Holy QUR'AAN has said: "What the devil casts". Hence, this verse does not cast an objection about the uniqueness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. he is beyond comparison.

116. This means that they are such staunch enemies that they can never become your friends. Thus, do not even try to make them your friends.

وَّ لِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِيْنَ اُوْتُوا الْعِلْمَ اَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ
مِنْ رَّبِّكَ فَيُؤْمِنُوْا بِهٖ فَتُخْبِتَ لَهٗ
قُلُوْبُهُمْ ؕ وَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهَادِ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْۤا
اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿۵۴﴾

54. And so that those who have been given knowledge may know that it is the truth from your Lord, so they believed in it, then their hearts [117] may submit to it, and undoubtedly, Allah guides the believers to the straight path.[118]

117. This means that this mischief of the devil became the means of strengthing the faith of the believers, because they know that the devil had behaved in the same way with the previous Prophets as well, which Allah Almighty had rendered useless. This is the proof of the Truth of the Holy QUR'AAN.

118. This means in the Hereafter He guides towards Paradise, and in the world He guides towards doing good deeds. Otherwise, they have already been guided towards correct beliefs and they have become believers. Further acquisition is not possible.

وَ لَا يَزَالُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا فِيْ مِرْيَةٍ
مِّنْهُ حَتّٰى تَاْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً اَوْ
يَاْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابُ يَوْمٍ عَقِيْمٍ ﴿۵۵﴾

55. And the infidels will remain in doubt about it. Until the Hour comes on them suddenly [119] or there comes to them the torment of a day the fruit of which may not be good for them.

Marfat.com

110. From this emerge two issues:
1.For an eternal infidel, no proof would be beneficial, He will be continously wandering in doubt and uncertainty;

56. The Kingdom on that Day is of Allah's only [120] He will judge between them. Then those who believed [121] and did good deeds, they are in the gardens of comfort.

اَلْمُلْكُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِّلّٰهِ ؕ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ ؕ فَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ فِيْ جَنّٰتِ النَّعِيْمِ ﴿٥٦﴾

120. In that on that day nobody will lay any claim to kingship, and no king will be laying any rules, besides the rule of Allah Almighty. Otherwise, the true kingship even today is that of Allah Almighty.

121. This means their end was also on Faith because in Shariah credibility is given to the person's end (death). Also, it should be

57. And those who disbelieved, and belied our signs, for them is the torment of humiliation. [122]

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ كَذَّبُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا فَاُولٰٓئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِيْنٌ ﴿٥٧﴾ ع ١٢

122. From this we learn that although Allah Almighty will punish some Muslims in Hell, but He will not disgrace them there, because

SECTION 8

58. And those who left their homes, in the way of [123] Allah, and were then slain or died, Allah will necessarily provide them with a goodly provision. And undoubtedly, the provision [124] of Allah is the best.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ هَاجَرُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ قُتِلُوْٓا اَوْ مَاتُوْا لَيَرْزُقَنَّهُمُ اللّٰهُ رِزْقًا حَسَنًا ؕ وَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرّٰزِقِيْنَ ﴿٥٨﴾

123. This leaving of the homes is prior to the Conquest of Makkah when migration was obligatory upon the believers in Makkah. Or it would be in respect of that period when the believers would be besieged in police state (DARUL HARB) where they would not find religious freedom. Otherwise, migration is not a condition for Jehad. The object of the verse is to show that when a believer migrates to an Islamic state, then whether he is martyred in Jehad, or dies a natural death Allah Almighty remembered that entry in to paradise is based on the person's faith and the status therein is dependent on one's good deeds. This Paradise is an acquired property, otherwise some people will go into it without doing any good deeds, eg minor children of the believers, or that new convert to Islam who dies after accepting Islam.

2. The infidels try to accept faith at their time of death, or on the Day of Judgement or on seeing Divine punishment. But this holds no credibility by Allah Almighty.

disgrace is the punishment of the infidels. If Allah Almighty wills, no one will be aware about the punishment of the believer.

will reward him. This tells us that at that time migration was necessary and anyone who did not migrate without a valid reason was a sinner.
124. Here "Provider of sustenance" means one who stands surety for sustenance. In accordance with this meaning some become the providers of sustenance of others like the parents are providers of the children, the master stands responsible for the slave. However, the surety of Allah Almighty is greater than all of them, as He provides without any limit, without any displeasure and at all times. The verse does not mean that there are too many creators

59. Most certainly, He will carry them to such place, which they will like. And undoubtedly Allah is Knowing, forbearing [125].

them. This meaning is absolute polytheism.

لَيُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ مُّدْخَلًا يَّرْضَوْنَهٗ ؕ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَعَلِيْمٌ حَلِيْمٌ ﴿۵۹﴾

125. Reason for its Revelation:
Some Companions had asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that those who had been martyred in Holy Wars had achieved great status. But we are with you in all the battles, and will continue to do so, if Allah Almighty wills. So if we die without gaining martyrdom, then what is the order regarding us. In response to it, this, verse was revealed in which Allah Almighty tells us that the Companions need not worry about it. Whether you die on the battlefield or die a natural death you have already been allocated with abundant sustenance and Paradise Allah Almighty is pleased with you and He will grant you such things which will please you.

60. The thing is this, and who so takes revenge the like of which he was tortured, and again he is transgressed again then surely Allah will help him. Undoubtedly Allah is Pardoning, Forgiveness.[126]

ذٰلِكَ ۚ وَمَنْ عَاقَبَ بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوْقِبَ بِهٖ ثُمَّ بُغِيَ عَلَيْهِ لَيَنْصُرَنَّهُ اللّٰهُ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَعَفُوٌّ غَفُوْرٌ ﴿۶۰﴾

126. Reason for its Revelation:
On, at the end of Muharram, the polytheists had attacked the believers. Because during those days battles were prohibited in the sacred months like Muharram, etc. the believers did not want to fight. But the polytheists would not listen and began the war, forcing the believers in to it. Through the help of Allah Almighty, the believers became victorious. This verse was revealed regarding the above incident in which the believers were comforted that they were not at any fault for defending themselves in this confrontation.

61. And that is because Allah causes the night to enter into the day, and causes the day into the night and that Allah is all hearing, all Seeing. [127]

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ يُوْلِجُ الَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَ يُوْلِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي الَّيْلِ وَاَنَّ اللّٰهَ سَمِيْعٌۢ بَصِيْرٌ ﴿۶۱﴾

127. In this there is a hint that just as the day at times is longer than the nights, similarly, at times the infidels are in control and sometimes this control is in the hands of the believers. Thus this vicissitude should not dishearten the believers. Allah Almighty is ever Watchful and all Seeing, and there is a wisdom in whatever he does.

62. And that is because Allah is the only truth, and whom so ever they worship beside Him, it is the false, [128] and because Allah is the High, the Great

ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَاَنَّ مَا يَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ هُوَ الْبَاطِلُ وَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيْرُ ﴿۶۲﴾ of sustenance and Allah Almighty is better than

128. This means that these false deities are fictitious. This verse has no connection with the Prophets and saints as they are true because they belong to the One who is Truth. Says Allah Almighty: "The Truth has come to you from your Lord" (S10:V108). The Holy Prophet said: "Whoever sees me has seen the Truth", because the relative pronoun 'that' is used to denote inanimate and none-thinking things. Thus although Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Uzair (On the infidels, this would not result in these two great personalities to be called false. They are indeed Truth. Every action of theirs is true. Or the verse means that the worship of those other than Allah Almighty by the infidels is false. In that case the pronoun MA would be an active noun. Or you could say that the People of the Book in reality were not worshipping the Prophets but rather their statues, pictures and the cross and all these things in reality are false.

Marfat.com

63. Have you not seen that Allah sent down water [129] from the sky, then in the morning the earth became [130] green? Undoubtedly, Allah is Holy, Aware.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً فَتُصْبِحُ الْاَرْضُ مُخْضَرَّةً ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَطِيْفٌ خَبِيْرٌ ﴿٦٣﴾

129. He let the rain come down from the sky or due to heavenly causes. Otherwise, truly speaking, rain does not come from the sky, rather through the heat of the sun, the water of the oceans goes up in vapour form. Then, due to condensation it forms into clouds. But all this takes place at the command of Allah Almighty.

130. Likewise, on the Day of Judgement, the dead will be raised to life, and if Allah Almighty will, the believers after their weak-ness will gain strength just as the dry earth becomes lush green after it receives rain. However, due to the rain water this vegetation changes into different forms. Fruit grows, due to it. In the same manner, a man may earn temporary honour and power, but the permanent and true greatness is achieved through the blessings of Allah Almighty only.

64. To Him belongs all that is in heavens and all that is in the earth [131]. And undoubtedly, Allah is the Self-Sufficient the laudable.

لَهٗ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَا فِي الْاَرْضِ ؕ وَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَهُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيْدُ ﴿٦٤﴾ ع ٩ ١٥

131. True and permanent sovereignity belongs to Allah Almighty. But due to His bounty, some gain temporary ownership.

SECTION 9

65. Have you not seen that Allah has subjected to you what ever is in the earth [132]. And that the boat runs in the river by His command? And He has withheld [133] the sky that it may not fall on the earth but by His command undoubtedly, Allah is most Loving, most Affectionate towards human beings [134]

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي الْاَرْضِ وَالْفُلْكَ تَجْرِيْ فِي الْبَحْرِ بِاَمْرِهٖ ؕ وَ يُمْسِكُ السَّمَآءَ اَنْ تَقَعَ عَلَى الْاَرْضِ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِهٖ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِالنَّاسِ لَرَءُوْفٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٦٥﴾

132. Animals, fire, water, minerals, etc. as whom be peace) are being worshipped by these provide benefit for you.

133. This verse can be the commentary of the following verse: "Undoubtedly Allah has withheld the heavens and the earth lest they move" (S35:V41). This means the sky cannot come into complete motion just before the Day of Judgement, when it will come into movement and fall on the earth. What this means is neither is the sky placed upon anything, nor is it hung on anything, yet it does not fall. Who has held it together besides Us.
134. That He bestows bounties and favours upon them and protects them from calamities, and for the sake of worldly comforts He bestows upon them Heavenly bounties through the blessed Prophets and His True Friends (the Saints of Allah Almighty).

66. And it is He Who gave life [135] to you, then He will cause to die, again He will give life to you. Undoubtedly the human being most ungrateful. [136]

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیۡۤ اَحۡیَاکُمۡ ۫ ثُمَّ یُمِیۡتُکُمۡ ثُمَّ یُحۡیِیۡکُمۡ ؕ اِنَّ الۡاِنۡسَانَ لَکَفُوۡرٌ ﴿۶۶﴾

135. Creating sperm from lifeless sand, then creating a human being through this sperm and gave him life for action and practical activities. Then, on termination of life, will cause him to die. Thereafter, He will grant him eternal life for the purpose of reward or punishment.

136. Here 'human beings' denote infidels or negligent Muslims or the human race, but the blessed Prophets and the Saints of Allah Almighty are excluded from it. Says Allah Almighty: " No doubt, he was a great thankful bondsman" (S17:V3).

67. To every nation We made principles of worship that they should observe [137], so they neglect let not dispute with you in this matter and call them towards your Lord. [138] undoubtedly, you are on the straight path. [139]

لِکُلِّ اُمَّۃٍ جَعَلۡنَا مَنۡسَکًا ہُمۡ نَاسِکُوۡہُ فَلَا یُنَازِعُنَّکَ فِی الۡاَمۡرِ وَادۡعُ اِلٰی رَبِّکَ ؕ اِنَّکَ لَعَلٰی ہُدًی مُّسۡتَقِیۡمٍ ﴿۶۷﴾

137. Reason for its Revelation:
Budail ibn Waraqa, Bashar ibn Sufyan, etc. had said that you are very strange people! because those animals which are slaughtered by you, you call them lawful but these which are killed by Allah Almighty you regard them as unlawful. This verse was revealed as an answer to these people (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). What it means is this type of issues were found in all Divine religions. So why are you raising the objection against the Muslims only? It should be remembered, that every animal is given death by Allah Almighty, but that animal whose blood flows in the name of Allah Almighty is lawful. Other than this, the rest are unlawful.
138. The great Saints say that all the Prophets invite the creation towards the attributes of Allah Almighty, but the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم calls them towards the Personality of Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that Allah Almighty has called him And an "inviter towards Allah" (S33:V46). It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is giving this invitation until the Day of Judgement. The propagation of all the Saints and the Ulama is the invitation of the Messenger of Allah Almighty صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.
139. This means the Path on which you are treading is indeed the Straight Path. Oh Prophet, you are the proof that it is the straight Path. "Undoubtedly my Lord has shown me the straight Path" (S6:V161). This tells us that the Holy Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم blessed personality and character is indeed the Straight Path. Or, Oh My Beloved Rasool, those people will reach you who are on the straight Path. Thus those who want to reach you should be on the Straight Path.

person. Allah Almighty did not give reply to the proofs of the devil, but instead said: "Get out from Paradise, for you are rejected" (S15:V34).

140. This means, do not enter into debate with them. Just warn them of the Divine Punishment. This tells us one should not enter into debate with every talkative, quarrelsome

اَللّٰهُ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ فِيْمَا كُنْتُمْ فِيْهِ تَخْتَلِفُوْنَ ﴿٦٩﴾

141. Now, in this world at the time of death, and on the Day of Resurrection, he will not enter into a quarrel. All will accept Islam. From this we learn that the quarrelsome person is he, who rejects the Truth, while those who

اَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَآءِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ اِنَّ ذٰلِكَ فِيْ كِتٰبٍ ؕ اِنَّ ذٰلِكَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ يَسِيْرٌ ﴿٧٠﴾

this Divine Tablet can now be given information about the Unseen. Otherwise, there is no danger of Allah Almighty forgetting it.

142. That all the unseen incidents have been recorded on the Divine Tablet and this writing is there so that those pious devotees of Allah Almighty who have the power to read

وَ يَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَمْ يُنَزِّلْ بِهٖ سُلْطٰنًا وَّ مَا لَيْسَ لَهُمْ بِهٖ عِلْمٌ ؕ وَ مَا لِلظّٰلِمِيْنَ مِنْ نَّصِيْرٍ ﴿٧١﴾

71. And they worship beside Allah that for which He has not sent down any authority and that of which they have themselves no knowledge [143]. And for the oppressors there is no helper.[144] their knowing of this was not called knowledge.

144. This tells us that Allah Almighty has provided helpers for the believers, because the absence of helpers is a punishment for the infidels.

143. From this we understand that any knowledge which is not in accordance with actual happening is ignorance, which is called "False Pretentions to Knowledge", because in their knowledge they know few deities. But

وَ اِذَا تُتْلٰى عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتُنَا بَيِّنٰتٍ تَعْرِفُ فِيْ وُجُوْهِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا الْمُنْكَرَ ؕ

72. And when Our bright signs are recited to them, them you will see symptoms of denial in the faces of those who have disbelieved. [145] it is near that they may attack on those who recite Our signs to them. Say you, ' shall I inform you of what is worse[146] than of your this condition? That is the Fire. Allah has promised it to the infidels, And what an evil place of return? [147]

يَكَادُوْنَ يَسْطُوْنَ بِالَّذِيْنَ يَتْلُوْنَ عَلَيْهِمْ اٰيٰتِنَا ؕ قُلْ اَفَاُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِشَرٍّ مِّنْ ذٰلِكُمْ ؕ اَلنَّارُ ؕ وَعَدَهَا اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ؕ وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿۷۲﴾ ع ۹ ۸ ۱۲

145. From this we learn that the face is the mirror of the heart. Feelings of the heart appear on the face. Furthermore, the recognition of the believer is on his face. On hearing the Hamd (Praises of Allah Almighty) and Praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. Na'at Shareef the face of a believer glows with joy, while that of the infidel distorts with displeasure.

146. This means that at the moment you become enraged on just hearing about Hell, etc. but when you will actually see Hell you will be exceedingly enraged. The condition of the inmate of Paradise is opposite to this, its mention makes the believer happy, while its sight will make him totally elated.

147. Here the word promise is used to denote warning. Allah Almighty has given those who die as infidels, a positive promise of Hell. Although the sinful believers have been warned about Hell, they have also been given hope of forgiveness. He says: "Undoubtedly Allah forgives not that infidelity be done with Him, and whatever is besides infidelity He shall forgive whomsoever He pleases" (S4:V48). Thus this verse is applicable to the infidels only.

يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ فَاسْتَمِعُوْا لَهٗ ؕ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ تَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ لَنْ يَّخْلُقُوْا ذُبَابًا وَّ لَوِ اجْتَمَعُوْا لَهٗ ؕ وَ اِنْ يَّسْلُبْهُمُ الذُّبَابُ شَيْـًٔا لَّا يَسْتَنْقِذُوْهُ مِنْهُ ؕ ضَعُفَ الطَّالِبُ وَ الْمَطْلُوْبُ ﴿۷۳﴾

73. O people! A similitude is related, listen to it attentively. [148] there whom a fly though they should all gather [149] for it. And if they fly snatch away something from them then they would not be able to recover it from it [150]. How weak is the desire and that which was desired [151]

148. It means ponder over it. This tells us that the excellence lies not in the listening of the Qur'aan but in pondering over it. Says Allah Almighty: "Hear it patiently and be silent that you may have mercy" (S7:V204).

149. This verse is revealed concerning the polytheists. Here, prayer denotes worship and not to call, because calling upon those other than Allah Almighty is permissible, Allah Almighty has called upon the mountains and the earth. He has commanded us: "Call them after their fathers" (S33:V5). Therefore, to apply this verse to the blessed Prophets and Saints of Allah is an irreligious act.

150. Thus, the infidels would rub saffron and honey on the idols as a result of which flies were buzzing over them. Hence, to worship such helpless things is an act of stupidity. Worship Him who is All-Powerful and controls everything. It should be remembered that nobody worships the Holy QUR'AAN, the Holy Ka'ba, the Black Stone, the Mazaars (Shrines) of the pious - These sacred things are shown the highest respect. Says Allah Almighty: "And whoso respects the signs of Allah, then it is from the piety of hearth"

(S22:V32). The Wahabis apply this verse to the shrines of the pious, yet they themselves not only venerate the Holy QUR'AAN, the Holy Ka'ba and even the worn out flag of Molvi Ismail Dehlvi, but they kiss and suck

74. They valued not Allah as He should be Valued [152]. Undoubtedly, Allah is Powerful, Dominant.

152. Therefore they had accepted that Allah Almighty cannot maintain administration of such a huge universe all by Himself. He certainly requires helpers and partners (Allah forbid) Though these infi-dels looked at the world they did not ponder over the majestic status of Allah Almighty. Their example is like that primitive village lad who after seeing the

75. Allah chooses Messengers from amongst the angles and from amongst the men.[153] Undoubtedly, Allah is Hearing, seeing.

153. For the purpose of revelation, some angels brought revelation to the Prophets and these Prophets have received the revelation in order to assist the religion of Allah Almighty and thereby gain lofty status. This tells us that Jinns do not become prophets. This selection is an eternal habit of Allah Almighty. This does not mean that in future we would be selecting them to show the possibility of the continuation of prophethood. Those whom He wanted to choose He had chosen, and those who He had

76. He knows what is before them and what is behind [154] them. And the return of every affair is towards Allah.

154. Therefore, whatever status a person has been given is granted to one who is capable of it and not to one not fit for it. Allah Almighty is totally pure of this. Also, anything bestowed upon those who are not worthy of it will not benefit from it. In fact, it will waste chosen have become Prophets for eternity, because the status and greatness of a Prophet is never abrogated. However, neither the greatness of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is abrogated nor his Shariat. Just as there is no possibility now of selecting an angel for this work, in a like manner there is no possibility of selecting any man for prophethood now. Thus, the Qadyanis cannot use this verse as a proof for continuation of prophethood.

but not according to S*hafaee*.

156. This means excellent manners and correct information. Hence there is no repetition in mentioning worship and good separately.

78. And strive in the path of Allah as is for striving [157]. He has chosen [158] you and has not laid upon you any narrowness [159] in religion, the faith of your father Ibrahim. Allah has named you Muslim in earlier books [160] and in this book too, so that Messenger may be your custodian and witness [161] and that you may be witness against mankind; so establish the prayer and pay the poor-due (zakat) [162] and hold fast the rope of Allah. He is your Protector, and what an Excellent Helper.

وَجَاهِدُوْا فِي اللّٰهِ حَقَّ جِهَادِهٖ ؕ هُوَ اجْتَبٰىكُمْ وَمَا جَعَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الدِّيْنِ مِنْ حَرَجٍ ؕ مِلَّةَ اَبِيْكُمْ اِبْرٰهِيْمَ ؕ هُوَ سَمّٰىكُمُ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ۙ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَفِيْ هٰذَا لِيَكُوْنَ الرَّسُوْلُ شَهِيْدًا عَلَيْكُمْ وَتَكُوْنُوْا شُهَدَآءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ ۚ فَاَقِيْمُوا الصَّلٰوةَ وَاٰتُوا الزَّكٰوةَ وَاعْتَصِمُوْا بِاللّٰهِ ؕ هُوَ مَوْلٰىكُمْ ۚ فَنِعْمَ الْمَوْلٰى وَنِعْمَ النَّصِيْرُ ﴿۷۸﴾ ع ۱۰ ۶ ۱۷

157. Strive against your baser self, your evil friends and bad children to bring them on the Straight Path. And strive against the infidels with the sincerity and correctness of intention, which should not be for mere show and territorial aggrandizement.

158.For the sake of holy war and for ones acts of worship because you are the Ummah-(followers) of the beloved Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

159. As it was placed on the previous Ummahs. You have been given easy and convenient laws. The entire earth is made as a mosque for you, Tayammum with sand is made permissible for you, you are presented with Qasr in your Raka'ats of Fard Salaahs during a journey.

160. From this emerge two issues:

1. The name of the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was also recorded in the previous scriptures as Muslims.
2. Muslims can only be referred to as the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Others, have been called by it in terminological sense. Says Allah Almighty: "Verily, only Islam is the Deen (Religion) before Allah" (S3:V19). It is further stated: "Then O Beloved! by your Lord, they shall not be Muslims until they make you judge in all disputes among themselves" (S4:V65). Besides us, all those who were called Muslims were only in terms of language.

161. At this place the preposition 'on' is not used for loss, and testimony does not denote adverse testimony. In fact, testimony would be in accordance with the Ummah. At the same time it would give verification of the Ummah, that this Ummah is just and not sinful. Hence, the preposition on is used. On the Day of Judgement the Ummah will give testimony in favour of all the previous Prophets, that Oh Allah! these Prophets had conveyed Your message to their people. These people are liars who say that Your Messengers had not come to us. Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will testify that the testimony of these Muslim is correct.

162. So that you would be worthy of giving testimony on the Day of Judgement, because the testimony of the transgressors is not acceptable.

SURAH AL-MOMINOON (The Believers)

(MAKKAN) Revealed Before Hijrah

6 Sections and 118 Verses 1840 Words , 4802 Letters

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

SECTION: 1

قَدْ اَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ ۙ﴿۱﴾

1. Undoubtedly, the believers [1] reached to their goal.

1. They achieved faith and thus became entitled to Paradise and its bounties, deserving of the vision of Allah Almighty. Or, in the world they became people whose Dua was accepted in the court of Allah Almighty and their lives became successful. This tells us that faith and piety are a means of obtaining success of both worlds. Through these the prayers get accepted, calamities are warded off and all the desires are fulfilled. Says Allah Almighty: "And he who fears Allah, Allah will make a way for his deliverance" (S65:V2).

الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ فِيْ صَلَاتِهِمْ خٰشِعُوْنَ ۙ﴿۲﴾

2. Those who beseech in their prayers [2].

2. By weeping in Salaah means, their hearts are filled with the fear of Allah Almighty in the state of Salaah, their limbs are in a state of peace, their sight is rivetted to the place of Sajdah, they do not engage in any useless activity in it, their attention is fully focussed in Salaah. This is the true meaning of establishing Salaah. May Allah Almighty bless us with this type of Salaah.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ مُعْرِضُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳﴾

3. And those who turn away from vain talk [3].

3. This means they do not engage in those types of activities in which there is no worldly or religious benefits. It should be remembered that detrimental activities are futile, and useless activities are absurd. For the sake of developing piety, both of these activities should be avoided.

وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِلزَّكٰوةِ فٰعِلُوْنَ ۙ﴿۴﴾

4. And those who are active in paying Zakaat (poor-due) [4].

4. This means they always give Zakaat.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِفُرُوْجِهِمْ حٰفِظُوْنَ ۙ﴿۵﴾

5. And those who guard their private parts 5.

5. By protecting their private parts means they safeguard themselves from adultery and other sexual activities so much so that they do not cast a glance on the private parts of a stranger.

إِلَّا عَلَىٰٓ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ ۝٦

6. But from their wives and from their lawful handmaids who are the property [6] of their hand for (in their case) they are not to be blamed.

but an independent lady cannot establish such relations with her slave.

6. From this we understand that a believer can cohabit with his legal maid slave

فَمَنِ ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَآءَ ذَٰلِكَ فَأُولَٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ ۝٧

7. Then who so desires anything more than these two, they are the transgressors [7].

We further learn that sodomy, masturbation, etc are all forbidden, because these too, are included in the above concept of "who so desires anything more than these two". One can only fulfil ones carnal desires with ones wife or legal maid slave. All other means to gratify these desires are forbidden. Under helpless condition one should keep fast as this will break the power of lust. Due to masturbation one of the previous Ummahs have been afflicted by Divine punishment (Khazainul Irfaan).

7. From this we learn that Mut'a or tempor ary marriage is forbidden, because any woman married according to Mut'a is neither a maid slave nor a legal wife. Thus, there is no divorce: Khula - divorce obtained on wife's initiative; Zihaar - divorce effected by elevating the wife to the status of a mother, sister, etc. Iela, with such a woman, nor is she entitled for inheritance. Since she has no legal status turning to her is included in "whoso desires anything more than these two". After, Hijrah Mut'a was allowed for a little while, just as permissibility of alcohol was a temporary one.

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمَانَاتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ ۝٨

8. And those who regard their trusts and their covenant [8].

Likewise, the promises that we have made with Allah Almighty, His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and with our fellow human beings should all be fulfilled.

8. In that they never breach the trust of Allah Almighty and their fellow human beings. It should be remembered that our limbs are trusts of Allah Almighty. To commit sins with them is a breach of trust with the Almighty.

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَىٰ صَلَوَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ ۝٩ means to refrain from such sins which cause the ruination of pious deeds. To earn wealth is good, but after earning it, to look after it is much better. May Allah Almighty guide us to safeguard our Salaah, Fasting, Hajj, etc. until the time of death. May these possessions reach their destination safely.

9. And those who are watchful over their prayers [9].

9. There are three ways of safeguarding Salaah: To perform it regularly; to perform it punctually; to perform it accurately; with all its requirements of Wajibaat, Sunnats, Mus'tahabbats. The excellence is not in just performing Salaah, but in establishing it as a pillar of Religion and safeguarding it. In the way of life of a Sufi, the safeguarding of Salaah father Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace).

10. The inheritance of our illustrious

Hence Paradise is only for human beings. Or that believers would take the infidel's share of Paradise as well. It should be remembered that inheritance is the highest means of gaining property which can neither be anulled nor be made null and void, nor be lost. For this reason, the word inheritance is used.

11. Who shall inherit the Paradise, they shall abide therein [11].

الَّذِيْنَ يَرِثُوْنَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ ؕ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ ﴿۱۱﴾

11. By everlasting, means neither will they die nor will they be expelled from it.

12. And assuredly, We made man from the extract of clay [12].

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْاِنْسَانَ مِنْ سُلٰلَةٍ مِّنْ طِيْنٍ ﴿۱۲﴾

12. By this is meant nourishment is made from sand, from the nourishment, blood is made, from blood sperm is made and from sperm the human being is made.

13. Then We made him a drop of water and put it in a strong serenity [13].

ثُمَّ جَعَلْنٰهُ نُطْفَةً فِيْ قَرَارٍ مَّكِيْنٍ ﴿۱۳﴾

13. This means the sperm was placed safely in the womb of the mother. Therein it underwent different changes and it eventually developed into a human.

14. Then We made the drops of water a clot, then We made the clot a piece of flesh, then We made the bones [14], then We developed it into another shape [15]. So blessed is Allah, the Best Creator [16].

ثُمَّ خَلَقْنَا النُّطْفَةَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْعَلَقَةَ مُضْغَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْمُضْغَةَ عِظٰمًا فَكَسَوْنَا الْعِظٰمَ لَحْمًا ثُمَّ اَنْشَاْنٰهُ خَلْقًا اٰخَرَ ؕ فَتَبٰرَكَ اللّٰهُ اَحْسَنُ الْخٰلِقِيْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

14. It should be remembered that the above mentioned changes take place after every forty days. A forty day period is indeed a very blessed thing.

15. Then the soul was breathed into it and granted him the power to hear and see. Allah be praised!

16. Here the word ' made' denotes to give it a form and shape. Says Allah Almighty: Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) has said: "I make a form out of clay for you" (S3:V49). If it is used for creating them, no comparison nor contrast is intended here because to describe the excellence of an object in Arabic this grammatical tense is used. Says Allah Almighty: "Allah is the best of providers" (S63:V11). This verse does not mean there are many creators from whom Allah Almighty is the best. This would amount to absolute polytheism. It is important to respect Arabic idiomatic usage because the Holy Qur'aan has been revealed in this language.

15. Then after this necessarily you are to die [17].

ثُمَّ اِنَّكُمْ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ لَمَيِّتُوْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

17. After completing his life span, and at that point in time the life span of Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) had not been completed, hence he had not experienced death. Age is completed by living in this world. Therefore, the period spent in the mother's womb is not included when calculating a person's age.

ثُمَّ اِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ تُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿۱۶﴾

16. Then you all shall be raised up on the Day of Judgement [18].

in contradiction with the raising from the grave for the purpose of questioning therein.

18. Raised from the grave to go to the place of reckoning for the purpose of receiving reward and punishment. Thus, this verse is not

وَ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعَ طَرَآئِقَ ۖ وَ مَا كُنَّا عَنِ الْخَلْقِ غٰفِلِيْنَ ﴿۱۷﴾

17. And assuredly, We made seven ways [19] above you, and We are not heedless of creation [20].

is not unmindful of him. The servant is far from Him, but He is not, the servant may not reach Him, but He is close to him.

19. This means seven skies in which there are routes for the angels to move to and fro.

20. This tells us that the servant is unmindful of Allah Almighty, but Allah Almighty

وَ اَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءًۢ بِقَدَرٍ فَاَسْكَنّٰهُ فِي الْاَرْضِ ۚ وَ اِنَّا عَلٰى ذَهَابٍۭ بِهٖ لَقٰدِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۸﴾

18. And We sent down water from the heavens according to an estimate [21], then caused it to stay in the earth [22]; and undoubtedly, We are potent to take it away [23].

according to its need and time. Only Allah Almighty, knows what is the actual need is.

21. From this emerge two issues:

1. The original source of water is the sky. Says Allah Almighty: "And in heaven is your provision that you are promised" (S51:V22), while the ocean is its reservoir or treasury. Money is kept in a treasury, but it is not manufactured in it - it is manufactured in the mint.

2. Allah Almighty sends that much rain to every country which would be sufficient for its needs. That is why Bengal receives greater rainfall than Punjab. During every period, "Allah Almighty has been sending rainfall

22. By 'to stay' means neither the water on the earth became dry, nor, did it became bad and unpleasant, but it remained accumulated to fulfil your needs. In many places, only rain water is used for drinking. In fact, water in the wells, too, is accumulated through rain.

23. This means Allah Almighty can make the remainder of the water become dry or become bad, that it is no longer good for drinking. Therefore be grateful to Him.

فَاَنْشَاْنَا لَكُمْ بِهٖ جَنّٰتٍ مِّنْ نَّخِيْلٍ وَّ اَعْنَابٍ ۫ لَكُمْ فِيْهَا فَوَاكِهُ كَثِيْرَةٌ وَّ مِنْهَا تَاْكُلُوْنَ ﴿۱۹﴾

19. Then We created therewith your gardens of dates and grapes for you therein. For you are abundant [24] fruits, and you eat from there [25].

24. There is a Great variety of fruit. This could be the proof of Hazrat Imaam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) to exclude grapes and dates from fruit, because they have nutritional value.Thus, if anyone who has vowed not to eat any will not be committing perjury if he eats grapes or dates because Allah Almighty has separated them from the other fruit.

Marfat.com

25. This means some portions of fruit are eaten by you, while others become fodder for your animals. You throw away their skins and pits. It is subtly hinted that a portion of your wealth should be given away as Zakaat - do not try to eat the entire wealth.

20. And created a tree that springs a forth from the Mount Sinai [26], that grows oil and a sauce for those who eat [27].

وَشَجَرَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ طُوْرِ سَيْنَآءَ تَنْۢبُتُ بِالدُّهْنِ وَ صِبْغٍ لِّلْاٰكِلِيْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

26. This means olive trees because these are more beneficial than others. Although these trees grow in many places its original place of growth is a hill or a mount i.e. Mount Sinai. Hence, this tree and this place has been mentioned with such distinction.

27. Olive oil is used to burn the lamp. It is used for medicine. It is eaten like a curry. These are some of its wonderful qualities.

21. And undoubtedly, in there is a lesson for you. We give you to drink of what is in their bellies [28], and you have in them many [29] benefits and of them you have your food [30].

وَ اِنَّ لَكُمْ فِي الْاَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً ؕ نُسْقِيْكُمْ مِّمَّا فِيْ بُطُوْنِهَا وَ لَكُمْ فِيْهَا مَنَافِعُ كَثِيْرَةٌ وَّ مِنْهَا تَاْكُلُوْنَ ﴿۲۱﴾ لا

28. This means when dry chaff and grass reached its stomach, these helped to produce milk. If this very fodder is eaten by another animal, it will not help to produce milk. This is the Power of Allah Almighty.

29. This means their hair, skin, bones all are beneficial for you.

30. In this there is a hint that some parts of the lawful animal are unlawful like their blood, gall bladder, testicles, etc. because in 'of them' the preposition 'from' is used for part of the limbs. This means that you do eat some limbs of these animals. It could also mean that although external benefits are received from all the animals, from these, only a few are lawful for you.

22. And upon them and on a boat you are borne [31].

وَعَلَيْهَا وَ عَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۲۲﴾ ع ۱۱

31. This means Allah Almighty makes it possible for you to be transported on these animals and ships. By yourself you cannot be transported. It should be remembered that you cannot transport things on every animal. Only camels, oxen, etc. are suitable for this.

SECTION: 2

23. And undoubtedly, We sent Nuh towards his [32] people, and he said, 'O my people! Worship [33] Allah, there is no god for you besides Him. Do you not then fear?

وَ لَقَدْ اَرْسَلْنَا نُوْحًا اِلٰى قَوْمِهٖ فَقَالَ يٰقَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ اَفَلَا تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۲۳﴾

32. At that point in time all human beings were the people of Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) because human beings were very a few. Thus, Hazrat Nooh and Hazrat Adam (On them be peace) were the Prophets of all human beings.

33. This means first accept faith, or do good deeds after accepting faith, because no acts of worship are obligatory upon an infidel prior to faith in Islam.

Marfat.com

فَقَالَ الْمَلَؤُا الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مِنْ قَوْمِهٖ مَا هٰذَآ اِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ ۙ يُرِيْدُ اَنْ يَّتَفَضَّلَ عَلَيْكُمْ ۭ وَلَوْ شَاۗءَ اللّٰهُ لَاَنْزَلَ مَلٰۗىِٕكَةً ۚ مَّا سَمِعْنَا بِهٰذَا فِيْٓ اٰبَاۗىِٕنَا الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ۚ﴿۲۴﴾

24. Then the chiefs of his people who disbelieved said, 'He is not but a man [34] like you, he desires to become superior to you. And if Allah wills, He would have sent down His angels [35], we have not heard this amongst our forefathers [36].

34. This tells us that to regard the Prophets as people like us and to disregard their special attributes is the way of the infidels. It is for this reason that they continued committing infidelity.

35. From this we learn that infidelity destroys one's intelligence. The polytheists were accepting trees, stones, etc. as their deities, yet they were wavering to accept a human being as a Prophet. They were under the impression that a weak creation like man is unable to bear the heavy burden of prophethood.

25. He is not but a mad man, wait, therefore, concerning him for a period [37].

37. In which they could obtain cure for this madness of theirs, and they could refrain

26. Nuh submitted, 'O my Lord, help[38] me for that they belied me.'

38. Helping him by destroying his people. It should be remembered that he did not pray for their faith, but for their destruction because he knew that they would not become believers.

27. Then We sent revelation to him, 'make the [39] ark within Our sight and by Our Command. Then when Our Command comes and the [40]oven boils take into it two of every pair and your [41] family. But those of them against whom the word has [42]already gone forth; and do not talk [43] to me regarding those who are unjust. They shall be surely drowned 44.

They failed to understand that Prophets were sent to propagate the religion of Allah Almighty and that only man was most suitable to propagate to his fellow men as he could mingle with them easily.

36. From this we understand that between Hazrat Idrees and Hazrat Nooh (On them be peace) there is a huge length of time in which the teachings of Hazrat Idrees (On whom be peace) was lost. Otherwise, the people would not have said this.

اِنْ هُوَ اِلَّا رَجُلٌۢ بِهٖ جِنَّةٌ فَتَرَبَّصُوْا بِهٖ حَتّٰى حِيْنٍ ﴿۲۵﴾ from saying these non sensible things.

قَالَ رَبِّ انْصُرْنِيْ بِمَا كَذَّبُوْنِ ﴿۲۶﴾

He himself had said: "They will beget none but an evil doer, an ungrateful" (S71:V27). This tells us that Prophets are fully aware of how people will meet their end i.e. their death.

فَاَوْحَيْنَآ اِلَيْهِ اَنِ اصْنَعِ الْفُلْكَ بِاَعْيُنِنَا وَوَحْيِنَا فَاِذَا جَاۗءَ اَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنُّوْرُ ۙ فَاسْلُكْ فِيْهَا مِنْ كُلٍّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَاَهْلَكَ اِلَّا مَنْ سَبَقَ عَلَيْهِ الْقَوْلُ مِنْهُمْ ۚ وَلَا تُخَاطِبْنِيْ فِي الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا ۚ اِنَّهُمْ مُّغْرَقُوْنَ ﴿۲۷﴾

39. This means construct an Ark in accordance with Our teachings, guidance and safety. It should be remembered that Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) is the inventor of ships. He built this ship in accordance with Divine knowledge and not from manmade knowledge.
40. When water begins to boil by natural means from the oven near the Central Mosque of Kufa, then immediately board the ark, as this is the sign of coming of the deluge.
41. Wife, children, or all the believers. These are the most obvious people in the family.

28. Then when you have firmly seated yourself and those with you[45] in the Ark, then say, 'All praise is to Allah who has delivered us from these unjust people' [46].

45. This tells us that the infidels are worse than the dogs and cats, because permission had been granted for these animals to go on board the Ark, while the same was denied for the infidels.
46. This tells us that the punishment and destruction of the infidels is a blessing from

29. And submit, 'O my Lord, disembark me to a [47] blessed land and You are the Best of those who Disembark.

47. Where sustenance of the body and soul can be obtained. Thus his Dua (prayer) was accepted. Said Allah Almighty: "O Nooh get out from the Ark with peace" (S11:V48). And there was so much blessing in his offspring

30. Undoubtedly, in this necessarily are [48] signs, and verily We were necessarily to test you.

48. For the believers as well as for the infidels. The infidels should understand that the opposition of the blessed Prophets will result in this type of destruction. Believers should firmly believe that devotion to the

42. Your son Kan'aan and his mother Waeela too are among the infidels who would be destroyed.
43. Either Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) had forgotten that Prophet, or had made an error in interpretation by regarding Kan'aan as his family. By this he regarded other people. Thus, he had uttered those words which are mentioned in detail in Surah Hud.
44. This means Oh Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace)! Do not intercede now for any other infidel because the drowning of all of them is fully decided.

فَاِذَا اسْتَوَيْتَ اَنْتَ وَ مَنْ مَّعَكَ عَلَى الْفُلْكِ فَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ نَجّٰنَا مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٢٨﴾

Allah Almighty for the believers, for which they should be grateful. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had offered Sajdah of thanks-giving at the death of Abu Jahl and observed fast on the Day of Ashoorah i.e. 10th Muharram because on this day the Pharoah was drowned.

other benefits of this as well.

of their parents and children. There are many

31. Then after them We produced another generation [49].

49. This means that after Hazrat Nooh (On whom be peace) many nations came into this world to whom Prophets had come, and due to their hostility to these Prophets they had been destroyed by Allah Almighty. Likewise, were different in matters of practical aspects of worship. Any act which is found in the legal code of any Prophet does not become an act of polytheism, because Prophets had not come to teach polytheism.

فَاَرْسَلْنَا فِيْهِمْ رَسُوْلًا مِّنْهُمْ اَنِ اعْبُدُوا اللّٰهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِّنْ اِلٰهٍ غَيْرُهٗ ؕ اَفَلَا تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿۳۲﴾

32. Then We sent to them a messenger from [50] amongst themselves saying that [51], 'Worship Allah, there is no god for you besides Him. Do you then not fear?'

50. Like Hazrat Hud and Hazrat Saleh (On them be peace). The majority of the Prophets were sent to their own people.

51. From this we learn that all the Prophets are unanimous in matters of belief but

وَ قَالَ الْمَلَاُ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَ كَذَّبُوْا بِلِقَآءِ الْاٰخِرَةِ وَ اَتْرَفْنٰهُمْ فِي الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۙ مَا هٰذَاۤ اِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ ۙ يَاْكُلُ مِمَّا تَاْكُلُوْنَ مِنْهُ وَ يَشْرَبُ مِمَّا تَشْرَبُوْنَ ﴿۳۳﴾ ۙ

Looking merely at the casing of the Holy Qur'aan is the work of the neglectful people, while looking at the inside of the casing of the Holy Qur'aan is the habit of the believers. Abu Jahl did not become a Companion, but Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) did. Although both looked at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, Abu Jahl looked at the human side of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم while Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) saw the light enveloped under human form.

33. And the chiefs of those people who disbelieved [52] and belied the presence of the Hereafter and who We gave comfort in the life of the world and said, "He is not but a man53 like you", he eats of what you eat and drinks what you drink [54].

52. From this we learn that those possessing wealth, leadership and worldly respect had always been found to be the enemies of the Prophets. The poor and destitute had formed the bulk of the believers. Even today, this is clearly evident i.e. it is the poor who are generally found to be engaged in doing religious work.

53. This tells us that to regard the Prophets as humans like us and to assess them on just their eating and drinking without understanding their hidden mystical nature, has been the work of the infidels from earliest times. The first person to call the Prophets an ordinary human being was the devil. Thereafter, the infidels continued uttering this.

54. This means that if these were prophets, then like the angels, they would not have had any desire for eating and drinking. They saw the beginning of their eating and drinking, but failed to observe the difference of its ending. The wasp and the honey bee suck the same flower, yet when the nectar of this flower reaches the stomach of the wasp it turns into poison, and in the stomach of the honey bee it becomes honey. In the same way our eating is based on negligence, while the nourishment of the blessed Prophets is the means of augmentation of divine light for them.

34. and if you obey a man like you, then necessarily you are in loss [55].

وَلَئِنْ اَطَعْتُمْ بَشَرًا مِّثْلَكُمْ اِنَّكُمْ اِذًا لَّخٰسِرُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳۴﴾

55. Thus, foolish people saw failure in the obedience to the Prophets and success in the worship of the stones. This tells us that infidels are terribly stupid.

35. Does he promise you that when you will die and will become dust and bones? After this you shall be brought forth again? [56].

اَيَعِدُكُمْ اَنَّكُمْ اِذَا مِتُّمْ وَكُنْتُمْ تُرَابًا وَّعِظَامًا اَنَّكُمْ مُّخْرَجُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳۵﴾

56. By raising them to life from their graves. This tells us that these infidels were burying their dead, and not cremating them as is the practice of the Hindus.

36. It is far away; it is far away, as to what is promised to you [57].

هَيْهَاتَ هَيْهَاتَ لِمَا تُوْعَدُوْنَ ۙ﴿۳۶﴾

57. This means the Qiyamah, etc. about which these Prophets make promises is far beyond our imagination, or is far from taking place. In fact, let alone it occuring, it will never take place.

37. That is not but our life of this world that we die and we [58] live and we are not to be raised up [59].

اِنْ هِيَ اِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا نَمُوْتُ وَنَحْيَا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْعُوْثِيْنَ ۙ﴿۳۷﴾

58. By someone being born, someone experiencing death, which continues to take place at all times. This tells us that the infidels did not believe in the destruction of the soul, that after death the soul is destroyed.

59.Neither in the Hereafter, nor in the world do they have to come in the form of a dog or a cat. This tells us that those people believed in the destruction of the soul, that after death the soul is destroyed.

38. He is not but a man who forged a lie [60] against Allah and we are not going to believe him [61].

اِنْ هُوَ اِلَّا رَجُلٌ افْتَرٰى عَلَى اللّٰهِ كَذِبًا وَّمَا نَحْنُ لَهٗ بِمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۳۸﴾

60. That he made himself known as the Prophet of Allah Almighty, but the information of his resurrection after death, he had linked to Allah Almighty. From this we understand that these infidels were believers in Allah Almighty, they were not atheists.

61. This tells us that by rejecting the Prophet of Allah, acceptance of everything else is not faith. These infidels had not said that we are not accepting Allah Almighty, but had said that we are not bringing faith in the Prophet. As a result of this, they were afflicted with Divine punishment. Shaitaan believes in everything besides the Prophet of Allah, as a result he is an infidel.

destroyed by a terrible storm.

64. The scream of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) destroyed them. This tells us that a human being cannot bear the scream of an angel. If man can die from the crack of lighting and the roar of thunder, then a scream of the angel is much more devastating. From this we learn that the people of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace), the Thamood are denoted. Otherwise, the people from Aad were.

65. From this we learn that the Divine punishment only comes to the infidels after they take the curse of the Prophet. No matter how rebellious they may be prior to this, punishment would not come. Says Allah Almighty: "And We were not to torment them, until We have sent a Messenger" (S17:V15).

68. In that not a single person from those people was spared. Only their tales remained,

45. Then we sent Musa and his brother Haroon with Our signs and a clear authority [70].

ثُمَّ اَرۡسَلۡنَا مُوۡسٰى وَ اَخَاهُ هٰرُوۡنَ ۙ بِاٰيٰتِنَا وَ سُلۡطٰنٍ مُّبِيۡنٍ ۙ﴿۴۵﴾

70. This means miracles like the walking stick and the shining hand. It should be remembered that these miracles were bestowed upon Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) only. But they have been attributed to both these pious persons.

46. To Firawn and his courtiers [71], but they boasted and were nations who were already possessed with dominance [72].

اِلٰى فِرۡعَوۡنَ وَ مَلَا۟ئِهٖ فَاسۡتَكۡبَرُوۡا وَ كَانُوۡا قَوۡمًا عَالِيۡنَ ۚ﴿۴۶﴾

71. This tells us that Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet to all the Egyptians, irrespective of whether they were Israelites, the Coptics, or the magicians. Therefore, even this is mentioned at another place that he was the Prophet of the Israelites.

72. From this we understand that if you are receiving worldly bounties despite the sins, then this is punishment from Allah Almighty. Just as inspite of the pious deeds at times, the coming of worldly calamities is due to the special mercy of Allah Almighty as was the case of the difficulties that came to the blessed Prophets and Saints of Allah.

47. Then they said, 'Shall we believe in two men like ourselves [73] while their people are serving us [74].

فَقَالُوۡۤا اَنُؤۡمِنُ لِبَشَرَيۡنِ مِثۡلِنَا وَقَوۡمُهُمَا لَنَا عٰبِدُوۡنَ ۚ﴿۴۷﴾

73. The intelligence of the infidel is destroyed, for although they had accepted Pharoah, a human being like them to be god they refused to accept Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) as a Prophet, despite seeing the miracles. From this we learn that claim of equality with the Prophet stops the person from accepting faith. First the love and greatness of the Prophet is inculcated in the heart, then the fear of Allah Almighty is instilled in it.

74. From this we learn that the disgrace of the believers is an added cause of the infidels going astray, as they take this as a proof of Islam being false and they are on the path of truth. Therefore one should always offer this Dua: "Oh our Lord, make us not a test for unjust people" (S10:V85).

48. Then they belied both of them and they were from the destroyed ones [75].

فَكَذَّبُوۡهُمَا فَكَانُوۡا مِنَ الۡمُهۡلَكِيۡنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

75. This means the cause of their destruction was due to not believing in these two pious Prophets. This tells us that worldly punishment comes due to disobedience to the Prophets. Until rejectors of Allah Almighty had not become the rejectors of the Prophets, punishment had not come to them.

78. Whose name is Nasira, is found in the locality of Ieliya. This is one of the famous towns of Damascus. Being fed up with the Jews, she moved to this place and stayed there for twelve years with Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace). This place is high above sea level and is thus called elevated land (Tafseer Rohhul Bayaan, etc.). This was a land full of vegetation and had many streams of water.

77. From this we learn that Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) was created without a father, because if he had a father then he would have been linked with his father. Says Allah Almighty: "Call them after their fathers" (S33:V5). For this reason the Holy Qur'aan has not mentioned any woman's name besides that of Sayyeda Mariam.

tells us that to obtain lawful and wholesome sustenance is an act of great worship. This generates a great deal or taste in all acts of worship.

81. This tells us that worship was obligatory upon the blessed Prophets as well. No matter what status and category they may be, no one can be exempted from worshiping Allah Almighty.

79. This means Oh Messengers! Eat and drink to your satisfaction all the tasty and lawful things. To make lawful things unlawful is against piety. However, true piety is abstention from unlawful things. Some people do not eat meat, yet they do not perform their Salaahs, and abstain from lies. These are not Sufis.

80. This means We had given this order to the Prophet of the time during all periods. This are termed as creed. The meaning of piety is not giving up the eating of wholesome and tasty things, but abstention from unlawful deeds.

82. Because all the heavenly religions are common with regard to beliefs. The difference was in the practices. It should be remembered that religion is the name of beliefs, while deeds

86. This means the infidels were deceived. They thought that if infidelity was evil, and if Allah Almighty was displeased with us, then inspite of our infidelity, why has He given us children and weatlh, and how would the Muslims be, generally poor? This makes it seem as if infidelity is a good thing. To this day, the negligent and the infidels fall prey to this type of deception.

a sin as a means of giving up sins is an excellent thing. And not expressing fear after committing a sin, is a criminal act.

91. This tells us that to do good deeds and fear Allah Almighty are signs of excellence of faith. There is no greatness in expressing fear after committing a sin. Even the devil had expressed "Verily I fear Allah, Lord of the Worlds" (S39:V16).Thereafter, he continued sinning. However, to express fear after committing

2. To make an effort to beat one another in doing good deeds, to have a desire and greed for good deeds, too, is an act of goodness.

93. In this verse, two attributes of pious people have been mentioned:
1. To make haste in doing good deeds.

وَلَا نُكَلِّفُ نَفْسًا اِلَّا وُسْعَهَا وَلَدَيْنَا كِتٰبٌ يَّنْطِقُ بِالْحَقِّ وَ هُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُوْنَ﴿۶۲﴾

62. And We do not burden any soul but according to its capacity and with Us is a Book that speaks the truth [94] and they shall not be wronged [95].

should be remembered that the non- acceptance of anyone's good deeds would be due to the person's own negligence. Thus, there can be no objection raised against this verse. From this verse we learn that the minor children of the infidels will not be the inmates of Hell because they had not committed any sin, and meting out punishment without sin is declared unjust by Allah Almighty.

94. By this book is meant The Divine Tablet, or the book of deeds of every person. It should be remembered that speaking the truth by this book is not for the knowledge of Allah Almighty, but it would be for fixing the contents of the doer of the deeds.

64. Until, when We seized their rich people in agony [98] then they began to cry for help.

98. It is apparent that by this punishment mean the punishment of Hell i.e. first Allah Almighty will place the leaders of the infidels in Hell. Those subordinate to them would be engaged in observing, coaxing.

قَدْ كَانَتْ اٰيٰتِيْ تُتْلٰى عَلَيْكُمْ فَكُنْتُمْ عَلٰٓى اَعْقَابِكُمْ تَنْكِصُوْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾ۙ

67. You boast on the service of the sacred place, telling absurd stories they're by night leaving the truth [100].

100. In this verse three sins of the infidels are mentioned: not to listen attentively to the Holy Qur'aan sayings that they are the residents, of the Haram Shareef and as such no punishment would come to us, instead of engaging themselves in the remembrance of Allah Almighty when gathering around the Ka'ba keeping themselves busy in worthless story telling; and making fun of the Holy Qur'aan. From this we learn that staying at sanctified places is not beneficial to the infidels. The devil was staying with the angels, yet he was totally destroyed.

اَفَلَمْ يَدَّبَّرُوا الْقَوْلَ اَمْ جَآءَهُمْ مَّا لَمْ يَاْتِ اٰبَآءَهُمُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾ۙ

102. This tells us that every attribute of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a proof of his Prophethood and the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلمappears before all like a light, all of which will remain until the Day of Judgement. Here, the interrogative is used for negation i.e. means they did recognize.

103. This means that calling of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as mad or something else by the infidels was because they did not like the truth, hence they disliked the one who brought the message of Truth. Here, Truth either means Islam or the Holy Qur'aan,

71. And the truth had followed [104] their desires, then necessarily; the heavens and the earth and whosoever is in them [105] would have been ruined. Nay, but We have brought them that thing in which there was fame for them [106] but they have turned their faces from their own prestige.

is not in accordance with selfish desire, but it is according to viewpoint guided by faith.

105. It is because the infidels desire polytheism, infidelity, injustice, etc. If such laws had been revealed in the Holy Qur'aan and people had indulged in infidelity, polytheism, injustice, disobedience to Allah Almighty by acting upon them, then most certainly Divine punishment would have come down.

106. This means the Holy Qur'aan in which there was fame for them in this world and the Hereafter and would have been entitled for Paradise by acting upon it and would have become world leaders.

104. From this we learn that truth is not within the control of human desire. However, there are some pious servants of Allah Almighty whose opinions and wishes become in accordance with that of the Divine Being like Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) at whose wish about fifteen laws of Shariah have been revealed eg. Purdah or veiling of women, prohibition of alcohol, Maqaame Ebrahim near the Holy Ka'ba being made into a sanctified place for worship, etc. We further learn that there is a big difference i.e. between mere desire and positive opinion. Desire is a name given to selfish wishes, while opinion is a view point guided by faith. Truth had taken wages for propagating the religion of Allah Almighty.

107. This means the reason for the infidels not accepting faith is not that you ask of them wages for accepting it, which they found burdensome, but it is due to their rebelliousness. This tells us that no Prophet contrary, in the Arabic language when one wants to describe anything of absolute excellence then such an expression is used. An example of this is the following verse: "So blessed be Allah, the Best Creator" (S23:V14). The purpose of this verse is not to show excellence in any comparative form, but it is the expression of Divine excellence. Or it could mean that of the means that are available for obtaining sustenance, the most superior is the worship and remembrance of Allah Almighty. The servants of the kings and the wealthy obtain their sustenance by serving them. Hence, these wealthy people have become a means of obtaining their sustenance.

73. And undoubtedly, you call them towards the straight path.

وَ اِنَّكَ لَتَدْعُوْهُمْ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿٧٣﴾

74. And undoubtedly, those who do not believe in the Hereafter, necessarily they are deviated from the straight path [109].

وَ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ عَنِ الصِّرَاطِ لَنٰكِبُوْنَ ﴿٧٤﴾

109. From this we learn that the fear of the Day of Judgement helps the person towards piety while the lack of fear for this Day is the root of all sins.

75. And if We had mercy on them and relieved them of the affliction that has touched them, then necessarily, they would persist in their contumacy going astray [110].

وَ لَوْ رَحِمْنٰهُمْ وَ كَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِمْ مِّنْ ضُرٍّ لَّلَجُّوْا فِيْ طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾

110. Due to the prayer of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, Makkah Muazzamah was plunged into seven years of severe famine, so much so that in order to survive, people were eating the bark of trees. Thereafter, the leader of the city approached Hazrat Abu Sufyaan to plead to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for rain. Hazrat Abu Sufyaan said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم that you claim to be the mercy unto the world, yet you are seeing how the Makkans are being destroyed by hunger. Pray that Allah Almighty ends this famine. Then the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prayed for an end to this famine. Reference to it is made in this verse. Allah Almighty says that these people practice flattery temporarily, and after they are relieved of the hardship, they will not come back to you. From this we learn that even the infidels knew that the prayer of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم can ward off calamities. Thus, any person after claiming to be a Muslim turns away from the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is more foolish than the infidels.

76. And undoubtedly, We seized them in agony, but neither they did humble before their Lord and nor they entreat [111].

وَلَقَدْ اَخَذْنٰهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ فَمَا اسْتَكَانُوْا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَ مَا يَتَضَرَّعُوْنَ ﴿٧٦﴾

111. From this emerge two issues:
1. That to disobey Allah Almighty even at the time of difficulties is a proof of one who is wretched.
2. To turn to the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to seek material benefits only, is an act of selfishness and not piety. Observe, Abu Sufyaan had come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم when in need, but Allah Almighty says he had not submitted himself in obedience.

77. Until when We opened on them the door of any severe torment [112], now that they are lying despaired therein.

112. By this severe punishment is either meant punishment at the time of death, the punishment of the grave, or the future Muslim victories which are a punishment for the infidels. In any case, it denotes the future punishments. They have been linked with the future because they are destined to come, without any doubt. Because this verse is Makkan, it cannot be said with certainty that these verses were revealed after the Battle of Badr.

SECTION: 5

78. And it is He who made for you ears and eyes and a heart [113]. Very little you are grateful [114].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِىْۤ اَنْشَاَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَ الْاَبْصَارَ وَ الْاَفْـِٕدَةَ ؕ قَلِيْلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿۷۸﴾

113. So that you can listen to the Truth, see the Truth, understand the Truth. Those who have not utilised their ears, and their eyes intellect on this, they have not expressed their true gratitude for receiving these bounties.

114. The more the Muslims thank Allah Almighty, it is less in comparison to the intrinsic values of these bounties i.e. one cannot thank Allah Almighty enough for providing us with these bounties. Our entire worship of a lifetime is not enough for thanking our Creator for providing us with just one glass of water. The infidels do not express gratitude at all, because even their outward forms of thanksgiving is not gratitude at all.

79. And it is He who has spread you in the earth [115] and to Him you are to be raised.

وَهُوَ الَّذِىْ ذَرَاَكُمْ فِى الْاَرْضِ وَ اِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُوْنَ ﴿۷۹﴾

115. By 'spread you' is meant Allah Almighty has established all the people in different countries, and granted everyone sustenance according to their needs. Or it could be by increasing the progeny from one person and spreading it. From this we learn that the original place of man is the earth, although there are some who are temporarily dwelling in the heavens, like Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace). But this dwelling is temporary just as Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) was in Paradise, or the going of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to the heavens on the night of Me'raj.

80. And it is He who gives life and causes death 116 and for Him the alternation [117] of night and day. Do you not then understand?

وَهُوَ الَّذِىْ يُحْىٖ وَ يُمِيْتُ وَ لَهُ اخْتِلَافُ الَّيْلِ وَ النَّهَارِ ؕ اَفَلَا تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿۸۰﴾

116. By this is meant Allah Almighty has no associate in giving life and causing death. Raising the dead to life by Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) was by the permission of Allah Almighty. Thus, he was only its apparent cause. There is no inconsistency in the verse.

117. All these changes of hot and cold, of

82. They said, 'what! When we are dead and become dust and bones, shall we indeed be raised up again?[118]

118. This is a question of contradiction i.e. this can never happen because the previous Prophets had made the promise of the Day of Judgement to our forefathers, but it had not

83. Undoubtedly, this was promised to us and before us [119] to our forefathers. This is not but the same former fables.

119. This expression is that of those infidels who were believers in the existence of Allah Almighty. Some among them were atheists as

84. Say you; 'whose is the earth and whatever is in it if you know.'

85. Now they will say to Allah [120]. Say, 'Do you not ponder' [121].

120. This means that these infidels accept all these qualities in respect of Allah Almighty: of territory, of dominio. Hence, they admit this without any hesitation, yet they do not obey Allah Almighty.

121. Why do they not believe in Allah Almighty,

86. Say you, 'Who is the Lord of the seven Heavens and the Lord of the Throne.'

87. Now they will say, 'This is the Grandeur of Allah.' Say you, 'Why do you not fear then?'

88. Say you, 'In Whose hand is the control of every thing [122] and He why do they not declare faith in the Day of Judgement? This tells us that the mere acceptance of the Personality and Attributes of Allah Almighty is not faith, the acceptance of Prophethood is just as important.

management of the world by Himself, He has therefore made them His associates in His management. This belief has been refuted in the following verse: "And none is the supporter of Him because of weakness" (S17:V111). Hence, they have become polytheists. Some infidels believe that Allah Almighty has a wife and children. Also, if anyone after rejecting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم accepts all the attributes of Allah Almighty, he is a similar polytheist as the one who believes in several gods. The infidels of Arabia became infidels due to their beliefs in these things without accepting the medium (WASEELAH) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . The true reality of Faith is that one should believe in the Personality and Attributes through the medium of the Holy Prophetصلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Says Allah Almighty: "It is He Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of Truth" (S48:V28).

that you are the Messenger صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم of Allah, yet they were talking lies. They were not his sincere followers. Likewise, these infidels would verbally say that Allah Almighty is the Creator and the Master, yet inwardly they were liars and rejectors of these attributes of Allah Almighty.

مَا اتَّخَذَ اللّٰهُ مِنْ وَّلَدٍ وَّ مَا كَانَ مَعَهٗ مِنْ اِلٰهٍ اِذًا لَّذَهَبَ كُلُّ اِلٰهٍۢ بِمَا

122. There are many differences between territory and dominion: control over the body is under territory, control of the soul is under dominion; outer control is under territory, inner control is under dominion; control of the property is under territory, control of the creation is dominion. It is for this reason that territory can be proven for the creation as well, but dominion is for Allah Almighty alone. A king has control over jail and death sentence, but life, sickness and cure are in the control of Allah Almighty alone.

123. This means that after acknowledging all these things, they are still polytheists because they accept some servants of Allah Almighty equal to Him. Thus they would be speaking to their idols on the Day of Judgement in the following way. "When we made you equal to the Lord of the worlds" (S26:V98). Also, one of the beliefs was that some servants have a bluff over Allah Almighty. Because Allah Almighty is alone and cannot control the so, each god [127] would have taken whatever he created and eachwould have wished superiority over the other. Glorified is Allah above all that which they attribute Him.

126. The Christians believe that Allah Almighty has a son and the polytheists of Arabia would say that the angels are the daughters of Allah Almighty. In these verses all such beliefs are refuted.

127. This tells us that it is absolutely necessary for God to be a Creator. This means that when a country is distributed amongst a few kings, and had there been a few creators, they would distribute the country made by them. There would not have been one Creator for the entire world. No lord would have been under control of the other, nor would he have been obedient to another, nor would he have been independent.

قُلْ رَّبِّ اِمَّا تُرِيَنِّيْ مَا يُوْعَدُوْنَ ۙ﴿۹۳﴾

93. Say you, 'O my Lord, if you would show me with what they are promised' [128],

128. By this punishment is meant worldly punishment, i.e. if in my presence and during my worldly life, if worldly punishment were to be sent on the infidels, then Oh Allah keep me safe from it.

رَبِّ فَلَا تَجْعَلْنِيْ فِي الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿۹۴﴾

94. O my Lord; then put me not with the unjust people [129].

129. By saving me from the beliefs, doings and punishment of the infidels. This prayer is there to be taught to the Ummah (followers) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Otherwise the blessed Prophets, and especially the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are free of all sins. In his presence no unseen worldly punishment will come to the infidels. Says Allah Almighty: "And Allah is not one to chastise them, while (oh beloved Prophet) you are in their midst" (S8:V33). Thus coming of Divine punishment is just as impossible as there being two Gods.

وَ اِنَّا عَلٰٓى اَنْ نُّرِيَكَ مَا نَعِدُهُمْ لَقٰدِرُوْنَ ﴿۹۵﴾

95. And undoubtedly, We are Powerful to show you that which We are promising to them [130].

130. The purpose of this verse is to show that Allah Almighty has full power to show the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his own life time, punishment on the infidels in the form of Muslim victories over them. Allah Almighty had shown all this to His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Here it does not denote punishment of devastation because regarding this, a promise has been made that this type of punishment would not come to them in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence, this verse in no way can be taken as a proof for possibility of a lie. Stones coming down upon them from an unknown source, mutilation of the facial forms etc. are Divine punishments which did not

اِدْفَعْ بِالَّتِیْ هِیَ اَحْسَنُ السَّیِّئَةَ ؕ نَحْنُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا یَصِفُوْنَ ﴿۹۶﴾

131. This means eradicate their polythesim through Tauheed (Oneness of Allah Almighty), their sins through piety and purity, evil through goodness, darkness through light, objections through proofs, their cruelty through mercy and benevolence, their moral deficiencies through your lofty conduct, ignorance through knowledge, cruelty through Jihad - (Holy War). In short, there is great dimensional scope in this verse. In this word "best" hot, cold, propagation, Jihad - (striving in the path of Allah) severe punishments, etc. all these are included. The operation performed by the surgeon on the patient is the best form of obtaining a cure. Thus, this verse is not abrogated but is firm and everlasting.

132. Between you and Allah Almighty, because they try to prove partners, or children for Allah Almighty and they call you insane or a pretender. Allah Almighty says "We will punish them for this".

97. And say [133] you, 'O my Lord, I seek refuge in you from the evil suggestions of the Satan.

وَ قُلْ رَّبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ هَمَزٰتِ الشَّیٰطِیْنِ ﴿۹۷﴾ۙ

133. In this there is a mystical hint eg. in order to make your Dua effective, you require a pure tongue or the permission of one who is of pure tongue because "I, my Lord, I seek refuge in You" is a prayer, and in 'Say' the hint is to the pure tongue of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم. This means, Oh My Beloved, the prayer should be one instructed by Us, but the tongue should be yours. The bullet fires effectively from a rifle.

98. And O my Lord; I seek refuge in You lest they come to me [134].

وَ اَعُوْذُبِكَ رَبِّ اَنْ یَّحْضُرُوْنِ ﴿۹۸﴾

134. From this we learn that through the bounty and blessings of Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is fully protected from the temptations and evil suggestions of the devil. Also, the devil is out of bounds from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم because Allah Almighty has taught him this prayer which the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم asked, and it was accepted. Furthermore, even the greatest of person should not regard himself safe from the devil. When the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم sought the refuge from the devil, then who are we?

99. Till when death 135 comes to anyone of them, he says that, 'O my Lord; send me back [136].

حَتّٰۤی اِذَا جَآءَ اَحَدَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ قَالَ رَبِّ ارْجِعُوْنِ ﴿۹۹﴾ۙ

135. This means that the infidel remains firm on his infidelity until death. At the time of death he expresses a desire to return to the world, which is not fulfilled. This tells us that a believer does not show the desire to come back to the world, besides the martyrs whose desire is to return once again to the world to fight for the cause of Allah Almighty as is found in Hadith Shareef.

136. Here, the plural form is used for the 100. Happily, now I may earn some good in that what I have left behind [137]. Never, this is only a word which he utters [138]. And in front of them is a barrier until the Day when they shall be raised [139].

137. By this it is meant that world, or the wealth, or children i.e. whatever deficiencies I had left behind in your life, your wealth or your children, I would like to rectify that.

138. But this desire of his will not be fulfilled. After death no one comes back for performing deeds. The raising of people to life by Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace), while Hazrat Uzair's (On whom be peace) coming back to life is not included in this. His returning to the world was not for the desire of doing good deeds again, but it was done by Allah Almighty to show His power.

139. Barzakh is the name given to the period after one experiences death, until the resurrection on the Day of Judgement. This is a cover which prevents the person from returning to the world.

140. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم geneology is excluded from it. The geneology of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will be of benefit for the believers as is recorded in authentic Ahadith (DARRUL MUKHTAR). In fact, on the Day of Judgement, after the calm is restored, the closely related believers, too, would be interceding.

Minor children, pious parents, religious mentors, the teachers, etc. would be interceding for their dear ones. Says Allah Almighty: "Firm friends shall be foes to one another on that day, but the God-fearing" (S43:V67). It is further said: "We joined them with their offspring" (S52:V21).

142. This means the infidels who never had any good deeds, or they had but they were not accepted, like the charities of the infidels, etc.
143.From this we learn that there would be weighing in for some of the infidels. At another place it is said: "And We shall not establish any weight for them on the Day of Judgement" (S18:V105). By this it is meant some other infidels. Or, this verse could mean that the good deeds, charities, etc will be weightless - they would be light, because the weight of the good deed is due to faith and sincerity.

104. The flame of the fire shall smite their faces and they shall glower therein [144].

تَلْفَحُ وُجُوْهَهُمُ النَّارُ وَ هُمْ فِيْهَا كٰلِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۴﴾

144. From this we learn that the fire of Jahannam will not be able to disfigure the face of the believers, it will not be able to burn the parts of Sajdah, especially as is reported in Hadith Shareef. Here, the burning of the face, etc. is declared as the punishment for the infidels.

105. Were not My signs recited to you, you then used to belie [145] them?

اَلَمْ تَكُنْ اٰيٰتِیْ تُتْلٰى عَلَيْكُمْ فَكُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۵﴾

145. This means the burning of the face is the punishment for your infidelity and rejection of faith.

106. They will say, 'O our Lord; our misfortunate overcame us and we were people misguided'.

رَبَّنَآ اَخْرِجْنَا مِنْهَا فَاِنْ عُدْنَا فَاِنَّا ظٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۱۰۷﴾

146. The inmates of Hell would be calling upon Malik, the gate keeper of Hell for forty years. Thereafter, in reply, he would tell them to stay in Hell. Then they would call upon Allah Almighty for a period of double the lifespan of the world, to which they would receive the reply which is stated in the following verse. The life span of the world is three hundred and sixty thousand years (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

108. The lord will say, 'remain lying [147] despite therein and speak not to me.

قَالَ اخْسَـُٔوْا فِيْهَا وَ لَا تُكَلِّمُوْنِ ﴿۱۰۸﴾

147. The following verse: "And the praying of the infidels is not but in wandering" (S40:V50), could be a commentary of the verse under dis-discussion, i.e. in the Hereafter, the prayers of the infidels would be in vain, as they have no credence, but some of their prayers are answered in this world. The devil's prayer for the extension of life was granted with some modification.

109. Undoubtedly, a group [148] of My bond-men used to say. 'O our Lord;

148. These are those pious believers who despite being pious would look upon themselves as sinners and would seek forgiveness from Allah Almighty.

149. This means that when some of Our servants were seeking forgiveness in Our court, as sinners, although they were pious, you were mocking at their prayer. From this Dua we learn that we should offer prayer in the court of Allah Almighty through the medium of our faith as it appears from "we believe". What it means is "Oh Allah we are sinners, but not rebels. We are believers. Through the blessing of our faith forgive us."

110. 'Then you made them a laughing stock [150], until in making them such, you forgot [151] My remembrance and at them you used to laugh',

فَاتَّخَذْتُمُوْهُمْ سِخْرِيًّا حَتّٰٓى اَنْسَوْكُمْ ذِكْرِىْ وَ كُنْتُمْ مِّنْهُمْ تَضْحَكُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۰﴾

150. From this we understand that to make fun of the pious is not an ordinary but a severe form of infidelity, because this leads to the negligence of the heart as a result of which a person would never worship Allah Almighty. This type of crime is unpardonable, and Allah Almighty takes severe retribution for this. This verse was revealed against those infidels of Quraish who were making fun of the poor Companions. Hazrat Ammaar, Hazrat Yaseer, Hazrat Bilal (May Allah be pleased with them).

151. This means you were so engrossed in making fun of them that you were unable to remember Allah Almighty. Thus, these pious people became a means of your negligence because of your maliciousness. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. These pious servants remind you about the remembrance of Allah Almighty.

111. Undoubtedly, this day I recompensed [152] them for their patience that they alone are triumphed'.

اِنِّىْ جَزَيْتُهُمُ الْيَوْمَ بِمَا صَبَرُوْٓا ۙ اَنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْفَآئِزُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۱﴾

152. That type of compensation which is beyond your imagination. For this reason, full description of the nature of recompense is not given.

112. Allah said, ' how long did you stay in the earth by numbers of years [153].

قٰلَ كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ فِى الْاَرْضِ عَدَدَ سِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۱۲﴾

153. Allah Almighty would say this to the infidels. It should be remembered that the infidels were stopped from indulging in conversation of apologies. This conversation is one of rebuke and censure, hence it does not contradict the previous verse.

113. They said, 'We stayed for a day in the earth or part [154] of day, therefore ask those who count [155].

قَالُوْا لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا اَوْ بَعْضَ يَوْمٍ فَسْـَٔلِ الْعَآدِّيْنَ ﴿۱۱۳﴾

154. Because the period of comfort seems very little. The world was a place of comfort

155. This means ask these angels who had been appointed to record our ages and deeds.

قٰلَ اِنْ لَّبِثْتُمْ اِلَّا قَلِيْلًا لَّوْ اَنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۴﴾ then you would have come from there, doing good deeds.

اَفَحَسِبْتُمْ اَنَّمَا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ عَبَثًا وَّاَنَّكُمْ اِلَيْنَا لَا تُرْجَعُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۵﴾

infidels who were rejectors of the Day of Judgement, like the common polytheist, or to those infidels, who after believing in the Day of Judgement, were not preparing themselves for it, like the Jews, Christians, etc.

فَتَعٰلَى اللّٰهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ ۚ لَاۤ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ ۚ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيْمِ ﴿۱۱۶﴾ to His creation. Do not call upon Him as the Lord of the infidels, but instead as Lord of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

وَ مَنْ يَّدْعُ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ ۙ لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهٗ بِهٖ ۙ فَاِنَّمَا حِسَابُهٗ عِنْدَ رَبِّهٖ ؕ اِنَّهٗ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْكٰفِرُوْنَ ﴿۱۱۷﴾ polythiesm. Otherwise, the infidels were uttering much intellectual nonsense on polytheism, which they are presenting as proof.

162. This means the true punishment for polytheism would be received by the polytheists only after the Day of Judgement, after the reckoning, the difficulties of the world and grave are not the actual punishment for polytheism. The severity of the cell is not part of the punishment, the period of jail only begins after the completion of the case.

for the infidels. Or, in contrast with the life of Hell, the worldy life would be felt very little.

114. Allah said, 'you stayed not but little, if you would have knowledge'.[156]

156. This means if you had been aware of this in the world, that the life of the world in comparison to that of the Hereafter is very little,

115. Do you then think that We made you in vain [157] and you are not to return [158] to Us?

157. From this we learn that by not worshipping Allah Almighty is regarding oneself as useless, because the true purpose of our life is the worship of Allah Almighty.

158. This address would be made to these

116. Then EXALTED HIGH is Allah, the True King, there is no god except He; the Lord of the Honoured Throne [159].

159. Although Allah Almighty is the Lord of every particle of this world, the demand of respect is that His Divinity should be connected 117.And whosoever worships any other god beside Allah [160], for whom he has no proof [161], then his account is with his Lord [162]. Undoubtedly, the infidels have no rescue.

160. This verse is a commentary of all those verses in which to call upon all those besides Allah Almighty has been prohibited. This means do not call those other than Allah, as Allah Almighty, and do not worship them. Otherwise, Allah Almighty Himself has called upon His servants and has given them permission to call upon these pious servants. How can mere calling be polytheism.

THE LIGHT(AL-NOOR)

(MADANI) Revealed After Hijrah

9 Sections and 64 Verses1

1. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) wrote to the people of Kufa to teach Surah Noor to their womenfolk. Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said, do not allow your womenfolk to sit on the balcony without purdah, teach them to write, to use the spinning wheel and teach them Surah Noor (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan,etc), because in this Surah are found laws pertaining to modesty and chastity. Therefore learning of this Surah is emphasized.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

1. This is a chapter (surah) [2] that We have sent down, and We have made obligatory [3] its commandments, and We have sent down bright signs in it so that you may take heed.[4]

سُوْرَةٌ اَنْزَلْنٰهَا وَ فَرَضْنٰهَا وَ اَنْزَلْنَا فِيْهَآ اٰيٰتٍۢ بَيِّنٰتٍ لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُوْنَ ①

2. Collection of these verses which has been given a name is called the Surah. The Makkan Surahs were revealed before the Hijrah (Migration) while the Madinite Surahs were revealed after Hijrah.

3. On the believers because most laws of this Surah are not for the infidels.

4. This means, pertaining to this form, the clear verses concerning the important laws have been revealed by means of which almost the entire penal system is established eg. punishment for committing adultery, and accusing an innocent person of adultery and matters relating to it.

2. The adulteress and adulterer, then flog each [5] of them with hundred [6] stripes, and you should not be compassionate for them in the religion of Allah if you believe in Allah and the Last Day [7], And let a party of Muslims [8] be present at the time of their punishment.

اَلزَّانِيَةُ وَ الزَّانِيْ فَاجْلِدُوْا كُلَّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا مِائَةَ جَلْدَةٍ ۖ وَّ لَا تَاْخُذْكُمْ بِهِمَا رَاْفَةٌ فِيْ دِيْنِ اللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ ۚ وَلْيَشْهَدْ عَذَابَهُمَا طَآئِفَةٌ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ②

5. This verse is taken as a proof by the Hanafis that the punishment of this type of adultery is only a hundred lashes, and banishment for one year is not included in this penal ordinance. In those Ahadith in which there is an order of banishment of a year, is a punishment action i.e. if the judge considers it appropriate, he could mete out this punishment. Hence, there is no inconsistency between the verse and the Hadith. In this verse religious legal limits are mentioned, while in the Hadith the punitive action is described.

6. In it address is made to the authorites because the religious legal system is established and maintained by these authorities only. Here by adulterer and adulteress is meant those who are not chaste because the punishment of a chaste adulteress is stoning to death. A chaste person is that person who is free, a believer, has come of age, and has had sexual intercourse with his wife through legal marriage.

7. This means in maintaining legal punishments do no show anyone favouritism, nor pardon a weak person out of pity. Neither should you be over awed by a person of social standing and thereby allow him to go free. This tells us that showing favouritism in meting out religious punishments is the way of the infidels. In addition, this type of favouritism will increase the crime rate in the world, bringing about instability in the country's law and order.

8. This means punish the criminals in public so that it becomes an object lesson for the onlookers.

3. The adulterer should not marry but an adulteress or an associates [9] and marry not an adulteress but an adulterer or associator, and this deed is forbidden to the believers.[10]

اَلزَّانِیْ لَا یَنْكِحُ اِلَّا زَانِیَةً اَوْ مُشْرِكَةً ۫ وَّ الزَّانِیَةُ لَا یَنْكِحُهَاۤ اِلَّا زَانٍ اَوْ مُشْرِكٌ ۚ وَ حُرِّمَ ذٰلِكَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِیْنَ ۝۳

9. This verse is abrogated in two ways. First, in the early days of Islam, marrying an adulteress was forbidden, then this verse: "And perform marriage of those among you who have not been married" (S24:V32) (Roohul Ma'ani, Khazainul Irfaan), abrogated it. Second now a believer cannot enter into marriage with a polytheist. Says Allah Almighty: "And marry not idolateresses until they accept faith" (S2:V221).

10. Reason for its revelation:
So poor immigrants (Muhajereen) had shown inclination to marry the wealthy immoral idolatresses of Madina in order to benefit from their wealth and that these women coming into marriage with them may repent from their evil ways. In response this verse was revealed in which they were stopped from this (Roohul Ma'ani, Khazainul Irfaan).

4. And those who blame chaste women, then bring not four witnesses flog them with eighty [11] stri pes and never accept any evidence of theirs, and it is they that are the dis-obedient. [12]

وَ الَّذِیْنَ یَرْمُوْنَ الْمُحْصَنٰتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ یَاْتُوْا بِاَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَآءَ فَاجْلِدُوْهُمْ ثَمٰنِیْنَ جَلْدَةً وَّ لَا تَقْبَلُوْا لَهُمْ شَهَادَةً اَبَدًا ۚ وَ اُولٰٓىِٕكَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ۙ۝۴

11. This means that any person who slanders a chaste Muslim lady by saying that she has committed adultery, and fails to produce four eye witnesses shall be given eighty lashes for making this false accusation. The accusation could be explicit i.e. such and such a lady had committed adultery, or implicit i.e. the child of such and such a lady is illegitimate. It should be rememberd that if three people say that they had seen such a lady committing adultery, they too would be given this punishment, because four witnesses have not testified this. Even if two thousand people were to make this allegation without an eye witness, then all would be liable to this punishment as well.

Marfat.com

12. From this verse a number of issues emerge:
i. The proof of adultery would be determined by four witnesses all of whom have to be eye witnesses.
ii. If any person who accuses a chaste woman of adultery is unable to prove it, he is liable for HADDE QAZAF i.e. punishment for false accusation.
iii. This punishment constitutes of eighty lashes.
iv. Such a slanderer's testimony will not be accepted in future, he will always be regarded as a reprobate witness.
v. Such a person is a transgressor.
vi. In respect of adultery the testimony of two men would be accepted.
It should be remembered that all these laws pertain to accusing a chaste woman. A chaste woman is she who has reached the age of majority, is a believer, is independent and intelligent and is free of adultery. Any woman who does not possesses all these qualities, her accuser of adultery would not be liable for HADDE QAZAF.

5. But those who repent thereafter act aright, undoubtedly, then Allah is forgiving, Merciful. [13]

إِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ تَابُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ وَ اَصْلَحُوْا ۚ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۝٥

13. This means if the slanderer repents after receiving his punishment, he will no longer be regarded as a transgressor. However, his testimony would not be accepted. 'But those' is linked with 'disobedient', while regarding testimony it has been stated that their testimony should never be accepted, i.e. neither before repentence nor after it.

6. And those who malign [14] their own wives and they no evidence except themselves, then the evidence of any such of them is that he should bear witness [15] four times in the name of Allah that he is truthful.

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَرْمُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهُمْ شُهَدَآءُ اِلَّآ اَنْفُسُهُمْ فَشَهَادَةُ اَحَدِهِمْ اَرْبَعُ شَهٰدٰتٍۭ بِاللّٰهِ ۙ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ۝٦

14. Of adultery, or say that I have seen my wife committing adultery, or say that the child she is carrying is not mine, but it is illegitimate.

15. This means to say I bear witness about Allah would be equivalent to an established testimony.

7. And fifthly this that the curse of Allah be upon him if he be a liar.

وَالْخَامِسَةُ اَنَّ لَعْنَتَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ اِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ۝٧

8. And the punishment [16] shall avert from the wife if she bears witness four times in the name of Allah that the man is a liar. [17]

وَ يَدْرَؤُا عَنْهَا الْعَذَابَ اَنْ تَشْهَدَ اَرْبَعَ شَهٰدٰتٍۭ بِاللّٰهِ ۙ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ۝٨ ۙ

16. Here punishment denotes the punishment of adultery i.e. RAJAM or stoning to death, while testimony does not indicate religious testimony, but to take an oath four times on one's chastity and purity. From the style of the verse it can be seen that these oaths of the woman will only be useful to save her from the punishment. These oaths will have no bearing on the man.

17. In making this accusation.

are entitled to be witnesses and the wife demands her right, then LEAAN or oath of condemnation, becomes obligatory upon the husband and if he refuses to take this, he would be inprisoned until such time that he takes this oath or admits that he is a liar. If he admits his lie, HADDE QAZAM (eighty lashes) is the obligatory punishment to be meted out to him.

SECTION 2

اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ جَآءُوْ بِالْاِفْكِ عُصْبَةٌ مِّنْكُمْ ؕ لَا تَحْسَبُوْهُ شَرًّا لَّكُمْ ؕ بَلْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ ؕ لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مِّنْهُمْ مَّا اكْتَسَبَ مِنَ الْاِثْمِ ۚ وَالَّذِيْ تَوَلّٰى كِبْرَهٗ مِنْهُمْ لَهٗ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۝١١

11. Undoubtedly, those who have brought this big slander [21] are a party [22] from among you. Consider it not an evil for you; rather it is good for you. [23] For every one of them is the sin that he has earned, 24 and among them he who took the greater share, [25] for him is the mighty torment. [26]

18. It should be remembered that cursing any Muslim by name or offering prayer of wrath for him is prohibited with the exception of mutual cursing in the case of adultery. No matter how sinful a Muslim may be he does not deserve to be cursed.

19. This is called mutual cursing. If the husband accuses his wife of adultery, and both

20. Then you would have fallen in difficulty and you would not have known the

21. Here by 'big slander' is meant accusation levelled against Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her). Because she is the mother of all the believers, and slander against the mother is the highest form of depravity for the son, hence this is called big slander. The gist of this incident is as follows. In the Fifth Hijri the Battle of Banu Mustaliq took place in which Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) was with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. On returning to Madina, the Muslim soldiers stopped at one place. Before dawn, Hazrat Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) went to relieve herself at a secluded spot where her necklace broke. Due to the search for the necklace, there was a delay in her return. While this was happening, the soldiers set off without her because they were unaware of her problem. When she came back and found that the soldiers had departed she sat at that spot. Hazrat Sufwaan was kept behind to pick up all the belongings of the soldiers which may have been left behind, as was the custom in those days. When Hazrat Sufwaan reached the spot and saw Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) he cried out "To Allah we belong" as she had dozed off. On hearing the cry, she got up. Hazrat Safwaan then made his camel sit down for her to ride on.

Marfat.com

Then holding its reins, he walked in front of the camel until he caught up with the army. On seeing this, the evil-minded hypocrites began to wag their tongues in accusation. Some simple minded Muslims became party to this deception. However, Bibi Ayesha (May Allah be pleased with her) was totally unaware of this slander and had been ill for a month. During this period, she came to know of this slander from Umm Mastah, which accentuated her illness, and she went back to her parents' house. She cried so much, that she could not sleep for nights. These verses were revealed on this occasion in which Allah Almighty Himself testifies to her chastity and purity. Even prior to the revelation of these verses, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the believers were fully satisfied about Hazrat Ayesha's (May Allah be pleased with her) purity and innocence. Thus the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had said that he is fully aware of the purity and chastity of these wives of his (Bukhari Shareef). Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) had said that if Allah Almighty could safeguard the pure body of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from flies because they sit on filth, then how could He not save him from evil women. Hazrat Uthman Ghani (May Allah be pleased with him) says that Allah Almighty had prevented the shadow of the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) from falling on the ground so that no foot could step upon it, then how is it possible that He would not safeguard the honour of his wife? Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) states that when the blood of a lice had touched him, the Holy Prophet was asked to remove his blessed sandals, then how would He tolerate the impurity of his wife? In a like manner sincere believing men and women had sung many praises of her purity and honour (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan, Roohul Ma'ani).

12. Why it did not happen when you had heard it that the Muslim men and Muslim women would have thought good of their own people, and say, ' this is the manifest slander'. [27]

27. In it those people are addressed who had remained silent out of hesitation over this incident. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the sincere believers did not have any anxiety or worry about it, otherwise, Allah forbid, they, too, would have been included in this censure. We further learn, its false slander was not something concealed, but it was obvious which Allah Almighty has referred to as 'manifest-open'. Thus, how could it have remained concealed from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

22. Those believers who accept the words of mere Kalima reciters due to national affinity, eg. the hypocrites, of those through religious affinity who are in your community, are like those Muslims who had fallen prey to the deception of the hypocrites at the time of this incident.

23. Because you had become aware of the many issues concerning slander, and due to the blessings of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her), the honour of all Muslim women is safeguarded.

24. This means everyone will be punished according to his deeds. Someone may have slandered, someone may have remained silent, someone had laughed at hearing something doubtful. In short, a person would be punished in accordance with his sin.

25. It was Abdullah ibn Ubay bin Solool, the hypocrite, who had created this storm and given it publicity.

26. In this world and the Hereafter. In this world he would be given eighty lashes, and his testimony would no longer be accepted. In the Hereafter, he would be punished in Hell. This tells us that insulting the dignity of the pious people results in severe punishment.

13. Why did they not bring four witnesses against it ? Therefore since that did not indeed liars [28], in the sight of Allah.

28. This means the manifest and the concealed, both are liars, and if they had obtained any testimony they would not have remained manifest liars. Although in reality, all of them and their witnesses were proven liars. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

وَ لَوْ لَا فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ رَحْمَتُهٗ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَ الْاٰخِرَةِ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْ مَآ اَفَضْتُمْ فِيْهِ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿١٤﴾

14. And if the grace of Allah and His mercy had not been upon you, in this world and Hereafter, then a mighty torment would have touched you for the muttering into which you plunged. [29]

29. In it address is made to those who had joined in the slander or had remained silent out of hesitation. This means you shall have the respite for repentance, and the promise of forgiveness after offering repentance. For this reason you have been saved from the punishment.

This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his righteous Caliphs never hesitate or worry otherwise these pious personages, too, would have been included in this censure. Allah forbid!

اِذْ تَلَقَّوْنَهٗ بِاَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَتَقُوْلُوْنَ بِاَفْوَاهِكُمْ مَّا لَيْسَ لَكُمْ بِهٖ عِلْمٌ وَّتَحْسَبُوْنَهٗ هَيِّنًا ۖ وَّ هُوَ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿١٥﴾

15. When you brought such talk on your tongues hearing from one another, and uttered with your mouths that of which you had no knowledge [30] and thought it light, while it was great [31] in the sight of Allah.

30. In that neither did you see any evil, nor heard it from the one who had seen it. What has been said was said out of mere suspicion.
31.From this we learn that sin and error had been committed by some Companions but they never remained with it. Thus this is true that every Companion is just, and everyone has said that about them: "And Allah has promised good to all" (S4:V95). Allah Almighty further says: "Allah is pleased with them and they with Allah" (S58:V22). It is obvious that Allah Almighty will not be pleased with the transgressors, nor does He make a promise of Paradise for them. Furthermore, the chastity of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) is not something hidden but it is proven by concrete testimony. This was such a clear testimony, that those who were doubting it were censured, like Hazrat Hassan, etc.

وَ لَوْ لَآ اِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوْهُ قُلْتُمْ مَّا يَكُوْنُ لَنَآ اَنْ نَّتَكَلَّمَ بِهٰذَا ۖ سُبْحٰنَكَ هٰذَا about such things? Allah, Hollowed be you; this is great slander.[32]

بُهْتَانٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۱۶﴾

32. From this we learn the accusation of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqa (May Allah be pleased with her) becoming a slander became totally apparent. Therefore, those who did not call this accusation as slander, and those who hesitated in this matter were reprimanded. Thus, how could the purity and chastity of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) have remained concealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is totally exempted from this order. Because this was his household matter. This reprimand is for others. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not have the slightest doubt in Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah, (May Allah be pleased with her), but he remained silent until the coming of the revelation. If he had given the information about Hazrat Ayesha's innocence based on his own knowledge then the hypocrites would have said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was siding with his own family. For this reason Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) also maintained silence. In fact, even Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her), herself, did not disclose her innocence to the people, although she was certain about her purity and chastity.

17. Allah admonishes you now never repeat like of it if you believe. [33]

يَعِظُكُمُ اللّٰهُ اَنْ تَعُوْدُوْا لِمِثْلِهٖۤ اَبَدًا اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۷﴾

33. It should be remembered that regarding this matter of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) there were three groups of believers. The one became party to the slander, the second group remained hesitant, while the third group openly said that this is an obvious lie, like Hazrat Alli (May Allah be pleased with him) and the rest of the Rightly Guided Caliphs (May Allah be pleased with them). The first group was punished, the second group was reprimanded and the third group was showered with mercy and blessings. If the Holy Prophet too (May Allah forbid!) had remained doubtful as is claimed by the Wahabis, then he would have been included in the second group (May Allah protect us). This tells us that the Holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was fully aware of his wife's total innocence, but he did not disclose it immediately because it was his personal matter, as was the case with Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique as it was the matter concerning his beloved daughter. From this we learn that if any person now accuses Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her), or remains in doubt about her purity, he is not a believer, but an infidel.

18. and Allah explains to you His signs clearly [34]. And Allah in Knowing, wise.

36. Then oh you slanderers! you would have plunged into such exemplary punishment which till today had not come to anyone, because you had levelled accusations against the unique, pure and chaste wife of a unique Prophet.

SECTION 3

21. O believers; follow not the footsteps of the devil [37] (Satan). And whoever follows the footsteps of the devil (Satan) then he will indeed tell you only indecency and evil [38] things. And if there had not been the grace of Allah and his mercy upon you, no one of you could have ever been cleansed, [39] yes Allah cleanses whosoever He like. And Allah in Hearing, Knowing.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّبِعُوْا خُطُوٰتِ الشَّيْطٰنِ ؕ وَ مَنْ يَّتَّبِعْ خُطُوٰتِ الشَّيْطٰنِ فَاِنَّهٗ يَاْمُرُ بِالْفَحْشَآءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ ؕ وَ لَوْ لَا فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ رَحْمَتُهٗ مَا زَكٰى مِنْكُمْ مِّنْ اَحَدٍ اَبَدًا ۙ وَّلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُزَكِّيْ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۱﴾

37. This means do not do deeds like that of the devil, because accusing the chaste women, and to create anxiety and hesitation about the pure Mothers of the Believers is a special mischief of the devil.

38. This tells us that the one who rejects the greatness of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) is the follower of the devil, is totally deprived, wicked and evil. Can there be a more shameless person then the one who accuses his mother?

39. By this is meant that the ones who made accusations and the ones who were hesitant would not have been given respite to repent, or that none of their repentance would have been accepted.

22. And swear not those among you who are men of excellence [40] and of means [41] against to the kinsmen and to the needy and to the emigrants in the way of Allah; and let them forgive and overlook. Do you not love that Allah should forgive [42] you? And that he will have no dealing with Mastah because the latter was party to the slander against Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) Hazrat Mastah was a poor emigrant and a relative of Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) and was living on the allowance given to him by Hazrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him). But, inspite of this, he had joined in the slander against Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) for which he was given eighty lashes. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) is told in this verse: "Oh Abu Bakr! you are what you are and he is what he is. Do not stop the allowance you give to Mastah, because you give him this for the pleasure of Allah Almighty".

40. From this we learn that the status of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) is great in the sight of Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in his last stages had chosen him to lead the congregation in Salaah. Only the most superior person is chosen as Imaam. Furthermore, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) is the greatest person after the Prophets in the entire creation of Allah Almighty because Allah Almighty had emphatically called him as the possessor of complete excellence without any restriction. Thus, he is a person of total greatness and piety. It should be remembered that the address in 'From you' is made to the household of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and his noble Companions so that you should understand that Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique is superior to all of them. Remember, also that 'of means' did not come after 'from you' Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique was not wealthier than all the Companions.

41. This means Allah Almighty had blessed him with elegant virtues of this world and the Hereafter.

Reasons for its revelation:

This entire verse was revealed in favour of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) when he had taken an oath

42. From this we learn that even a major sin does not take a believer out of the fold of Islam. Furthermore, you should show kindness to your sinful brother. Also, that Allah Almighty makes a recommendation on behalf of His servant. In addition, Allah Almighty is kind to that person who is kind to his servant.

43. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم recited this verse to Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him) he said that it is certainly my desire that Allah Almighty grants me forgiveness. Saying this, he re-started the allowance of Hazrat Mastah and gave atonement for his vow.

إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَرْمُوْنَ الْمُحْصَنٰتِ الْغٰفِلٰتِ الْمُؤْمِنٰتِ لُعِنُوْا فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ ۠ وَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ﴿۲۳﴾

23. Undoubtedly, those who malign, unaware chaste believing women, are cursed in the world and the hereafter. And for them is the mighty torment.[44]

pure. From this we learn to accuse pure believing women of indecency is a major sin.

44. By this is meant either that the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are pure, or all believing women are chaste and

45. Before their hearts are sealed, and after that their hearts will be sealed. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

25. On the day Allah will give them true [46] Punishment in full, and they will know that Allah alone is the manifest truth.

يَوْمَئِذٍ يُّوَفِّيْهِمُ اللّٰهُ دِيْنَهُمُ الْحَقَّ وَيَعْلَمُوْنَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿٢٥﴾

46. To which they would become legally entitled. This tells us that in Arabic the word DEEN is used to denote punishment as well. It is for this reason that QIYAAMAH is called Day of Judgement.

26. Dirty women are for dirty men and dirty men for dirty women and clean women are for clean men and clean men for clean women [47]: they are free from what they are saying [48] for them is forgiveness and honourable [49] provision.

اَلْخَبِيْثٰتُ لِلْخَبِيْثِيْنَ وَالْخَبِيْثُوْنَ لِلْخَبِيْثٰتِ ۚ وَ الطَّيِّبٰتُ لِلطَّيِّبِيْنَ وَ الطَّيِّبُوْنَ لِلطَّيِّبٰتِ ۚ اُولٰٓئِكَ مُبَرَّءُوْنَ مِمَّا يَقُوْلُوْنَ ؕ لَهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةٌ وَّرِزْقٌ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ ع ٩

47. This means indecent women, indecent habits, indecent conversation, slander, etc are for indecent people. Good people abstain from this.

48. The purpose of the verse is to show that no kind father gets his children married to any evil indecent woman. He gets them married after careful investigation about the character of these women. Thus, if a kind father can do this then how can the Kind Lord get His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم married to any bad woman? Good women are suitable for good men, and bad women are suitable for bad men. Or, it could mean indecent people choose evil habits and decent people choose good habits. This being the case, how then can the mother of the believers, the wife of the Emperor of all Prophets and the beloved daughter of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with him), Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) even intend doing anything evil?

49. From this we understand that Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) is superior to Sayyada Mariam, because the testimony of Sayyada Mariam's chastity is given by Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) while the testimony of Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her) is given by Allah Almighty. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is superior to Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) because Hazrat Yusuf's (On whom be peace) testimony was given by a child while the testimony of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم wife is given by Allah Almighty Himself. Furthermore, Hazrat Ayesha's being an inmate of Paradise is just as certain as the Oneness of Allah Almighty, and the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because this verse implicitly conveys this information of her being a inmate of Paradise. There are thousands of things special about Hazrat Ayesha Siddiqah (May Allah be pleased with her), some of which are as follows:

1. She is the only virgin wife among all the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.
2. She was the most learned, pious and a commentator of the Holy Qur'aan.
3. Hazrat Jibraeel-e-Ameen had brought her image on a silk cloth, and presented it to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saying that she is your wife in this world and the Hereafter.

4. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم breathed his last while resting on her chest.
5. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is buried in her room.
6. Allah Almighty had testified about her chastity..
7. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had received a revelation while resting on her bed.
8. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace would extend greetings to her.)
9. She was born pure and remained pure throughout her life.
10. Until the Day of Judgement her blessed room will remain a place of visit of man, jinn, and angels because this very room has become the Roza-e-Mubarak of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . May Allah Almighty through the medium of this pure chaste and truthful mother bless the sinful children like us. The bad children of good parents do receive forgiveness. "And their father was a noble man" (S18:V82).

27. O believers ! enter not houses other than your own, until you take permission [50] and salute the residents thereof. This is better for you, haply you may be heedful. [51]

50. From this we learn that we should not enter a stranger's house without his consent, even if you get informal permission, or greet loudly, or say AL-HAMDOO LILLAH or SUBHANALLAH. On meeting, first greet, then talk.
51. From this we understand that no one is allowed to enter a Muslim home without permission neither an ordinary person, or a police officer, a king, a spiritual guide nor a beggar. This is a general rule, while entering the abode of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم without permission is not allowed, even for an angel. Says Allah Almighty: "O believers enter not the houses of the Prophet unless you get permission" (S33:V53). The angels, too, are included in this command.

فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدُوْا فِيْهَآ اَحَدًا فَلَا تَدْخُلُوْهَا حَتّٰى يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ ۚ وَ اِنْ قِيْلَ لَكُمُ ارْجِعُوْا فَارْجِعُوْا هُوَ اَزْكٰى لَكُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۲۸﴾

28. But if you find not anyone [52] therein, then also enter [53] them not without the permission of the owners; and if you are told to go back [54], then go back, this is cleaner to you. and Allah knows your deeds.

52. Who would grant you permission to enter.
53. This means do not enter an empty house, unless the owner of the house gives you the permission to enter it.
54. You should neither take offence nor insist on obtaining permission. The author of Tafseer Roohul Bayaan has stated that the reason for the revelation of these verses is that once a lady came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and said sometimes I am in such a state in my house that I dislike seeing anyone.

Marfat.com

Some enter my house under such conditions.

29. There is no sin on you that you enter those houses, which are not specially for anyone's residence [55], and you have discretion [56] to use them. and Allah knows what you disclose and what you conceal.[57]

لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ اَنْ تَدْخُلُوْا بُيُوْتًا غَيْرَ مَسْكُوْنَةٍ فِيْهَا مَتَاعٌ لَّكُمْ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُبْدُوْنَ وَ مَا تَكْتُمُوْنَ ﴿۲۹﴾

55. Reason for its Revelation:
After the revelation of the previous verse, the Noble Companions enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about those guest houses which are built between the holy cities of Makkah and Madina or on the road to Syria, whether these, too, cannot be entered without permission. As a reply, this verse was revealed.These signify guest houses, and public homes, etc.
56. Because these are founded for public use in which one has the right to stay, to bath, to rest, etc.
57. In this there is a hint that one should not frequent these places with any evil intentions. Anyone who goes there with the intention of stealing or seeing strange women shall be punished.

30. order the Muslims men to lower [58] down their sights a little and to guard their private [59] parts. This is cleaner [60] for them, undoubtedly, Allah is Aware of their deeds

قُلْ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ يَغُضُّوْا مِنْ اَبْصَارِهِمْ وَيَحْفَظُوْا فُرُوْجَهُمْ ؕ ذٰلِكَ اَزْكٰى لَهُمْ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا يَصْنَعُوْنَ ﴿۳۰﴾

58. This means to avoid looking at things not permissible to see. It should be remembered that to look at a beardless boy in a sensual way is a sin. To look at the body of a strange woman, too, is a sin. However, a doctor for the sake of medical examination, is allowed to do so, as well as that person who intends marrying a woman, can secretly look at her (Tafseer Madarik, Ahmedi, etc.).
59. By protecting the private parts means protecting oneself from adultery and acts associated with it. He should conceal his nudity from all, besides his wife or personal maid servant.
60. This means to keep your gaze down. To safeguard oneself from erotic places, and to go away from places of slander is an excellent thing.

31. And order [61] the Muslim women to lower down their sights [62] a little and guard their chastity [63] and show not their adornment but as much which is itself apparent [64] and remain putting their head coverings over their bosoms [65]. And disclose not their adornment but to their husbands, or the fathers [66] of their husbands, or to their sons, or the sons of husbands [67] or their brothers or the sons of their brothers or the sons their sisters [68] or the women of their religion [69] or their handmaids who are the property of their hands [70] or servant.s provided they are not men of sexual desire [71] or the private parts [72] of the women; and put not their feet forcibly [73] on the ground that hidden adornment [74] any be known. And repent to Allah, o Muslims [75] all together, haply you may get prosperity.

64. It is stated in Tafseer Ahmadi and Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan that this command is regarding Salaah i.e. when in Salaah a woman is not restricted from concealing her face, her wrists, parts below her ankles. But this does not mean that she should reveal these parts to any strange men. Says Allah Almighty: "And when you ask them anything of use, ask it of them from behind a curtain" (S33:V53). This means when you ask anything from the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم then ask from behind the curtain. Truth of the matter is, that these three limbs do not form part of SATR-E-AURAT - i.e. parts obligatory to be concealed. However, to display these to a stranger is unlawful. It should be remembered that here the word 'adornment' refers to place of adornment e.g. the head is a place for the forehead jewellery, the hand is a place for bangles, the feet are the place for anklets with small bells the nose is a place for septum rings and the ear is the place for earnings.

65. From this we learn that wearing just a Kurtha shirt is not sufficient. She has to wear a scarf so that no one would able to determine the shape of her body. Furthermore, the scarf must not be to cover just the head, it should be so big as to cover her head, her chest and her back. Also, the scarf should not be of such a thin material which would not be able to cover

61. From this we learn that these injunctions are for believing women. The unbelieving women are under the same law as the men. A believing woman should remain aloof from a non-believing woman. Furthermore, just as a man cannot see a strange woman, a woman should do likewise. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم did not allow a blind person to enter the house when Hazrat Ayesha, etc. said that they are blind, the reply was: Are both of you blind?

62. This means if these women are required to go out on duty out of necessity, then they should go following these restrictions. Otherwise, leaving the homes without any need is not good for them. Says Allah Almighty: "And remain in your homes" (S33:V33). When the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم who are true mothers of the believers, are commanded to stay in their homes, then imagine how important it is for the ordinary women to follow this instruction.

63. That they should safeguard themselves from adultery and other erotic devices, so much so that they should not even make their voices heard to a stranger, do not wear jewellery from which sound emanates. For this reason, a woman cannot give Azaan.

Marfat.com

the body.

66. Here the word 'father' denotes one's grand father, forefathers, etc. of the family lineage, while sons indicate off-spring of these, i.e. grand sons from paternal and maternal sides. The essence of this discussion is that there is no privacy from the husband and those not eligible for marriage. A Mahraam is that person with whom marriage is totally unlawful at all times on the basis of kinship, whether he is of uterine relationship or not.

67. This means step-sons who, too, become Mahram for her even though they may not be from her womb.

68.Paternal and maternal uncles, etc too are included in this law because there is no privacy from them.

69. From this we learn that a believing woman should veil herself from the non-believing woman. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) had given an order that non-Muslim women must not enter the bathroom with Muslim women.

70. This tells us that the lady of the house should maintain privacy with her female slaves because the suffix NA denotes maids, slave girls.

71. Very old men, provided they are pious and have no sexual desires. It should be remembered that privacy from impotent men and indecent eunuchs is obligatory. Believing women should not go in their presence.

32. And perform marriage of those among you who have not been married [76] and of your suitable servants [77] and handmaid [78]. If they are poor, Allah will enrich them out of His Bounty [79]. And Allah is Ample; knowing

76. Man or woman, unmarried or married. This is a general command for legality of marriage, which at times becomes obligatory when there is a fear of committing adultery. This tells us that male and female slaves cannot marry without the permission of their masters.

77. Those who are fit for marriage, or those who are pious. Do not get wretched

72. This means those small boys who had not yet attained the age of maturity. This tells us that Islam orders privacy from MARAHIQ i.e. those boys who are nearing the age of puberty.

73. From this we learn that even the sound of the jewellery should not reach the ear of the stranger. If this is not allowed, then how would it be permissible for her voice to reach his ears? It is for this reason that giving Azaan is totally forbidden for a woman. Likewise, it is totally forbidden for ladies to sing, to deliver lectures on loudspeakers and radios, etc.

74. This tells us that in the first instance, a woman should not wear jewellery with sound, and if she wears them she should walk so slowly that the sound of such jewellery should not be heard by a stranger. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said: "Allah does not listen to the prayer (Dua) of that people whose women wear anklets with small bells" (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan).

75. From this emerge two issues:

1. A person does not go out of the fold of Islam due to his sins because Allah Almighty had given the order to these people who had infringed the above mentioned laws, but called them as believers.

2. The collective seeking of repentance has greater acceptance by Allah Almighty. We also learn every believer should repent, whether he commits sins or not.

people married who will cause misery to you and their wives.

78. From this we learn that a slave can be linked to those other than Allah Almighty to mean a servant. Hence you can say Abdun Nabi, Abdur Rasool. There has been a slight prohibition mentioned about it in the Hadith just as it has been prohibited to call grapes a source of blessings. Hazrat Ibn Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) said: I was the slave and servant of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

33. and let those who have no means to marry, restrain [80] themselves until Allah provides them both means of His Bounty. [81] and from among your servants and hand maids the property of your hand those who wish that you should write [82] for them freedom on the condition that they may earn some wealth, then write it for them if you know some good in them [83], and help them out of wealth of Allah which He has given to you. [84] And force not your maids to prostitution when they desire to live in chastity on order that you may get some goods of this worlds life [85]. And who so ever will force them then undoubtedly, Allah after this that they remain in compulsion is Forgiving Merciful. [86]

79. From this we learn that sometimes marriage becomes the cause of wealth, i.e. due to it Allah Almighty makes the poor wealthy and the woman becomes the means of a good omen.

80. This means those who are unable to marry due to helplessness and poverty should safeguard themselves from sodomy, temporary marriage, masturbation etc. because all these acts are totally prohibited. In the Hadith such poor persons have been ordered to keep fast because fasting weakens the basic desires and lust.

81. In this there is a hint that Muta (temporary marriage), is unlawful, because a destitute person is ordered to exercise patience, he is not granted permission for Muta. Furthermore, Muta is not permissible even under helpless conditions. Alcohol and pork become permissible under extreme difficulty, because here there is a danger of losing one's life. A person will not die without a wife. Under such circumstances one should observe fast. This helps to refute the Maudoodi's belief in a clear manner, because this ignorant person had given permission for Muta under such circumstances. Also, it establishes the prohibition of sodomy and masturbation as well.

82. From this we learn that sometimes a command is used for Mustahab (desirability), though Allah Almighty is counselling His servants, i.e. granting freedom here is not obligatory, it is left to your discretion and desirability.

83. Reason for its Revelation:
Sabeeh, the slave requested from his master Huwaitab bin Abdul Uzza to grant him freedom. He refused at which this verse was revealed in which the Muslims have been counselled, if you think if the servant would repay the wealth then grant him freedom as there is no harm in it.

84. This verse is the commentary of the following verse:
"And for Debtors" because one cannot really give Zakaat to one's slave. This means give Zakaat to the one seeking freedom so that he can use this wealth to gain his freedom.

85. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed concerning Abdullah ibn Ubay bin Solool who would force his maid servants to commit indecent acts to procure wealth therefrom. These maids complained to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about this. Remember, that this is a unanimous restraint and not one of evasion. It does not mean that if they wish to refrain from this immoral act they should not be forced into it, and that if they wish to commit this immoral act, they should be given permission to do so.

86.This means the one who forced them to commit adultery would himself become a sinner and not those maids who had committed the sexual act. This order is regarding that woman who had been forced to commit sexual intercourse through death threats. This command is not for a man. It is for this reason "they remain in compulsion" is used.

34. And undoubtedly, we have sent down to you manifest signs [87], and some description of those who have passed away before you [88], and admonition for those who fear.

وَلَقَدْ اَنْزَلْنَآ اِلَيْكُمْ اٰيٰتٍ مُّبَيِّنٰتٍ وَّ مَثَلًا مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ وَمَوْعِظَةً لِّلْمُتَّقِيْنَ ﴿٣٤﴾ ع

87. In which the laws regarding lawful and unlawful are described in detail.

88. In this the previous pious servants are included as well, on whom the mercy of Allah Almighty had been showered, as well as the infidel nations on whom the punishment of Allah Almighty had descended. So that one can seek hope and fear from Allah Almighty.

SECTION 5

35. Allah is the light [89] of the heavens and the earth. The similitude of His Light [90] is as a niche [91] where in is a lamp. The lamp is in a chandelier (of glass0. The chandelier is as it were a star glittering like a pearl: it is lighted from the blessed olive tree, which is neither of east not west . [92] it is near that its oil may flare up even though the fire touches it not. [93] Allah is upon the light [94]. Allah guides to His Light whom so ever He wills [95]. And Allah narrates examples for the people. [96] and Allah knows the people . and Allah knows all things.

اَللّٰهُ نُوْرُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ مَثَلُ نُوْرِهٖ كَمِشْكٰوةٍ فِيْهَا مِصْبَاحٌ ؕ اَلْمِصْبَاحُ فِيْ زُجَاجَةٍ ؕ اَلزُّجَاجَةُ كَاَنَّهَا كَوْكَبٌ دُرِّيٌّ يُّوْقَدُ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ مُّبٰرَكَةٍ زَيْتُوْنَةٍ لَّا شَرْقِيَّةٍ وَّ لَا غَرْبِيَّةٍ ۙ يَّكَادُ زَيْتُهَا يُضِيْٓءُ وَ لَوْ لَمْ تَمْسَسْهُ نَارٌ ؕ نُوْرٌ عَلٰى نُوْرٍ ؕ يَهْدِى اللّٰهُ لِنُوْرِهٖ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ وَ يَضْرِبُ اللّٰهُ الْاَمْثَالَ لِلنَّاسِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿٣٥﴾ ۙ

89. This means He is the Originator of the Heavens and the Earth. He is the Existence of Light and the non-existence of darkness. Or, He is the giver of Guidance to those who exist between them, or He is the giver of light to the heavens and the earth, through the sun, the moon, etc. or that He is the Granter of light to them through the light of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

Marfat.com

90. By Noor of Allah Almighty is meant the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because otherwise, Allah Almighty is without comparison. Allah Almighty Himself says: "Nothing is like him" S42:V11. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the Light of Allah Almighty. Or one could say that the Beauty of Allah Almighty is Light, and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is its shade. If there is a coloured shade over the lamp, then wherever the light of the lamp would reach , the colour of the shade would also reach those parts. Likewise, the light of Allah Almighty covers every nook and cranny of the universe, but the colour reflected is that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, because he is the MAZHAR reflection of Allah Almighty.

91. This means just as a secured lamp is protected by the arch and the lampshade from being extinguished by the wind, in the like manner no power can extinguish the NOOR-E-MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Also, just as the light from olive oil does not have any smoke, in a like manner. Islam, too, does not have any smoke or dust i.e. it is pure.

92. This means this olive tree is neither found in cold regions or hot regions but it is found in a country in which good fruit grows, and from where clean oil sprouts which provides a bright colour.

93. It means the cleanliness of this olive oil is to such an extent that it seems that it will shine with lighting the fire.

94. It means the electric bulb should be bright itself with the light of other globes is falling upon it. In the same way, the blessed chest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the niche, and his heart is the lampshade. His Prophethood which is illuminated by the revelation tree, is light upon light. This means that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is himself light while the coming of Prophethood and the Holy Qur'aan is light coming upon light (Tafseer Khazaimul Irfaan).

95. From this two benefits are acquired:

1. The generosity from the Generous comes in the same manner but the capacity of the recipients is different. Everyone acquires it according to his own capacity, e.g. the electric power comes in the same manner to all, but the brightness of the globes would be according to their watt capacity.

2. To be righteous is no excellence of ours, but it is the gift from Allah Almighty. Thus we should be grateful to Him for it, and not boast about it.

96. It means these examples are provided for the purpose of explaining it to the people and not for your explanation. Oh My Beloved Nabi صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , you are sent in the state of full understanding.

فِيْ بُيُوْتٍ اَذِنَ اللّٰهُ اَنْ تُرْفَعَ وَ يُذْكَرَ فِيْهَا اسْمُهٗ ۙ يُسَبِّحُ لَهٗ فِيْهَا بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْاٰصَالِ ۙ﴿۳۶﴾

36. In those Houses [97], which Allah has ordered [98] to be raised up, and in them his name is remembered. Allah is glorified there in the mornings and evenings. [99]

97. By homes is meant homes of Allah Almighty i.e. the Mosque. The Holy Ka'ba is included in this. From this we learn that the best place to hold Zikrullah is the Mosque.

98. By lofty means, the buildings of the Mosque should be higher than the other buildings. Also, they should be kept clean and tidy. The Mosque should be given the highest respect and honour. Worldy businesses should not be transacted therein. In short, this verse is the basic source for the respect of the Mosque.

99. This tells us that mornings and evenings are excellent times for the remembrance of Allah Almighty, as these are times for opening and closing the shop of life. Furthermore, sanctified places and appropriate

37. By men whom neither trade nor business [100] diverts from the remembrance of Allah and performing of prayer and paying of the poor-due [101]. They fear a day [102] in which hearts and eyes shall be turned about. [103]

رِجَالٌ ۙ لَّا تُلْهِيْهِمْ تِجَارَةٌ وَّ لَا بَيْعٌ
عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ وَ اِقَامِ الصَّلٰوةِ وَ اِيْتَآءِ
الزَّكٰوةِ ۙ يَخَافُوْنَ يَوْمًا تَتَقَلَّبُ فِيْهِ
الْقُلُوْبُ وَ الْاَبْصَارُ ﴿۳۷﴾

100. In this there is a hint that women should offer their Salaahs in their homes and the men in the mosques, because the word mentioned here with remembrance of Allah Almighty in the mosque is men. Says Allah Almighty regarding women: "And stay in your homes". (S33: V 33) We further learn those who are caught up with worldly affairs, their worship is greatly liked by Allah Almighty.

101. From this emerge few issues:

1. A person should not remain idle, but engage in some business activities.
2. Among all the business activities of the world, trade is most superior, because Allah Almighty has mentioned it specifically.
3. One should not engage in worldly activities times are the best for the worship of Allah Almighty.

by neglecting the remembrance of Allah Almighty, neither abandon the world nor the Religion.

4. Salaah is superior to Zakaat because Allah Almighty has mentioned it before Zakaat.

102. The pious do good deeds as well as fear Allah Almighty concerning their deeds i.e. whether they are accepted or rejected by Him. Also, they take cognisance of the fact that they had not been able to do full justice to their worship.

103. The heart will shift from its place and get tangled in the throat, and the eyes would burn or burst?

38. So that Allah may recompense them for their best works [104] and give them more reward out of his Bounty [105]. And Allah provides whom so ever He will with out reckoning.

لِيَجْزِيَهُمُ اللّٰهُ اَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوْا وَ
يَزِيْدَهُمْ مِّنْ فَضْلِهٖ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَرْزُقُ
مَنْ يَّشَآءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿۳۸﴾

104. This expression is concerning glorification of Allah Almighty i.e. these people glorify and remember Allah Almighty not for any show, but to gain His rewards and pleasure.

105.It should be remembered that Paradise and its bounties are the reward of one's good deeds, while the vision of Allah Almighty in it would be His favour. Or it could mean reward of one good deed is seven hundred, more than that would be His favour. This increase in rewards is beyond our imagination.

39. And those who disbelieved, their works are like a mirage in a desert [106] that the thirsty one thinks it to be water [107] until when he came up to it [108], he found it to be nothing and found Allah near him, then He paid him his account in full [109]. And He is Swift in reckoning.

وَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اَعْمَالُهُمْ كَسَرَابٍۭ بِقِيْعَةٍ

water, but when he sees it as just sand, he becomes terribly disappointed. The same would be the condition of the charitable deeds of the infidels which would prove useless on the Day of Judgement.

108. This means the wrath of Allah Almighty, or His punishment and displeasure.

109. By this is meant by granting the infidel the comforts of this world as rewards for his good deeds, Allah Almighty has made his reckoning outrageous. (Allah forbid)

اَوْ كَظُلُمٰتٍ فِيْ بَحْرٍ لُّجِّيٍّ يَّغْشٰىهُ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهٖ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهٖ سَحَابٌ ؕ ظُلُمٰتٌۢ بَعْضُهَا فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ ؕ اِذَاۤ اَخْرَجَ يَدَهٗ لَمْ يَكَدْ يَرٰىهَا ؕ وَ مَنْ لَّمْ يَجْعَلِ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ نُوْرًا فَمَا لَهٗ مِنْ نُّوْرٍ ۝۴۰

40. Or it is like the darkness in a deep sea, above which is a wave, above wave another wave, above which are clouds there are layers of darkness one upon the other. When he puts out his hand. It seems not to be visible; [110] and to whom Allah gives not light, for him there is no light anywhere. [111]

صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

110. This means just as obscurities gather beneath the sea on a gloomy cloudy night; the obscurities caused by water, waves and the clouds. In the same manner, many obscurities have gathered upon the infidels: infidelity, the baser self, evil friends, comforts of the world, teachings of evil leaders etc. And these have taken such a strong hold over them that they are unable to think straight. The dispeller of all these darknesses is the true sun of Madina

111. This means that anyone who has not received the guidance of being obedient to the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم he will not receive guidance to do good deeds. Or, anyone who had been cut off from the chintz of Divine Light on the first day of creation, he shall not be blessed with faith in this world. Or, he whose faith is not decided by Allah Almighty, he shall not find anyone to give him guidance.

SECTION 6

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يُسَبِّحُ لَهٗ مَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَالطَّيْرُ صٰٓفّٰتٍ ؕ كُلٌّ قَدْ عَلِمَ صَلَاتَهٗ وَ تَسْبِيْحَهٗ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌۢ بِمَا يَفْعَلُوْنَ ۝۴۱

41. Have you not seen [112] that all who are in the heavens and earth [113] glorify Allah and so do the birds spreading their wings [114] Every one knows his prayer and his way of glorifying [115] and Allah knows their deeds [116].

Marfat.com

112.In it, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is addressed and it is a question of negation from which it is understood that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is looking closely at the glorification of the entire creation. The Noble Companions say when we were having our meals we would listen to the glorification of the food. If this is the condition of knowledge of the particles, then imagine the knowledge of the sun of Prophethood.

113. It means the entire creation in the heavens and the earth, with the exception of the infidels, all sing the praises of Allah Almighty.

114. This means between the heavens and the earth in the state of flying in the air.

42. And it is for Allah only the kingdom of heavens and earth [117] and to Allah is the return.

117. It should be remembered that to whatever places the kingdom of the Sultan extends, the Prime Mininster's control extends likewise.The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed the Prime Minister of the kingdom of Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is His Messenger. Therefore, the attribute of Allah Almighty is Lord of the Worlds and that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Mercy unto the Worlds.

وَ لِلّٰهِ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ۚ وَ اِلَى اللّٰهِ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿۴۲﴾

43. Have you not seen Allah drives the clouds [118] softly, then joins them together, then piles them one over the other so that you see that rain [119] comes out from the midst there of ? And he sends down from the sky where in are mountains [120] of ice, some hails out of them: then cast it over whom He will and turns it away from whom He will [121] it is very near that its flash of lightning may take away the sight [122].

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ يُزْجِىْ سَحَابًا ثُمَّ يُؤَلِّفُ بَيْنَهٗ ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهٗ رُكَامًا فَتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ خِلٰلِهٖ ۚ وَ يُنَزِّلُ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مِنْ جِبَالٍ فِيْهَا مِنْۢ بَرَدٍ فَيُصِيْبُ بِهٖ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ وَيَصْرِفُهٗ عَنْ مَّنْ يَّشَآءُ ؕ يَكَادُ سَنَا بَرْقِهٖ يَذْهَبُ بِالْاَبْصَارِ ؕ ﴿۴۳﴾

115. This tells every animal recites Tasbeeh at its own disposal which Allah Almighty has taught them inspirationally. It does not denote involuntary Tasbeeh. We also learn that every animal has its own Tasbeeh which he knows in a natural way. A dog does not eat grass, a goat does not eat meat.

116. In it there is a reprimand for those who do defective deeds and have defective beliefs because an animal may remember Allah Almighty, while man, the noblest creation of Allah Almighty, should commit evil. How shameful this is that after knowing the deeds of Allah Almighty we are not doing them?

118. And He sends it there where rain has been ordered.

119. Just as water falls from the strainer. For this reason it has been observed after a torrential rain that the cloud remains the same as it had been formed. If the cloud itself had come down as rain, then the cloud should really come to an end. Thus, the verse is crystal clear and correct. The philosophical deceptions are not worthy of credence.

120.This means He lets mountains of hail stones fall from the sky, or like there are mountains on the earth, there are mountains of ice in the heavens from which hail stones fall down.

121. This means these hail stones destroy some people's fields, homes, animals or even their lives, while others are spared from this destruction.

Marfat.com

122. This means that the glare and sparkle of lightning becomes so intense, that it makes the eyes become dazed. This tells us that the sight of the eyes would continue to decrease.

يُقَلِّبُ اللّٰهُ الَّيْلَ وَ النَّهَارَ ؕ اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَعِبْرَةً لِّاُولِي الْاَبْصَارِ ﴿۴۴﴾

44. Allah turns about the night and day. [123] Undoubtedly in it a lesson for those who have eyes.

123. By this it is meant that when the night goes day comes, when the day ends night comes. Or, sometimes the nights and days are bitter cold and sometimes hot. Or, sometimes the night is big and the day becomes short, and vice versa. The same is the condition of nations; sometimess one nation gains victory and at other times another nation is victorious. We should take a lesson from this rise and fall.

وَ اللّٰهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ دَآبَّةٍ مِّنْ مَّآءٍ ۚ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّمْشِيْ عَلٰى بَطْنِهٖ ۚ وَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّمْشِيْ عَلٰى رِجْلَيْنِ ۚ وَ مِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَّمْشِيْ عَلٰۤى اَرْبَعٍ ؕ يَخْلُقُ اللّٰهُ مَا يَشَآءُ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ﴿۴۵﴾

45. And Allah has created every beast from water [124]. Of them is one that walks on its belly [125]. And of them is one that walks on his two feet [126] some that walk on four legs [127]. Allah creates what he pleases [128] Undoubtedly Allah can do everything.

124. Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) and Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) were excluded from this law. Regarding Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) Allah Almighty says: "from ringing which was in reality black, smelling mud" (S15:V26), and regarding Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) it is said: "The likeness of Iesa (On whom be peace) is like Adam. He created him from dust, then said: "Be and he became" (S3:V59). Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace) was not created from a sperm, neither of that of a mother nor of a father, and if by water is meant that water which is the origin of the universe, then there is no need for any distinction. It should be remembered that law is something else but the Power of Allah Almighty is something else. We are duty bound and restricted by law, not Allah Almighty. Burning effected by fire is in terms of its natural law, but it's not burning Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is the Power of Allah Almighty. Likewise the requirement of sperms for all living beings for conception is in accordance with natural law, while birth of some without the sperm is the Power of Allah Almighty.

125. Like snakes, fish and other insects.

126. Like human beings, birds, etc. It should be remembered that the jinns have four hands and four feet, but they walk on two feet like the human beings and they procreate.

127. Like the cows, buffalows, goats and majority of the grazing animals. It should be remembered that the creation of four hands and feet procreates, while others lay eggs with the exception of the lizard which, although it has four hands and feet, lays eggs.

128. Thus, a great deal of the creation of Allah Almighty is beyond our knowledge. In the book AJAAIBUL MAKHLOOKAT mention has been made of strange and marvellous species in the creation of Allah Almighty.

Marfat.com

لَقَدْ اَنْزَلْنَآ اٰيٰتٍ مُّبَيِّنٰتٍ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ يَهْدِيْ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ اِلٰى صِرَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ ﴿۴۶﴾

46. Undoubtedly, We have sent down clear explanatory signs and Allah guides whom He pleases to the straight path. [129]

129. This means there are three types of human beings: believer inwardly and outwardly; an infidel inwardly and outworldly; the third is outwardly a believer but inwardly an infidel i.e. a hypocrite. From these Allah Almighty has provided guidance for the believers, while the other two remained non-believers.

وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اٰمَنَّا بِاللّٰهِ وَ بِالرَّسُوْلِ وَ اَطَعْنَا ثُمَّ يَتَوَلّٰى فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ ذٰلِكَ ؕ وَ مَاۤ اُولٰٓئِكَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۴۷﴾

47. And they say, ' We have believed in Allah and in the Messenger and we obeyed, then some of them turn away after this [130]. And that are not Muslims. [131]

130. This verse was revealed regarding the hypocrite named Bashar who was involved in a quarrel with a Jew regarding land in which the Jew was the rightful owner and the hypocrite was false in his claim. All were aware that the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was based on truth and justice, hence, the Jew sought the decision from this court, while the hypocrite requested the case to be settled by Ka'ab bin Ashraf, a Jew. On this occasion, the above verse was revealed.

131. From this emerge two issues:

1. To reject the Holy Prophet as your supreme authority is an act of infideltiy. Allah Almighty's judgement of infidelity against Bashar was passed on the same basis, i.e. he had refused to accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as his Judge.
2. Although the hypocrites who recite the Kalima are Muslims, in the eyes of the people, in terms of religion they will not be regarded as Muslims. An example of this is the present day apostate Muslim sects.

وَ اِذَا دُعُوْۤا اِلَى اللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهٖ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ اِذَا فَرِيْقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ ﴿۴۸﴾

48. And when they are called towards Allah and His Messenger [132] that the messenger may decide between them that very time a party of them turns away. [133]

132. From this we understand that the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed the court of Allah Almighty. Making yourself present by him is being present in the court of Allah Almighty because they were called towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which Allah Almighty refers to as called towards Allah Almighty and His Prophet. Also, the command of Allah Almighty is indeed the command of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم against which there is no possible appeal. To turn away from the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed turning away from the command of Allah Almighty.

133. This means such is the condition of the hypocrites in whichever cases they are proven as liars, they do not accept the Prophet of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as their judge, while in the cases in which they are correct, they come running to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم for his judgement. They are followers of their whims and fancies. The same condition is that of those Muslims of today who use Islam for their own gains.

Marfat.com

وَ اِنْ يَّكُنْ لَّهُمُ الْحَقُّ يَاْتُوْٓا اِلَيْهِ مُذْعِنِيْنَ ﴿۴۹﴾

49. And if the right be upon their side, they would have come to him submitting.

اَفِيْ قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ اَمِ ارْتَابُوْٓا اَمْ يَخَافُوْنَ اَنْ يَّحِيْفَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ ؕ بَلْ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ ﴿۵۰﴾

50. Is in their hearts a disease? Or do they fear that Allah and His Messenger will be unjust to [134] them? but , they themselves are unjust. [135]

134. This tells us who ever calls the Prophet a tyrant he is calling Allah Almighty a tyrant. We also learn just as doing an unjust act by Allah Almighty is an intellectual absurdity, in the same way injustice by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is an intellectual impossibility. No type of injustice is linked by Allah Almighty towards Him or His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . He is true and his Lord too is true. Anyone who castes a suspicion or distant towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, he is casting such a reflection on Allah Almighty Furthermore, attaching remembrance of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the remembrance of Allah is the way of Allah Almighty. Thus, you can say may Allah Almighty and His Prophet treat you well. Allah Almighty and His Prophet bestow bounties upon people.

135. This means these hypocrites do not have the fear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم will pronounce unfair judgement, but they have full belief that they themselves are unjust in this case. Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would give the judgement against them, therefore they were avoiding coming to him.

SECTION 7

اِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اِذَا دُعُوْٓا اِلَى اللّٰهِ وَ رَسُوْلِهٖ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ اَنْ يَّقُوْلُوْا سَمِعْنَا وَ اَطَعْنَا ؕ وَ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿۵۱﴾

51. the saying of Muslims so only this, when they are called towards Allah and Messenger that the Messenger may decide between them then they say, ' we have heard and we abbey and these are they who attained to their goals [136]

136. From this we learn, do not allow your intelligence to interfere with the commands of the Prophet i.e. if it is unacceptable to the intelligence, you would reject it. In fact, just as the patient hands himself over to his physician, you should hand yourself over the Prophet of Allah. This thought is beautifully expressed by the poet in the following line: "Make your intelligence an object of sacrifice upon the beloved Mustapha". If you act on this, you would be succesful in this world and in the Hereafter. Our eyes, intelligence and knowledge may be tiny, but he (Mustapha) is the king of the truthful, is indeed the embodiment of truth صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

وَ مَنْ يُّطِعِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ وَ يَخْشَ اللّٰهَ وَ يَتَّقْهِ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفَآئِزُوْنَ ﴿۵۲﴾

52. And who so obeys Allah and His Messenger and fears Allah and guards himself from evil, then such are people who are successful. [137]

137 .Just as the medicine of the competent doctor proves beneficial irrespective of whether the patient understands it or not, the commands of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are beneficial, no matter whether we understand them or not. How sad it is that though we have full confidence in imported medicines which we use without knowing their contents, but we become hesitant in obeying the commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

53. And they have sworn by Allah with utmost strength in their oath that if you will order them, necessarily, then they would come out for religious war, [138] say you, 'swear not; abidance is required according to religious dogma Allah knows what you do' [139]

وَاَقْسَمُوْا بِاللّٰهِ جَهْدَ اَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ اَمَرْتَهُمْ لَيَخْرُجُنَّ ؕ قُلْ لَّا تُقْسِمُوْا ۚ طَاعَةٌ مَّعْرُوْفَةٌ ؕ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۵۳﴾

138. The hypocrites would take an oath and say that now whenever holy war would take place, they would most certainly participate in it. However, when the time would come, they would abstain from it by making false excuses. This verse makes mention of their falsehood. This tells us that to try and establish your credibility through excessive oaths is indeed the work of the hypocrites. Through the grace of Allah Almighty, the believers do not find it necessary to take an oath.

139. This means prove what you say through your actions, and not through your meaningless oaths. In Allah Almighty's court your deeds are taken into account and not mere verbal claims.

54. Say you, ' Obey Allah and Obey His Messenger; [140] therefore, if you turn your face, then for him is which was made incumbent [141] on him and for you is your burden and if you obey the messenger, you will be guided, [142] and upon the is Messenger but to deliver clearly. [143]

قُلْ اَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَ اَطِيْعُوا الرَّسُوْلَ ۚ فَاِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَاِنَّمَا عَلَيْهِ مَا حُمِّلَ وَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَّا حُمِّلْتُمْ ؕ وَاِنْ تُطِيْعُوْهُ تَهْتَدُوْا ؕ وَ مَا عَلَى الرَّسُوْلِ اِلَّا الْبَلٰغُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿۵۴﴾

140. This means obey Allah Almighty and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم totally. Accept every command of theirs. It should be remembered that the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) is the object of absolute obedience. Every order of his is to be obeyed at all times. Besides him, no other person's obedience is absolutely compulsory. In fact, only their lawful commands are worthy of obedience, and unlawful commands are to be rejected. It should further be remembered that although one has to show reverence to Allah Almighty, His beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , the authority of the day, the Alim (scholar), but only the commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be carried out by following on his footsteps. Anyone else, cannot be followed. The meaning of ITA'AT is to obey a command while by ITTI'BA-A is meant to emulate the deeds of any person. It is for this reason that the Holy Qur'aan has mentioned regarding the Holy Prophet's (Peace be upon him) emulation as "Follow me" is follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . We cannot, physically, follow the footsteps of Allah Almighty. In a day and night thousands die at the command of Allah Almighty. If we become the cause of one person's death, we will find ourselves in great difficulty.

141. This means only propagation is obligatory upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم but he is not responsible for the guidance. Oh man, if all of you become infidels, it will not cause any harm to him.
142. From this we learn that guidance is dependent on the obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Only if you follow in his footsteps will you obtain guidance.
143. This means your guidance is not his responsibility. If you were to remain infidels, it will not cause any harm to him, because he had discharged his obligation i.e. propagation.

وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَ عَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْاَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ۪ وَ لَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِيْنَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضٰى لَهُمْ وَ لَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِّنْۢ بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ اَمْنًا ؕ يَعْبُدُوْنَنِيْ لَا يُشْرِكُوْنَ بِيْ شَيْـًٔا ؕ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْفٰسِقُوْنَ ﴿۵۵﴾

55. Allah has promised those among you who believed and performed good deeds [144] that He will surely give them power to rule in the earth [145] as was given to those who were before them [146], and He will surely consolidate their religion which He has chosen for them, and will surely change their after war fear with peace [147] and security they should worship Me and associate not anything with Me. And who so is ungrateful after this, then they are the people disobedient. [148]

144. Reason for its revelation.
The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم preached for the first thirteen years in Makkah where the noble Companions bore the ill-treatment and persecutions of the infidels. Then, when he migrated to Madina Munawwarah, the infidels did not leave the believers in peace there as well. They also threatened them with war, as a result of which they were always under duress. One of the Companions said that will there ever come a time when we will have peace? In response to it, this verse was revealed.
145. By Khilafat is meant vicegerency of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Allah Almighty will grant the external vicegerency to the apparent Khulafa-e-Rashideen, while the hidden or internal vicegerency will be granted to all the Saints of Allah Almighty. From this we learn that the four Righteous Khalifs were all pious and God-fearing people, because the granting of leadership was a promise for the pious people. By giving them leadership, Allah Almighty regarded them capable of it.
146. As He granted the Israelites leadership of Egypt and Syria after the destruction of the Pharoah.
147. Thus, Allah Almighty fulfilled this promise as Rome and Persia were conquered during the caliphate of Hazrat Umar and Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (May Allah be pleased with them) and Islam spread throughout the East and West. The caliphate of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique lasted for two years and three months and that of Hazrat Umar for ten years and six months. Hazrat Uthman's rule lasted for twelve years, while that of Hazrat Alli for four years and nine months. Hazrat Imam Hassan's caliphate lasted for six months.
148. It means the promises of these victorious and peaceful conditions are on the basis of these people being of correct beliefs and pious deeds. Thus these pious people established a fine example of steadfastness in religion and in return, Allah Almighty fulfilled His promise.

56. And establish prayer and give the poor-due (Zakat) and obey the Messenger haply; [149] You may be shown mercy.

149. From this emerge two issues:
1. With Salaah and Zakaat, obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too is obligatory. Do not merely place your trust in these deeds by remaining aloof from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .
2. Obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an absolute obligation, whether these injuctions are in accordance with the Holy Qur'aan or not. It is for this reason that Hazrat Alli was forbidden to marry anyone in the lifetime of Hazrat Fatima (May Allah be pleased with her) and Hazrat Abu Khuzaima's testimony was equal to two.

لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا مُعْجِزِيْنَ فِى الْاَرْضِ ۚ وَمَاْوٰىهُمُ النَّارُ ؕ وَلَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيْرُ ﴿٥٧﴾ ع ١٣

57. Never think that the infidels may go out of out control in the earth [150]; and their destination is Fire and indeed what an evil end it is.

150. This means that the peaceful conditions of living enjoyed by these wretched infidels is not because they are out of the control of Allah Almighty, but because Allah Almighty is giving them respite.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لِيَسْتَاْذِنْكُمُ الَّذِيْنَ مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ وَ الَّذِيْنَ لَمْ يَبْلُغُوا الْحُلُمَ مِنْكُمْ ثَلٰثَ مَرّٰتٍ ؕ مِنْ قَبْلِ صَلٰوةِ الْفَجْرِ وَحِيْنَ تَضَعُوْنَ ثِيَابَكُمْ مِّنَ الظَّهِيْرَةِ وَمِنْۢ بَعْدِ صَلٰوةِ الْعِشَآءِ ؕ ثَلٰثُ عَوْرٰتٍ لَّكُمْ ؕ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَ لَا عَلَيْهِمْ جُنَاحٌۢ بَعْدَهُنَّ ؕ طَوّٰفُوْنَ عَلَيْكُمْ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلٰى بَعْضٍ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللّٰهُ لَكُمُ الْاٰيٰتِ ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾

58. O believers; let those servants your own [151] and those [152] of you who have not reached puberty [153], ask leave of you three times before the morning prayer, and when you put off your clothes at the noon [154] and after the night prayer [155]. After these are three times of privacy for you [156]. After these three there is no sin on you or on them. they come and go about one to other. [157] thus Allah narrates His signs for you. and Allah is Knowing, wise. [158]

151. Reason for its Revelation:
The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم sent an Ansaar slave, Madeeh bin Amr to call Hazrat Umar one afternoon. Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) at that time was relaxing at home, and Hazrat Madeeh ibn Amr went in without knocking at the door which made Hazrat Umar think that how he wished that the slaves could have been ordered to seek permission before they enter a home. At that point in time, this verse was revealed (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). In this verse, both believing men and women are addressed.

152.This means your maids, slaves and children reaching maturity should enter your homes with your permission during these three times. Besides these times, they can come and go without permission.

153. In fact, they are still far from maturity. It should be remembered that the maximum age for maturity in the Hanafi Mazhab is fifteen years. The minimum age for a girl is nine years and for a boy is twelve years.

154. By this is meant to be completely naked, and not just naked, because exposing yourself in private unnecessarily is prohibited. One should be shameful of Allah Almighty. What this means is that during these times people normally are not so particular about maintaining privacy in matters of clothing.

59. And when the children among you reach puberty, then they should also ask leave [159] as asked those before them [160]. Thus Allah narrates to you His signs, and Allah is Knowing, Wise.

159. From this we learn that a mature son or brother should not approach his mother or sister unexpectedly, because it is possible that due to some reasons they might be without purdah (unveiled) or undressed.

160. This law is regarding free men. Even if the slave has reached maturity, he can go to the lady of the house if she is unveiled, besides these three times. Therefore, the prefix 'from you' is used with 'boys' i.e. from your free

60. and the old retired women [161] (past child bearing) who have no desire for marriage, no then there is no sin that they may lay aside their outer clothing when they display not

Women are generally without their scarves and men without their shirts.

155. Because, during this time one generally takes off ones normal day clothes and wears simple sleeping clothes like vests and lower sheets.

156. From this we learn that besides these three times, your children and servants can come in your homes without permission. Besides them, other persons cannot enter your home without permission.

157. This means because these persons have to enter your home as workers and to render services you cannot place restriciton of movements on them, as this will prove detrimental for the smooth functioning of your home. For this reason, permission is not made necessary for them.

158. This means all the laws of Allah Almighty are based on knowledge and wisdom, irrespective of whether they are within your grasp or not.

وَاِذَا بَلَغَ الْاَطْفَالُ مِنْكُمُ الْحُلُمَ فَلْيَسْتَاْذِنُوْا كَمَا اسْتَاْذَنَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ اٰيٰتِهٖ ؕ وَاللّٰهُ عَلِيْمٌ حَكِيْمٌ ﴿۵۹﴾ people. Thus, it becomes known that if you have a young daughter and mother, etc. in your house, then enter the house by making your presence known. However, if only the wife is at home, then you can enter without permission because the husband has no privacy from his wife, while modesty and privacy has to be maintained with respect of mother, daughter, etc. It is not lawful to see any of their parts exposed, besides the face, hands and feet.

161. This means those old women who have passed the menopause stage, but can still bear children. This age is generally fifty five years. In those days, such women generally would lead a retired life. Hence, they have been called "old retired women". It should be remembered that this order is only for the old women.

162. This means that such old women are permitted not to wear a scarf or sheet on their heads. But, even they are not allowed to keep their calf bones etc. exposed. By 'a*dornment*' is meant places of adornment and display.

163. This means it is even better for such women that they should wear their scarves, etc. The first order was for a religious verdict, the second one is for piety.

61. There is no harm for the blind and there is no harm for the lame and there is no restriction on the sick [164] nor on any one of you , that you eat in the houses of your children [165] or the houses of your farther, or the houses ot your mothers [166] or the houses of your brothers, or the houses of your sisters [167] or the houses of your uncles or the houses of your paternal aunts [168], or the houses of your maternal aunts, or from those places of which the keys are in your possession [169] or from the house of your friend. There is no blame upon you whether you eat together or separately: [170] then when you enter my house, salute your own people, [171] a nice greeting from Allah at the time of meeting, blessed, pure, [172] Thus Allah narrates to you His signs that you may understand.

لَيْسَ عَلَى الْاَعْمٰى حَرَجٌ وَّ لَا عَلَى الْاَعْرَجِ حَرَجٌ وَّ لَا عَلَى الْمَرِيْضِ حَرَجٌ وَّ لَا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِكُمْ اَنْ تَاْكُلُوْا مِنْۢ بُيُوْتِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اٰبَآئِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اُمَّهٰتِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اِخْوَانِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اَخَوٰتِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اَعْمَامِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ عَمّٰتِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ اَخْوَالِكُمْ اَوْ بُيُوْتِ خٰلٰتِكُمْ اَوْ مَا مَلَكْتُمْ مَّفَاتِحَهٗٓ اَوْ صَدِيْقِكُمْ ؕ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ اَنْ تَاْكُلُوْا جَمِيْعًا اَوْ اَشْتَاتًا ؕ فَاِذَا دَخَلْتُمْ بُيُوْتًا فَسَلِّمُوْا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِكُمْ تَحِيَّةً مِّنْ عِنْدِ اللّٰهِ مُبٰرَكَةً طَيِّبَةً ؕ كَذٰلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللّٰهُ لَكُمُ الْاٰيٰتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾ ع ٨ ١٤

164. Reason for revelation:
When the Noble Companions would accomp-any the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم on holy war, they would leave the keys of their homes with those disabled Companions who were unable to participate in Jihad; so that they could look after their homes in their absence. They were given permission to eat and drink from what ever was found in the house. These noble Companions would regard such expenditure as burdensome for the people of the house. Regarding them this verse was revealed.

165. It should be remembered that the homes of the children are houses of the parents, and their income is the parent's income. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم said to one Companion that you and your wealth are the property of your father. Here, the same is meant, because no person hesitates being in his house and eating whatever is found therein. Mentioning this, would not have been of much benefit. Thus, by our home should mean homes of our children. Similarly, the house of the husband and the house of the master are homes of the wife and the children respectively (Tafseer roohul Bayaan etc.).

166. The paternal and maternal grandparents are included in father and mother.

167. This means when the sister marries and establishes her own house, after which a brother visits her or out of necessity stays there as a guest. It is not religiously unlawful for him to eat and drink in such a home. Some unintelligent senseless people regard it as a disgrace to eat at their sister's place. Such people should pay careful attention to this verse. This is a Hindu custom to regard eating at the daughter or sister's home as improper. In fact, if the daughter or sister is wealthy, and the father or brother is poor and disabled, it becomes obligatory upon these wealthy daughters and sisters to take care of the material needs of the father and the brother. But these women must spend this out of their personal wealth as they cannot spend from the husband's wealth, without his permission.

168. Generally one does not feel any shame or regard it as improper to eat from these homes.

169. In this, the guardian, the head of the house, and all the workers of the house are included, who are allocated duties in the management of the house.

SECTION 9

62. These are the only believers [173] who have believed in Allah and His

170. This means you have the permission to eat and drink from these homes, either with the household members or in their absence on condition that you are fully aware that they are happy with your indulgence in eating and drinking. In those days it was a common practice for a friend to take things which he liked from his friend's home in his absence. When the owner would come to know about it, he would be pleased. Nowadays because generosity is missing from our way of life, it is therefore not allowed to eat without permission (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan, Madarik, and Jalalain). Hazrat Imam Abu Hanifa (May Allah be pleased with him) said that if any person having uterine relationship, were to steal at the house of a close relation with whom marriage can not take place, his hands would not be cut off. This verse could be its proof. What this means it that since these people have the permission to move in and out of the house, then whatever goods are left in the open are not secured from them. Thus, if any goods left unprotected get stolen, the thief's hands would not be cut.

171. This means when entering the house extend greetings to the household members, even if they are your parents, brothers and sisters, children, wife etc. provided they are not of defective beliefs.

Religious Issue:If you enter an empty house recite the following: Peace be upon the beloved Nabi and the blessings and bounties of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Mullah Ali Qari has stated in his SHARAH SHIFA. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم blessed soul dwels in the empty house of a believer. For this reason greeting therein is extended to the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

172. The word Tahiyyat means life, i.e. to offer prayer for life and its protection. This means Allah Almighty taught you this greeting because it is the prayer of life which provides joy for one another.

Messenger, and when they have come to the Messenger regarding any such matter for which they were collective afffairs then go not away [174] until they have asked [175] leave of you . Surely Those who ask leave of you those are they who believe in Allah and His Messenger [176] then when that ask leave [177] of you for some affairs of their own, give leave [178] to whom you will from among them and ask forgiveness of Allah for them. Undoubtedly, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful. [179]

173. This means accomplished believers are those who possess the praiseworthy qualities which are described later i.e. they are staunch in their beliefs and pious in their deeds.

174. This means if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had assembled them to give advice on matters related to Jumuah, Eid, Holy war, and battle strategies, then they should not leave without the permission of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

175. From this we learn that the etiquette of the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is that none should leave without his permission. Thus, even today those who visit the blessed Roza-e-Mubarak of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم seek his permission to depart in the form of reciting the farewell Salaam there. At that point in time, the departure takes the form of Qiyamat like grief.

176. This means the sign of the believers is that they seek the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم permission before leaving his blessed company, while the hypocrites depart without permission. The seeking of this permission to stay away from Jihad is the sign of hypocrisy. Says Allah Almighty: "Those only ask you this leave who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day" (S9:V45).

177. From this we understand that the respect of the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. one comes by seeking permission and leaves with permission as is the procedure of the slaves in the court of their masters.

178. This tells us that Allah Almighty Himself is teaching us the rules of etiquette to be observed when in the court of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. He has completed a set of rules for observing respect, which are established for all times. Even the angels never present themselves in His holy court without His permission, and since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is totally independent, he reserves the right of admission.

179. From this emerge a few issues:

1. The intercession of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is an absolute reality, because Allah Almighty has already granted him permission to intercede;
2. This intercession of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is only for the believers; the infidels are cut off from it;
3. Allah Almighty is extremely kind towards the believers and has instructed His beloved Rasool صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to pray for them;
4. Allah Almighty is only compassionate and forgiving to him for whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would be interceding. Therefore His forgiveness is mentioned after that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

Marfat.com

5. Every believer is totally in need of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم intercesion. Observe, if the order of intercession is given regarding the Noble Companions, the leaders of the Saints of Allah Almighty, then what can be said about the ordinary people?

لَا تَجْعَلُوْا دُعَآءَ الرَّسُوْلِ بَيْنَكُمْ كَدُعَآءِ بَعْضِكُمْ بَعْضًا ؕ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ يَتَسَلَّلُوْنَ مِنْكُمْ لِوَاذًا ۚ فَلْيَحْذَرِ الَّذِيْنَ يُخَالِفُوْنَ عَنْ اَمْرِهٖۤ اَنْ تُصِيْبَهُمْ فِتْنَةٌ اَوْ يُصِيْبَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ ﴿۶۳﴾

63. Make not the summoning of the Messenger among yourselves [180], like one calls the other among you. Undoubtedly, Allah knows those of you who slipaway quietly taking shelter of any excuse [181]; therefore let those who do against the command of the Messenger fear lest some trail [182] befall them or a painful torment overtake them [183]

180. This means do not regard the summoning and solicitation of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم like the call of common people i.e. respond to it or refrain from it. You should immediately respond to his call even if you are engaged in Salaah or any other work. Allah Almighty says : "Respond to the call of Allah and His Messenger, when the Messenger calls you" (S8:V24). Or, it means do not address the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in such common terms which you use for calling one another. Do not address him as brother, father, uncle, an ordinary human being, etc. Call upon him as Oh Messenger of Allah, Oh intercessor of sinners, etc, with respect and dignity.

181. Reason for its revelation:
When the hypocrites would find it difficult to listen to the sermon of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم they would silently creep away towards the end side of the mosque, then finding an opportunity they would slip out under some cover from the blessed gathering. This verse of reprimand was revealed regarding them.

182. Hardships, murders, earthquakes, rule of tyrannical kings, dreadful incident. From this we understand that the enmity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , will become the cause of worldly punishments. The punishment of the Hereafter are besides these.

183. It means the punishments of the Hereafter, or not getting the good fortune of dying on faith. The word painful is used for showing one of the two. There is a possibility that both punishments can be brought together.

اَلَاۤ اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ ؕ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ مَاۤ اَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ ؕ وَيَوْمَ يُرْجَعُوْنَ اِلَيْهِ فَيُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوْا ؕ وَ اللّٰهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ﴿۶۴﴾

64. Take it for granted, undoubtedly, it is of Allah, ' what ever is in the heavens and earth. Undoubtedly, He knows in what condition you are, And on the day when they be returned to Him, then He will tell them whatever they did. And Allah knows everything. [184]

184. This means that Allah Almighty is fully aware of everything. This punishment of the infidels is to embarrass them on the Day of Judgement.

تَبٰرَكَ الَّذِىْ نَزَّلَ الْفُرْقَانَ عَلٰى عَبْدِهٖ لِيَكُوْنَ لِلْعٰلَمِيْنَ نَذِيْرَا ۙ﴿١﴾

1. Immensely Blessed [1] is He Who has sent down the Qur`aan to His Bondsman [2] that he may be a Warner to the entire world [3].

1. The word blessed signifies abundance in blessings in the world and the Hereafter. Through the Personality and Attributes of Allah Almighty you shall obtain blessings and bounties of this world and the Hereafter in great abundance.

2. This means on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the matchless servant of Allah Almighty. A dog is a contemptible, debased animal, but 'their dog' meaning the dog of the People of the Cave. It has gained respect and due to its link with these pious servants of Allah Almighty and has gained eternal blessing, life and sanctuary.

3. By warning the sinners through practical manner, and warning the angels and the pious through their destiny and obligation, that if you disobey Allah Almighty you will be caught under His law. This can be seen from what Allah Almighty said to the Prophets on the Day of the Covenant: "Now whoso turns away after this, then they are the disobedient" (S3:V82). Hence there is no such doubt on the verse that the angels are not worthy of being conveyed with a warning.

الَّذِىْ لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَ لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَّ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ شَرِيْكٌ فِى الْمُلْكِ وَ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَىْءٍ فَقَدَّرَهٗ تَقْدِيْرًا ﴿٢﴾

2. He for Whom is the kingdom of the heavens and the earth [4], and He has not taken a son for Himself and He has no partner in His Kingdom [5]. And after creating every thing, He has ordained it on a right estimate [6].

4. In it is a hint that the prophethood of the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) too, has covered the heavens and the earth because the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is like the Prime Minister of the entire realm of Allah Almighty. Thus, wherever divinity of Allah

Almighty is found, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood will also be there Hence, this verse is a proof of the previous verses that the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) is the Prophet for the entire creation.

5. In it is the refutation of those idol worshippers who were associating partners with Allah Almighty, or they were trying to prove off-spring for Him because the idol worshippers of Arabia would say that the angels are the daughters of Allah Almighty, while the (Nasara) were believing in Hazrat Iesa (On whom be peace), and the Yahud were taking Hazrat Uzair(On whom be peace) as sons of Allah Almighty. (May Allah protect us from such beliefs).

6. This means Allah Almighty provided each creation with things according to their needs.

3. And the people have taken other gods besides Him. They created nothing and they themselves have been created [7], and they themselves are not the owners [8] of their own souls either for bad or for good, and neither they have power to die nor to be alive nor to rise up [9].

وَاتَّخَذُوْا مِنْ دُوْنِهٖٓ اٰلِهَةً لَّا يَخْلُقُوْنَ شَيْـًٔا وَّ هُمْ يُخْلَقُوْنَ وَ لَا يَمْلِكُوْنَ لِاَنْفُسِهِمْ ضَرًّا وَّ لَا نَفْعًا وَّ لَا يَمْلِكُوْنَ مَوْتًا وَّ لَا حَيٰوةً وَّ لَا نُشُوْرًا ۝٣

7. True God can only be Him Who is the Creator. Thus the acknowledgement by the polytheists of their idols as gods but not as creators is totally wrong even according to their own views.

8 Let alone these lifeless stones providing any benefit or harm to you, they are totally helpless from removing anything that may be harmful to themselves. Some people try to apply this verse to the Saints of Allah Almighty. But this is totally wrong. To apply verses concerning the idols to the Prophets and Saints of Allah Almighty is the way of the deviators from Islam. No believer ever worships the grave of the Saint. There is a great difference between resepct and worship. We devotedly respect the Holy Ka'ba and the Holy Qur'aan but no one says that they cannot ward off any difficulties (they do not have the power to even literally, get rid of the flies). Therefore what respect can we show for them.

9. This means no one's life and death and resurrection after death is within the control of these idols. Hence in what way can they be regarded as deities. Even the polytheists ackno-wledge this, yet they regard them as deities.

4. And the infidels said [10], 'This is not but a calumny which he has fabricated and some other people have helped him [11] in it, undoubtedly, those unjust people have brought more falsehood' [12].

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا اِنْ هٰذَآ اِلَّآ اِفْكُ ِۨافْتَرٰىهُ وَ اَعَانَهٗ عَلَيْهِ قَوْمٌ اٰخَرُوْنَ ۚ فَقَدْ جَآءُوْ ظُلْمًا وَّزُوْرًا ۝٤

10. Like Nadar bin Harith, Abdullah bin Umayyah, Maufal bin Khaulid and their followers, who were saying that the Holy Qur'aan is the creation of the Blessed Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

11. This means Yahud like Addas and Yasaar, who had shown the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم past incidents from the Taurah which the Prophet of Islam is translating in Arabic and telling the people and calling them as Qur'aan (May Allah Almighty protect us from it).

12. This tells us that it is a terrible injustice to accuse the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم of slander, as well as a major lie. This is a worse sin than all other sins.

Marfat.com

وَ قَالُوْۤا اَسَاطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ اكْتَتَبَهَا فَهِيَ تُمْلٰى عَلَيْهِ بُكْرَةً وَّ اَصِيْلًا ۝

5. And they said, 'These are fables of the ancients which he has written, so that they are read to him morning and evening [13].

myths, the Holy QUR'AAN too constitutes of such mythological tales which have been given religious form and importance.

13. This means the polytheists are also saying that just as tales about Rustam and Alexandra the Great, etc. are found in books of the Holy QUR'AAN is a proof of its safety. He who rejects the knowledge of the unseen of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is in reality rejecting his prophethood.

قُلْ اَنْزَلَهُ الَّذِيْ يَعْلَمُ السِّرَّ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا ۝٦

6. Say you, 'It has been sent down by Him Who knows every secret thing of the heavens and the earth [14]. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving and the Most Merciful.'

14. This means the Holy Qur'aan contains prophecies of the unseen which are beyond human intellect. It does not only provide historical data only. From this we understand that the presence of prophecies of the unseen in

وَقَالُوْا مَالِ هٰذَا الرَّسُوْلِ يَاْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَ يَمْشِيْ فِي الْاَسْوَاقِ ؕ لَوْ لَاۤ اُنْزِلَ اِلَيْهِ مَلَكٌ فَيَكُوْنَ مَعَهٗ نَذِيْرًا ۝

7. And they said, 'What happened to this messenger; he eats food [15], and walks about in the market [16]. Why was an angel not sent down to him that he might be a Warner with him?' [17].

infidels, in that they can accept stones and sticks as deities, yet they make such excuses for rejecting prophethood and wanted to see Divine attributes in the Prophets. For instance, the Prophet should refrain from eating and drinking and from frequenting market areas.

15. This means if they were prophets then they should have been free of want of eating, drinking and visiting market places like the angels. Because the angels are prophets therefore they do not indulge in eating and drinking. Since they call themselves as prophets then why do they eat and drink? These foolish people did not know that the angel is a prophet in the sense of being sent as a messenger to convey the messages only, and that too, to the Prophets only, while these are Prophets, meaning fountain head, who have been delegated with the duty of reforming the people and only the person of one's own kind can reform his fellow beings.

16. Just look at the foolishness of the

17. This means there should be such an angel accompanying the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) who should be visible to us and who should tells us this is a true Prophet. Otherwise, angels would descend upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم whom the Noble Companions and even the infidels had seen in human form and had become aware of their presence.

اَوْ يُلْقٰۤى اِلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ اَوْ تَكُوْنُ لَهٗ جَنَّةٌ

8. Or he would have got a treasure from the hidden place or he would

Marfat.com

يَّاْكُلُ مِنْهَا ۭ وَ قَالَ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ اِنْ تَتَّبِعُوْنَ اِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُوْرًا ۝

have any garden that he may eat therefrom [18]. And the unjust people say, 'You follow not but a man who has been bewitched [19].

18. Their aim was why did Allah Almighty not make His Beloved Prophet free of the want of eating and drinking. Or that he should not have any desire for food, and if he had, then this should have been satisfied from the unseen sources. This, too, they said from their outer observance. Otherwise, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had unseen treasures under his control. He also had gardens of Paradise under his control. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says "I have been given the keys of the treasures of the earth". Allah Almighty says: "O beloved! Undoubtedly, We have bestowed you abundance of good"

(S107:V1). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم says: "I saw one Paradise in this wall, if I wanted to, I could have cut off one bunch out of it. But since these things had not been revealed as yet, the infidels would talk about them.

19. This tells us that the infidels had no real consistency or agreement in what they were saying. Sometimes they would call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a magician, and sometimes they would say that he is a victim of magic. Sometimes they would call him a poet, and sometimes a fortune teller. They were liars according to their own statements.

اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوْا لَكَ الْاَمْثَالَ فَضَلُّوْا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ سَبِيْلًا ۝

9. O beloved; see what kind of similitude they are coining for you, therefore, they have gone astray [20]. Now they cannot find anyway [21].

20. This means those who were labelling him with such nonsensical things were all misguided, and would not find guidance in the future. They will never find the Straight Path.

21. From this, emerge a few issues:

1. To look only at the outer eating and drinking of the Prophet without observing his inner greatness is the way of the infidels.
2. To seek miracles without pondering over them is the way of the infidels.
3. Allah Almighty complains about His servants to His Beloved Prophet. This is for expressing His love for him.

4. He whose eyes cannot reach the excellence of the Prophet, he can neither understand the excellence of Allah Almighty, nor can he in any way obtain guidance. Allah Almighty has decided "They cannot find any way" eg. only that person can come in the mosque who is pure and clean. Likewise, only that person can gain presence in the court of Allah Almighty whose heart is pure. To purify the body, there is water of the well, etc. but to purify the heart the water from the love of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is required.

SECTION: 2

تَبٰرَكَ الَّذِيْٓ اِنْ شَآءَ جَعَلَ لَكَ خَيْرًا مِّنْ ذٰلِكَ جَنّٰتٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ۙ وَ يَجْعَلْ لَّكَ قُصُوْرًا ۝

10. Blessed is He Who, if He pleases, will do better for you then that; Gardens beneath which flow streams and He makes palaces for you [22].

22. This means Allah Almighty has full power to grant these things in their outer form, but this is contrary to His law. If this is granted then how will people obtain belief in the unseen?

Marfat.com

11. Nay, they belie the Hour [23], and for him who belies the Hour, We have prepared a blazing fire.

بَلْ كَذَّبُوْا بِالسَّاعَةِ ۫ وَاَعْتَدْنَا لِمَنْ كَذَّبَ بِالسَّاعَةِ سَعِيْرًا ﴿۱۱﴾

23. This means these people are not just rejecting you, they are rejecting Quraan, Day of Judgement, and even Allah.

12. When it will see them from afar, they will hear its bubbling and shrieking [24].

اِذَا رَاَتْهُمْ مِّنْ مَّكَانٍۭ بَعِيْدٍ سَمِعُوْا لَهَا تَغَيُّظًا وَّ زَفِيْرًا ﴿۱۲﴾

24. From this verse we learn that people will have the sense of perception like intelligence, sight, hearing, etc. Its fire will distinguish between the believer and the infidel. Therefore it becomes inflamed on seeing the infidel, and cool on seeing the believer.

13. And when they will be thrown into any narrow place thereof tied with chains, they will there request for death [25].

وَ اِذَآ اُلْقُوْا مِنْهَا مَكَانًا ضَيِّقًا مُّقَرَّنِيْنَ دَعَوْا هُنَالِكَ ثُبُوْرًا ﴿۱۳﴾ ط

25. From this emerge two issues:
1. The infidel would be pushed into Hell from the edge, with his hands and feet tied. He would reach its bottom in a fall.
2. The infidels would wish for death in it, but death will not come to them. Both these punishments would not come to the sinful believers. Insha-Allah sinful believers will neither be pushed from on top, nor wish for death in it. In fact, their souls will be taken out. It is stated in the Hadith Shareef that the sinful believers would be taken out of Hell like a burnt coal. Then they will sprout into life with the water of Paradise like the green vegetation comes to life in the field. It should be remembered that every infidel would be chained with his devil.

14. It will be said, 'Do not request for one death today but request for many deaths' [26].

لَا تَدْعُوا الْيَوْمَ ثُبُوْرًا وَّاحِدًا وَّ ادْعُوْا ثُبُوْرًا كَثِيْرًا ﴿۱۴﴾

26. This means offer many supplications of death because death is only one and not more. Or this address is in the form of censure. This order is not for instituting obligation, but it is for the expression of anger.

15. Say you, 'Is this better or the abiding garden which is promised to those who fear, That is their reward and end [27].

قُلْ اَذٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ اَمْ جَنَّةُ الْخُلْدِ الَّتِيْ وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُوْنَ ؕ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ جَزَآءً وَّمَصِيْرًا ﴿۱۵﴾

27. This means by law Paradise would be given to the pious as a form of reward, while the minor children of the believer would be going therein due to the bounty of Allah

Marfat.com

Almighty. Similar would be the case of some of the sinners going into Paradise after their repentance.

لَهُمْ فِيْهَا مَا يَشَآءُوْنَ خٰلِدِيْنَ ؕ كَانَ عَلٰى رَبِّكَ وَعْدًا مَّسْئُوْلًا ۝١٦

16. For them is therein all that they desire [28], they will abide therein forever. This is the promise made by your Lord as prayed for [29].

or that Paradise which the believers were seeking in the world. It should be remembered that every promise of Allah Almighty is true. The doubt is whether we are included in that promise or not. Speaking to Allah Almighty: "Oh our Lord! give us that what You have promised to us through Your Messenger" (S3:V194) is due to this, i.e. we are not certain of being included in this promise.

28. From this we learn that inmates of Paradise will not seek the forgiveness for their infidel relatives at all. Also, no desire of any evil will enter their hearts, because NAFSE AMMARAH - the baser soul, will not be found there. Therefore, whatever they say that will be accepted Due to this baser soul, people express desire for evil things in this world, but every desire in Paradise will be expected.

29 This means the Paradise is worth seeking

وَ يَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ وَ مَا يَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ فَيَقُوْلُ ءَاَنْتُمْ اَضْلَلْتُمْ عِبَادِيْ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ اَمْ هُمْ ضَلُّوا السَّبِيْلَ ۝١٧

17. And the Day He will assemble them and those they worshipped besides Allah [30], then He will say to those gods, 'Have you led these Bondman of Mine astray or they themselves strayed away from the path [31].

i.e. you and your deities are the fuel of Hell. In this verse ,too, the same is meant i.e. stones, wood, sun, moon, etc.

30. By this it is meant that idols of the polythe- ists: stones, wood, moon, sun, etc. Hazrat Iesa and Hazrat Uzair (On them be peace) are not included in this, because the pronoun 'those' is used here which is used for inanimate objects. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, you and whatever you worship besides Allah, are all the fuel of Hell" (S21:V98)

31. This question would be asked to disgrace the polytheists, otherwise, Allah Almighty knows that these stones, moon, and sun, had not instructed the polytheists to worship them.

قَالُوْا سُبْحٰنَكَ مَا كَانَ يَنْۢبَغِيْ لَنَآ اَنْ نَّتَّخِذَ مِنْ دُوْنِكَ مِنْ اَوْلِيَآءَ وَ لٰكِنْ مَّتَّعْتَهُمْ وَاٰبَآءَهُمْ حَتّٰى نَسُوا الذِّكْرَ ۚ وَ كَانُوْا قَوْمًۢا بُوْرًا ۝١٨

18. They will say, 'Glory is to you, it was not befitting for us that we should take besides You any other patron [32], but you did allow them and their forefathers to carry on until they forgot [33] Your remembrance. And these were the people to be ruined.

32. This means when we ourselves did not accept anyone as a deity besides You, then how can one give such an instruction to them?

33.The purpose of this is not to raise an objection on Allah Almighty, but to express that these wicked people had taken undue advantage of Your leniency, i.e. instead of being grateful, they became infidels.

فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوْكُمْ بِمَا تَقُوْلُوْنَ ۙ فَمَا تَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ صَرْفًا وَّ لَا نَصْرًا ۚ وَ مَنْ يَّظْلِمْ مِّنْكُمْ نُذِقْهُ عَذَابًا كَبِيْرًا ﴿١٩﴾

19. Now therefore the gods have belied your sayings, you can neither avert the torment nor can you help yourselves [34]. And who so amongst you is a wrong doer, We shall make him taste a big torment [35].

34. This means Oh disbelievers! you called your deities gods, but they proved you liars. Now neither will these deities be able to help you, nor will We help you and nor will you be able to help one another. From this we learn that if Allah Almighty wills, the sinful believers would be given help.

35. Here the word wrongdoer denotes infidels and those who infllluence others towards infidelity. Other than that, every infidel is a wrong doer.

وَ مَآ اَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ اِلَّاۤ اِنَّهُمْ لَيَاْكُلُوْنَ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشُوْنَ فِي الْاَسْوَاقِ ؕ وَ جَعَلْنَا بَعْضَكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ فِتْنَةً ؕ اَتَصْبِرُوْنَ ۚ وَ كَانَ رَبُّكَ بَصِيْرًا ﴿٢٠﴾ ع ١١ ١٤

20. And as many messengers We sent before you, they were all the same [36], they ate food and walked about in the markets [37]. And We have made one of you a test [38] for the other, and O people! Will you have patience, and O beloved! Your Lord is watching.

36. This means the present day infidels who say that if he is a Prophet then why does he eat and drink, why does he visits frequent market places? This non sensible talk of theirs does not deserve any attention. Every Prophet while in the world used to eat and drink and would had been visiting frequent market places. In what way can this serve as an objection against prophethood?

37. However there is a great difference between frequenting of the market by a Prophet of Allah and us. We only go to such places to promote our baser self i.e. to indulge in materialistic activities while the Prophets go there to seek the pleasure of Allah Almighty. Even if they trade, it is a form of propagating the religion of Allah Almighty through which people can learn the lawful principles of commerce. Likewise, there is immense difference in our spirit of worship and their's. The passengers sit in the ship to be transported to their destination, while the captain's duty is to see that they reach their destination. Thus, the passengers travel by paying their fare, while the captain receives a salary for his effort. The travellers in the ship of Islam are both the Prophet and his followers but we are travelling to reach our destination and the Prophet is to pilot us to our destination.

38. This verse was revealed regarding Abu Jahl, Walied bin Uqba, Aas bin Waail, Nadar bin Harith, etc. the leaders of Quraish who on seeing the destitute companions Hazrat Bilal, Hazrat Abu Zar Ghaffari, Hazrat Ammaar bin Yasir, etc. (May Allah be pleased with them) said that if we were to accept Islam, then these poor Companions will have a higher status than us because they had accepted Islam before us. Or that we too will become poor like them. In other words, these wretched people had become a source of mischief for these unfortunate persons. There are many more traditions regarding the reason for revelation of this verse, which are recorded in "Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan."

SECTION: 3

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَرْجُوْنَ لِقَآءَنَا لَوْلَآ
اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ اَوْ نَرٰى رَبَّنَا ؕ لَقَدِ
اسْتَكْبَرُوْا فِيْٓ اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَعَتَوْ عُتُوًّا كَبِيْرًا ﴿٢١﴾

21. And those who do not hope to meet Us said [39], 'Why not angels[40] are sent, to us, or we see our Lord' [41]. Undoubtedly they have become proud of themselves and they have become greatly contumacious [42].

39. This means the rejectors of the Day of Judgement, whether they may be rejectors of Allah Almighty or not. The second point seems more reliable, as is understood from the following subject matter.

40 This means man should not have been made a Prophet, instead prophethood should have been conferred upon the angels. Or it could mean why did the angels not appear before us to testify about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

41. By seeing is meant the vision of Allah Almighty would have made the medium of the Holy Prophet unnecessary. The servants would have received the blessings and bounties of Allah Almighty directly. This tells us that rejection of WASEELA or intercession is the way and habit of the infidels. We further learn that if the desire for the vision of Allah Almighty is for the purpose of love and pleasure, it is the way of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), but if it is on the basis of rejecting the Prophet, then this is the way of the infidels.

42. This means these Yahud had regarded themselves as important people that they were worthy of receiving bounties from Allah Almighty and the angels directly; and in this way became rejectors of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم intercession.

يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ لَا بُشْرٰى يَوْمَئِذٍ
لِّلْمُجْرِمِيْنَ وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ حِجْرًا مَّحْجُوْرًا ﴿٢٢﴾

22. The Day they will see the angels [43], that will not be a happy day for the guilty [44], and will say, 'O Allah! Set a barrier forbidden between us and them [45].

43 At the time of their death or on the Day of Judgement because due to the blessings of the Holy Prophet the angels do not come into the world with Divine punishment

44 This tells us that for the believers their death is an occasion of joy for them . It is for this reason that the day of death of the pious is regarded as their Urs or the day of their wedding. In the same way, for these pious people the Day of Judgement would be an occasion of joy and celebration.

45. This means to conceal the angels of punishment from us because we become greatly distressed at seeing their terrifying faces. This tells us that believers would become happy at seeing the angels of mercy and would desire their nearness.

وَ قَدِمْنَآ اِلٰى مَا عَمِلُوْا مِنْ عَمَلٍ
فَجَعَلْنٰهُ هَبَآءً مَّنْثُوْرًا ﴿٢٣﴾

23. And whatever work they had done [46], We have purposely made them minute particles [47] or dust scattered that are seen in the sunlight of the ventilator. [48]

46 Good deeds, e.g. giving charity, maintaining good relations with one's relatives and close friends, caring for the orphans, etc. as the sins of the infidels would be kept back, only their good deeds would be destroyed. For the acceptance of the pious deeds faith is a pre-requisite just as Wudu is the conditon for Salaah.

47. That the duration of their sins would not in any way be decreased by their good deeds. However, the punishment of some infidels does become lighter due to some of their good deeds, eg. Hazrat Abu Talib would be punished out of Hell because of his service to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم or that Abu Lahab receives some water from the finger with which he freed his maid servant Thuwaiba out of happiness for bringing the good news of the birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hence, there is no inconsistency between Hadith and the Holy QUR'AAN.

48.HABAA is the name given to small particles which are perceived in a dark closet under the light of a ventilator. They are tinier than normal particles and are difficult to catch. What it means is the good deeds of the infidels would be insignificant, like the scattered particles totally wasted.

24. Fellows of Paradise on that day will have a good destination and after the noon of reckoning a good place of rest [49].

أَصْحٰبُ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَيْرٌ مُّسْتَقَرًّا وَّ أَحْسَنُ مَقِيْلًا ﴿٢٤﴾

49. Either by 'destination' is meant the grave, and by 'place of rest' is meant Paradise. The grave of the believer is a garden of Paradise, and his eternal abode is Paradise itself. Or by both these words means two sections of Paradise: MUSTAQAR is that place where the inmate of Paradise would be meeting his friends, while MAQEEL is the section where he will enjoy privacy with his wife and children. Or else, MUSTAQAR would signify the world and MAQEEL the Hereafter. The believe r spends his life in the mosque and the infidel in the temple of idols. Of these the mosque is so much better. Or by MUSTAQAR is meant the places after reckoning and MAQEEL is the place while giving reckoning.

25. And on the day the sky shall be split as-under with the Clouds [50] and the angels shall be sent down fully in large numbers [51].

وَ يَوْمَ تَشَقَّقُ السَّمَآءُ بِالْغَمَامِ وَ نُزِّلَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ تَنْزِيْلًا ﴿٢٥﴾

50. This means the sky will be torn asunder and those cloud would become visible which are above the skies and under this cover (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

51. By this it is meant first angels from the first heaven will descend whose number will exceed the total population of men and jinns. Thereafter the second and third heavens will be torn apart and angels from there will descend. The number of angels of every heaven will exceed those from the heaven above them (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan and Roohul Ma'ani).

26. The true Kingdom on that Day is of the Most Affectionate. And it is a hard day on the infidels [52].

اَلْمُلْكُ يَوْمَئِذِ الْحَقُّ لِلرَّحْمٰنِ ؕ وَ كَانَ يَوْمًا عَلَى الْكٰفِرِيْنَ عَسِيْرًا ﴿٢٦﴾

52. On that day besides Allah Almighty, no one will have the sovereignty as was the case in the world. That day will be extremely severe on the infidels and very easy on the believers. Such a long day for the believer would spend the time taken for performing four Rak'aats.

death, according to which he was killed in the Battle of Badr. Ubay bin Khalaf was his friend about whose friendship Uqbah would be ashamed on the Day of Judgement. Although the purpose of revelation of this verse is specific but its injunction is general.

53. Reason for its Revelation:
This verse was revealed regarding Uqbah bin Hait who at first had recited the Kalima and accepted Islam then became an apostate by listening to Ubay bin Khalf. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had prophesised about his would be expressing regret at both of them. To keep religious friendship with the infidels is an act of infidelity, and worldly friendship is weakness of faith.

54. From this we understand that two things are important for Faith - to inculcate love for the pious and to show complete dislike for the evil. It is for this reason that the infidels will help them. Hence it is important to befriend the pious while in the world whose help will prove beneficial in the Hereafter.

لَقَدْ اَضَلَّنِيْ عَنِ الذِّكْرِ بَعْدَ اِذْ جَآءَنِيْ ؕ وَ كَانَ الشَّيْطٰنُ لِلْاِنْسَانِ خَذُوْلًا ﴿۲۹﴾

55. This tells us those who have gained the nearness of Allah Almighty will not abandon those who seek their intercession, but opposition to the Pharoah, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) in opposition to Namrod, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم him in opposition to Abu Jahl so that obedience to the Prophet can be seen.

58. By this is meant that the infidels at all times had been enemies of the Prophets. Thus you should not become narrow-minded because of their enmity. He always gains more publicity whose enemies are more. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was created in be remembered the help of those dear to Allah Almighty is indeed the help of the Divine. These sages are the reflections of the help of Allah Almighty. Thus, this verse does not necessarily prove that one cannot take the help of a servant of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And help each other in righteousness and piety" (S5:V2).

32. And the infidels said, 'Why was the Qur`aan not sent down all at once to them? [60]. We have thus sent it down gradually that We may strengthen [61] your heart there with, and We recited it with gradual recitation [62].

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَوْ لَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ الْقُرْاٰنُ جُمْلَةً وَّاحِدَةً ۚ كَذٰلِكَ ۚ مع لِنُثَبِّتَ بِهٖ فُؤَادَكَ وَ رَتَّلْنٰهُ تَرْتِيْلًا ﴿٣٢﴾

60. This means just as the Taurah and the Injeel were revealed instantly, why was the Holy QUR'AAN ,too, not revealed likewise. This objection is based on foolish assumption, because its revelation in stages is the biggest proof of it being a miracle. By opposing each verse it is revealing the helplessness of the infidels.

61. From this it is understood that the method of revelation of the Holy QUR'AAN is twice better than the method of revelation of the Taurat and Injeel. Firstly, those books were revealed instantly, while QUR'AAN was revealed in stages, secondly, those books were revealed in written form, while the QUR'AAN was revealed verbally. By coming in stages it became very easy for its followers to act upon it and it kept the line of communication between Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم open for all times. One can glean those meanings thorugh verbal revelation which is not possible to obtain through written books, because many different meanings come to the fore through intonation and pronunciation. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) said regarding the moon and the sun. "This is my Lord! " (S6:V78). If this expression is for information, then it is polytheism, but if it is in an interrogative tone, then it is pure faith.

62. In that He revealed it in a period of twenty three years. This tells us that the work of the beloved servants of Allah Almighty is indeed His work, because recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN was the work of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) yet Allah Almighty says he recited it. In it there is a hint for the people that the Holy QUR'AAN should be recited slowly. Says Allah Almighty: "And recite the QUR'AAN slowly and thoughtfully". (S73:V4) Thus, do not recite the complete QUR'AAN quickly in a day in such a manner that nothing can be understood.

33. And they will not bring you and saying but We shall bring you the truth and a better explanation [63].

وَ لَا يَاْتُوْنَكَ بِمَثَلٍ اِلَّا جِئْنٰكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَ اَحْسَنَ تَفْسِيْرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ ط

This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم has obtained such nearness in the court of Allah Almighty that when an objection is raised against him, صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم the reply is given by Allah Almighty.

63. Here the word 'saying' signifies objection while the word Truth signifies its reply i.e. whatever objections the infidels would raise against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم We will give an excellent reply to these.

complete the road, because whatever has been mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN as punishment for the infidels, Allah Almighty will protect the believers from these.

35. And undoubtedly, We gave Musa the Book and his brother Haroon as Minister [65].

(iii). No Prophet can become the minister of Allah Almighty because a minister is that person who helps the king to fulfil his needs and is able to bear the responsibilities of the kingdom. Allah Almighty is free from all such wants. He is totally Independent.

65. From this emerges a few issus:
(i) Taurah was revealed to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) only and not Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace). The latter was given the order to propagate the Taurah.
(ii) All the Prophets are not of equal rank - some are emperors while others are their ministers.

فَقُلْنَا اذْهَبَا إِلَى الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا ۚ فَدَمَّرْنَاهُمْ تَدْمِيرًا ﴿٣٦﴾

36. Then We said, 'both of you must go towards the people who have belied Our signs' [66]. Then We perished them after reckoning [67].

to the signs of Allah Almighty which point to the Oneness of Allah Almighty.
67. From this we learn that the Divine law is that no punishment has come upon any nation without them believing the Prophet of Allah.

66 Here people refers to the Pharoah and his people, but the verses do not signify verses of Taurah Shareef and the miracles of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) because these had not reached Pharoah. Instead, the verses refer the inmates of the ship saw them drowning and learnt a lesson from it.

70. It means Allah Almighty says this for the infidels "Undoubtedly, the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong" (S31:V13).

68 Because not believing in one Prophet is equal to falsifying all the Prophets. Hence there is nothing objectionable about the verse.

73. These are settlements of the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) on whom stones had fallen and had been overturned. People of Arabia who would go to Syria for trade purposes would see the remains of these devastated and overturned settlements. From this we learn that for proof of historical incidents, reputable reports about them are sufficient, because the Arabs had known about the conditions and whereabouts of these ruins from personal observations and not from the verses of the QUR'AAN.

41. And when they see you, they take you for mockery [74]. Is this the one Allah has sent as a Messenger? [75].

74. This tells us that to make a mockery of the prophet or look at anything of his with contempt is the way of the infidels.

75. Those who do not possess worldly glory and wealth. This tells us that prophethood cannot be seen from the outer-sight. It requires the discerning eye of faith.

Ibn Umme Maktoon (May Allah be pleased with him) recognized the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم though he was physically blind, while the one possessing sight like Abu Jahl failed to see Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as a Prophet of Allah.

76. From this we understand that even the infidels had acknowledged the strong influence of miracles. They would say that had they not been fully obstinate, they would long ago have been driven away from their infidelity. This tells us that treatment of obstinacy is impossible.

77. Either the infidels or the believers.

43. Have you seen him who has taken as his god [78] to be his own desire? Will you then take the responsibility of being a guardian over him? [79].

اَرَءَيْتَ مَنِ اتَّخَذَ اِلٰهَهٗ هَوٰىهُ ؕ اَفَاَنْتَ تَكُوْنُ عَلَيْهِ وَكِيْلًا ۙ﴿۴۳﴾

78. It was the custom of the polytheists of Arabia that everyone from them had been worshipping one stone. After a while when they found a better stone, they would discard that stone and begin worshipping the new one. Thus everyone was totally free to follow his own desires and did as he pleased. This has been discussed in this verse. This tells us that freedom is a good thing but non-restriction and lawlessness is detrimental. Here the word ILAH denotes one who is obeyed and HAWA signifies that desire which is contrary to Quranic order.

44. Or do you think that most of them hear and understand? [80]. They are not but like cattle, nay, but they are the worst astray from the path [81].

اَمْ تَحْسَبُ اَنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ يَسْمَعُوْنَ اَوْ يَعْقِلُوْنَ ؕ اِنْ هُمْ اِلَّا كَالْاَنْعَامِ بَلْ هُمْ اَضَلُّ سَبِيْلًا ﴿۴۴﴾

80. Not at all. This verse is the commentary of the following verse: "Nor you make the deaf to hear the call" (S30:V52). This tells us that in these verses the blind, the deaf and the dead denote the infidels whose hearts are dead and the eyes and ears are blind and deaf, unable to see and hear the Truth.

81 From this verse is understood any intelligence which is unable to recognize Allah Almighty and His Messenger is stupidity, because they are the true objectives of life. We further learn that their recognition is not achieved

SECTION: 5

45. O beloved! Have you not seen your Lord [82] that how He has spread the shadow [83]. And if He had willed, He would have made it stationary [84]

The infidels called polytheism, guidance and faith as apostasy. Allah Almighty replied to them in their own expression that in future they themselves would be able to decide who had gone astray, and who have been on the path of Truth.

To eat and drink, without fasting, in the month of Ramadaan would be included in HAWA, not giving Zakaat when this is due, too, is HAWA.

79. Not at all. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the custodian and pleader for the believers, because the lack of custodian for the infidels is being mentioned here. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly We sent towards you a Messenger who is witness over you" (S73:V15).

merely from one's intelligence, but it is truly achieved through the bounty of Allah Almighty. Observe, the stones and dry wood recognized the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him) but those who failed to believe in him were people like Abu Jahl. They became worse than the animals because the animals recite the glory of Allah Almighty, they obey and recognize the masters who feed them, they understand things which are beneficial and harmful, they recognize their home. But the infidels fail to understand any of these.

then We have made the sun guide over it [85].

عَلَيْهِ دَلِيْلًا ۙ﴿۴۵﴾

82. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم saw Allah Almighty with his own eyes, and has seen the entire creation being created because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the first in the creation of Allah Almighty and everything is created in his presence. Therefore, on the occasion of the first Revelation, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم recognized Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) as an angel and whatever he spoke as Divine Revelation. Thus if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had not recognized him, the verse "Recite with the name of your Lord who created" (S96:V1) would not have remained a certainty.

83. It should be remembered that the night is the shadow of the earth, i.e. We have during the night made the shadow of the earth in the world spacious which has caused the darkness.
84. In that the sun would not have risen, or the sun would have risen, but it would not have dispelled the darkness , and the night would not have passed and the day would not have come.
85. Due to the absolute power of Allah Almighty, or regarding the coming and passing of the night, in that through the speed of the sun one perceives that night is now approaching.

46. Then We rolled it up towards Us slowly, slowly [86].

ثُمَّ قَبَضْنٰهُ اِلَيْنَا قَبْضًا يَّسِيْرًا ﴿۴۶﴾

86. Thus as the sun began to rise, darkness began to fall away and light began to spread.

Even in this slowness there is Divine wisdom.

47. And it is He who has made for you the night a covering [87] and the sleep a rest [88] and made the day to rise up [89].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الَّیْلَ لِبَاسًا وَّالنَّوْمَ سُبَاتًا وَّ جَعَلَ النَّهَارَ نُشُوْرًا ﴿۴۷﴾

87. In that the night conceals all sorts of people and all types of deeds. It should be remembered that here the word covering does not denote religious covering. Hence, wearing clothes even at night is obligatory. You cannot offer Salaah in the darkness of the night in the nude.
88. Sleep for the general people is rest for the body and for the specific people it is rest for the soul, for they are privileged by seeing Allah Almighty and the beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم while in this state.
89. By this is meant that during the day do your work and seek your sustenance. You will be raised after death on the Day of Judgement in the same way.

48. And it is He Who has sent winds bearing glad tidings [90] before His Mercy, and We sent down water from the sky [91] purifying [92].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْۤ اَرْسَلَ الرِّیٰحَ بُشْرًۢا بَیْنَ یَدَیْ رَحْمَتِهٖ ۚ وَ اَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءً طَهُوْرًا ۙ﴿۴۸﴾

90. The Holy QUR'AAN refers to wind of mercy as REYAAH and the destructive wind as REEH. Hence here REEYAH denotes winds of mercy which bring forth rain, brings benefits to the creation as is understood from the next verse.
91. From the sky or due to the sky, in that, from the heat of the sun He made vapour from the waters of the oceans. Then, He raised this vapour upwards to cause condensation. Then He let it come down as rain. May Allah be praised!

Marfat.com

92. From this we understand that Wudu and Ghusal are permissible by using rain water, as well as from other water which is like rain water.

49. So that We may thereby give life to a dead city, and give it for drink to Our created many cattle and men [93].

لِّنُحْيِيَ بِهٖ بَلْدَةً مَّيْتًا وَّ نُسْقِيَهٗ مِمَّا خَلَقْنَاۤ اَنْعَامًا وَّ اَنَاسِيَّ كَثِيْرًا ﴿۴۹﴾

93. It should be remembered that due to the blessing of the rain, water gathers into wells, ponds, rivers, etc. Therefore, all these dry-up during a drought. In some places people only drink rain water. Hence, the verse is crystal clear and no objection can be raised against it.

50. And undoubtedly, We have fixed turn of water [94] amongst them that they may take heed, but most of the people accepted not but being ungrateful.

وَ لَقَدْ صَرَّفْنٰهُ بَيْنَهُمْ لِيَذَّكَّرُوْا ۫ فَاَبٰۤى اَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ اِلَّا كُفُوْرًا ﴿۵۰﴾

94 In that sometimes it rains at one place and at other times at another place. Then it comes each time in due course. Similarly, the Holy QUR'AAN is the rain of mercy which gives each one a separate share.

51. And if We had willed, We would have sent a warner to every town [95].

وَ لَوْ شِئْنَا لَبَعَثْنَا فِيْ كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ نَّذِيْرًا ﴿۵۱﴾

95. Yet He did not do this. Instead, He made only the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم the guide for entire mankind. All the Prophets were stars, but you Oh My Beloved, is the sun. They were therefore greater in number, but you are the only Seal of the Prophets.

52. Obey then not the infidels and wage war against them with this Qur`aan mighty war [96]

فَلَا تُطِعِ الْكٰفِرِيْنَ وَجَاهِدْهُمْ بِهٖ جِهَادًا كَبِيْرًا ﴿۵۲﴾

96 The major Jihad takes different forms: verbal form is propagation, to refute the infidels and their deities, to abhor them whole-heartedly to remain aloof from all of them, not to maintain links of love with them, to remain firm on your religious beliefs while staying with the infidels. It should be remembered that here the word Jihad does not denote battle with weapons because Surah Furqaan is Makkan, while Jihad became obligatory in Madina.

53. And it is He Who caused to flow two seas together, this one is sweet, very palatable and this one saltish, bitter in taste, and placed a barrier in between them and a forbidden ban [97].

وَ هُوَ الَّذِيْ مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ هٰذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ وَّ هٰذَا مِلْحٌ اُجَاجٌ ۚ وَ جَعَلَ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخًا وَّ حِجْرًا مَّحْجُوْرًا ﴿۵۳﴾

Marfat.com

97. Some portion of the ocean are salty and bitter while other parts are sweet. Yet the sweet and the salty does not mix into one another, though water by nature mixes easily. In this Allah Almighty has reflected His absolute Power.

54. And it is He Who created man from water [98] then appointed for him relationship by blood and relationnship [99] by marriage. And your Lord is powerful.

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْ خَلَقَ مِنَ الْمَآءِ بَشَرًا فَجَعَلَهٗ نَسَبًا وَّ صِهْرًا ؕ وَ كَانَ رَبُّكَ قَدِیْرًا ﴿۵۴﴾

98. This means from the sperms of the parents He made bone structure from the sperm of the father and the meat from the sperm of the mother. Therefore family lineage is from the father and not from the mother. Hazrat Adam, Bibi Hawa and Hazrat Iesa (On them be peace) are excluded from this natural law and this separation is brought about by the Holy QUR'AAN. Thus law is one thing but Divine Power is another. We are duty bound to the law, not Allah Almighty. Regarding Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) Allah Almighty says:

"The likeness of Iesa with Allah is like Adam. He created him of dust, then said, Be and was at once" (S3:V59). In terms of the law fire should burn, but Divine Power is that it would not burn Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). Do not regard Allah Almighty as One to be governed by any law. It is obligatory upon us to bring faith on all His laws and His power.

55. And they worship besides Allah that which can neither do well to them nor can harm them [100] and the infidel helps the devil against his Lord [101].

وَ یَعْبُدُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ مَا لَا یَنْفَعُهُمْ وَ لَا یَضُرُّهُمْ ؕ وَ كَانَ الْكَافِرُ عَلٰی رَبِّهٖ ظَهِیْرًا ﴿۵۵﴾

99. So that you would be able to perpetuate your progeny and become superior to the animals.

100. This means that there is no benefit from their worship, nor is there any harm from their abstention of worship. In fact, the matter is the opposite. There is benefit in not worshipping them and harm in worshipping them. Otherwise stones, trees, moon, the sun, etc render many benefits. Hence nobody can raise this objection on the verse that why did Allah Almighty refer to these beneficial things as useless.

101. This tells us that indulging in infidelity and polytheism is aiding the devil and confronting Allah Almighty.

56. And We have not sent you but as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner [102].

وَ مَاۤ اَرْسَلْنٰكَ اِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَّ نَذِیْرًا ﴿۵۶﴾

102. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم would give glad tidings of Paradise and warning of fear about Hell. He does not prophesy about any prophet because there is no prophet that would be coming after him. Thus the Qadyanis cannot use this verse as a proof because here 'bearer of glad- tidings' is used with warner, not with verification. Wherever mention is made of the verification by the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم no mention is made of his prophecy.

this but whosoever wills may take away towards his Lord [103].

103. This means your acceptance of guidance and being an obedient servant of Allah Almighty is indeed my reward, because Allah Almighty would be rewarding me for that. And that is the meaning of this verse:

"Say you; If I might have asked you some reward against it, then it is yours" (S34:V47). This means the reward which I desire from you is beneficial indeed for you i.e. your acceptance of faith.

58. And rely you upon the living One that will never die [104] and glorify Him admiring. And Sufficient is He, Aware of the sins of His bondmen.

وَ تَوَكَّلۡ عَلَى الۡحَىِّ الَّذِىۡ لَا يَمُوۡتُ وَسَبِّحۡ بِحَمۡدِهٖ ؕ وَكَفٰى بِهٖ بِذُنُوۡبِ عِبَادِهٖ خَبِيۡرَ ۚ ﴿۵۸﴾

104 Here the word TRUST is trust as stipulated by Islam i.e. to act in accordance with the resources, and to place absolute trust in Allah Almighty. Trust in the mystical life is the abandonment of motives and material resources.

59. Who made heavens and earth and whatever is between them in six days, [105] then He settled Himself on the throne befitting His dignity? The Most Affectionate Ask you then concerning Him anyone who knows [106].

105. This means amounting to six days, otherwise at that point in time there was no sun. Days and nights are caused by the movement of the sun. In this respect there is education for man that he should not become hasty in any matter. Any work which is done with calmness is always done well.

106. This means Oh those who recite the Holy QUR'AAN ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم about praises and laudation of Allah Almighty because Allah Almighty is One who is praised and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the most commendable in respect of praise. Likewise, ask Allah Almighty for Na'at (praises) of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because Allah Almighty is the One Who Praises and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is His praised one! Thus the address here is made to the believers, while 'anyone who knows' refers to the Holy Prophet! صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

60. And when it is said to them, prostrate [107] yourself before the Most Affectionate, they say, ' what is the Most Affectionate, shall we prostrate to such whom you bid to us? And this order increased their aversion [108].

وَ اِذَا قِيۡلَ لَهُمُ اسۡجُدُوۡا لِلرَّحۡمٰنِ قَالُوۡا وَ مَا الرَّحۡمٰنُ �ۗ اَنَسۡجُدُ لِمَا تَاۡمُرُنَا وَ زَادَهُمۡ نُفُوۡرًا ﴿۶۰﴾

107. Offer Salaah to gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty. Here the word Sajdah denotes the entire Salaah. Because Sajdah is the lofty essential of Salaah, it has been mentioned here. From this we learn that the infidels are duty-bound to worship by Allah Almighty. It is obligatory upon them to accept Islam and perform their Salaah.

108. This tells us that the teachings of the Prophet proves a greater means of aversion to those who are wretched; just as the eyes of the bat becomes blinded by the sun.

SECTION: 6

تَبٰرَكَ الَّذِیْ جَعَلَ فِی السَّمَآءِ بُرُوْجًا وَّ جَعَلَ فِیْهَا سِرٰجًا وَّ قَمَرًا مُّنِیْرًا ﴿۶۱﴾

61. Most Blessed is He Who made constellations in the sky and placed therein a lamp and a shining moon [109].

109. The word Siraj denotes bright by itself and Muneer signifies brightened by someone. The sun is bright on its own while the moon receives brightness from the sun. Hence Allah Almighty has referred to the sun as Siraj and the moon as Muneer. It should be remembered, that Allah Almighty has also called the sun as Siraj and our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم as "brightening sun" (S33:V46) because everyone received light from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم but the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم was not illuminated by anyone in the creation. In addition, the Holy Propeht's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم coming in this world is like the rising sun which obviated the need for any light. It should be observed that the sun extinguishes all lights but it illuminates the insignificant specks. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم abrogated the religions of the previous Prophets, but he illuminated the Ulama and the Saints of Allah Almighty. It should be remembered that the sun, the moon, etc are in the orbit of the sky and not in the sky itself. The sky is very far from them.

وَ هُوَ الَّذِیْ جَعَلَ الَّیْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ خِلْفَةً لِّمَنْ اَرَادَ اَنْ یَّذَّكَّرَ اَوْ اَرَادَ شُكُوْرًا ﴿۶۲﴾

62. And He it is Who has made the night and day changing [110] one after the other, for him who wishes to pay attention or intends to be grateful [111].

110. In that the night is the successor of the sun and the sun is the successor of the night. Thus, the worship left out in the night must be offered as Qaza in the day, and that of the day at the night (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). The coming of the day and night one after the other reflects the Power of Allah Almighty.

obtains full benefits from the things of the world because through these means he acquires knowledge of Allah Almighty. The unmindful person remains totally bereft of this type of reflecting and deliberating. Every particle of the world to the believer is a book of the mystical knowledge of Allah Almighty.

111. This means that the intelligent believer

وَ عِبَادُ الرَّحْمٰنِ الَّذِیْنَ یَمْشُوْنَ عَلَى الْاَرْضِ هَوْنًا وَّ اِذَا خَاطَبَهُمُ الْجٰهِلُوْنَ قَالُوْا سَلٰمًا ﴿۶۳﴾

63. And the bondmen of the Most Affectionate are those who walk on the earth modestly [112] and when the ignorant addresses them, they say, 'peace' [113].

112. This means the manner of movement of the believers is one of humility and politeness i.e. when they walk they lower their gaze, and walk with slow steps. They neither knock nor stamp their feet, nor walk with vanity and pride.

113. By this greeting is meant greeting of desisting and not of salutation. It is like saying to someone Salaam to you from far. This mild conversation is for your own. If, in the affairs of Allah Almighty and His Beloved Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم honour are at stake, then one becomes dutybound to adopt a hard line. Says Allah Almighty: "They are hard against the infidels" (S48:V29).

its lofty essentials.

3. A little worship in Tahajjud gains the reward of the worship of the entire night.

64. And those who pass the night for their Lord in prostration and standing [114].

114 From this emerge several issues:

1. That Salatul Tahajjud is an excellent prayer.
2. That Qiyaam and Sajdah in Salaah are

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ رَبَّنَا اصْرِفْ عَنَّا عَذَابَ جَهَنَّمَ ۖ اِنَّ عَذَابَهَا كَانَ غَرَامًا ﴿٦٥﴾

In fact, the stronger their Imaan the more intense is their programme of worship, and fear of Allah Almighty.

65. And those who request, 'O our Lord', avert from us the torment of the Hell; undoubtedly, its torment is inseperable [115].

115. This means that the believers seek refuge from Hell despite their intense worship and performing mystical exercises. They are never proud of their worship nor boast about it.

اِنَّهَا سَآءَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَّ مُقَامًا ﴿٦٦﴾

Hell to take the sinful believers out of it, the Hell would not be a place of punishment.

66. Undoubtedly, that is vile place of abode [116].

116 This means for him Hell is the place of punishment and his abode. For those angels or inmates of Paradise who would be going into should not be regarded as wastage. A person on seeing a pious person giving excessive charity remarked: "There is no piety on wastage" On hearing this the pious man replied: "There is no wastage on gaining piety".

وَالَّذِيْنَ اِذَآ اَنْفَقُوْا لَمْ يُسْرِفُوْا وَ لَمْ يَقْتُرُوْا وَكَانَ بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ قَوَامًا ﴿٦٧﴾

67. And those who when they expend neither exceed [117] the limit nor they are straitened and remain in between the two on the middle path.

117. By Israaf - wastage - is either meant spending wealth on unlawful things, or to spend in excess on lawful things. To lessen the spending on the stipulated rights by Allah Almighty is miserliness. One should remember that to spend excessively in order to attain piety

وَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَدْعُوْنَ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ وَ لَا يَقْتُلُوْنَ النَّفْسَ الَّتِيْ حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ اِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَ لَا يَزْنُوْنَ ۚ وَمَنْ يَّفْعَلْ ذٰلِكَ يَلْقَ اَثَامًا ﴿٦٨﴾

68. And those who worship not any other god [118] along with Allah, and kill not the same that Allah has forbidden unjustly [119] and do not commit adultery; and whosoever does this shall get the punishment.

118. They remain totally aloof from infidelity, polytheism and defective beliefs. It should be remembered that mention has been made of polytheism because this is the worst form of defective beliefs, the other defective beliefs are subordinate to it.

119 To kill a wicked person. Similarly to sacrifice an honourable life for the sake of truth is also permissible. Hence it is lawful to kill the infidels in a battle. To kill a Muslim thief and an adulterer is also allowed.

يُّضٰعَفْ لَهُ الْعَذَابُ يَوْمَ الْقِيٰمَةِ وَ يَخْلُدْ فِيْهٖ مُهَانًا ﴿٦٩﴾

69. The torment shall be multiplied to him on the Day of Resurrection, and he shall abide therein forever-disgraced [120].

120. If he committed these sins by regarding them as lawful acts then he would become an infidel, and an infidel, would remain in Hell eternally. But if he did them with the knowledge that they are unlawful acts, then he will remain in Hell for a very long period. The first meaning is more aparent because further on, with repentance, bringing of faith is also mentioned.

اِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَاٰمَنَ وَ عَمِلَ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا فَاُولٰٓئِكَ يُبَدِّلُ اللّٰهُ سَيِّاٰتِهِمْ حَسَنٰتٍ ؕ وَكَانَ اللّٰهُ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا ﴿٧٠﴾

70. But he who repents [121] and believes and does good deeds [122] then Allah will change [123] the vices of such persons with virtues. And Allah is the Most Forgiving and the Most Merciful.

121. From this we learn that repentance can be sought in matters of murder, but only with Divine right. As far as human rights are concerned, it is important to seek the forgiveness from the person concerned. In other words, to pay blood money to the heirs of the victim and seek forgiveness from them would be the repentance of murder.

122. From this we learn that a prerequisite for repentance is to change your bad deeds thereafter. Express remorse at the previous sins, and safeguard yourself from the sin in future. These are two pillars of repentance.

123. Or in this way, that due to the blessings of repentance Allah Almighty will guide you towards piety in the future. And that person through the bounties of Allah Almighty will die doing good deeds equal or even more to the sinful deeds; thereby obtaining atonement for his sins. Or, Allah Almighty on the Day of Judgement would give such a person one good deed for every sin out of His Generosity. This would not be a compensation for the sins, but as an exchange for them, like alchemists' stone changes copper into gold and use of salt changes alcohol into vinegar.

وَمَنْ تَابَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَاِنَّهٗ يَتُوْبُ اِلَى اللّٰهِ مَتَابًا ﴿٧١﴾

71. And whosoever repents and does good deeds, the he turned towards Allah in a manner, as it was necessary [124].

124. This means true and sincere repentance is of that person whose deeds become pious after offering repentance and whose character becomes in accordance to what he says.

وَالَّذِيْنَ لَا يَشْهَدُوْنَ الزُّوْرَ ۙ وَ اِذَا مَرُّوْا بِاللَّغْوِ مَرُّوْا كِرَامًا ﴿٧٢﴾

72. And those who do not give false evidence [125] and when they pass by anything vain pass on keeping their dignity 126.

125. In that they keep their distance from the gatherings of dishonest and evil doers so that they do not get the chance of testifying for the liars. It is for this reason that our Ulama say do not go to listen to the lectures of those whose beliefs are defective and refrain from the fun fair of the infidels, because all these things are included under falsehood.

126. This means they do not attend evil gatherings. If they happen to come across evil doers on their way they would avoid them and pass by.
They would neither stop there nor show their approval of them.

73. And those who when they are reminded of the signs of their Lord fall not there at deaf and blind [127].

وَالَّذِيْنَ اِذَا ذُكِّرُوْا بِاٰيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَمْ يَخِرُّوْا عَلَيْهَا صُمًّا وَّ عُمْيَانًا ﴿٧٣﴾

127. From this emerge two issues:
1. With regards to verses of the Holy QUR'AAN, one should either ponder and reflect if one has the knowledge and ability for it, or else follow those who have the knowledge. Says Allah Almighty: "Then Oh people! ask the men of knowledge if you know not" (S16:V43)
2. To understand the QUR'AANic injunctions take the help of intelligence or of Taqleed, and abandon your intelligence for the servitude of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Says Allah Almighty: "And it is not befitting to a Muslim man or Muslim woman, when Allah Almighty and His Messenger have decreed something that they should have choice in their matters" (S33 :V36).

74. And those who submit, 'O our Lord', grant us from our wives and offspring the coolness of eyes [128] and make us the leader of those who guard themselves against evil [129].

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ اَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيّٰتِنَا قُرَّةَ اَعْيُنٍ وَّ اجْعَلْنَا لِلْمُتَّقِيْنَ اِمَامًا ﴿٧٤﴾

128. This means Oh Allah Almighty grant us such pious wives and children who will cool our eyes and gladden our hearts at seeing their piety. It should be remembered that the piety and fear of Allah Almighty of the children of the believers provides coolness to the graves of their parents, as a result they obtain peace and paradise in the grave. Due to such pious children the rank and status of the parents continue to grow.
129. From this we learn that it is commendable to seek religious leadership.
However, in times of need it is permissible to seek leadership of the world as well, as long as it is not for any ulterior motives but solely for the service of mankind. Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) told the king of Egypt: "Set me over the treasures of the earth" (S12:V55). Its prohibition mentioned in the Hadith, is on the basis of seeking worldly leadership for the purpose of selfish gains. Says Allah Almighty: "Those who desire not exaltation on the earth, nor disorder" (S28:V83).

75. Those shall be rewarded with the highest upper apartment of the paradise, the recompense [130] of their patience, and they will be received there in with greetings and peace [131].

اُولٰٓئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرْفَةَ بِمَا صَبَرُوْا وَ يُلَقَّوْنَ فِيْهَا تَحِيَّةً وَّ سَلٰمًا ﴿٧٥﴾

130. Because they had performed such excellent deeds that they themselves became pious and made their wives and children pious as well.
131. That at their time of death angels would lead them. Or that at the time of entering the grave or Paradise, their time of death would be one of delight and happiness. May Allah Almighty grant the same for sinners like us as well. Amin. Oh Lord of the worlds grant this to us through the medium and Waseelah of Your Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم

خٰلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا ؕ حَسُنَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَّمُقَامًا ﴿٧٦﴾

76. They shall abide therein forever, what a decent place of abode and habitation [132].

132. This means only those would be deriving benefit from Paradise who would find a place to stay there. Otherwise, infidels would be shown Paradise in the graves then it would be snatched away from them which would overwhelm them with grief.

قُلْ مَا يَعْبَؤُا بِكُمْ رَبِّيْ لَوْ لَا دُعَآؤُكُمْ ۚ
فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ فَسَوْفَ يَكُوْنُ لِزَامًا ﴿٧٧﴾ ع ٦ ١٠ ٢ ٣

77. Say you, 'you are of no value [133] to my Lord if you do not worship Him [134], then indeed you belied [135] therefore now there will be a cleaving torment [136].

133. This means those who do not worship Allah Almighty, have no value and respect in the Divine court. From it we reach this conclusion that the pious and worshipping believer has great value and respect by Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "The honour is for Allah and His Messenger and the believers" (S63:V8). This respect and honour would be in accordance with their degree of piety and worship.

134. A human being is a heap of sand or water. The light of faith is a praiseworthy thing found in him. "If the light of Godliness is not found in man, then what value is there for this scented heap of water and mud. Thus, the value and respect of man is linked with his faith and worship.

135. For the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Just as he is the leader of all the Prophets, his rejecters are the worst infidels among all the infidels, and his followers are the best Ummah (people) among all the nations and people.

136. This means necessary and eternal punishment, or on the occasion of worldly battles, like the Battle of Badr, etc. or in the grave or on the day of Judgement, or after reaching Hell.

SURA ASH-SHO'RAH (The Poet)

(MAKKAN)Revealed Before Hijrah1

11 Sections and 227 Verses 1279 Words, 5540 Letters

1 Surah Ash-Shu'ara is Makkan, besides the last four verses, i.e. verse two hundred and twenty four - to verse two hundred and twenty seven which are Madinite.It is made up of eleven chapters, two hundred and twenty seven verses, one thousand two hundred and eighty nine words, and five thousand five hundred and forty letters (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Affectionate, the Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ الْمُبِيْنِ ②

2. These are the signs of a bright book [2].

2. By 'the Bright Book' is meant the Holy QUR'AAN. Because it was crystal clear that the Holy QUR'AAN is the Book of Allah Almighty, therefore all Arabia had become helpless at opposing its Divinity. Hence, it is described as 'bright'.

لَعَلَّكَ بَاخِعٌ نَّفْسَكَ اَلَّا يَكُوْنُوْا مُؤْمِنِيْنَ ③

3. Haply you will lay down your life in the grief that they believed not [3].

3. In this there is an expression of the intensity of the Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم being the beloved of Allah Almighty. In addition, mention is made of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم intense kindness for the creation. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is kind to the followers, and Allah Almighty is kind to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. This means Oh My Beloved!

Are you going to give up your life due to grief because they do not want to accept faith? Do not grieve at all! It should be remembered that until the Day of Judgement our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم becomes grieved at our sinful deeds. Says Allah Almighty: "Heavy upon him is your suffering, he ardently desires your welfare" (S9:V128).

اِنْ نَّشَاْ نُنَزِّلْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ اٰيَةً فَظَلَّتْ اَعْنَاقُهُمْ لَهَا خٰضِعِيْنَ ④

4. If We willed, we could send down any sign upon them from the heavens, so that their high ones could remain bowed down before it [4].

4. When the infidels of Makkah did not declare faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم it became extremely unpalatable for him. In response these verses were revealed in which it is reported that he should not be saddened by their infidelity. You did your duty of propagation. To give guidance is now Our work. It should be remembered that here the sign either means heavenly calamity or making it apparent by the Knower of the Unseen by means of which these infidels could be forced into accepting faith. However such compulsive faith holds no credence (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani, etc).

5. And there comes not to them any new admonition [5] from the Most Affectionate, but they will turn their faces from it [6].

وَ مَا يَأْتِيْهِمْ مِّنْ ذِكْرٍ مِّنَ الرَّحْمٰنِ مُحْدَثٍ اِلَّا كَانُوْا عَنْهُ مُعْرِضِيْنَ ۝٥

5. It should be remembered that the coming of admonition to them is new. Or else, the Holy QUR'AAN is an ancient Book of Allah Almighty.

From this we learn that the Holy QUR'AAN should be listened to with utmost attentiveness. To show inattentiveness and unwillingness, is the action of the infidels. Wherever Muslims are engaged in business and are unable to pay attention to the recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN, it is not permissible to recite it at such places.

6. This means the reason for the infidels remaining on infidelity is that they listen to Quranic verses inattentively - they listen to it with outer ears and not with their inner ears.

6. Therefore, undoubtedly they belied, now soon there is to come to them the tidings of their mocking at[7].

فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوْا فَسَيَاْتِيْهِمْ اَنْۢبٰٓؤُا مَا كَانُوْا بِهٖ يَسْتَهْزِءُوْنَ ۝٦

7. This means that they would soon be plunged into punishment of Badr, their death, of the grave or of the Day of Judgement.

7. Have they not seen the earth, how many noble pairs have We caused to grow their in [8]?

اَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا اِلَى الْاَرْضِ كَمْ اَنْۢبَتْنَا فِيْهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيْمٍ ۝٧

8. Human pairs, males and females, fortunate and wretched, black and white; animal pairs - beneficial and harmful, lawful and unlawful pairs in plants - beneficial and harmful. Or there is in every botanical species a male and a female. In all these pairs there are good as well as the bad and the Creator of all of them is Allah Almighty. But mention is made of the good in order to bestow honour on them.

8. undoubtedly, therein necessarily is a [9] sign, but most of them are not to believed.[10]

اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ اَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝٨

9. That water, the earth, the sun and the air, are all one, but the things which are created from them are different. From this one can understand the absolute Power of Allah Almighty.

10. Because Oh My Beloved he who did not declare faith in you can in no other way understand Allah Almighty. Those among them who believe in you, will surely understand and know Allah Almighty. It is for this reason that the word 'often' is used. It should be remembered this 'often' is not supplementary because most people of Arabia did eventually accept Islam. Just a few died as infidels. Here the word 'often' is used to denote many.

وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الرَّحِيْمُ ۝٩

9. And undoubtedly, your Lord necessarily He is dignified, Merciful [11].

11. Punishing the evil doers is the expression of Allah Almighty's honour and greatness, and rewarding the pious is dependent on the Mercy of Allah Almighty.

SECTION: 2

وَ اِذْ نَادٰى رَبُّكَ مُوْسٰٓى اَنِ ائْتِ الْقَوْمَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ۙ۝١٠

10. And [12] recall when your Lord called Musa saying. 'go to the people unjust'.

12. In the valley of Aiman while going from MADYAN to Egypt, when he was bestowed with prophethood.

قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ ؕ اَلَا يَتَّقُوْنَ ۝١١

11. The people [13] of Pharaoh (Firawn) Will they not fear?

13. The Qibtee people. Although Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was the prophet to the Israelites as well, but the special message mentioned here was for the Qibtees. Therefore they are mentioned.

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّيْٓ اَخَافُ اَنْ يُّكَذِّبُوْنِ ۝١٢

12. He submitted, ' O Lord', I fear that they will belie me [14].

14. This 'fear' denotes anxiety, i.e. the fear of oppression of the oppressor. This type of fear is not against prophethood and in the verse 'no fear upon them' where fear denotes obedience. Such a type of fear is never experienced by Prophets and Saints. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

وَ يَضِيْقُ صَدْرِيْ وَ لَا يَنْطَلِقُ لِسَانِيْ فَاَرْسِلْ اِلٰى هٰرُوْنَ ۝١٣

13. And my breast straitens and my [15] tongue does not move fluently, therefore make Haroon a Messenger [16].

15. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) expressed three reasons for the prophethood of Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace): the fear of Pharoah's oppression; tightness of the heart at the time of being falsified by Pharoah; i.e. great deal of emotional outbreak and much fear which could bring about a hinderance in his preaching; his handicap of stammering which obstructed clarity of speech. It has been stated in Tafseer Tanweerul - Miqyaas that by tightness of the heart is meant lacking boldness.

16. Those who help me. From this we learn that to seek help from the servants of Allah Almighty is the way of the Prophets. To call this as unlawful and polytheism is indeed an act of great ignorance. We further learn that some prophets were given prophethood through dua - (prayer) e.g. the prophethood of Hazrat Haroon and Hazrat Lut (On them be peace).

وَ لَهُمْ عَلَيَّ ذَنْۢبٌ فَاَخَافُ اَنْ يَّقْتُلُوْنِ ۝١٤

14. And they have [17] a charge against me, so I fear they may kill me [18].

17. Murder of the Qibtee (Pharoah's man). From the pronoun 'they' we understand that the murder of the Qibtee was not a crime according to religious law, but it was a criminal act in terms of Pharoah's law.

18. There are many types of fears: fear of oppression, fear of greatness. In the heart of a Prophet there can be fear of oppression of the creation but not of the fear of their greatness. The fear of oppression is the cause of hatred, but the fear of greatness is reason for obedience. We run away from the snake because of fear. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) feared Pharaoh's oppression, but not his greatness.

15. (Allah) said, 'not [19] so; go both of you with Our signs, We hear with you [20].

قَالَ كَلَّا ۚ فَاذْهَبَا بِاٰيٰتِنَآ اِنَّا مَعَكُمْ مُّسْتَمِعُوْنَ ﴿١٥﴾

19. This means from now neither will you stutter, nor will you experience tightness of the heart, nor will they ever have control over you. From this we learn that Prophets are never dumb, deaf, nor of tight heart. We further understand that they are under a special gaze of kindness of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty to His Beloved Prophet "Verily you are before Our eyes" (S52:V48).

20.From it we learn that Allah Almighty is with His beloved servants and is found near them. If you want to seek Allah Almighty, then go to the doors (Mazaars) of the pious.

16.Therefore go to Pharaoh [21] (Firawn) then say to him, 'both of us are the Messenger of Him Who is the Lord of the worlds [22].

فَاْتِيَا فِرْعَوْنَ فَقُوْلَآ اِنَّا رَسُوْلُ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۙ﴿١٦﴾

21. The name of this Pharoah was Waleed bin Musib. His appellation was Abul Abbas and he lived for four hundred and sixty years (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani). There are many other statements regarding his name and age as well.

22. Although Hazrat Moosa and Hazrat Haroon (On them be peace) were both Prophets, but because Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) was his minister, the singular form of the noun is used. Hearing this, Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) left for Egypt. At that time he was wearing a cloak of expensive woollen cloth, he had a walking stick in his blessed hand, on the edge of the stick was a bag in which were things needed for the journey. Firstly he went to Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) and informed him about his prophethood and gave him glad-tidings that he had been bestowed with prophethood. He asked him to accompany him to the Pharoah. His beloved mother became frightened on hearing this and said that the Pharoah is searching for him to have him killed, but Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) did not stop. In the morning he came to Pharoah's court and delivered the message of Allah Almighty.

17. That sends you the children of Israel with us [23].

اَنْ اَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِيْٓ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ﴿١٧﴾

The Pharoah was acquainted with the physical world, but he was totally ignorant of the world of Light, the world of matter, the spiritual world, etc. Therefore, Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) mentioned about the physical world only, and that, too, regarding things between the heavens and the earth about which he was aware. (On whom be peace). At the same time, he made no mention of murder, in fact, he ordered him to be imprisoned. This, too, is for maintaining his commanding personality among his courtiers.

30. (Musa) said, what, even though I bring you something bright [39]?

Allah Almighty has protected me and has bestowed me with such wonderful miracles that your entire power is totally worthless in front of them.

Otherwise, the stick of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) turning into a snake could have swallowed the Pharoah. Our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم split the moon but did not destroy Abu Jahl by splitting his heart. You should also remember the proof of prophethood is provided through the miracles, and the proof of the Divine book is provided by the sayings of the Prophet. Because our Holy QUR'AAN is also the miracle of our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Prophethood, while in terms of a Divine Book is proven by the sayings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

palm which would always be facing towards him would remain normal.

debates with the intention that if our false Alim gains victory we will joyously accept it, but if the opposing Alim overpowers him, even if he is on the right path, we will not accept him. If the purpose of the debate is merely to embarrass the truthful, then these people would be following this method of the people of Pharoah.

47. This means if the magicians overpower Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), then we should, in keeping with the obedience of the magicians accept the Pharoah as god. The magicians were worshipping the Pharoah and the same obedience is meant here, and not accepting him as their king. And if Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) is victorious, then we will neither obey him nor give up the worshipping of the Pharoah. Therefore, no mention is made of victory of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). Today, those who attend

47. The magicians said, We believed in the Lords of the worlds.

48. Who is the Lord of Musa and Haroon [54]?

54. This tells us that the Prophet is the identification of Allah Almighty. He is the true Lord whom the Prophets and the pious servants have accepted as lords, because human intellect sometimes accepts the moon and the sun as god. The magicians had proclaimed that the Lord of the Worlds is He whom Hazrat Moosa and Hazrat Haroon (On them be peace) have accepted and as such Pharoah and other things are not deities.

قَالَ اٰمَنْتُمْ لَهٗ قَبْلَ اَنْ اٰذَنَ لَكُمْ ۚ اِنَّهٗ لَكَبِيْرُكُمُ الَّذِيْ عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ ۚ فَلَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۬ؕ لَاُقَطِّعَنَّ اَيْدِيَكُمْ وَاَرْجُلَكُمْ مِّنْ خِلَافٍ وَّ لَاُوصَلِّبَنَّكُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿٤٩﴾ ۚ

49. (Firawn) said, 'have you believed in him before I give you leave [55]? Undoubtedly, he is your big one who taught you magic; now you are to know, I swear, undoubtedly I shall cut off your hands and your feet's an alternate sides, and shall crucify you all [56].

55. Here the word 'before' denotes without meaning why did you declare faith in Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) without my permission. It does not mean that the Pharoah was going to give the permission to the magicians to accept faith. It should be remembered that at that point in time the Pharoah did not say anything to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). This was the revelation of that same Divine promise that the Pharoah will not say anything to you. Otherwise he regarded Hazrat Moosa's (On whom be peace) fault greater than that of the magicians.

56. The promise of Allah Almighty was fulfilled in that though the Pharoah had crucified the magicians, he said nothing to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace)

قَالُوْا لَا ضَيْرَ ۫ اِنَّآ اِلٰى رَبِّنَا مُنْقَلِبُوْنَ ﴿٥٠﴾

50. They said, 'there is no harm we are to return to our Lord [57].

57. This tells us that the death of a believer is a joy for him, as by means of it he meets Allah Almighty. Therefore, the death of the pious is called Urs or wedding, as it is the means of meeting of the beloveds. The death of an infidel is like the arrest of an escaped prisoner (Allah be praised). As soon as the magicians accepted faith, there was no fear left in their hearts besides that of Allah Almighty. "There is no fear nor any grief upon the friends of Allah" (S10:V62).

اِنَّا نَطْمَعُ اَنْ يَّغْفِرَ لَنَا رَبُّنَا خَطٰيٰنَآ اَنْ كُنَّآ اَوَّلَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٥١﴾ ع ١٨ ٢ ٧

What they meant was we are the first to declare faith in Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). From this we learn that a believer does not fear anyone besides Allah Almighty. As soon as these magicians gained companionship with Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), they attained the highest rank in faith. In a single day they became believers, saints, companions, people of patience and martyrs. "Oh unmindful man, seek not religion in the books, knowledge and wisdom are in books, but religion is obtained through the gaze of the pious".

اِنَّ هٰٓؤُلَآءِ لَشِرْذِمَةٌ قَلِيْلُوْنَ ﴿٥٤﴾

62. In that when they stayed in Egypt, they did so opposing us, when without our permission they went out of Egypt. At the time of departure they took our gold as well. From this we learn that it is an act of worship to inflame the confederate infidel, just as it is an act of reward to make a believer happy, it is an act of worship to displease the infidel.

56. And undoubtedly, we all are vigilant [63].

وَ اِنَّا لَجَمِيْعٌ حٰذِرُوْنَ ﴿٥٦﴾

64. This tells us that wherever there is the holy grave of a Prophet, no Divine punishment can come there. In Egypt there were graves of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) and his brothers. For this reason the Pharoah was not punished while he stayed there. But this came to him after he had left Egypt. The other people were punished while they were staying in the settlements. Egypt remained safe due to the blessings of the pious.

كَذٰلِكَ ؕ وَاَوْرَثْنٰهَا بَنِيْۤ اِسْرَآءِيْلَ ﴿٥٩﴾ ؕ

66. Thus, immediately after the drowning of the Pharoah or during the period of Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace), the Israelites went back and settled in Egypt and seized all the properties of the people of Pharoah. If these people had come to Egypt during the reign of Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace), then it means that the Israelites had become immediate owners of Pharoah's wealth, but took possession at a later date. Because no punishment had come to Egypt, therefore it was permissible to stay there.

60. Then the people of (Firawn) followed them at the sunrise [67].

فَاَتْبَعُوْهُمْ مُّشْرِقِيْنَ ﴿٦٠﴾

67. Thus the Pharoah arranged the army in such a way that six hundred thousand soldiers were in front, six hundred thousand behind, six hundred thousand on the right side and six hundred thousand on the the left side. In addition, a hugh number of soldiers were in the middle, while Pharoah himself was in their centre.

61. Then when the two groups saw each other, the people of Musa said, 'they over taken us' [68].

فَلَمَّا تَرَآءَ الْجَمْعٰنِ قَالَ اَصْحٰبُ مُوْسٰۤى اِنَّا لَمُدْرَكُوْنَ ﴿٦١﴾

68. In front is the sea and behind is the army of the Pharoah.

62. (Musa) said, 'not so, undoubtedly my Lord is with me, he guided me just now [69].

قَالَ كَلَّا ۚ اِنَّ مَعِيَ رَبِّيْ سَيَهْدِيْنِ ﴿٦٢﴾

69. This means Allah Almighty is with me, and I am with you, thus Allah Almighty is with you as well. And he with whom Allah Almighty is, he cannot be captured by anyone. From this we learn that a prophet is the highest means of getting to Allah Almighty. Without Prophets Allah Almighty is inaccessible. Those who are with the Prophet, Allah Almighty is with them, while those who separate themselves from the Prophet, they are far away from Allah Almighty. The statement of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was on the basis that Allah Almighty had said: "I am with both of you" (S20:V46).

71. This means on both sides of these twelve roads stood mountains of water (Allah be praised).

64. And We brought others nearer to that place [72].

وَاَزْلَفْنَا ثَمَّ الْاٰخَرِيْنَ ﴿٦٤﴾

وَ اَنْجَيْنَا مُوْسٰى وَمَنْ مَّعَهٗۤ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿٦٥﴾

73. From this we understand that the true purpose was to get Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) across to safety, while the others reached to safety, because they were with him. Hence, the words "and those with him" are used. Through the blessings of the word, iron also floats. The companionship of the pious is the means of salvation in this world and the Hereafter.

66. Then We drowned the others [74].

ثُمَّ اَغْرَقْنَا الْاٰخَرِيْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾ the Tauheed (Unity of Allah Almighty) of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). The mention of these events is for the information of the common people.

70. When he said to his father and his people, 'what do you worship [78]?

اِذْ قَالَ لِاَبِيْهِ وَ قَوْمِهٖ مَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ ﴿۷۰﴾

78. This question of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) was for the purpose of rebuke, otherwise, he knew fully that these people were polytheists.

71. They said, We worship idols, then we remain sitting devoted before them.

قَالُوْا نَعْبُدُ اَصْنَامًا فَنَظَلُّ لَهَا عٰكِفِيْنَ ﴿۷۱﴾

72. He said, 'do they hear you' when you call?

قَالَ هَلْ يَسْمَعُوْنَكُمْ اِذْ تَدْعُوْنَ ﴿۷۲﴾

73. Or do they do you any good or harm you? [79]

اَوْ يَنْفَعُوْنَكُمْ اَوْ يَضُرُّوْنَ ﴿۷۳﴾

79. Since none of these is found in these idols what benefit is there in their worship?

74. They said, 'nay we found our fathers doing so' [80].

قَالُوْا بَلْ وَجَدْنَآ اٰبَآءَنَا كَذٰلِكَ يَفْعَلُوْنَ ﴿۷۴﴾

80. This means we do not worship the idols through any thinking but in emulation of our forefathers.

75. He said, 'do you then see, what you worship''?

قَالَ اَفَرَءَيْتُمْ مَّا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُوْنَ ﴿۷۵﴾

76. You and your forefathers [81].

اَنْتُمْ وَ اٰبَآؤُكُمُ الْاَقْدَمُوْنَ ﴿۷۶﴾

81. From this we understand that if disobedient persons happen to be our relatives, they are our enemies, while those who are dear to Allah Almighty are beloved to us and our helpers even if they be strangers to us. This is the way of life of the Prophets, because from the forefathers of these people were the forefathers of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), and even these people were his relatives. Yet, he called all of them his enemies.

77. Undoubtedly they are all enemies [82] to me but the Lord of the worlds [83].

فَاِنَّهُمْ عَدُوٌّ لِّيْٓ اِلَّا رَبَّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۷۷﴾

82. From this emerge a few issues:
1. You should detest everything about the polytheists. Their idols and their temples are both contemptible things.
2. Hypocrisy is against the way of life of the Prophets. Although Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) at that point in time was alone and all his people were against him, he did not conceal his religion.
3. Prophets are granted strength of heart in a natural way. If Mirza Goolam Qadyani was a prophet, he should not have given up Hajj due to the fear of people.

83. Because these people were worshipping Allah Almighty as well as their idols, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) stated this distinction that idols are my enemies, while Allah Almighty is my Lord. Or its purpose is to impress upon the people that they should abstain from polytheism and worship Allah, the Lord of the worlds whose attributes are these.

78. He who created me therefore, He will guide me [84].

الَّذِیْ خَلَقَنِیْ فَهُوَ یَهْدِیْنِ ﴿۷۸﴾

84. This tells us that Allah Almighty is the guide of the Prophets to the Straight Path. The medium of a book or angels is not for them. Allah Almighty has said regarding the Holy QUR'AAN: "In it there is guidance for the God fearing" (S2:V2). This means Oh My beloved! this is not for you but for those who fear Allah. You are on the path of guidance from the first instance.

79. and He who feeds me and gives me to drink [85].

وَالَّذِیْ هُوَ یُطْعِمُنِیْ وَ یَسْقِیْنِ ﴿۷۹﴾

85. From this we learn that Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) did not commit polytheism even for a moment. The Prophets are safe- guarded from all types of defective beliefs and sinful deeds. For further clarification on the matter refer to the book ISMATE AMBIYA.

80. And when I am ill, it is He who heals me [86].

وَاِذَا مَرِضْتُ فَهُوَ یَشْفِیْنِ ﴿۸۰﴾

86. From this we learn that one should link evil towards oneself while excellence and goodness should be linked towards Allah Almighty. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) linked sickness with him but cure towards Allah Almighty. Otherwise, hardship and comfort are both from Allah Almighty. This was Hazrat Ebrahim's (On whom be peace) high standard of conduct.

81. And he who will cause me to die, then will make me alive.

82. And He who, I long will forgive my sins on the day of Requital [87].

وَالَّذِیْ یُمِیْتُنِیْ ثُمَّ یُحْیِیْنِ ﴿۸۱﴾
وَ الَّذِیْٓ اَطْمَعُ اَنْ یَّغْفِرَ لِیْ خَطِیْٓـَٔتِیْ
یَوْمَ الدِّیْنِ ﴿۸۲﴾

87. These words of Hazrat Ebrahim (on whom be peace) are for the purpose of educating others, so that people can learn to recite, to seek the pardon of Allah Almighty. Otherwise, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), himself, is totally free of sins. Or error sin denotes error that may take place in terms of the status of the Prophet. The error of those near to Allah Almighty are better than the good deeds of the pious people. In this statement, Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) has hinted that any person, no matter how pious he may be, should not be certain about his forgiveness, but instead he should hope from Allah Almighty for it. It is for this reason that the word 'I long' is used by him.

83. O my Lord! Bestow wisdom on me [88] and join me with those who are able of your proximity [89].

رَبِّ هَبْ لِیْ حُكْمًا وَّ اَلْحِقْنِیْ بِالصّٰلِحِیْنَ ﴿۸۳﴾

88. The word 'wisdom' here denotes knowledge and wisdom or prophethood. From this, one understands that this entire talk of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) is prior to being bestowed with Prophethood.

89. This request is also for the purpose of education, otherwise the special servants of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) were very pious i.e. they are all worthy of special proximity of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Yusuf and Hazrat Moosa (On them be peace) had made Dua for this proximity. To offer this Dua is the way of the Prophets.

84. And give me a true reputation among the later generations [90].

وَاجْعَلْ لِّيْ لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ فِي الْاٰخِرِيْنَ ﴿٨٤﴾

90. In that I should be remembered well by the future generations, and there should be prophets and saints born from them. From this we learn that to achieve a good name and being well spoken of in this world is a blessing of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) had prayed for this, and his Dua was accepted so effectively that even today he is held in high esteem by people. All the People of the Book call themselves followers of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace). The polytheists of India remember him in praiseworthy words as Krishna. The polytheists of Arabia too had attached themselves to him.

85. And make me among those who are the heirs of gardens of comfort [91].

وَاجْعَلْنِيْ مِنْ وَّرَثَةِ جَنَّةِ النَّعِيْمِ ﴿٨٥﴾

91. This means grant Paradise through Your Bounty and Kindness. In it has been hinted that Paradise is obtained through the bounty of Allah Almighty, and not just through one's good deeds, just as an heir receives the share of his inheritance, simply because he is an heir and nothing else. The same is the case with Paradise. May Allah Almighty be praised! Or it could mean every inmate of Paradise will take control of the portion allocated to the inmate of Hell. This control or possession is like the inheritance.

86. And forgive my father, undoubtedly he has gone astray [92].

وَاغْفِرْ لِاَبِيْٓ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ مِنَ الضَّآلِّيْنَ ﴿٨٦﴾

92. This means Oh Allah grant my uncle Azar the guidance to accept faith and repentance by means of which he can become entitled to Your forgiveness. He made this Dua because Azar had promised his father to accept faith. Says Allah Almighty: "And Ebrahim's asking forgiveness for his father was not but on account of a promise he had made to him" (S9:V114) (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan). Otherwise it is prohibited to make Dua of forgiveness for a polytheist. Therefore, it is unlawful to call him one who has been forgiven. (MAGHFOOR) and one who is blessed (MARHOOM).

87. And disgrace me not the day when all shall be raised [93].

وَلَا تُخْزِنِيْ يَوْمَ يُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿٨٧﴾

93. This Dua of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), too, is for educating the people, otherwise if Allah wills, the servants of the servant of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) are safeguarded from the embarrasment on the Day of Judgement.

88. The day when neither wealth nor son shall avail [94].

يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ مَالٌ وَّلَا بَنُوْنَ ﴿٨٨﴾

94. This tells us that on the Day of Judgement to be bereft of the help of one's wealth and children is for the non-believers. The believers would receive benefit from both.

101. From this one understands that the inmates of Hell will recognize one another on reaching there, and will censure one another.

Non-recognition of one another would be during the first part of the Day of Judgement. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

equal to Allah Almighty, some to be His children and some as His partners. A further reason for their polytheism was that they would believe in Allah Almighty without the Prophets.

prove beneficial, and they will have many intercessors.

This tells us that Prophets are worthy of absolute obedience. Every injunction of theirs is obligatory to be carried out, because their obedience is declared absolute, without any restrictions.

111. It should be remembered that here piety denotes Faith, and by obedience is meant piety. Thus, there is no contradiction in the verse. This means first believe in me, thereafter obey me in matters of pious deeds.

وَمَآ اَسْـَٔلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ ۚ اِنْ اَجْرِىَ اِلَّا عَلٰى رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۚ﴿١٠٩﴾ for his progeny, until the Day of Judgement i.e. those among his wealthy have been made obligatory to pay Zakaat, but those among his poor have been prohibited from taking Zakaat so that no one can say that Zakaat has been institutionalised for the upkeep of his poor progeny. Contrary to this teaching, Mirza Goolam Qadyani used prophethood as a pretext to amass worldy wealth, and after his death had declared the sale of graves in Qadyan as a means of sustenance for his progeny.

112. It should be remembered that the Prophets did not use Prophethood as a means of earning worldly things. They always declared "we do not require wages for propagating the Religion of Allah Almighty". Our Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, too, had declared this on numerous occasions that people must not think that prophethood is a pretext of earning worldly things, or it is a form of an occupation. (i). At all times the poor had always been the first to obey the Prophets.

(ii). To regard the believer as contemptible and to call him mean and vulgar are the ways of the infidels. No believer is mean, all are noble and honourable. On the other hand, no infidel is honourable.

This in no way proves Hazrat Nooh's (On whom be peace) lack of knowledge, because he was fully acquainted with their occupations and trades. He was living among them. He was fully aware even with the good fortune and wickedness of children in the wombs of the mothers and the loins of the fathers. He himself says: "Undoubtedly, if you would allow them to live, they will lead astray. Your bondsmen and they will beget none but an evil doer, and ungrateful" (S71:V27).

(i). The Prophets of Allah Almighty would first introduce themselves to the people, then they would introduce Allah Almighty and their religious injunctions. In his very first preaching, our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم asked the question what do they have to say about him, because faith is dependent on the identity of the Prophet;
(ii). It is absolutely necessary for the Prophet to be truthful and trustworthy, so that he is able to convey the message of Allah Almighty correctly;
(iii). To express gratitude to Allah Almighty, and to acquire the people with one's true status, it is permissible to talk of one's attributes personally. In fact, this is incumbent upon you.

128. This means no one asks for a salary for propagating the Religion of Allah Almighty. Thus, if a Prophet accepts payment for any other thing it would not be going against this. From this we learn that it is prohibited for a person to seek payment for a thing which is obligatory upon him. Many religious laws are arranged on this principle.
To give a salary to a religous scholar for the purpose of Imamat is permissible, because this responsibility which he is performing is not obligatory upon him. However, he cannot take payment for expounding a religious issue.

130. The people of Aad had constructed tall buildings alongside the road so that they could mock at the travellers and make them miserable. This very thing is discussed in this verse. Based on this verse, some scholars have commented that it is prohibited to construct vain and useless buildings. They maintain that why construct buildings which are useless and which give you no peace of mind? (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

Mistrust and prophethood cannot be found in one spot. The polytheists of Makkah had called our beloved Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم , the Trustworthy, from his youth, and from his young days would keep their possessions in his care, and would make the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم as their arbiter.

But this obligation is based on the promise and kindness of the Lord of Compassion and Beneficence which He has done out of His bounty, and not because of anyone's obligation.

154. You are indeed a man like us, [153] therefore bring any sign, if you are truthful. [154]

153. This tells us that to call a Prophet a human being for the purpose of equality, is an act of infidelity, because this was one of the things Allah Almighty has stated among the heretical statements. It should be remembered that the word BASHR (human being) in respect of the Prophet has either been used by Allah Almighty, the Prophet himself, or the infidels. Thus, the one who now calls him a human being is certainly not Allah Almighty, nor a prophet, so he must be an infidel.

154. This means show us such a miracle which would reveal that you are a true Prophet.

155. This she-camel was created from a stone, as a miracle of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace). The size of its breast was sixty yards. Time was fixed for using the water of the well; that one day these people would drink its water and the following day would be the turn of this she-camel. On her day, the she-camel would drink all the water.

وَ لَا تَمَسُّوۡهَا بِسُوۡٓءٍ فَيَاۡخُذَكُمۡ عَذَابُ يَوۡمٍ عَظِيۡمٍ ﴿۱۵۶﴾

156. And touch her not with evil, lest the torment of great day will overtake you. [156]

156. This tells us that any animal which is linked with Allah Almighty becomes worthy of our respect. Observe, today, too, the animals of Qurbani (sacrifice) are held in high esteem. We further learn, that the meat of any animal which causes harm, should be avoided, because it is obligatory to safeguard yourself from all harmful things.

فَعَقَرُوۡهَا فَاَصۡبَحُوۡا نٰدِمِيۡنَ ﴿۱۵۷﴾ ۙ

158. Therefore the torment [157] overtook them [158]. Surely in this, too, there is a lesson but most of them were not to believe [158]

157. It should be remembered that in the Religion of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) the camel was a lawful animal. It was permissible to slaughter it. However, the slaughtering of this particular she-camel and eating its meat was declared unlawful, because it was a means of harm for them. Even today, the prey from the fields of some holy sages have proven to be harmful, has been avoided. The proof for it is this she-camel.

158. This means even after the highest propagational effort of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) very few people had accepted faith. Therefore My beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم even if all the people of Arabia do not accept faith, you should not be despondent about it. This would not mean that there is any weakness in your effort of propagation, but that it is these people who are such wretches.

كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ لُوْطِ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ ﴿١٦٠﴾

160. The people of lut belied the Messengers. [159]

159. Here the word 'people' does not mean people by lineage, but those people to whom Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) had conveyed the Message of Allah Almighty and to whom he was sent as a Prophet. In truth, the family lineage and country of birth of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) was different to theirs. By this nation is meant Sadoom and by place is meant localities in its vicinity.

اِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ اَخُوْهُمْ لُوْطٌ اَلَا تَتَّقُوْنَ ﴿١٦١﴾

161. When their compatriot lut [160] said to them, 'do you not fear.' [161]

160. Here 'brotherhood denotes affection and benevolence. Otherwise Hazrat Lut was the nephew of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace), i.e. the son of Hazrat Harun (On whom be peace). He, too, accompanied Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) by migrating to Syria and was bestowed prophethood through his supplication.

161. Fear for Allah Almighty and His punishment. Or why don't you safeguard yourselves from the infidelity, dishonesty and going against My wishes, because the meaning of TAQWA is to fear as well as to safeguard and refrain. Says Allah Almighty: "Then if you cannot bring and We declare that you cannot bring, then dread the fire whose fuel is men and stones" (S2:V24).

اِنِّيْ لَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ اَمِيْنٌ ﴿١٦٢﴾

162. Undoubtedly, I am a trusted Messenger of Allah for you. [162]

162 This tells us that his Prophethood was restricted to the people of Sadoom only. Therefore, the pronominal suffix 'for you' has been used. The Prophethood of our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is for the entire universe. He whose Lord is Allah Almighty, his Prophet is Hazrat Muhammad صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيْعُوْنِ ﴿١٦٣﴾

163. Therefore fear Allah and obey me.

164. I ask you no wage for it [163], my wage is only upon Him Who is the Lord of the worlds. [164]

163. My only reward is that you should accept faith through which I would be credited in the Hereafter.

164. From this we learn that sodomy is the creation for the people of Lut. This was not practised before by anyone. For this reason this abominable practice has been called LAWATAH (derivation from Lut). Furthermore, even an animal does not indulge in this filthy practice. As is understood from "from among the creatures". A sodomite is worse than an animal. Also, the infidels, too, are duty bound to such laws because these are laws included in general behaviour. They are only excluded from laws pertaining to worship, and a few social ordinances.

165. The verse under discussion is a commentary of the following verse: "These women of my people are my daughters if you are to do" (S15:V71). This tells us that the word 'My daughters' refers to daughters of the people signifies their wives.

166. From this we understand Mu'tah or temporary marriage, lesbianism, sodomy, masturbation, etc are acts which are totally forbidden because this is exceeding the limits of Allah Almighty. Says Allah Almighty: "And who seeks others save those two, then they are the transgressors" (S70:V31).

167. They said, O lut' , if you desist not, then you shall necessarily be expelled out. [167]

قَالُوْا لَئِنْ لَّمْ تَنْتَهِ يٰلُوْطُ لَتَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُخْرَجِيْنَ ﴿١٦٧﴾

167. By this is meant expelled from this locality. This tells us that fortunate people regard the presence of pious people as a blessing for them because their existence is a means of obtaining Divine mercy. While the wretched people regard them as a form of misfortune and thus seek to distance themselves from them, as if they are seeking their own death by themselves.

168. He said, ' I am disgusted of your doings. [168]

قَالَ اِنِّيْ لِعَمَلِكُمْ مِّنَ الْقَالِيْنَ ﴿١٦٨﴾

168. From this emerge a few issues:

1. To Taqiyya feign piety is against the way of life of the Prophets.
2. Allah Almighty grants His Prophets such great strength and valour that they are least worried about the opposition of their entire people.
3. To express disgust at the evil doers is the way of life of Prophets.

169. O my Lord! Save me and my family from their doings. [169]

رَبِّ نَجِّنِيْ وَ اَهْلِيْ مِمَّا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿١٦٩﴾

169. This means save me from the punishment for evil deeds. This supplication is for the education of others because Allah Almighty protects His Prophets from the sins and from the evil of the sins. By family members is meant family members of faith. His infidel wife is excluded from this prayer, as she became involved in this punishment.

170. Therefore We delivered him and all his family member.

173. And we rained upon them a rain [171], therefore what an evil rain it was for those who were warned. [172]

171. From this we learn that sodomy is a severe criminal act as a terrible punishment was sent because of it. Thus, it is obligatory upon the judge to pass the severest punishment on a sodomite like killing him by throwing him down from a high building, beheading him with a sword, etc

172. This means of the people of Hazrat Lut (On whom be peace) who had been warned through a Prophet. This tells us that Allah Almighty does not punish anyone without prior warning, and no punishment is sent by Him on the people who had not falsified His Prophet.

اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً ۭ وَمَا كَانَ اَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۷۴﴾

178. Undoubtedly, I am a trusted Messenger of Allah for you. [175]

175. This pronominal suffix 'for you' denotes that Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) was a prophet of the people of the forest only. Therefore inspite of staying by him, Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) did not become his follower as he was from the Israelites, the people of Egypt.

فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيْعُوْنِ ﴿۱۷۹﴾

179. Therefore fear Allah and obey me. [176]

176. 'Fear Allah' points towards faith and 'obey My order' towards all good deeds, i.e.

first accept faith, thereafter be obedient to Me.

180. And I ask you no wage [177] for it; my wage is only upon Him Who is Lord of the worlds. [178]

وَ مَآ اَسْـَٔلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ ۚ اِنْ اَجْرِيَ اِلَّا عَلٰى رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۱۸۰﴾

177. It should be remembered that no Prophet sustained himself by accepting payment for discharging the duties of prophethood. Every Prophet had followed some type of profession or skill to earn his living. Only Mirza Qadyani who claimed to be a prophet was excluded from this, because prophethood itself was a bluff for earning wealth and pleasing his masters, the British. To know more about what profession was followed by which Prophet, consult Tafseer Naeemi.

178. It should be remembered that the appointment of a Prophet is done through Divine choice. Therefore, their payment is not the responsibility of the creation. The appointment of the Caliph is done through the choice of the people, hence it is they who are responsible for the financial well-being of the Caliphs. The Four Righteous Caliphs took payment for their duties as Caliphs besides Hazrat Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him) Although these Caliphs were successors of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, they were entitled to financial benefits.

181. Fulfill the measure and be not of those who give less. [179]

اَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ وَ لَا تَكُوْنُوْا مِنَ الْمُخْسِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۸۱﴾

179. This tells us that even the infidels are duty-bound to laws pertaining to general affairs, though they are not under obligation to perform religious duties i.e. Ibadaat. Thus, a judge can punish them for robbery, stealing, cheating in weight, etc. as they are forbidden for them, as well.

182. And weigh with a straight balance. [180]

وَزِنُوْا بِالْقِسْطَاسِ الْمُسْتَقِيْمِ ﴿۱۸۲﴾

180. Do not give half measures when weighing and measuring nor use a scale whose balance is interfered with. Thus, in meaning both are equal.

183. And give not the Things [181] of the people decreasing, and wander not in the earth spreading mischief. [182]

وَ لَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ اَشْيَآءَهُمْ وَ لَا تَعْثَوْا فِي الْاَرْضِ مُفْسِدِيْنَ ﴿۱۸۳﴾

181. So that your weight may be less. In short, Hazrat Shuaib (On whom be peace) had given three instrucions to the people: weigh correctly, do not weigh less; use a scale which is correct not the one whose balance is interfered with; weights used must be correct - not less. Thus, there is no contradiction in the verses.

182. Do not indulge in highway robbery and stealing, do not devastate or lay waste the fields of the people. These people had all these faults in them, therefore these instructions were given to them. This tells us that a prophet does not come to teach about acts of worship only, but disseminates reforms regarding high moral precepts, politics and social dealings as well. May Allah Almighty guide us to follow these.

184. And fear Him [183] Who created you and the earlier people.

وَ مَآ اَنْتَ اِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُنَا وَ اِنْ نَّظُنُّكَ لَمِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿١٨٦﴾

185. This tells us that to call a Prophet a human being like us is the way of the infidels. Wherever this expression is found in the Holy QUR'AAN it was used by the infidels.

186. Here the word presumption is used to mean suspicion or conjecture. To be suspicious of the Prophets of Allah is an act of infidelity. Some suspicions are sinful, some are infidelity, some are rewardable and some are obligatory. Says Allah Almighty: "Why did it not happen when you had heard it that the Muslim men and Muslim women would have thought good of their own people" (S24:V12).

187. Therefore cause to fall upon us a fragment of the sky, if you are truthful. [187]

فَاَسْقِطْ عَلَيْنَا كِسَفًا مِّنَ السَّمَآءِ اِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿١٨٧﴾

187. In respect of claims to prophethood, or in that inform ation that punishment would be coming upon us. The wretches seek death with their own mouth.

188. He said, ' My lord knows well what are your doings. [188]

قَالَ رَبِّيْٓ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿١٨٨﴾

188. This means I have not come to bring Divine punishment, but to bring mercy unto you. It is your evil deeds which would usher in punishment. It should be remembered that the Prophets of Allah Almighty bring His mercy, if people turn it into punishment, it is up to them.

189. Then they belied him, therefore, the torment of the day of shadow overtook them. [189] Undoubtedly, it was a torment or a great day.

فَكَذَّبُوْهُ فَاَخَذَهُمْ عَذَابُ يَوْمِ الظُّلَّةِ ؕ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿١٨٩﴾

189. The form of this punishment was as follows: For seven days they were plunged into extreme heat from which they obtained no sanctuary anywhere. On the eighth day, a black cloud appeared in the shape of a canopy below which was cold air. All the people gathered there. Then fire fell from it, which burned all of them to ash.

190. Undoubtedly. In it, there is necessarily a sign, and most of them were not Muslims. [190]

اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً ؕ وَ مَا كَانَ اَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿١٩٠﴾

190. This means most of the people of this nation remained infidels and were destroyed.

Very few who had accepted faith, were saved.

191. And undoubtedly, your Lord He is the Mighty, the Merciful.

وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿۱۹۱﴾ ع ۱۰ ۱۱ ۱۴

SECTION 11

192. And undoubtedly, this Quran has been sent down by the lord of the worlds. [191]

وَ اِنَّهٗ لَتَنْزِيْلُ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۲﴾

191. Which had come gradually in twenty three years. For this reason the word 'sent down' has been used.

193. The trusted [192] spirit has descended with it.

نَزَلَ بِهِ الرُّوْحُ الْاَمِيْنُ ﴿۱۹۳﴾

192. The title of Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) is Roohul Amien because he is entrusted with revelation and revelation is spirit.

194. On your heart [193] that you may warn.

عَلٰى قَلْبِكَ لِتَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُنْذِرِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۴﴾

193. From this we learn that the revelation of the meaning of the Holy QUR'AAN took place on the blessed heart and that of the words on the blessed ears of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم Thus no one can have the understanding of the Holy QUR'AAN like our blessed Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم .

195 In bright Arabic language. [194]

بِلِسَانٍ عَرَبِيٍّ مُّبِيْنٍ ﴿۱۹۵﴾

194. This tells us that the translation of the Holy QUR'AAN is not the QUR'AAN. Even if you were to translate it into an Arabic language it will also not be the QUR'AAN. The recitation of this would make the Salaah invalid. Its recitation would not be forbidden for a person requiring Ghusal of Janabat. Reciting then would not gain the person the recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN. Only that is the Holy QUR'AAN which Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) had recited to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. It is forbidden to write the Arabic text in Hindi or English because in these languages you would not be able to distinguish between the letters HAY, HEY, AIN, ALIF, etc. The recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN in Urdu is like making Hajj of the Ka'aba from its photo.

196. And undoubtedly, its discussion is on the former Books. [195]

وَ اِنَّهٗ لَفِيْ زُبُرِ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿۱۹۶﴾

195. By the personal pronoun it signifies the Holy QUR'AAN or the Holy Prophet . صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم The praises of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had been found in previous books. Mention in these books had been made about his noble Companions as well, as found in Surah Fatha.

197. And was it not a sign for them, that the learned ones of the children of Israel know this prophet? [196]

بَنِيٓ إِسۡرَٰٓءِيلَ ١٩٧

196. The infidels of Makkah Muazzamah had sent their representatives to the Jewish scholars in Madina Munawwarah to get more information about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم from them. Those scholars said this is the period for the coming of the Final Prophet whose attributes are described in the Torah. This verse was revealed regarding it.

In addition, Jewish scholars like Abdullah ibn Salaam and Ka'ab Ahbaar accepted faith in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . In it is an open proof about the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم veracity. From this we learn that the position and status of the scholars is very high, as Allah Almighty has chosen them for the verification of the Holy QUR'AAN.

198. And if We had sent it down to any of the non-Arabs [197].

وَلَوۡ نَزَّلۡنَٰهُ عَلَىٰ بَعۡضِ ٱلۡأَعۡجَمِينَ ١٩٨

197 It should be remembered that Arabia is a name given to the land consisting of five provinces The rest of the entire land of the world is called Ajam: Hijaaz, Iraq, Najd, Bahrain, Yemen.

199. And he had recited it to them, even then they would not leave have believed. [198]

فَقَرَأَهُۥ عَلَيۡهِم مَّا كَانُواْ بِهِۦ مُؤۡمِنِينَ ١٩٩

198. The purpose of the verse is to show that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is Ummi i.e. he did not acquire knowledge from any human being. This being the case he recites such exquisitely eloquent verses that all the orators of Arabia are helpless to produce one verse to match it. This is the proof of the Holy QUR'AAN being the Book of Allah Almighty. But these infidels are so stubborn that even if We were to reveal the Holy QUR'AAN on a non-Arab who would be totally ignorant of the Arabic language, and if he were to recite eloquent words to them they would still not believe in him and would have said it to be magic.

200. Thus We have placed denial in to the hearts of the culprits. [199]

كَذَٰلِكَ سَلَكۡنَٰهُ فِي قُلُوبِ ٱلۡمُجۡرِمِينَ ٢٠٠

199. This means due to their evil deeds We have created stubbornness and enmity in their hearts. It should be remembered that the creation of this stubbornness is like creating death in the murdered person after the murder. In the like manner, these people here are criminals. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

201. They will not believe in it until they see the painful torment. [200]

لَا يُؤۡمِنُونَ بِهِۦ حَتَّىٰ يَرَوُاْ ٱلۡعَذَابَ ٱلۡأَلِيمَ ٢٠١

200. But their faith of that time would not be of any credence, because Faith upon the Unseen is reliable.

202. Then they will say, ' shall we be respired?

فَيَأۡتِيَهُم بَغۡتَةٗ وَهُمۡ لَا يَشۡعُرُونَ ٢٠٢

203. Then they wish to basten Our torment? [201]

فَيَقُولُواْ هَلۡ نَحۡنُ مُنظَرُونَ ٢٠٣

Marfat.com

201. So that we may now accept faith and do good deeds. If we don't, you will not get another chanoe. This is, because they accepted this opportunity as a blessing from Allah Almighty.

204. Do they then wish to hasten our torment? [202]

اَفَبِعَذَابِنَا يَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَ ﴿٢٠٤﴾

202. By expediting punishment means they supplicate for Divine punishment before its time. Says Allah Almighty: "You then rain down upon us stones from heaven?" (S8:V32).

205. Well see then, if We allow them to carry on for some years.

اَفَرَءَيْتَ اِنْ مَّتَّعْنٰهُمْ سِنِيْنَ ﴿٢٠٥﴾ لا

206 then there comes to them that with which they are promised.

ثُمَّ جَآءَهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يُوْعَدُوْنَ ﴿٢٠٦﴾ لا

207. What they will gain only that they enjoyed. [203]

مَآ اَغْنٰى عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يُمَتَّعُوْنَ ﴿٢٠٧﴾ ط

203. Long life spans and abundance of wealth are not beneficial for the infidels. Neither will this relieve them of the punishment, nor will they be able to decrease it.It should be remembered that the long life and wealth of the believer would be beneficial for him, because due to them his good deeds increase, while for the sinful infidel both are a means of punishment, because they help to increase their sins.

208. And We destroyed not any town but it had its Warner's. [204]

وَمَآ اَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ اِلَّا لَهَا مُنْذِرُوْنَ ﴿٢٠٨﴾ قف

204. In some places there was one warner, in some there were two or more, because in those days in one locality there used to be a number of Prophets. Observe, in Egypt there were two Prophets: Hazrat Moosa and Hazrat Haroon (On them be peace).

209. For admonition and We oppress not. [205]

مع ذِكْرٰى قف وَمَا كُنَّا ظٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٢٠٩﴾

205. From this emerge two issues:
1. Without the coming of a prophet, no nation is given punishment. The only cause of Divine punishmnet is the people's opposition and hostility to the Prophet;
2. The minor children of the infidel who die, and the people who believed in the Oneness of Allah Almighty during the age of nature are protected from Divine punishment, because no teaching of a Prophet had reached them. Hence, the parents of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are monotheists, believers and inmates of Paradise (May Allah be pleased with them). Allah Almighty had created them as trustees of His light.

210. And this Quran has not been brought down by the devils (Satan).[206]

وَمَا تَنَزَّلَتْ بِهِ الشَّيٰطِيْنُ ﴿٢١٠﴾

206.The infidels of Makkah Mukarramah had been saying, just as the devils come down on the soothsayers and acquaint them with heavenly things, in the same manner (Allah forbid), the devils were bringing the Holy QUR'AAN down to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . This verse was revealed in the refutation of the above.

Marfat.com

وَ مَا يَنْۢبَغِیْ لَهُمْ وَ مَا یَسْتَطِیْعُوْنَ ﴿۲۱۱﴾

211. And they are not worthy [207] of it, and nor they can do so.

207 This means they should reach the court of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم or try and bring anything like the Holy QUR'AAN.

is so lofty, the devil would run away from Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) who was just a devotee of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

اِنَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّمْعِ لَمَعْزُوْلُوْنَ ﴿۲۱۲﴾

212. They have been indeed removed very far from the place of hearing. [208]

208 This means Allah Almighty has safeguarded the revelations of the Prophets in such a manner that until the angels do not bring these to them, the devil cannot even hear them (Khazaimul Irfaam).

فَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللّٰهِ اِلٰهًا اٰخَرَ فَتَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُعَذَّبِیْنَ ﴿۲۱۳﴾

213. Therefore worship you not another god beside Allah [209] lest you should be tormented. [210]

209. This verse serves as a commentary of those verses in which there is a prohibition upon those other than Allah Almighty i.e. do not call upon anyone as Allah Almighty nor worship them. Thus, to call upon servants of Allah Almighty for assistance or to draw their attention is not unlawful.

210. This verse is addressed to common people, and not the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم.

وَ اَنْذِرْ عَشِیْرَتَكَ الْاَقْرَبِیْنَ ﴿۲۱۴﴾ۙ

214. And O beloved' warn your nearest Kinsmen [211].

211 This tells us that a preacher should first propagate to his own family, then to the others, otherwise propagation will not prove effective. It is for this reason that our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم first preached to his own relatives, thereafter to the people in general. This is the best method of propagation.

وَ اخْفِضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِمَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِیْنَ ﴿۲۱۵﴾

215. And spread your wing of mercy [212] for your follower Muslims [213].

212. Do this by forgiving their errors; accept their excuses; offer prayer for them; if they sin against you, forgive them; if they sin against Me then intercede to have their sins forgiven; if hardship befalls them, relieve them of these; grant them ease in their difficulties; listen to their complaints; redress their grievances; In short, do that which is in accord with your lofty status; do not do that which they deserve.

213. In this mercy, if Allah Almighty wills, all Muslims are part of it until the Day of Judgement. " Oh Prophet of Allah, Your benevelone is upon everyone wherever he may be. You are such a unique Mercy unto mankind".

فَاِنْ عَصَوْكَ فَقُلْ اِنِّیْ بَرِیْٓءٌ مِّمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۲۱۶﴾

216. Then if they disobey you [214] say them, 'I am quit of what you do.

214. By disobedience means they did not believe in you. Sinful Muslims are excluded from this, because the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is fully aware of their sins, and he would intercede on their behalf. Says Allah Almighty: "And when they do injustice to their souls, then O beloved! they should come to you and then beg forgiveness of Allah and the Messenger should intercede for them, then surely, they would find Allah Most Relenting, Merciful" (S4:V64).

217. And rely upon him Who is the Mighty, the Merciful [215].

وَ تَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْعَزِيْزِ الرَّحِيْمِ ﴿۲۱۷﴾

215. From this we learn that to gather resources is not going against reliance, because after revelation of this verse, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had gathered resources of war as well as the soldiers. The true meaning of Reliance is act upon available resources. but keep Allah Almighty in sight.

218. Who sees you when you stand [216].

الَّذِىْ يَرٰىكَ حِيْنَ تَقُوْمُ ﴿۲۱۸﴾

216. Either for the Tahajjud Salaah or for every Salaah and Dua. This tells us that at all times Allah Almighty's gaze is on His Beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . He who attaches himself to the blessed feet of the Holy Prophet . صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too, is the favourite of Allah Almighty.

219. And your movements among those who offers prayer [217].

وَتَقَلُّبَكَ فِى السّٰجِدِيْنَ ﴿۲۱۹﴾

217. This means when you roam the streets of Madina Munawwarah in the latter part of the night to inquire about those Companions offering their Tahajjud Prayer, We are seeing it. Or when your blessed Light was moving in the pure stomachs of the pure generations from Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) until Hazrat Abdullah, We are looking at it. Or when you move in Salaah from Qiyaam, Ruku, Sujud, We fully gaze at thee. Or, that in the state of Salaah when your blessed eyes move, We look at its movement, that your eyes see equally what is in front and behind. However, the other meanings are more appropriate, because this Surah is Makkan, while there is no proof of enquiry of Tahajjud performance before Hijrah. This was the Holy Prophet's period in Madina Munawwarah. Likewise, the arrangement of Salaah in congregation started in Madina. From this we learn that all the blessed predecessors of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم were believers, monotheists and devotees of Allah Almighty. None of them were infidels and sinners.

220. Undoubtedly, He is the Hearer, the knower.

اِنَّهٗ هُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ﴿۲۲۰﴾

221. Should I tell you on whom the devils (Satan) descend?

هَلْ اُنَبِّئُكُمْ عَلٰى مَنْ تَنَزَّلُ الشَّيٰطِيْنُ ﴿۲۲۱﴾

222. They descend upon every big slan derer and sinner [218].

تَنَزَّلُ عَلٰى كُلِّ اَفَّاكٍ اَثِيْمٍ ﴿۲۲۲﴾

218. This means those soothsayers on whom the devils descend, end in bad conditions. Such people are dirty, defiled, liars, deceitful and habitual sinners and people detest them when they see them. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the pinnacle of purity, purity of soul and chaste. The devil does not come near such persons.

223. The devils cast upon them their own hearings and most of them are liars [219].

يُّلْقُوْنَ السَّمْعَ وَاَكْثَرُهُمْ كٰذِبُوْنَ ﴿۲۲۳﴾

Marfat.com

219. The devils take to their heels after hearing something from the angels, then they add some lies to what they have heard and tell

224. And the misguided ones follow the poets [220].

220 In this there is a refutation of the nonsensical utterances of the infidels that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is a poet. It has been stated here that those who make false verses of the poet as custom are liars and tramps like these. While those who obey the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are like Abu

226. And they say what they do not act [222].

222 Some poets recited an obscence poem to Abdul Malik bin Marwaan. After listening to it, he said that he should get punishment of adultery because you yourself are admitting to

227. But those who believed and did good deeds [223]. And remembered Allah much and took revenge after they were opposed [224]. And now the unjust will soon know as to which side they shall return [225].

223 From this we learn that to recite Na'at and Hamd and recite verses concerning educational issues is an act of worship. Those poets who have been criticised for false verses, while the verses of satire of the infidels are included in the first group. We further learn that it is not an evil act to satirise in opposition to satire. This, too, is one form of revenge.

224 In these verses the following types of poets have been separated from previous injunctions: poems on praises of Allah Almighty, writers of Na'tiya poems, those who the distorted version to the soothsayers as is stated in the Hadith Shareef. This is what is mentioned here.

وَ الشُّعَرَآءُ يَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْغَاوٗنَ ﴿۲۲۴﴾

Bakr and Umar Farouk (May Allah be pleased with them) who are pure of soul and chaste. Look at these pure souls and you will know the truth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. From this we learn that the purity of the Companions is a proof of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم truth.

اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّهُمْ فِيْ كُلِّ وَادٍ يَّهِيْمُوْنَ ﴿۲۲۵﴾ adultery. The person replied that according to the Holy QUR'AAN, he is not entitled to this punishment and then recited this verse that poets say much, but do little.

اِلَّا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ وَ ذَكَرُوا اللّٰهَ كَثِيْرًا وَّانْتَصَرُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ مَا ظُلِمُوْا ؕ وَ سَيَعْلَمُ الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْۤا اَيَّ مُنْقَلَبٍ يَّنْقَلِبُوْنَ ﴿۲۲۷﴾ write religious issues in verse form. Those who write satires to confront the infidels, those who write verses to instil zeal and enthusiasm in the Muslim fighters, etc. Hazrat Hassan (May Allah be pleased with him) would write poems in praise rof the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and would then recite it to him. The Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would raise a platform for him in the mosque and Hazrat Hassan would stand on it and recite the poems.

225. In it there is a prophecy that those who satirise about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم would very soon be receiving punishment.

It took place exactly as was outlined.

SECTION: 1

1. TA, SEEN. These are the verses of the Quraan and the Bright Book [1].

طٰسٓ ۚ تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَ كِتَابٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ۙ﴿١﴾

1. The Luminous Book is the commentary of the Holy QUR'AAN. Or by it, it means the Divine Tablet, because the Qur'anic verses were first kept in the Divine Tablet.

2. A guidance and glad tidings for the believer [2].

هُدًى وَّبُشْرٰى لِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۙ﴿٢﴾

2. Here, guidance means pious deeds, the guidance to the path of paradise which is only obtained by a believer. Guidance towards faith is for all.

3. Those who observe the prayer [3] and pay the poor due (Zakat) [4] and they have firm faith in the hereafter[5].

الَّذِيْنَ يُقِيْمُوْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَيُؤْتُوْنَ الزَّكٰوةَ وَ هُمْ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوْقِنُوْنَ﴿٣﴾

3. By this is meant they perform Salaah regularly, correctly and punctually as well as with humility.

4. They give it happily in the knowledge that Allah Almighty has made us worthy of giving Zakaat, not receiving it. It is an expression of gratitude to Allah Almighty.

5. By keeping firm faith in the Hereafter means to accept all the articles of faith. Through the part, the whole is intended. Otherwise, even the Christians, the Jews and many of the infidels, too, believe in the Hereafter. From this we understand that faith is a condition for the correctness of good deeds, like Wuzu is a condition for Salaah.

إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ زَيَّنَّا لَهُمْ اَعْمَالَهُمْ فَهُمْ يَعْمَهُوْنَ ۝

4. Those who don't believe in the hereafter, We have made their works good looking [6], so that they are wandering perplexed [7].

think that their religion is true and if they find themselves in any hardship they begin to say that their religion is false i.e. if it was a true religion they would not be experiencing the hardships. Says Allah Almighty: "And some men worship Allah on an edge" (S22:V11).

6 Thus tells us that to regard evil as good, and to boast about one's good deeds is the way of the infidels, the believers should safeguard themselves from this

7 Thus, the infidels themselves have no confidence in their faith and good deeds. If they happen to find worldly comforts they

أُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ لَهُمْ سُوْٓءُ الْعَذَابِ وَ هُمْ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ هُمُ الْاَخْسَرُوْنَ ۝

5. There are those for whom there is evil torment [8] and they are alone the greatest losers in the hereafter [9].

punishments. From 'for them' we learn that if Allah Almighty wills, sinful believers would be protected from this severe torment.

8 In the world they would be given severe punishment, they will not obtain guidance to the Straight Path, to be killed and imprisoned at the hands of the believers, their hearts would not be at ease; to appear in a horrible form at the time of death, the pangs of death would be severe, their graves would be made very narrow; the darkness of the grave and its heat; etc Then the severity of the heat on the Day of Judgement; severity of reckoning; then all types of punishment of Hell. The word evil torment includes all these

9. By greatest losses means their good deeds would not be accepted, nor would their sins be forgiven. Sinful believers would not be in this condition. In short, the infidels are in great loss in this world and the Hereafter. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly man is in a state of loss, but those who believe" (S103:V 2-3). Thus without faith there is nothing but loss.

وَ اِنَّكَ لَتُلَقَّى الْقُرْاٰنَ مِنْ لَّدُنْ حَكِيْمٍ عَلِيْمٍ ۝

6. And undoubtedly, you are being taught QUR'AAN by the wise, the Knowing [10].

Holy QUR'AAN like our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم because all others learn the Holy QUR'AAN from the creation, but our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم studied it from the Creator.

10. From this we learn that Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) was not the teacher of our Holy Prophet . He is the direct pupil of Allah Almighty. Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) is the servant and courier. We further learn that no one can understand the

7. When Musa told to his housewife [11], I have perceived a fire [12], soon I shall bring to you any news of it or I bring you any bright spark that you may warm your self-[13].

11 This tells us that the wife is part of the household.

12. This is the incident of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) going from Madyan to Egypt. During this journey he experienced one night of intense cold and darkness, due to which, he had lost the road. In this condition, his wife Lady Safoorah began to have labour pains. Then Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) saw a distant light and mentioned this to his wife.

Marfat.com

13. This means that if there was someone at the fireside he could've asked him for directions and get some fire as well. If he could not find anyone there, he could at least bring some fire. This tells us that a spark of fire and a little water are ordinary things. Even if the owner is not present, one can take these out of necessity. Hence the plural form of warm yourself. Or this could have been done because there were some servants with the wife. Or this could have been done simply for the purpose of greatness, just as one uses the plural of greetings for a single person. Hazrat Safoorah was after all the daughter of a Prophet.

8. Then when he came to fire, a call [14] was made then, Blessed is he who is in the place of manifestation of that fire i.e. (Musa) and those who are around it [15] i.e. (angels). And glorified is Allah Who is the Lord of entire worlds [16].

فَلَمَّا جَآءَهَا نُوْدِیَ اَنْۢ بُوْرِكَ مَنْ فِی النَّارِ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا ؕ وَ سُبْحٰنَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِیْنَ ۝۸

14. This sound which he heard, emanated from a tree, in the valley of Sinai.

15. This means Oh Moosa! You as well as the angels around you are all blessed. From this emerge two issues:

1. The pious servants of Allah Almighty are all blessed people.

2. The believers residing at sacred places are all blessed people.

Thus the believers of Madinah Munawwarah are more blessed than we are.

16. Those fires are lights which brighten themselves by appearing from the tree of Sinai.

9. O Musa! The thing is this that I am Allah The Mighty, the wise [17].

یٰمُوْسٰۤی اِنَّهٗۤ اَنَا اللّٰهُ الْعَزِیْزُ الْحَكِیْمُ ۝۹ۙ

17. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was listening to this sound coming from a tree. That tree was not Allah Almighty, but it was a reflection of His Divine voice. Likewise, those pious sages who out of ecstacy, had uttered ANAL HAQUE - "I am the Truth", were certainly reflecting someone else's speech.

10. And cast down your staff, then Musa saw it wriggling as it were a serpent [18], he set out turning [19] his back and didn't look behind. We said, 'O Musa fear not', undoubtedly, the Messengers have no fear in My presence [20].

وَاَلْقِ عَصَاكَ ؕ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهَا تَهْتَزُّ كَاَنَّهَا جَآنٌّ وَّلّٰی مُدْبِرًا وَّ لَمْ یُعَقِّبْ ؕ یٰمُوْسٰی لَا تَخَفْ ۫ اِنِّیْ لَا یَخَافُ لَدَیَّ الْمُرْسَلُوْنَ ۝۱۰ۚ

18. This means that the snake in terms of physical appearance was a huge python, but in terms of movement it was slithering like a lean serpent i. e. as if it is a lean serpent. This does not mean that the walking stick was not a serpent but it merely appeared as if it was a serpent.

19. This tells us that to show fear for the distress of an oppressor is not going against the status of prophethood. However, no fear comes into their hearts for any person's greatness The fear of affliction is an expression of hatred, while that of greatness is a means of obedience.

20.Because Prophets are under My protection. Those who receive My protection have none to fear.

11. Yes, whosoever shows high handedness [21], then substitutes good for evil, then undoubtedly, I am Forgiving, and Merciful [22].

إِلَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ ثُمَّ بَدَّلَ حُسْنًۢا بَعْدَ سُوْٓءٍ فَاِنِّيْ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ⑪

21 This is a statement of broken distinction. By it those persons other than the Prophets are meant, because the Prophets are totally free of sins

22 This means fear is for those persons who engage in actions which are a mixture of good and evil. Such persons fear the punishment for their evil deeds, and hope for forgiveness. You are a true Prophet. You are totally free of sins and therefore you need not fear punishment nor of any accountability. Through this many issues have been solved.

12. And put your hand into your bosom, it shall come forth white shinning without any defect [23], among nine signs [24] towards Firawn and his people [25]. Undoubtedly, they are the people disobedient.

وَ اَدْخِلْ يَدَكَ فِيْ جَيْبِكَ تَخْرُجْ بَيْضَآءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوْٓءٍ ۫ فِيْ تِسْعِ اٰيٰتٍ اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ وَ قَوْمِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا قَوْمًا فٰسِقِيْنَ ⑫

23 This means the whiteness of your blessed hand would not be due to leucoderma or any such skin disease, but this is your second miracle

24 Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was blessed with nine miracles: the walking stick, shining white hand, to split the sea, coming down of manna and salwa (wonderful victuals with which the Israelites were fed during the Exodus), sending of lice on the people of Pharoah, these people plagued by huge frogs, by blood, by severe storms, etc. however, six thousand miracles of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم are just described in the Taurah alone. Only Allah Almighty knows about the rest of them.

25. Especially, because Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet to the Israelites as well.

13. Then Our signs came to them visibly [26], they said, 'this is a clear magic' [27].

فَلَمَّا جَآءَتْهُمْ اٰيٰتُنَا مُبْصِرَةً قَالُوْا هٰذَا سِحْرٌ مُّبِيْنٌ ⑬

26 The first two miracles, thereafter the others.

27 This means the magic of the walking stick and the Bright White hand is so apparent that there is no doubt in it.

14. And they denied them unjustly and proudly [28], while their hearts were convinced of them. Then see, how became the end of mischief mongers [29].

وَجَحَدُوْا بِهَا وَ اسْتَيْقَنَتْهَآ اَنْفُسُهُمْ ظُلْمًا وَّ عُلُوًّا ؕ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ ⑭

Marfat.com

28. Because of this certainty, they would always complain to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) about every hardship of the Pharoah and seek help from him. From this emerge two issues:
1. Without the verbal acknowledgement of the Prophet, mere acceptance of this in the heart would not be regarded as faith.

2. Anyone who would show arrogance in the court of the Prophet, will never receive guidance. That is the place of humility and submission.
29. At first temporary punishment came to them like plagues of blood, lice, famine, etc. Thereafter they were drowned in the sea.

SECTION: 2

15. And We bestowed great knowledge to Daud and Sulaiman [30], and both said, 'all praise to Allah Who has excelled us over many of their believing bondmen' [31].

وَ لَقَدْ اٰتَيْنَا دَاوٗدَ وَ سُلَيْمٰنَ عِلْمًا ۚ وَقَالَا الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ فَضَّلَنَا عَلٰى كَثِيْرٍ مِّنْ عِبَادِهِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۵﴾

30. That Allah Almighty granted Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) knowledge without the tutorship of any teacher, of making armour, central politics, knowledge of judiciary, knowledge about the incantations of the mountains and birds; and taught Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) the language of the animals and birds. Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) was born a hundred and seventy three years after Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani). It should be remembered that some obtain knowledge of Rhetoric (dealing with metaphorical usage of language) while some obtain clear and manifest knowledge. The Prophets receive clear knowledge (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani).
31. Here 'people of faith' denote the blessed Prophets. The use of many is used to show that some Prophets are superior to these two Prophets, like our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Here reference is not made to believers in general, because Prophets excel over all the believers and not just many, discussions of which is to be fol-lowed in "We have been taught". Thus the Rafzis cannot use this verse as a proof for their claim.

16. And Sulaiman became the successor [32] Daud and said, 'O people We have been taught the language of the birds [33], and we have been bestowed of everything [34]. Undoubtedly, this indeed is a manifest grace [35].

وَ وَرِثَ سُلَيْمٰنُ دَاوٗدَ وَ قَالَ يٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ عُلِّمْنَا مَنْطِقَ الطَّيْرِ وَ اُوْتِيْنَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ ؕ اِنَّ هٰذَا لَهُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْمُبِيْنُ ﴿۱۶﴾

32. From this we learn that the inheritance of the Prophets is not distributed, because besides Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) had many other sons, but only Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was blessed with inheritance, knowledge and prophethood. Here inheritance does not denote wealth but it signifies inheritance of knowledge and prophethood i.e. inheritance of details and excellence as is mentioned in the following subject.
33. By detail is meant I am able to understand the language of the birds and the birds are able to understand my language. However, Allah Almighty had blessed our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم with the knowledge of the language of every animal, in fact, of plants and stones as well. Birds, camels, wood etc. had lodged their complaints with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and stones had extended greetings.

34. Here the word 'every' denotes majority, while 'thing' denotes Religion and bounties of the world i.e. kingdom, prophethood, knowledge of the Book, control over the winds and jinns, knowledge of the language of the birds, and countless treasures were granted to Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). Allah Almighty bestowed Kauthar upon our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. made him owner of everything which Allah Almighty has created. Says Allah Almighty: "O Beloved! Undoubtedly, We have bestowed you abundance of good" (S108:V1).

35. From this we learn that Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) did not say these words out of arrogance but to express gratitude. He had been made emperor of the entire world. He had total control over man, jinn, birds, animals, etc. Strange and marvellous things were invented during this period. The author of Roohul Bayaan has stated that he had ruled the world for seven hundred years.

17. And they were gathered for Sulaiman his armies amongst the jinn's and men and birds, then they were hold back [36].

وَ حُشِرَ لِسُلَيْمٰنَ جُنُوْدُهٗ مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْاِنْسِ وَ الطَّيْرِ فَهُمْ يُوْزَعُوْنَ ﴿۱۷﴾

36. This means his army was so huge that those in front would be halted so that those at the back could meet up with them and not get separated.

18. Until when they came to the valley of the ants [37], and said, [38] 'O ants, enter your houses; lest Sulaiman and his armies may crush you unknowingly [39].

حَتّٰۤى اِذَاۤ اَتَوْا عَلٰى وَادِ النَّمْلِ ۙ قَالَتْ نَمْلَةٌ يّٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّمْلُ ادْخُلُوْا مَسٰكِنَكُمْ ۚ لَا يَحْطِمَنَّكُمْ سُلَيْمٰنُ وَ جُنُوْدُهٗ ۙ وَ هُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿۱۸﴾

37. This valley of the ant, is situated about twenty miles from Taif. Even to this day it is called the Valley of the Ant. I (the author, Mufti Ahmed Yaar) was able to reach the vicinity of this jungle but could not reach the valley itself.

38. This ant was the leader of all ants and was called Munzarah or Takhiya.

39. From this emerge three issues:

1. It is the faith of even the ant that the Companions of the Prophet will not oppress anyone. If they trample upon the ants, it would be done inadvertently. Hence the Shias have less sense than the ants.

2. A Prophet can hear from afar the sound of the ant. Thus, why is it astonishing to believe that our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم listens to his devotees from Madinah Munawwarah?

3. That the Prophets understand the language of the animals, just as our beloved Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was able to understand the language of all the animals, eg. he would listen to the complaints of the camels; the branches of the trees had spoken to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) had listened to the sound of the ant from a distance of three miles and ordered his army to halt so that these ants would be able to get into their holes.

19. There upon he smilingly laughed [40] at her works, and said, 'O my Lord, grant me guidance that I may be grateful for Your favour which you have bestowed upon me and my parents [41] and that I may do such good works as would please You [42] and admit me out of Your mercy among those bond men who deserve your proximity [43].

40. It should be remembered that today such sophisticated telescopic equipment is invented through which minute things are able to be seen. Yet, no such instrument has been invented through which the sound of an ant can be heard. Hearing this sound is indeed the miracle of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), where human intelligence is helpless.

41. Granted him prophethood and kingdom and instilled in the hearts of the animals that we do not oppress anyone. Good publicity among the people, too, is a Divine blessing.

42. This means appoint me to do such deeds, or grant me guidance to perform abundance of good deeds, because the Prophets at all times are extremely pious people. From this we learn that to seek guidance towards piety is the way of the Prophets.

43. This Dua is to educate sinners like us. Thus from this verse acquiring an acquired thing does not become obligatory.

وَ تَفَقَّدَ الطَّیْرَ فَقَالَ مَالِیَ لَاۤ اَرَى الْهُدْهُدَ ۫ اَمْ كَانَ مِنَ الْغَآىِٕبِیْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

20. And he received the birds, that he said, 'that happened to me that' I don't see the hoopoe (Hud-Hud) [44]? Or he is really not present.

44. This means he does not see it here, otherwise the pious servants of Allah Almighty see everything far and near upon the entire earth. Asif bin Barkhiya saw from Syria the throne of Bilqees in Yemen and brought it to Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). This is the meaning of those absent i.e. he is absent from here but not from my gaze.

لَاُعَذِّبَنَّهٗ عَذَابًا شَدِیْدًا اَوْ لَاَاْذْبَحَنَّهٗۤ اَوْ لَیَاْتِیَنِّیْ بِسُلْطٰنٍ مُّبِیْنٍ ﴿۲۱﴾

21. I shall surely punish him [45] severely or shall slaughter him or he should bring me a clear authority [46].

45. From this emerge two issues:
1. All the birds would leave the court of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) with his permission.
2. He had the power to punish the birds for disobeying his order of leaving the court without permission. By severe torment means to pull out all its feathers, to imprison it, etc. because mention about death appears later.

46. He should present a reasonable excuse for his absence.

فَمَكَثَ غَیْرَ بَعِیْدٍ فَقَالَ اَحَطْتُّ بِمَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهٖ وَ جِئْتُكَ مِنْ سَبَاٍۭ بِنَبَاٍ یَّقِیْنٍ ﴿۲۲﴾

22. Then the hoopoe (Hud-Hud) did not stay long [47] and he came and said, 'I have seen that which you haven't seen [48] and I have brought to you a certain news from the city of Saba.

23. I saw a woman reigning [49] over them and she has got of everything [50] and she has a great throne [51].

49 The name of this woman was Bilqees, daughter of Sharjeel bin Malik Rayyaan. The author of Roohul Bayaan has stated that she was born from the womb of a Jiniyyah (of jinns), who was the wife of Sharjeel. Allah Almighty and His Rasool know best.

50 She is in possession of all types of resources of a kingdom.

51. The length of which is eighty yards and the width is forty feet. Its front portion is made of gold and its rear portion is of silver and topaz. It is studded with jewels and is very expensive. On all four of its sides are red rubies (Roohul Ma'ani).

وَجَدْتُّهَا وَ قَوْمَهَا يَسْجُدُوْنَ لِلشَّمْسِ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ وَ زَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطٰنُ اَعْمَالَهُمْ فَصَدَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيْلِ فَهُمْ لَا يَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿٢٤﴾ لَا

24. I found her and her people prostrating before the sun leaving Allah and the Devil (Satan) adorning their deeds [52] in their eyes has barred them from the straight path [53] so that they don't find the way [54].

52 This means their beliefs too are defective, and their deeds are devilish. This tells us that the Hud-Hud of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was fully aware of defective beliefs and deeds due to the blessings of the company of a Prophet. Anyone who does not regard the Companions of the Holy Prophet as possessors of faith, will regard the blessings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم less than that of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), because even his pet (animal) too was a believer. Then how is it possible that our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم human Companions cannot be believers? (Allah forbid)

53 This means because these people had not obtained the blessings of a Prophet, therefore they were regarding their infidelity as faith, their sins as good deeds. This tells us that human intelligence alone is not sufficient to distinguish between good and bad and between piety and sin. This requires the bountiful assistance of prophethood, just as our own sight cannot differentiate between genuine and counterfeit gold, it certainly requires touchstone, an instrument for testing alloys.

54. This tells us that even those animals who live in the Company of a Prophet become aware of faith and articles of faith as well as of infidelity and polytheism and obtain guidance through these august personalities. Observe, Bilqees obtained faith through Hud-Hud - a bird of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace).

اَلَّا يَسْجُدُوْا لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ يُخْرِجُ الْخَبْءَ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ الْاَرْضِ وَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُخْفُوْنَ وَ مَا تُعْلِنُوْنَ ﴿٢٥﴾

25. Why they prostrate not before Allah Who brings forth the hidden things of the Heavens and the Earth [55] and knows what you conceal and what you declare?

55 Like rain, harvest fields, etc. It is quite apparent that these are words of Hud-Hud which Allah Almighty has recorded in acknowledgement.

Marfat.com

26. Allah is, besides Him there is no true diety, He is the Lord of the Magnificent throne [56].

اَللّٰهُ لَآ اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ ﴿٢٦﴾

السجدة ١٣

56. This too, is the statement of Hud-hud i.e. Allah Almighty is He in Whom these three attributes are found: to give like, to be aware of every unseen thing, to be Lord of the Mighty Throne and the entire creation. It should be remembered that the knowledge of the Prophets and the Saints in comparison to Allah Almighty is a drop in the ocean.

27. Sulaiman said, 'now we shall see whether you have spoken the truth or you are amongst the liars [57].

قَالَ سَنَنْظُرُ اَصَدَقْتَ اَمْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ﴿٢٧﴾

57. This tells us that the judgement of the ruler is based on investigation and not on his personal inner manifestation and the inspired knowledge. Even on the Day of Judgement, Allah Almighty too would be passing judgement through investigation and testimonies, etc. Hence this does not necessarily prove that Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was not aware of Bilqees.

28. Take my this edict and cast it to them [58], then moving aside from them see what answer they return [59].

اِذْهَبْ بِّكِتٰبِىْ هٰذَا فَاَلْقِهْ اِلَيْهِمْ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ فَانْظُرْ مَاذَا يَرْجِعُوْنَ ﴿٢٨﴾

58. This means do not come back immediately after the delivery of the letter, but move away and listen to her conversation. Take stock of the situation then give me full information. Allah Almighty be praised! The company of the Prophet can instil so much intelligence in animals. This tells us that Hud-Hud had come to understand human language.

59. Thus, taking this blessed letter, Hud-Hud went to Bilqees. At that point in time she was with her ministers and nobles, where he placed the letter in her lap. This letter carried the seal of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). On seeing his seal and the obedience this bird displayed for him she began to shiver and said the following words as a form of counselling.

29. The women said, 'O chiefs undoubtedly there has been cast a noble letter towards me [60].

قَالَتْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا الْمَلَؤُا اِنِّىْٓ اُلْقِىَ اِلَىَّ كِتٰبٌ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿٢٩﴾

60. Because this letter commenced with the full Bismillah, and terminated with the seal of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), she called it a letter of respect and dignity.

30. Undoubtedly, it is from Sulaiman and it is buy the name of Allah, the most Affectionate, the Merciful [61].

اِنَّهٗ مِنْ سُلَيْمٰنَ وَ اِنَّهٗ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ﴿٣٠﴾

61. From this we learn that we should commence every good deed with Bismillah. The Hadith of Bismillah gains strength from this blessed verse. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too on the occasion of signing the Treaty of Hudaibiya commenced with Bismillah. The end result of commencing any good deed with the blessed name of Allah

Marfat.com

Almighty is success. Through its blessing, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was given a wife like Bilqees.

31. That you may seek not exaltness against me and came to me submitting [62].

أَلَّا تَعْلُوْا عَلَيَّ وَأْتُوْنِيْ مُسْلِمِيْنَ ۝٣١

62 Submitting means come to My court in total respect and submission. Or present yourself in Allah Almighty's court in prostration and faith. The first meaning is stronger. From this we learn that the door of the Prophet is not a place of arrogance, but it is a place of humility and respect.

SECTION: 3

32. She said, 'O my chiefs advice me in this matter, I decide not any matter firmly until you are present with me [63].

قَالَتْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا الْمَلَؤُا اَفْتُوْنِيْ فِيْٓ اَمْرِيْ ۚ مَا كُنْتُ قَاطِعَةً اَمْرًا حَتّٰى تَشْهَدُوْنِ ۝٣٢

63 This means I do everything in accordance with your counselling. This tells us seeking advice is a good act because Allah Almighty has related the statement without any alteration.

33. They said, 'we are men of great strength and of severe [64] fighting and the authority is yours, therefore see what you command' [65].

قَالُوْا نَحْنُ اُولُوْا قُوَّةٍ وَّ اُولُوْا بَاْسٍ شَدِيْدٍ ۙ وَّ الْاَمْرُ اِلَيْكِ فَانْظُرِيْ مَاذَا تَاْمُرِيْنَ ۝٣٣

64 This means that if you are thinking of war, we are prepared for war, because we are very bold soldiers, not cowards.

65 This means we are not controlled by advice, but by your command. Do not seek advice from us but give us an order. Bilqees felt that these people are inclined towards war, while it is against the grain of prudence and expediency to seek military confrontation with Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace).

34. She said, 'undoubtedly, when the kings enter [66] any towns ruin it and disgrace its honourable inhabitants and thus they do' [67].

قَالَتْ اِنَّ الْمُلُوْكَ اِذَا دَخَلُوْا قَرْيَةً اَفْسَدُوْهَا وَ جَعَلُوْٓا اَعِزَّةَ اَهْلِهَآ اَذِلَّةً ۚ وَ كَذٰلِكَ يَفْعَلُوْنَ ۝٣٤

66 Enter victoriously by waging war.

67 They devastate populated establishments and put the ministers and nobles to the sword, or imprison them in disgrace. Thus, war under no circumstances is appropriate.

35. And I have to send a present [68] to him, then I shall see what answer the messengers bring back [69].

وَ اِنِّيْ مُرْسِلَةٌ اِلَيْهِمْ بِهَدِيَّةٍ فَنٰظِرَةٌۢ بِمَ يَرْجِعُ الْمُرْسَلُوْنَ ۝٣٥

68 These gifts included five hundred slaves, five hundred maids, fully dressed in splendid golden outfits, five hundred bricks of gold, a throne studded in jewels and a large guantity of exquisite musk and ambergris (Roohul Ma'ani).

69. If Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) is only a king, then he will accept my gifts and would be softened by these. And if he is a Prophet he will not accept these gifts, instead he will request me to accept Islam. I will wait and see with what replies my envoys bring back.

36. Then when he came to Sulaiman he said, 'do you help me with wealth? But that which Allah has given me [70] is better than that which He has given to you. Nay, it is you who rejoice in your gift [71].

فَلَمَّا جَآءَ سُلَيْمٰنَ قَالَ اَتُمِدُّوْنَنِ
بِمَالٍ ۚ فَمَآ اٰتٰنِۦَ اللّٰهُ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّآ اٰتٰىكُمْ ۚ
بَلْ اَنْتُمْ بِهَدِيَّتِكُمْ تَفْرَحُوْنَ ﴿٣٦﴾

70. This means my wealth is much more than yours. Thus, before these envoys carrying these gifts, could arrive, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) had twelve square miles flooring of gold bricks. Around this floor he had walls of gold and silver put up and gave orders to the beautiful animals of the land and sea to stand with utmost respect.

71. This tells us that there is no importance given to material wealth and possessions in the hearts of pious sages of Allah Almighty, nor are they proud of these. They neither express joy at obtaining these transitory things nor are they saddened by their loss. May Allah Almighty grant us eternal joy! Amien.

37. Return to them [72], we shall therefore, bring that army to them against which they will have no power and we shall necessarily turn them out of the city they will be humbled [73].

اِرْجِعْ اِلَيْهِمْ فَلَنَاْتِيَنَّهُمْ بِجُنُوْدٍ لَّا
قِبَلَ لَهُمْ بِهَا وَلَنُخْرِجَنَّهُمْ مِّنْهَآ اَذِلَّةً وَّ
هُمْ صٰغِرُوْنَ ﴿٣٧﴾

72. From this we learn that any person with whom you do not wish to make peace, you should not accept his gifts. Otherwise accepting gifts is the way of the Prophets. Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) ordered the envoys to take the gifts back.

73. From this emerge three issues:

1. Through the blessing of Allah Almighty, there is no fear in the heart of a believer for an infidel.
2. The etiquette of faith demands that you speak with harsh words with the infidels. The flattery and cajoling of the infidels is against the way of life of the Prophets. Softness for the believer and severity towards the infidels is the conduct of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم. Says Allah Almighty:

"They are hard against the infidels and tender among themselves" (S48:V29). What it means is even if the devil and all his followers did not accept faith and present themselves, their fate would be the same.

3. The battle of the believers is not to gain wealth but to gain the pleasure of Allah Almighty.

Thus the envoys returned and related an eyewitness account to the Queen and conveyed the majestic message of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) and said that we do not have the power to wage a war against him. Then, locking her throne safely in her seventh palace, she set out to meet him. When Bilqees was just a mile from his palace, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) informed this to his courtiers.

38. Sulaiman said, 'O chiefs, which is of you who may bring her throne to me before they come to me submitting [74]?

74 So that he would test the intelligence and wisdom of Bilqees, whether she could recognize her throne or not, and that this should serve as a proof about his miracle and prophethood through which her faith would be strengthened From this we learn that it is permissible to send for a thing belonging to another person without his permission, when the intention is not to cause him harm but to acquaint him with the grandeur of Allah Almighty.

قَالَ عِفْرِيْتٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ اَنَا اٰتِيْكَ بِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَقُوْمَ مِنْ مَّقَامِكَ ۚ وَ اِنِّيْ عَلَيْهِ لَقَوِيٌّ اَمِيْنٌ ﴿٣٩﴾

39. One big evil jinn said [75], 'I will bring you that throne before you rise from your sitting [76]; and undoubtedly, I am powerful over trustworthy [77].

75 The name of this jinn was Zakkwaan, whose one foot would reach the very end of one's sight (Roohul Bayaan) He had a huge body like a mountain

76 This means before noon, because his procession would take place until midday.

77 This means I will not steal the jewels of this throne i.e. ruby red gems. I am a happy person, not a thief. This tells us that the intention of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) was not to take control of the throne.

قَالَ الَّذِيْ عِنْدَهٗ عِلْمٌ مِّنَ الْكِتٰبِ اَنَا اٰتِيْكَ بِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّرْتَدَّ اِلَيْكَ طَرْفُكَ ۚ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهُ مُسْتَقِرًّا عِنْدَهٗ قَالَ هٰذَا مِنْ فَضْلِ رَبِّيْ ۖ لِيَبْلُوَنِيْٓ ءَاَشْكُرُ اَمْ اَكْفُرُ ۭ وَمَنْ شَكَرَ فَاِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَاِنَّ رَبِّيْ غَنِيٌّ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾

40. One who had knowledge of the book [78] said, 'I shall bring it to you before twinkling of the eye [79], then when Sulaiman saw the throne set before him said, 'this is of the grace of my Lord [80] that He may try me whether I am grateful or ungrateful [81]? And whosever is grateful is grateful for his own good. And whosever is ungrateful, then my Lord is self sufficient, all virtuous.

78 This was Asif bin Barkhiya By book is meant the Divine Tablet or the Taurah or the Scrolls of Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) i.e. Hazrat Asif had become a saint, by acquiring knowledge from these Books And why not, because he was the pious student of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). By knowledge of the book means the hidden knowledge which is knowledge of Tasawwuf or mystical knowledge because superficial knowledge does not bring about Sainthood and inner strength The author of Roohul Bayaan states that it is the belief of the Mo'tazilla sect that he was Jibraeel, because they deny the miracles of saints In following this sect, some Wahabis and Deobandis have expressed similar views

79. From this verse the power of a saint, his swift movement and him being omnipresent and omniscient is made known. Hazrat Asif without asking anyone for the address of Bilqees and without any transport brought such a heavy throne in the wink of an eye. It should be remembered that the bringer of this throne is not Hazrat Jibraeel (On whom be peace) but the words "who had knowledge of the Book" tells us that the throne was not brought through an angelic power but through spiritual human power. It did not come just by the Dua of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) as can be seen by "I shall bring it to you" If the saint of the Israelites has so much power, then imagine the power of the saint of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم, power of a Prophet, and power of the Seal of the Prophets صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

41. Sulaiman ordered, 'make the throne of the woman strange before her changing its shape, so that we see whether she gets the right way or is one of those who remain misguided [82].

82. From this it is learn't that whoso ever is to be married, is better to test his/her intellect, under standing and wisdom. This tells us that to test a person is the way of life of Prophets. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم too had tested the intelligence and wisdom of his

42. Then when she came, it was said to her [83], 'is your throne like this? She said, 'as it is the same; and we were given knowledge before this and we have already submitted [84].

83. The thing is the same, but there is difference in colour and paint. For this reason the words 'as it is ' has been used. You could also say it is the same, also it could not be that. She had spoken in brevity but comprehensively. Allah be pleased!

43. And that she used to worship beside Allah had stopped her. Undoubtedly she was of a disbelieving people [85].

85. This means Faith had already seeped into the heart of Bilqees but she only reveals it today in the court of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), because she had feared her people in that they would be infuriated by her change of faith. Due to the previous

80. It is indeed the grace of Allah Almighty that He has created such saints among my students. From this we learn that sainthood is a thing of certainty, so are the miracles of the saints.

81. From this emerge two issues:

1. Sometimes Allah Almighty takes back the bounty from His servant to test him, and sometimes grants him wealth to test him.
2. The true servants of Allah Almighty always regard bounties as a means of test. They are never proud of material possessions.

قَالَ نَكِّرُوْا لَهَا عَرْشَهَا نَنْظُرْ اَتَهْتَدِيْٓ اَمْ تَكُوْنُ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ لَا يَهْتَدُوْنَ ﴿٤١﴾

Companions. Furthermore, it is permissible to spend from someone's wealth without his permission provided the intention is good, and not to cause mischief. This can also be said that since this throne was to come under his possession, therefore he changed it.

فَلَمَّا جَآءَتْ قِيْلَ اَهٰكَذَا عَرْشُكِ ؕ قَالَتْ كَاَنَّهٗ هُوَ ۚ وَ اُوْتِيْنَا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ قَبْلِهَا وَ كُنَّا مُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٤٢﴾ polytheism she did not have the courage to oppose everybody. This courage and boldness to declare her faith, only came to her after she came under the protection of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). Praise be to Allah!

44. It was said to her, 'come to the courtyard [86]. Then when she saw it, she thought it was a deep water and uncovered shanks [87]. Sulaiman said, 'it is a soft courtyard set with glasses.' The woman said,'O my Lord I have wronged my soul [88] and now I submit with Sulaiman before Allah who is the Lord of the entire world [89].

86. This court yard was made of glass. Below it was clean water. The glass was so clean that nothing but water was visible seen. For this reason, Bilqees wanting to cross the water rolled up her pyjamas which revealed her calf.

87. Because Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) wanted to marry Bilqees, and seeing his fiance is not unlawful. Someone had said that there are hair on her legs. Thus, to ascertain this he wanted to satisfy his curiosity through this way without her knowing it. From this there is a hint that to see the person through her physical features in such a way that she is not aware of it, is the way of the Prophets. In Islam, too, this is permissible. But it should be remembered that you should see under some pretext.

88. Here tyranny denotes infidelity and polytheism. Says Allah Almighty: "Undoubtedly, the association with Allah is a tremendous wrong" (S31 V13). The polytheist due to his polytheism makes him entitled to be an inmate of Hell, thus, he is causing tyranny to himself.

89. This means I did not come to Your court without any medium, I am coming through the medium of a Prophet, Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). Although I am not worthy of acceptance, but through the blessing of my blessed Companion accept me. Bilqees on seeing the kingdom of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) ascertained the Power of Allah Almighty. The apparent is the ladder of reaching the reality. Bilqees accepted Faith and married Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). From her, Hazrat Dawood (On whom be peace) was born (who died during the life time of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) ascended the throne at the age of thirteen and died at the age of fifty three. Thus he had ruled for forty years. His demise took place five hundred and seventy five years after Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). Bilqees had died a month after the death of her illustrious husband (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan).

45. And undoubtedly, We sent towards Thamud their compatriot Saleh that worship Allah [90], then henceforth they became two parties91 contending.

90. Through heart and body, bring faith through the heart and do good deeds and worship through the body. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

91. One group of believers, the other of infidels-everyone had been saying in its favour.

92. This means why are you seeking punishment before forgiveness. It should be remembered here that 'good' denotes forgiveness. They had been saying that when punishment would come to us we will then seek forgiveness.

93. Do this by declaring faith by seeking forgiveness. Repent from all types of immoral activities and become pious. Other than that, the repentance of an infidel is not accepted.

47. Said, 'we took a bad omen from you and your companions [94]. He said, 'your bad omen is with Allah [95], rather your people are lying in temptation [96].

94. Because rain was withheld from the people of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) due to their immoral practices, while they, accused the believers for being the cause of it.

95. This tells us that infidelity is an inauspicious thing, due to which punishment is sent into the world.

96. This tells us that the Prophets and believers are auspicious people through whose blessings the mercy of Allah Almighty descends. To call them inauspicious is mischief-making of the highest order. Or it can mean that the withholding of the rain is a test upon you. Sometimes Allah Almighty tests us by giving, sometimes by taking. In that case mischief would signify a test. Says Allah Almighty: "Your wealth and your children are only a trial" (S64:V15).

48. And there were nine persons [97] in the city making mischief in the earth and didn't like rectification [98].

وَ كَانَ فِي الْمَدِيْنَةِ تِسْعَةُ رَهْطٍ يُّفْسِدُوْنَ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَ لَا يُصْلِحُوْنَ ﴿٤٨﴾

97. This means that in Hajr, city of the Thamood, lived nine people. Here the word RAHT denotes people who are Bazeel bin Abdur Rabb, Ghanam bin Ghanam, Baab bin Mohraj, Masda bin Mohraj, Umair bin Kardiya, Asim bin Makhrima, Sabit bin Sadka, Sahl bin Safee, Qidaar bin Salif. Qidaar was their leader. He killed Naaqah. This establishment was found between Arabia and Syria.

98. This means these people were genuine mischief makers and would do no useful work. Thus, after mischief, mention has not been made of peaceful measures.

members of this family and undoubtedly, we are the truthful [101].

99 This means we will kill Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace), his family and all his followers by sniping them at night. This tells us that these people had not rejected Allah Almighty, but were practising polytheism after believing in Allah Almighty, otherwise they would not have taken an oath of Allah Almighty.

100 This means from the heir of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) who would have the right to demand blood money for him. This tell us that during that time, the custom of awarding capital punishment and payment of blood money was in vogue.

101. This tells us that, lies are the foundation of all crimes. First, the crimnal makes the intention of telling a lie, thereafter he commits the crime. To try and prove the foundation of crimes, like a lie to Allah Almighty is indeed the worst form of infidelity.

50. And they plotted their own plot and We made Our secret plan and they remained unaware [102].

وَ مَكَرُوْا مَكْرًا وَّمَكَرْنَا مَكْرًا وَّ هُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ﴿٥٠﴾

102 This tells us that Allah Almighty is the Protector and Helper of His special servants and He saves them from the secret evils.

51. Then see how was the end of their plot, We destroyed them [103] and their entire people [104].

فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ مَكْرِهِمْ ۙ اَنَّا دَمَّرْنٰهُمْ وَ قَوْمَهُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ﴿٥١﴾

103. In that Allah Almighty would send angels to protect the house of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) When these people had come there fully armed, the angels had destroyed them. It should be remembered that this scheme of these wretches had taken place after the killing of the she-camel, when Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) had told them that they would be destroyed within three days In reply, they had spoken that before they are destroyed, they would destroy Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani, Khazainul Irfaan). Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse. The entire people of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace) were destroyed through Divine punishment, while these nine were killed in this manner.

104. The entire people were destroyed through a frightening sound, and these nine men were destroyed by the angels. There are other traditions regarding the killing of those nine men at the door of Hazrat Saleh (On whom be peace). That these men had hidden behind a huge rock with evil intentions. They were crushed to death by the same rock.

105. This tells us that the proof of historical things are made known through fame, which does not require any categorical Quranic injunction or an eye witness. That these desolate settlements were of those destroyed people had already become famous. Allah Almighty had acknowledged it reliability. The verses do not mention where these various

And through the blessing of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم greeting is extended to all the chosen servants of Allah Almighty

117. In that all of you are habitated on the earth, or that the earth is habitated, it does not have movement otherwise you would not be able to settle on it. The natural orders would be shattered through earthquakes.

118. This means the earth was on water in such a way, like the ships on the sea. Therefore, there would be movement and motion in it. Then huge mountains were placed on them so that due to their weight the earth would be stabilised. From these verses we learn that the earth is motionless and stationary. By dropping the anchor of the ship, it comes to a halt.

121. From this we understand Allah Almighty accepts the Dua of one who is restless. Among the conditions for the acceptance of Dua is restlessness. Therefore, there is an order that let the restless pray for you. The prayer of the travellers, the sick, the oppressed, those in debt are virtually certain to be accepted.

122. In that you became owners of the lands of your predecessors while those coming after you will become heirs of your lands. Pure is He whose possessions are beyond decline.

From this we learn that when Allah Almighty had created the stars, etc. as guides for worldly journeys, then why should He not create guides for the Hereafter in the form of Prophets, Saints, the Ulama? In this verse there is a prophecy about future inventions, i.e. things like mariner's compass, etc. would be invented for providing guidance for travellers during darkness of the night, as is the case today.

64. Or He who originates the creation, and shall thereafter makes it again [125]? And who gives you sustenance from heaven and earth [126]? Is there any other god along with Allah? Say you, 'bring forward your proof that you are truthful' [127].

125 The polytheists of Makkah were believers in the concept of origin of creation, and had accepted Allah Almighty as their Creator and Master, but they did not believe in the concept of resurrection But since the repetition of this has been substantiated with proofs, hence it is correct to state this negative interrogation. Thus, there is nothing objectionable about the verse.

126. This means that from the heavens He provides rain and the light of the sun, the moon and the stars, and provides all produce from the earth like fruit, grain, nourishing food, medicinal herbs, etc. or that the heavens and the earth have a hand in the production of all of these i e. the sand of the earth becomes fertile due to the rains and sun light from the heaven's, or that the earth provides the physical body, nourishing foods, wakefulness, sleep, comforts, hardship, etc. and the heaven provides spiritual nourishment, faith, good deeds etc. through prophethood.

127. From this we learn that it is permissible to seek proof from the infidel to prove him false. However, it is infidelity to seek proof based on the probability of truth i.e. perhaps he may be on the path of truth eg. if a person claims to be a prophet for which another person seeks proof, with the thought that he might be true in his claim, then the seeker of the proof is out of the fold of Islam. Such a verdict by a jurist is not in contradiction of this verse.

قُلْ لَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ الْغَيْبَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ۚ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ أَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾

65. Say you, 'however are in the heavens and earth [128] do not know themselves the unseen but Allah'. And they do not know when they will be raised up [129].

128 In terms of apparent meaning, this verse is against the Wahabies too, because even they believe in partial knowledge of the unseen for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم . Hence the actual meaning of this verse is that Allah Almighty alone in the true sense of the word is the Knower of the Unseen. Thereafter, whomsoever He chooses, He may inform and due to His information others gain this knowledge as is stated by Allah Almighty: "There is no judgement but of Allah" (S12:V40). This means the true and absolute Judge is Allah Almighty, but through His blessings others, too, are judges. In the Ruku that follows, the following verse is found: "And as many unseen of the heavens and the earth are there, all are in a Book disclosing" (S27:V75). All the unseen are found in a Book upholding the unity. And that is not a book. This means it is the revealer of all the unseen to His beloved bondsmen. This serves as the proof for the knowledge of the unseen of Prophets and Saints.

129. This entire verse is revealed as a reply to the question of the polytheists that, when would the Day of Judgement take place? By means of the plural form it has been hinted that this knowledge shall not be given to the common people.

بَلِ ادّٰرَكَ عِلْمُهُمْ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ ۚ بَلْ هُمْ فِيْ شَكٍّ مِّنْهَا ۚ بَلْ هُمْ مِّنْهَا عَمُوْنَ ﴿٦٦﴾ ع ٨

66. Has their knowledge reached [130] to the knowing of the hereafter? Nay they are in doubt about it, rather they are blind to it [131].

130. This means are these people convinced about the Day of Judgement that they are enquiring about its date and time? What it means is that this question of theirs is merely for the sake of making fun and not for the sake of investigation.

131. This means he who does not prepare for his death and for the Day of Judgement, such a person is blind about the Hereafter. There are many ways of being blind and dead. The proofs about them are quite categorical and one needs to ponder over them.

SECTION: 6

وَ قَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْٓا ءَاِذَا كُنَّا تُرٰبًا وَّ اٰبَآؤُنَآ اَئِنَّا لَمُخْرَجُوْنَ ﴿٦٧﴾

67. And the infidels said, 'what, when we and our fathers will become dust, shall we be brought forth again [132]?

132. This means that they would be taken out of their graves for the purpose of giving account of their deeds. It should be remembered that by graves is meant period of the grave and not the inmates of the grave, because those who had been buried, too, would be resurrected from their places.

لَقَدْ وُعِدْنَا هٰذَا نَحْنُ وَ اٰبَآؤُنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ ۙ اِنْ هٰذَآ اِلَّآ اَسَاطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿٦٨﴾

68. Undoubtedly, we have been promised this and before us our fathers, this is not but the tales of the ancients [133].

133. This means the previous Prophets had promised our ancestors about the coming of the Day of Judgement, but it has not come as yet. This thinking of theirs was a height of foolishness. It is like a person saying about a tree that has just been planted: Why doesn't it bear the fruit the same day? Every work takes place on its time. The Day of Judgement, too, would take place on its time.

قُلْ سِيْرُوْا فِي الْاَرْضِ فَانْظُرُوْا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ ﴿٦٩﴾

69. Say you 'travel in the earth and see, how were the end of the culprits [134]?

134. From this we learn that to see the ruined establishments of those nations destroyed by Allah Almighty for the sake of taking a lesson is beneficial. Similarly to undertake a journey to visit the sacred Mazaars of the Saints of Allah Almighty in order to inculcate a desire for the worship of Allah Almighty as well as to strengthen hope is excellent. The meaning of the Hadith that besides visiting the three mosques do not undertake a journey elsewhere, is that, do not go there with the understanding that the rewards therein would be greater than other mosques besides these three mosques. Thus, there is no contradiction between the Hadith and the Holy QUR'AAN.

وَ لَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَ لَا تَكُنْ فِيْ ضَيْقٍ مِّمَّا يَمْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٧٠﴾

70. And grieve you not over them [135], and not be straitened on their plotting [136].

Marfat.com

135 From this we learn that one should not express sorrow at the punishment of the infidels, but instead one should express joy, as they are the enemies of the believers. One should be happy at killing a snake.
136 This means do not be saddened by the schemes of the infidels to destroy Islam and the Muslims because they will not be successful in their efforts. It is your sun that would be on the rise. And this is what had happened. From this we learn that the power of infidelity is less than its bark. You should always be prepared to oppose it. Do not be disheartened by it.

71. And they say, 'when this promise will be fulfilled [137], if you are truthful'.

وَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ مَتٰى هٰذَا الْوَعْدُ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰدِقِيْنَ ﴿٧١﴾

137 Of the victory and aid of the believers, or it is about the punishment of the world and the Hereafter of the infidels. In the first instance it refers to the promise, while in the second instance it refers to threat of censure. It should be remembered that this question of the infidels was merely for the sake of ridicule and jest. To ask a question with this intention, too, is an act of infidelity.

72. Say you, it is near that some of the things you are hastening for, may have come closed to you [138].

قُلْ عَسٰۤى اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ رَدِفَ لَكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِيْ تَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَ ﴿٧٢﴾

138 The reason for stating 'some' is to show that some of the punishments on the infidels would be meted out in this world quickly, while the punishments of the grave and the Hereafter would come later. Thus, the first punishment these infidels received at the hands of the believers was in the battle-field of Badr.

73. And undoubtedly, your Lord is graceful for mankind [139] but most of them are not grateful [140].

وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُوْ فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَ لٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُوْنَ ﴿٧٣﴾

139 Here the word 'mankind refers to people in general, which includes the believers, as well as the infidels. Graceful refers to worldly bounties. Worldly bounties are distributed to all the people, but Faith and piety have been specifically given to the believers while the infidels have been spared from immediate coming of punishment.

140. In fact, they are taking incorrect advantage of His bounty by wishing for punishment to hasten to them.

74. And undoubtedly, your Lord knows what is hidden in their breasts and what they disclose [141].

وَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُوْرُهُمْ وَ مَا يُعْلِنُوْنَ ﴿٧٤﴾

141. Many of the infidels were inwardly regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم to be true, but were verbally rejecting him. Regarding them Allah Almighty said: "We are fully aware of both conditions of theirs". Or it could mean that in their hearts they have envy for you and verbally they utter insults. We are aware of both things and shall give punishment for both.

means of this book whose gaze is on it, otherwise Allah Almighty has no need for these. He is free from forgetfulness, errors, etc. In this blessed verse there is great proof about the knowledge of the unseen of the Prophets and Saints. In fact, angels too, know these by Divine endowment because their sight is on the Divine Tablet.

142. It should be remembered that the Divine Tablet is called 'disclosing' because it reveals all types of knowledge and secrets to those people who have been blessed with the vision to see it. If the Divine Tablet was not visible to anyone, it would not have been called discloser. In fact, these statements are there for those people who gain all the knowledge by

76. Undoubtedly, this Qur`aan explains to the children of Israel most of those things in which they differ [143].

Likewise the Jews and the Christians had been fighting over Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace). The Jews were slandering against the purity and chastity of his mother while the Christians were believing in him as God or son of God. The Holy QUR'AAN established the truth about this as well.

143. Previous incidents and religious laws. Thus, in the prophethood of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace), the incident of the Companions of the Cave, the story of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace), the People of the Book had differed. The Holy QUR'AAN by verifying them put an end to this dispute.

he is a special mercy. Says Allah Almighty: "And We had not sent you but as a mercy for all worlds" (S21:V107), and further says: "And to the believers is most kind and merciful" (S9:V128).

144. It should be remembered that the true guidance and mercy of the Holy QUR'AAN is specific for the believer, but its guidance is for all, for every believer and the infidel alike. Just like the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم who is a mercy unto the worlds, but to the believers not tarnished any of them. The Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is the fountainhead of truth. From a gold mine you will not get copper. Falsehood does not come from the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم .

145. This means your being on the path of truth is so apparent as the sun at noon. Only the blind will try to reject you. By stating 'clear truth' categorically we learn that every belief, action and saying of the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم is correct. Falsehood has

It is obligatory to extend greetings to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم in Tashahood, although extending greeting to the deaf, or he may be able to hear but is unable to reply is not permissible.

due to Divine knowledge and those in whose destiny Faith is written. Thus, there is no objection on the verse. From this verse we learn that there is a difference between Islam and faith, because there is a difference in the subject preceding and following the adverbial prefix Fa.

وَ اِذَا وَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ اَخْرَجْنَا لَهُمْ دَآبَّةً مِّنَ الْاَرْضِ تُكَلِّمُهُمْ ۙ اَنَّ النَّاسَ كَانُوْا بِاٰيٰتِنَا لَا يُوْقِنُوْنَ ۝٨٢ would have in its possession the walking stick of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) and the ring of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace). He would touch the forehead of a believer with the walking stick through which a bright light would appear and this would be a sign of the person dying with faith. He would touch the forehead of the infidel with the ring of Hazrat Sulaiman (On whom be peace) due to which a dark mark would appear and this would be the sign of him dying an infidel.

146 Here corpses denote death of the heart i.e. by infidels and the blind is meant their hearts are blind. Otherwise they would not have been contrasted with faith. The listening of the corpse is proven from the Holy QUR'AAN and the Ahadith Its commentary is the following verse "Certainly it is not the eyes that are blind but blind are the hearts which

147. Those whose hearts are blind, or those who are blind, of eyes, whose eyes can outwardly see, but they fail to see your miracles. Otherwise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم had blessed many blind people with the light of faith.

148 This means those who are believers

149 By this is meant that people would give up religious propagation because of it, and they will have no hope of the infidels ever reforming. This time will come just before the Day of Judgement. At that point in time there will be believers in the world, but the control of the infidels would be greater

150. The name of this animal is JASASAH. It has been born Some of the noble Companions had seen it where the DAJJAL is imprisoned. This animal will come out of custody after the setting of the sun (Tafseer Roohul Bayaan). It

151.From this we learn that near the Day of Judgement, the coming out of DAABATUL ARDH from the earth is correct. This has been mentioned in Hadith Shareef. It would be a very strange looking animal. It would appear from the Hill of Safa. This does not signify any human scholar as has been misconstrued by present day CHAKRALDWI sect, otherwise its talking to the people would not seem so strange and astonishing.

83. And the day when We shall raise from every group of people a troop[152] of those who belied Our signs, then their first comers shall be stopped that those coming after may meet them.

وَ يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ مِنْ كُلِّ اُمَّةٍ فَوْجًا مِّمَّنْ يُّكَذِّبُ بِاٰيٰتِنَا فَهُمْ يُوْزَعُوْنَ ﴿۸۳﴾

152.Here the word 'every group' denotes, those groups of every prophet to whom they were sent.

84. Till, when all would have come[153], Allah will say, 'did you belie My Signs while Your Knowledge could not reach to them [154]. Or what you used to do? [155].

حَتّٰۤى اِذَا جَآءُوْ قَالَ اَكَذَّبْتُمْ بِاٰيٰتِىْ وَ لَمْ تُحِيْطُوْا بِهَا عِلْمًا اَمَّا ذَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۸۴﴾

153. That is where accountability would be taking place. From this we learn that on the Day of Judgement the accountability of the infidels would be taking place in the open for the purpose of disgracing them. If Allah Almighty wills, the accountability of sins of the believer would be done in solitude, but their good deeds would be accounted in the open.
154. This means that you have rejected the Day of Judgement, and verses or signs of Allah Almighty without any thinking. If you could have exercised slight hesitation you could have brought faith. Thus this is not that type of ignorance due to which man becomes known as disabled, but by this, it means not exercising slight delay and self-reflection.
155. This means you did not even consider why you have been created and what work you are doing. There is a purpose for the creation of everything, but did not even consider the purpose of your own creation.

85. And the word has already fallen upon them because of their wrongs, so now they speak nothing [156].

وَ وَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِمَا ظَلَمُوْا فَهُمْ لَا يَنْطِقُوْنَ ﴿۸۵﴾

156. This tells us that there will come a time on the infidels on the Day of Judgement when they would not be able to talk, while at other times they would be able to talk. Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verses.

86. Have they not seen that We have made the night that they must rest therein [157], and the day sight giving? Undoubtedly, in them necessarily there are signs for those who believe[158].

اَلَمْ يَرَوْا اَنَّا جَعَلْنَا الَّيْلَ لِيَسْكُنُوْا فِيْهِ وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا ؕ اِنَّ فِىْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيٰتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ﴿۸۶﴾

157. For this reason the night has been left for darkness, because darkness or lesser light helps to induce sleep. From this we learn that res-ting during night too is an act of worship, if done with good intention. Furthermore every rightful person should be given his dues.

Marfat.com

Worship and mystic exercises are rights of the spirit, rest is the right of the self, order is given here to fulfill both rights. However, just as one takes little rest during the day, one should engage in little worship at night. If you can engage in Tahajjud Salaah you will most certainly be very fortunate 158 The believers fully understand that just as one gets up after sleeping, in the same manner one will need to get up after dying. Just as light appears after the completion of the night, there is life after death Just as night is created for rest, day is created for work. But the work has to be for the pleasure of Allah Almighty. Just as day and night have not been made useless, there are many wisdoms associated with them. In the like manner, we and our deeds are not made futile. There should be some type of wisdom associated therewith. It should be remembered that the sleep of some is superior to the wakeful state, their death is better than living, while the wakeful state of some is better than sleep and living is better than death.

87. and the Day when the trumpet shall be blown [159], then all those who are in heavens and those in the earth shall be unnerved [160]but he whom Allah wills [161]. And all were present before Him showing humility [162].

وَ يَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّوْرِ فَفَزِعَ مَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ مَنْ فِي الْاَرْضِ اِلَّا مَنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ ؕ وَ كُلٌّ اَتَوْهُ دٰخِرِيْنَ ۝

159 The first trumpet would be the total annihilation of everyone, and the second time would be to resurrect everyone .

160 If this is meant the first trumpet, then by unnerved would mean the fear of death i e. they would die out of fear But if it means the second blowing of the trumpet, then fear would denote the fear of the Day of Judgement which will be for everyone, besides some special servants of Allah Almighty It should be remembered that everyone will die from the first blowing of the trumpet besides, Hazrat Israfeel (On whom be peace) and some other angels, as their death will take place later through Divine command Likewise, the first to be resurrected would be, Hazrat Israfeel (On whom be peace) and some angels as per Divine Command Thereafter the rest of the people would come to life, through the blowing of the second Trumpet. It is for this reason that 'he whom Allah wills' is stated thereafter. Thus, this objection of Dayanand Saraswati is totally incorrect that if everyone would be annihilated through the Trumpet, then what would destroy the Trumpet.

161. From this we learn that the pious servants of Allah Almighty will have no fear of the Day of Judgement. Says Allah Almighty: "The Great Terror shall not grieve them" (S21 :V103). It is further stated: "And they are secure on that Day from bewilderment" (S27:V89). The martyrs are also included in them

162. This means all will be present in the court of Allah Almighty, some to receive punishment, some to gain rewards, some to gain pardon and some to pardon the sinners.

88. And you shall see the mountains, you shall think that they are fixed, but they will be passing (like) the passing of clouds [163]. This the work of Allah Who made every thing with wisdom. Undoubtedly, He is aware of your works.

وَتَرَى الْجِبَالَ تَحْسَبُهَا جَامِدَةً وَّ هِيَ تَمُرُّ مَرَّ السَّحَابِ ؕ صُنْعَ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْٓ اَتْقَنَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ ؕ اِنَّهٗ خَبِيْرٌۢ بِمَا تَفْعَلُوْنَ ۝

163 Like how the moon and the stars seem stationary to us, whereas in reality they are moving swiftly. The movement of big objects is not felt immediately.

Marfat.com

89. Whoever brings good [164] for him there is better reward then that [165] and they are secure that Day from bewilderment [166].

مَنْ جَآءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهٗ خَيْرٌ مِّنْهَا ۚ وَ هُمْ مِّنْ فَزَعٍ يَّوْمَئِذٍ اٰمِنُوْنَ ﴿۸۹﴾

164. This means that any believer who brings with him good deeds or he comes to the court of Allah Almighty with Faith. Thus by 'good' is meant pious deeds, or good beliefs. The verse does not mean that even the infidels would be given reward for their deeds, as in deduced by some people. Such a belief is totally against the teachings of the Holy QUR'AAN.

165. This means that We will grant the pious more rewards then what they deserve. Our endowment will be according to Our status and according to the deed of the servant.

166. This means due to fear of the punishment which would be at seeing Hell. Otherwise, the awe and dread of the Day of Judgement would be experienced by the pious believers too, besides those very special servants. Thus there is no objection against the verse. It should be observed that the time of entry into Paradise is included in the Day of Judgement. Thus, to experience fear regarding this day is most appropriate.

90. And whoever brought evil, then their faces were lied down in the fire[167]. What reward you will get but of only that which you used to do [168].

وَ مَنْ جَآءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَكُبَّتْ وُجُوْهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ ؕ هَلْ تُجْزَوْنَ اِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿۹۰﴾

167. This means that his death should be on infidelity, as is understood from the verse that follows, because to be thrown upside down in Hell is set aside for the infidels only. If any believer would be going in Hell for punishment, he will go in a different manner.

168. From this emerge two issues:

1. The punishment of the infidels in Hell would be of various types because their deeds in the world were varied. The severe infidels. punishment would be severe, while that of the milder infidel would be of a lesser degree

2.The minor children of the infidel who had died in their infancy, would not be punished in Hell, because the punishment of Hell would be due to one's evil deeds as is understood from the use 'of that'. It should be remembered that the punishment of leading someone astray too is due to the punishment of ones own deed i.e. of misleading.

91. I have been commanded only to worship the Lord [169] of this city, Who has sanctified it [170] and His is everything, and I have been commanded to be of obedients [171].

اِنَّمَاۤ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَعْبُدَ رَبَّ هٰذِهِ الْبَلْدَةِ الَّذِيْ حَرَّمَهَا وَ لَهٗ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ ۫ وَّ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿۹۱﴾ۙ

169. Because the sacred city of Makkah is the place of birth of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم and the place of Hajj, it has been elevated to this position, otherwise Allah Almighty is the Lord of everything.

170. By sanctified means He has prohibited to hunt and to cut the grass therein. Or it means that city is one of dignity and sanctity.

171. From this we understand no matter what status one may reach, he cannot remain unmindful about his good deeds. If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is commanded to be obedient to laws of Allah Almighty, then in what category are we? It should be remembered that the word Muslim denotes one who is obedient and not a true believer, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is indeed Faith personified. We are believers while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the essence of Faith. Belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is the true meaning of faith. Thus, you cannot prove from this verse that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is our brother. But every Mulsim is a brother unto one another.

Marfat.com

وَاَنْ اَتْلُوَا الْقُرْاٰنَ ۚ فَمَنِ اهْتَدٰى فَاِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِيْ لِنَفْسِهٖ ۚ وَ مَنْ ضَلَّ فَقُلْ اِنَّمَآ اَنَا مِنَ الْمُنْذِرِيْنَ ﴿٩٢﴾

92. And that I recite Quraan [172]; therefore whoever got guidance got it for his own good [173] and whoever went astray, then, say you, 'I am only a Warner' [174].

172 So that through my recitation of the Holy QUR'AAN you may obtain guidance

173 He will certainly find the reward of it, although the provider of guidance will also receive rewards for providing the guidance Hence this verse does not stop you from ESAAL E SAWAAB i e conveying rewards of good deeds to the departed souls.

174. Thus I will not suffer any loss due to your going astray. This tells us that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم is totally independent of us. It is we who are totally dependent on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم.

وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ سَيُرِيْكُمْ اٰيٰتِهٖ فَتَعْرِفُوْنَهَا ؕ وَ مَا رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُوْنَ ﴿٩٣﴾

93. And say, 'all praise belongs to Allah, soon He will show you His signs, then you will recognise them[175]. And O Beloved Prophet; your Lord is not unaware, O people, of your doings.

175 By these signs is meant those miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم which were to appear in the future like the splitting of the moon, the re-appearance of the sun when it had set, the recitation of the Kalima by stones and rocks, etc. Or it could mean those unseen things which would be appearing later like the defeat of the infidels, in the Battles of Badr and Hunain, and the victory of the believers in these, or the befalling of calamities on the infidels, like famine, etc.

1.TA -Sin-Mim

2. These are the verses of the luminous book [2].

تِلْكَ اٰيٰتُ الْكِتٰبِ الْمُبِيْنِ ②

2. It means that of the Holy QUR'AAN. It should be remembered that the Divine Tablet too is called the luminous Book and so is the Holy QUR'AAN, but the difference is that The Divine Tablet is luminous only to the special servants of Allah Almighty, while the Holy QUR'AAN is luminous to all the believers.

3. We recite to you the true news of Musa and Firawn [3] (pharaoh) for those who believe [4]

نَتْلُوْا عَلَيْكَ مِنْ نَّبَاِ مُوْسٰى وَ فِرْعَوْنَ بِالْحَقِّ لِقَوْمٍ يُّؤْمِنُوْنَ ③

3. Because the stories of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) and the Pharoah were very well known, so much so that they had become household tales and the Israelites had brought in many fabrications to these. To rectify this, Allah Almighty had revealed these stories in various parts of the QUR'AAN in different ways. In these there is proof of our Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم prophethood, as well as that without reading and assistance of any historians, he is able to narrate such stories. Indeed, he is a true Prophet who is doing this by means of revelation.

4. From this we learn that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم was fully aware of these stories in advance. Their revelation in the Holy QUR'AAN is to give this information to the believer. For this reason "for those who have faith" is stated here. We further learn that only the believers would benefit from them and not the infidels. In addition, we learn that to narrate and listen to historical events is an act of worship, as they become a means of obtaining piety.

4. Undoubtedly, Firawn had got control in the earth 5 and made its inhabitants of Egypt as they were Israelites.

7. Thus the Pharoah had between eighty and ninety thousand innocent male infants from the Israelites killed (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani).

7.1 so that the girls who were spared would serve him when they came of age. He had no fear from the girls because the sooth-sayers had given him this information that one boy, from the Israelites will put an end to your kingdom. Here 'their women' denotes their small daughters who would become women in time to come.

وَنُرِيْدُ اَنْ نَّمُنَّ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ اسْتُضْعِفُوْا فِى الْاَرْضِ وَنَجْعَلَهُمْ اَئِمَّةً وَّنَجْعَلَهُمُ الْوٰرِثِيْنَ ۝ in terms of religion because a believer cannot be an heir of an infidel. Also, there was no geneological relationship between the Qibtees (people of the Pharoah) and the Israelites. Instead, it denotes inheritance in the absurd way, i.e. becoming an heir of his wealth after his death.

وَنُمَكِّنَ لَهُمْ فِى الْاَرْضِ وَنُرِىَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامٰنَ وَجُنُوْدَهُمَا مِنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَحْذَرُوْنَ ۝

6. And We should establish them in the earth [11] and show to Firawn and Haman and their armies the same, which they fear, from them. [12]

12 The decline of his kingdom as well as his own destruction at the hands of one son of the Israelites. This tells us that fate does not escape through any planning or course of action.

وَاَوْحَيْنَآ اِلٰٓى اُمِّ مُوْسٰٓى اَنْ اَرْضِعِيْهِ ۚ

7. And We inspired [13] the mother of Musa, suckle him [14], When you may 5 'Exaltation on the earth' is called that controlling power in the Holy QUR'AAN which is for giving air to one's ego and its end result is cruelty and tyranny. This is what is meant here "Desire not exaltation on the earth nor disorder" (S28 V83). If this control is intended for the sake of religion, it would be an act of worship. Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) told the king to grant him the control over the treasures. Here the word 'Earth' signifies the ground of Egypt.

6 This means for one group from the 8 This tells us that prophethood and kingdom are some of the major favours from the kind offices of Allah Almighty.

9 Religious as well as worldly, so that Israelites should obtain guidance from Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) while others should obtain it from the Israelites.

10 Here the 'heir' does not denote inheritance

11 By earth is meant the earth of Egypt and this is the commentary of this inheritance. Or by ground is meant the lands of Syria, Egypt, etc.

have fear for him [15], then cost him into river and fear [16] not and nor grieve; undoubtedly, we shall return him to you and shall make him Messengers. [17]

13. Through a dream or an angel. Or he placed it into their hearts. There are a great deal of divergent views on the name of the mother of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) Generally the accepted name is Yohaiz and she is from the children of Ladi Bin Hazrat Yacoob (On whom be peace) (Tafseer Khazainul Irfaan and Roohul Ma'ani).

14. For a few days Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) did not cry while hidden from everyone, and no one besides his sister Mariam come to know about his birth, not even the neighbours (Khazainul Irfaan).

15. This means after a few days your neighbours will come to know and they will inform Pharoah about it. At the time you should take this course of action. From this we learn that the mother of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was a complete Saint, and the saints of Allah Almighty are provided knowledge of the unseen from Him. Thus Yohaiz suckled Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) for three months. Thereafter those incidents came to pass which are described later.

16. From this we learn that Yohaiz had been given information of the following: Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) would not die now; you yourself would be taking care of him; Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) would be made a Prophet. All these things are from the knowledge of the unseen. This tells us that Saints of Allah Almighty are bestowed with knowledge of the unseen.

17. From this we learn that the wife can be called a member of the household, because Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was picked up by Hazrat Asiya the wife of the Pharoah, who had been called the family of Pharoah. Thus the Holy Prophet's wives are included in family of Hazrat Muhammad . It should be remembered that Yohaiz had placed the box in the river in the evening which reached the place of the Pharoah in the morning.

فَالْتَقَطَهٗۤ اٰلُ فِرْعَوْنَ لِيَكُوْنَ لَهُمْ عَدُوًّا وَّحَزَنًا ؕ اِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامٰنَ وَجُنُوْدَهُمَا كَانُوْا خٰطِـِٕيْنَ ۝٨

8. Then the family[18] of Firawn picked him up that he may become their enemy and grief. Undoubtedly, Firawn and Haman and their armies were wrongdoers. [19]

18. In the word LEYAKOONA the letter LAAM is consequential like it is said the thief steals in order to go to jail. This is not the intention of the thief, but the consequence of his action. In the same way, the Pharoah had picked up Hazrat Moosa عليه السلام with the intention of making him his son not his enemy. But this was the consequence. It should be remembered that in the word 'for them' Asiya (wife of the Pharoah) is not included, but rather the Pharoah and his followers.

19. Those who regarded Hazrat Moosa عليه السلام as an heirless child included those saints or those heirs; or it could mean those people were terrible criminals, and now that person has reached the house who would be punishing them i.e. Hazrat Moosa عليه السلام.

وَ قَالَتِ امْرَاَتُ فِرْعَوْنَ قُرَّتُ عَيْنٍ لِّيْ وَ لَكَ ؕ لَا تَقْتُلُوْهُ ۚ عَسٰۤى اَنْ يَّنْفَعَنَاۤ اَوْ نَتَّخِذَهٗ وَلَدًا وَّ هُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

9. And the wife of Firawn [20], said, ' this child is the comfort to you and me, [21] slay him not perhaps he may profit us [22] or we may take him for a son [23], and they were unaware.

20 This tells us that by rendering service to the Prophet, sunken ships come to the fore. This is the reason why Hazrat Asiya had been bestowed with the greatness i e she saved the life of Hazrat Moosa عليه السلام and served him. Hazrat Asiya was childless Whoever would see Hazrat Moosa عليه السلام would fall in love with him

21 This means after seeing him, I am beginning to love him, and so are you The full name of the wife of Pharoah is Asiya bint Mazaahim, bin Ubaid, bin Rayyaan bin Waleed This is the same Rayyaan bin Waleed who was the king of Egypt during the time of Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) (Roohul Ma'aani).

22 It is stated in Tafseer Roohul Bayaan that Hazrat Asiya had one daughter having leucoderma When she applied the saliva of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) on her leucoderma, she was cured of it. On that occasion he said that we will receive many blessings from this child. Allah Almighty knew best However, it is well known that she was childless It is possible that she might be an adopted daughter.

23. Because we have no son and he would become the light of our house.

وَ اَصْبَحَ فُؤَادُ اُمِّ مُوْسٰى فٰرِغًا ؕ اِنْ كَادَتْ لَتُبْدِيْ بِهٖ لَوْ لَاۤ اَنْ رَّبَطْنَا عَلٰى قَلْبِهَا لِتَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝

10. And next morning the heart of the mother of Musa became impatient [24]. Surly it was near that she might have disclosed[25] his condition, if we had not solaced her heart, [26] that she might remain believing on Our promise.

24 When she heard that her beloved son had reached the place of Pharoah But this impatience was a natural one, and not due to unawareness because she knows that her son would return safely to her, as has been outlined above

25 By uttering in a fit of ecstasy, Oh my son!

26 From this we learn that sometimes the response of 'if had not' comes before its utterance

Thus in the verse of Surah Yusuf: "And he would also have desired her, if he would not have the proof of his Lord" (S12.V24), 'if he would not' is the latter condition while 'he would also have desired her' is requittal which receives priority. What this actually means is that if Hazrat Yusuf (On whom be peace) had not seen the proof of his Lord, he would have desired Lady Zuleikha.

وَ قَالَتْ لِاُخْتِهٖ قُصِّيْهِ ۚ فَبَصُرَتْ بِهٖ عَنْ جُنُبٍ وَّ هُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

11. And his mother said to his sister[27], ' follow him', then she remained observing from a far, and they were not aware. [28]

27 The name of Hazrat Moosa's (On whom be peace) sister is Mariam bint Imraan and her husband's name is Ghalib bin Yosha

(Tafseer Roohul Ma'aani) The name of the mother of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) too is Mariam bint Imraan. But the two Imraans are different persons. Between these two Imraans there is a time difference of almost two thousand years.

12. And We had already forbidden all wet nurses [29] to him them she said, ' shall I tell you of such a household who may bring up this child [30] of yours, and they are his well wishers.

29. From this we learn that sometimes miracles of the Prophets take place in their childhood too. Refraining Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) from suckling anyone's milk besides that of his mother is indeed his miracle. These are called ERHAAS i.e. the talking of Hazrat Isa (On whom be peace) in his infancy.

13. Then We returned him to his mother [31] that his mother might be comforted and not grieve, and she might know that the promise of Allah s true, [32] but most of the people know not. [33]

31. In that Hazrat Mariam went to call her mother Yohaiz at Pharoah's instructions. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) immediately began to breast feed after going to his mother and slept peacefully thereafter. Prior to this, the Pharoah carried him and tried to cajole him, but the baby continued to cry for milk and remained restless. This, was causing anxiety in the Pharoah as well. When the Pharoah asked Yohaiz why the child has accepted her milk and what relation she had with the child she replied, that there seems to be a great deal of purity in this baby and because I keep myself clean he is inclined towards me. Thus the Pharoah fixed wages for

28. That she is the sister of this boy who has come to enquire about him.

وَحَرَّمْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَرَاضِعَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَقَالَتْ هَلْ اَدُلُّكُمْ عَلٰٓى اَهْلِ بَيْتٍ يَّكْفُلُوْنَهٗ لَكُمْ وَ هُمْ لَهٗ نٰصِحُوْنَ ﴿۱۲﴾

30. This means to take wages from you for taking care of him as is done by midwives. This tells us that the mother of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) took wages from the Pharoah for taking care of him in order to conceal this secret.

فَرَدَدْنٰهُ اِلٰٓى اُمِّهٖ كَيْ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَ لَا تَحْزَنَ وَ لِتَعْلَمَ اَنَّ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقٌّ وَّلٰكِنَّ اَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿۱۳﴾ ع ۱۲/۲

Yohaiz and made arrangements for her provisions and told her to take the baby home where she should take care of him in a princely way. Allah Almighty be Praised! (Khazainul Irfaan)

32. This means to recognize after seeing him, otherwise she was certain, prior to this, now it became positive knowledge.

33. They doubt the promises of Allah Almighty. They are believers about the concept of possibility of a lie regarding Allah Almighty (Allah forbid!) While breast feeding Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) stayed with his mother for which Pharoah paid her one ashrafi (gold coin) per day.

SECTION 2

14. And when he reached his grown up age and attained his full strength, We bestowed him judgement and knowledge [34]. And thus We reward the gooddoers. [35]

وَ لَمَّا بَلَغَ اَشُدَّهٗ وَاسْتَوٰٓى اٰتَيْنٰهُ حُكْمًا وَّ عِلْمًا ؕ وَ كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ﴿۱۴﴾

Marfat.com

34. This tells us that Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was blessed with Inspired Knowledge which he had obtained without a teacher as is understood from 'We gave him' This knowledge was granted to him before prophethood It should also be remembered that here command and knowledge do not denote prophethood because this was only bestowed upon Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) on the way while he was coming from Madyan to Egypt This is that knowledge and wisdom which was granted to him before prophethood

35. This means from the beginning Hazrat Musa (On whom be peace) was pious, virtuous, righteous and God-fearing "We had granted him this knowledge and wisdom in reward of this". From this emerge two issues:

1. All the Prophets are pious and God-fearing before they are bestowed with Prophethood and the Divine Book, and constant worshippers of their Lord. When the first revelation came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم he was sitting in I'tikaaf in the Cave of Hira, totally engrossed in the remembrance of Allah Almighty. Please tell me who had taught the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم this form of worship and I'tikaaf?

2. Due to the blessings of good deeds you may receive comprehensive knowledge and it grants increase in the good deeds of the Alim. The Ulama should ensure that they engage in good deeds.

15. And he entered the city [36] ot a time when the people of the city, were unaware in their noon's' nap, [37] and found there two men fighting, one was of Musa party, and the other of his enemies, [38] then the one that was of his enemies therefore Musa gave a blow [39] to him and put an end of him; [40] he said, ' this is of the work of the evil (Satan)' [41] undoubtedly, he is an enemy, a clear misleader. [42]

وَدَخَلَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ عَلٰى حِيْنِ غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ
اَهْلِهَا فَوَجَدَ فِيْهَا رَجُلَيْنِ يَقْتَتِلٰنِ ۚ

مِنْ عَدُوِّهٖ ۙ فَوَكَزَهٗ مُوْسٰى فَقَضٰى عَلَيْهِ ۚ
قَالَ هٰذَا مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطٰنِ ۭ اِنَّهٗ عَدُوٌّ
مُّضِلٌّ مُّبِيْنٌ ۝

36 He entered Egypt through Pharoah's fort because his fort was on the edge of the city or just outside it Or he had come to Egypt to Mansaf, Ain Shams (names of cities) Mansaf was situated within the boundary of Egypt. Its name in that language was SAFAH, while Ain Shams is found about two kilometers from Egypt (Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani & Khazainul Irfaan)

37 This means in the afternoon when usually all the roads alleys and market places are empty as people are resting during this time.

38 This means he was from the Israelites. The author of Roohul Bayaan states that this was Samari Outwardly, he was from his people but he ended up being a reprobate. He made the golden calf and became the cause of the Israelites going astray. This means he was from QIBTEES. This Qibti was oppressing the Israelites. His name was Fatoon who was the chef of the Pharoah. He was telling this Isrealite to take the wood to the kitchen by force. The Israelite refused. (Tafseer Roohul Ma'aani). The Holy QUR'AAN refers to Shia as an infidel group of people. This word appears eleven times in the Holy QUR'AAN. Says Allah Almighty: "And undoubtedly, Ebrahim belongs to this same group" (S37:V83). In the infidel group Allah Almighty sent Prophet like Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) Hazrat Ebrahim (On whom be peace) said: "I find you and your people in manifest error" (S6:V74). It is further stated: "Undoubtedly, you are manifestly a misguided people" (S28:V18).

Marfat.com

39. First Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) tried to explain to Fatoon to refrain from oppressing. When he refused, he was given a hard slap.

40. From this we learn that Allah Almighty gives His Prophets both spiritual and physical strength. Thus, the Qibti was unable to withstand the power of just one slap of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). In fact, their strength is greater than that of the angels. Even Hazrat Israeel was unable to withstand the power of one slap of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) It should be remembered that it is not a sin to take the life of an oppressive infidel. Also, his intention was not to kill this Qibti.

41. The oppression of the Qibti against the Israelite was the work of the devil, and not his killing, because it is important to punish a cruel infidel. Also, Prophets are totally innocent and sinless, before and after receiving prophethood (Khazainul Irfaan).

42. This means the devil is leading the Qibtees astray.

16. He submitted, ' O my Lord ', 'I have exceeded the limit against my soul, [43] therefore forgive me, then the Lord forgave him. Undoubtedly, He it is the Forgiving, Merciful. [44]

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّیۡ ظَلَمۡتُ نَفۡسِیۡ فَاغۡفِرۡ لِیۡ فَغَفَرَ لَهٗ ؕ اِنَّهٗ هُوَ الۡغَفُوۡرُ الرَّحِیۡمُ ﴿۱۶﴾

43. This statement of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) is based on humility and politeness. Our Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وآلہ وسلم would always recite: "O my Lord, I have exceeded the limit against my soul" (S28:V16). The purpose of this was to teach others the method of seeking repentance. This does not mean killing the Qibti was an act of tyranny, because killing a confederate infidel is an act of worship. They had killed thousands of Israelite babies. Also, if this killing was tyranny, then Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) would have been liable for capital punishment, blood money or seeking pardon from the heir of the one killed. In fact, he himself would have handed himself over to the Pharoah for punishment.

Just by uttering words of repentance would not have been enough for repentance because this was part of human right.

44. This verse means that this wrong of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), i.e. the killing of the Qibti has been forgiven. This killing in the first place was not a sin as has been stated earlier. Also, the crime of murder is never forgiven without capital punishment, paying blood money or forgiveness by the heir. In fact, what it means is, he has been made one forgiven and innocent. Says Allah Almighty: "That Allah may forgive the sins of your formers and your latters on account of you" (S48:V2). The forgiveness of the Prophets means they are sinless.

17. He submitted, ' O my Lord as you have blessed me, therefore now I shall never be a helper to the culprits.' [45]

قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَاۤ اَنۡعَمۡتَ عَلَیَّ فَلَنۡ اَکُوۡنَ ظَهِیۡرًا لِّلۡمُجۡرِمِیۡنَ ﴿۱۷﴾

45. This means save me from staying by the Pharoah because by sitting with him, too, is like accepting his help eg. if an Alim, today stays with a tyrant, then the people begin to think that since this tyrant is a companion of this Alim, hence what he is doing must be right.

18. Then he passed the night in the city fearing and waiting anxiously [46] what happens, when he saw that he who had sought help [47] the day before is crying for help. Musa said to him, undoubtedly, you are manifestly a misguided man' [48]

فَاَصۡبَحَ فِی الۡمَدِیۡنَةِ خَآئِفًا یَّتَرَقَّبُ فَاِذَا الَّذِی اسۡتَنۡصَرَهٗ بِالۡاَمۡسِ یَسۡتَصۡرِخُهٗ ؕ

Marfat.com

46 This tells us that to fear the wickedness of the wicked is not against the status of prophethood, just as Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) had shown fear for the snake. A Prophet does not have any fear in his heart for a human being. "There is no fear nor any grief upon the friends of Allah" (S10:V62).

47. In fact, today the same Israelite is fighting with the Qibti and is calling upon Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) for assistance.

48.Oh Israelite - because everyday you are fighting with someone.

فَلَمَّآ اَنْ اَرَادَ اَنْ يَّبْطِشَ بِالَّذِيْ هُوَ عَدُوٌّ لَّهُمَا ۙ قَالَ يٰمُوْسٰٓى اَتُرِيْدُ اَنْ تَقْتُلَنِيْ كَمَا قَتَلْتَ نَفْسًۢا بِالْاَمْسِ ۚ اِنْ تُرِيْدُ اِلَّآ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ جَبَّارًا فِي الْاَرْضِ وَمَا تُرِيْدُ اَنْ تَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُصْلِحِيْنَ ﴿۱۹﴾

19. Then when Musa wished to lay hold of him who is an enemy to both[49], he said, O Musa', do you intend to kill me as you did kill a person yesterday'? You only intend to become violent in the land and intended not to reform. [50]

49 This means Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) wanted to catch the Israelite and separate him from the Qibti. But the Israelite misunderstood this, thinking that Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) wanted to beat him up. So he began to scream and said this. It should be remembered that he said the Qibti was an enemy of both i.e. of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) and the fighting Israelite, because an infidel is always an enemy of a believer.

50. This means Oh Hazrat Moosa! (On whom be peace) you do not make peace verbally but show readiness to hit. Yesterday you killed one Qibti, and today you want to kill me. This Qibti heard what was said and wanted to inform the Pharoah about it. On hearing this the king gave an order to kill Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). In response to the kings command his police set out in search of him.

وَجَآءَ رَجُلٌ مِّنْ اَقْصَا الْمَدِيْنَةِ يَسْعٰى ۙ قَالَ يٰمُوْسٰٓى اِنَّ الْمَلَاَ يَاْتَمِرُوْنَ بِكَ لِيَقْتُلُوْكَ فَاخْرُجْ اِنِّيْ لَكَ مِنَ النّٰصِحِيْنَ ﴿۲۰﴾

20. And a man came running from the far side of the city. [51] He said, ' O Musa', undoubtedly, the chiefs are counselling together to kill you, therefore get away [52]; I am your well wisher'.

51 The person's name was Kharbeel who had secretly brought faith in Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). He was a Qibti. This fact had been mentioned in the Holy QUR'AAN at various places with great respect. Because the fort of Pharoah was on the edge of the city, and this person had come from there, therefore the words 'a corner' are used. Or it could mean, the royal police came from the straight road and this servant of Allah Almighty came to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) crossing different alleys so that he would reach him before the police.

52 This means the Pharoah and his courtiers are planning your arrest and death sentence. Therefore you must leave Egypt and cross over the boundaries of Pharoah's kingdom.

21. then he got out of the city fearing[53] and waiting anxiously what happens now. He submitted, ' O my Lord, save me from the oppressors'[54]

فَخَرَجَ مِنْهَا خَآئِفًا يَّتَرَقَّبُ ۚ قَالَ رَبِّ نَجِّنِيْ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٢١﴾ ع ٢ ٨ ٥

53. From this emerge a few issues:
1. To escape from dangerous places and to plan to save one's life is the way of the Prophets.
2. To act and plan according to motives is not against placing trust in Allah Almighty.
3. To fear the wickedness of the wicked is not going against the status of Prophethood. However, the Prophets and the Saints of Allah Almighty had no fear of obedience for a human being, they only feared Allah Almighty. Thus this verse is not against verse sixty two of Surah Ten.
4. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was justified in killing this Qibti, otherwise he himself would have handed himself over to the king for capital punishment. It should be remembered that even prior to receiving prophethood, the Prophets are completely innocent. In any event, it is criminal for a murderer to escape the death penalty.

54. From this we learn that every supporter of Pharoah was an oppressor in respect of this intention to kill Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), because according to religious law, the death penalty was not obligatory upon him. Also that at times hardship takes a person towards good. Outwardly, Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was running away from the Pharoah, but in truth, he was running towards his Lord as this journey of his proved to be one of success and victory. The company of Hazrat Shuabe, marriage to Bibi Safoorah and receiving prophethood were all bestowed upon Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) on this very journey.

SECTION 3

22. And when he diverted his attention towards Madaian, [55] he said, ' it is near that my Lord may tell me the straight path'. [56]

وَلَمَّا تَوَجَّهَ تِلْقَآءَ مَدْيَنَ قَالَ عَسٰى رَبِّيْٓ اَنْ يَّهْدِيَنِيْ سَوَآءَ السَّبِيْلِ ﴿٢٢﴾

55. Solely due to the guidance of Allah Almighty, because neither was Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) aware about Madain, nor about the road towards it. It should be remembered that Madain is that very place where Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) was staying. This place is about eight days journey from Egypt (during those days). This place was established by Madain bin Ebrahim (On whom be peace) and it was thus known as Madain. This place was outside the jurisdiction of the Pharoah. He was travelling without food or any guide or assistant, surviving on the leaves of trees without knowing where he was going.

56. This tells us that his face was towards Madyan but his heart was towards the Creator of Madyan.

23. And when he came at the water of Madian, [57] there he saw a party of the people are watering their animals, and at the other side of then, he saw two women [58] that they are holding back [59] their animals;

وَلَمَّا وَرَدَ مَآءَ مَدْيَنَ وَجَدَ عَلَيْهِ اُمَّةً مِّنَ النَّاسِ يَسْقُوْنَ ۖ وَ وَجَدَ مِنْ دُوْنِهِمُ امْرَاَتَيْنِ تَذُوْدٰنِ ۚ قَالَ مَا

other was Layya and they were daughters of Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace)

60. Because these people are very strong. When they leave, it would be our turn. From this we learn that in times of need one who is a stranger may speak to the male to fulfill the need. Also, a Prophet is free from evil intention and is protected from it.

61. Thus, he is unable to do the outside work by himself and we do not have any brothers who could do this work. Therefore we have to do it ourselves. This tells us that under difficult circumstances a woman can leave the house to seek employment (Books of Jurisprudence).

فَسَقٰى لَهُمَا ثُمَّ تَوَلّٰٓى اِلَى الظِّلِّ فَقَالَ رَبِّ people to drink and let others drink.

63. Because Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) had not eaten for a whole week the stomach had got very thin. At the house of Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) when he asked the daughters the reason for coming earlier than usual they narrated the whole incident. He asked one daughter to call this person.

فَجَآءَتْهُ اِحْدٰىهُمَا تَمْشِيْ عَلَى اسْتِحْيَآءٍ ۖ قَالَتْ
اِنَّ اَبِيْ يَدْعُوْكَ لِيَجْزِيَكَ اَجْرَ مَا سَقَيْتَ لَنَا ۖ

تَخَفْ ۖ نَجَوْتَ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ ﴿٢٥﴾

25. Then one of the two cam to him walking bashfully [64] and said, 'My farther invites you that he may give you wage for that you have watered our animals' [65]. When Musa came to him and related to him the story [66], he said, ' fear not; you have been rescued from the oppressors'. [67] woman can call a stranger, maintaining

57 That well was out of the town People at fixed times were obtaining water from it They would close its opening with a heavy rock, and go away so that nobody could open it

58 This means far from men, towards the side where Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was standing

59 In their religion, Pardah (use of the veil) was not compulsory, just as it was not obligatory in the beginning of Islam Or out of necessity these maidens were going in their veils to the well to fetch water. From this we learn that if women need to go out due to necessity, then they should remain aloof from men and not become part of the crowd The name of one of these young maidens was Safoorah and the

62 By this is meant that Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) used the second well which was nearby and whose opening was covered by a heavy rock and which was used by the rest of the people who would gather water to provide for themselves after removing the huge rock from it by himself In these wells water would be filled in two days which was used by the modesty and discretion. Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) did not have a son who could do his outside work. For this reason, the daughters had to perform these tasks.

65. Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was not keen to take wages nor was anything fixed in this regard. It was an excuse to meet Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) as well as to find a good companion and a sympathetic comforter which was forcing him to go there. Thus he went with Bibi Safoorah leading the way. Because there was the fear of the wind lifting the clothes from her feet, he told her to walk behind him and continue to give verbal guidance. In this way he reached Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace). Since the food was ready, he extended to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) hospitality telling him that you are our guest and extending hospitality to our guest is an ancient practice of this family. The offer was readily accepted.

66. The murder of the Qibti and the intention of Pharoah to execute the death penalty and Hazrat Moosa's (On whom be peace) departure from there.

67. From this we also learn that the Pharoah was cruel in his intention of executing this penalty, because this penalty was not obligatory upon Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). This place was out of Pharoah's jurisdiction. From this we learn that report by one person or one person's testimony is reliable, because only one daughter had said that our father is calling you which was accepted by Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace).Secondly, at a time of need, it is permissible for a pious and God-fearing person to walk with a strange lady with discretion and piety.

26. One of the two women said [68] 'O my farther'. Employ him'. [69] Undoubtedly, the best employee is he who is strong and trustworthy'. [70]

قَالَتْ اِحْدٰىهُمَا يٰۤاَبَتِ اسْتَاْجِرْهُ ۫ اِنَّ
خَيْرَ مَنِ اسْتَاْجَرْتَ الْقَوِيُّ الْاَمِيْنُ ﴿۲۶﴾

68. The older daughter, Bibi Safoorah who was later married to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace).

69. The Ulama have stated that this choice of the daughters of Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace), the choice of Hazrat Asiyah to adopt Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) as her son, the choice of Hazrat Abu Bakr and Hazrat Umar (May Allah be pleased with them) for caliphate all proved very auspicious and blessed.

70. Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) enquired from Bibi Safoorah that how did you come to know of his strength and trustworthiness? She replied that he lifted the heavy rock alone which could not be lifted by ten men. This is his strength. On seeing me, he lowered his gaze and did not give me permission to walk ahead of him in the road. This is indeed his trust and integrity. Hearing this Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) became very happy to offer him employment.

27. He said, ' I intend that I may marry to you one of two daughters on the condition of such a dower that you may serve me for eight years [71]. But if you complete full ten years, then it will be from your side [72], and I do not desire to put you in hardship [73]. It is near if Allah wills you would find me of the righteous. [74]

71 From this we understand a few issues:
1 Although the sunnat method is that the proposal for marriage should come from the boy, if it comes from the girl's side it too would be acceptable
2 This verse is a proof for the current custom of engagement because in the engagement the promise of marriage takes place, not the marriage
3 In marriage, nomination of boy and girl is necessary while in engagement this is not obligatory
4 One must look for a pious boy for a girl, not so much a wealthy boy Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was a traveller not a wealthy person but after seeing his religious disposition Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) gave his daughter in marriage
5 To stipulate conditions for marriage is permissible Thus eight years of employment was not the dowry but a marriage condition. Therefore he said 'work for me' The dowry is the property of the wife, not of the father
Dowry can only be in terms of wealth Says Allah Almighty "Seek them in exchange of your properties" (S4 V24) Allah Almighty further says "And give the women their dowries willingly" (S4 V4) Give the dowries to the women themselves 72 This means I would be grateful to you. This condition is not from me The great Sufis state "Outwardly, Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was kept to do the duty of a shepherd, but in truth the purpose was to keep him under his blessed companionship, to give him prophetic training. How true are the words of Dr Iqbal: "If you find a true guide like Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace), you would reach Allah Almighty without much difficulty. Therefore this verse is strong proof of period of forty day seclusion at the tomb of a saint or staying in service in the house of your religious guide.
73. So that I can make ten years obligatory upon you. (Statement of Ulama) The purpose is not to burden you by keeping you at my house, but the actual purpose is to make someone out of you. Keep you as a shepherd is just an excuse (Statement of Saints).
74 Thus, the promise I am making to you I shall fulfill (Statement of Ulama) or thus by staying by me you shall become pious i.e. become worthy of being a Prophet of Allah Almighty. The company of a pious makes you pious. "If you want your good fortune to brighten like the Light, then spend your nights in the company of the pious". From this we learn that for the expression for the bounty of Allah Almighty, it is permissible to describe your own virtues. Also do not place much trust on what you say but rather rely on Allah Almighty. Therefore Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) said. "If Allah Almighty wills".

قَالَ ذٰلِكَ بَيْنِيْ وَ بَيْنَكَ ؕ اَيَّمَا
الْاَجَلَيْنِ قَضَيْتُ فَلَا عُدْوَانَ عَلَيَّ ؕ
وَاللّٰهُ عَلٰى مَا نَقُوْلُ وَكِيْلٌ ۝

28. Musa said, ' this has been agreed between me and you, Whichever of the two terms, I fulfil, then there is no demand [75] against me. And Allah is responsible over what we say'. [76]

75 This means that as per my promise I am fully responsible for eight years, but I am not responsible for the remaining two years That will depend on my wishes
76 Thus, neither of us will break our promise because we have given surety of Allah Almighty Thereafter, Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) said to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) Go in to the room, there are kept many sticks. From these, take one stick The stick which came in the hands of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) for looking after the grazing sheep, was the same walking stick which Hazrat Adam (On whom be peace) had brought from Paradise and which had passed from generation to generation and had come to Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace)(Tafseer Roohul Ma'ani and Khazainul Irfaan).

Then, within that period Hazrat Shuabe (On whom be peace) got his elder daughter Safoorah married to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace), who completed the employment period of ten years. Thereafter, there came a desire in his heart to visit his mother, brother and sister. He was under the impression that by now the people of Pharoah must have forgotten the incident of the killing of the Qibti.

SECTION 4

فَلَمَّا قَضٰى مُوْسَى الْاَجَلَ وَسَارَ
بِاَهْلِهٖٓ اٰنَسَ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّوْرِ نَارًا ۚ
قَالَ لِاَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوْٓا اِنِّيْٓ اٰنَسْتُ نَارًا
لَّعَلِّيْٓ اٰتِيْكُمْ مِّنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ اَوْ جَذْوَةٍ مِّنَ
النَّارِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُوْنَ ﴿٢٩﴾

29. When Musa fulfilled his term and departed with his wife [77], he observed a fire [78] from the side of the Tur (mountain) He said to his household, ' stay you here, I have observed a fire [79] from the side of Tur, perhaps I may bring you some news from there [80], or I may bring to you any brand from the fire that you may warm yourself [81].

77. From this we understand that a wife is called household member because at that point in time Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was accompanied by his wife only. Thus, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم beloved wives are included AHLE BAIT.

78. One night while he was travelling, it became dark and very cold. Due to this, he lost direction. The blessed wife was going through labour pains. In this anxious state, he suddenly saw fire glowing from a far. This jungle was called the Valley of Tawa and this fire was appearing from the direction of Mt. Sinai.

79. He did not take his beloved wife with him because in that condition she was not fit for walking. Allah be Praised! It was the wish of his Lord to call Allah's interlocutor i.e.Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) alone so that He could talk to Kaleemullah in total privacy.

80. Road light or light of some nearby settlement, because there may be someone at the fire side. What if there was fire only and no person.

81. This tells us that fire from the jungle can be taken without seeking anyone's permission, because fire is an insignificant thing and no one will refuse to give it.

فَلَمَّآ اَتٰىهَا نُوْدِيَ مِنْ شَاطِئِ الْوَادِ

30. Then when he came to it [82], a call was made from the right side of the valley in the blesses side, out of the tree [83], ' O Musa, I am, I am Allah [84], the Lord of the entire world' [85].

82. When he arrived there Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) saw light instead of fire which was appearing from a jujube tree which is a dark red colour. The tree was in its correct state and shape - it was neither burning, nor was any smoke emanating from it.

83. This was either a jujube, berry, acacia tree, olive tree, or aloe tree which is called weeping willow. It is also known as Jewish tree which is accorded great respect by the Jews. (Roohul Bayaan)

84. This tree was not talking, but Allah Almighty was speaking this. The tree was the communicator of this speech. Likewise, those Saints who had uttered 'I am Allah' were not speaking this by themselves. The speaker was

Marfat.com

Allah Almighty, while they were the communicators. Hazrat Maulana Rumi says in his Mathanawi When the utterance 'I am Allah' is permissible from a tree. Then when a blessed saint utters the words 'I am Allah' then why is that not acceptable

85. This speech of Allah Almighty was spoken to Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) directly and not through the angels. It is for this reason that his title is Allah's interlocutor

i.e. that Prophet who would speak to Allah Almighty directly. Although our Holy Prophet (On whom be peace) had spoken to Allah Almighty on the Night of Me'raj "Now He revealed to His bondsman whatever He revealed" (S53:V10), and He had blessed him with His vision". The heart lied not what he saw". (S53:V11), but since this was in a different world, his title was not KALEEMU'LLAH.

31. And cast down your staff. Then when Musa saw it wriggling as it were a serpent [86], he set out turning his back and did not look behind [87]. O Musa', come before and ear not, undoubtedly, you are secure. [88]

وَاَنْ اَلْقِ عَصَاكَ ؕ فَلَمَّا رَاٰهَا تَهْتَزُّ كَاَنَّهَا
جَآنٌّ وَّلّٰى مُدْبِرًا وَّ لَمْ يُعَقِّبْ ؕ يٰمُوْسٰٓى
اَقْبِلْ وَلَا تَخَفْ ۫ اِنَّكَ مِنَ الْاٰمِنِيْنَ ۝

86 In physique it was as huge as a python, but in speed and writhing movement, it was like a thin snake For this reason it was perhaps called a snake Otherwise, the walking stick had in reality turned into a snake, it was not an optical illusion Thus, there is no inconsistency in the verse

87 Out of fear for the snake This fear was on the basis of harm and disposition. This verse is not contradicting verse sixty two of Surah Ten

88. Here as well as in the presence of the Pharoah, at the time of death as well as on the Day of Judgement. In short, this sentence is appropriate for this world and the Hereafter because it is an expression for all times.

32. Put your hand on your bosom, it will come out white shining without defect [89], and put your hand on your chest for removing the fear [90]. So these are the two arguments of your Lord [91] toward Firawn and his chiefs. Undoubtedly, they are disobedient people. [92]

اُسْلُكْ يَدَكَ فِيْ جَيْبِكَ تَخْرُجْ بَيْضَآءَ
مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوْٓءٍ ۫ وَّ اضْمُمْ اِلَيْكَ جَنَاحَكَ
مِنَ الرَّهْبِ فَذٰنِكَ بُرْهَانٰنِ مِنْ رَّبِّكَ
اِلٰى فِرْعَوْنَ وَ مَلَا۟ئِهٖ ؕ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا
قَوْمًا فٰسِقِيْنَ ۝

89 It means this whiteness of the hand, leucoderma, etc will not be due to any disease, but will appear in the form of a miracle. It should be remembered that his hand was not only white, it was shining brightly like the sun. Therefore, the adjective used here is 'shining white' and not 'white'. Also, this miracle was reflected in the right hand only and not in both the hands Hence, the singular form i.e. your hand is used

90. This means in future whenever you become frightened then place your hand on the chest. This practice is a proven remedy even today, or place your hand on the chest to get rid of the fear of the snake, or place this shining hand on the chest so that it can assume its original form, and this fear that has been caused by this brightness can then disappear. However, the first explanation lends greater weight.

Marfat.com

91. From this we learn that at the present moment just two miracles have been bestowed. Later, seven more miracles had been added i.e. the coming of punishment on the Pharoah, in the form of blood, lice, frogs, etc. Thus, there is no inconsistency in this verse and the one in which nine miracles are mentioned.

92. Although Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) was a Prophet to both the Pharoah and his people, as well as to the Israelites, these Israelites were under the clutches of the Pharoah: Had he not gone astray the courtiers, too, would have been saved. Therefore, this has been mentioned here specifically. The subject which follows also applies to these courtiers i.e. these people are tyrants and wicked.

33. He said, ' I have killed a person from among them, I therefore, fear that they may kill me. [93]

قَالَ رَبِّ اِنِّیۡ قَتَلۡتُ مِنۡهُمۡ نَفۡسًا فَاَخَافُ اَنۡ یَّقۡتُلُوۡنِ ﴿۳۳﴾

93. It should be remembered that the Prophet as well as the Saint does not have fear of obedience of anyone besides Allah Almighty. But they can experience fear of harm which creates dislike. The fear that Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) had for Pharoah was one of harm, i.e. he could cause harm to him, but not one of obedience to the wicked king. Hence, there is no inconsistency in the verse.

34. And my brother Haroon, he is more eloquent is speech 94 than me, therefore appoint him a Messenger 95 for my help that he may confirm me, I fear that they will belie me [96].

وَ اَخِیۡ هٰرُوۡنُ هُوَ اَفۡصَحُ مِنِّیۡ لِسَانًا فَاَرۡسِلۡهُ مَعِیَ رِدۡاً یُّصَدِّقُنِیۡۤ ۫ اِنِّیۡۤ اَخَافُ اَنۡ یُّکَذِّبُوۡنِ ﴿۳۴﴾

94. Hazrat Haroon was the elder brother of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace) would stammer because in his childhood he had placed a piece of burning coal in his mouth while he was staying with Pharoah.

95. From this we come to know a few issues:

1. To seek assistance from the servants of Allah Almighty is the way of the Prophets and not an act of polytheism.
2. Through the prayer of the pious you can obtain those bounties which would not be possible to obtain from there. Observe, the prophethood of Hazrat Haroon (On whom be peace) is due to the prayer of Hazrat Moosa (On whom be peace). No one can obtain prophethood through his pious deeds.
3. In matters of Divine works one can seek the assistance of His servants. Says Allah Almighty: "And help each other in righteousness and piety" (S6:V2).(S5 : V2)
4. Through the Dua of the pious some have been bestowed with prophethood. Thus, even today one can obtain sainthood, knowledge, children, kingdom, etc. through the kind prayers of the pious. Also, this helps to establish and reveal the sublime status of our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم i.e. he is the Prophet of the entire universe, yet he has no brother nor the support of any other power.

96. "And when I have to debate with them, my tongue will prove an obstacle for me". From this we learn that the power of the tongue is a greaty bounty from Allah Almighty; if it is controlled by piety, but without piety it is a form of punishment for that person. Its evil use has been mentioned in the Hadith Shareef.

35. He said, ' It is near that We shall strength your arm with your brother[97] and shall give you both

قَالَ سَنَشُدُّ عَضُدَكَ بِاَخِیۡكَ وَنَجۡعَلُ لَّکُمَا سُلۡطٰنًا فَلَا یَصِلُوۡنَ اِلَیۡکُمَا ۚ kingdom and Caliphate with prophethood.

99. This means that they would not be able to cause any harm to you due to this walking stick and the shining hand. This tells us that keeping resources with you is not against the concept of trust in Allah Almighty.
